Appendix CC–M–2

Sizing and Capacities of Gas Piping

In order to determine the size of piping to be used in designing a gas piping system, the following factors must be considered:

(1) Allowable loss in pressure from the commercial coach gas supply connection to appliance.

(2) Maximum gas consumption to be provided.

(3) Length of piping and number of fittings.

(4) Specific gravity of the gas.

(5) Diversity factor.

DESCRIPTION OF TABLES

(a) The quantity of gas to be provided at each outlet shall be determined directly from the manufacturer's Btu input rating of the appliance that will be installed.

(b) Capacities for gas at low pressures (0.5 psig or less) in thousands of BTUH of 0.60 specific gravity gas for different sizes and lengths are shown in Table CC–M–3 for iron pipe or equivalent rigid pipe and for semirigid tubing. Table CC–M–3 is based upon a pressure drop of 0.5 inch water column. In using these Tables no additional allowance is necessary for an ordinary number of fittings.

(c) Capacities in thousands of Btu per hour of undiluted liquefied petroleum gases based on a pressure drop of 0.5 inch water column for different sizes and lengths are shown in Table CC–M–3 for iron pipe or equivalent rigid pipe and for semirigid tubing. In using these Tables, no additional allowance is necessary for an ordinary number of fittings.

(d) For any gas piping system, for special gas appliances or for conditions other than those covered by Table CC–M–3 such as longer runs, greater gas demands, or greater pressure drops, the size of each gas piping system shall be determined by standard engineering methods acceptable to the department.

USE OF CAPACITY TABLES

To determine the size of each section of gas piping in a system within the range of the capacity tables, proceed as follows:

(a) Determine the gas demand of each appliance to be attached to the piping system. When Table CC–M–3 is to be used to select the piping size, calculate the gas demand in terms of thousands of BTUH for each piping system outlet.

(b) Measure the length of piping from the gas supply connection, to the most remote outlet in the commercial coach.

(c) In the appropriate capacity table, select the column showing the measured length or the next longer length if the table does not give the exact length. This is the only length used in determining the size of any section of gas piping.

(d) Use this same vertical column to locate all gas demand figures for this particular system of piping.

(f) Opposite this demand figure, in the first column at the left, will be found the correct size of gas piping.

(g) Using this same vertical column, proceed in a similar manner for each outlet and each section of gas piping. For each section of piping, determine the total gas demand supplied by that section. Where gas piping sections serve both heating and cooling equipment and the installation prevents both units from operating simultaneously, only the larger of the two demand loads need be used in sizing these sections.

EXAMPLE OF PIPING SYSTEM DESIGN:

Determine the required pipe size of each section and outlet of the piping system shown in Exhibit 1, with a designated pressure drop of 0.05 inch water column.

SOLUTION

(1) The length of pipe from the gas supply inlet to the most remote outlet (a) is 60 feet. This is the only distance used.

(2) Using the column marked 60 feet in the Table:

Outlet A, supplying 30,000 BTUH, requires 3/8″ iron pipe.

Outlet B, supplying 3,000 BTUH, requires 1/4″ iron pipe.

Section 1, supplying outlets A and B, or 33,000 BTUH, requires 3/8″ iron pipe.

Outlet C, supplying 73,000 BTUH, requires 3/4″ iron pipe

Section 2, supplying outlets A, B, and C, or 106,000 BTUH, requires 3/4″ iron pipe.

Outlet D, supplying 136,000 BTUH requires 3/4 inch pipe.

Section 3, supplying outlets A, B, C, and D, or 242,000 BTUH, requires 1″ iron pipe.

Subarticle 4. Plumbing

§ 4514. Application and Scope.

The provisions of this article relating to plumbing equipment and installations apply to all commercial coaches manufactured after November 23, 1970, and sold, offered for sale, rented, or leased within this State. The provisions of this article are also applicable to the alteration or conversion of plumbing equipment and installations in any commercial coach bearing or required to bear a department insignia of approval.

(a) Standards for Equipment and Installations. Standards for equipment and installations are listed in Appendix CC–P. Equipment and installations conforming to these standards or to other standards approved by the department shall be considered acceptable when listed or labeled and installed in accordance with the requirements of this article and the conditions of their approval except where otherwise provided in this article.

(b) Plumbing Standards. Plumbing fixtures, equipment, and installations in or on a commercial coach shall conform to the applicable requirements of the Uniform Plumbing Code, 1979 edition, as published by the International Association of Plumbing and Mechanical Officials, except as otherwise provided by this article.

(c) The following provisions of the Uniform Plumbing Code, 1976 edition, are not adopted: Part 1, Chapter 1, Sections 102(f)(g), 103(k)(l)(m)(n), 104(a)(c), 105(a)(e)(f), 106(b), 109(d)(e), 113(a)(c)(d)(f), 114(b)(d)(e), 117(b)(e)(i)(j)(l), 120(a)(b)(c)(e)(f), 124(d)(e)(f), 201, 301, 302, 303, 304, 305, 306, 307, 313, 314, 317, 319, 320, 321, 322, 401, 503, 506, 701, 704, 705, 910, 1001, 1004, Chapters 11, 12 and 13, Appendices D, E, G, and I.

Definitions contained in the Health and Safety Code, Division 13, Part 2, (commencing with Section 18000) and the following definitions shall apply to this Article.

Body Waste. The discharge from any fixtures, appliance or appurtenance containing fecal matter or urine.

CPVC. Chlorinated Polyvinyl chloride.

Drain. Any pipe which carries waste or waterborn wastes in a vehicle drainage system.

Drain Outlet. The discharge end of the vehicle main drain.

Drainage System. Includes all the piping within or attached to the structure which conveys sewage or other liquid wastes to the drain outlet(s).

Main Drain. The principal artery of the vehicle drainage system to which drainage branches may be connected.

PB. Polybutylene.

Toilet—Mechanical Seal. A toilet designed with a water flushing device and mechanical sealed trap.

Toilet—Recirculating Chemical. A self-contained toilet in which waste is recirculated and chemically treated.

Uniform Plumbing Code—UPC. The 1979 edition as published by the International Association of Plumbing and Mechanical Officials.

Waste Holding Tank. A liquid tight tank for the temporary retention of body and/or liquid waste.

Water Distribution System. The potable water piping within or attached to the vehicle.

Water Supply Connection. The fitting or point of connection in the vehicle water distribution system designed for connection to a water supply.

Water Storage Tank. A tank designed for the purpose of storing potable water.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 18020, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 18055, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 9-7-73; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 73, No. 36).
2. Amendment filed 6-9-77; designated effective 9-1-77 (Register 77, No. 24).
3. Amendment filed 12-7-79; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 79, No. 49).

§ 4516. Drainage Systems.

The drainage system shall be designed to provide an adequate circulation of air in all piping without danger of siphonage, aspiration or forcing of trap seals under condition of ordinary use.

(a) Materials. Drainage pipe shall be cast iron, galvanized steel, galvanized wrought iron, lead, brass, copper tube DWV, ABS plastic or other listed materials.

(b) Fittings. Drainage fittings shall be cast iron, malleable iron, lead, brass, copper DWV, ABS plastic or other listed materials having a recessed drainage pattern with smooth interior waterways of the same diameter as the piping and of a material conforming to the type of piping used.

NOTE: ABS drainage pipe and fittings shall only be used in vehicles with plumbing fixtures designed for domestic sewage.

(c) Drain Outlets.

(a) Except as provided in this article, each vehicle equipped with plumbing fixtures or equipment shall have at least one drain outlet which shall terminate within 18 inches of the outside wall of the vehicle.

(d) Cap or Plug. Drain outlets shall be equipped with a watertight cap or plug which shall be permanently attached to the vehicle.

(e) Clearance from Drain Outlet. The drain outlet and couplers shall be provided with a minimum clearance of three inches in any direction from all parts of the structure or appurtenances and with not less than 18 inches unrestricted clearance directly in front of the drain outlet.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 18020, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 18055, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 9-7-73; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 73, No. 36).

3. Amendment filed 12-7-79; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 79, No. 49).

§ 4516.5. Vents and Venting.

(a) Materials. Vent pipe shall be cast iron, galvanized steel, galvanized wrought iron, lead, copper DWV, brass, ABS plastic, or other listed materials.

(b) Fittings. Vent fittings shall be cast iron, galvanized malleable iron or galvanized steel, lead, copper DWV, brass, ABS plastic, or other listed materials.

(c) Changes in direction of vent piping shall be made by the appropriate use of approved fittings and no such pipe shall be strained or bent. Burred ends shall be reamed to the full bore of the pipe.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 12-7-79; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 79, No. 49).

§ 4517. Traps Required.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in these regulations, each plumbing fixture, excepting those having integral traps, shall be separately trapped by an approved type water seal trap.

(b) It is provided, however, that one (1) trap may serve a set of not more than three (3) single compartment sinks or laundry tubs of the same depth or three (3) lavatories immediately adjacent to each other and in the same room, if the waste outlets are not more than thirty (30) inches apart and the trap is centrally located when three (3) compartments are installed. The depth requirement may be waived in the case of approved type pump discharged fixtures or appliances.

(c) No food waste disposal unit shall be installed with any set of restaurant, commercial or industrial sinks served by a single trap; each such food waste disposal unit shall be connected to a separate trap. Each domestic clothes-washer and each laundry tub shall be connected to a separate and independent trap; except that a trap serving a laundry tub may also receive the waste from a clotheswasher set adjacent thereto. No clotheswasher or laundry tub shall be connected to any trap for a kitchen sink.

(d) The vertical distance between a fixture outlet and the trap weir shall be as short as practicable, but in no case shall the tail piece from any fixture exceed twenty-four (24) inches in length.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 18020, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 18055, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 6-9-77; designated effective 9-1-77 (Register 77, No. 24).
2. Amendment filed 12-7-79; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 79, No. 49).

§ 4517.3. Traps Prohibited.

A trap that depends on concealed interior partitions for its seal, full 'S' traps, bell traps, and crown-vented traps are prohibited. No fixture shall be double trapped. Drum traps may be installed only when approved by the department for special conditions. No drum trap shall be installed without a vent.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 12-7-79; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 79, No. 49).

§ 4517.5. Trap Seals.

Each 'P' trap shall have a water seal of not less than two (2) inches and not more than four (4) inches, except where a deeper seal is necessary for special conditions. Traps shall be set true with respect to their water seals and where necessary they shall be protected from freezing.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 18020, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 18055, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 12-7-79; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 79, No. 49).

§ 4517.7. Plumbing Fixtures.

Plumbing fixtures shall have smooth impervious surfaces, be free from defects and concealed fouling surfaces, capable of resisting road shock and vibration and shall conform to nationally recognized applicable standards or other approved standards.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 18020, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 18055, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 12-7-79; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 79, No. 49).

§ 4517.8. Waste Holding Tanks.

Waste holding tanks installed in plumbing systems shall comply with the following:

(a) Tanks shall be listed to approved standards and securely installed in a location to be removable for service, repair or replacement without the necessity of removing permanent, structural, mechanical or electrical equipment.

(b) Minimum size of inlet connections shall be determined by the total number of fixtures to be connected to the tank.

Toilet connections shall be 3–inch minimum pipe size and shall extend vertically. The inlet fitting shall not extend downward into the tank more than 1 1/2 inches (38 mm). The toilet connection shall be designed to receive or conform to an approved shape closet flange of standard dimensions or other approved fitting.

(c) Body waste holding tank drain opening shall be a minimum 3–inch pipe size. Liquid waste holding tank drain opening shall be a minimum 1 1/2 inch pipe size. Drain openings shall be located at the lowest point in the tank.

A listed fullway valve shall be directly connected to the tank or installed in the drain pipe of the tank within 36 inches (915 mm) of the drain outlet.

(d) The tank shall be vented at the highest point in the top of the tank by one of the following methods:

(1) A 1 1/4 inch minimum diameter individual vent pipe extending undiminished in size through the roof.

(2) A wet vent serving as a drain provided the drain portion is increased one pipe size larger than the connected trap arm.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 18020, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 18055, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 12–7–79; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 79, No. 49).

§ 4518. Water Distribution System.

Piping systems shall be sized to provide an adequate quantity of water to each plumbing fixture at a flow rate sufficient to keep the fixture in a clean and sanitary condition without any danger of backflow or siphonage.

(a) Materials. Water pipe and fittings shall be of brass, copper, cast iron, galvanized malleable iron, galvanized wrought iron, galvanized steel, chlorinated polyvinyl chloride, polybutylene or other material listed for hot and cold water distribution systems.

(b) Used Material. Piping and tubing which has previously been used for any purpose other than for potable water systems shall not be used.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 18020, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 18055, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 12–7–79; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 79, No. 49).
2. Correction of 12–7–79 order filed 12–13–79; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 79, No. 49).

§ 4519. Water Supply Connections.

(a) Each commercial coach equipped with a water distribution system designed for connection to an outside source shall have a water–supply connection which shall terminate within 18 inches of the outside wall of the vehicle.

(b) Cap or Plug. Water–supply connections shall be equipped with a watertight cap or plug which shall be permanently attached to the vehicle.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 18020, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 18055, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 12–7–79; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 79, No. 49).

§ 4522. Potable Water Storage Tanks.

Potable water storage tanks installed in plumbing systems shall comply with the following:

(a) Tanks shall be listed to approved standards and installed in a location to be removable for service, repair or replacement without the necessity of removing permanent structural, mechanical or electrical equipment. Where the tank is installed in such a manner that it may be subject to road damage it shall be provided with mechanical protection.

(b) Non–pressure gravity tanks shall be equipped with a vent at the top of the tank. Vents and overflow pipe openings shall be protected from the entrance of dirt, insects and other contamination.

(c) Potable water storage tanks designed to be pressurized, shall be equipped with a listed air pressure relief valve set to open at not more than 125 psig (862 KPA) or in accordance with the tank manufacturer's instructions.

Wall Surfacing for Tub and Shower Enclosures

I. Material: The wall covering material must have an exposed surface that is impervious to water; the substrate material must be resistant to deterioration from exposure to high humidity and temporary water leakage.

A. Strength: The complete wall assembly, including the wall covering substrate, shall be capable of withstanding a uniform load of five pounds per square foot applied perpendicular to the surface. The deflection, under load, shall not exceed 1/180 of the wall, for the assembly; or 1/240 the distance between framing members, for the wall covering substrate.

B. Surface Finish: The exposed surface must meet the minimum requirements of the American Hardboard Association PS59–73, Prefinished Hardboard Paneling, Class 1, as certified by the panel manufacturer.

C. Size: The minimum thickness of the material shall be 1/8" nominal. The width to be sufficient to give continuous unbroken surface from corner to corner, or end of tub in corner installation, in an installation incorporating a shower, the unbroken surface must continue to a height of at least 6' above the floor of the shower.

D. Type: The substrate material shall alsomeet the requirements of the appropriate standard listed below:

(1) Hardboard: of high strength and water resistance to meet Commercial Standard CS–251–63, or AHA PS 58–73, either standard or tempered.

(2) Softwood Plywood: must meet U.S. Product Standard P.S. 1–66 including exterior type glue line and grade A face veneer"suitable for painting."

(3) Hardwood Plywood: must meet CA–35–61 Type II glue line and sound grade face veneer.

(4) Other Materials: not meeting D–1, D–2, D–3 above, shall meet the requirements of this code and their appropriate Product Standard, Industry Standard, Commercial Standard, of Federal Specification.

II. Installation: The material must be installed in conformance with this code and the application instructions provided by the material manufacturer. In case of conflict, this regulation shall take precedence.

A. Framing: Wood framing shall be spaced not more than 16" o.c. Blocking shall be 1" x 3" or equal, installed horizontally at height to match rim of the tub or shower pan. All corners shall have sufficient framing members for attachment of corner moldings.

B. Fastening: All edges and ends of panel shall occur on framing members. Panels shall be applied to wood framing members using water resistant, non–hard setting adhesive. Adhesive shall be applied to the face of all framing members except locations where panel edges fall beneath applied moldings. Panels may also be applied over solid backing using an adhesive.

NOTE: Fasteners, if necessary, shall be used only in locations where they will be covered by applied moldings, and shall be used on not more than two adjacent edges. No other interior fasteners, or fixtures, other than required functional plumbing fixtures shall penetrate the face of the panel. Openings for these plumbing fixtures must be sealed with caulk.

C. Corners and Edges: All corners and edges must be caulked or sealed against moisture penetration. A non-hard setting sealant material must be used with applied moldings. Fastening of moldings to framing shall not be greater than 6″ o.c.

Article 3.5. Special Purpose Commercial Coaches

§ 4525. Application and Scope.

(a) The provisions of this article relating to construction and fire safety apply to all special purpose commercial coaches, manufactured after September 1, 1979, which are sold or offered for sale, rented or leased within this state.

(b) The provisions of this article relating to construction and fire safety apply to the alteration or conversion of any construction or fire safety equipment or installations in any special purpose commercial coach bearing or required to bear a department insignia of approval.

(c) The provisions of this article relating to construction and fire safety apply to the alteration, conversion, addition or change in occupancy of any construction and fire safety equipment or installations of any special purpose commercial coach as defined in this article.

(d) In addition to the provisions of this article, the provisions of the California Administrative Code, Title 17, Chapter 5, Subchapter 2, Group 1, Article 10, apply to Mobile Food Preparation Units.

Where a person proposes to sell, offer for sale, rent or lease a special purpose commercial coach designed as a mobile food preparation unit, manufactured after the effective date of this article, or where a department insignia of approval has not been issued, it will be necessary that such person obtain written certification from the appropriate local Health Department or State Department of Health, indicating that the special purpose commercial coach complies with the applicable provisions of the California Administrative Code, Title 17, Subchapter 2, Group 1, Article 10 relating to mobile food preparation units.

HISTORY

1. Renumbering and amendment consolidating Section 4526 with Section 4004 filed 10-6-88 as an emergency; operative 10-6-88 (Register 88, No. 42). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 2-3-89.
2. The Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 1-31-89 was disapproved. Order of Repeal of 10-6-88 emergency order filed 3-2-89 by OAL pursuant to Government Code Section 11349.6 (Register 89, No. 11).
3. Renumbering and amendment consolidating Section 4652 with Section 4004 filed 3-3-89 as an emergency; operative 3-3-89 (Register 89, No. 11). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days, by 7-3-89, or emergency language will be repealed.
4. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 6-29-89 and filed 7-24-89 (Register 89, No. 32).

§ 4527. Fire Safety.

Multipurpose passenger vehicles, are subject to Federal Standards under the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1966 are exempt from the requirements of these regulations relating to interior finish flame spread limitations.

(a) Each special purpose commercial coach shall have a minimum of two exits located remote from each other and so arranged as to provide a means of unobstructed travel to the outside of the vehicle.

(b) The alternate means of egress shall be located in the side opposite the main exit door, or the roof, or the rear of the vehicle, with unobstructed passage of 24″ x 24″ (61 cm x 61 cm) minimum opening to the outside.

(c) The bottom of the alternate means of egress shall not be more than four (4) feet above the vehicle floor or above a readily accessible horizontal surface capable of supporting a weight of 300 pounds.

(d) The latch mechanism of any exit facility shall be operable by hand, and shall not require the use of a key or special tool or key for operation from the inside.

(e) Alternate exits, other than standard doors, shall be labeled with the word "EXIT" with 1″ (2.54 cm) minimum letters on a contrasting background.

§ 4529. Ceiling Height.

Each special purpose vehicle shall have a minimum ceiling height of 74 inches.

§ 4530. Room Dimensions and Construction.

(a) There shall be a clear, unobstructed height over the aisle-way portion of the unit of at least 74 inches (188 cm) from floor to ceiling, and a minimum of 30 inches (76 cm) of unobstructed horizontal aisle space.

(b) Floors, walls, and ceiling of mobile food preparation units shall be constructed so that the surfaces are durable, impervious, smooth and easily cleanable. The juncture of the floors and walls shall be covered with the floor surface extending up the wall at least 4 inches (10 cm).

(c) Construction joints and seams of mobile food preparation units shall be sealed to provide durable, smooth and easily cleanable surfaces. Soldered joints and seams shall be smooth to the touch. Silicone sealant or equivalent waterproof compounds shall be acceptable for sealing narrow seams or crevices which are 1/8 inch (3 mm) or less in width, providing they are properly applied and they prevent the entrance of liquid or vermin.

§ 4531. Glass and Glazed Openings.

The provisions of Article 3, Division 1, Section 4371 shall apply to glass and glazing in all special purpose vehicles.

§ 4532. Electrical.

The provisions of Article 3, Division 2, of this subchapter, and the following shall apply to electrical equipment and installations of all special purpose commercial coaches.

(a) All 115–220 volt electrical wiring in mobile food preparation units shall be installed in listed electrical conduit.

(b) All ceiling light fixtures in mobile food preparation units shall be recessed or flush mounted and sealed and have approved safety covers. The minimum clearance from the floor to the light fixture shall be at least 74 inches (188 cm) or the fixture shall be installed out of the traffic aisle or work area.

The provisions of Article 3, Division 3, of this subchapter, shall apply to mechanical equipment and installations of all special purpose commercial coaches.

§ 4534. Plumbing.

The provisions of Article 3, Division 4, and the following shall apply to plumbing equipment and installations of all special purpose commercial coaches:

(a) At least a two–compartment metal sink equipped with hot and cold running water with dual integral metal drainboards, installed with at least 1:100 slope toward the sink, and fabricated with a minimum 1/2 inch (12.7 mm) lip or rim to prevent the draining liquid from spilling onto the floor shall be provided in each mobile food preparation unit. The dimensions of each compartment shall be at least 12 inches (30.5 cm) wide, 30.5 cm (12 inches) long, and 9 inches (22.9 cm) deep. Each drainboard shall be at least the size of the adjacent sink compartments.

If multi–use eating and drinking utensils are used, the sink shall have three compartments.

The sink shall be equipped with a mixing faucet and shall be provided with a swivel spigot capable of servicing any sink compartment.

(b) Hand washing facilities, including a lavatory supplied with hot and cold running water with a mixing type faucet, hand washing cleanser and single–service towels in permanently installed dispensers shall be provided and maintained in each mobile food preparation unit. The lavatory basin shall have a minimum dimensions of 9″ x 9″ or (22.9 cm x 22.9 cm) and 5″ (12.7 cm) in depth. The hand washing facilities shall be separated from the utensil washing sinks by a metal guard, with a height of at least 3″ (76 mm) extending from the back edge of the drainboard to the front edge of the drainboard. The corners of the barrier shall be rounded. No separation barrier is required if the distance between the hand washing sink and the utensil drainboards is at least 2′ (61 cm).

(c) An adequate quantity of potable water for food preparation, cleaning and handwashing purposes shall be provided in all mobile food preparation units by either an approved self–contained water supply tank having a minimum capacity of 30 gallons (114 liters) or an approved water system hook–up. Hose connection valves shall be at least 5′ (1.5 meters) above the ground and be kept covered with a protective screw–type cap which is attached to the vehicle. The hose connection shall consist of a quick–disconnect device which is compatible with a complementary device installed on the potable water hose(s) at the point of supply.

The water system shall be of such materials and designed and constructed so water or air can be introduced without the water becoming contaminated. The water system shall deliver at least one gallon (4 liters) per minute to each sink basin in the unit.

(d) A water heater with a minimum capacity of 3 gallons (11 liters) or an instantaneous heater capable of producing water of 120° Fahrenheit (49 celsius) interconnected with the potable water supply, shall be provided in all mobile food preparation units and shall operate independently of the vehicle engine and/or generator. Hot and cold water, under pressure, shall be provided at hand washing and utensil sinks from mixing faucets.

(e) All liquid (including melting ice water) waste systems in mobile food preparation units shall be connected to an approved liquid waste tank with a minimum capacity of 45 gallons (170 liters) or shall be designed to be connected to a sewage disposal system.

(f) All tanks, lines, couplings, valves, or any other plumbing in mobile food preparation units shall be designed, installed, maintained, and constructed of materials that will not contaminate the water supply, food, utensils, or equipment.

(g) Water and waste storage tanks in mobile food preparation units shall be installed so as to be easily drained, flushed, and cleaned with an easily accessible outlet. Breather tubes or overflow pipe openings shall be protected from the entrance of dust, insects, and other contamination. All waste lines shall be connected to the waste tank with watertight seals.

Mechanical exhaust ventilation equipment shall be provided over all cooking equipment to remove cooking odors, smoke, steam, grease and vapors. The ventilation shall be adequate to provide a reasonable condition of comfort for employees. Grease filters or other means of grease extraction are required and shall be of steel construction, or other approved material, and shall be readily accessible for cleaning. Every joint and seam shall be substantially tight. No solder shall be used, except for sealing a joint or seam. Every hood shall be so designed and installed to provide for thorough cleaning of the entire hood. When grease gutters are provided they shall drain to a collecting receptacle fabricated, designed, and installed to be readily accessible for cleaning. All ducts in the exhaust system shall have a slope of at least 1:6. All seams in this duct work shall be substantially tight to prevent the accumulation of grease. The ducts shall have sufficient clean–outs to make them readily accessible for cleaning. Make–up air shall be provided at the rate of that exhausted. It may be accomplished from screened service openings, screened vents in the ceiling, or mechanically through an air–conditioning system, but not through open doors or openable windows.

All equipment installed in mobile food preparation units shall comply with the following:

(a) Compressor units that are not an integral part of equipment, auxiliary engines, generators, batteries, battery chargers, gas fueled water heaters, and similar equipment shall be installed so as to be accessible only from the outside of the vehicle to provide for proper interior vehicle cleaning, maintenance, and safety.

(b) All equipment shall be so installed as to be easily cleaned, prevent vermin harborage and provide adequate access for service and maintenance. Equipment shall be spaced apart for easy cleaning or shall be sealed together. Food service equipment which is set apart from adjacent equipment and counters, shelves, walls, panels, or cabinets shall have at least 10 cm (4 inches) of unobstructed space between the equipment and adjacent surfaces. Round metal equipment legs of a sanitary design and at least 10 cm (4 inches) high shall be provided on elevated counter equipment. Food service equipment shall be secured so as to prevent undue movement during transit.

(c) All equipment shall be sealed to the floor with a metal covered base to prevent moisture from getting under the equipment or it shall be raised at least 6 inches (15 cm) off the floor by means of an easily cleanable round metal leg and foot.

(d) Equipment, including the interior of cabinet units or compartments, shall be constructed so as to have smooth, easily accessible, and easily cleanable surfaces (free from channels, crevices, flanges, ledges, sharp or jagged edges, or other cleaning obstructions). Unfinished wooden surfaces are not permitted. Food contact surfaces shall be constructed of metal, high pressure laminated plastics, or laminated hardwood which are in compliance with NSF Standards. These surfaces must be kept free of cracks, cuts, and other obstructions which would interfere with proper cleaning.

(e) Space around pipes, conduits, or hoses that extend through cabinets, floors, or outer walls shall be sealed. The closure shall be smooth and easily cleanable.

Service Openings. Service openings shall be limited to 216 square inches (1394 sq. cm) each. The service openings may not be closer together than 18 inches (46 cm).

They shall be provided with a hinged or sliding closing device of screen not less than 7 mesh per cm (16 mesh per inch) or a solid material. The service opening shall be kept closed when not in actual use.

Article 4. Recreational Vehicles

Subarticle 1. Construction and Fire Safety

§ 4550. Application and Scope.

(a) The provisions of this article relating to construction and fire safety apply to all recreational vehicles manufactured after January 1, 1974, which are sold or offered for sale, rent or lease within this state except as provided in this article. The provisions of this article are also applicable to the alteration or conversion of any construction or fire safety equipment or installations in any recreational vehicle bearing or required to bear a department insignia of approval.

(b) Multipurpose passenger vehicles, i.e. motorhomes, which are subject to Federal Standards under the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1966 are exempt from the requirements of these regulations relating to interior finish flame spread limitations.

(c) Standards for Equipment and Installations. Equipment and installations conforming to standards specified in this article or to other approved standards shall be considered acceptable by the department when listed or labeled and installed in accordance with the requirements of this article and the conditions of their approval except when otherwise provided in this article. All equipment shall be clearly labeled to indicate compliance with applicable standards.

(d) Construction and Fire Safety. The construction and fire safety requirements for recreational vehicles shall conform to the provisions of the National Fire Protection Association Standard 501 C–1977 Edition, Chapter 5, and paragraphs and Sections 5-3, 5-4, 5-4.1, 5-4.2, 5-5, 5-5.1, 5-5.2, 5-5.3, 5-5.4, 5-5.5, 5-5.6, 5-6, 5-6.2, 5-6.3, 5-6.4, 5-6.5, 5-6.6 and appendix to Chapter 5, except as otherwise provided by this article.

(e) The following provisions of the National Fire Protection Association Standard 501 C–1977 Edition, are not adopted: Chapter 1 and paragraphs and Sections 5-1, 5-1.1, 5-1.2, 5-2, 5-2.1, 5-2.2, 5-2.3, 5-2.3.1, 5-2.4, 5-4.3 and 5-6.1 of Chapter 5.

History

1. Repealer and new Article 4 (Sections 4550–4804, not inclusive) filed 6–9–77; designated effective 9–1–77 (Register 77, No. 24). For prior history see Registers 71, No. 25; 71, No. 41; 73, No. 36; 73, No. 37; 73, No. 43; 74, No. 3; 74, No. 18; 74, No. 25; 74, No. 41; 75, No. 30; 75, No. 48; 76, No. 5; 76, No. 15; 76, No. 31; 76, No. 37; and 76, No. 48.
2. Amendment filed 4–3–78; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 78, No. 14).

§ 4560. Engine Exhaust Systems.

All combustible material shall be separated a minimum of one inch from all internal combustion engine exhaust systems or shall be effectively insulated from such systems.

§ 4570. Fire Extinguishers.

Section 28060 of the California Vehicle Code provides the following:

28060.*

(a) No person shall sell or offer for sale a new recreational vehicle or new camper which is equipped with cooking equipment or heating equipment, and no dealer or person holding a retail seller's permit shall sell or offer for sale a used recreational vehicle or a used camper which is equipped with cooking or heating equipment, unless such new or used vehicle or new or used camper is equipped with at least one fire extinguisher, filled and ready for use, of the dry chemical or carbon dioxide type with an aggregate rating of at least 4–B:C units, which meets the requirements specified in Section 13162 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) The operator of a recreational vehicle, or a vehicle to which a camper is attached, which recreational vehicle or camper is equipped with a fire extinguisher as required by subdivision (a), shall carry such fire extinguisher in such recreational vehicle or camper and shall maintain the fire extinguisher in an efficient operating condition.

(c) As used in this section:

(1) "Cooking equipment" means a device designed for cooking which utilizes combustible material, including, but not limited to, materials such as charcoal or any flammable gas or liquid, and "heating equipment" means a device designed for heating which utilizes combustible material, including, but not limited to, materials such as charcoal or any flammable gas or liquid.

§ 4580. Rodent Resistance.

All exterior openings around piping, ducts, plenums, chimneys and vents shall be sealed to resist the entrance of rodents.

§ 4600. Application and Scope.

The provisions of this article relating to electrical equipment and installations apply to all recreational vehicles manufactured after September 1, 1958, and sold, offered for sale, rent, or lease within this State. The provisions of this article are also applicable to the alteration or conversion of electrical equipment and installations in any recreational vehicle bearing or required to bear a department insignia of approval.

(a) Standards for Equipment and Installations. Equipment and installations conforming to nationally recognized standards or to other approved standards shall be considered acceptable by the department when listed or labeled and installed in accordance with the requirements of this article and the conditions of their approval, except where otherwise provided in this article. All equipment shall be clearly labeled to indicate compliance with applicable standards.

(b) Electrical Standards. Electrical equipment and installations in or on a recreational vehicle shall be installed in accordance with the requirements of the National Fire Protection Association Standard 501 C–1977 Edition and the National Electrical Code, 1978 Edition, except Article 551 of the National Electrical Code and otherwise provided by this article.

The following provisions of the National Fire Protection Association Standard 501 C–1977 Edition are not adopted: paragraphs and sections 4-1, 4-1.1, 4-1.2, 4-2, 4-2.1, 4-2.2, 4-2.3, 4-4.1, 4-4.7, 4-6, 4-6.1, 4-6.2, 4-6.3, 4-6.4, 4-6.5, 4-7.3.3, 4-7.6.4 and 4-12 of Chapter 4.

§ 4601. Definitions.

History

1. Repealer filed 4–3–78; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 78, No. 14).

§ 4603. Low–Voltage Systems.

(a) Low–Voltage Systems. Low–voltage circuits furnished and installed by the recreational vehicle manufacturer are subject to this article.

EXCEPTION: Vehicle containing only battery circuits of 24 volts or less energy exclusively for the following are not subject to this article:

(1) Illuminating lights when the vehicle contains no other systems such as plumbing, heating or electrical over 24 volts.

(2) Circuits supplying running lights, taillights, stoplights, electrical braking, or vehicle ignition systems.

(b) Recreational vehicle metal chassis or frame may be used as the return path for exterior lighting circuits. Terminals for connection to the chassis or frame shall be of the solderless type and approved for the size and type of wire used. Mechanical connections to the frame or chassis shall be made secure.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 4–3–78; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 78, No. 14).

§ 4605. Incandescent Lighting Fixtures, Low–Voltage.

All incandescent low–voltage interior lighting fixtures shall be listed. This section shall become effective September 1, 1978.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 4–3–78; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 78, No. 14).

§ 4619. Receptacle Outlets Requiring Ground–Fault Circuit Protection.

Where provided, each 120 volt, single–phase, 15 or 20 ampere receptacle outlet shall have ground–fault circuit protection for personnel in the following locations:

(a) Adjacent to a bathroom lavatory. (The receptacle outlet shall be a minimum of 30 inches, (762 MM) from the compartment floor).

(b) Adjacent to any lavatory.

(c) In an area occupied by a toilet, and or shower, or toilet and tub–shower enclosure. (A receptacle shall not be installed in a bathtub, shower or combination bathtub–shower compartment).

(d) On the exterior of the vehicle.

HISTORY

§ 4624. Vehicles Wired in Accordance with Section 4–7.4.3, NFPA 501 C–1977, with a Rating in Excess of 30 Amperes, 115 Volts.

In accordance with Section 4–7.4.3, NFPA 501 C–1977, any recreational vehicle with a rating in excess of 30 amperes, 115 volts, shall use a listed 40 or 50 ampere, 115/230 volt power supply assembly conforming to ANSI Standard C73.17 1972 configuration. (See NFPA, 501 C–1977, Sections 4-7.9.1, 4-7.9.3(d) and 4-7.9.4).

EXCEPTION: For a dual–supply source consisting of a generator and a power–supply cord, see NFPA 501 C–1977, Section 4–7.8.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 4–3–78; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 78, No. 14).

§ 4626. Fuel–Fired Engine Driven Generator Units.

(a) Certification. All fuel–fired engine driven generators shall be investigated and listed in accordance with nationally recognized standards by an approved testing agency.

(b) Installation. Fuel–fired engine driven generators shall be installed in accordance with the equipment manufacturers installation instructions and these regulations. A copy of the installation instructions shall be provided in the vehicle.

(c) Mounting. Generator units shall be mounted in a manner so that adequate structural support from the vehicle frame, is provided for the equipment. The equipment shall be secured in place by a method that will preclude displacement from vibration and road shock.

(d) Compartment Separation. Generator unit compartments shall be designed and installed to provide a vapor–tight separation between the compartment and the interior living areas of the vehicle.

(e) Compartment Construction. Generator unit compartments shall be constructed of galvanized steel, not less than 0.0299 inch (0.759 mm) thick. Seams and joints shall be lapped, mechanically secured and made airtight to the interior of the vehicle. Alternate materials and methods of construction may be used if they provide equivalent quality, strength, effectiveness, fire resistance, durability and safety.

(f) Compartment Penetration. Fuel–fired engine exhaust systems, fuel–supplies, electrical conduit, cables, conductors and equipment shall not penetrate any area of the compartment that separates the compartment from the interior of the vehicle. Electrical conduit, cables and conductors penetrating the compartment in areas other than those that separate the compartment from the interior of the vehicle, shall be protected by the use of tight fitting grommets.

(g) Compartment Ventilation. Compartments shall be provided with ventilation. The type, amount and location of compartment ventilation shall be provided in accordance with the equipment manufacturer's installation instructions.

(h) Exhaust Systems. Except as provided by the equipment manufacturer's installation instructions, fuel–fired engine exhaust systems shall be separated a minimum of 1 1/2 inches from any combustible material or insulated or shielded so that it does not raise the temperature of any combustible material to more than 194° F (90° C).

Exhaust systems shall be provided with an effective spark arrester and shall not terminate adjacent to the vehicle gasoline filler spout. Exhausts shall terminate beyond the periphery of the vehicle.

(i) Generator Protection. Generators shall be mounted in a manner to provide an effective electrical bond to the vehicle chassis. Listed equipment shall be installed to ensure that the current–carrying conductors from the generator and from an outside source are not connected to the vehicle circuits at the same time.

(j) Supply Conductors. Supply conductors from a generator to a junction box or distribution panelboard shall be of the stranded type installed in flexible metal conduit or equivalent mechanical protection and shall have electrical protection provided by appropriately rated and listed circuit breakers.

Subarticle 3. Mechanical

§ 4665. Application and Scope.

The provisions of this article relating to mechanical equipment and installations apply to all recreational vehicles manufactured after September 1, 1958, and sold, offered for sale, rent, or lease within this State. The provisions of this article are also applicable to the alteration or conversion of mechanical equipment and installations in any vehicle bearing or required to bear a department insignia of approval.

(a) Standards for Equipment and Installations. Standards for equipment and installations are listed in Appendix to Chapter 3, NFPA 501 C–1977 Edition; equipment and installations conforming to these standards or other approved standards shall be considered acceptable by the department when listed and labeled and installed in accordance with the requirements of this article and conditions of their approval except as otherwise provided in this article. All equipment shall be clearly labeled to indicate compliance with applicable standards.

(b) Mechanical Standards. The mechanical equipment and installations of recreational vehicles shall conform to the provisions of the National Fire Protection Association Standard No. 501 C–1977 Edition, Chapter 3, and Appendix to Chapter 3, except as otherwise provided by this article.

(c) The following provisions of the National Fire Protection Standard No. 501 C–1977 Edition are not adopted: paragraphs and Sections 3-1, 3-1.1, 3-1.2, 3-2, 3-2.1, 3-2.2, 3-2.3, 3-2.4, and 3-6.2.2 of Chapter 3.

2. Amendment filed 4–3–78; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 78, No. 14).

§ 4670. Labels.

All labels required by this article, and referenced in NFPA 501C shall comply with Article 1, Section 4031 for sizes and type of material.

§ 4680. Installation of Appliances.

All fuel–burning appliances, except ranges, ovens and illuminating appliances, shall be designed and installed to provide for the complete separation of the combustion system from the interior atmosphere of the recreational vehicle. Combustion air inlets and flue gas outlets shall be listed or certified as components of the appliance. The required separation shall be obtained by the installation of direct vent system (sealed combustion system) appliances.

Gas–fired refrigerators shall be designed or installed to provide for the complete separation of the combustion system from the interior atmosphere of the recreational vehicle.

Subarticle 4. Plumbing

§ 4800. Application and Scope.

The provisions of this article relating to plumbing equipment and installations apply to all recreational vehicles manufactured after September 1, 1958, and sold, offered for sale, rent, or lease within this State. The provisions of this article are also applicable to the alteration or conversion of plumbing equipment and installations in any vehicle bearing or required to bear a department insignia of approval.

(a) Standards for Equipment and Installations. Standards for equipment are listed in Appendix to Chapter 2, National Fire Protection Association Standard 501 C–1977 Edition. Standards for wall surfacing for tub and shower enclosures are listed in the Appendix RV–P–1 of this division. Equipment and installations conforming to these standards or other approved standards shall be considered acceptable by the department, when listed or labeled and installed in accordance with the requirements of this article and the conditions of their approval, except where otherwise provided in this article. All equipment shall be clearly labeled to indicate compliance with applicable standards.

(b) Plumbing Standards. Plumbing fixtures, equipment and installations in recreational vehicles shall conform to and be installed in accordance with the provisions of the National Fire Protection Association Standard No. 501 C–1977 Edition, except as otherwise provided by this article.

(c) The following provisions of the National Fire Protection Association Standard No. 501 C–1977 Edition, are not adopted: paragraphs and Sections 2-1, 2-1.1, 2-1.2, 2-2, 2-2.1, 2-2.2, 2-2.3, and 2-2.4 of Chapter 2.

2. The Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 1–31–89 was disapproved. Order of Repeal of 10–6–88 emergency order filed 3–2–89 by OAL pursuant to Government Code Section 11349.6 (Register 89, No. 11).
3. New section filed 3–3–89 as an emergency; operative 3–3–89 (Register 89, No. 11). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days, by 7–3–89, or emergency language will be repealed.
4. Certificate of Compliance including amendment of subsection (a) transmitted to OAL 6–29–89 and filed 7–24–89 (Register 89, No. 32).

§ 4866. Required Reporting of Name, Address, Ownership and Staff Changes.

(a) A third–party entity shall report all business name and address changes and a Quality Assurance Inspector shall report all name and address changes to the department no later than ten (10) days after the effective date of such change. Each report shall be accompanied by the fee specified in Section 4884(g) or (h), whichever is applicable.

(b) Whenever a person within the ownership of a third–party entity terminates ownership interest, the third–party entity shall report such change to the department in writing, no later than ten (10) days after the effective date of the change. No fee shall be required.

(c) Whenever the third–party entity terminates the employment of a person who was performing as a director, engineer, architect, inspector or insignia administrator, regardless of the cause, the third–party entity shall report such change to the department in writing, no later than ten (10) days after the effective date of the change. No fee shall be required.

(d) Whenever a third–party entity changes the responsibilities of any director, manager, engineer, architect, inspector, or insignia administrator, the third–party entity shall notify the department in writing no later than ten (10) days after the effective date of the change. No fee shall be required.

(e) Whenever a person is added to the ownership of a third–party entity, the third–party entity shall notify the department of the change by filing a new application pursuant to Section 4858. The new application may make reference to valid information and statements contained in original applications on file with the department. The application shall be transmitted to the department no later than ten (10) days after the effective date of the change. No fee shall be required.

(f) Whenever a third–party entity acquires a new employee to perform as a director, manager engineer, architect, technical staff, inspector or insignia administrator, the third–party entity shall notify the department by filing a new application for supplemental approval pursuant to Section 4858. The new application may make reference to valid information and statements contained in original applications on file with the department. The application shall be transmitted to the department no later than ten (10) days after the effective date of the change. No fee shall be required.

(g) If following receipt of a notice or application pursuant to subsections (b) (c) (d) or (f) above, the department determines that third–party entity no longer meets the conditions of approval, the third–party entity shall submit a new application pursuant to Section 4858.

5. Repealer of subsection (d) and renumbering of subsections (e) and (f) to (d) and (e) filed 6-10-91; operative 7-10-91 (Register 91, No. 34).

§ 4872. Conflict of Interest, Collusion and Fraud.

(a) A third-party entity shall be considered free of any conflicts of interest, affiliation, influence, and control when in compliance with the following criteria:

(1) It has no ownership or managerial affiliation with any supplier or manufacturer of mobile homes, commercial coaches, special purpose commercial coaches, or recreational vehicles and does not engage in the sale or promotion of any such unit.

(2) The results of its work do not accrue financial benefits to the organization via stock ownership in any supplier or manufacturer of mobile homes, commercial coaches, special purpose commercial coaches, or recreational vehicles.

(3) Its owners, directors, management personnel, engineers, architects or inspectors hold no ownership or stock in and receive no stock option from any supplier or manufacturer of mobile homes, commercial coaches, special purpose commercial coaches, or recreational vehicles.

(4) The employment status of its personnel is free of influence or control by any supplier or manufacturer of mobile homes, commercial coaches, special purpose commercial coaches, or recreational vehicles.

(5) It does not perform as a Design Approval Agency for any manufacturer whose plans, designs or manual have been created or prepared in whole or in part by a member of the agency's staff or by a member of the staff of any affiliated organization.

(b) No member of a third–party entity shall take part in any act of collusion or other fraudulent practice with a supplier or manufacturer of mobile homes, commercial coaches, special purpose commercial coaches, or recreational vehicles.

(c) Each third–party entity and Quality Assurance Inspector shall provide the department with a written report of any contract or agreement, written or oral, with a manufacturer who is subject to this subchapter, for any service which is in addition to services provided by contract under this article. Such reports shall be transmitted to the department no later than ten (10) days after the effective date of the contract or agreement.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 10–6–88 as an emergency; operative 10–6–88 (Register 88, No. 42). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 says or emergency language will be repealed on 2–3–89.
2. The Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 1–31–89 was disapproved. Order of Repeal of 10–6–88 emergency order filed 3–2–89 by OAL pursuant to Government Code Section 11349.6 (Register 89, No. 11).
3. New section filed 3–3–89 as an emergency; operative 3–3–89 (Register 89, No. 11). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days, by 7–3–89, or emergency language will be repealed.
4. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 6–29–89 and filed 7–24–89 (Register 89, No. 32).

§ 4874. Contract Requirements.

(a) Third–party entities and manufacturers shall execute written contracts describing all services to be rendered by the third–party entity pursuant to this article. A copy of each contract or amendment shall be transmitted by the third–party entity to the department no later than ten (10) days after the effective date. The department shall disapprove any contract in violation of the Health and Safety Code, Division 13, Part 2, Section 18000 et seq., or this article.

(b) Within ten (10) days of the cancellation of a contract, the third–party entity shall transmit to the department a written notice of the cancellation and of the circumstances which led to the cancellation. Whenever the department determines that the cause for a manufacturer's cancellation of a contract with a third–party entity is related to enforcement actions taken by the third–party entity to assure compliance with the Health and Safety Code, Division 13, Part 2, or this subchapter, the department shall monitor the inspections or plan approvals pursuant to any new contracts executed by the manufacturer and other third–party entities.

(c) No contract between a Quality Assurance Agency and a manufacturer for inspections of units manufactured in California shall violate the provisions of Section 4870(d).

(d) A contract executed between a manufacturer and a Quality Assurance Agency shall require the manufacturer to provide the Quality Assurance Agency with a written report by at least the tenth day of each month, which contains the information necessary for the Quality Assurance Agency to comply with Section 4880(d).

HISTORY

1. New section filed 10–6–88 as an emergency; operative 10–6–88 (Register 88, No. 42). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 2–3–89.
2. The Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 1–31–89 was disapproved. Order of Repeal of 10–6–88 emergency order filed 3–2–89 by OAL pursuant to Government Code Section 11349.6 (Register 89, No. 11).
3. New section filed 3–3–89 as an emergency; operative 3–3–89 (Register 89, No. 11). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days, by 7–3–89, or emergency language will be repealed.
4. Certificate of Compliance including amendment of subsection (d) transmitted to OAL 6–29–89 and filed 7–24–89 (Register 89, No. 32).

§ 4876. Design Approval Procedures and Requirements.

(a) Plans approved by the department prior to the effective date of this article shall remain valid until expiration as provided in this subchapter. All plans and manual approval shall expire on the last day of the fifteenth month following the month of the approval by the Design Approval Agency. The Design Approval Agency shall provide for the renewal of expiring plans and manuals which comply with the requirements of this subchapter.

(b) The requirements of Section 4017 regarding the size and contents of drawings shall apply to plans submitted to a Design Approval Agency.

(c) Upon approval of a plan or quality control manual, the Design Approval Agency shall issue a unique plan approval number for each plan or manual. The plan approval number shall be prefaced by an identification given the agency by the department. Each page of an approved plan, each page of an amendment, and each manual cover, shall be marked or stamped with the word "Approved," along with the name of the Design Approval Agency, the date of approval, the date of expiration and the plan approval number.

The Design Approval Agency shall transmit complete copies of plans, amendments or manual bearing the approval mark to the manufacturer within ten (10) days of the approval date.

(d) When typical system approvals are used as provided in Sections 4015(b) and 4016, the Design Approval Agency shall require the manufacturer's plans to contain a system of indexing which eliminates confusion as to the applicability of typical systems throughout the manufacturer's plans.

(e) The Design Approval Agency shall require an approved plan or manual to be amended in such a manner that all superseded information is removed from the plan or manual which bears the agency's mark of approval. The Design Approval Agency shall require the manufacturer to provide written instructions which explain how to update the original plan or manual by the insert of the amendment or removal of superseded pages.

(f) The Design Approval Agency shall maintain a copy of all approvals for a period of three (3) years beyond their expiration.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 10–6–88 as an emergency; operative 10–6–88 (Register 88, No. 42). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 2–3–89.
2. The Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 1–31–89 was disapproved. Order of Repeal of 10–6–88 emergency order filed 3–2–89 by OAL pursuant to Government Code Section 11349.6 (Register 89, No. 11).
3. New section filed 3–3–89 as an emergency; operative 3–3–89 (Register 89, No.11). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days, by 7–3–89, or emergency language will be repealed.
4. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 6–29–89 and filed 7–24–89 (Register 89, No. 32).

§ 4878. Inspection Method and Frequency.

(a) A Quality Assurance Agency shall inspect a manufacturer's production at the location of production. For units designed and approved for final construction (exterior roof or wall materials for example) by the manufacturer at a location other than at the manufacturing facility, the Quality Assurance Agency shall perform an additional inspection of the final construction exclusive of work performed for the installation for occupancy.

(b) Upon discovery of any violation of the Health and Safety Code, Division 13, Part 2, Section 18000 et seq., or this subchapter, the Quality Assurance Agency shall verify by inspection the satisfactory correction or elimination of the violation. If correction of the violation cannot be verified at the time of inspection, the agency shall so state in the inspection report required by Section 4880 and require the affected unit(s) held for reinspection at the manufacturing facility. The agencies report of the reinspection shall describe the reinspection and correction of the violation.

(c) In order to certify a manufacturing facility, a Quality Assurance Agency shall inspect pursuant to subsection (e) no less than the first five (5) units while under construction. Such inspections shall continue until the manufacturer has demonstrated the ability to consistently manufacturer units in compliance with the law and this subchapter as a result of an effective quality control program prescribed in an approved quality control manual. At such time, the Quality Assurance Agency shall transmit to the department a Certification Report which complies with the provisions of Section 4880(e) and the inspection frequency shall be reduced as prescribed in subsection (f) or (g) of this section, whichever is applicable.

(d) For special purpose commercial coaches and recreational vehicles being manufactured without plan approval, the Quality Assurance Agency shall inspect each unit while under construction including all systems, components, equipment and installations subject to this subchapter, and shall witness all tests required by this subchapter prior to issuance of a California insignia.

(e) For units produced in manufacturing facilities which are not certified, the Quality Assurance Agency shall inspect each system, component, equipment and installation at each stage of assembly, and shall witness all tests required by this subchapter.

(f) For certified mobile home and commercial coach manufacturing facilities, the Quality Assurance Agency shall monitor compliance with approved plans by inspecting all visible portions of each system, component, equipment and installation subject to this subchapter, of each mobile home or commercial coach which will be issued California insignia.

During each inspection visit, a Quality Assurance Agency shall monitor the manufacturer's compliance with material storage, inspection and testing procedures prescribed in an approved quality control manual, and shall monitor the quality control procedures at each of the manufacturer's production stations.

(g) For certified special purpose commercial coach and recreational vehicle manufacturing facilities, the Quality Assurance Agency shall monitor compliance with approved plans by inspecting all visible portions of each system, component, equipment and installations for at least ten (10) percent of the manufacturer's production subject to this subchapter.

During each inspection visit, a Quality Assurance Agency shall monitor the manufacturer's compliance with material storage, inspection and testing procedures prescribed in an approved quality control manual and shall monitor the quality control procedures at each of the manufacturer's production stations.

(h) When the manufacturer is found to be failing to follow the plan or quality control manual, a Quality Assurance Agency shall increase the intensity and frequency of inspections until such time that the agency is satisfied that the manufacturer is producing complying units on a consistent basis.

(i) A Quality Assurance Agency shall recommend to the department, cancellation of the certification when the increased inspections required by subsection (h) reveal that a manufacturer continues to fail to comply with the quality control manual, plans, or otherwise produces noncomplying units. The recommendation shall be accompanied by the inspection reports specified in Section 4880(c) and any other documentation of actions taken to improve the manufacturer's compliance. The department shall notify the manufacturer of the recommendation and provide an opportunity for the manufacturer to submit and be heard with opposing information before the department makes a decision to cancel the certification.

(j) A Quality Assurance Agency shall recommend to the department, cancellation of the certification of any manufacturing facility which relocates, changes production sequences, changes key personnel, or introduces new designs which result in a failure to comply with the approved plans or quality control manual. The recommendation and departmental action shall be the same as specified above in subsection (i).

(k) When a certification has been cancelled, the Quality Assurance Agency shall conduct inspections as specified in subsection (e).

(l) For the purposes of this section, a manufacturing facility with plan approvals and quality control manuals in effect on the effective date of this article is considered to have been certified by the department and is not in need of recertification by a Quality Assurance Agency.

(m) A Quality Assurance Agency shall not disapprove or in any way interfere with the production of units produced in accordance with plans and quality control manuals approved by the department or the manufacturer's Design Approval Agency. When a Quality Assurance Agency believes an approved plan is in violation of the Health and Safety Code, Division 13, Part 2, or this Subchapter, the Quality Assurance Agency shall submit a written request for reconsideration of the approval to the manufacturer and the manufacturer's Design Approval Agency. The Quality Assurance Agency shall provide a copy of all such requests for reconsideration as an attachment to the Agency's monthly report specified in Section 4880(b).

If the subject of a request for reconsideration is not resolved to the satisfaction of the Quality Assurance Agency within thirty (30) days of the request, the agency shall refer the matter to the department for resolution.

§ 4880. Activity Reports Requirements.

(a) By the fifteenth day of each month and on form HCD–MH 472 Design Approval Agency Monthly Activity Report, dated September 1988 and provided by the department, a Design Approval Agency shall prepare and transmit to the department the following information for each client manufacturer served in the previous month:

(1) The Design Approval Agency name, address, agency number and telephone number.

(2) The reporting month and year.

(3) The date that the report was prepared.

(4) The name and identification number of the manufacturer.

(5) Identification of whether the type of unit produced by the manufacturer is a mobile home, commercial coach, special purpose commercial coach or recreational vehicle.

(6) The number of mobile home, commercial coach, recreational vehicle and special purpose commercial coach plans, plan amendments, manuals and manual amendments approved.

(7) The number of mobile home, commercial coach, recreational vehicle and special purpose commercial coach plans, plan amendments, manuals and manual amendments rejected.

(8) The subtotal(s) of all mobile home, commercial coach, recreational vehicle, special purpose commercial coach plans, plan amendments, manuals, and manual amendments approved or rejected on page(s) 1 and/or 2.

(9) The total number of all mobile home, commercial coach, recreational vehicle, and special purpose commercial coach plans, plan amendments, manuals, and manual amendments approved or rejected, by adding the subtotals on pages 1 and/or 2.

(10) The fees calculated as follows:

(A) For mobile home and commercial coach plans approved, multiply the total number by the fee specified in Section 4884(i)(1).

(B) For special purpose commercial coach and recreational vehicle plans approved, multiply the total number by the fee specified in Section 4884(i)(2).

(C) For mobile home, commercial coach, special purpose commercial coach and recreational vehicle plan amendments approved, multiply the total number by the fee specified in Section 4884(k).

(D) For mobile home, commercial coach, special purpose commercial coach and recreational vehicle manuals approved, multiply the total number by the fee specified in Section 4884(j).

(E) For mobile home, commercial coach, special purpose commercial coach and recreational vehicle manual amendments approved, multiply the total number by the fee specified in Section 4884(k).

(11) The total fees attached by adding the fees for mobile home, commercial coach, special purpose commercial coach and recreational vehicle plan approval, plan amendments approval, manual approval and manual amendments approval.

(12) The signature and title of the authorized person certifying under penalty of perjury to the accuracy of the information provided.

(13) The date that certification was signed.

(b) The Design Approval Agency shall number the front and back pages on form HCD–MH 472 Design Approval Agency Monthly Activity Report, dated September 1988.

(c) Each Design Approval Agency monthly activity report shall be accompanied by a copy of each plan, manual or amendment and instructions approved during the previous month and the plan approval monitoring fee specified by Section 4884(i), (j) and (k), whichever is applicable, for each plan, manual or amendment approved during the reporting month.

(d) By the fifteenth day of each month and on form HCD–MH 473 Quality Assurance Agency Monthly Summary Report for Recreational Vehicle, Mobile Home, Commercial Coach and Special Purpose Commercial Coach, (Part II), dated May 1989 and provided by the department, a Quality Assurance Agency shall prepare and transmit to the department the following information for each client manufacturer served in the previous month:

(1) The Quality Assurance Agency name, address, agency number and telephone number.

(2) The reporting month and year.

(3) The date that the report was prepared.

(4) The name and identification number of the manufacturer.

(5) Indication of whether the type of units subject to inspection and reinspection is a mobile home, commercial coach, recreational vehicle or special purpose commercial coach.

(6) The total number of inspection visits, the total number of units inspected, the total number of units reinspected and the total number of units produced for California.

(7) The percentage of California units inspected.

(8) The total number of units issued California insignia, the total number of insignia assigned and the total number of insignia unassigned to units.

(9) Indication of whether the quality control program is acceptable or not acceptable. The department may refer to forms HCD–MH 441 and 441B Quality Assurance Agency Monthly Inspection and Insignia Issuance Summary for Recreational Vehicle, Mobile Home, and Special Purpose Commercial Coach (Part I), dated May 1989 and forms HCD–MH 442 and 442B Quality Assurance Agency Monthly Inspection and Insignia Issuance Summary for Commercial Coach (Part I), dated May 1989 for an explanation of why the quality control program is not acceptable.

(10) The grand totals of all inspections, units inspected, units reinspected, California units produced, insignia issued and insignia affixed and insignia unaffixed.

(11) The signature and printed name and title of the authorized person, certifying under penalty of perjury to the accuracy of the information provided.

(12) The date certification was signed.

(e) The Quality Assurance Agency shall number the front and back pages on form HCD–MH 473 Quality Assurance Agency Monthly Summary Report for Recreational Vehicle, Mobile Home, Commercial Coach and Special Purpose Commercial Coach, (Part II), dated May 1989.

(f) By the fifteenth day of each month and on form HCD–MH 441 Quality Assurance Agency Monthly Inspection and Insignia Issuance Summary for Recreational Vehicle, Mobile Home, and Special Purpose Commercial Coach (Part I), dated May 1989 and provided by the department, a Quality Assurance Agency shall prepare and transmit to the department the following information for each client manufacturer served in the previous month:

(1) The Quality Assurance Agency name, agency number, address and telephone number.

(2) The reporting month and year.

(3) The name, identification number, plant address and telephone number of the manufacturer.

(4) The number of inspections and reinspections conducted.

(5) The dates that inspections and reinspections were conducted.

(6) The number of units inspected and the number of units held for reinspection.

(7) The number of units issued California insignia.

(8) Indication of whether the frequency of inspections by the Quality Assurance Agency and the manufacturer's quality control program is acceptable or needs improvement, and a brief narrative explaining why improvement is needed.

(9) The number of tests witnessed by the Quality Assurance Agency.

(10) The types of tests witnessed and the dates that tests were witnessed to include the gas piping system (low pressure and three pound (3 lb.) tests), dielectric 12, 120 or 120/240 volt systems, polarity, continuity, operational, water piping system, demand system and waste and vent system.

(11) Indication of whether requests for plan reconsideration pursuant to Section 4878(m) are attached.

(12) Identification of the plan submitted for reconsideration.

(13) The make and model and complete serial number.

(14) The plan approval number or inspection pursuant to Section 4878(d) or (e) as appropriate.

(15) Indication of whether the unit is a mobile home, recreational vehicle or special purpose commercial coach.

(16) The California insignia number and date of manufacture.

(17) The location in the manufacturing process when inspected.

(18) The name and address of the purchaser.

(19) The name, street address, city, state and zip code of the unit's destination.

(20) For mobile homes and special purpose commercial coaches only, identification of the number of sections as follows:

(A) Specify I if an individual section; or

(B) If of multi–section design, designate M1 for the first section, M2 for the second section, M3 for the third section, etc.

(21) The signature and printed name and title of the authorized person certifying under penalty of perjury to the information contained in the report and any and all attachments to the report as being true and correct.

(22) The date that certification was signed.

(g) If the Quality Assurance Agency requires additional space to submit information required on HCD–MH 441, Quality Assurance Agency Monthly Inspection and Insignia Issuance Summary for Recreational Vehicle, Mobile Home, and Special Purpose Commercial Coach (Part I), dated May 1989, the agency shall complete form HCD–MH 441B Quality Assurance Agency Monthly Inspection and Insignia Issuance Summary for Recreational Vehicle, Mobile Home, and Special Purpose Commercial Coach (Part I), dated May 1989, and provided by the department and shall contain the following information:

(3) The reporting month and year.

(4) The make and model and complete serial number.

(5) The plan approval number or inspection pursuant to Section 4878(d) or (e) as appropriate.

(6) Identification of whether the unit is a mobile home, recreational vehicle or special purpose commercial coach.

(7) The California insignia number and date of manufacture.

(8) The location in the manufacturing process when inspected.

(9) The name and address of the purchaser.

(10) The name, street address, city, state and zip code of the unit's destination.

(11) For mobile homes and special purpose commercial coaches only, identification of the number of sections as follows:

(A) Specify 1 if an individual section; or

(B) If of multi-section design, designate M1 for the first section, M2 for the second section, M3 for the third section, etc.

(h) The Quality Assurance Agency shall number the back page of form HCD-MH 441 Quality Assurance Agency Monthly Inspection and Insignia Issuance Summary for Recreational Vehicle, Mobile Home, and Special Purpose Commercial Coach (Part I), dated May 1989 and number the front and back pages of form HCD-MH 441B Quality Assurance Agency Monthly Inspection and Insignia Issuance Summary for Recreational Vehicle, Mobile Home, and Special Purpose Commercial Coach (Part I), dated May 1989. Form(s) HCD-MH 441B shall be attached to form HCD-MH 441.

(i) By the fifteenth day of each month and on form HCD-MH 442 Quality Assurance Agency Monthly Inspection and Insignia Issuance Summary for Commercial Coach (Part I), dated May 1989 and provided by the department, a Quality Assurance Agency shall prepare and transmit to the department the following information for each client manufacturer served in the previous month:

(1) The Quality Assurance Agency name, agency number, address and telephone number.

(2) The reporting month and year.

(3) The name, identification number, plant address and telephone number of the manufacturer.

(4) The number of inspections and reinspections conducted.

(5) The dates that inspections and reinspections were conducted.

(6) The number of units inspected and the number of units held for reinspection.

(7) The number of units issued California insignia.

(8) Indication of whether the frequency of inspections by the Quality Assurance Agency and the manufacturer's quality control program is acceptable or needs improvement, and a brief narrative explaining why improvement is needed.

(9) The number of tests witnessed by the Quality Assurance Agency.

(10) The dates and types of tests witnessed to include the gas piping system (low pressure and three pound (3 lb.) tests), dielectric 12, 120, 120/240, or 480 volt systems, polarity, continuity, operational, water piping system and waste and vent system.

(11) Indication of whether requests for plan reconsideration pursuant to Section 4878(m) are attached.

(12) Identification of the plan submitted for reconsideration.

(13) The serial number, model and plan approval number.

(14) The roof, floor and wind live loads, occupancy, electrical, plumbing, mechanical and fire safety for each section comprising the commercial coach.

(15) The California insignia number.

(16) The location in the manufacturing process when inspected.

(17) The date of manufacture.

(18) The name and address of the purchaser.

(19) The name, street address, city, state and zip code of the unit's destination.

(20) Identification of the number of sections within the unit as follows:

(A) Specify 1 if an individual section; or

(B) If of multi-section design, designate M1 for the first section, M2 for the second section, M3 for the third section, etc.

(21) The signature and printed name and title of the authorized person, certifying under penalty of perjury that the information contained in the report and any and all attachments to the report is true and correct.

(22) The date that the certification was signed.

(j) If the Quality Assurance Agency requires additional space to submit information required on form HCD-MH 442, Quality Assurance Agency Monthly Inspection and Insignia Issuance Summary for Commercial Coach (Part I), dated May 1989, the agency shall complete form HCD-MH 442B Quality Assurance Agency Monthly Inspection and Insignia Issuance Summary for Commercial Coach (Part I), dated May 1989, and provided by the department and shall contain the following information:

(1) The Quality Assurance Agency name and agency number.

(2) The name and identification number of the manufacturer.

(3) The reporting month and year.

(4) The serial number, model and plan approval number.

(5) The roof, floor and wind live loads, occupancy, electrical, plumbing, mechanical and fire safety for each section comprising the commercial coach.

(6) The California insignia number.

(7) The location in the manufacturing process when inspected.

(8) The date of manufacture.

(9) The name and address of the purchaser.

(10) The name, street address, city, state and zip code of the unit's destination.

(11) Identification of the number of sections within the commercial coach as follows:

(A) Specify 1 if an individual section; or

(B) If of multi-section design, designate M1 for the first section, M2 for the second section, M3 for the third section, etc.

(k) The Quality Assurance Agency shall number the back page of form HCD-MH 442 Quality Assurance Agency Monthly Inspection and Insignia Issuance Summary for Commercial Coach (Part I), dated May 1989 and the front and back pages of form HCD-MH 442B Quality Assurance Agency Monthly Inspection and Insignia Issuance Summary for Commercial Coach (Part I), dated May 1989. Form(s) HCD-MH 442B shall be attached to form HCD-MH 442.

(l) The Quality Assurance Agency shall notify the department of corrections to forms HCD-MH 441 and 441B Quality Assurance Agency Monthly Inspection and Insignia Issuance Summary for Recreational Vehicle, Mobile Home, and Special Purpose Commercial Coach (Part I), dated May 1989 by submitting form HC-MH 444 Quality Assurance Agency Adjustment Report for Recreational Vehicle, Mobile Home and Special Purpose Commercial Coach, dated May 1989 and provided by the department and shall contain the following information:

(1) The Quality Assurance Agency name, agency number, address and telephone number.

(2) The month and year of the adjusted report.

(3) The name, identification number, plant address and telephone number of the manufacturer.

(4) The signature and printed name and title of the authorized person, certifying under penalty of perjury that the information contained in the report and any and all attachments to the report is true and correct.

(5) The date that the certification was signed.

(6) The make and model and complete serial number.

(7) The plan approval number or inspection pursuant to Section 4878(d) or (e) as appropriate.

(8) Identification of whether the unit is a mobile home, recreational vehicle or special purpose commercial coach.

(9) The California insignia number and date of manufacture.

(10) The location in the manufacturing process when inspected.

(11) The name and address of the purchaser.

(12) The name, street address, city, state and zip code of the unit's destination.

(13) For mobile homes and special purpose commercial coaches only, identification of the number of sections as follows:

(A) Specify I if an individual section; or

(B) If of multi-section design, designate M1 for the first section, M2 for the second section, M3 for the third section, etc.

(14) Specification of the appropriate adjustment code as follows:

(A) VI for void insignia;

(B) E for error in information; or

(C) AU to add unit to report.

(m) The Quality Assurance Agency shall number the front and back pages on form HCD-MH 444 Quality Assurance Agency Adjustment Report for Recreational Vehicle, Mobile Home or Special Purpose Commercial Coach, dated May 1989.

(n) The Quality Assurance Agency shall notify the department of corrections to forms HCD-MH 442 and 442B Quality Assurance Agency Monthly Inspection and Insignia Issuance Summary for Commercial Coach (Part I), dated May 1989 by submitting form HCD-MH 445 Quality Assurance Agency Adjustment Report for Commercial Coach, dated May 1989 and provided by the department and shall contain the following information:

(1) The Quality Assurance Agency name, agency number, address and telephone number.

(2) The month and year of adjusted report.

(3) The name, identification number, plant address and telephone number of the manufacturer.

(4) The signature and printed name and title of the authorized person, certifying under penalty of perjury that the information contained in the report and any and all attachments to the report is true and correct.

(5) The date that certification was signed.

(6) The serial number, model and plan approval number.

(7) The roof, floor and wind live load, occupancy, electrical, plumbing, mechanical and fire safety for each unit.

(8) The California insignia number.

(9) The location in the manufacturing process when inspected.

(10) The date of manufacture.

(11) The name and address of the purchaser.

(12) The name, street address, city, state and zip code of the unit's destination.

(13) Identification of the number of sections within the commercial coach as follows:

(A) Specify I if an individual section; or

(B) If of multi-section design, designate M1 for the first section, M2 for the second section, M3 for the third section, etc.

(14) Specification of the appropriate adjustment code as follows:

(A) VI for void insignia;

(B) E for error in information; or

(C) AU to add unit to report.

(o) The Quality Assurance Agency shall number the front and back pages on form HCD-MH 445 Quality Assurance Agency Adjustment Report for Commercial Coach, dated May 1989.

(p) At the conclusion of each inspection visit, the Quality Assurance Inspector shall prepare an inspection report which shall include the following information:

(1) Identification of the Quality Assurance Agency, the inspector and the manufacturer.

(2) The date of the inspection.

(3) A brief narrative describing the inspection activities, i.e., production line, finished units in storage, material storage, tests, quality control inspections, etc.

(4) The model, plan approval number, serial number and type of each unit inspected.

(5) The location of each unit in the production sequence when inspected, including each finished unit bearing an insignia.

(6) For each unit inspected or tested, a description of each violation observed and of the action taken to correct the violation and eliminate its recurrence. The appropriate plan or manual and law, regulation or document incorporated by reference shall be referenced for each violation.

(7) An order to hold any unit which was found to be in violation which could not be brought into compliance during the inspection visit.

(8) A brief narrative which describes any reinspection, correction, or the discovery of additional violations found on units held for reinspections from previous inspections.

(9) For certified manufacturing facilities, a brief narrative which summarizes the effectiveness of the manufacturer's quality control program and notes any requirements for needed improvements.

(10) A brief narrative which summarizes the manufacturer's compliance with insignia security requirements.

(q) A copy of each inspection report shall be provided to the manufacturer. Copies of the inspection reports shall be provided the department upon written request from the department.

(r) A Certification Report required by Section 4878(c) shall include the following information:

(1) Identification of the Quality Assurance Agency and the manufacturer.

(2) The date of the report.

(3) A narrative which describes the inspections, dates of each inspection, observations, an assessment of the manufacturer's quality control program and compliance with approved plans, manuals, and applicable law or regulation, and which provides justification for the Agency's reduction in the frequency of inspection.

(4) A narrative which explains the insignia security procedures adopted by the manufacturer and which assesses their effectiveness.

(5) As an attachment, a copy of each inspection report associated with the certification of the manufacturing facility.

(s) A Quality Assurance Agency shall notify the department in writing within two (2) days of the discovery of units shipped for sale in California without inspection when required by Section 4878, insignia, or in violation of California law, regulation, or approved plans.

(t) Each Quality Assurance Agency shall maintain all reports, or copies thereof, required by this section for a period of three (3) years from the date of the report.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 10-6-88 as an emergency; operative 10-6-88 (Register 88, No. 42). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 2-3-89.
2. The Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 1-31-89 was disapproved. Order of Repeal of 10-6-88 emergency order filed 3-2-89 by OAL pursuant to Government Code Section 11349.6 (Register 89, No. 11).
3. New section filed 3-3-89 as an emergency; operative 3-3-89 (Register 89, No. 11). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days, by 7-3-89, or emergency language will be repealed.
4. Certificate of Compliance including amendment transmitted to OAL 6-29-89 and filed 7-24-89 (Register 89, No. 32).

§ 4882. Insignia Issuance and Administration.

(a) A Quality Assurance Agency shall apply to the department for insignia on form HCD-MH 440 Application for Insignia By Quality Assurance Agency, dated May 1989 and provided by the department and shall contain the following information at Section 1—Request for HCD Insignia:

(1) The Quality Assurance Agency name, agency number, address and telephone number.

(2) Identification of whether the type of insignia ordered is either recreational vehicle, mobile home, commercial coach or special purpose commercial coach. The Quality Assurance Agency shall request only one type of insignia on an application.

(3) Identification of the type of method used to determine the insignia fee as follows:

(A) Method I—Identify the number of recreational vehicle insignia requested and multiply by the recreational vehicle insignia fee specified in Section 4044(h)(2).

(B) Method II—Identify the number of special purpose commercial coach insignia requested.

(C) Method III—Identify the number of mobile home or commercial coach insignia requested and multiply by the insignia fee for mobile home and commercial coach specified in Section 4044(h)(1) and enter the amount at Line (A).

Calculate the credits due the Quality Assurance Agency for previous mobile home or commercial coach insignia (as appropriate) reported to the department as assigned to specific sections. Multiply the credits due by the insignia fee for mobile home and commercial coach specified in Section 4044(h)(1) and enter the amount at Line B. (One credit may be taken for each insignia issued to a manufacturer for the 2nd, 3rd, etc. section of a multi-section mobile home or commercial coach.)

Subtract Line (B) from Line (A) to determine the fee due the department and enter the amount at Line (C).

(4) The signature and printed name of the Insignia Administrator and the date that the request for insignia was signed.

(5) Upon completion of Section 1, the Quality Assurance Agency shall retain the pink copy and mail the white, canary and blue copies to the department along with the appropriate insignia fees.

(b) The department shall complete Section 2—Insignia Shipment, on form HCD-MH 440, Application For Insignia By Quality Assurance Agency, dated May 1989 upon receipt and acceptance of the Quality Assurance Agency's request for insignia, and the appropriate insignia fee required by Section 4044. Section 2 shall contain the following information:

(1) Indication of whether the type of insignia shipped is recreational vehicle, mobile home, commercial coach or special purpose commercial coach.

(2) The amount of available credits.

(3) The quantity of insignia shipped.

(4) The numerical sequence of insignia issued beginning with the first insignia control number and including the last insignia control number.

(5) The name of the authorized person issuing the insignia and the date of issuance.

(c) The department shall retain the blue copy and mail the white and canary copy to the Quality Assurance Agency with the insignia requested.

(d) Upon the Quality Assurance Agency's receipt of insignia from the department, the Quality Assurance Agency shall provide the following information at Section 3—Insignia Receiving Report on form HCD-MH 440 Application for Insignia by Quality Assurance Agency, dated May 1989:

(1) The date the insignia shipment was received.

(2) The quantity of insignia received.

(3) The numerical sequence of insignia issued beginning with the first insignia control number and including the last insignia control number.

(4) The signature and printed name of the Insignia Administrator, certifying that the insignia received is in satisfactory condition and correct according to type of insignia requested, quantity ordered and numerical sequence. The Insignia Administrator shall also certify to the unsatisfactory condition of insignia received by identifying insignia that is damaged, misprinted, missing, duplicated or possessing other unsatisfactory characteristics and identify the insignia number(s) affected.

(5) Upon completion of Section 3, the Quality Assurance Agency shall retain the canary copy and mail the white copy to the department along with insignia identified as damaged, misprinted, duplicated or possessing other unsatisfactory characteristics.

(e) The Quality Assurance Agency shall not request more than a thirty (30) day supply of insignia.

(f) The insignia remain the sole property of the department. A Quality Assurance Agency shall return the insignia when the agency terminates activity or when so ordered by the department.

(g) The Quality Assurance Agency is responsible for accounting for each insignia received from the department from the time of receipt until issued to a manufacturer. Insignia security procedures shall be established and an Insignia Administrator shall be designated to maintain insignia administration and security.

(h) The Quality Assurance Agency shall require each manufacturer to establish and maintain an insignia security procedure. The Quality Assurance Agency shall refuse to issue insignia to a manufacturer unless the manufacturer establishes and maintains adequate insignia security procedures. If a manufacturer does not establish and maintain adequate insignia security, the Quality Assurance Agency shall affix the insignia to finished and complying units at the time of inspection.

(i) The insignia security procedures established by the Quality Assurance Agency and each manufacturer shall minimize the potential for insignia loss, damage, theft and misappropriation. The procedures shall provide for storage of insignia in a lockable device when the insignia are left unattended. The device shall be of a type which cannot be opened except by a key or combination and except by the Insignia Administrator and shall be of such size or attachment to a floor or wall that it cannot be easily removed from the room where it is kept. The room where insignia are kept shall be locked when unattended. In the case of the manufacturer, the procedure for issuance of insignia shall be restricted to only personnel trained in insignia security procedures.

(j) The Quality Assurance Agency shall not permit a manufacturer to accumulate more than a thirty (30) day supply of insignia.

(k) The Quality Assurance Agency shall investigate the loss, destruction or misappropriation of insignia, including insignia issued to a client manufacturer. As an attachment to the report required by Section 4880(d), the Quality Assurance Agency shall submit a written investigative report to the department which identifies any insignia lost, stolen, damaged or misappropriated during the reporting month, and which describes the investigation, the circumstances which led to the occurrence, and the measures taken in order to eliminate a recurrence.

(l) The Quality Assurance Agency may charge a manufacturer for insignia and insignia administration, in addition to the charges for inspection.

Wall Surfacing for Tub and Shower Enclosures

I. Material: The wall covering material must have an exposed surface that is impervious to water; the substrate material must be resistant to deterioration from exposure to high humidity and temporary water leakage.

A. Strength: The complete wall assembly, including the wall covering substrate, shall be capable of withstanding a uniform load of five pounds per square foot applied perpendicular to the surface. The deflection, under load, shall not exceed 1/180 of the height of the wall, for the assembly; or 1/240 the distance between framing members, for the wall covering substrate.

B. Surface Finish: The exposed surface must meet the minimum requirements of the American Hardboard Association PS–59–73, Prefinished Hardboard Paneling, Class 1, as certified by the panel manufacturer.

C. Size: The minimum thickness of the material shall be 1/8″ nominal. The width to be sufficient to give continuous unbroken surface from corner to corner, or end of tub in corner installation, in an installation incorporating a shower, the unbroken surface must continue to a height of at least 6′ above the floor of the shower.

D. Type: The substrate material shall also meet the requirements of the appropriate standard listed below:

(1) Hardboard: of high strength and water resistance to meet Commercial Standard CS–251–63, or AHA PS 58–73, either standard or tempered.

(2) Softwood Plywood: must meet U.S. Product Standard P.S. 1–66 including exterior type glue line and grade A face veneer "suitable for painting."

(3) Hardwood Plywood: must meet PS–51–71 Type II glue line and sound grade face veneer.

(4) Other Materials: not meeting D–1, D–2, D–3 above, shall meet the requirements of this code and their appropriate Product Standard, Industry Standard, Commercial Standard, of Federal Specification.

II. Installation: The material must be installed in conformance with this code and the application instructions provided by the material manufacturer. In case of conflict, this regulation shall take precedence.

A. Framing: Wood framing shall be spaced not more than 16″ o.c. Blocking shall be 1″ x 3″ or equal, installed horizontally at height to match rim of the tub or shower pan. All corners shall have sufficient framing members for attachment of corner moldings.

B. Fastening: All edges and ends of panel shall occur on framing members. Panels shall be applied to wood framing members using water resistant, non–hard setting adhesive. Adhesive shall be applied to the face of all framing members except locations where panel edges fall beneath applied moldings. Panels may also be applied over solid backing using an adhesive.

NOTE: Fasteners, if necessary, shall be used only in locations where they will be covered by applied moldings, and shall be used on not more than two adjacent edges. No other interior fasteners, or fixtures, other than required functional plumbing fixtures shall penetrate the face of the panel. Openings for these plumbing fixtures must be sealed with caulk.

C. Corners and Edges: All corners and edges must be caulked or sealed against moisture penetration. A non–hard setting sealant material must be used with applied moldings. Fastening of moldings to framing shall not be greater than 6″ o.c.

Chapter 4. Manufactured Housing Sales, Occupational Licensing and Education

Subchapter 1. Sales and Occupational Licensing

§ 5000. Authority.

This chapter is adopted in order to implement, interpret and make specific and otherwise carry out the manufactured home, mobilehome and commercial coach occupational licensing requirements of Chapters 5, 6, and 7 (commencing with Sections 18035) of Division 13, Part 2, of the Health and Safety Code, Sections 1797, et seq., of the Civil Code, and Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 15374) of Title 2, Division 3, Part 6.7 of the Government Code.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 18015, Health and Safety Code, and Section 15376, Government Code. Reference: Sections 18000–18066.5, Health and Safety Code; and Sections 1797 et seq., Civil Code; and Sections 15374–15378, Government Code.

HISTORY

1. Repealer of Chapter 3, Subchapter 3 (Sections 5000–5005) and new Chapter 4 (Sections 5000–5049, not consecutive) filed 12–10–80; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 50). For history of former Chapter 4, see Register 77, No. 24.
2. Repealer of Chapter 4 (Sections 5000–5049, not consecutive) and new Chapter 4 (Sections 5000–5083, not consecutive) filed 7–7–82 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 82, No. 28). For prior history, see Registers 82, No. 10, and 81, No. 39. A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 11–4–82.
3. Certificate of Compliance including amendments transmitted to OAL 11–3–82 and filed 12–15–82 (Register 82, No. 51).
4. Amendment filed 2–1–84; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 84, No. 5).

§ 5001. Application and Scope.

(a) The provisions of this chapter apply to all persons acting as a manufacturer, distributor, dealer, or salesperson of manufactured homes, mobilehomes, or commercial coaches as defined by Sections 18000–18014 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) The provisions of this chapter also apply to all persons acting in the capacity of a 90–day certificate holder as defined in Section 5002 of this chapter.

(c) These provisions regulate the occupational licensing of and business practices of licensees regarding the manufacture, alteration, sale or lease of manufactured homes, mobilehomes or commercial coaches.

(d) To the extent permitted by law, these provisions provide for regulation of transporters of manufactured homes, mobilehomes and commercial coaches.

(e) These provisions regulate the application process and requirements for the department and persons applying for a license or 90–day certificate pursuant to law and this chapter.

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 18015 and 18052.6, Health and Safety Code, and Section 15374, Government Code. Reference: Sections 18035–18066.5, Health and Safety Code; Sections 1797–1797.7, Civil Code; and Sections 15374–15378, Government Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (a) and new subsection (d) filed 2–1–84; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code section 11346.2(d) (Register 84, No. 5).
2. Amendment of subsection (a), adoption of subsection (b) and subsection renumbering, and amendment of subsection (e) and NOTE filed 11–25–91; operative 12–26–91. (Register 92, No. 12).

The following definitions and those set forth or referenced in Health and Safety Code Sections 18000 through 18153, shall govern the activities under this chapter:

(a) Accessory. Any additional structure, air–conditioning unit, driveway, landscaping, skirting, awning, carport, shed, porch, or other items contracted for and included in the purchase document for the purchase or lease of a manufactured home, mobilehome and/or its installation site.

(b) Acknowledged. When used in this chapter means either notarized or attested to by a subscribing witness.

(c) Advertising. Any statement, representation, act or announcement intentionally communicated to any member of the public by any means whatever, whether orally, in writing or otherwise, generally for the purpose of arousing a desire to buy or patronize.

(d) Cash or cash equivalent. Includes, but is not limited to:

(1) Cash, checks, money orders, or drafts.

(2) Promissory notes, bills of sale, or certificates of ownership, or other intangible property.

(3) Assignments of funds, proceeds, contracts, rights, or other negotiable instruments.

(4) Any real or personal property.

(e) Clock hour. Fifty (50) continuous minutes in an approved preliminary or continuing education course, seminar, or conference excluding breaks for meals, rest, or smoking.

(f) Close of escrow. The date on which the conditions of the escrow have been met and the escrow agent is in a position to disburse all funds excepting funds withheld for uninstalled or undelivered accessories included in the purchase price.

(g) Continuing Education Course. A class, seminar or conference approved by the department, pursuant to law and this chapter, which offers licensees continuing education clock hour credits on one topic.

(h) Correspondence Course. A continuing education program of a single topic approved by the department transmitted by mail between a licensee and an approved course provider.

(i) Course Provider. A person or entity offering preliminary or continuing education courses approved by the department. A course provider meeting the minimum qualifications established in this chapter may also be an approved instructor.

(j) DOJ. The California Department of Justice.

(k) Instructor. A person approved by the department to present preliminary or continuing education courses while in the employ of a course provider. An instructor may also be a course provider.

(l) Live Scan. Digitally scanned fingerprinting using the electronic process certified by DOJ at an approved facility.

(m) Manufactured Home. A structure as defined by section 18007 of the Health and Safety Code.

(n) Manufacturer's Suggested Retail Price. The total price shown on the label required by Health and Safety Code Section 18032.

(o) Mobilehome. A structure as defined by section 18008 of the Health and Safety Code.

(p) Multifamily Manufactured Home. A structure as defined by section 18008.7 of the Health and Safety Code. "Multi–unit manufactured housing" has the same meaning as "multifamily manufactured home", as that term is defined by section 18008.7 of the Health and Safety Code.

(q) 90–day certificate holder. An applicant for an original salesperson license, holding a certificate issued by the department which permits the applicant to perform the following activities while in the employment of a licensed dealer:

(1) A 90–day certificate holder may induce or attempt to induce a person to buy, lease, or exchange an interest in a new or used manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial modular.

(2) For commission, money, profit, or other thing of value, a 90–day certificate holder may sell, exchange, buy, or lease; offer for sale; negotiate or attempt to negotiate a sale, lease or exchange of an interest in a new or used manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial modular.

(3) A 90–day certificate holder shall not execute any documents, contracts, or listing agreements, or accept any cash or cash equivalent for the sale or lease of a new or used manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial modular.

(r) Preliminary Education Course. A class, seminar or conference approved by the department pursuant to law and this chapter relating to laws and regulations governing manufactured home and mobilehome sales, specifically designed for persons not holding a manufactured home or mobilehome dealer or salesperson license.

(s) Purchase document. Any instrument of purchase, regardless of its title, which is prepared by a licensee to effect the sale of a manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial modular to a retail purchaser.

(t) Supervising Managing Employee. A person designated by a licensed dealer of manufactured homes, mobilehomes or commercial modulars as responsible for the direct supervision of 90-day certificate holders employed by the dealer at an established place of business. A supervising managing employee must be:

(1) a salesperson in possession of a valid occupational license as required by this chapter, or

(2) a sole owner dealer, or

(3) a partner in a partnership or a director or officer of a corporation who, as required by this chapter, has been designated as participating in the direction and control of the sales business.

(u) Topic. The subject offered by a preliminary or continuing education course.

(v) Working days. All days except Saturdays, Sundays, and state and federal holidays.

4. Repealer of subsection (j) and subsection relettering filed 2-6-98; operative 3-8-98 (Register 98, No. 6).
5. New subsections (j) and (l), subsection relettering, amendment of newly designated subsections (n)(1)–(3), (p) and (q) and amendment of NOTE filed 11-7-2005; operative 11-7-2005 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2005, No. 45).
6. Change without regulatory effect adding subsections (m), (o) and (p), relettering subsections and amending NOTE filed 7-14-2008 pursuant to section 100, title 1, California Code of Regulations (Register 2008, No. 29).

Article 2. License and Business Requirements

§ 5010. License.

(a) No person acting as a manufacturer, dealer, distributor or salesperson shall do so from any location without a current and valid occupational license issued pursuant to law or this chapter. Any person in violation of this section shall be liable for appropriate fees pursuant to Section 5040 and a penalty of 50 percent of the license fee in addition to any other civil and/or criminal penalties.

(b) No person acting as a transporter shall do so without a current and valid transportation decal. Any person in violation of this section shall be liable for appropriate fees pursuant to Section 5040 and a penalty of 50 percent of the decal fee in addition to any other civil and/or criminal penalties.

(c) No manufacturer whose established place of business is located outside this state, shall deliver new manufactured homes, mobilehomes or commercial coaches to dealers in this state for the purposes of sale, rent or lease, without a current and valid manufacturer's license issued pursuant to law and this chapter. It is not necessary for a manufacturer to obtain a license in this state for manufacturing sites located outside of the state, provided that the manufacturer has at least one established place of business located within this state licensed by the Department of Housing and Community Development.

2. Amendment of subsections (a) and (e) filed 2-1-84; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 84, No. 5).
3. Repealer of subsections (c)–(d) and subsection relettering filed 2-6-98; operative 3-8-98 (Register 98, No. 6).

§ 5011. Books and Records.

(a) Pertinent books and records of a licensee which relate to the manufacture, purchase, sale, rental, transportation or lease of manufactured homes, mobilehomes or commercial coaches must be available for inspection during normal work hours without prior notice. In the case of an out of state manufacturer, pertinent books and records or copies thereof shall be delivered or mailed to the department for inspection within 10 days of a written request from the department.

(b) In the case of a dealer, pertinent books and records include, but are not limited to, invoices; certificates of origin; identification numbers; report of sales books; purchase documents; lease or rental agreements; receipts for deposit; documents submitted into escrow for the preparation of escrow instructions; escrow instructions; and any other records which relates to the purchase, sale, rental or lease of any manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach within this state.

(c) In the case of a manufacturer or distributor, pertinent books and records include, but are not limited to, invoices; certificates of origin; identification numbers; contracts or franchise agreements with dealers; production orders; suggested retail price labels; and any other record which relates to the manufacture, distribution, sale, rent or lease of any manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach within this state.

(d) Books and records must be kept on the premises of the licensee's established place of business unless the licensee has designated, on a form prescribed by the department, an alternate site within the state at which the books and records will be maintained and available for inspection. The licensee must notify the department on the prescribed form of any change in location of the books and records at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the change in location.

(e) Unless otherwise specified by law or this chapter, all business records relating to manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach transactions shall be retained by the licensee for a period of not less than three (3) years.

(f) When, for any reason, a licensee terminates or suspends business, all department report of sale books, along with all permits, licenses, transportation decals and registration documents therefor, and all salespersons' licenses in possession of a dealer, shall be surrendered to the department upon demand or within ten (10) calendar days after termination or suspension, whichever occurs first.

(g) When, for any reason, a licensee terminates or suspends business, the licensee shall notify the department in writing within 10 days of the termination or suspension, of the location where pertinent books and records will be kept and available for inspection.

The HCD OL 8016 form or DOJ equivalent form must provide evidence that the fingerprints have been submitted to DOJ and that the department is properly listed as the agency to receive any criminal history information. Applicants applying for an exemption from the Live Scan process must submit their exemption requests through the department on the forms prescribed by DOJ. Fingerprinting must be processed by a law enforcement agency or a DOJ-certified fingerprint roller. Additional fingerprinting may be required if the submitted fingerprints are rejected by DOJ or the Federal Bureau of Investigation;

(5) Two full facial photographs of each person shown on Part A, minimum size 1 1/4" x 1", taken from a maximum distance of six (6) feet;

(6) Business photographs: One photograph showing the manufacturing area and one photograph of the exterior of the office for each established place of business;

(7) A list of model or brand names to be manufactured at each established place of business;

(8) An explanation of the serial numbers configuration to be assigned to manufactured homes, mobilehomes or commercial modulars;

(9) The original license application fee specified in Section 5040 of this subchapter for each established place of business.

(e) Distributor License. The following forms and items are required to be submitted by applicants for a distributor's license:

(1) Occupational License Application for Manufactured Home/Mobilehome/Commercial Modular Manufacturers, Distributors, and Dealers, Part A, form HCD OL 12 (Rev. 11/05), which is incorporated by reference;

(2) Occupational License Application for Manufactured Home/Mobilehome/Commercial Modular Manufacturers, Distributors, Dealers and Salespersons, Part B, form HCD OL 29 (Rev. 11/05), which is incorporated by reference, for each person shown on Part A;

(3) Occupational License Application for Manufactured Home/Mobilehome/Commercial Modular Manufacturers, Distributors and Dealers, Part C, form HCD OL 21 (Rev. 11/05), which is incorporated by reference, for each established place of business;

(4) For each person shown on Part A, fingerprints must be submitted through the Live Scan fingerprint process. Unless exempted by DOJ, applicants shall provide a properly completed and legible copy of form HCD OL 8016 (New 11/05), "Request for Live Scan Service", which is incorporated by reference, or the equivalent form provided by DOJ. The HCD OL 8016 form or DOJ equivalent form must provide evidence that the fingerprints have been submitted to DOJ and that the department is properly listed as the agency to receive any criminal history information. Applicants applying for an exemption from the Live Scan process must submit their exemption requests through the department on the forms prescribed by DOJ. Fingerprints must be processed by a law enforcement agency or a DOJ-certified fingerprint roller. Additional fingerprinting may be required if the submitted fingerprints are rejected by DOJ or the Federal Bureau of Investigation;

(5) Two full facial photographs of each person shown on Part A, minimum size 1 1/4" x 1", taken from a maximum distance of six (6) feet.

(6) Business photographs: One photograph showing the exterior of the office for each established place of business;

(7) A list of the name, address, brands and models of each manufacturer whose line will be distributed;

(8) An explanation of the manufacturer's serial numbers configuration assigned to manufactured homes, mobilehomes or commercial modulars;

(9) The original license application fee specified in Section 5040 of this subchapter for each established place of business.

(f) Dealer License. The following forms and items are required to be submitted by applicants for a dealer's license:

(1) Occupational License Application for Manufactured Home/Mobilehome/Commercial Modular Manufacturers, Distributors, and Dealers, Part A, form HCD OL 12 (Rev. 11/05), which is incorporated by reference;

(2) Occupational License Application for Manufactured Home/Mobilehome/Commercial Modular Manufacturers, Distributors, Dealers and Salespersons, Part B, form HCD OL 29 (Rev. 11/05), which is incorporated by reference, for each person shown on Part A;

(3) Occupational License Application for Manufactured Home/Mobilehome/Commercial Modular Manufacturers, Distributors and Dealers,

Part C, form HCD OL 21 (Rev. 11/05), which is incorporated by reference, for each established place of business;

(4) Occupational License Application for Manufactured Home/Mobilehome/Commercial Modular Dealers, Part D, HCD OL 50 (Rev. 11/05), which is incorporated by reference;

(5) For each person shown on Part A, fingerprints must be submitted through the Live Scan fingerprint process. Unless exempted by DOJ, applicants shall provide a properly completed and legible copy of form HCD OL 8016 (New 11/05), "Request for Live Scan Service", which is incorporated by reference, or the equivalent form provided by DOJ. The HCD OL 8016 form or DOJ equivalent form must provide evidence that the fingerprints have been submitted to DOJ and that the department is properly listed as the agency to receive any criminal history information. Applicants applying for an exemption from the Live Scan process must submit their exemption requests through the department on the forms prescribed by DOJ. Fingerprints must be processed by a law enforcement agency or a DOJ-certified fingerprint roller. Additional fingerprinting may be required if the submitted fingerprints are rejected by DOJ or the Federal Bureau of Investigation;

(8) Certificate of Appointment, form HCD OL 28 (Rev. 11/05), which is incorporated by reference;

(9) A Letter of Authorization from, and a copy of any franchise or contractual agreement with, each manufacturer indicating its approval to sell manufactured homes, mobilehomes or commercial modulars at the address of the established place of business (NOT required of dealers selling only used manufactured homes, mobilehomes, or commercial modulars);

(10) Proof of successful passage by each person shown in Part A of the Manufactured Home/Mobilehome or Commercial Modular Dealer Examination, as required by law and Section 5022 of this subchapter, within six months prior to the application date;

(11) A sample of all purchase documents to be used, including but not limited to, purchase orders, conditional sales contracts, security agreements, or other instruments of purchase, and receipts of deposit;

NOTE: Issuance of a license is not to be construed as approval of the contents of such documents or their legal sufficiency.

(12) A list of all names, license numbers and home addresses of all salespersons and managing employees to be employed at each established place of business;

(13) The original license application fee specified in Section 5040 of this subchapter for each established place of business.

(g) Salesperson License. The following forms and items are required to be submitted by applicants for a salesperson's license:

(1) Occupational License Application for Manufactured Home/Mobilehome/Commercial Modular Salespersons, Part A, form HCD OL 16 (Rev. 11/05), which is incorporated by reference;

(2) Occupational License Application for Manufactured Home/Mobilehome/Commercial Modular Manufacturers, Distributors, Dealers and Salespersons, Part B, form HCD OL 29 (Rev. 11/05), which is incorporated by reference;

(3) For each person shown on Part A, fingerprints must be submitted through the Live Scan fingerprint process. Unless exempted by DOJ, applicants shall provide a properly completed and legible copy of form HCD OL 8016 (New 11/05), "Request for Live Scan Service", which is incorporated by reference, or the equivalent form provided by DOJ. The HCD OL 8016 form or DOJ equivalent form must provide evidence that the fingerprints have been submitted to DOJ and that the department is properly listed as the agency to receive any criminal history information. Applicants applying for an exemption from the Live Scan process must submit their exemption requests through the department on the forms prescribed by DOJ. Fingerprints must be processed by a law enforcement agency or a DOJ-certified fingerprint roller. Additional fingerprinting may be required if the submitted fingerprints are rejected by DOJ or the Federal Bureau of Investigation;

(4) Two full facial photographs of each person shown on Part A, minimum size 1 1/4" by 1", taken from a maximum distance of six (6) feet;

(5) Proof of successful passage of the manufactured home/mobilehome or commercial modular salesperson examination, as required by law and Section 5022 of this subchapter, within six months prior to the application date.

(6) The original license application fee specified in Section 5040 of this subchapter.

(h) 90-Day Certificate.

(1) Any person applying for a 90-day certificate shall submit an application to the department on form HCD-OL 90, "Application for Manufactured Home/Mobilehome/Commercial Modular 90-Day Certificate," (Rev. 11/05), which is incorporated by reference, as set forth in subsection (h)(2). This form is provided by the department.

(2) Form HCD-OL 90, "Application for Manufactured Home/Mobilehome/Commercial Modular 90-Day Certificate," (Rev. 11/05), which is incorporated by reference.

(3) The original 90-day certificate application fee specified in Section 5040 of this subchapter.

(4) Concurrent with the submission to the department of a completed form HCD-OL 90, "Application for Manufactured Home/Mobilehome/Commercial Modular 90-Day Certificate," (Rev. 11/05), which is incorporated by reference, the applicant shall also submit a completed application for license as a salesperson, in accordance with Sections 5020(a) and 5020(g) of this subchapter, with the exception of the following items:

(A) Proof of successful passage of the manufactured home/mobilehome or commercial modular salesperson examination as required by Section 5020(g)(5) of this subchapter;

(B) Proof of completion of a preliminary education program as required by Section 5302(c) of this subchapter; and

(C) The original salesperson license application fee specified in Section 5040(d)(1) of this subchapter as required by 5020(g)(6) of this subchapter.

(i) 90-Day Certificate Holder Converting to a Salesperson License Holder.

(1) All 90-day certificate holders, wishing to convert to a licensed salesperson, shall provide the department with the following no later than three months after the expiration of their 90-day certificate:

(A) Proof of successful passage of the manufactured home/mobilehome or commercial modular salesperson examination as required by Section 5020(g)(5) of this subchapter;

(B) Proof of completion of a preliminary education program as required by Section 5302(c) of this subchapter; and

(C) The original salesperson license application fee specified in Section 5040(d)(1) of this Chapter as required by 5020(g)(6) of this subchapter.

(D) Items required by subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C) of this subdivision shall be provided to the department accompanied by the 90-day certificate.

(2) Notwithstanding the three-month period permitted for completion of the salesperson application process outlined in Section 5020(i)(1) of this subchapter above, no holder of an expired 90-day certificate shall act in the capacity of a 90-day certificate holder or licensed salesperson until receiving a valid certificate or salesperson license.

(3) Conversion applicants failing to comply with the provisions of Section 5020(i)(1) of this subchapter shall meet all salesperson license application requirements as a new applicant in accordance with Section 5020(g) of this subchapter.

§ 5020.5. License and 90–Day Certificate Application Review and Notice of Department Decision.

(a) Within 7 calendar days of receiving applications in the office designated on the application forms for an occupational license, the department shall review each license application received pursuant to this chapter, and notify the applicant in writing of either the acceptance of the application for filing, or the rejection of the application due to incompleteness or errors, specifically identifying the incompleteness or errors and what must be done in order to make the application complete and acceptable.

(b) Within 120 calendar days of receiving a completed and acceptable application, the department shall conduct an investigation pursuant to Health and Safety Code Section 18052 of each person identified on the application, and each proposed place of business within this state; determine if the provisions of law and this chapter applicable to the application have been satisfied, and either issue a license or a written notice of refusal. The written notice of refusal shall specify the reasons why approval may not be granted.

(c) A survey conducted pursuant to Government Code Section 15376 of the department's performance determined the minimum, median and maximum elapsed time between receipt of a completed application for a manufacturer, distributor, or dealer license or transportation decal and reaching a final decision; the results are as follows:

(1) Minimum: 21 calendar days

(2) Median: 63 calendar days

(3) Maximum: 463 calendar days

(d) A survey conducted pursuant to Government Code Section 15376 of the department's performance determined the minimum, median and maximum elapsed time between receipt of a completed application for a salesperson license and reaching a final decision; the results are as follows:

(1) Minimum: 15 calendar days

(2) Median: 57 calendar days

(3) Maximum: 344 calendar days

(e) The department may exceed the maximum time as provided in subsections (a) and (b), if any of the following occurs:

(1) the number of applications is 15 percent greater than for the same calendar quarter of the preceding year.

(2) the department's application processing is delayed due to fingerprint rejection or fingerprint processing by the California Department of Justice or the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

(f) For 90–day certificate applications, the department's processing times, from receipt of an application to either issuance of the certificate or refusal of issuance of the certificate, shall be as follows:

Minimum: 1 working day

Maximum: 7 working days

(g) The applicant may appeal directly to the Director of the Department and/or the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency for a timely resolution of any dispute arising from a violation of the time periods within which the department must process the application. The appeal shall be decided in the applicant's favor if the department has exceeded the established maximum time period of issuance or denial of the license or 90–day certificate and the department has failed to establish good cause for exceeding the time period. If the appeal is decided in the applicant's favor, the applicant shall receive full reimbursement of any and all filing fees paid to the department.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 2–1–84; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 84, No. 5).
2. Amendment of subsections (a) and (b), adoption of subsections (f) and (g) and amendment of NOTE filed 11–25–91; operative 12–26–91. (Register 92, No. 12).

§ 5021. Abbreviated Application for Applicants with Business or Personal History Irregularities.

(a) Occupational license applicants with previous business or personal history irregularities wishing to determine licensing eligibility may submit an abbreviated application with the following items:

(1) Occupational License Application for Manufactured Home/Mobilehome/Commercial Modular Manufacturers, Distributors, and Dealers, Part A, form HCD OL 12 (Rev. 11/05), which is incorporated by reference.

(2) Occupational License Application for Manufactured Home/Mobilehome/Commercial Modular Manufacturers, Distributors, Dealers and Salespersons, Part B, form HCD OL 29 (Rev. 11/05), which is incorporated by reference.

(3) For each applicant shown on Part A, fingerprints must be submitted through the Live Scan fingerprint process. Unless exempted by DOJ, applicants shall provide a properly completed and legible copy of form HCD OL 8016 (New 11/05), "Request for Live Scan Service", which is incorporated by reference, or the equivalent form provided by DOJ. The HCD OL 8016 form or DOJ equivalent form must provide evidence that the fingerprints have been submitted to DOJ and that the department is properly listed as the agency to receive any criminal history information. Applicants applying for an exemption from the Live Scan process must submit their exemption requests through the department on the forms prescribed by DOJ. Fingerprints must be processed by a law enforcement agency or a DOJ–certified fingerprint roller. Additional fingerprinting may be required if the submitted fingerprints are rejected by DOJ or the Federal Bureau of Investigation;

(4) Non–refundable original application fee, specified by Section 5040 of this subchapter.

(b) After the department has determined from the abbreviated application that an applicant is eligible, all other forms and items required by Section 5020 of this subchapter must be submitted to the department before a license or temporary permit will be issued.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 11–25–91; operative 12–26–91 (Register 92, No. 12).
2. Change without regulatory effect amending NOTE filed 9–15–94 pursuant to section 100, title 1, California Code of Regulations (Register 94, No. 37).

§ 5029. Change of Franchise or Authorization.

Every manufacturer, distributor or dealer shall notify the department in writing within 10 days of the effective date of any change, addition or cancellation of any franchise, contractual agreement or authorization to sell manufactured homes, mobilehomes, or commercial coaches.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 18045.6, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 18045.6, Health and Safety Code.

§ 5030. Renewal of Licenses.

(a) It is the responsibility of each licensee to renew its license pursuant to the requirements of law and this chapter.

(b) Licensees who fail to make application for renewal for a license when required shall, in addition to the fees required pursuant to Section 5040, pay a penalty of 50 percent of the relevant license fee.

(c) Failure to renew a license before its expiration date results in automatic cancellation of the license. Any person whose license has expired cannot renew it and may receive a new one only by applying for a new license pursuant to the requirements of law and this chapter and paying the penalty prescribed in subdivision (b).

(d) Any check received for renewal that is subsequently dishonored and not reimbursed before the expiration date will result in the cancellation of the applicant's license.

(e) The following language shall become effective on January 1, 1984. Every occupational license issued to a manufacturer, distributor or dealer shall expire on the last day of the 24th month following the date of issuance of the temporary permit issued pursuant to Section 5023. Every occupational license renewed by a manufacturer, distributor or dealer shall be for a term of 24 months. The application to renew an occupational license held by a manufacturer, distributor or dealer must be either received by the department or postmarked during the month preceding the month of expiration. Applications postmarked or delivered in person to the department during the month of expiration shall be subject to a 50 percent penalty. A license may not be renewed after its expiration date.

(f) Salespersons' licenses expire on the last day of the 24th month following the date of issuance of the temporary permit pursuant to Section 5023. Renewal of a salesperson's license shall be for a 24–month term. Renewal may not be made more than 90 days prior to the expiration date. A 50% penalty fee shall be added if the renewal application and fee are not postmarked or received by the department 30 days prior to expiration.

(g) Licensees applying for a secondary place of business(es) license will be issued licenses for a term concurrent with the existing licensure term. Fees will be based on the applicable original application fee specified in Section 5040, but shall be prorated consistent with the remaining license term.

(h) Each licensee, when applying for renewal of a license, shall present documentation necessary to determine the licensee's eligibility to receive public benefits pursuant to chapter 5.5 of this division, beginning with section 5802.

Article 5. Advertising Listing Agreements and Sales Practices

§ 5050. General Advertising.

(a) Any advertised statements, representations, or offers made in connection with the sale, attempted sale, listing for sale, or attempted listing for sale of any manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach shall be clear, based on facts, and subject to the requirements of law and this chapter.

(b) Any advertisement by a dealer of a specific manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach shall include the dealer's name, its manufacturer or model name, year model and at least one of the following items:

(1) The serial number assigned by its manufacturer, or

(2) The federal label number, or

(3) The Department insignia number.

Year models are no longer current when ensuing year models are advertised or made available for purchase at retail by the manufacturers.

(c) If a license advertises any manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach used in its business as a lot model, display unit or office, the licensee shall clearly disclose the previous use made thereof.

(d) A licensee shall advertise any manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach which has been previously sold at retail, registered or otherwise required to be registered expressly as a used manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 18015, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 18061, 18062 and 18062.2, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Certificate of Compliance including amendment transmitted to OAL 11-3-82 and filed 12-15-82 (Register 81, No. 51).
2. Amendment filed 2-6-98; operative 3-8-98 (Register 98, No. 6).

§ 5051. Manufactured Home, Mobilehome or Commercial Coach Condition and Physical Size.

(a) Statements of the condition of a manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach must accurately reflect its known condition, and pictures thereof must accurately depict its overall appearance.

(b) When advertising the size of a manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach, the size shall not include measurements of projections beyond the exterior wall such as roof overhangs, hitches, drawbars, couplings, bay windows or similar projections.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 18015, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 18061, Health and Safety Code.

§ 5052. Manufactured Home, Mobilehome or Commercial Coach Availability.

(a) No dealer shall advertise a specific new manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach or a class thereof for sale, unless it is in the dealer's possession, or is available to the dealer directly from the manufacturer or distributor thereof under an enforceable contractual right of delivery or retail authorization on file with the department between the advertising dealer and the manufacturer or distributor.

(b) A dealer must sell advertised manufactured homes, mobilehomes or commercial coaches at or below the advertised price irrespective of whether or not the advertised price has been communicated to the purchaser.

(c) Dealers displaying models which contain features, items or materials no longer available from the manufacturer, shall disclose such facts to prospective purchasers of homes whose order is based upon the display model.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 18015, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 18061 and 18062.2, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Certificate of Compliance including amendment transmitted to OAL 11-3-82 and filed 12-15-82 (Register 82, No. 51).
2. Amendment of subsection (b) filed 2-6-98; operative 3-8-98 (Register 98, No. 6).

§ 5053. Free Merchandise, Savings Claims and Rebates.

(a) No licensee shall advertise or represent any merchandise, services, accessories or products as "free" with the purchase of a manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach if the manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach can be purchased from the advertiser at a lesser price without such "free" merchandise, services, accessories or products. Advertisements for "free" merchandise, services, accessories or products offered in consideration of such things as "visit our showroom" shall clearly and completely describe the conditions under which the "free" merchandise is offered.

(b) Dealers may advertise savings claims or discount offers on new manufactured homes, mobilehomes or commercial coaches provided the advertisement shows the difference between the dealer's advertised selling price for cash and the manufacturer's suggested retail price, except sales tax, registration fees, and finance charges. Such advertisements must include a specific reference by words, figures, or both, to the manufacturer's suggested retail price.

(c) Any advertisements with reference to "rebates" on manufactured homes, mobilehomes or commercial coaches shall clearly state the amount and source of the rebate. No dealer shall advertise or offer a rebate with the purchase of a manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach if the advertised manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach can normally be purchased from the advertiser at a lesser price without such rebated.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 18015, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 18061, 18062 and 18062.2, Health and Safety Code.

2. Amendment of subsection (a), repealer of subsection (b) and subsection relettering filed 2-6-98; operative 3-8-98 (Register 98, No. 6).

§ 5054. Dealer Added Charges.

A dealer may not identify a separate charge or charges for services performed on a manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach prior to delivery to the extent the dealer is or will be reimbursed for such expenditures by another party.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 18015, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 18061, 18062 and 18062.2, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Certificate of Compliance including amendment transmitted to OAL 11-3-82 and filed 12-15-82 (Register 82, No. 51).

§ 5055. Financing.

(a) Credit terms advertised shall include all charges required to place the transaction on a time payment basis and must state any rates in compliance with Regulation Z. Advertisements of terms which include escalated payments, balloon payments, or pick-up payments shall clearly identify those payments as to their amounts and times due and must state any rates in compliance with Regulation Z.

(b) Licensees shall not advertise statements such as "no finance charge" unless there is no charge or time-price differential whatsoever for placing the transaction on a time payment basis.

(c) Licensees shall not make claims such as "everybody financed," "no credit rejected," or words of a similar nature unless the licensee is willing to extend such credit to each and every individual under any and all circumstances.

(d) If qualifying words such as "on credit approval," are used in conjunction with advertised credit terms, licensees shall clearly state such qualifying words, unabbreviated, in type size no less than 1/2 of the type size of the credit terms, and in close proximity thereto.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 18015, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 18036.5, 18061 and 18062, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Certificate of Compliance including amendment transmitted to OAL 11-3-82 and filed 12-15-82 (Register 82, No. 51).

§ 5056. Down Payment and Deposit.

(a) A licensee shall not advertise the amount of down payment and/or deposit required to purchase a manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach unless it is clearly identified as being a down payment or deposit in type size not less than 1/2 the type size in which the amount of the down payment or deposit is stated.

(b) A licensee shall not advertise the statements "no down payment," "no deposit" or similar terms unless the dealer will sell and deliver the advertised manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach to any purchaser without prior payment of any kind or trade-in.

(c) If an advertisement quotes the amount of a periodic payment, the advertisement shall also quote the amount of the down payment or deposit required to qualify for the amount of the quoted periodic payment.

(d) A licensee shall not advertise the amount of a down payment or deposit unless it represents the total payment, including any payment for sales tax, permits, titling or registration, to be required of the purchaser prior to delivery of the manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 18015, Health and Safety Code: Reference: Sections 18061 and 18062.2, Health and Safety Code.

History

1. Certificate of Compliance including amendment transmitted to OAL 11-3-82 and files 12-15-82 (Register 82, No. 51).

§ 5057. Representations.

A dealer or salesperson shall not do any of the following:

(a) Knowingly make a material misrepresentation to the owner or seller of a manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach of its likely market value, either for the purpose of securing a listing or for the purpose of acquiring an interest in the manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach for the licensee's own account.

(b) State or imply to an owner or seller of a manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach during listing negotiations that the licensee is precluded by law, regulation or by the rules of any group or organization of licensees, from charging less than the commission or fee quoted to the owner by the licensee.

(c) Fail in a transaction for the sale, lease or exchange of a manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach to disclose to a prospective purchaser or lessee facts known to the licensee materially affecting the value or desirability of the manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach, when the licensee has reason to believe that such facts are not known to, nor readily observable by a prospective purchaser or lessee.

(d) When seeking a listing, represent to an owner or seller of the manufactured home, a mobilehome or commercial coach that the soliciting licensee has obtained a bona fide written offer to purchase the manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach, unless at the time of representation the licensee has possession of a bona fide written offer to purchase.

(e) Fail to present or cause to be presented to the registered owner or seller of the manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach any offer to purchase or lease received prior to the preparation of the purchase documents or rental agreement.

(f) Present competing offers to the seller to purchase the manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach in such a manner as to induce the owner or seller to accept the offer which will provide the greatest compensation to the dealer, without regard to the benefits, advantages, and/or disadvantages to the owner or seller.

(g) Knowingly underestimate the probable closing costs in a transaction in a communication to the prospective purchaser or seller of a manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach in order to induce that person to make or to accept an offer to purchase the manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach.

(h) Fail to explain to the parties or prospective parties to a transaction the meaning and probable significance of a contingency in an offer or contract that the licensee knows or reasonably believes may affect the closing date of the transaction, or the timing of the vacating of the manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach by the seller or its occupancy by the purchaser.

(i) Knowingly make a false or misleading representation to the seller or purchaser of a manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach as to the form, amount and/or treatment of a deposit toward purchase.

(j) Refund all or part of an offeror's purchase money deposit in a manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach sales transaction after the registered owner has accepted the offer to purchase, unless the licensee has the express permission of the registered owner to make the refund.

(k) Fail to disclose the registered owner of a manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach the nature and extent of any direct or indirect ownership interest or security interest that the licensee expects to acquire as a result of the sale. The prospective purchase of the manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach by a person related to the licensee by blood or marriage, by an entity in which the licensee has an ownership interest, or by any other person with whom the licensee occupies a special relationship shall be disclosed.

(l) Represent, without a reasonable basis, the nature and/or condition of the interior or exterior features or accessories of a manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach when soliciting an offer.

(m) Represent, without a reasonable basis, in the case of the manufactured home or mobilehome located in a mobilehome park, any characteristics of the mobilehome park or its operation, when soliciting an offer.

(n) Fail to respond to reasonable inquiries of a seller as to the status or extent of efforts to market the manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach listed exclusively with the licensee.

(o) Fail to disclose to a potential purchaser when discussing the purchase of a manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach, the existence of any direct or indirect ownership interest or security interest of the licensee in the manufactured home, mobilehome or commercial coach.

(p) Fail to disclose to a prospective purchaser of a used mobilehome that it may become subject to the age limitations as specified in Section 798.73 of the Civil Code within 3 years from the date of sale to the prospective purchaser.

Article 6. Purchase Documents and Escrow

§ 5060. Escrow Required.

(a) Concurrent with a dealer's receipt of any cash or cash equivalent from a purchaser at any time prior to delivery of a new or used manufactured home or mobilehome subject to registration, the dealer shall execute a mutually-endorsed receipt for deposit and purchase document. Within three working days thereafter, the dealer must establish with an escrow agent an escrow account into which all cash or cash equivalents shall be deposited. The escrow shall not be established with an escrow agent or agency in which the dealer has more than 5 percent ownership interest.

(b) Upon the purchaser's signing of the receipt for deposit and purchase document, the dealer shall provide the purchaser with a copy of each document, which must be mutually-endorsed.

(c) Upon establishment of the escrow account, the dealer shall provide the escrow agent, in writing, with the information required for the preparation of escrow instructions.

(d) These regulations do not imply, nor shall they be interpreted to require, that a recorded certificate of title or junior lienholder registration card(s) be delivered to the purchaser through escrow as a condition of escrow. These regulations shall, however, provide that a release of any prior rights, title, or interest in a manufactured home or mobilehome being purchased or traded in as payment toward the manufactured home or mobilehome being purchased, held by the registered owner(s), legal owner, flooring lender shown on or in possession of a manufacturer's certificate of origin and junior lienholder(s) be obtained as a condition of escrow. In the event that the dealer owns the manufactured home or mobilehome and it has no liens, the dealer shall deliver into escrow either the certificate(s) of title or the manufacturer's certificate of origin, whichever is available.

(e) If the sale is subject to Section 18035.26 of the Health and Safety Code, the escrow agent must be in receipt of the signed Declaration of Delivery Sale document prior to preparing escrow instructions. The date the Declaration was received by the escrow agent shall precede the date of preparation of escrow instructions.

3. Change without regulatory effect adding subsection (e) and amending NOTE filed 7-6-2007 pursuant to section 100, title 1, California Code of Regulations (Register 2007, No. 27).

§ 5061. Escrow Instructions.

From the information provided by the dealer, the escrow agent shall prepare escrow instructions and any amendments thereto for signing by both the dealer and purchaser. These escrow instructions may be signed in counterpart. Both the dealer and the purchaser shall receive copies of the signed escrow instructions and any mutually agreed amendments, with the originals or executed copies maintained by the escrow agent. The escrow instructions shall contain, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) The names and addresses of both the dealer and the purchaser;

(b) The names and addresses of the registered owner(s), legal owner of, flooring lender, and any junior lienholder(s), of the manufactured home or mobilehome.

(c) The name, address and telephone number of the escrow agent;

(d) A description of the manufactured home or mobilehome sold to the purchaser by the dealer which shall include, but not be limited to: the manufacturer name; model name, if available; size (excluding any hitch or towbar); model year, and a statement that prior to the close of escrow, the dealer shall provide the serial numbers of the manufactured home or mobilehome and the control number(s) of either the California Department of Housing and Community Development insignia(s) or the federal label(s) affixed to the manufactured home or mobilehome, which indicate compliance with applicable standards, in order to complete the description of the manufactured home or mobilehome.

(e) Identification of the amounts paid or to be paid as a deposit, downpayment and/or balance due prior to closing, total price of the manufactured home or mobilehome and all accessories or services to be provided by the dealer as part of the sale, and any taxes, service fees, charges or other fees. The amounts disclosed by the dealer shall be consistent with the amounts set forth in the purchase document and receipt for deposit.

(f) A general description of and designation of the cash value of each accessory and any installation thereof included in the purchase.

NOTE: This requirement does not apply when the accessories have been installed prior to the preparation of purchase documents.

(g) The specific address or location where the purchaser will accept delivery of the manufactured home or mobilehome or any accessory thereto included in the purchase price. If the sale is subject to Section 18035.26 of the Health and Safety Code, the delivery address in the escrow instructions shall be the same as the delivery address or location in the Declaration of Delivery Sale document and the purchase agreement.

(h) A statement of the conditions under which the purchaser will receive delivery of the manufactured home or mobilehome and any accessory thereto.

(i) A statement that prior to the close of escrow, the dealer shall secure and deliver into escrow signed and acknowledged release(s) of any rights, title or interest in the manufactured home or mobilehome being purchased, executed by the registered owner(s), legal owner, flooring lender and any junior lienholder(s). Any such release shall be conditioned upon the receipt of disbursement by the party executing the release directly from the escrow account of the amount set forth in such release. If the purchaser(s) is/are assuming an indebtedness as evidenced by an existing lien, the dealer shall deliver into escrow documents executed by the legal owner and/or junior lienholder(s) consenting to the assumption by the buyer.

(j) A statement that prior to the close of escrow, the dealer shall secure and deliver into escrow a signed and acknowledged release of any rights, title or interest in the manufactured home, mobilehome or personal real property being sold or traded in as payment toward the manufactured home or mobilehome being purchased, from the registered owner(s), legal owner and any junior lienholder(s). Any such release shall be conditioned upon the receipt of disbursement directly from the escrow account of the amount set forth in such release. If the dealer is assuming an existing lien, he or she shall deliver into escrow documents executed by the legal owner and/or junior lienholder(s) consenting to the assumption by the dealer.

(k) A statement that prior to the close of escrow, when the manufactured home or mobilehome is located in a mobilehome park at the time of sale and is to remain in the park, a statement signed by the purchaser shall be delivered into escrow, indicating that the purchaser has read the rules and regulations of the park, and entered into the park's rental agreement. A copy of a fully executed rental agreement signed by the purchaser may be substituted for the purchaser's agreement.

(l) When the manufactured home or mobilehome being either purchased or traded in as payment toward the manufactured home or mobilehome being purchased is subject to local property taxation, the escrow instructions may provide for the proration of said taxes.

(m) Any documentation required for disbursement pursuant to Section 5062.

(n) In the event a purchaser intends to arrange for third party financing without the assistance of the dealer, a statement that escrow shall terminate 30 days from the date escrow was opened, and that all cash or cash equivalent, less escrow fees, will be returned to the purchaser, unless the purchaser delivers into escrow written confirmation from a lender that financing has been approved.

(o) In the event of a conditional purchase document, a statement that if the contract is not executed by the date escrow is to close, escrow shall terminate and all cash or cash equivalent paid to the dealer be returned to the purchaser.

(p) The date agreed upon, in writing, by the purchaser and dealer that escrow is to close.

§ 5062. Disbursement of Escrow Funds.

In addition to the requirements of Sections 18035, 18035.2 and 18035.26 of the Health and Safety Code, the escrow agent shall disburse the amounts specified for the manufactured home or mobilehome and accessories only as follows:

(a) When the mobilehome is to be delivered to the site described in the escrow instructions, to be installed, and pass inspection pursuant to Sections 18613 and 18551(b) of the Health and Safety Code, the escrow instructions shall so state and shall require the dealer to deliver into escrow the following documentation to evidence delivery:

(1) A copy of either the statement of installation or the certificate of occupancy issued by the public agency performing the installation inspection; and

(2) A statement signed by the dealer indicating that the manufactured home or mobilehome has been delivered to the purchaser or that delivery has been offered to the purchaser in accordance with the agreement of the principals and that the purchaser is free to occupy the manufactured home or mobilehome to the exclusion of the dealer.

(b) When the manufactured home or mobilehome is to be delivered to the purchaser at a location specified in the escrow instructions and the purchaser will, at his or her own convenience either actually and physically perform the installation of the manufactured home or mobilehome and accessories, or be responsible for such installation, the escrow instructions shall so state and shall contain a statement indicating that either the purchaser has agreed to actually and physically perform the installation of the manufactured home or mobilehome and accessories or has agreed to be responsible for such installation and understands that escrow may close and funds be disbursed upon delivery of the manufactured home or mobilehome to the purchaser at the location specified in the escrow instructions. In addition, if applicable, the escrow instructions shall include a copy of the Declaration of Delivery Sale required by Section 18035.26 of the Health and Safety Code. The documentation required to evidence such delivery shall be a statement signed by both the dealer and the purchaser indicating that the manufactured home or mobilehome has been delivered to the purchaser at the location specified in the escrow instructions.

(c) When the manufactured home or mobilehome is already installed pursuant to Sections 18613 or 18551(b) of the Health and Safety Code, prior to the execution of the purchase agreement, the escrow instructions shall so state and shall require the following documentation to be delivered into escrow to evidence delivery: a statement signed by both the dealer and the purchaser indicating that delivery has been received or that delivery has been offered to the purchaser in accordance with the agreement of the principals and that the purchaser is free to occupy the manufactured home or mobilehome to the exclusion of the dealer.

(d) The escrow agent can disburse the amount specified for each accessory specified in Section 5061(g) of this article only upon receipt of written notice signed by the dealer that the accessory has been actually installed or received by the purchaser in the event that installation is not required under the terms of the purchase document.

(e) The escrow agent can disburse the cash or cash equivalent in escrow to the purchaser in the event that the purchaser was unable to obtain third party financing within 30 days of the escrow opening or the conditional purchase document was not executed by the date escrow was to have been closed, as specified in Sections 5061(n) and (o), respectively.

§ 5081. Complaint and Monitoring Investigation.

(a) Upon receipt of a complaint indicating the possible existence of a violation of law or this chapter, including a violation of Section 1797, et seq. of the Civil Code, the department may investigate the complaint and, at the time and in the manner permitted by law, notify each licensee or former licensee assumed responsible for the violations. In addition, or in the alternative, the department may investigate and take any other actions permitted by law.

(b) The recipient of such a notice shall, as soon as possible, but not later than 20 days after notification, unless otherwise specified by the department, take appropriate steps, including inspections or investigations, to determine the extent of its responsibility. Upon determining its responsibility, the recipient of such a notice shall:

(1) notify the department in writing of the action proposed to correct the violation and/or respond to the complainant, and

(2) take the action communicated to the department within 40 days of the original notification of complaint, unless otherwise specified by the department.

(c) Upon written request, the department may, at its discretion, grant an extension of time for correction of violations.

(d) The department may make an independent investigation and/or may institute appropriate legal and/or administrative action as necessary to secure compliance with law if the person notified of the complaint fails to take or complete appropriate action within the specified time, or at any other time deemed necessary and appropriate by the department.

(e) To the extent that the department deems it necessary to investigate, inspect, or reinspect to ensure compliance with law, the person responsible for taking the corrective action shall submit fees pursuant to Section 5040 within 15 days after billing by the department. The person or entity liable for such fees may appeal that determination in writing to the director of the department within 10 days after such billing. Failure to pay the fees shall be grounds for administrative action by the department.

(f) No license may be renewed if an outstanding fee has not been paid.

1. New section filed 3–20–98 as an emergency; operative 4–6–98 (Register 98, No. 12). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL by 8–4–98 or emergency language will be repealed by operation of law on the following day.

2. New section refiled 8–4–98 as an emergency; operative 8–4–98 (Register 98, No. 32). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL by 12–2–98 or emergency language will be repealed by operation of law on the following day.
3. Certificate of Compliance as to 8–4–98 order, including amendment, transmitted to OAL 12–1–98 and filed 1–14–99 (Register 99, No. 3).

§ 5302. Application and Scope of Preliminary Education Requirements.

On or after January 1, 1987, preliminary education requirements apply to all manufactured home and mobilehome dealer and salesperson license holders and applicants for such licenses, as specified in law and this subchapter. Applicants for licenses to sell only commercial coaches are not subject to preliminary education requirements.

(a) All persons applying for a manufactured home and mobilehome dealer license participating in the direction, control or management of the sales operation of the dealership, shall have completed an approved preliminary education program before applying for the dealer examination except as otherwise provided in this section.

(b) No partner, controlling stockholder, director, general manager or officer shall participate in the direction, control or management of the sales operation of a dealership prior to satisfying the provisions of this chapter relating to licensing and preliminary education.

(c) All persons applying for a manufactured home and mobilehome salesperson license shall have completed an approved preliminary education program before applying for the salesperson examination except as otherwise provided in this section.

(d) Holders of a valid dealer license, that have already satisfied the preliminary education requirement, and subsequently apply for a salesperson or another dealer license, are not required to attend another preliminary education program.

(e) Holders of a valid salesperson license, that have already satisfied the preliminary education requirement and subsequently apply for a dealer license, are not required to attend another preliminary education program.

(f) As specified in Section 5304, Continuing Education requirements apply to applicants who held a manufactured home or mobilehome dealer or salesperson license which has expired or was surrendered or cancelled within one (1) year of the new application for a manufactured home or mobilehome dealer or salesperson license.

1. New section filed 12–8–86 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 86, No. 50). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 day or emergency language will be repealed on 4–7–87. For prior history, see Register 86, No. 19. ED. NOTE: Also refer to Section 5300 for complete HISTORY NOTE.
2. New section refiled 4–6–87 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 87, No. 15). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 8–4–87.
3. Certificate of Compliance including amendment of subsections (a) and (b) transmitted 6–26–87 and filed 7–27–87 (Register 87, No. 32).

§ 5304. Application and Scope of Continuing Education Requirements.

(a) Applicants for and holders of manufactured home and mobilehome dealer and salesperson licenses are subject to continuing education requirements as specified in law and this section and Section 5306.

(b) Holders of licenses to sell only commercial coaches are not subject to continuing education requirements.

(c) The continuing education requirements apply to owners, each partner, controlling stockholder, director, general manager and officer who participates in the direction, control or management of the sales operation of a manufactured home or mobilehome dealer.

(d) Continuing education requirements apply to applicants who held a manufactured home or mobilehome dealer or salesperson license which has expired or was surrendered or cancelled within one (1) year of the new application for a manufactured home or mobilehome dealer or salesperson license.

(e) All continuing education clock hour credits applied toward the renewal of a dealer or salesperson license shall have been earned during the term of the license to be renewed, except as provided in Section 5318.

(f) Holders of both a manufactured home and mobilehome dealer and salesperson license may apply the same continuing education clock hour credits toward the renewal of both licenses, provided the credits were earned within the respective licensure terms.

(g) Any partner, controlling stockholder, director, general manager or officer within the ownership of a dealership, who becomes a participant in the direction, control or management of the sales operation of a dealership after issuance of the license is subject to continuing education requirements at the time of license renewal if more than six (6) months remain in the licensure term. Clock hour requirements for such persons shall be equal to one (1) clock hour for each full month remaining in the licensure term exceeding six (6). The topic requirements imposed by Section 5306 shall not apply.

§ 5306. Continuing Education Topic Requirements for Dealers and Salespersons.

(a) Each person subject to continuing education shall complete course topics as specified in this section.

(b) Each person required to complete a minimum of twenty–four (24) clock hours of continuing education shall complete approved courses in the following topics for the first license renewal occurring after the effective date of this subchapter.

(1) Laws and regulations governing manufactured housing manufacturing and sales.
(2) Escrow.
(3) Advertising and Misrepresentations.
(4) Registration and Titling.
(5) Purchase Documents.
(6) Warranties.
(7) Mobilehome Park Residency Law and Mobilehome Park Act.

If additional courses must be taken in order to earn the minimum clock hour requirement, those remaining clock hours may be earned in any approved course(s) of other topics.

(c) Persons subject to less than twenty–four (24) clock hours of continuing education as provided in law or Section 5304 shall complete an approved course in Laws and Regulations Update and any remaining clock hour requirements shall be earned in any approved continuing education course(s) on topics of the licensee's choice.

(d) The department shall not accept clock hour credits earned by repeating any one course provided by the same course provider or instructor within any one licensure term.

§ 5308. Minimum Standards for Preliminary Education Courses.

(a) All preliminary education courses shall comply with the provisions of this section.

(b) Course curriculum shall provide instruction in at least the following topics pertaining to manufactured housing:

(1) Introduction to the Laws and Regulations governing manufactured housing, manufacturing and sales.

(2) Warranties.

(3) Alternations to manufactured homes or mobilehomes.

(4) Escrow and purchase documents.

(5) Sales of noncomplying manufactured homes and mobilehomes.

(6) Advertising and misrepresentations.

(7) Taxation.

(8) Registration and Titling.

(c) No course shall be approved which provides instruction in subjects relating to business promotion, office and business skills, or sales techniques.

(d) Course curriculum may set aside up to thirty (30) minutes at the end of the course presentation for open discussions between the instructor and the participants. This subsection is not intended to eliminate participant questions and instructor responses necessary to facilitate the participant's understanding during the course presentation.

(e) Breaks for meals and rest may be arranged as deemed appropriate by the course provider or instructor, however, such time shall not intrude into the clock hours designated for the course.

(f) Preliminary education courses may utilize oral, written, audio and audio–visual presentations. Audio and audio–visual presentations may contain voices and images of persons other than the approved instructors.

(g) Except for courses consisting entirely of audio or audio–visual presentations, all courses shall be presented by only approved instructors. Courses presented entirely by audio or audio–visual means may be presented by the course provider or other person in the employ of the course provider, otherwise an approved instructor is required.

(h) Approved curriculums or materials shall not be altered or eliminated, or new materials or topics shall not be introduced and used prior to the approval of the department. Applications to change approved courses shall comply with Section 5346 of this subchapter.

(i) Applications for preliminary education course approval shall comply with Section 5340 of this subchapter.

§ 5310. Minimum Standards for Continuing Education Courses.

(a) All continuing education courses shall comply with the provisions of this subchapter, except as provided in Section 5312 for correspondence courses.

(b) Course curriculum shall provide for no less than two (2) clock hours of continuing education for any one course.

(c) Course curriculum shall be related to the topics required by this subchapter or other topics related to manufactured housing sales requirements imposed by law or regulation. No course shall be approved which provides instruction in subjects relating to business promotion, office and business skills, or sales techniques.

(d) Course curriculum may set aside up to ten (10) minutes for every clock hour for open discussions between the instructor and the participants. This subsection is not intended to eliminate participant questions and instructor responses necessary to facilitate the participant's understanding during the course presentation.

(e) Breaks for meals and rest may be arranged as deemed appropriate by the course provider or instructor. Such time shall not intrude into the clock hours designated for the course.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 12–8–86 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 86, No. 50). A Certification of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 4–7–76. For prior history, see Register 86, No. 19, ED. NOTE: Also refer to Section 5300 for complete HISTORY NOTE.
2. New section refiled 4–6–87 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 87, No. 15). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 8–4–87.
3. Certificate of Compliance including amendment of subsection (e) transmitted to OAL 6–26–87 and filed 7–27–87 (Register 87, No. 32).

§ 5312. Minimum Standards for Continuing Education Courses by Correspondence.

(a) Continuing education courses shall provide no less than two (2) clock hours of education. Such courses shall utilize written, audio or audio–visual lessons and a written examination to be completed after the lesson.

(b) Written instructions shall be provided by the course provider advising the licensee and proctor of the requirements of this section.

(c) For each one (1) clock hour to be earned, the examination shall contain no less than five (5) essay type questions related to the course topic. Thirty (30) minutes shall be permitted for the completion of each five (5) questions. Course providers shall rotate the examinations by administering the use of three (3) different examinations for each course. The examination shall be provided in a sealed envelope bearing instructions which read "TO BE OPENED IN THE PRESENCE OF AN APPROVED PROCTOR ONLY. VOID IF OPENED OTHERWISE . . . ." A return envelope shall be provided which is suitable for mailing and of sufficient size to accommodate an unopened or opened examination, and bears the name and address of the course provider.

(d) Approved proctors shall include the course provider, a notary public, an officer in the armed forces on active duty, an approved instructor or other approved course provider, an attorney, a librarian at a public or school library, or a representative of the department. No person related by blood, marriage, employment, or otherwise having a conflict of interest with a licensee, shall serve as a proctor for the licensee.

(e) The proctor shall be instructed to complete a certification form provided by the course provider which makes provisions for the following:

(1) The proctor's name and address and telephone number.

(2) The proctor's qualifying occupation, title or position.

(3) The licensee's name, address and license number issued by the department.

(4) A certification statement indicating the means used to identify the licensee, that the proctor has no conflict of interest with the licensee due to employment, relation by marriage or blood, that the examination envelope was found sealed and only broken in the proctor's presence, that the examination was completed by the licensee in the proctor's presence without the use of any written materials or aids of any kind, that the examination was not copied by any means, and that the examination was returned to the course provider by the proctor through the U.S. Mail, or by similar mailing services, or by personal delivery.

(5) The proctor's signature.

(f) The course provider or instructor shall grade the examination and notify the licensee of the results within ten (10) days of receipt. Should the licensee score less than 70 percent, the course provider shall provide the licensee with a second examination with different questions, to be taken under the same conditions as the first examination. Should the licensee score less than 70 percent on the second examination, the licensee has failed the course and may not attempt the examination again.

(g) No licensee shall be permitted to copy or reproduce any examination or portion thereof.

(h) All correspondence courses shall be completed within sixty (60) days of the registration date. For the purposes of this section, the registration date shall be the date the course provider mails or otherwise delivers the course material to the licensee as evidenced by the course provider's records. The registration date and completion date shall be printed in the instructions to the licensee.

(i) The course provider shall disqualify any licensee when the actions or omissions to act by either the licensee or the proctor result in a violation of this section.

If a licensee for whatever reason chooses not to complete a course and fails to return the examination, unopened, to the course provider within sixty (60) days of the registration date, the licensee shall be disqualified. The instructions to the licensee shall include a warning regarding disqualification as prescribed in this section.

(j) All disqualifications by course providers shall be reported to the department within ten (10) days.

(k) Once disqualified due to the licensee's acts or omissions to act, clock hour credits earned by correspondence after the disqualification shall not be accepted for the license renewal. A disqualification shall only extend to the end of any one licensure term.

(l) Each set of three (3) correspondence course examinations required by this section shall be used concurrently with the course approval period. When applying for course approval renewal, the course provider shall submit new examinations for use with the renewed course. Expired examinations shall not be used, but shall be maintained with the course provider's records.

(m) Applications for Continuing Education Course Approval shall comply with Section 5342 of this subchapter.

3. Certificate of Compliance including amendment of subsections (e) and (i) transmitted to OAL 6–26–87 and filed 7–27–87 (Register 87, No. 32).

§ 5314. Course Challenges.

(a) Course providers may provide for challenge examinations of approved continuing education courses. Course providers shall rotate the examinations by administering the use of three (3) separate examinations for each course. Examinations shall contain no less than five (5) essay type questions requiring written answers for each clock hour to be earned.

Challenge examinations shall be administered and corrected by the course provider or approved instructor only. The course provider shall establish the maximum time permitted for the examination, but in no case shall the time be less than thirty (30) minutes for each five (5) questions.

(b) No licensee shall be permitted to acquire more than six (6) clock hours of continuing education by challenges. The combination of challenges and approved equivalency pursuant to Section 5316 shall not exceed 50 percent of total clock hour requirements for any one person.

(c) Course challenge examinations, if permitted, shall be submitted along with the Application for Continuing Education Course Approval specified in Section 5342 of this subchapter.

3. Certificate of Compliance including amendment of subsections (a) and (c) transmitted to OAL 6–26–87 and filed 7–27–87 (Register 87, No. 32).

§ 5316. Claims of Equivalency.

(a) The department may grant continuing education clock hour credits for activities which have provided educational opportunities at least equivalent to attendance at approved continuing education courses as prescribed in this section.

(b) Acceptable alternative activities may include, but are not limited to the following:

(1) Instruction at an approved preliminary or continuing education course.

(2) Development or research of information or materials associated with an approved continuing education course or unapproved course if the curriculum would otherwise meet the requirements of this subchapter for a continuing education program.

(3) Authorship of published articles, periodicals or books on subjects relating to the requirements in laws or regulations governing manufactured housing sales.

(4) Instruction of, or attendance at, an education program not approved by the department for continuing education, but which is sufficiently related to manufactured housing activities.

(c) The department may grant up to a maximum of two (2) hours of continuing education clock hour credits for every one hour of equivalent activity.

(d) No licensee shall be granted clock hour credits for equivalents totalling in excess of fifty (50) percent of the licensee's total clock hour requirements. The combination of total clock hour credits earned by both challenges and equivalents shall not exceed fifty (50) percent of the total clock hour requirements.

(e) Applications for Equivalency Approval shall comply with Section 5352 of this subchapter and be received by the department prior to six (6) months before the license expiration date. Qualifying activities performed within the last six (6) months of the licensure term shall be applied to the next license renewal.

3. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 6–26–87 and filed 7–27–87 (Register 87, No. 32).

§ 5318. Exemptions.

(a) As prescribed in law and this section, the department may grant exemptions from the continuing education requirement and renew an expiring license where the required clock hour credits have not been earned and one or more qualifying conditions exist.

(b) Qualifying conditions are those which are beyond the control of the licensee and have made it impossible for the licensee to acquire the required clock hour credits over the last six (6) months of the licensure term including:

(1) Health conditions or prescribed treatment of health conditions which are verified in writing by a physician and which have not allowed the licensee to work in the licensed capacity.

(2) Active duty in the military service with assignment to duty outside the state.

(c) Conditions relating to the convenience of the licensee such as travel and time needed to attend courses or disruption of employment will not be considered for exemption.

(d) Any licensee granted an exemption shall earn the clock hours originally required at the time of renewal, within ninety (90) days of the elimination of the condition which warranted the exemption and shall submit a revised application for license renewal to the department.

(e) Applications for Exemption shall comply with Section 5354 of this subchapter.

HISTORY

1. New chapter 5, article 1 (sections 5510–5511) and section filed 12–31–97; operative 1–1–98 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 98, No. 1). For prior history of chapter 5, subchapter 1, sections 5500–5509, see Register 96, No. 1.
2. Change without regulatory effect amending chapter 5 heading filed 7–6–2007 pursuant to section 100, title 1, California Code of Regulations (Register 2007, No. 27).

The following definitions shall apply to the provisions of this chapter in addition to the definitions set forth in Health and Safety Code Sections 18001 through 18014.

(a) "Administrator" means a person appointed by the Superior Court, as documented by letter(s) of administration, to administer an estate and to dispose of any estate property when a person dies without a will.

(b) "Annual Registration Fee" means the fee required by Health and Safety Code Section 18114(a) that must be paid to the department annually for the renewal of the registration of each transportable section of a manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach not installed as a real property unit or not otherwise subject to local property taxation.

(c) "Annual Renewal Fees" means the combination of three separate fees: (1) the annual registration fee; (2) the annual vehicle license fee; and (3) the annual Mobilehome Park Purchase Fund fee.

(d) "Annual Vehicle License Fee" means the fee required by Health and Safety Code Section 18115 that must be paid annually to the department for the renewal of the registration of a manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach not installed as a real property unit. Annual Vehicle License fees are due per transportable section.

(e) "Application for Registration" means the appropriate documents, fees, and taxes required to report or amend the description, ownership, and/or location of a manufactured home, mobilehome, multifamily manufactured home, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home.

(f) "California Resale License Number" means the account number issued by the Board of Equalization to a taxpayer.

(g) "Certificate of Title" means the titling document, issued by the department which evidences the registered owner of a unit and if applicable, all legal owners of a unit.

(h) "CF Number" means a permanent vessel registration number assigned by the Department of Motor Vehicles to vessels undocumented in accordance with the federal standards under the Department of Navigation and Ocean Development. In California, these numbers are prefixed by the letters "CF" followed by four numbers and a two–letter suffix (e.g., CF 1234 AB).

(i) "Chain of Ownership" means the documentation necessary to establish the succession of the ownership from the registered owner on the permanent title record through any subsequent owners to and including the new registered owner of a manufactured home, mobilehome, multifamily manufactured home, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home.

(j) (Reserved)

(k) "Commercial Coach" has the same meaning as provided in Section 18001.8 of the Health and Safety Code. A commercial coach may consist of multiple transportable sections. For purposes of Chapter 5, "commercial coach" shall refer to each transportable section.

(l) "Company" means a corporation, partnership (general or limited), limited liability company or partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, or other form of business entity authorized by the laws of the State of California.

(m) "COMPRO" is an acronym for community property used in certain documents issued by the department.

(n) "Conservator" means the person appointed by the Superior Court as conservator of the estate for an audit, or the limited conservator of a developmentally disabled adult.

(o) "Co–owner" means two or more persons owning a interest in a unit as tenants in common, joint tenants, or as community property as more fully described in Health and Safety Code Section 18080.

(p) "Date of Sale or Lease" means (1) for sales or leases by or through a dealer, the date the transaction is completed as provided in Section 18080.5(e) of the Health and Safety Code and (2) for other sales or leases, the date the transferor of a unit has endorsed and delivered the titling document as provided in Section 18101 of the Health and Safety Code.

(q) "Dealer" means a person licensed by the department pursuant to Chapter 7 of the Health and Safety Code commencing with Section 18045.

(r) "Decal" means the tag issued by the department as described in Health and Safety Code Section 18092 or by DMV to indicate registration of a manufactured home, mobilehome, multifamily manufactured home, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home.

(s) "DMV" is the abbreviation for the State Department of Motor Vehicles.

(t) "Emancipated Minor" means any person less than 18 years old who meets one or more of the following requirements:

(1) Who has entered into a valid marriage, whether or not such marriage was subsequently dissolved; or

(2) Who is on active duty with any of the armed forces of the United States; or

(3) Who has received a declaration of emancipation from a Superior Court pursuant to Section 7122 of the Family Code.

(u) "Encumber the Title" means to record a lien against a manufactured home, mobilehome, multifamily manufactured home, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home by the addition or change of a legal owner or junior lienholder.

1. New section filed 12–31–97; operative 1–1–98 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 98, No. 1).

§ 5525. Registration of Manufactured Homes, Mobilehomes, Multi–Unit Manufactured Housing, and Commercial Coaches Manufactured and Purchased in Another State and Brought into California Prior to Registration in Another State.

(a) A manufactured home, mobilehome, multi–unit manufactured housing, or commercial coach which is manufactured and purchased in another state, but which has not been registered or titled in another state, and is brought into California and not installed as a real property unit, shall be registered with this department within 20 days after the date of entry into California. The application for registration shall meet the requirements of this section.

(b) The application for registration shall include (1) or (2) and (3):

(1) the original certificate of origin issued by the out–of–state manufacturer, which has been:

(A) signed by the manufacturer or selling dealer, releasing any interest they may have in the unit to the owner(s) applying for registration with the department, and

(B) properly endorsed to reflect the release of security interest in the unit by the inventory creditor or lienholder, or, in lieu of this release by the inventory creditor or lienholder on the certificate or origin, one of the following may be submitted:

1. a written acknowledgment from the inventory creditor which meets the requirements of subsection 5581(a)(2), indicating that its security interest in the unit described on the certificate or origin has been satisfied; or

2. a statement of conditional lien release which meets the requirements of subsection 5581(a)(3); or

(2) documents that reflect the purchase of the unit by the owner(s) applying for registration with the department, which may include the sales contract, purchase order, canceled checks, or invoices; and

(3) a bond and accompanying statement pursuant to the requirements of Section 5547.

(c) The application for registration shall also include:

(1) a registration information document as required by Section 5541; and

(2) the applicable requirements of Sections 5580 or 5584 to add any lienholder identified to the department.

(d) The owner(s) shall pay the following fees and penalties to the department:

(1) to register a manufactured home, mobilehome or multi–unit manufactured housing subject to local property taxation

(A) the Manufactured Home Recovery Fund Fee as specified in subsection 5660(s);

(B) all fees and penalties due and payable pursuant to Sections 18114, and 18114.1, of the Health and Safety Code; or

(2) to register a manufactured home, mobilehome, or multi–unit manufactured housing not subject to local property taxation

(A) the Manufactured Home Recovery Fund Fee as specified in subsection 5660(s);

(B) all fees and penalties due and payable pursuant to Sections 18114, 18114.1, 18115, and 18116 of the Health and Safety Code; or

(3) to register a commercial coach; all fees and penalties due and payable pursuant to Sections 18114, 18115, and 18116 of the Health and Safety Code;

(4) For each legal owner or junior lienholder being recorded, the lien registration service fee required by subsection 5660(m);

(5) use tax as specified in Section 18123 of the Health and Safety Code, unless exempt therefrom pursuant to Sections 5667 or 5668.

2. Amendment filed 4–1–98; operative 4–1–98 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 98, No. 14).

§ 5525.1. Registration of Used Manufactured Homes, Used Mobilehomes, Used Multi–Unit Manufactured Housing and Used Commercial Coaches Registered and Titled in Another State and Brought into California.

(a) A used manufactured home, used mobilehome, used multi–unit manufactured housing, or used commercial coach registered in another state, brought into California, and not installed as a real property unit, shall be registered with this department within 20 days after the date of entry into California. The application for registration shall meet the requirements of this section.

(b) The application for registration shall include either:

(1) a titling document issued by another state and, if the owner(s) applying for registration with the department is not the owner(s) reflected on that titling document, endorsements as follows:

(A) the signature of the appropriate recorded registered owners on the designated line(s) or in the designated area for release of the registered owner(s); or in lieu of the release, the following may be submitted:

1. documents that reflect the purchase of the unit by the owner(s) applying for registration with the department from the owner(s) reflected on the other state's titling document, which may include the sales contract, purchase order, canceled checks or invoices;

(B) the signature of any recorded lienholders on the designated line(s) or in the designated area for release or retention of a lienholder(s), if applicable; or if lieu of the required signature, the following may be submitted:

1. a written lien release indicating the lienholder has released interest in the unit.

2. a written statement indicating the lienholder has retained interest in the unit. The written statement must identify the type of unit as a manufactured home, mobilehome, multi–unit manufactured housing, or commercial coach; must contain the decal or license plate number(s); must indicate the trade name, and each serial number.

(C) the signature of the new registered owner(s) on the designation line(s) or in the designated area for acknowledging ownership of the unit; and

(D) the signature of any new lienholders on the designation line(s) or in the designated area for the addition of new lienholders.

(2) documents that reflect the purchase of the unit by the owner(s) applying for registration with the department, which may include the sales contract, purchase order, canceled checks or invoices, and a bond or undertaking and statement that complies with the requirements of Section 5547.

(c) The application for registration must also include:

(1) a registration information document as required by Section 5541.

(2) the other state's license plates and/or year sticker equivalent, if any, or one of the following:

(A) a copy of the permit issued by the other state's regulatory agency allowing a transporter to move the manufactured home, mobilehome, multi-unit manufactured housing, or commercial coach to California;

(B) a copy of the transporter's bill of lading, which provides applicable unit identifying information except the license plate or decal number of the unit, and which indicates that no license plate was on the manufactured home, mobilehome, multi-unit manufactured housing, or commercial coach; or

(C) a statement signed by the owner(s) under penalty of perjury, that identifies the unit as a manufactured home, mobilehome, multi-unit manufactured housing, or commercial coach, includes the applicable unit identifying information, and either certifies that the license plate(s) is lost, or there was no license plate(s) on the unit;

(3) if the unit is a manufactured home, mobilehome, or multi-unit manufactured housing subject to local property taxation, a tax clearance certificate or a conditional tax clearance certificate issued by the tax collector of the county where the unit is located, as required by Section 5547.1;

(d) The owner(s) shall pay the following fees and penalties to the department:

(1) to register a manufactured home, mobilehome or multi-unit manufactured housing subject to local property taxation:

(A) the Manufactured Home Recovery Fund Fee as specified in subsection 5660(s);

(B) all fees and penalties due and payable pursuant to Sections 18114 and 18114.1 of the Health and Safety Code; or

(2) to register a manufactured home, mobilehome, or multi-unit manufactured housing not subject to local property taxation

(A) the Manufactured Home Recovery Fund Fee as specified in subsection 5660(s);

(B) all fees and penalties due and payable pursuant to Sections 18114, 18114.1, 18115, and 18116 of the Health and Safety Code; or

(3) to register a commercial coach: all fees and penalties due and payable pursuant to Sections 18114, 18115, and 18116, of the Health and Safety Code; and

(4) transfer fee as specified in subsection 5660(b) and, if applicable, transfer fee penalty as specified in 5660(c);

(5) the lien registration service fee as specified in subsection 5660(m), if applicable.

(6) use tax as specified in Section 18123 of the Health and Safety Code, unless exempt therefrom pursuant to Sections 5667 or 5668.

§ 5525.2. Registration of Used Manufactured Homes, Mobilehomes, Multi-Unit Manufactured Housing, and Commercial Coaches Registered in Another State and Brought into California When the Out-of-State Certificate of Title Cannot Be Provided.

(a) The department shall not issue a certificate of title for a used manufactured home, mobilehome, multi-unit manufactured housing, or commercial coach registered in another state which is brought into California and not installed as a real property unit unless the owner(s) complies with the requirements of Section 5525.1. However, the department shall register and issue a registration card for a used manufactured home, mobilehome, multi-unit manufactured housing, or commercial coach registered in another state and brought into California and not installed as a real property unit, if the requirements of this section are met.

(b) The owner(s) must apply to the department for registration of the unit by providing:

(1) a registration information document as required by Section 5541;

(2) a registration card or record of ownership issued by a regulatory agency in another state which identifies the owner(s) seeking registration with the department as the owner(s) of the unit for which registration is sought; and

(3) the other state's license plates and/or year sticker equivalent, if any, or one of the following:

(A) a copy of the permit issued by the other state's regulatory agency allowing a transporter to move the manufactured home, mobilehome, multi-unit manufactured housing, or commercial coach to California; or

(B) a copy of the transporter's bill of lading, which provides applicable unit identifying information except the license plate or decal number of the unit, and which indicates that no license plate was on the manufactured home, mobilehome, multi-unit manufactured housing or commercial coach; or

(C) a statement by the owner(s) signed under penalty of perjury, that identifies the unit as a manufactured home, mobilehome, multi-unit manufactured housing, or commercial coach, includes the applicable unit identifying information, and either certifies that the license plate(s) is lost, or there was no license plate(s) on the unit.

(c) The owner(s) shall pay the following fees and penalties to the department:

(1) to register a manufactured home, mobilehome or multi-unit manufactured housing subject to local property taxation:

(A) the Manufactured Home Recovery Fund Fee as specified in subsection 5660(s);

(B) all fees and penalties due and payable pursuant to Sections 18114 and 18114.1 of the Health and Safety Code; or

(2) to register a manufactured home, mobilehome, or multi-unit manufactured housing not subject to local property taxation:

(A) the Manufactured Home Recovery Fund Fee as specified in subsection 5660(s);

(B) all fees and penalties due and payable pursuant to Sections 18114, 18114.1, 18115, and 18116 of the Health and Safety Code; or

(3) to register a commercial coach: all fees and penalties due and payable pursuant to Sections 18114, 18115, and 18116, of the Health and Safety Code.

(d) The department shall issue a titling document for a unit registered with the department pursuant to this section at any time the owner(s) meets the requirements of Section 5525.1.

§ 5526. Registration of Government Surplus Units.

(a) A manufactured home, mobilehome, multi–unit manufactured housing, or commercial coach previously owned by the federal government and transferred by the federal government to an entity other than an agency or department of the federal government, shall be registered with the department within 20 days after the date of sale or transfer by the federal government. The application for registration shall meet the requirements of this section.

(b) The application for registration shall include:

(1) a registration information document as required by Section 5541;

(2) the form then in use by the U.S. government to release its interest in a manufactured home, mobilehome, multi–unit manufactured housing, or commercial coach (as of the date of these regulations, Standard Form 97, Certificate of Release of Motor Vehicle);

(3) if the unit is a manufactured home, mobilehome or multi–unit manufactured housing subject to local property taxation, a tax clearance certificate or a conditional tax clearance certificate issued by the tax collector of the county where the unit is located, as required by Section 5547.1;

(4) the necessary statements required to add any lienholder identified to the department in a statement or information document provided by the owner(s), as specified in Sections 5580 (for legal owners) or 5584 (for junior lienholders).

(c) The owner(s) shall pay the following fees and penalties to the department:

(1) to register a manufactured home, mobilehome or multi–unit manufactured housing subject to local property taxation:

(A) the Manufactured Home Recovery Fund Fee as specified in subsection 5660(s);

(B) all fees and penalties due and payable pursuant to Sections 18114 and 18114.1 of the Health and Safety Code; or

(2) to register a manufactured home, mobilehome, or multi–unit manufactured housing not subject to local property taxation:

(A) the Manufactured Home Recovery Fund Fee as specified in subsection 5660(s);

(B) all fees and penalties due and payable pursuant to Sections 18114, 18114.1, 18115, and 18116 of the Health and Safety Code; or

(3) to register a commercial coach: all fees and penalties due and payable pursuant to Sections 18114, 18115, and 18116, of the Health and Safety Code.

(4) transfer fee as specified in subsection 5660(b) and, if applicable, transfer fee penalty as specified in subsection 5660(c);

(5) lien registration service fee as specified in subsection 5660(m), if applicable; and

(6) use tax as specified in Section 18123 of the Health and Safety Code, unless exempt therefrom pursuant to Sections 5667 or 5668.

Article 3. Registration Changes Upon Transfer of Units Registered in California

§ 5530. Changes to Registration of Used Manufactured Homes Mobilehomes, Multi–Unit Manufactured Housing or Commercial Modulars Registered with the Department or DMV—Dealer Participation Transfers.

(a) A dealer shall apply for an amendment to the department or DMV registration, as applicable, for each used manufactured home, mobilehome, multi–unit manufactured housing or commercial modular sold, leased with an option to buy, or transferred by any other means by the dealer, and not installed as a real property unit, within 10 days after the date of sale or lease. Transfers of such a unit to be installed as a real property unit are subject to reporting pursuant to Section 5611. The application for registration shall be submitted to the department, and shall meet the requirements of this Section.

(b) The application for registration shall include:

(1) a form HCD 480.3, a Dealer Report of Sale or Lease, Used Manufactured Home, Used Mobilehome, Used Multi–Unit Manufactured Housing, or Used Commercial Modular which meets the requirements of Section 5575, and the report of sale fees and, if applicable and not avoided pursuant to Section 5530.1, penalties and administrative service fees as required by Section 5575;

(2) unless the registration card for the unit is in the possession of the department pursuant to Section 5546.1, either:

(A) the registration card for the unit, or

(B) an application for a duplicate registration card as required by Section 5551;

(3) if a notice of escrow opening was required by Section 5571, a notification of escrow closing that meets the requirements of Section 5573;

(4) if the unit is a manufactured home, mobilehome or multi-unit manufactured housing subject to local property taxation, a tax clearance certificate or a conditional tax clearance certificate issued by the tax collector of the county where the unit is located, as required by Section 5547.1;

(5) for each legal owner and junior lienholder to be added to the unit's registration, the dealer shall submit legal owner identifying information and junior lienholder identifying information on the report of sale submitted pursuant to subsection 5530(b)(1); and

(6) for each legal owner or junior lienholder to be added to or removed from the unit's registration, the necessary title endorsements, statements or bonds and fees required by Article 8.

(c) The application for registration shall also include either:

(1) one of the following titling documents for the unit, endorsed to release the registered owner and report the new registered owner, or one of the alternatives to such endorsements, as required by Section 5533:

(A) a certificate of title;

(B) an ownership certificate, certificate of ownership or certificate of title issued by DMV; or

(C) an application for duplicate certificate of title which meets the requirements of Section 5550; or

(2) documents that reflect the transfer of the unit to the transferees, which may include the sales contract, purchase order, canceled checks or invoices, and a bond or undertaking and statement that comply with the requirements of Section 5547.

(d) The dealer shall also submit the following:

(1) to register a manufactured home, mobilehome or multi-unit manufactured housing subject to local property taxation:

(A) the Manufactured Home Recovery Fund Fee as specified in subsection 5660(s);

(B) all fees and penalties due and payable pursuant to Sections 18114 and 18114.1 of the Health and Safety Code; or

(2) to register a manufactured home, mobilehome, or multi-unit manufactured housing not subject to local property taxation:

(A) the Manufactured Home Recovery Fund Fee as specified in subsection 5660(s);

(B) all fees and penalties due and payable pursuant to Sections 18114, 18114.1, 18115, and 18116 of the Health and Safety Code; or

(3) to register a commercial modular: all fees and penalties due and payable pursuant to Sections 18114, 18115, and 18116 of the Health and Safety Code; and

(4) to register any unit: transfer fee as specified in subsection 5660(b) and, if applicable, transfer fee penalty as specified in subsection 5660(c);

2. Amendment filed 4–1–98; operative 4–1–98 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 98, No. 14).
3. Change without regulatory effect amending section heading and subsections (a), (b)(1), (c)(1)(C) and (d)(3) filed 7–6–2007 pursuant to section 100, title 1, California Code of Regulations (Register 2007, No. 27).

§ 5530.1. Avoidance of Penalties and Administrative Service Fees—Commercial Coach Registration When the Certificate of Title Is in the Department's Possession.

(a) A dealer shall not be required to pay penalties pursuant to Health and Safety Code Sections 18114, 18115, 18116 or Section 5660(c), or administrative service fees pursuant to Health and Safety Code Section 18123.5, during any time the certificate of title for a commercial coach sold, leased with an option to buy or otherwise transferred by that dealer is in the possession of the department and the dealer complies with the requirements of this Section.

(b) The dealer shall submit the following to the department within 10 days after the date of sale or lease:

(1) the report of sale and fees (but not the penalties or administrative service fees) required by subsection 5530(b); and

(2) the fees (but not the penalties) required by subsection 5530(d).

(c) Within 10 days after receipt of the certificate of title from the department, the dealer shall:

(1) perform all of the requirements of Section 5530 not performed pursuant to Section 5530.1(b);

(2) submit to the department either:

(A) a copy of the acknowledgment of receipt of fees sent to the dealer by the department which evidences the department's receipt of the fees submitted by the dealer for the commercial coach pursuant to subsection 5530.1(b); or

(B) a canceled check endorsed by the department to reflect the department's receipt of the fees submitted by the dealer for the commercial coach pursuant to subsection 5530.1(b).; and

(3) submit to the department a statement signed under penalty of perjury by the dealer, which includes unit identifying information and sets forth the date of receipt of the certificate of title by the dealer.

Article 4. Registration Requirements

§ 5540. Recording a Registered Owner, Legal Owner or Junior Lienholder Interest in a Unit.

(a) The registered owner, legal owner or junior lienholder interest in a unit shall be recorded in one of the following manners:

(1) individual,

(2) trustee,

(3) company,

(4) estate,

(5) conservator,

(6) guardian,

(7) emancipated minor,

(8) lessor/lessee, or

(9) a co-ownership consisting of any of the above, except to the extent an individual has named a TOD beneficiary.

(b) The registered ownership interest in a unit recorded in a single individual may also reflect a "transfer on death beneficiary" or "TOD" beneficiary". In order to name a TOD beneficiary, the application must contain, in addition to the information required for registration in the name of an individual registered owner, as set forth in subsection 5540(c)(1), a statement requesting the inclusion of a TOD beneficiary, signed under penalty of perjury by the applicant, that includes the unit identifying information and the name of the party to be added to the record as TOD beneficiary.

(c) The applicant shall comply with the following requirements, for the form of registered owner, legal owner, or junior lienholder registration requested.

(1) "Individual." The application shall contain the applicant's true name. The true name shall not include the use of any title, unless the applicant certifies that the title is part of his or her true name, and provides a statement signed under penalty of perjury which includes,

(A). the unit identifying information, and

(B). a statement certifying that any title shown as part of the true name is commonly used as part of the individual's name, or

(C) a statement certifying that the use of individual name with the abbreviation "AKA" (meaning "also known as") followed by the other known name, is commonly used as part of the individuals name.

(2) "Trustee." The application shall contain a statement, signed under penalty of perjury, by each trustee, providing the following:

(A) the unit identifying information;

(B) the name and date of the trust agreement;

(C) the name of the trustor(s);

(D) the name of the trustee(s);

(E) acknowledgment that the trustee(s) will notify the department immediately upon any change to the trust agreement identified by submitting a statement that contains the items as specified in subsections (2)(A)-(E).

(3) "Company." The application shall contain the signature of an officer or authorized agent of the company and the company name, which may include the designation "doing business as" (DBA), "limited liability company" (LLC), "limited liability partnership" (LLP), or "limited partnership."

(4) "Estate." The application shall contain a copy of the Letters Testamentary or Letters of Administration issued by a Superior Court, which contains an endorsement or stamp by the clerk of the court indicating the date the document was filed by the court.

(5) "Conservator." The application shall contain a copy of the Letters of Conservatorship issued by a Superior Court, which contains an endorsement or stamp by the clerk of the court indicating the date the document was filed by the court.

(6) "Guardian." The application shall contain either:

(A) a copy of the Letters of Guardianship issued by a Superior Court, which contains an endorsement or stamp by the clerk of the court indicating the date the document was filed by the court, or (B) a statement, signed under penalty of perjury by a parent claiming sole guardianship of a minor, which shall include, at least unit identifying information; and a statement certifying that the parent is the sole guardian of the minor.

(7) "Emancipated Minor." The application shall contain:

(A) the emancipated minor's true name;

(B) a statement signed under penalty of perjury which shall include at least the following information:

1. the unit identifying information;

2. a statement certifying that the applicant is an emancipated minor, specifying the basis of his or her emancipation; and

3. if applicable, certifying that any title shown as part of the true name is commonly used as part of the individual's name or

4. if applicable, certifying the use of individual name with the abbreviation "AKA" (meaning "also known as") followed by the other known name, is commonly used as part of the individuals name, and

(C) evidence to support the basis of the applicant's emancipated status (e.g., a copy of his or her declaration of emancipation issued by a Superior Court which contains an endorsement or stamp by the clerk of the court indicating the date the document was filed by the court, evidence of his or her enlisted in the armed forces of the United States, etc.).

(8) "Lessor/Lessee." The application shall contain the applicable requirements specified in 5540(c) depending on whether the lessor or lessee is an individual, a company, an estate, etc.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 12–31–97; operative 1–1–98 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 98, No. 1).

§ 5542. Endorsements by Co–Owners.

(a) When a registered owner, legal owner, or junior lienholder is required to endorse a document to transfer his, her, or its ownership in a unit, and that registered ownership, legal ownership, or junior lienholder interest is held by co–owners following requirements shall be applicable:

(1) For joint tenant co–owners, each co–owner shall sign unless one or more of the co–owners is deceased, in which case

(A) the application shall contain a copy of the certified death certificate for each the deceased co–owner, and all surviving co–owner(s) shall sign.

(B) If all recorded co–owners are deceased, the heir(s), administrator, or executor of the estate as determined by Section 5542.1, of the most recently deceased co–owner, shall sign.

(2) For co–owners registered as tenants–in–common with the names joined by "and", the following shall be applicable:

(A) To transfer full interest in the unit, each co–owner shall sign.

(B) To transfer the individual interest of one co–owner, the co–owner transferring his or her interest in the unit shall sign. The signatures of the other co–owners are not required.

(C) To transfer a deceased co–owner's interest in a unit, the heir(s), administrator, or executor of the estate, as determined by Section 5542.1 of the deceased co–owner, shall sign.

(3) For co–owners registered as tenants–in–common with the names joined by "or."

(A) any one of the co–owners shall sign.

(B) In the event all of the co–owners are deceased, either the heir(s), the administrator, or the executor of the estate, as determined by Section 5542.1, of the most recently deceased co–owner shall sign.

(4) For co–owners registered as husband and wife holding their interest as community property, the husband and wife shall each sign..

(A) To transfer a deceased co–owner's interest in a unit, the heir(s), administrator, or executor of the estate, as determined by Section 5542.1, of the deceased co–owner, shall sign.

(b) When a registered owner, legal owner, or junior lienholder is required to endorse a document to transfer his, her, or its interest in a unit registered with the department prior to January 1, 1985, and the unit's registration has not been subsequently changed to reflect co–owner terms described in subsection 5542(a), the following requirements shall be applicable:

(1) For interests held as tenants–in–common or as names separated by the word "or", the endorsement requirements provided in subsection 5542(a)(3) for tenants–in–common with the names joined by "or" shall apply

(2) For interests held as names joined by "and", the endorsement requirements provided in subsection 5542(a)(1) for joint tenants shall apply, with the exception that when one of the named owners dies, the heir, administrator, or executor of the estate, as determined by Section 5542.1, of the deceased named owner, shall sign for the deceased named owner.

(c) When the registered owner, legal owner, or junior lienholder is required to endorse a document to transfer his, her, or its interest in a unit which was originally registered by DMV and the unit's registration has not been subsequently changed to reflect co–owner terms described in subsection 5542(a) the following requirements shall be applicable:

(1) For interests held as names joined by the word "or", the endorsement requirements provided in subsection 5542(a)(3) for tenants–in–common with the names joined by "or" Shall apply.

(2) For interests held as names joined by the word "and", or by a slash (/) with no other conjunction or co–owner term, the endorsement requirements provided in subsection 5542(a)(1) for joint tenants shall apply with the exception that when one of the named owners dies, the heir, administrator, or executor of the estate, as determined by Section 5542.1, of the deceased named owner, shall sign for the deceased named.

(3) For interests held as names joined by "and/or" the endorsement requirements provided in subsection 5542(a)(3) for tenants–in–common with the names joined by "or" shall apply.

(4) For interest held as joint tenants the endorsement requirements provided in subsection 5542(a)(1) for joint tenants shall apply.

(5) For interests held as community property the endorsement requirements provided in subsection 5542(a)(4) for community property shall apply.

(d) Notwithstanding anything in Section 5541 to the contrary, when a registered owner is required to endorse a document to record a new legal owner or junior lienholder, each co–owner must sign as required in Sections 5581 and 5585. Therefore, when one of the co–owners is deceased, the application to record a new legal owner or junior lienholder shall also transfer the registered ownership of the unit from the deceased co–owner.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 12–31–97; operative 1–1–98 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 98, No. 1).

§ 5542.2. Acceptable Signatures and Endorsement by an Authorized Representative of a Registered Owner, Legal Owner, or Junior Lienholder Other Than a Deceased Registered Owner, Legal Owner, or Junior Lienholder.

(a) The signature of an individual shall be in the true name of that person, or shall be sufficiently similar to his or her true name so as to be reasonably determinable as the "normal signature" of that individual. A signature will be reasonably determinable as the "normal signature" of an individual if it varies from the individual's true name only because it uses initials rather than the entire first or middle name, or because it omits the middle name. Variations beyond those acceptable as the "normal signature" will be accepted only if a statement meeting the requirements of Section 5543(c) is submitted by the signatory.

(b) The signature of a trustee of a trust shall be accepted by the department if the requirements of Section 5540(c)(2) have been met, and if the trustee named in the trust agreement submitted pursuant to Section 5540(c)(2) is:

(1) an individual, the signature is in the true name or the "normal signature" as defined in subdivision (a) above of the individual named as trustee, followed by the word "trustee"; or

(2) a company, the signature meets the requirements of subsection (c) for the company named as trustee, followed by the word "trustee".

(c) An officer or authorized agent of a company shall type or print the company name and shall sign for the company. The initials of an officer or authorized agent's signature shall be either the officer or authorized agent's true name or shall meet the definition of a "normal signature" set forth in subsection (a).

(d) The signature of a personal representative of a deceased registered owner, legal owner, or junior lienholder, or of an administrator or executor of an estate holding registered ownership, legal ownership, or a junior lienholder interest in a unit, shall be as specified in Section 5542.1.

(e) An illiterate person or mentally competent person who can no longer write his or her normal signature may sign with a mark. Next to the mark, one witness shall print the name of the person who signed with a mark and shall sign his or her own name. Two witnesses must sign their names before the mark can be used as an acceptable signature on a statement signed under penalty of perjury.

(f) A signature by an attorney–in–fact, designated in a power of attorney, shall be accepted if the following requirements are met:

(1) the attorney–in–fact shall present either the original power of attorney or a copy;

(2) the power of attorney shall be one of the following:

(A) A statement appointing an attorney–in–fact which includes at least the following information:

1. The unit identifying information;

2. Name of the person or company appointing the attorney in fact.

3. Name of the person or company being appointed as the attorney–in–fact.

4. Statement authorizing the appointed attorney–in–fact to sign papers and documents contained in an application for registration.

5. Signature of the person or company appointing the attorney-in-fact.

6. Date the statement is signed; or,

(B) A statement which purports to grant powers of attorney and which:

1. contains the date of its execution;

2. is signed by the principal or in the principal's name by some other person in the principal's presence; and

3. is acknowledged before a notary public or by two witnesses other than the attorney-in-fact that either witnessed the signing or the power of attorney by the principal or the principal's acknowledgment of the signature or the power of attorney; or

(C) a properly completed statutory form of power of attorney as specified in Section 4401 of the Probate Code that complies with Section 4402 of the Probate Code; or

(D) any properly completed statutory form of power of attorney which complies substantially with former Civil Code Section 2450 (originally enacted by Statutes 1984, chapter 602) or former Civil Code Section 2475 (originally enacted by Statutes 1990, chapter 986), and Probation Code section 4102, and is signed by the principal and acknowledged by a notary public; and

(3) the attorney-in-fact writes or types the name of the principal and signs below it as the attorney-in-fact.

(g) In order for a conservator to sign documents for a registered owner, legal owner, or junior lienholder, a copy of the Letters of Conservatorship issued by a Superior Court, which contains an endorsement or stamp by the clerk of the court indicating that date the document was filed by the court shall have been received by the department, and the endorsement shall consist of either:

HISTORY

1. New section filed 12–31–97; operative 1–1–98 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 98, No. 1).

§ 5547. Requirements for Bonds and Other Undertakings.

(a) When at any time in Chapter 5, a requirement for an application for registration of a unit includes, as an alternative, the provision of a bond or undertaking as described in this section, the bond or undertaking shall be one of the following:

(1) A surety bond issued by a surety company authorized to transact general surety business in the State of California, executed by the principal and surety and acknowledged by a Notary Public using the certificate of acknowledgment specified in Section 1189(a) of the Civil Code. The bond shall be valid for a three-year period from the date the completed application for registration is received by the department.

(2) A certificate of deposit or investment certificate issued by a financial institution authorized to do business in the State of California and insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, which indicates the name of the depositor and is made payable to the department. The certificate of deposit or investment certificate shall be valid for a three-year period from the date the completed application for registration is received by the department.

(3) Money deposited in a financial institution evidenced by a share or savings account passbook which shows the name and address of the financial institution and contains the signature of an officer or authorized agent of the financial institution. The account passbook shall be assigned to the department by the person evidence by the passbook to be the depositor of the account. The assignment of the account passbook shall be valid for a three-year period from the date the completed application was received by the department.

(4) A cashier's check made payable to the department. A warrant in the amount of the cashier's check will be sent to the applicant by the department at the end of the three-year period, beginning with the date the completed application for registration is received by the department.

(5) Any governmental agency identified in Section 995.220 of the Code of Civil Procedure may, in lieu of a bond or undertaking described herein, submit a letter of indemnification, indemnifying the department from all claims occurring because of the lack or defect in the application for registration. The letter of indemnification shall acknowledge the acceptance by the issuing governmental agency of all liability due to any claims, suits, actions, losses or damage on account of any defect in or undisclosed claim, lien, or encumbrance of whatever nature, pertaining to the application for registration or the registration or titling of the unit pursuant thereto. The letter shall include the unit identifying information and an acknowledgment that the indemnification shall remain in effect for a period of 3 years from the date the completed application for registration is received by the department.

(b) The value of any bond or other undertaking accepted by the department, except for a letter of indemnification described in subsection (a)(5) above, shall be the greater of:

(1) the total contract (sale) price of the unit;

(2) the current market value of the unit based on the manufacture year, makeup, condition and location of the unit; or

(3) the average of the values given in the current edition of the National Automobile Dealers Association (N.A.D.A.) Mobile/Manufactured Housing Appraisal Guide and the Kelley Blue Book.

(c) An application for registration which includes a bond or undertaking described in subsection (a) above shall not be accepted by the department unless it also includes:

(1) a statement, signed under penalty of perjury by the applicant(s) that:

(A) describes the circumstances requiring the submission of a bond or undertaking;

(B) explains how, when and from whom the unit was acquired; and

(C) describes reasonable attempts made to locate and obtain the document or signature for which the bond or undertaking is being submitted as an alternative; and

(D) a statement of the current market value of the unit;

(2) evidence that attempts were made by the applicant(s) to obtain the document or signature for which the bond or undertaking is being submitted as an alternative, which may be, for example, unopened, returned certified letters addressed to the last known address of the owner from which a signature or titling document has been sought;

(3) if the undertaking is either a certificate of deposit, an investment certificate, or an account passbook, pursuant to subsection (a)(2) or (a)(3), the following forms, completed and signed:

(A) form HCD 482.4, Irrevocable Assignment to the Department of Housing and Community Development, version dated 7/97, provided by the department, completed by each person providing the certificate of deposit, investment certificate or account passbook and by the financial institution in which the funds evidenced by the certificate of deposit, investment certificate or account passbook are deposited:

HISTORY

1. New section filed 12-31-97; operative 1-1-98 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 98, No. 1).

§ 5575. Report of Sale or Lease Requirements.

(a) Upon being first licensed by the department, and thereafter at the request of a dealer, the department shall provide to the dealer one or more Report of Sale Books, appropriate to the types of units which the dealer is licensed to sell. The Report of Sale Books remain state property.

(b) A Report of Sale Book contains sequentially numbered forms, particular to one of three types of units:

(1) form HCD 480.1 (Rev. 05/07), Dealer Report of Sale or Lease for a New Manufactured Home or Multi-unit Manufactured Housing, as provided by the department.

(2) form HCD 480.2 (10/02), Dealer Report of Sale or Lease for a New Commercial Modular, as provided by the department.

(3) form HCD 480.3 (Rev. 05/07), Dealer Report of Sale or Lease for a Used Manufactured Home, Used Mobilehome, Used Multi-unit Manufactured Housing, or Used Commercial Modular, as provided by the department.

(c) Within 10 calendar days of the date of sale, rental, lease, lease with option to buy, or other transfer of a manufactured home, mobilehome, multi-unit manufactured housing, or commercial modular, the dealer shall complete and submit to the department the applicable Report of Sale or Lease form, providing all information required by the form on the designated line(s) or in the designated areas, including:

(1) payment of the Dealer Report of Sale Filing Fee specified in subsection 5040(j), Title 25, Division 1, Chapter 4;

(2) the signature of the dealer or its agent; and

(3) the signature of the registered owner(s), except as provided in subsection (A), below.

(A) For a unit purchased by a federal entity, the dealer shall submit a copy of the purchase contract signed by the federal entity, in lieu of the signature of the agent of the federal entity.

(4) legal owner identifying information, if any.

(5) junior lienholder identifying information, if any.

(d) Report of Sale or Lease form HCD 480.1 for a new manufactured home or multi-unit manufactured housing and Report of Sale or Lease form HCD 480.3 for a used manufactured home, mobilehome, multi-unit manufactured housing, or commercial modular, have four-pressure sensitive copies, which the dealer shall distribute as follows:

(1) the original signature copy to the department, along with the required documents to record the transfer and the appropriate fees, within 10 calendar days from the date of sale, lease, or other transfer;

(2) copy two to the transferee (registered owner);

(3) except as indicated in subsection (5) below, copy three to the assessor's office in the county where the unit is located, within 10 calendar days from the date of sale, lease or other transfer; and

(4) copy four (the "Book Copy") to be retained by the dealer in the Report of Sale Book.

(5) In a transaction involving a used commercial modular, there is no need to provide a copy of the Report of Sale or Lease form to the county assessor's office. The dealer may destroy the assessor's copy of form HCD 480.3.

(e) Report of Sale or Lease form HCD 480.2 for a new commercial modular has three-pressure sensitive copies, and is distributed the same as in subsections (e)(1), (2), and (4), above.

(f) The dealer shall release interest on the titling document on the line indicated as the "release of interest" for the dealer, or shall submit a bill of sale releasing interest to the registered owner(s).

(g) Payment of Administrative Service Fees as specified in Section 18123.5 of the Health and Safety Code, when applicable.

(h) Payment of the Manufactured Home Recovery Fund Fee as specified in subsection 5660(s).

(i) The Report of Sale or Lease forms HCD 480.1, HCD 480.2, and HCD 480.3 shall contain the dealer license number, original sale or lease price, installation foundation type, length, width, weight and the certification that all statements are true and correct.

(1) Forms HCD 480.2 and HCD 480.3 shall contain the Occupancy Group.

4. Change without regulatory effect amending subsections (b)(1)-(c), (d), (d)(5)-(e) and (h) and amending NOTE filed 7-6-2007 pursuant to section 100, title 1, California Code of Regulations (Register 2007, No. 27).

§ 5576. How to Report a Voided or Lost Report of Sale or Lease Form.

(a) If the dealer discovers an error on a Report of Sale or Lease form prior to the distribution of the forms, the dealer shall mark "void" on all copies of the form.

(b) All copies of the voided form shall be submitted to the department's Occupational Licensing Section, P.O. Box 31, Sacramento, CA 95812-0031, except for the dealer's copy or "Book Copy", which shall be retained in the dealer's Report of Sale Book.

(c) If the dealer loses the department's copy of a completed Report of Sale or Lease form prior to its submission to the department, the dealer shall:

(1) prepare another Report of Sale or Lease form, indicating at the top of the form, "In lieu of the report of sale #————"; and

(2) submit to the department:

(A) the original signature copy of the second Report of Sale or Lease form and

(B) the transferee copy of the original Report of Sale or Lease form or a statement under penalty of perjury explaining why the transferee copy is unavailable.

§ 5577. How to Correct Reporting the Wrong Unit as Having Been Sold.

(a) If a dealer submitted a Report of Sale or Lease which incorrectly identified a unit or units, the dealer shall promptly complete and submit to the department:

(1) The application for registration of the correct unit(s);

(2) A statement under penalty of perjury which contains the following information:

(A) the number of the Report of Sale or Lease form on which the incorrect information was submitted to the department;

(B) the date the Report of Sale or Lease form was transmitted to the department;

(C) the incorrect and the correct unit(s) identifying information;

(D) the registered owner(s) name; and

(E) the legal owner name.

(3) Payment of fees:

(A) Any fees submitted with the original application which were paid pursuant to Sections 18114, 18115, or 18116 of the Health and Safety Code that are not due shall be subject to refund.

(B) The dealer shall pay the Administrative Service Fee, if any, required by Section 18123.5 of the Health and Safety Code. For the purpose of this subsection, the delinquency of the corrected application shall be determined by calculating the number of days from the date of submission of the original completed application to the date of submission of the corrected completed application.

(C) The Dealer Report of Sale Filing Fee, as specified by subsection 5040(j), Title 25, Division 1, Chapter 4, shall not be required to be submitted with the application for the correct unit(s).

(b) If titling documents have already been issued by the department for the incorrect unit(s), in addition to the above requirements, the dealer must also submit:

(1) the Certificate of Title for the incorrectly reported unit(s);

(2) the Registration Card(s) for the incorrectly reported unit(s);

(3) the decal and year sticker(s) for the incorrectly reported unit(s); and

(4) the fees due as provided in sections 5520, 5521, and 5530, paid by the dealer and not the transferee.

Article 10. Commercial Coach Seizure and Sale to Satisfy a Lien in Favor of the State of California

§ 5600. Requirements to Request a Hearing to Contest the Existence or Amount of the State Lien.

(a) The registered owner or any person receiving notice from the department, of the department's intention to seize and sell a commercial coach in order to satisfy a lien in favor of the State for nonpayment of registration fees and/or license fees and corresponding penalties, may request a hearing to contest the existence or the amount of the lien.

(b) The registered owner or person receiving the notice may only request a hearing on or before the date stated in the department's notice as the last day a request for a hearing can be received.

(c) The request for a hearing shall be in written form and shall contain the following information:

(1) the name and mailing address of the registered owner or person requesting the hearing,

(2) the county in which the person or registered owner resides, and

(3) a brief statement giving the grounds for the request.

(d) The request shall be submitted to the department in person or by mail to PO Box 1407, Sacramento, CA 95812–1407.

(e) The date of receipt shall be the date the written request is received by the department, by mail or in person.

(f) Upon receipt of a timely request, the department shall schedule a hearing and shall provide written notice of the time and place of the hearing to the person, or registered owner and legal owners, and any other person who claims to have an interest in the commercial coach. This notice shall be mailed no later than ten days prior to the date set by the department for the hearing.

(g) Should the person or registered owner fail to appear at the time and place scheduled for the hearing, the department shall dismiss the request and continue with the seizure and sale process.

(h) All interested parties shall be notified by registered mail of the Director's decision regarding the findings of the hearing, and the department shall insure compliance with the findings.

(i) If a lien no longer exists as a result of the decision, the department will discontinue the seizure and sale process.

(j) The person requesting the hearing or the registered owner shall have ten days from the date of the notification from the department of the Director's decision pursuant to subsection (h) to submit the fees and/or penalties that are stated in the notice to be due and payable if:

(1) The amount of the lien is reduced as a result of the decision, or

(2) the lien is upheld as a result of the hearing.

(k) In the event the payment is not made in the time specified in subsection (j), the department shall continue with the seizure and sale process.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 12–31–97; operative 1–1–98 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 98, No. 1).

Article 12. Local Property Taxation and Relief

§ 5620. Voluntary Transfer to Local Property Taxation.

(a) In addition to the applicable requirements of Articles 4 or 7 of this chapter, an application for registration of a manufactured home or mobilehome which includes a request to transfer the manufactured home or mobilehome from in lieu taxation to local property taxation, shall comply with the requirements of this section. Each application shall include:

(b) the titling document, endorsed as specified is Sections 5533, 5580, 5581, 5583, as appropriate.

(c) the last issued registered owner's registration card.

(d) a request to voluntary transfer the manufactured home or mobilehome to local property taxation, which contains the following information:

(1) the decal or license number of the unit.

(2) the serial number of the unit.

(3) the trade name of the unit.

(4) a statement acknowledging the following:

(A) the transfer to local property taxation is final.

(B) all entitlement to petition for reinstatement to the annual vehicle license fee taxation system is waived.

(C) no refund will be issued for any annual vehicle license fees paid.

(5) a statement signed and dated by all registered, legal, and junior lienholders, except as provided in subsections (e) and (f), requesting that the department transfer the manufactured home or mobilehome for the annual vehicle license fee taxation system to local property taxation.

(6) a statement signed and dated by all new registered owner(s), legal owner(s), and junior lienholders stating the following:

(A) the provisions for voluntary transfer to local property taxation is final and reinstatement to the annual vehicle license fee taxation system will not be granted.

(B) Use tax will be due if the request for voluntary transfer to local property tax occurs on or after the date of purchase.

(e) If ownership is recorded as "or," tenants–in–common, or as tenants–in–common with the names joined by "or" and if the signature of one of the owners is not available, the registered owner shall submit a statement that includes the following information:

(A) The decal or license number.

(B) The serial number(s).

(C) The manufacturer's trade name, if any;

(D) A statement certifying that the missing signature is for a person who is deceased, or for a person who no longer has an interest in the manufactured home or mobilehome and but cannot be located to sign documents.

(f) If the lien of the legal owner and/or the junior lienholder are paid in full prior to the date the registered owner requests transfer to local property taxation, and the legal owner and/or junior lienholder has released interest in the unit, the signatures of the legal owner and/or junior lienholder of record are not required. The registered owner shall submit statement certifying that the legal owner's and/or junior lienholder's lien was satisfied prior to the date of request for voluntary conversion to local property taxation.

(g) The application shall include payment of all fees due and payable pursuant to:

(1) the Manufactured Home Recovery Fund Fee as specified in subsection 5660(s);

(2) all fees due and payable pursuant to Section 18114(b) and (d) of the Health and Safety Code, if applicable,

(3) all fees due and payable pursuant to Section 18114.1 of the Health and Safety Code, if applicable.

(h) If the unit is not currently registered as of the date of a request to transfer to local property taxation, all annual renewal fees and penalties as specified in Sections 18114, 18114.1, 18115, and 18116 shall be paid before the department will process the request. The date of transfer to local property taxation will be evidenced by the latest date as required in subsection (d)(5)

(i) If the application includes a change in the registered owner, the application shall include payment for the Transfer Fee as required by subsection 5660(b).

(j) The application shall include payment for the Transfer Fee Penalty, when applicable, as specified in Subsection 5660(c).

(k) The application shall include payment for the Lien Registration Service Fee specified in Subsection 5660(m).

(l) The application shall include payment for use tax if the transfer to local property taxation occurs after the date of sale. The date of transfer to local property taxation will be evidenced by the latest date as required in subsection (d)(5)

Article 13. Salvage Reporting Requirements

§ 5630. Reporting a Unit as Salvage.

(a) An application submitted to request the designation of a manufactured home, mobilehome, multi–unit manufactured housing, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home as salvage, that is damaged and unfit for human habitation or that has been destroyed, shall meet the requirements of this section.

(b) If a manufactured home, mobilehome, multi–unit manufactured housing, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home was sold prior to the date of damage or destruction by other than a dealer and not reported to the department, the application shall also meet the applicable registration requirements pursuant to Article 3 and 4 of this chapter.

(c) If a manufactured home, mobilehome, multi–unit manufactured housing, or commercial coach, was sold by a dealer prior to the date of damage or destruction and not reported to the department, the application shall also meet the applicable registration requirements pursuant to Articles 3, 4 and Article 7 of this chapter.

(d) Each application shall include the titling document.

(e) If the application is to report the salvage of a new, unregistered unit, the application shall include the original (pink) copy of form HCD 483.0, Manufacturer Certificate of Origin, dated 7/97.

(f) The application shall include all Junior Lienholder Registration Cards, with each registration card.

(g) The application shall include the last issued registered owner's registration card.

(h) The application shall include each HUD label or HCD insignia assigned to the manufactured home, mobilehome, multi–unit manufactured housing, commercial coach, or truck camper. If the labels or insignia are unavailable due to their destruction, loss, or surrender to the department, the applicant shall provide this information as required in subsection (i).

(i) The application shall include a statement, signed under penalty of perjury, that the following information:

(1) The unit identifying information.

(2) A statement certifying the following information:

(A) the date the unit was destroyed and the cause of the destruction.

(B) the license plate(s) or decal(s) has been destroyed.

(C) the HUD label(s) or HCD insignia has been surrendered to the department, lost, or destroyed.

(j) If the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach is destroyed or damaged after the date the annual renewal fees become due, the application shall include payment for fees and penalties as specified in Sections 18114, 18114.1, 18115, and 18116 of the Health and Safety Code.

(k) If the application includes a change in ownership not recorded with the department prior to the date of destruction, the following applicable fees shall be submitted with the application:

(1) Payment for the Transfer Fee as required by subsection 5660(b), and

(2) Payment for a Lien Registration Service Fee as required by subsection 5660(m), and

(3) Payment of the use tax as specified in Section 5667.

(4) the Manufactured Home Recovery Fund Fee as required by subsection 5660(s);

(l) If the application includes a sale by a California licensed dealer not recorded with the department prior to the date of destruction, the following fees apply:

(1) Payment of the Dealer Report of Sale filing fee as required by Title 25, Division 1, Chapter 4, subsection 5040(j).

(2) Payment Administrative Service Fees as specified in Section 18123.5 of the Health and Safety Code shall also be submitted with the application, when applicable.

(m) If the registration of the manufactured home, mobilehome, multi–unit manufactured housing, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home has been designated as salvage pursuant to this section, neither a titling document nor a registration card shall be issued unless the unit is approved for occupancy pursuant to the requirements of Section 5631.

(n) Upon approval of the application to designate a manufactured home, mobilehome, multi–unit manufactured housing, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home for salvage, the department shall provide acknowledgment to the registered owner and legal owner(s), if any, that the application has been approved to report the unit as salvage.

HISTORY

1. New chapter 5.5 (sections 5802–5820) and section filed 3–20–98 as an emergency; operative 4–6–98 (Register 98, No. 12). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL by 8–4–98 or emergency language will be repealed by operation of law on the following day.
2. New chapter 5.5 (sections 5802–5820) and section refiled 8–4–98 as an emergency; operative 8–4–98 (Register 98, No. 32). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL by 12–2–98 or emergency language will be repealed by operation of law on the following day.
3. Certificate of Compliance as to 8–4–98 order transmitted to OAL 12–1–98 and filed 1–14–99 (Register 99, No. 3).

§ 5804. Application.

The provisions of this chapter shall apply to the following housing regulatory programs administered by the Department, with regulations located in the Division of Codes and Standards (hereinafter the Division):

(a) Employee Housing (Chapter 1, Subchapter 3, beginning with § 600);

(b) Mobilehome Parks (Chapter 2, Subchapters 1 and 2, beginning with § 1000);

(c) Factory–Built Housing (Chapter 3, Subchapter 1, beginning with § 3000);

(d) Manufactured Housing (Chapter 3, Subchapter 2, beginning with § 4000);

(e) Occupational Licensing (Chapter 4, Subchapter 1, beginning with § 5000, and Subchapter 2, commencing with § 5300).

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 17003.5, 17020, 18015, 18020, 18300, 19990 and 19991.3, Health and Safety Code; and Section 15376, Government Code. Reference: 8 U.S.C. HISTORY

1. New section filed 3–20–98 as an emergency; operative 4–6–98 (Register 98, No. 12). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL by 8–4–98 or emergency language will be repealed by operation of law on the following day.
2. New section refiled 8–4–98 as an emergency; operative 8–4–98 (Register 98, No. 32). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL by 12–2–98 or emergency language will be repealed by operation of law on the following day.
3. Certificate of Compliance as to 8–4–98 order transmitted to OAL 12–1–98 and filed 1–14–99 (Register 99, No. 3).

§ 5806. Definitions.

The following definitions shall apply to this chapter:

(a) "Alien" means any person not a citizen or national of the United States.

(b) "Applicant" means a person applying for a public benefit subject to this chapter. "Applicant" does not include a partnership or a corporation.

(c) "Department" means the California Department of Housing and Community Development.

(d) "Enforcement Agency" means the department or, for purposes of the Employee Housing regulations (Chapter 1, Subchapter 3, beginning with § 600), an enforcement agency as defined in § 17007 of the Health and Safety Code, or, for purposes of the Mobilehome Parks regulations (Chapter 2, Subchapters 1 and 2, beginning with § 1000), an enforcement agency as defined in § 18207 of the Health and Safety Code.

(e) "INA" means the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. § 1101 et seq.).

(f) "INS" means the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service.

(g) "Nonimmigrant" means the same as in Section 101(a)(15) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1101 (a)(15)).

(h) "PRWORA" means the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (Pub. L. No. 104–193, 8 U.S.C. § 1621).

(i) "Public Benefit" means any of the following:

(1) A permit to operate employee housing, including a permit renewal, multiple year permit or a conditional permit, obtained under Employee Housing regulations, Article 4 of Chapter 1 of this Division, beginning with § 631;

(2) A permit to operate a mobilehome park or special occupancy park, obtained under Mobilehome Parks Act regulations, Chapter 2 of this Division, beginning with § 1000;

(3) A certification by the Department of a design approval agency, quality assurance agency, or quality assurance inspector, obtained under Factory–Built Housing regulations, Subchapter 1 of Chapter 3 of this Division, beginning with § 3000;

(4) A certification by the department of a design approval agency, quality assurance agency, or quality assurance inspector, obtained under Manufactured Housing regulations, Article 5 of Subchapter 2 of Chapter 3 of this Division, beginning with § 4850.

(5) An occupational license, temporary permit, instructor approval, or 90–day certificate issued by the department to a manufacturer, dealer, distributor, salesperson, 90–day certificate holder, course provider, or instructor, obtained under Manufactured Housing Sales, Occupational Licensing and Education regulations, Subchapter 1 of Chapter 4 of this Division, beginning with § 5000, or Subchapter 2 of Chapter 4 of this Division, beginning with § 5300.)

(j) "Qualified Alien" means an alien who, at the time he or she applies for, receives, or attempts to receive a public benefit, is, under Section 431(b) of the PRWORA (8 U.S.C. § 1641(b)), any of the following:

(1) An alien who is lawfully admitted for permanent residence under the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1101 et seq.);

(2) An alien who is granted asylum under Section 208 of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1158);

(3) A refugee who is admitted to the United States under Section 207 of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1157);

(4) An alien who is paroled into the United States under Section 212(d)(5) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1182(d)(5)) for a period of at least one year;

(5) An alien whose deportation is being withheld under Section 243(h) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1253(h)) (as in effect immediately before the effective date of section 307 of division C of Public Law 104–208) or Section 241(b)(3) of such Act (8 U.S.C. § 1251(b)(3)) (as amended by Section 305(a) of division C of Public Law 104–208);

(6) An alien who is granted conditional entry pursuant to Section 203(a)(7) of the INA as in effect prior to April 1, 1980 (8 U.S.C. § 1153(a)(7)). (See editorial note under 8 U.S.C. § 1101, "Effective Date of 1980 Amendment.");

(7) An alien who is a Cuban or Haitian entrant (as defined in section 501(e) of the Refugee Education Assistance Act of 1980 (8 U.S.C. § 1522 note));

(8) An alien who meets all of the conditions of subparagraphs (A), (B), (C), and (D) below:

(A) The alien has been battered or subjected to extreme cruelty in the United States by a spouse or a parent, or by a member of the spouse's or parent's family residing in the same household as the alien, and the spouse or parent of the alien consented to, or acquiesced in, such battery or cruelty. For purposes of this subsection, the term "battered or subjected to extreme cruelty" includes, but is not limited to, being the victim of any act or threatened act of violence including any forceful detention, which results or threatens to result in physical or mental injury. Rape, molestation, incest (if the victim is a minor), or forced prostitution shall be considered acts of violence.

(B) In the opinion of the enforcement agency there is a substantial connection between such battery and cruelty and the need for the benefits to be provided. For purposes of this subsection, the following circumstances demonstrate a substantial connection between the battery or cruelty and the need for the benefits to be provided:

1. The benefits are needed to enable the alien to become self–sufficient following separation from the abuser.

2. The benefits are needed to enable the alien to escape the abuser and/or the community in which the abuser lives, or to ensure the safety of the alien from the abuser.

3. The benefits are needed due to a loss of financial support resulting from the alien's separation from the abuser.

4. The benefits are needed because the battery or cruelty, separation from the abuser, or work absences or lower job performance resulting from the battery or extreme cruelty or from legal proceedings relating thereto (including resulting child support, child custody, and divorce actions) cause the alien to lose his or her job or to earn less or to require the alien to leave his or her job for safety reasons.

5. The benefits are needed because the alien requires medical attention or mental health counseling, or has become disabled, as a result of the battery or extreme cruelty.

6. The benefits are needed because the loss of a dwelling or source of income or fear of the abuser following separation from the abuser jeopardizes the alien's ability to care for his or her children (e.g., inability to house, feed, or clothe children or to put children into a day care facility for fear of being found by the abuser).

7. The benefits are needed to alleviate nutritional risk or need resulting from the abuse or following separation from the abuser.

8. The benefits are needed to provide medical care during a pregnancy resulting from the abuser's sexual assault or abuse of, or relationship with, the alien and/or to care for any resulting children.

9. Where medical coverage and/or health care services are needed to replace medical coverage or health care services the alien had when living with the abuser.

(C) The alien has been approved or has a petition pending which sets forth a prima facie case for:

1. status as a spouse or child of a United States citizen pursuant to clause (ii), (iii), or (iv) of Section 204(a)(1)(A) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1154(a)(1)(A)(ii), (iii) or (iv));

2. classification pursuant to clause (ii) or (iii) of Section 204(a)(1)(B) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1154 (a) (1) (B) (ii) or (iii));

3. suspension of deportation pursuant to § 244(a)(3) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1254) as in effect prior to April 1, 1997 [Pub.L. 104–208, sec. 501 (effective September 30, 1996, pursuant to sec. 591); Pub.L. 104–208, sec. 304 (effective April 1, 1997, pursuant to sec 309); Pub.L. 105–33, Sec. 5581 (effective pursuant to sec. 5582)] (incorrectly codified as cancellation of removal under section 240A of such Act [8 USCS sec. 1229b] (as in effect prior to April 1, 1997);

4. status as a spouse or child of a United States citizen pursuant to clause (i) of Section 204 (a) (1) (A) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1154 (a) (1) (A)(i) or classification pursuant to clause (i) of Section 204 (a)(1)(B) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1154 (a) (1) (B)(i)), or

5. cancellation of removal pursuant to section 240(b)(2)(A) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1229(b)(2)).

(D) For the period for which benefits are sought, the individual responsible for the battery or cruelty does not reside in the same household or family eligibility unit as the individual subjected to the battery or cruelty.

(9) An alien who meets all of the conditions of subparagraphs (A), (B), (C), (D) and (E) below:

(A) The alien has a child who has been battered or subjected to extreme cruelty in the United States by a spouse or a parent of the alien (without the active participation of the alien in the battery or cruelty), or by a member of the spouse's or parent's family residing in the same household as the alien, and the spouse or parent consented or acquiesced to such battery or cruelty. For purposes of this subsection, the term "battered or subjected to extreme cruelty" includes, but is not limited to being the victim of any act or threatened act of violence including any forceful detention, which results or threatens to result in physical or mental injury. Rape, molestation, incest (if the victim is a minor), or forced prostitution shall be considered acts of violence.

(B) The alien did not actively participate in such battery or cruelty;

(C) In the opinion of the enforcement agency, there is a substantial connection between such battery or cruelty and the need for the benefits to be provided. For purposes of this subsection, the following circumstances demonstrate a substantial connection between the battery or cruelty and the need for the benefits to be provided:

1. The benefits are needed to enable the alien's child to become self–sufficient following separation from the abuser.

2. The benefits are needed to enable the alien's child to escape the abuser and/or the community in which the abuser lives, or to ensure the safety of the alien's child from the abuser.

3. The benefits are needed due to a loss of financial support resulting from the alien child's separation from the abuser.

4. The benefits are needed because the battery or cruelty, separation from the abuser, or work absences or lower job performance resulting from the battery or extreme cruelty or from legal proceedings relating thereto (including resulting child support, child custody, and divorce actions) cause the alien's child to lose his or her job or to earn less or to require the alien's child to leave his or her job for safety reasons.

5. The benefits are needed because the alien's child requires medical attention or mental health counseling, or has become disabled, as a result of the battery or extreme cruelty.

6. The benefits are needed because the loss of a dwelling or source of income or fear of the abuser following separation from the abuser jeopardizes the alien's child's ability to care for his or her children (e.g., inability to house, feed, or clothe children or to put children into a day care facility for fear of being found by the abuser).

7. The benefits are needed to alleviate nutritional risk or need resulting from the abuse or following separation from the abuser.

8. The benefits are needed to provide medical care during a pregnancy resulting from the abuser's sexual assault or abuse of, or relationship with, the alien's child and/or to care for any resulting children.

9. Where medical coverage and/or health care services are needed to replace medical coverage or health care services the alien's child had when living with the abuser.

(D) The alien meets the requirements of subsection (j)(8)(C) above;

(E) For the period for which benefits are sought, the individual responsible for the battery or cruelty does not reside in the same household or family eligibility unit as the individual subjected to the battery or cruelty.

(10) An alien child who meets all of the conditions of subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C) below:

(A) The alien child resides in the same household as a parent who has been battered or subjected to extreme cruelty in the United States by that parent's spouse or by a member of the spouse's family residing in the same household as the parent and the spouse consented or acquiesced to such battery or cruelty. For purposes of this subsection, the term "battered or subjected to extreme cruelty" includes, but is not limited to being the victim of any act or threatened act of violence including any forceful detention, which results or threatens to result in physical or mental injury. Rape, molestation, incest (if the victim is a minor), or forced prostitution shall be considered acts of violence.

(B) In the opinion of the enforcement agency there is a substantial connection between such battery or cruelty and the need for the benefits to be provided. For purposes of this subsection, the following circumstances demonstrate a substantial connection between the battery or cruelty and the need for the benefits to be provided:

1. The benefits are needed to enable the alien child's parent to become self-sufficient following separation from the abuser.

2. The benefits are needed to enable the alien child's parent to escape the abuser and/or the community in which the abuser lives, or to ensure the safety of the alien child's parent from the abuser.

3. The benefits are needed due to a loss of financial support resulting from the alien child's parent's separation from the abuser.

4. The benefits are needed because the battery or cruelty, separation from the abuser, or work absences or lower job performance resulting from the battery or extreme cruelty or from legal proceedings relating thereto (including resulting child support, child custody, and divorce actions) cause the alien child's parent to lose his or her job or to earn less or to require the alien child's parent to leave his or her job for safety reasons.

5. The benefits are needed because the alien child's parent requires medical attention or mental health counseling, or has become disabled, as a result of the battery or extreme cruelty.

6. The benefits are needed because the loss of a dwelling or source of income or fear of the abuser following separation from the abuser jeopardizes the alien child's parent's ability to care for his or her children (e.g., inability to house, feed, or clothe children or to put children into a day care facility for fear of being found by the abuser).

7. The benefits are needed to alleviate nutritional risk or need resulting from the abuse or following separation from the abuser.

8. The benefits are needed to provide medical care during a pregnancy resulting from the abuser's sexual assault or abuse of, or relationship with, the alien child's parent and/or to care for any resulting children.

9. Where medical coverage and/or health care services are needed to replace medical coverage or health care services the alien child's parent had when living with the abuser.

(C) The alien child meets the requirements of subsection (j)(8)(C) above.

(k) "Unqualified Alien" means an alien who is not a qualified alien.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 3-20-98 as an emergency; operative 4-6-98 (Register 98, No. 12). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL by 8-4-98 or emergency language will be repealed by operation of law on the following day.
2. New section refiled 8-4-98 as an emergency, including amendment of subsection (b); operative 8-4-98 (Register 98, No. 32). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL by 12-2-98 or emergency language will be repealed by operation of law on the following day.
3. Certificate of Compliance as to 8-4-98 order transmitted to OAL 12-1-98 and filed 1-14-99 (Register 99, No. 3).

§ 5812. Time of Eligibility Determination; Period of Effect of a Public Benefit.

(a) Eligibility of an applicant shall be determined at the time of application for a public benefit, prior to issuance of the public benefit being applied for, except as provided in Section 5816(g). If the enforcement agency investigates an applicant and does not determine that the applicant is eligible to receive public benefits pursuant to this chapter, the public benefit shall be denied, except as provided in Section 5816(g).

(b) Except as provided in Section 5816(g), the continuing eligibility for public benefits of a person who has received a public benefit prior to the effective date of these regulations shall be established prior to an enforcement agency's approval of any renewal or other change concerning the public benefit which, pursuant to program regulations, requires the enforcement agency's prior approval. If a person fails to establish eligibility, the enforcement agency shall withhold its approval of the renewal or other change, except as provided in Section 5816(g). Under no circumstances may a public benefit provided to a person be transferred to an unqualified alien, nor may a public benefit be used in a manner which would allow an unqualified alien to be a beneficiary.

(c) All determinations of ineligibility shall be promptly transmitted to the applicant in writing, and shall include the reasons for the determination and a summary of the applicable appeal procedures set forth in section 5818.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 3-20-98 as an emergency; operative 4-6-98 (Register 98, No. 12). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL by 8-4-98 or emergency language will be repealed by operation of law on the following day.
2. New section refiled 8-4-98 as an emergency; operative 8-4-98 (Register 98, No. 32). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL by 12-2-98 or emergency language will be repealed by operation of law on the following day.

3. Certificate of Compliance as to 8–4–98 order, including amendment of subsection (c), transmitted to OAL 12–1–98 and filed 1–14–99 (Register 99, No. 3).

§ 5814. Responsibility for Eligibility Determination.

(a) Eligibility of an applicant shall be determined by the enforcement agency, as part of its ongoing program enforcement responsibilities. An enforcement agency other than the department may refer the verification of alien applicants to the department by transferring to the department's Division of Codes and Standards copies of all documentation presented by the applicant and the department's fee pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 5814. Each enforcement agency which is performing verifications shall maintain the appropriate documentation for each recipient of public benefits or applicant whose eligibility it has determined. Where the eligibility of an applicant for a public benefit has already been verified as part of an eligibility process for another program subject to PRWORA, that verification shall be deemed adequate for purposes of this chapter, and documentation of such verification shall be maintained in the applicant's file.

(b) The failure of a local enforcement agency which is performing verifications to perform eligibility verifications as required by this chapter may, in the department's discretion, be considered a failure to perform the duties of an enforcement agency under applicable program regulations.

(c)Any enforcement agency other than the department which verifies eligibility may charge applicants a reasonable fee for determining eligibility, not to exceed the actual cost of performing the verification. When an enforcement agency other than the department refers the verification of an applicant's eligibility to the department as provided in subdivision (a), the enforcement agency shall collect from the applicant and transmit to the department the fee pursuant to subdivision (d).

(d) The department may charge a fee of $13.00 for each verification it performs.

(e) An enforcement agency, including the department, shall not be liable for any action, delay, error or failure by the INS in operating the Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE) system or any other verification process, or by any other public agency to which the enforcement agency applies to obtain information the enforcement agency deems necessary to its determination of the eligibility of an applicant to receive public benefits.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 3–20–98 as an emergency; operative 4–6–98 (Register 98, No. 12). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL by 8–4–98 or emergency language will be repealed by operation of law on the following day.
2. New section refiled 8–4–98 as an emergency; operative 8–4–98 (Register 98, No. 32). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL by 12–2–98 or emergency language will be repealed by operation of law on the following day.
3. Certificate of Compliance as to 8–4–98 order transmitted to OAL 12–1–98 and filed 1–14–99 (Register 99, No. 3).

§ 5816. Method of Determining Eligibility.

(a) To be considered for eligibility, an applicant shall declare his or her status as a United States citizen or national, a qualified alien, a nonimmigrant alien, or a parolee to the United States by completing and signing the "Statement of Citizenship, Alienage, and Immigration Status for State Public Benefits", Form HCD–Benefit Status Form 1 ("HCD Form 1"), 8/98 version, which is hereby incorporated into these regulations by reference and will be provided by the department.

(b) The applicant shall present documents of a type acceptable to the INS, as described in List A of HCD Form 1 (8/98) in the case of an applicant who is a citizen or national, or List B of HCD Form 1 (8/98) in the case of an applicant who is an alien, as evidence of the applicant's declared status at the time of application. The enforcement agency may accept copies of listed documents as evidence if in its judgment the documents copied reasonably appear to be genuine and to relate to the applicant. A fee receipt from the INS for replacement of a lost, stolen, or unreadable INS document is reasonable evidence of an alien's declared status. Where the documents reasonably appear to be genuine and to relate to the applicant, the applicant shall be considered eligible for the public benefit.

(c) If the documents presented do not on their face appear to be genuine or to relate to the individual presenting them, the enforcement agency shall contact the government entity that originally issued the documents for verification. In the case of naturalized citizens, derivative citizens presenting certificates of citizenship, and aliens, the INS is the appropriate government entity to contact for verification. The enforcement agency shall request verification from the INS by filing INS Form G–845 or its successor, with copies of the pertinent documents provided by the applicant, with the local INS office. If an applicant has lost his or her original documents or presents expired documents or is unable to present any documentation evidencing his or her immigration status, the applicant shall be referred to the local INS office to obtain documentation.

(d) The following documents presented by applicants shall be referred to the INS for verification:

(1) A document which indicates immigration status but does not include an alien registration or alien admission number.

(2) A document which is suspected to be counterfeit or to have been altered.

(3) A document which includes an alien registration number in the A60 000 000 (not yet issued) or A80 000 000 (illegal border crossing) series.

(4) A document which is one of the following: an INS Form I–181b notification letter issued in connection with an INS Form I–181 Memorandum of Creation of Record of Permanent Residence, an Arrival–Departure Record (INS Form I–94) or a foreign passport stamped "PROCESSED FOR I–551, TEMPORARY EVIDENCE OF LAWFUL PERMANENT RESIDENCE," that INS issued more than one year before the date of application for a public benefit subject to this chapter.

(e) If the INS advises that the applicant is a citizen, a national, or has immigration status which makes him or her a qualified alien under the PRWORA, the INS verification shall be accepted. If the INS advises that it cannot verify that the applicant is a citizen, a national, or a qualified alien, benefits shall be denied and the applicant notified of the denial and of his or her right to appeal the denial pursuant to Section 5818.

(f) Pursuant to Section 434 of the PRWORA (8 U.S.C. § 1644), where the enforcement agency reasonably believes that an alien is unlawfully in the State based on the failure of the alien to provide reasonable evidence of the alien's declared status, after an opportunity to do so, that alien shall be reported to the INS.

(g) If an applicant provides the enforcement agency with all information required by subdivisions (a) and (b), and following review of this information the enforcement agency determines that no further action is necessary to determine the applicant's eligibility, the applicant shall be considered eligible for public benefits. However, if the enforcement agency determines that further action is necessary, the applicant shall be considered eligible for a temporary permit, certification or license as specified below, until and unless the enforcement agency receives written confirmation from the INS, or determines based on other information received, that the applicant is not eligible for a public benefit.

(1) The enforcement agency shall issue the applicant a temporary permit, certification or license, valid for a period not to exceed 180 days, which may be extended for one additional period of not more than 180 days.

(2) If the enforcement agency later determines the applicant is eligible to receive the public benefit applied for, it shall issue the applicant a permit, certification or license which is valid for the normal period, as provided in the applicable program statutes and regulations, beginning with the date of issuance of the temporary permit, certification or license.

(3) If the enforcement agency later determines the applicant is not eligible to receive the public benefit applied for, the temporary permit, certification or license shall become void 30 days after the date of the determination of ineligibility. The enforcement agency shall promptly notify the applicant by first-class mail of the determination and the date on which the temporary permit, certification or license shall become void, and promptly thereafter shall ascertain whether the applicant has ceased the activity authorized by the temporary permit, certification or license.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 3-20-98 as an emergency; operative 4-6-98 (Register 98, No. 12). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL by 8-4-98 or emergency language will be repealed by operation of law on the following day.
2. New section refiled 8-4-98 as an emergency; operative 8-4-98 (Register 98, No. 32). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL by 12-2-98 or emergency language will be repealed by operation of law on the following day.
3. Certificate of Compliance as to 8-4-98 order, including amendment of subsections (a), (b) and (e), transmitted to OAL 12-1-98 and filed 1-14-99 (Register 99, No. 3).

§ 5818. Appeals.

(a) Any person determined to be ineligible to receive public benefits by an enforcement agency pursuant to this chapter may appeal that determination as provided in this section.

(b) To be considered, an appeal must: (1) be submitted in writing to the enforcement agency that performed the eligibility verification; (2) be delivered to the department by the applicant, by a messenger service, or by U.S. Mail, within 10 calendar days from the date of the written determination of ineligibility, as evidenced by either the date of receipt when delivered by the applicant, or by a Postmark or equivalent date on the messenger service delivery envelope; and (3) state the reason(s) the person believes the determination was in error.

(c) The enforcement agency shall follow the appeal procedures set forth in this subdivision:

(1) Upon receipt of an appeal, the verifying enforcement agency shall conduct an administrative review of the decision being appealed, including all documentary information submitted by the appellant in support of his or her appeal. Within 15 calendar days of receipt of an appeal, the administrative review shall be completed and a written notice issued to the appellant either that the appellant has been found eligible to receive benefits, or that the appellant has been found ineligible to receive benefits and the date, time and location at which a hearing will take place. The hearing may be by telephone or in person, in which case the hearing will be held in the general geographic area where the benefit would have been conferred.

(2) The enforcement agency shall appoint an employee other than the person who performed the initial verification to serve as Hearing Officer. The program providing the benefit applied for may be, but is not required to be, represented at the hearing.

(3) The Hearing Officer may determine the relevance of the information or testimony, may limit the length of presentations, and may eject threatening or abusive persons from the hearing. The Hearing Officer may request additional evidence, proof, or documentation from the appellant at the time of the hearing, or thereafter, and shall set a time after which no additional information will be accepted.

(4) The authority of the Hearing Officer shall be limited to determinations of eligibility pursuant to this chapter, and he or she shall have no authority to overrule any finding or decision of the INS. Pending the Hearing Officer's decision, any discretionary action regarding eligibility for public benefits shall be stayed. If, during the appeal process, the appellant is found to be ineligible to receive benefits under the program applied under for reasons other than those set forth in this subchapter, the appeal shall be dismissed.

(5) The Hearing Officer shall render a decision in writing within 15 working days after the hearing, and this will be a final administrative decision.

(6) The hearing shall be recorded, but only transcribed where the verifying entity deems it necessary. Tapes shall be retained for one year after a decision is reached.

Subchapter 1. Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Guidelines

Article 1. General

§ 6000. Order of Adoption.

This subchapter (hereinafter referred to as the "Guidelines") is adopted pursuant to the provisions of Section 41135, Health and Safety Code, in order to implement, interpret and to make specific provisions of Division 7, commencing with Section 7260 of the Government Code (hereinafter referred to as the "Act"), relating to relocation assistance, last resort housing and real property acquisition.

NOTE: Authority cited for Chapter 6: Sections 41134, 41135, and 41226, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 7260 et seq., Government Code; 41134, 41135, and 41226, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 11-5-76 as an emergency; designated effective 11-27-76 (Register 76, No. 44). For prior history, see Register 76, No. 44.
2. Redesignation of Chapter 6 (Sections 6000-6198, not consecutive) to Chapter 6, Subchapter 1 (Sections 6000-6198, not consecutive) filed 1-28-77 as procedural and organizational; effective upon filing (Register 77 No. 5).
3. Amendment filed 1-28-77 as procedural and organizational; effective upon filing (Register 77, No. 5).
4. Certificate of Compliance as to filing of 11-5-76 filed 2-16-77 (Register 77, No. 8).

§ 6002. Statement of Purpose and Policy.

(a) The purpose of the Guidelines is to assist public entities in the development of regulations and procedures implementing the Act.

(b) The Guidelines are designed to carry out the following policies of the Act:

(1) To ensure that uniform, fair and equitable treatment is afforded persons displaced from their homes, businesses or farms as a result of the actions of a public entity in order that such persons shall not suffer disproportionate injury as a result of action taken for the benefit of the public as a whole; and

(2) In the acquisition of real property by a public entity, to ensure consistent and fair treatment for owners of real property to be acquired, to encourage and expedite acquisition by agreement with owners of such property in order to avoid litigation and relieve congestion in courts, and to promote confidence in public land acquisition.

(c) A public entity shall not participate in or undertake a project that will displace individuals from their homes unless comparable replacement dwellings (see subsection 6008(c)) will be available within a reasonable period of time prior to displacement.

(d) The Guidelines are intended to establish only minimum requirements for relocation assistance and payments. They shall not be construed to limit any other authority or obligation which a public entity may have to provide additional assistance and payments.

(e) The Act and the Guidelines are intended for the benefit of displaced persons, to ensure that such persons receive fair and equitable treatment and do not suffer disproportionate injuries as the result of programs designed for the benefit of the public as a whole. The Act, Guidelines and all applicable regulations on which determinations are based shall be construed to effect this intent.

§ 6004. Applicability and Supersedure.

(a) Except as otherwise noted in this section, the Guidelines are applicable to all displacement and acquisition occurring on or after their effective date, January 1, 1977.

(b) These Guidelines supersede those adopted by the Commission of Housing and Community Development on October 17, 1973. The guidelines so superseded shall not apply to any displacement or acquisition occurring on or after the effective date of these Guidelines. Any such displacement or acquisition shall be governed solely by these Guidelines and the California Relocation Act, found at Government Code section 7260 et seq.

The provisions of these Guidelines, however, shall not be construed retroactively to apply to action(s) undertaken by a public entity prior to their effective date where the purpose of the action was to fulfill obligations imposed by the Act and the action is in compliance with the requirements of the Act and the existing Guidelines. For the purpose of this section the term "action" shall include but is not limited to: the provision of information, notice, other assistance, comparable replacement housing, payments and other benefits; the preparation of relocation and last resort housing plans, including the survey and analysis of needs and resources; the processing of grievances; and the various steps taken in connection with the acquisition of property for public use.

These guidelines shall apply to relocation plans and notices to displacees subsequent to the effective date of any regulatory provision. The right of displacees shall not be reduced in reliance on any amendment to these guidelines where it may be demonstrated that the displacee has acted in reliance on a notice given to that household prior to the effective date of any guideline.

(c) To the extent that these Guidelines are from time to time amended, the amendments shall be effective prospectively from the date that they become effective.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50460, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Article 4, Section 8, California Constitution.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (b) filed 11-5-76 as an emergency; designated effective 11-27-76 (Register 76, No. 44).
2. Certificate of Compliance filed 2-16-77 (Register 77, No. 8).
3. Amendment of section and new NOTE filed 8-12-97; operative 9-11-97 (Register 97, No. 33).

§ 6006. Regulations.

(a) Each public entity before undertaking or participating in activity which will result in the displacement of persons shall adopt rules and regulations that implement the requirements of the Act, are in accordance with the provisions of the Guidelines, and prescribe additional procedures and requirements that are appropriate to the particular activities of the public entity and not inconsistent with the Act or Guidelines.

(b) Rules and regulations issued under this section shall be promptly revised as necessary, to conform to any amendment of the Act or Guidelines.

§ 6008. Definitions.

The following terms shall mean:

(a) Acquisition.

Obtaining ownership or possession of property by lawful means.

(b) Business.

Any lawful activity, except a farm operation provided such lawful activity is not in an unlawful occupancy as defined in subsection (v), conducted primarily:

(1) For the purchase, sale, lease, or rental of personal and real property, and for the manufacture, processing, or marketing of products, commodities, or any other personal property;

(2) For the sale of services to the public;

(3) By a nonprofit organization; or

(4) Solely for the purpose of a moving expense payment (see section 6090), for assisting in the purchase, sale, resale, manufacture, processing, or marketing of products, commodities, personal property, or services by the erection and maintenance of an outdoor advertising display, whether or not such display is located on the premises on which any of the above activities are conducted.

(c) Comparable Replacement Dwelling.

A dwelling which satisfies each of the following standards:

(1) Decent, safe and sanitary (as defined in subsection 6008(d)), and comparable to the acquired dwelling with respect to number of rooms, habitable living space and type and quality of construction, but not lesser in rooms or living space than necessary to accommodate the displaced person.

(2) In an area not subjected to unreasonable adverse environmental conditions from either natural or manmade sources, and not generally less desirable than the acquired dwelling with respect to public utilities, public and commercial facilities and neighborhood conditions, including schools and municipal services, and reasonably accessible to the displaced person's present or potential place of employment; provided that a potential place of employment may not be used to satisfy the accessibility requirement if the displaced person objects.

The Act and Guidelines do not require that the replacement dwelling be generally as desirable as the acquired dwelling with respect to environmental characteristics. Though a displaced person does not have to accept a dwelling subject to unreasonable adverse environmental conditions, neither is a public entity required to duplicate environmental characteristics, such as scenic vistas or proximity to the ocean, lakes, rivers, forests or other natural phenomena.

If the displaced person so wishes, every reasonable effort shall be made to relocate such person within or near to his existing neighborhood. Whenever practicable the replacement dwelling shall be reasonably close to relatives, friends, services or organizations with whom there is an existing dependency relationship.

(3) Available on the private market to the displaced person and available to all persons regardless of race, color, sex, marital status, religion, or national origin in a manner consistent with Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 or any other applicable state or federal anti-discrimination law.

(4) To the extent practicable and where consistent with paragraph (c)(1) of this section, functionally equivalent and substantially the same as the acquired dwelling, but not excluding newly constructed housing.

(5)(A) Within the financial means of the displaced person. A replacement dwelling is within the financial means of a displaced person if the monthly rental cost (including utilities and other reasonable recurring expenses) minus any replacement housing payment available to the person (as provided in section 6104) does not exceed thirty percent (30%)[1] of the person's average monthly income (as defined in subsection 6008(1)).

(B) For homeowners; a replacement dwelling is within the financial means of a displaced person if the purchase price of the dwelling including related increased interest costs and other reasonable expenses including closing costs (as described in section 6102) does not exceed the total of the amount of just compensation provided for the dwelling acquired and the replacement housing payment available to the person (as provided in section 6102).

If a dwelling which satisfies these standards is not available the public entity may consider a dwelling which exceeds them.

(d) Decent, Safe and Sanitary.

(1) Housing in sound, clean and weather tight condition, in good repair and adequately maintained, in conformance with the applicable state and local building, plumbing, electrical, housing and occupancy codes or similar ordinances or regulations and which meets the following minimum standards:

(A) Each housekeeping unit shall include a kitchen with a fully usable sink, a stove or connection for a stove, a separate and complete bathroom, hot and cold running water in both bathroom and kitchen, an adequate and safe wiring system for lighting and other electrical services and heating as required by climatic conditions and local codes.

(B) Each nonhousekeeping unit shall be in conformance with state and local code standards for boarding houses, hotels and other dwellings for congregate living.

(2) When the term decent, safe and sanitary is interpreted, under local, state or federal law, as establishing a higher standard, the elements of that higher standard, which exceed the provision of paragraph (1) of this subsection, are incorporated herein. A unit which is occupied by no more than the maximum number of people allowed under the State Building Code shall be considered to be in compliance with the occupancy provisions of this subsection.

(e) Department. Department of Housing and Community Development.

(f) Displaced Person. Any person who moves from real property, or who moves his personal property from real property, either:

(1) As a result of a written notice of intent to acquire by a public entity or as a result of the acquisition of such real property, in whole or in part, by a public entity or by any person having an agreement with or acting on behalf of a public entity, or as the result of a written order from a public entity to vacate the real property, for public use; or

(2) As a result of the rehabilitation, demolition or other displacing activity undertaken by a public entity or by any person having an agreement with or acting on behalf of a public entity of real property on which the person is in lawful occupancy or conducts a business, and the displacement, except as provided in Government Code section 7262.5, lasts longer than 90 days.

This definition shall be construed so that persons displaced as a result of public action receive relocation benefits in cases where they are displaced as a result of an owner participation agreement or an acquisition carried out by a private person for or in connection with a public use where the public entity is otherwise empowered to acquire the property to carry out the public use.

(3) Except persons or families of low and moderate income, as defined in Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code, who are occupants of housing which was made available to them on a permanent basis by a public agency and who are required to move from that housing, a displaced person shall not include any of the following:

(A) Any person who has been determined to be in unlawful occupancy of the displacement property as defined in subsection 6008(v).

(B) Any person who is a post-acquisition occupant of the displacement dwelling, as provided in section 6034(b);

(C) Any person who occupied the property for the purpose of obtaining relocation benefits and assistance;

(D) Any person who is an occupant of a "Qualified affordable housing preservation project" and all requirements of Government Code section 7262.5 are met; or

(E) Any person occupying private property (not otherwise entitled to relocation benefits as a result of an acquisition, rehabilitation or demolition program) who is required to move as a result of the displacing agency's routine enforcement of building, housing or health codes unless the code enforcement is undertaken for the purpose of causing displacement in coordination with an identified rehabilitation, construction, or demolition program or project.

(F) A person who is not required to move permanently or temporarily as a result of the project as long as they are notified they are not required to move and the project does not impose an unreasonable change in the character or use of the property.

(G) An owner-occupant who moves as a result of an acquisition meeting the requirements of Government Code section 7277.

(g) Dwelling. The place of permanent or customary and usual abode of a person, including a single-family dwelling, a single-family unit in a two-family dwelling, multi-family or multipurpose dwelling, a unit of a condominium or cooperative housing project, a nonhousekeeping unit, a mobilehome, a recreational vehicle as described in Health and Safety Code Section 18010, or any other residential unit which either is considered to be real property under State law or cannot be moved without substantial damage or unreasonable cost. A residence need not be decent, safe and sanitary to be a dwelling.

A second home shall be considered to be a dwelling only for the purpose of establishing eligibility for payment for moving and related expenses (as provided in section 6090).

(h) Economic Rent. The amount of rent a tenant or homeowner would have to pay for a dwelling similar to the acquired dwelling in a comparable area.

(i) Elderly Household. A household in which the head of household or spouse is 62 years or older.

(j) Family. Two or more individuals who by blood, marriage, adoption, or mutual consent live together as a family unit.

(k) Farm Operation. Any activity conducted solely or primarily for the production of one or more agricultural products or commodities, including timber, for sale or home use, and customarily producing such products or commodities in sufficient quantity to be capable of contributing materially to the operator's support.

(l) Gross Income. Gross income means the total annual income of an individual, or where a family is displaced total annual income of the parents or adult heads of household, less the following:

(1) A deduction of $500 for each dependent in excess of three.

(2) A deduction of ten percent (10%) of total income for an elderly or handicapped household.

(3) A deduction for recurring, extraordinary medical expenses, defined for this purpose to mean medical expenses in excess of three percent of total income, where not compensated for or covered by insurance or other sources, such as public assistance or tort recovery.

(4) A deduction of reasonable amounts paid for the care of children or sick or incapacitated family members when determined to be necessary to employment of the head or spouse, except that the amount deducted shall not exceed the amount of income received by the person thus released.

Gross income is divided by twelve to ascertain the average monthly income. Relocation and property acquisition payments are not to be considered as income for the determination of financial means.

(m) Handicapped Household. A household in which any member is handicapped or disabled.

(n) Initiation of Negotiations. The initial written offer made by the acquiring entity to the owner of real property to be purchased, or the owner's representative.

(o) Manufactured Home or Mobilehome. A structure described in Health and Safety Code sections 18007 and 18008.

(p) Mortgage. Such classes of liens as are commonly given to secure advances on, or the unpaid purchase price of, real property, together with the credit instruments, if any, secured thereby.

(q) Ownership. Holding any of the following interests in a dwelling, or a contract to purchase one of the first six interests:

(1) A fee title.

(2) A life estate.

(3) A 50–year lease.

(4) A lease with at least 20 years to run from the date of acquisition of the property.

(5) A proprietary interest in a cooperative housing project which includes the right to occupy a dwelling.

(6) A proprietary interest in a mobilehome.

(7) A leasehold interest with an option to purchase.

In the case of one who has succeeded to any of the foregoing interests by devise, bequest, inheritance or operation of law, the tenure of ownership, but not occupancy, of the succeeding owner shall include the tenure of the preceding owner.

(r) Person. Any individual, family, partnership, corporation, limited liability corporation or association.

(s) Public Entity. Includes the state, the Regents of the University of California, a county, city, city and county, district, public authority, public agency, and any other political subdivision or public corporation in the state when acquiring real property, or any interest therein, or ordering that acquired property be vacated, in any city or county for public use.

(t) Public Use. A use for which property may be acquired by eminent domain.

(u) Tenant. A person who rents or is otherwise in lawful possession of a dwelling, including a sleeping room, which is owned by another.

(v) Unlawful Occupancy. A person is considered to be in unlawful occupancy if the person has been ordered to move by a court of competent jurisdiction or if the person's tenancy has been lawfully terminated by the owner for cause, the tenant has vacated the premises, and the termination was not undertaken for the purpose of evading relocation assistance obligations.

[1]For those who, pursuant to the criteria set forth in Government Code section 7260(i)(3)(A) through (J), would have qualified as a "displaced person" prior to January 1, 1998, the applicable figure shall be twenty–five percent (25%) of the person's average monthly income.

2. Redesignation and amendment of former subsection (c)(5) as subsections (c)(5)(A)–(B) and amendment of subsections (f)(2) and (f)(3)(D) filed 10–7–99; operative 11–6–99 (Register 99, No. 41).

§ 6010. Prior Determinations.

(a) Displacement. No public entity may proceed with any phase of a project or other activity which will result in the displacement of any person, business or farm until it makes the following determinations:

(1) Fair and reasonable relocation payments will be provided to eligible persons as required by Article 3 of the Guidelines.

(2) A relocation assistance program offering the services described in Article 2 of the Guidelines will be established.

(3) Eligible persons will be adequately informed of the assistance, benefits, policies, practices and procedures, including grievance procedures, provided for in these Guidelines.

(4) Based upon recent survey and analysis of both the housing needs of persons who will be displaced and available replacement housing and considering competing demands for that housing, comparable replacement dwellings will be available, or provided, if necessary, within a reasonable period of time prior to displacement sufficient in number, size and cost for the eligible persons who require them.

(5) Adequate provisions have been made to provide orderly, timely, and efficient relocation of eligible persons to comparable replacement housing available without regard to race, color, religion, sex, marital status, or national origin with minimum hardship to those affected.

(6) A relocation plan meeting the requirements of section 6038 has been prepared.

(b) Acquisition. No public entity may proceed with any phase of a project or any other activity which will result in the acquisition of real property until it determines that with respect to such acquisition and to the greatest extent practicable,

(1) Adequate provisions have been made to be guided by the provisions of Article 6 of the Guidelines, and

(2) Eligible persons will be informed of the pertinent benefits, policies and requirements of the Guidelines.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (b) filed 11–5–76 as an emergency; designated effective 11–27–76 (Register 76, No. 44).
2. Certificate of Compliance filed 2–16–77 (Register 77, No. 8).

§ 6012. Citizen Participation.

(a) All persons who will be displaced, neighborhood groups and any relocation committee shall be given an opportunity and should be encouraged fully and meaningfully to participate in reviewing the relocation plan and monitoring the relocation assistance program.

(b) When a substantial number of persons will be displaced from their dwellings the public entity shall encourage the residents and community organizations in the displacement area to form a relocation committee. The committee shall include, when applicable, residential owner occupants, residential tenants, business people, and members of existing organizations within the area. In lieu of initiating a new process of citizen participation, public entities which have conducted or are conducting a citizen participation process as part of an existing development program may substitute such process if it satisfies the requirements of this section.

If a substantial number of persons will not be displaced from their dwellings, the public entity shall at least consult with and obtain the advice of residents and community organizations and make the relocation plan available to such persons and organizations prior to submitting it to the legislative body for approval. (See section 6038.)

(c) At a minimum the displacing entity shall guarantee the following:

(1) Timely and full access to all documents relevant to the relocation program. A public entity may reasonably restrict access to material where its confidentiality is protected by law or its disclosure is prohibited by law.

The displacing entity shall ensure that the information in documents the provision of which would result in disclosure of the identity of eligible persons is provided in a manner designed to avoid such disclosure. This obligation to avoid improper disclosure shall not affect the right of the person to which the information relates (or any other person authorized in writing by such person) to inspect such documents.

(2) The provision of technical assistance necessary to interpret elements of the relocation plan and other pertinent materials.

(3) The right to submit written or oral comments and objections, including the right to submit written comments on the relocation plan and to have these comments attached to the plan when it is forwarded to the local legislative body or the head of the state agency for approval.

(4) Prompt, written response to any written objections or criticisms.

§ 6014. Prerequisite to Displacement.

No person shall be displaced until the public entity has fulfilled the obligations imposed by the Act and Guidelines.

§ 6016. Remedies.

(a) If the public entity has not fulfilled or is not substantially fulfilling its relocation responsibilities, it shall cease displacement until such time as its responsibilities are fulfilled. When appropriate project implementation shall be suspended or terminated.

(b) Eligible persons who move without offers of assistance and benefits, after the public entity was required to offer assistance or benefits, shall be provided such assistance and payments and, when appropriate, compensation for additional costs incurred. The displacing entity shall make every effort to identify and locate such persons.

(c) A public entity may pay a complainant's attorney's fees and costs and is encouraged to consider doing so when a complainant institutes a successful administrative appeal or judicial action.

(d) The enumeration of remedies in this section is not intended to discourage or preclude the use of other remedies consistent with the intent of the Act and Guidelines. Rather a public entity is encouraged to consider and adopt other remedies.

§ 6018. Priority of Federal Law.

If a public entity undertakes a project with federal financial assistance and consequently must provide relocation assistance and benefits as required by federal law, the provisions of the Act and Guidelines shall not apply; but if an obligation to provide relocation assistance and benefits is not imposed by federal law the provisions of the Act and Guidelines shall apply.

§ 6020. Severability.

If any provision of the Guidelines or the application thereof is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Guidelines which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of the Guidelines are severable.

Article 2. Relocation Assistance Advisory Program and Assurance of Comparable Replacement Housing

§ 6030. Purpose.

The purpose of this part is to set forth requirements with respect to the development and implementation of a relocation assistance advisory program for the provision of specified services and to prescribe the obligation of a public entity not to displace or cause the displacement of any person from his dwelling without adequate notice and unless comparable replacement housing is available.

§ 6032. Relocation Assistance Advisory Program.

Public entities shall develop and implement a relocation assistance advisory program which satisfies the requirements of this article and of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968, the Unruh Civil Rights Act, the Rumford Act and applicable state and federal anti-discrimination laws. Such program shall be administered so as to provide advisory services which offer maximum assistance to minimize the hardship of displacement and to ensure that (a) all persons displaced from their dwellings are relocated into housing meeting the criteria for comparable replacement housing, and (b) all persons displaced from their places of business or farm operations are assisted in reestablishing with a minimum of delay and loss of earnings.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50460, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 7261, Government Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of section and new NOTE filed 8-12-97; operative 9-11-97 (Register 97, No. 33).

§ 6034. Eligibility.

(a) Relocation assistance and benefits shall be available to:

(1) Any person who occupies property from which he will be displaced.

(2) Any person who will move from real property or will move his personal property from real property, because he will be displaced from other real property on which he conducts a business or farm operation.

(3) Any person who moves from real property as a result of its acquisition by a public entity whether the move is voluntary or involuntary.

(4) Any person who, following the initiation of negotiations by a public entity, moves as the result of the pending acquisition.

(5) Any person who moves as the result of pending acquisition, rehabilitation or demolition by a public entity either following receipt of a Notice of Intent to Displace (see section 6086) or as a result of inducement or encouragement by the public entity.

(b)(1) Post-acquisition tenants, those who lawfully occupy property only after a public entity acquires it, or who lawfully occupy property after the private acquisition of property by a person with a written agreement with a public entity for the purpose of financing the purchase or development of the property, are not eligible for assistance and benefits other than advisory assistance to the extent determined by the displacing agency.

A public entity shall inform post-acquisition tenants regarding the pro-jected date of displacement and, periodically, should inform post-acquisition tenants of any changes in this projection.

(2) When the displacement of a post-acquisition tenant causes a hardship for that person because of a critical housing shortage, age, handicap, infirmity, lack of financial means or other circumstance, the displacing entity shall provide relocation advisory assistance and, may in its discretion, provide other financial relocation benefits. In such hardship situations a public entity is encouraged to provide advisory assistance and payment for moving expenses.

(3) Where a public entity, or property it owns, is making housing available on a permanent basis, a post-acquisition tenant who moves as the result of a written order from the public entity to vacate is eligible for relocation assistance and benefits if the order to vacate is related to a plan to demolish, rehabilitate or change the use of such units.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of section and new NOTE filed 8-12-97; operative 9-11-97 (Register 97, No. 33).

§ 6036. Rehabilitation and Demolition.

If a public entity undertakes a rehabilitation or demolition program and as a result a person or business is displaced from privately owned property, the public entity shall provide assistance and benefits. If a person or business is displaced by such an undertaking from property acquired by a public entity, the public entity shall provide assistance and benefits.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of section heading and section and new NOTE filed 8-12-97; operative 9-11-97 (Register 97, No. 33).

§ 6038. Relocation Plan.

(a) As soon as possible following the initiation of negotiations and prior to proceeding with any phase of a project or other activity that will result in displacement a public entity shall prepare a Relocation Plan and submit it for approval to the local legislative body, or in the case of a state agency, the head of the agency. When the public entity's action will only result in an insignificant amount of non-residential displacement a displacing entity shall provide benefits as required by these Guidelines and state Relocation Law without compliance with this section. For residential projects of 15 or less households, the full and accurate completion of the Model Relocation Plan HCD-832(new), which is incorporated by reference as if set forth in full, shall be presumed to be in compliance with the planning requirements of this section. Copies of the Model Relocation Plan HCD-832(6/8/99) as well as the Informational Notice HCD-833(6/8/99), which is incorporated by reference as if set forth in full, may be downloaded from the Department's internet web site at www.hcd.ca.gov. This form can be obtained from the Department by telephoning 916-323-7288.

(b) A Relocation Plan shall include the following:

(1) A diagrammatic sketch of the project area.

(2) Projected dates of displacement.

(3) A written analysis of the aggregate relocation needs of all persons to be displaced (as required by section 6048) and a detailed explanation as to how these needs are to be met.

(4) A written analysis of relocation housing resources (as required by section 6052).

(5) A detailed description of the relocation advisory services program, including specific procedures for locating and referring eligible persons to comparable replacement housing.

(6) A description of the relocation payments to be made (pursuant to Article 3) and a plan for disbursement.

(7) A cost estimate for carrying out the plan and identification of the source of the necessary funds.

(8) A detailed plan by which any last resort housing (as described in section 6054 and Article 4) is to be built and financed.

(9) A standard information statement to be sent to all renters who will be permanently displaced (as required by section 6046).

(10) Temporary relocation plans, if any.

(11) A description of relocation office operation procedures.

(12) Plans for citizen participation.

(13) An enumeration of the coordination activities undertaken (pursuant to section 6052).

(14) The comments of the relocation committee, if any (pursuant to section 6012).

(15) A written determination by the public entity that the necessary resources will be available as required.

(c) A Plan prepared by a local public entity shall be consistent with the local housing element.

(d) In the event of delay of more than one year in the implementation of the relocation program, the plan shall be updated prior to implementation of that program.

(e)(1) Copies of the plan shall be submitted for review to the relocation committee 30 days prior to submission to the local legislative body or head of state agency for approval. Copies shall be available to the public upon request. A copy of the final relocation plan shall be forwarded to the department which shall act as a central repository.

(2) General notice of the plan shall be provided. Notice shall be designed to reach the occupants of the property; it shall be in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 6046(a)(3) and subsection 6046(b); and it shall be provided 30 days prior to submission to the local legislative body or head of state agency for approval.

(f) Any displaced person or interested organization may petition the department to review the relocation plan required to be submitted by the displacing agency. The department shall review the plan in accordance with the time constraints and the procedures established in Article 5.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (c) filed 1-28-77 as procedural and organizational; effective upon filing (Register 77, No. 5).
2. Amendment of subsections (a) and (c)-(e)(1), new subsection (f) and new NOTE filed 8-12-97; operative 9-11-97 (Register 97, No. 33).
3. Amendment of subsections (a), (b)(9) and (e)(1) filed 10-7-99; operative 11-6-99 (Register 99, No. 41).

§ 6040. Minimum Requirements of Relocation Assistance Advisory Program.

(a) Each relocation assistance advisory program undertaken pursuant to this Article shall include, at a minimum, such measures, facilities or services as may be necessary or appropriate in order to:

(1) Fully inform eligible persons under this Article within 60 days following the initiation of negotiations but not later than the close of escrow on the property, for a parcel as to the availability of relocation benefits and assistance and the eligibility requirements therefor, as well as the procedures for obtaining such benefits and assistance, in accordance with the requirements of section 6046. For projects by private parties with an agreement with a public entity, the "initiation of negotiations" shall be the later of the date of acquisition or the date of the written agreement between the private entity and the public entity for purposes of acquiring or developing the property for the project.

(2) Determine the extent of the need of each such eligible person for relocation assistance in accordance with the requirements of section 6048.

(3) Assure eligible persons that within a reasonable period of time prior to displacement there will be available comparable replacement housing, meeting the criteria described in section 6008(c), sufficient in number and kind for and available to such eligible persons.

(4) Provide current and continuing information on the availability, prices, and rentals of comparable sales and rental housing, and of comparable commercial properties and locations, and as to security deposits, closing costs, typical down payments, interest rates, and terms for residential property in the area.

(5) Assist each eligible person to complete applications for payments and benefits.

(6) Assist each eligible, displaced person to obtain and move to a comparable replacement dwelling.

Only adequate inspection will insure that a particular unit meets this standard. If a displaced person occupies a unit to which he is referred by the public entity and the unit does not satisfy the comparable replacement dwelling standard, the public entity has not fulfilled its obligation to assist the displaced person to obtain such a dwelling. Whenever this occurs the public entity shall offer to locate such a dwelling for the displaced person and to pay again all moving and related expenses. If the displaced person chooses not to move from the unit that he occupied following referral, the public entity shall not assert that he is ineligible to receive relocation assistance and benefits on the basis of that unit's failure to satisfy the comparable replacement dwelling standard.

(7) Assist each eligible person displaced from his business or farm operation in obtaining and becoming established in a suitable replacement location.

(8) Provide any services required to insure that the relocation process does not result in different or separate treatment on account of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, familial status, or any basis protected by state or federal anti-discrimination laws, or any other arbitrary circumstances.

(9) Supply to such eligible persons information concerning federal and state housing programs, disaster loan and other programs administered by the Small Business Administration, and other federal or state programs, offering assistance to displaced persons.

(10) Provide other advisory assistance to eligible persons in order to minimize their hardships. It is recommended that, as needed, such assistance include counseling and referrals with regard to housing, financing, employment, training, health and welfare, as well as other assistance.

(11) Inform all persons who are expected to be displaced about the eviction policies to be pursued in carrying out the project, which policies shall be in accordance with the provisions of section 5058.

(b) Relocation Office.

When a substantial number of persons will be displaced and the relocation staff's office is not easily accessible to those persons, a displacing entity is encouraged to establish at least one appropriately equipped site office which is accessible to all the area residents who may be displaced and is staffed with trained or experienced relocation personnel. Office hours should be scheduled to accommodate persons unable to visit the office during normal business hours.

(c) Each displacing entity shall establish and maintain a formal grievance procedure for use by displaced persons seeking administrative review of the entity's determinations. The procedure shall be in accordance with the requirements of Article 5.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50460, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 7260.5 and 7261, Government Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsections (a)(1) and (a)(8) and new NOTE filed 8-12-97; operative 9-11-97 (Register 97, No. 33).

§ 6042. Replacement Housing Prior to Displacement; Notices to Displaced Persons.

(a) No eligible person shall be required to move from his dwelling unless within a reasonable period of time prior to displacement comparable replacement dwellings (as defined in subsection 6008(c)) or, in the case of a temporary move (as defined in section 6044), adequate replacement dwellings (as defined in subsection (b) below) are available to such person.

(b) The criteria for adequate replacement dwellings are in all respects identical to those for comparable replacement dwellings, except that an adequate replacement dwelling, with respect to the number of rooms, habitable living space and type of construction, need be only adequate not comparable.

(c) Reasonable Offer of Replacement Housing.

The requirements of this section shall be deemed to have been satisfied if a person is offered and refuses without justification reasonable choices of specifically identified comparable replacement dwellings which fully satisfy the criteria set forth in the Guidelines. The offers shall be in writing, in a language understood by the displaced person. The number of offers determined to be reasonable should be not less than three.

(d) Notice.

No eligible person occupying property shall be required to move from a dwelling or to move a business or farm operation, without at least 90 days written notice from the public entity requiring the displacements. Public entities shall notify each individual tenant to be displaced as well as each owner-occupant. (These requirements are in addition to those contained in sections 6040 and 6046.)

(e) Waiver.

The requirement in subsection (a) above may be waived only when immediate possession of real property is of crucial importance and by one of the following circumstances:

(1) When displacement is necessitated by a major disaster as defined in Section 102(2) of the Hazard Mitigation and Relocation Assistance Act of 1993 (42 U.S.C. 5121) and/or the California Natural Disaster Assistance Act.

(2) During periods of declared national or state emergency.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50460, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 7260.5, 7261 and 7264.5, Government Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsections (a) and (e)(1) and new NOTE filed 8-12-97; operative 9-11-97 (Register 97, No. 33).

§ 6044. Temporary Move.

(a) General.

(1) A public entity shall be required to minimize to the greatest extent feasible the use of temporary relocation resources (as defined in section 6042) but, when a project plan anticipates moves back into completed project accommodations, temporary relocation resources may be used, at the displaced person's election for a limited period of time.

(2) Temporary relocation does not diminish the responsibility of the pubic entity to provide relocation assistance, services and benefits designed to achieve permanent relocation of displaced persons into comparable replacement dwellings.

(b) Requirements.

(1) Temporary replacement housing may not be relied upon if comparable replacement housing will not be available to the displaced person within 12 months of the date of the temporary move.

(2) Prior to the move, the public entity shall have determined and have provided written assurance to each displaced person that:

(A) Comparable replacement housing will be made available at the earliest possible time but in any event no later than 12 months from the date of the move to temporary housing. Temporarily housed persons may agree to extend the 12 month limitation but, if they do not, the public entity shall ensure that comparable replacement dwellings are available within the 12 month period.

(B) Comparable replacement housing will be made available, on a priority basis, to the individual or family who has been temporarily rehoused.

(C) The move to temporary housing will not affect a claimant's eligibility for a replacement housing payment nor deprive him of the same choice of replacement housing units that would have been made available had the temporary move not been made and the costs of a temporary move will not be considered as all or a part of the relocation payments to which a displaced person is entitled.

(D) If a project plan anticipates moves back into replacement housing accommodations in the project or program area, the person who has been temporarily displaced will be given priority opportunity to obtain such housing accommodations.

(E) The public entity will pay all costs in connection with the move to temporary housing, including increased housing costs.

§ 6046. Informational Program.

(a) Basic Requirements.

The displacing entity shall establish and maintain an information program that provides for the following:

(1) Preparation and distribution of informational material as early as practicable, to each occupant of the property. This material shall be distributed within 60 days following the initiation of negotiations (see paragraph 6040(a)(1)) and not less than 90 days in advance of displacement except for those situations described in subsection 6042(e). Where appropriate, separate informational statements shall be prepared for residential and for non-residential occupants.

(2) Conducting personal interviews and maintaining personal contacts with occupants of the property to the maximum extent practicable.

(3) Utilizing meetings, newsletters, and other mechanisms, including local media available to all persons, for keeping occupants of the property informed on a continuing basis. The criterion for selecting among various alternatives shall be the likelihood of actually communicating information to such persons. Legal publications, legal ads in local newspapers of general circulation and similar means which may go unnoticed are deemed to be inadequate.

(b) Language. Informational material should be prepared in the language(s) most easily understood by the recipients. In displacement areas where there are significant concentrations of persons who do not read, write, or understand English fluently, the native language of the people should be used and all informational material should be provided in the native language(s) and English.

(c) Method of Delivery. To assure receipt of the informational material, the local agency should arrange to have the material either hand-delivered to each occupant of the property with a request for a written receipt, or sent by certified mail, return receipt requested.

(d) General and Specific Information. In addition to disseminating general information of the type described in this section, the displacing entity shall also provide each person with individual, written notification as soon as his eligibility status has been established.

(e) Content of Informational Statement. Attachment A identifies the kinds of information required to be included in statements distributed to occupants of the property. The figure lists minimum requirements. The displacing entity should include any additional information that it believes would be helpful. (See Attachment A.)

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (a)(1) filed 11-5-76 as an emergency; designated effective 11-27-76 (Register 76, No. 44).
2. Certificate of Compliance filed 2-16-77 (Register 77, No. 8).
3. Amendment of subsection (a)(1) and new NOTE filed 8-12-97; operative 9-11-97 (Register 97, No. 33).

§ 6048. Survey and Analysis of Relocation Needs.

(a) (1) Requirement. Immediately following the initiation of negotiations interview all eligible persons, business concerns, including nonprofit organizations, and farm operations to obtain information upon which to plan for housing and other accommodations, as well as counseling and assistance needs.

(2) Coordination with Other Agencies. Other agencies may also be conducting surveys in the area at the same time. Coordination will be necessary to avoid duplication and to ensure that necessary information is available at the appropriate time. Surveys utilized to gather data for social service referrals should be planned in cooperation with social service agencies and a referral system should be established.

(3) Information to Persons to Be Displaced. The local agency shall carefully explain and discuss fully with each person interviewed the purpose of the survey and the nature and extent of relocation payments and assistance that will be made available. All persons shall be advised and encouraged to visit the relocation office for information and assistance.

(4) Relocation Records. Based on information obtained during the survey and other sources as applicable, the local agency shall prepare and maintain an accurate relocation record for each person to be displaced. The record shall contain a description of the pertinent characteristics of the persons to be displaced and the assistance deemed to be necessary.

(b) The survey shall be by direct, personal interview, except where repeated efforts indicate that is not possible. When a person cannot be interviewed or the interview does not produce the information to be obtained reasonable efforts shall be made to obtain the information by other means. Eligible persons should be encouraged to bring any change in their needs to the attention of relocation officials. The survey shall be updated at least annually.

(c) A public entity shall endeavor to obtain the following information: income; whether a person is elderly or handicapped; size of family; age of children; location of job and factors limiting accessibility; area of preferred relocation; type of unit preferred; ownership or tenant preference; need for social and public services, special schools and other services; eligibility for publicly assisted housing; and with reference to the present dwelling, the rent, the type and quality of construction, the number of rooms and bedrooms, the amount of habitable living space, and locational factors including among others public utilities, public and commercial facilities (including transportation and schools) and neighborhood conditions (including municipal services). Other matters that concern a household as its members contemplate relocation should also be included.

(d) A written analysis of relocation housing needs shall be prepared. It shall be prepared in sufficient detail to enable determination of the availability for all potential displaces of housing which meets the standards set forth in the definition of comparable replacement housing. The information concerning home ownership and rental units shall be provided separately. The number of units needed shall be identified by cost for each size category. The needs of elderly and handicapped households shall be shown separately and shall include information on the number of such households requiring special facilities and the nature of such facilities.

The statement of relocation housing needs shall include a description of the locational characteristics of the displacement area neighborhoods corresponding to the requirements of comparable replacement housing. Information shall be provided concerning proximity to present employment sources, medical and recreational facilities, parks, community centers, shopping, transportation and schools. Information concerning proximity to other relevant needs and amenities is essential to ensuring that no residents are incapacitated by the relocation and such information also should be provided.

§ 6050. Failure to Conduct Timely and Effective Survey.

When a survey is not conducted in a timely and effective manner, the public entity shall be obligated to make every effort to locate all eligible persons who have moved so that their needs can be included in the survey and the impact on the housing stock in the community can be more accurately determined. The public entity shall offer such persons all relocation assistance and benefits for which they otherwise qualify and, in addition, shall compensate such persons for all costs occasioned by the entity's failure to provide timely notice and offers of relocation assistance and benefits.

§ 6052. Survey and Analysis of Available Relocation Resources.

(a) (1) To enable a public entity reasonably to determine that the requisite comparable replacement dwellings will be available, the public entity, within 60 days following the initiation of negotiations, shall initiate a survey and analysis of available comparable relocation resources.

If a recent survey that provides the information identified in this section is not available, the public entity shall conduct a survey and analysis of the housing market. If a recent survey is available, but it does not reflect more recent, significant changes in housing market conditions, the survey shall be updated or it shall not be relied upon.

(2) When more than 15 households will be displaced, survey results shall be submitted for review to local housing, development and planning agencies and shall be compared to other existing information on housing availability.

(3) The survey shall be updated at least annually.

(b) The survey area shall be reasonably related to the displacement area and to the needs and preferences of the persons to be displaced, as indicated in the written analysis prepared pursuant to section 6048. The survey area shall have relevant characteristics (see subsection 6008(c)) which equal or exceed those of the neighborhood from which persons are to be displaced.

(c) A written analysis of relocation housing resources shall be prepared in sufficient detail to enable determination of the availability for all potential displacees of housing which meets the standards set forth in the definition of comparable replacement housing. The information concerning homeownership and rental units shall be provided separately. The number of units available shall be identified by cost for each size category. Resources available to meet the needs of elderly and handicapped households shall be shown separately and shall include information on the number of units with special facilities and the nature of such facilities.

The analysis of resources shall include a description of the locational characteristics of the survey area neighborhoods corresponding to the requirements of comparable replacement housing. Information shall be provided concerning proximity to present employment sources (with the consent of the displaced person a potential employer may be substituted), medical and recreational facilities, parks, community centers, shopping, transportation and schools. Information concerning proximity to other relevant needs and amenities is essential to ensuring that residents are not incapacitated by the relocation and such information should also be provided.

(d) (1) Units which do not satisfy the standards of comparable replacement housing, including the locational criteria, shall not be counted as a relocation resource.

(2) Uncompleted new construction or rehabilitation shall not be included in the gross figure unless there is a substantial likelihood that the units will be available when needed and at housing or rental costs within the financial means of the prospective occupants.

(3) In addition to the other requirements of this section, the gross figure representing the number of units available shall be discounted to reflect both concurrent displacement and the extent to which turnover is represented. Concurrent displacement by the federal government and its agencies, including federally-assisted projects, as well as displacement by other public entities shall be taken into account. Turnover is the dynamic operation by which occupancy changes occur within a standing inventory over a period of time and theoretically could occur in the complete absence of vacancies on a person to person basis. The use of turnover for relocation is not permissible. The displacing entity shall assume that four percent of the rental and one percent of the ownership units which meet the standards of comparable replacement dwellings (see section 6008(c)) represents turnover. The displacing entity shall use a higher percentage figure if such figure is more accurate. The displacing entity may use a lower figure if it establishes that the lower figure is a more accurate assumption.

(4) Publicly subsidized housing, including public housing, shall not be counted as a resource unless it reasonably can be established that:

(A) The units will be available when needed;

(B) The governmental body providing the subsidy has made, in writing, a reasonably binding commitment of assistance; and

(C) The units have been inspected and determined to be decent, safe and sanitary and the income ceilings, rent ranges and age restrictions, if any, have been considered.

(D) The number of units available in the community exceeds the number of households in need of the units. This requirement may be waived by the department if the public entity can establish that such units will be replaced by last resort housing within two years. To establish that last resort housing will be developed as required the public entity must have site control with permissive zoning, preliminary plans and conditional commitments for subsidy and financing or the equivalent. The public entity also must identify ownership.

(e) Uncompleted new construction or rehabilitation which is subsidized by public funds shall not be counted as a relocation resource unless the units are being subsidized to provide relocation resources.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsections (a)(1) and (a)(2), correction of subsection (e) designator, and new NOTE filed 8-12-97; operative 9-11-97 (Register 97, No. 33).

§ 6054. Last Resort Housing.

(a) No eligible person shall be required to move from his dwelling because of the action of a public entity unless comparable replacement housing is available to him.

(b) If on the basis of its survey and analysis of relocation needs and resources a public entity cannot determine that comparable replacement housing will be available as required, the public entity may not proceed with any phase of a project or other activity which will result in displacement unless it provides such housing. (See Article 4.)

(c) If the action of a public entity has resulted or is resulting in displacement and comparable replacement housing is not available as needed, the public entity shall use its funds, or funds authorized for the project to provide such housing (see Article 4), or shall terminate or suspend further implementation of the project activity in accordance with the provisions of section 6018.

(d) Temporary relocation resources may be relied upon in the interim only if the provisions of section 6004 are satisfied.

§ 6056. Termination of Relocation Assistance.

A public entity's relocation obligations cease under the following circumstances:

(a) A displaced person moves to a comparable replacement dwelling and receives all assistance and payments to which he is entitled.

(b) The displaced person moves to substandard housing, refuses reasonable offers of additional assistance in moving to a decent, safe and sanitary replacement dwelling and receives all payments to which he is entitled.

(c) All reasonable efforts to trace a person have failed. To ensure that the action of a public entity does not reduce the housing supply in critical categories or locations, unsuccessful efforts to trace a particular displaced person shall not lessen the obligation to provide last resort housing. (See Article 4.)

(d) The business concern or farm operation has received all assistance and payments to which it is entitled and has been successfully relocated or has ceased operations.

(e) A person displaced from his dwelling, business or farm refuses reasonable offers of assistance, payments and comparable replacement housing.

§ 6058. Eviction.

(a) Eviction is permissible only as a last resort. It in no way affects the eligibility of evicted displaced persons for relocation payments. Relocation records must be documented to reflect the specific circumstances surrounding the eviction.

(b) Eviction shall be undertaken only for one or more of the following reasons:

(1) Failure to pay rent, except in those cases where the failure to pay is due to the lessor's failure to keep the premises in habitable condition, is the result of harassment or retaliatory action or is the result of discontinuation or substantial interruption of services.

(2) Performance of a dangerous, illegal act in the unit.

(3) Material breach of the rental agreement and failure to correct breach within 30 days of notice.

(4) Maintenance of a nuisance and failure to abate within a reasonable time following notice.

(5) Refusal to accept one of a reasonable number of offers of replacement dwellings.

(6) The eviction is required by State or local law and cannot be prevented by reasonable efforts on the part of the public entity.

§ 6060. Evaluation of Relocation.

(a) A public entity is encouraged to evaluate its relocation program, assessing the quality and quantity of services provided as well as displacee satisfaction, to determine the adequacy of program planning and to ascertain whether any persons have been denied the full benefits and services to which they are entitled. The evaluation should be based upon an annual or continual inspection of files and records, case interviews, and inspection of replacement housing and business and farm replacement locations and discussions with local individuals or organizations familiar with relocation issues. A written evaluation should be prepared at least annually.

(b) The files and records of displaced persons and property owners should be selected at random. The review should include any cases that were identified by previous monitoring as requiring corrective action and should assess the public entity's progress in taking corrective action. Both relocation and acquisition activities should be covered by the review.

(1) The relocation sample should include cases in which all payments have been completed and cases in which the person has been displaced but all payments have not yet been made. The sample should provide a basis for the reviewer to determine not only whether payments were computed properly and made promptly, but also whether displaced persons received proper notice of the full range of relocation assistance and services to which they are entitled. Priority attention should be given to cases in which a grievance has been filed or the agency has determined that a person is ineligible for relocation benefits.

(2) The acquisition sample should be based on cases in which settlement has been completed. However, if necessary to provide a representative sample of acquisition activities, the reviewer should include incomplete transactions in which negotiations have been initiated.

(c) After the records and files have been reviewed, the reviewer should select cases for further evaluation through personal interviews with displaced persons and/or owners and the inspection of housing to which persons have moved. The interviews and housing inspections should serve both to spot check the accuracy of the information obtained in the examination of the records and files and give the reviewer a better perspective on the agency's performance.

The number and type of cases for which interviews and housing inspections are to be carried out should reflect the reviewer's judgment based on the information he has just reviewed. Generally, an interview and inspection should be carried out for at least one of every five cases for which the files and records have been reviewed. Only where the number of persons displaced is less than 25 should the number of interviews and inspections be less than 10. In no case should the number of interviews and inspections be lower than the lesser of five and the number of persons displaced. To the extent possible, the interviews should cover a representative cross section of the types of cases in the agency's workload: e.g., relocation cases involving families of various sizes as well as individuals and business concerns (including both owners and tenants), and acquisition transactions involving residential, commercial and industrial properties.

(d) In addition to the above, the following factors are among those which should be considered:

(1) The effectiveness of efforts to provide relocation services to displaced persons, including timeliness of notice and correctness of eligibility determinations.

(2) The satisfaction of relocated families, individuals and business concerns in their new locations.

(3) The extent to which self-moves to substandard housing have been minimized.

(4) The effectiveness of efforts to provide relocation services to business concerns, including counseling services and SBA loans to aid in their reestablishment.

(5) The promptness of processing claims and the making of payments, including the amounts, delivery, and use of relocation payments.

(6) The number and magnitude of rent increases following acquisition and displacement.

(7) The effectiveness of methods used to resolve difficulties experienced by site occupants.

(8) The effectiveness of the public entity's grievance procedures.

(9) The extent of resident involvement in planning the relocation program.

(10) The effectiveness in assuring equal opportunity for displaced persons and in reducing patterns of minority-group concentration.

(11) The effectiveness of relocation in upgrading the housing and overall environmental conditions of persons displaced.

(12) The effectiveness of the social service program, including counseling services, in helping residents adjust to relocation and in helping solve individual and family problems.

(13) The impact on those segments of the housing market serving the income groups displaced.

Article 3. Relocation Payments

§ 6080. Purpose.

The purpose of this Article is to set forth the types of, and specific eligibility criteria for, relocation payments to displaced persons. Basic eligibility conditions are set forth in section 6084. Specific conditions relating to particular payments are described in later sections.

§ 6082. Relocation Payments by Public Entity.

A public entity shall make relocation payments to or on behalf of eligible displaced persons in accordance with and to the full extent permitted by this Article. The obligations described in this Article are in addition to those in Article 6.

§ 6084. Basic Eligibility Conditions.

A person establishes basic eligibility for relocation payments if he satisfies the conditions described in section 6034. A person who moves from real property or who moves his personal property from real property because he will be displaced from other real property on which he conducts a business or farm operation, establishes eligibility on the basis of the move from such other property only for payments made pursuant to section 6090.

§ 6086. Notice of Intent to Displace.

A public entity may issue a written Notice of Intent to Displace at any time after forming a reasonable expectation of acquiring real property. Such a notice, by establishing eligibility prior to acquisition, will enable a public entity to respond to hardship and other situations.

§ 6088. Filing of Claims; Submission of Tax Returns.

All claims filed with the public entity shall be submitted within eighteen months of the date on which the claimant receives final payment for the property or the date on which he moves, whichever is later. The displacing entity may extend this period upon a proper showing of good cause.

Except where specifically provided otherwise a claimant shall not be required to submit a copy of his tax returns in support of a claim for relocation payments.

§ 6090. Actual Reasonable Moving Expenses.

(a) General. A public entity shall make a payment to a displaced person who satisfies the pertinent eligibility requirements of section 6084 and the requirements of this section, for actual reasonable expenses specified below and subject to the limitations set forth in subsection (c) of this section for moving himself, his family, business, farm operation or other personal property. In all cases the amount of a payment shall not exceed the reasonable cost of accomplishing the activity in connection with which a claim has been filed.

The moving and related expenses for which claims may be filed shall include:

(1) Transportation of persons and property not to exceed a distance of 50 miles from the site from which displaced, except where relocation beyond such distance of 50 miles is justified;

(2) Packing, crating, unpacking and uncrating personal property;

(3) Such storage of personal property, for a period generally not to exceed 12 months, as determined by the public entity to be necessary in connection with relocation;

(4) Insurance of personal property while in storage or transit; and

(5) The reasonable replacement value of property lost, stolen or damaged (not through the fault or negligence of the displaced person, his agent, or employee) in the process of moving, where insurance covering such loss, theft or damage is not reasonably available.

(6) The cost of disconnecting, dismantling, removing, reassembling, reconnecting and reinstalling machinery, equipment or other personal property (including goods and inventory kept for sale) not acquired by the public entity, including connection charges imposed by public utilities for starting utility service.

(b) Actual Reasonable Moving Expenses—Displaced Business Concerns and Farm Operations.

In addition to those compensable expenses set forth in subsection (a) of this section, a displaced business concern or farm operation may file a claim for the following moving and related expenses:

(1) The cost, directly related to displacement of modifying the machinery, equipment, or other personal property to adapt it to the replacement location or to utilities available at the replacement location or modifying the power supply.

(2) Claims for payment under this subsection shall be subject to the following limitations:

(A) Reimbursable costs shall be reasonable in amount.

(B) The cost could not be avoided or substantially reduced at an alternate available and suitable site to which the business was referred.

(3) The cost of any license, permit or certification required by a displaced business concern to the extent such cost is necessary to the reestablishment of its operation at a new location.

(4) The reasonable cost of any professional services (including but not limited to, architects', attorneys' or engineers' fees, or consultants' charges) necessary for planning the move of personal property, moving the personal property, or installation of relocated personal property at the replacement site.

(5) Where an item of personal property which is used in connection with any business or farm operation is not moved but is replaced with a comparable item, reimbursement in an amount not to exceed (1) the replacement cost, minus any net proceeds received from its sale, or (2) the estimated cost of moving, whichever is less.

(c) Advance Payments. A displaced person may be paid for his anticipated moving expenses in advance of the actual move. A public entity shall provide advance payment whenever later payment would result in financial hardship. Particular consideration shall be given to the financial limitations and difficulties experienced by low and moderate income persons and small farm and business operations.

(d) The specific provisions contained in this section are not intended to preclude a public entity's reliance upon other reasonable means of effecting a move, including contracting moves and arranging for assignment of moving expense payments by displaced persons.

(e) Self–moves. Without documentation of moving expenses actually incurred, a displaced person electing to self–move may submit a claim for his moving expenses to the public entity in an amount not to exceed an acceptable low bid or an amount acceptable to the displacing entity.

(f) Personal Property of Low Value and High Bulk—Business or Farm Operation. Where, in the judgment of the public entity, the cost of moving any item of personal property of low value and high bulk which is used in connection with any business or farm operation would be disproportionate in relation to its value, the allowable reimbursement for the expense of moving such property shall not exceed the difference between the cost of replacing the same with a comparable item available on the market and the amount which would have been received for such property on liquidation. This provision may in appropriate situations be applied to claims involving the moving of junkyards, stockpiles, sand, gravel, minerals, metals and similar property.

(g) Documentation in Support of a Claim.

(1) General. Except in the case of a displaced person conducting a self–move as provided in subsection (e) above, a claim for a payment under this section shall be supported by a bill or other evidence of expenses incurred. By prearrangement between the public entity, the site occupant, and the mover, evidenced in writing, the claimant or the mover may present an unpaid moving bill to the public entity, and the public entity may pay the mover directly.

(2) Business and Farm Operations. Each claim in excess of $1,000 for the costs incurred by a displaced person for moving his business or farm operation shall be supported by competitive bids in such number as are practical. If the public entity determines that compliance with the bid requirement is impractical or if estimates in an amount of less than $1,000 are obtained, a claim may be supported by estimates in lieu of bids.

(h) Whenever a public entity must pay the actual cost of moving a displaced person the costs of such move shall be exempt from regulation by the Public Utilities Commission as provided by section 7262(e) of the Act. The public entity may solicit competitive bids from qualified bidders for performance of the work. Bids submitted in response to such solicitations shall be exempt from regulation by the Public Utilities Commission.

(i)(1) Reestablishment Expenses. In addition to moving expense payments, a farm, nonprofit organization or small business of not more than 500 employees, shall be entitled to actual and reasonable reestablishment expenses, not to exceed $10,000.00. Reestablishment expenses shall be only those expenses that are reasonable and necessary and include, but are not limited to:

(A) Repairs or improvements to the replacement property as required by Federal, State or local law, code or ordinance.

(B) Modifications to the replacement property to accommodate the business operation or make replacement structures suitable for conducting the business.

(C) Construction and installation costs for exterior signing to advertise the business.

(D) Provision of utilities from right–of–way to improvements on the replacement site.

(E) Redecoration or replacement of soiled or worn surfaces at the replacement site, such as paint, panelling or carpeting.

(F) Licenses, fees and permits when not paid as part of moving expenses.

(G) Feasibility surveys, soil testing and marketing studies.

(H) Advertisement of replacement location.

(I) Professional services in connection with the purchase or lease of a replacement site.

(J) Estimated increased costs of operation during the first 2 years at the replacement site for such items as:

1. Lease or rental charges,
2. Personal or real property taxes,
3. Insurance premiums, and
4. Utility charges, excluding impact fees.

(K) Impact fees or one–time assessments for anticipated heavy usage.

(L) Other items essential to the reestablishment of the business.

(M) For purposes of this subsection the term "small business" shall mean a business having not more than 500 employees working at the site being acquired or displaced by a program or project, which site is the location of economic activity. Sites occupied solely by outdoor advertising signs, displays, or devices do not qualify as a small business for purposes of this subsection.

(2) Ineligible expenses. The following is a nonexclusive listing of reestablishment expenditures not considered to be reasonable, necessary, or otherwise eligible:

(A) Purchase of capital assets, such as, office furniture, filing cabinets, machinery, or trade fixtures.

(B) Purchase of manufacturing materials, production supplies, product inventory, or other items used in the normal course of the business operation.

(C) Interior or exterior refurbishments at the replacement site which are for aesthetic purposes, except as provided in paragraph (i)(1)(E) of this section.

(D) Interest on money borrowed to make the move or purchase the replacement property.

(E) Payment to a part-time business in the home which does not contribute materially to the household income.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of section and new NOTE filed 8-12-97; operative 9-11-97 (Register 97, No. 33).

§ 6092. Actual Direct Losses of Tangible Personal Property.

(a) General. A public entity shall make a payment to a displaced person who satisfies the eligibility requirements of section 6090 and this section, for actual direct losses of tangible personal property as a result of moving or discontinuing a business or farm operation, in an amount determined by the public entity to be in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(b) Determining Actual Direct Loss of Property. Actual direct loss of property shall be determined on the basis of the lesser of the following:

(1) The fair market value of the property for continued use at its location prior to displacement.

(2) The estimated reasonable costs of relocating the property.

The public entity may require that the owner first make a bona fide effort to sell the property or it may permit the owner not to do so. The proceeds realized from any sale of all or part of the property shall be deducted from the determination of loss. In calculating payment under this section the reasonable cost of an effort to sell shall be added to the determination of loss.

(c) Documentation to Support Claim. A claim for payment hereunder shall be supported by written evidence of loss which may include appraisals, certified prices, bills of sale, receipts, cancelled checks, copies of advertisements, offers to sell, auction records, and other records appropriate to support the claim or the public entity may agree as to the value of the property left in place.

§ 6094. Actual Reasonable Expenses in Searching for a Replacement Business or Farm.

A displaced person who satisfies the pertinent eligibility requirements of section 6090 with respect to actual reasonable moving expenses, shall be eligible for a payment in an amount not to exceed $1,000, in searching for a replacement business or farm, including expenses incurred for:

(a) Transportation;

(b) Meals and lodging away from home;

(c) Time spent in searching, based on the hourly wage rate of the salary or earnings of the displaced person or his representative; and

(d) Fees paid to a real estate agent or broker to locate a replacement business or farm.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of first paragraph and subsection (c) and new NOTE filed 8-12-97; operative 9-11-97 (Register 97, No. 33).

§ 6096. Moving Expenses—Outdoor Advertising Businesses.

A displaced person who conducts a lawful activity primarily for assisting in the purchase, sale, resale, manufacture, processing, or marketing of products, commodities, personal property, or services by the erection and maintenance of outdoor advertising displays is entitled to payment for the reasonable cost of moving such displays or their in-place value, whichever is lesser.

§ 6098. Alternate Payments—Individuals and Families.

A person or family, who is displaced from a dwelling and is eligible for a payment for actual reasonable moving expenses under section 6090, may elect to receive and shall be paid, in lieu of such payment a moving expense and dislocation allowance determined in accordance with established Federal Highway Administration schedules maintained by the California Department of Transportation.

2. Certificate of Compliance filed 2-16-77 (Register 77, No. 8).
3. Amendment of section and new NOTE filed 8-12-97; operative 9-11-97 (Register 97, No. 33).

§ 6100. Alternate Payments—Businesses and Farm Operations.

(a) General.

(1) A person who is displaced from his place of business or farm operation and is eligible for payments under sections 6090, 6092, 6094, or 6096, and complies with the requirements of this section, may elect to receive and shall be paid, in lieu of such payments, a payment equal to the average annual net earnings of the business or farm operation (but not including a business as described in section 6096) as determined in accordance with subsection (b) below, except that such payment shall be not less than $1,000 nor more than $20,000. For purposes of this section, the dollar limitation specified in the preceding sentence shall apply to a single business, regardless of whether it is carried on under one or more legal entities.

(2) Loss of Goodwill. When payment under this section will precede settlement of a claim for compensation for loss of goodwill under the Eminent Domain Law, the public entity before tendering payment shall state in writing what portion of the payment, if any, is considered to be compensation for loss of goodwill and shall explain in writing that any payment made pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure, Sections 1263.510 et seq. (the Eminent Domain Law, Chapter 9, Article 6—"Compensation for Loss of Goodwill") will be reduced in the same amount. The portion considered to be compensation for loss of goodwill shall not exceed the difference between the payment made under this section and an amount which reasonably approximates the payments for which the displaced person otherwise would be eligible under Sections 6090, 6092, 6094, and 6096. Failure to provide such written statement and explanation shall constitute a conclusive indication that no portion of the payment is considered to be compensation for loss of goodwill for the purposes of that portion of the Code of Civil Procedure referenced above.

(b) Requirements—Businesses. Payment shall not be made under this section unless the public entity determines that:

(1) The business is not operated solely for rental purposes and cannot be relocated without a substantial loss of its existing patronage, based on a consideration of all pertinent circumstances including such factors as the type of business conducted, the nature of the clientele, the relative importance to the displaced business of its present and proposed location, and the availability of a suitable relocation site;

(2) The business is not part of a commercial enterprise having no more than three (3) other establishments which are not being acquired for a project and which is engaged in the same or similar business. Whenever the sole remaining facility of a business which has been displaced from its principal location:

(A) Has been in operation for less than two years;

(B) Has had average annual gross receipts of less than $2,000 during the two taxable years prior to displacement of the major component of the business; or

(C) Has had average annual net earnings of less than $1,000 during the two taxable years prior to the displacement of the major component of the business, the remaining facility will not be considered another "establishment" for purposes of this section; and

(3) The displaced business:

(A) Had average annual gross receipts of at least $5,000 during the two taxable years prior to displacement; or

(B) The displaced business had average annual net earnings of at least $1,000 during the two taxable years prior to displacement; or

(C) The displaced business contributed at least 33 1/3 percent of the total gross income of the owner(s) during each of the two taxable years prior to displacement. If in any case the public entity determines that the two year period prior to displacement is not representative of average receipts, earnings or income, it may make use of a more representative period.

(D) If the application of the above criteria creates an inequity or hardship, the displacing agency may use other criteria as permitted in 49 CFR 24.306.

(c) Determination of Number of Businesses.

In determining whether one or more legal entities, all of which have been acquired, constitute a single business, the following factors among others shall be considered:

(1) The extent to which the same premises and equipment are shared.

(2) The extent to which substantially identical or intimately interrelated business functions are pursued and business and financial affairs are commingled.

(3) The extent to which such entities are held out to the public, and to those customarily dealing with such entities, as one business.

(4) The extent to which the same person or closely related persons own, control or manage the affairs of the entities.

(d) Requirements—Farms. In the case of a farm operation, no payment shall be made under this section unless the public entity determines that the farm met the definition of a farm operation prior to its acquisition. If the displacement is limited to only part of the farm operation, the operator will be considered to have been displaced from a farm operation if: the part taken met the definition of a farm operation prior to the taking and the taking caused such a substantial change in the nature of the existing farm operation as to constitute a displacement.

(e) Requirements—Nonprofit Organizations. In the case of a nonprofit organization, no payment shall be made under this section unless the public entity determines that:

(1) The nonprofit organization cannot be relocated without a substantial loss of its existing patronage (the term "existing patronage" as used in connection with a nonprofit organization includes the membership, persons, community, or clientele served or affected by the activities of the nonprofit organization); and

(2) The nonprofit organization is not a part of an enterprise having more than three (3) other establishments not being acquired which is engaged in the same or similar activity.

(f) Net Earnings. The term "average annual net earnings" as used in this section means one-half of any net earnings of the business or farm operation, before federal and state income taxes, during the two (2) taxable years immediately preceding the taxable year in which the business or farm operation moves from the real property acquired for such project, or during such other period as the head of the public entity determines to be more equitable for establishing such earnings, and includes any compensation paid by the business or farm operation to the owner, his spouse or his dependents during such period. The term "owner" as used in this section includes the sole proprietor in a sole proprietorship, the principal partners in a partnership, and the principal stockholders of a corporation, as determined by the public entity. For purposes of determining a principal stockholder, stock held by a husband, his wife and their dependent children shall be treated as one unit.

(g) If a displaced person who conducts a business or farm operation elects to receive a fixed payment under this section, he shall provide proof of his earnings from the business or farm operation to the agency concerned. Proof of earnings may be established by income tax returns, financial statements and accounting records or similar evidence acceptable to the public entity.

§ 6102. Replacement Housing Payments for Homeowners.

(a) General. A public entity shall make to a person who is displaced from a dwelling and who satisfies the pertinent eligibility requirements of section 6084 and the conditions of subsection (b) of this section, a payment not to exceed a combined total of $22,500 for:

(1) The amount, if any, which when added to the acquisition cost of the dwelling acquired for the project equals the reasonable cost, as determined in accordance with subsection (c), of a comparable replacement dwelling. This amount shall not exceed the difference between the acquisition price of the acquired dwelling and the actual purchase price of the replacement dwelling, except where a displaced person, in the circumstance described in paragraph 6108(a)(1), is willing to use the extra money to improve the condition of the dwelling.

(2) The amount, if any, to compensate the displaced person for any increased interest costs, as determined in accordance with subsection (c), he is required to pay for financing the acquisition of a replacement dwelling. The payment shall not be made unless the dwelling acquired by the public entity was encumbered by a bona fide mortgage which was a valid lien on the dwelling for not less than 180 days prior to the initiation of negotiations for acquisition of such dwelling. (This time requirement may be modified in accordance with the provisions of subsection (b) below.)

(3) Reasonable expenses, determined in accordance with subsection (c) of this section, incurred by the displaced person incident to the purchase of the replacement dwelling.

(4) In accordance with section 6108, the cost of rehabilitating a dwelling which does not satisfy the decent, safe and sanitary standard.

(b) Eligibility Conditions.

(1) A displaced person is eligible for payment under this section if such person:

(A) Is displaced from a dwelling that is acquired;

(B) Has actually owned and occupied such dwelling for not less than 180 days prior to the initiation of negotiations for its acquisition; and

(C) Purchases and occupies a replacement dwelling within one year subsequent to the date on which he received final payment from the public entity of all costs of the acquired dwelling or the date on which he moves from the acquired dwelling, whichever is later.

(2) If an owner satisfies all but the 180 day requirement and can establish to the satisfaction of the public entity that he bought the dwelling with the intention of making it his place of residence, that the move was not motivated by a desire to receive relocation assistance and benefits, and that he neither knew nor should have known that public acquisition was intended the public entity may reduce the requirement as necessary.

(3) Where for reasons beyond the control of the displaced person completion of construction, rehabilitation, or relocation of a replacement dwelling is delayed beyond the date by which occupancy is required, the public entity shall determine the date of occupancy to be the date the displaced person enters into a contract for such construction, rehabilitation, or relocation or for the purchase, upon completion, of a dwelling to be constructed or rehabilitated, if, in fact, the displaced person occupies the replacement dwelling when the construction or rehabilitation is completed.

(4) Where, for reasons of hardship or circumstances beyond the control of the displaced person, such person is unable to occupy the replacement dwelling by the required date, the public entity may extend the deadline as necessary. If by the deadline the displaced person has contracted to purchase a replacement dwelling, the public entity should extend the deadline.

(5) No person otherwise eligible for a payment under this section or under section 6104 shall be denied such eligibility as a result of his being unable, because of a major state or national disaster, to meet the occupancy requirements.

(c) Computation of Replacement Housing Payment.

(1) Cost of Comparable Replacement Dwelling.

(A) In determining the reasonable cost of a comparable replacement dwelling, the public entity concerned shall use one of the following methods:

1. Comparative Method. On a case–by–case basis by determining the listing price of dwellings which have been selected by the public entity and which are most representative of the acquired dwelling unit and meet the definition of comparable replacement dwelling set out in subsection 6008(c). Whenever possible the listing price of at least three dwellings shall be considered.

2. Schedule Method. Where the public entity determines that the comparative method is not feasible, it may establish a schedule of reasonable acquisition costs for the various types of comparable replacement dwellings. If more than one entity is administering a project causing displacement in the area, it shall cooperate with the other entities in establishing a uniform schedule for the area. The schedule shall be based on a current analysis of the market to determine a reasonable cost for each type of dwelling to be purchased. In large urban areas this analysis may be confined to the sub–area from which persons are displaced or may cover several different sub–areas, if they satisfy or exceed the criteria listed in subsection 6008(c). To assure the greatest comparability of dwellings in any analysis, the analysis shall be divided into classifications of the type of construction, number of bedrooms, and price ranges.

3. Alternative Method. Where the public entity determines that neither the schedule, nor comparative method is feasible in a given situation, by the use of another reasonable method.

(B) Whichever method is selected the cost shall be updated to within three months of the date of purchase of the replacement dwelling.

(2) Interest Payments. Interest payments shall be equal to the discounted present value of the difference between the aggregate interest applicable to the amount of the principal of the mortgage on the acquired dwelling over its remaining term at the time of acquisition, and other debt service costs, and the aggregate interest paid on the mortgage on the replacement dwelling, and other debt service costs. The term and amount of the mortgage on the replacement dwelling for purposes of this paragraph shall be the lesser of the remaining term and amount of the mortgage on the acquired dwelling, or the actual term and amount of the mortgage on the replacement dwelling. The amount of the debt service cost with respect to the replacement dwelling shall be the lesser of the debt service cost based on the cost required for a comparable dwelling, or the debt service cost based on the actual cost of the replacement dwelling.

Prepaid interest or "points" shall be considered in the determination of aggregate interest.

In calculating the amount of compensation, increased interest cost shall be reduced to discounted present value using the prevailing interest rate paid on savings deposits by commercial banks in the general area in which the replacement dwelling is located.

(3) Expenses Incident to the Purchase of the Replacement Dwelling.

Payment under this section shall include the amount necessary to reimburse the displaced person for actual costs incurred by him incident to the purchase of the replacement dwelling, including but not limited to the following: legal, closing, and related costs including title search, preparing conveyance contracts, notary fees, surveys, preparing drawings or plats, and charges paid incident to recordation; lender, FHA, VA or similar appraisal cost; FHA, VA or similar application fee; cost for certification of structural soundness; credit report charges; charge for owner's and mortgagee's evidence or assurance of title; escrow agent's fee; and sales or transfer taxes. Payment for any such expenses shall not exceed the amount attributable to the purchase of a replacement dwelling. Such expenses shall be reasonable and legally required or customary in the community.

Reimbursement shall not be made under the provisions of this paragraph for any fee, cost, charge, or expense which is determined to be a part of the debt service or finance charge under Title I of the Truth in Lending Act (Pub. L. 90–321), and Regulation Z issued pursuant thereto by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. Any such sum should be considered in the determination of interest payments.

(d) Multi–family Dwelling. In the case of a displaced homeowner who is required to move from a one–family unit of a multi–family building which he owns, the replacement housing payment shall be based on the cost of a comparable one–family unit in a multi–family building of approximately the same density or if that is not available in a building of the next less density, or, if a comparable one–family unit in such a multi–family building is not available, the cost of an otherwise comparable single–family structure.

(e) Owner Retention.

(1) If a displaced homeowner elects to retain, move, and occupy his dwelling, the amount payable under this section is the difference between the acquisition price of the acquired property and the sum of the moving and restoration expenses, the cost of correcting decent, safe, and sanitary deficiencies, if any, and the actual purchase price of a comparable relocation site. A public entity may limit the payment made under this subsection to the amount of the replacement housing payment for which the homeowner would otherwise be eligible.

(2) The payment shall not exceed $22,500.

(f) Provisional Payment Pending Condemnation.

If the exact amount of a replacement housing payment cannot be determined because of a pending condemnation suit, the public entity concerned may make a provisional replacement housing payment to the displaced homeowner equal to the difference between the public entity's maximum offer for the property and the reasonable cost of a comparable replacement dwelling, but only if the homeowner enters into an agreement that upon final adjudication of the condemnation suit the replacement housing payment will be recomputed on the basis of the acquisition price determined by the court. If the acquisition price as determined by the court is greater than the maximum offer upon which the provisional replacement housing payment is based, the difference will be refunded by the homeowner to the public entity. If the acquisition price as determined by the court is less than the maximum offer upon which the provisional replacement housing payment is based, the difference will be paid to the homeowner.

(g) Lease of Condominium. For the purposes of this section, the leasing of a condominium for a 99–year period, or for a term which exceeds the life expectancy of the displaced person as determined by the most recent life tables in Vital Statistics of the United States, as published by the Public Health Service of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, shall be deemed a purchase of the condominium.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsections (a)(1) and (a)(4) and new NOTE filed 8–12–97; operative 9–11–97 (Register 97, No. 33).

2. Amendment of subsection (e)(2) filed 10–7–99; operative 11–6–99 (Register 99, No. 41).

§ 6104. Replacement Housing Payments for Tenants and Certain Others.

(a) General. A public entity shall make to a displaced person who satisfies the eligibility requirements of section 6084 and the conditions of subsection (b) below, a payment not to exceed $5,250 for either:

(1) An amount, computed in accordance with paragraph (d)(1) of this section, necessary to enable such person to lease or rent a replacement dwelling for a period not to exceed 42 months[2]; or

(2) An amount, computed in accordance with paragraph (d)(2) of this section, necessary to enable such person to make a downpayment on the purchase of a replacement dwelling (including incidental expenses described in section 6102).

(b) Eligibility Conditions.

A displaced person is eligible for the payments specified in subsection (a) if he satisfies the following conditions:

(1) Has occupied the dwelling from which he is displaced for a period of not less than 90 days prior to the initiation of negotiation for acquisition of such dwelling.

(2) Is not eligible to receive a replacement housing payment for homeowners under section 6102 or elects not to receive such payment. Where the displaced person is the owner–occupant of the dwelling, the payment made under paragraph 6104(a)(2) shall not exceed the amount of payment to which the person would be eligible under section 6102.

(3) Whenever a payment under subsection (a)(2) is sought the displaced person shall within one year from the date of displacement purchase and occupy a replacement dwelling.

(c) The provisions in subsection 6102(b) for modifying the conditions of eligibility also apply to this section.

(d) Computation of Payment.

(1) Rentals. Except for projects commenced prior to January 1, 1998 (see footnotes 1 and 2) the amount of payment necessary to lease or rent a comparable replacement dwelling, under subsection (a)(1), shall be computed by subtracting 42 times the base monthly rental of the displaced person (as determined in accordance with this subsection), from 42 times the monthly rental for a comparable replacement dwelling (as determined in accordance with this subsection): Provided, that in no case may such amount exceed the difference between 42 times the base monthly rental as determined in accordance with this subsection and 42 times the monthly rental actually required for the replacement dwelling occupied by the displaced person.

(A) Base Monthly Rental. The base monthly rental shall be the lesser of the average monthly rental paid by the displaced person for the 3–month period prior to initiation of negotiations or 30 percent of the displaced person's average monthly income. (See subsection 6008(1).) Where the displaced person was the owner of the dwelling from which he was displaced or was not required to pay rent for that dwelling, the economic rent (see subsection 6008(h)) shall be used in lieu of the average monthly rental to calculate base monthly rental.

(B) Comparable Rental. The monthly rental for a comparable replacement dwelling shall be the amount of rent determined by the public entity by one of the methods described in paragraph 6102(c)(1), considering rental charges instead of listing price or acquisition cost.

(C) Whichever method is selected the cost shall be updated to within three months of the date of rental of the replacement dwelling.

(2) Downpayment. The downpayment for which a payment specified under paragraph (a)(2) of this section may be made, shall not exceed the amount of a reasonable downpayment for the purchase of a comparable replacement dwelling where such purchase is financed, plus expenses incident to the purchase of a replacement dwelling computed in accordance with Section 6102. The full amount of a downpayment under this section shall be applied to the purchase of the replacement dwelling and shall be shown on the closing statement or other document acceptable to the public entity.

(e) Rental Payments for Displaced Owners and Dependents.

(1) Owners. A displaced owner who elects to rent rather than purchase a replacement dwelling and who meets the eligibility conditions specified in subsection (b) is eligible for the payment specified in paragraph (a)(1).

(2) Dependents. A dependent who is residing separate and apart from the person or family providing support, whether such separate residence is permanent or temporary, shall be entitled to payment under this section, but such payment shall be limited to the period during which the displaced dependent resides in the replacement dwelling. At the time the displaced dependent vacates that dwelling, no further payment under this section shall be made to such person. For the purposes of this paragraph a 'dependent' shall be a person who derives fifty–one percent or more of his income in the form of gifts from any private person or any academic scholarship or stipend. Full–time students shall be presumed to be dependents but may rebut this presumption by demonstrating that fifty percent or more of their income is derived from sources other than gifts from another private person or academic scholarships or stipends.

Dependents residing with the family of which they are a part shall not be entitled to any payment except as a part of the family.

(f) Disbursement. Except where specifically provided otherwise, the public entity shall have the authority to disburse payments under this section in a lump sum, monthly or at other intervals acceptable to the displaced person.

---

[2]For those who, pursuant to the criteria set forth in Government Code section 7260(i)(3)(A) through (J), would have qualified as a "displaced person" prior to January 1, 1998, benefits shall be provided for 48 months provided they do not exceed $5,250.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsections (a), (a)(2), (d)(1), (d)(1)(A) and (d)(2) and new NOTE filed 8–12–97; operative 9–11–97 (Register 97, No. 33).
2. Amendment of subsection (a)(1) and (d)(1)–(d)(1)(A) filed 10–7–99; operative 11–6–99 (Register 99, No. 41).

§ 6106. Proration of Payments.

For the purpose of calculating an alternate payment under section 6098 or a replacement housing payment under section 6102 or 6104, two or more individuals (whether they are members of one family or not) living together in and displaced from a single dwelling shall be regarded as one person.

Where a tenant is sharing a single–family dwelling with an owner–occupant and paying the owner–occupant rent for the privilege, the tenant shall not be entitled to more than one–half of the rental supplement otherwise payable. The owner–occupant shall not be required to share the payment to which he is entitled or accept a prorated amount.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 11–5–76 as an emergency; designated effective 11–27–76 (Register 76, No. 44).
2. Certificate of Compliance filed 2–16–77 (Register 77, No. 8).

§ 6108. Condition of Replacement Dwelling.

(a) When a displaced person qualifies for a replacement housing payment (under section 6102 or 6104) by purchasing or renting a replacement dwelling, the unit, as a general rule, must be decent, safe and sanitary. There are three exceptions. One is described in paragraph 6040(a)(6). The others are:

(1) If the purchase of such a dwelling is the result of the public entity's failure to identify a reasonable number of comparable replacement dwellings as required or if the dwelling is one to which the person was referred by the public entity, the condition of the dwelling does not affect eligibility for a replacement housing payment.

(2) If the purchase of such a dwelling is not the result of a public entity's referral or failure to refer, the otherwise eligible person qualifies for a replacement housing payment if the unit is brought into compliance with the decent, safe and sanitary standard. In this situation payment shall be limited to the amount that would be provided in connection with the purchase of a similar, comparable replacement dwelling or the sum of the actual costs of acquisition (including related expenses) and rehabilitation, whichever is less.

(b) A public entity shall not induce or encourage a displaced person to acquire a dwelling which does not satisfy the comparable replacement housing standard. (See section 6008(c).)

§ 6110. Certificate of Eligibility.

Upon request by a displaced homeowner or tenant who has not yet purchased and occupied a replacement dwelling, but who is otherwise eligible for a replacement housing payment, the public entity concerned shall certify to any interested party, financial institution, or lending agency, that the displaced homeowner or tenant will be eligible for the payment of a specific sum if he purchases and occupies a dwelling within the time limits prescribed.

§ 6112. Manufactured Homes and Mobilehomes.

(a) General. A manufactured home or mobilehome is a dwelling. (See subsection 6008(g).) A person displaced from a manufactured home or mobilehome must satisfy the same eligibility requirements and must be provided the same assistance, assurance and payments as a person displaced from a conventional dwelling.

(b) Moving Expenses. If a manufactured home or mobilehome is moved to another site, the displaced person shall be compensated for moving expenses in accordance with sections 6090 and 6092. The provisions of these sections which generally apply only to businesses and farms shall also apply to displaced persons who move a manufactured home or mobilehome.

(c) Replacement Housing Payments.

(1) A person who owns a manufactured home or mobilehome and site and as a replacement purchases both a dwelling and site shall be provided a replacement housing payment in accordance with section 6102. A person who owns a manufactured home or mobilehome and site, and as a replacement rents both a dwelling and site, shall be provided a payment in accordance with section 6104.

(2) A person who rents a manufactured home or mobilehome and site, and as a replacement rents or purchases a dwelling and site, shall be provided a payment in accordance with section 6104.

(3) A person who owns a manufactured home or mobilehome and site, and as a replacement purchases a dwelling and rents a site, shall be provided a payment in accordance with sections 6102 and 6104. The payment shall be limited to the lesser of:

(A) The amount necessary to purchase a conventional comparable replacement manufactured home and mobilehome; or

(B) The amount necessary to purchase a replacement manufactured home or mobilehome (in accordance with section 6102) plus the amount necessary to rent a replacement site (in accordance with section 6104). In calculating this amount, the economic rent for the site shall be used in lieu of average monthly rental to determine the base monthly rental (as provided in paragraph 6104(d)(1)).

(4) A person who owns a site from which he moves a manufactured home or mobilehome shall be provided a replacement housing payment under section 6102 if he purchases a replacement site and under section 6104 if he rents a replacement site.

(5) A person who owns a manufactured home or mobilehome which is acquired and rents the site shall be provided payment as follows:

(A) If a manufactured home or mobilehome, as appropriate, is not available the amount required to purchase a conventional replacement dwelling (in accordance with section 6102);

(B) The amount necessary to purchase a replacement manufactured home or mobilehome (in accordance with section 6102) plus the amount necessary to lease, rent or make a downpayment on a replacement site (in accordance with section 6104); or

(C) If he elects to rent a replacement manufactured home or mobilehome and site, the amount required to do so in accordance with section 6104. In calculating this payment, the average monthly rental shall equal the economic rent for the manufactured home or mobilehome plus the actual rent for the site.

(6) Similar principles shall be applied to other possible combinations of ownership and tenancy upon which a claim for payment might be based.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of section and new NOTE filed 8–12–97; operative 9–11–97 (Register 97, No. 33).

§ 6114. Affected Property.

(a) In addition to the payments required by Section 7262 of the Act (see sections 6090, 6092, 6094, 6096, 6098 and 6100), as a cost of acquisition, the public entity shall make a payment to any affected property owner meeting the requirements of this section.

(b) Such affected property is immediately contiguous to property acquired for airport purposes and the owner shall have owned the property affected by acquisition by the public entity not less than 180 days prior to the initiation of negotiation for acquisition of the acquired property.

(c) Such payment, not to exceed fifteen thousand dollars ($22,500), shall be the amount, if any, which equals the actual decline in the fair market value of the property of the affected property owner caused by the acquisition by the public entity for airport purposes of other real property and a change in the use of such property.

(d) The amount, if any, of actual decline in fair market value of affected property shall be determined according to rules and regulations adopted by the public entity. Such rules and regulations shall limit payment under this section only to such circumstances in which the decline in fair market value of affected property is reasonably related to objective physical change in the use of acquired property.

(e) "Affected property" means any real property which actually declines in fair market value because of acquisition by a public entity for public use of other real property and a change in the use of the real property acquired by the public entity.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (c) filed 10–7–99; operative 11–6–99 (Register 99, No. 41).

Article 4. Last Resort Housing

§ 6120. Purpose.

The purpose of this part is to set forth the criteria and procedures for assuring that if the action of a public entity results, or will result in displacement, and comparable replacement housing will not be available as needed, the public entity shall use its funds or funds authorized for the project to provide such housing.

§ 6122. Determination of Need for Last Resort Housing.

If on the basis of data derived from surveys and analyses which satisfy the requirements of sections 6048 and 6052, the public entity is unable to demonstrate that comparable replacement housing will be available as required, the head of the public entity shall determine whether to use the public entity's funds or the funds authorized for the project to provide such necessary replacement housing or to modify, suspend or terminate the project or undertaking.

§ 6124. Development of Replacement Housing Plan.

(a) General.

(1) Following the determination pursuant to section 6122, the head of the displacing public entity shall develop or cause to be developed a replacement housing plan to produce a sufficient number of comparable replacement dwellings. The plan shall specify how, when and where the housing will be provided, how it will be financed and the amount of funds to be diverted to such housing, the prices at which it will be rented or sold to the families and individuals to be displaced, the arrangements for housing management and social services as appropriate, the suitability of the location and environmental impact of the proposed housing, the arrangements for maintaining rent levels appropriate for the persons to be rehoused, and the disposition of proceeds from rental, sale, or resale of such housing. If a referendum requirement or zoning presents an obstacle, the issue shall be addressed.

(2) All contracts and subcontracts for the construction, rehabilitation or management of last resort housing shall be let without discrimination as to race, sex, marital status, color, religion, national origin, ancestry or other arbitrary circumstance and pursuant to an affirmative action program. The public entity shall encourage participation by minority persons in all levels of construction, rehabilitation, planning, financing and management of last resort housing. When the housing will be located in an area of minority concentration, the public entity shall seek to secure significant participation of minorities in these activities. The public entity shall require that, to the greatest extent feasible, opportunities for training and employment arising in connection with the planning, construction, rehabilitation, and operation of last resort housing be given to persons of low income residing in the area of such housing and shall determine and implement means to secure the participation of small businesses in the performance of contracts for such work.

(b) Citizen Participation.

(1) If the need for last resort housing exceeds 25 units, the head of the displacing public entity shall establish a committee which will consult with and provide advice and assistance to the displacing public entity in the development of the plan. The committee should include appointed representatives of the displacing entity and state and local agencies knowledgeable regarding housing in the area, including but not limited to the local housing authority and the central relocation agency, if any. In addition, the committee should include representatives of other appropriate public groups (for example, local and areawide planning agencies) and private groups knowledgeable regarding housing and the problems of housing discrimination.

(2) The committee shall include representatives of the residents to be displaced. These representatives may be appointed by the displacing entity or elected by the residents, as the residents wish. Resident representatives shall, at a minimum, constitute one-third of the committee membership. Votes shall be allocated so that the total votes of resident representatives shall equal one-half of the total votes of the committee membership.

(3) The plan must be approved by the vote of a simple majority of the committee membership. In the event the committee fails to approve the plan, the local governing body or, where the displacing entity is a state agency, the head of the state agency may substitute its approval.

(c) Consultation with Other Housing Agencies and Organizations.

The head of the displacing public entity may consult or contract with the department, a local housing authority, or other agency or organization having experience in the administration or conduct of housing programs to provide technical assistance and advice in the development of the replacement housing plan.

§ 6126. Submission of Plan for Comment.

The head of the displacing public entity shall submit the plan and all significant amendments to the local housing and planning agencies for comment and to assure that the plan accurately reflects housing conditions and needs in the relocation area. Reviewing agencies shall have 30 calendar days following receipt of the plan to prepare their comments. Copies of all comments received shall be forwarded to the committee and available to all interested persons.

General notice of the plan shall be provided. Notice shall be designed to reach the residents of the relocation area; it shall be in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 6046(a)(3) and subsection 6046(b); and it shall be provided 30 days prior to submission to the committee, or the local governing body or head of state agency for approval.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of first paragraph and new NOTE filed 8-12-97; operative 9-11-97 (Register 97, No. 33).

§ 6128. Determination by Displacing Public Entity of Feasibility and Compliance.

Upon receipt and consideration of the comments, the displacing public entity shall determine whether or not:

(a) The plan is feasible.

(b) The plan complies with applicable environmental standards and procedures.

(c) The plan is compatible with the local general plan and housing element and the areawide housing plan or strategy.

If any of the above determinations by the displacing public entity is negative the displacing public entity shall revise the plan as necessary. Substantial modifications in the plan shall be submitted for review and comment as provided in section 6126. If necessary for timely implementation of the plan or execution of the project, the head of the displacing public entity may shorten the time allowed in section 6126 for review of modifications.

§ 6130. Implementation of the Replacement Housing Plan.

Upon making the determinations required by section 6128, the head of the displacing entity may expend funds and take such other actions as necessary to provide, rehabilitate, or construct replacement housing pursuant to the approved replacement housing plan through methods including but not limited to the following:

(a) Transfer of funds to state and local housing agencies.

(b) Contract with organizations experienced in the development of housing.

(c) Direct construction by displacing public entity.

Whenever practicable, the head of the displacing public entity should utilize the services of federal, state, or local housing agencies, or other agencies having experience in the administration or conduct of similar housing programs.

§ 6132. Housing Production.

The head of the displacing public entity shall monitor the production of the last resort housing to ensure that it is in accordance with the plan.

§ 6134. Jointly Sponsored Development.

Where several agencies are administering programs resulting in residential displacement, opportunities shall be sought for joint development and financing to aggregate resources in order most efficiently to provide replacement housing in sufficient quantity to satisfy the aggregate needs of such programs.

§ 6136. Last Resort Housing in Lieu of Payments.

A public entity shall not require a displaced person to accept a dwelling provided pursuant to this Article in lieu of the displaced person's acquisition payment, if any, for the real property from which he is displaced or the relocation payments for which he may be eligible.

§ 6138. Conformity with the Act and Other Statutes, Policies and Procedures.

(a) Civil Rights and Other Acts. The administration of this Article shall be in accord with the provisions of all applicable federal and state non-discrimination laws and regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(b) Dwelling and Relocation Standards. Determinations made pursuant to section 6122 and any plan developed and implemented for providing replacement housing and all such housing provided thereunder shall be in conformity with the standards established in the Act and Guidelines.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50460, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 7260.5(c)(4), Government Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (a) and new NOTE filed 8-12-97; operative 9-11-97 (Register 97, No. 33).

§ 6139. Last Resort Housing.

(a) Whenever comparable replacement dwellings are not available, or are not available within the monetary limits of Government Code sections 7263 and 7264, as appropriate, the displacing agency shall provide additional or alternative assistance under the provisions of this part.

(b) The methods of providing replacement housing of last resort include, but are not limited to:

(1) A replacement housing payment calculated in accordance with the provisions of sections 6102 or 6104, as appropriate, even if the calculation is in excess of the monetary limits of Government Code sections 7263 and 7264. A rental assistance payment under this part shall be paid to the displaced person in a lump sum, or at the discretion of the displacing agency, $5,250 shall be paid to the displaced person in a lump sum upon displacement and the remainder of the payments shall be paid to the displacee in periodic payments over a period not to exceed 42 months unless otherwise specified by statute.

(2) Major rehabilitation of and/or additions to an existing replacement dwelling in a sum equal to or greater than the payment to which the displaced person is entitled under subsection (b)(1).

(3) The construction of a new replacement dwelling in a sum equal to or greater than the payment to which the displaced person is entitled under subsection (b)(1) of this section.

(4) The relocation and, if necessary, rehabilitation of a dwelling.

(5) The purchase of land and/or a replacement dwelling by the displacing agency and subsequent sale or lease to, or exchange with a displaced person.

(6) For purposes of accommodating the needs of handicapped persons, the removal of barriers to the handicapped.

(c) Only at the discretion of displacing agencies are post-acquisition tenants entitled to last resort housing payments.

Article 5. Grievance Procedures

§ 6150. Purpose.

The purpose of this article is to set forth guidelines for processing appeals from public entity determinations as to eligibility, the amount of payment, and for processing appeals from persons aggrieved by a public entity's failure to refer them to comparable permanent or adequate temporary replacement housing. Public entities shall establish procedures to implement the provisions of this Article.

§ 6152. Right of Review.

(a) Any complainant, that is any person who believes himself aggrieved by a determination as to eligibility, the amount of payment, the failure of the public entity to provide comparable permanent or adequate temporary replacement housing or the public entity's property management practices may, at his election, have his claim reviewed and reconsidered by the head of the public entity or an authorized designee (other than the person who made the determination in question) in accordance with the procedures set forth in this article, as supplemented by the procedures the public entity shall establish for such review and reconsideration.

(b) A person or organization directly affected by the relocation plan may petition the department to review the final relocation plan of a public entity to determine if the plan is in compliance with state laws and guidelines or review the implementation of a relocation plan to determine if the public entity is acting in compliance with its relocation plan. Review undertaken by the department under this section shall be in accordance with the provisions of sections 6158 and may be informal. Before conducting an investigation, the department should attempt to constrain disputes between parties.

Failure to petition the department shall not limit a complainant's right to seek judicial review.

(c) If a relocation appeals board has been established pursuant to Section 33417.5 of the Health and Safety Code, a city by ordinance may designate the board to hear appeals from local public entities which do not have an appeal process. In the absence of such an ordinance, public entities shall establish procedures to implement the provisions of this Article.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (b) and new NOTE filed 8-12-97; operative 9-11-97 (Register 97, No. 33).

§ 6154. Notification to Complainant.

If the public entity denies or refuses to consider a claim, the public entity's notification to the complainant of its determination shall inform the complainant of its reasons and the applicable procedures for obtaining review of the decision. If necessary, such notification shall be printed in a language other than English in accordance with section 6046.

§ 6156. Stages of Review by a Public Entity.

(a) Request for Further Written Information. A complainant may request the public entity to provide him with a full written explanation of its determination and the basis therefore, if he feels that the explanation accompanying the payment of the claim or notice of the entity's determination was incorrect or inadequate. The public entity shall provide such an explanation to the complainant within three weeks of its receipt of his request.

(b) Informal Oral Presentation. A complainant may request an informal oral presentation before seeking formal review and reconsideration. A request for an informal oral presentation shall be filed within the period described in subsection (d) of this section, and within 15 days of the request the public entity shall afford the complainant the opportunity to make such presentation. The complainant may be represented by an attorney or other person of his choosing. This oral presentation shall enable the complainant to discuss the claim with the head of the public entity or a designee (other than the person who made the initial determination) having authority to revise the initial determination on the claim. The public entity shall make a summary of the matters discussed in the oral presentation to be included as part of its file. The right to formal review and reconsideration shall not be conditioned upon requesting an oral presentation.

(c) Written Request for Review and Reconsideration. At any time within the period described in subsection (d) a complainant may file a written request for formal review and reconsideration. The complainant may include in the request for review any statement of fact within the complainant's knowledge or belief or other material which may have a bearing on the appeal. If the complainant requests more time to gather and prepare additional material for consideration or review and demonstrates a reasonable basis therefor, the complainant's request should be granted.

(d) Time Limit for Requesting Review. A complainant desiring either an informal oral presentation or seeking a formal review and reconsideration shall make a request to the public entity within eighteen months following the date he moves from the property or the date he receives final compensation for the property, whichever is later.

§ 6158. Formal Review and Reconsideration by the Public Entity.

(a) General. The public entity shall consider the request for review and shall decide whether a modification of its initial determination is necessary. This review shall be conducted by the head of the public entity or an authorized, impartial designee. (The designee may be a committee). A designee shall have the authority to revise the initial determination or the determination of a previous oral presentation. The public entity shall consider every aggrieved person's complaint regardless of form, and shall, if necessary provide assistance to the claimant in preparing the written claim. When a claimant seeks review, the public entity shall inform him that he has the right to be represented by an attorney, to present his case by oral or documentary evidence, to submit rebuttal evidence, to conduct such cross-examination as may be required for a full and true disclosure of facts, and to seek judicial review once he has exhausted administrative appeal.

(b) Scope of Review. The public entity shall review and reconsider its initial determination of the claimant's case in light of:

(1) All material upon which the public agency based its original determination including all applicable rules and regulations, except that no evidence shall be relied upon where a claimant has been improperly denied an opportunity to controvert the evidence or cross-examine the witness.

(2) The reasons given by the claimant for requesting review and reconsideration of the claim.

(3) Any additional written or relevant documentary material submitted by the claimant.

(4) Any further information which the public entity in its discretion, obtains by request, investigation, or research, to ensure fair and full review of the claim.

(c) Determination on Review by Public Entity.

(1) The determination on review by the public entity shall include, but is not limited to:

(A) The public entity's decision on reconsideration of the claim.

(B) The factual and legal basis upon which the decision rests, including any pertinent explanation or rationale.

(C) A statement to the claimant of the right to further administrative appeal, if the public entity has such an appeal structure, or if not, a statement to the claimant that administrative remedies have been exhausted and judicial review may be sought.

(2) The determination shall be in writing with a copy provided to the claimant.

(d) Time Limits.

(1) The public entity shall issue its determination of review as soon as possible but no later than 6 weeks from receipt of the last material submitted for consideration by the claimant of the date of the hearing, whichever is later.

(2) In the case of complaints dismissed for untimeliness or for any other reason not based on the merits of the claim, the public entity shall furnish a written statement to the claimant stating the reason for the dismissal of the claim as soon as possible but no later than 2 weeks from receipt of the last material submitted by the claimant or the date of the hearing, whichever is later.

§ 6160. Refusals to Waive Time Limitation.

Whenever a public entity rejects a request by a claimant for a waiver of the time limits provided in section 6088, a claimant may file a written request for review of this decision in accordance with the procedures set forth in sections 6156 and 6158, except that such written request for review shall be filed within 90 days of the claimant's receipt of the public entity's determination.

§ 6162. Extension of Time Limits.

The time limits specified in Section 6156 may be extended for good cause by the public entity.

§ 6164. Recommendations by Third Party.

Upon agreement between the claimant and the public entity, a mutually acceptable third party or parties may review the claim and make advisory recommendations thereon to the head of the public entity for its final determination. In reviewing the claim and making recommendations to the public entity, the third party or parties shall be guided by the provisions of this Article.

Except to the extent the confidentiality of material is protected by law or its disclosure is prohibited by law, a public entity shall permit the claimant to inspect all files and records bearing upon his claim or the prosecution of the claimant's grievance. If a claimant is improperly denied access to any relevant material bearing on the claim, such material may not be relied upon in reviewing the initial determination.

§ 6166. Review of Files by Claimant.

Except to the extent the confidentiality of material is protected by law or its disclosure is prohibited by law, a public entity shall permit the claimant to inspect all files and records bearing upon his claim or the prosecution of the claimant's grievance. If a claimant is improperly denied access to any relevant material bearing on the claim, such material may not be relied upon in reviewing the initial determination.

§ 6168. Effect of Determination on Other Persons.

The principles established in all determinations by a public entity shall be considered as precedent for all eligible persons in similar situations regardless of whether or not a person has filed a written request for review. All written determinations shall be kept on file and available for public review.

§ 6170. Right to Counsel.

Any aggrieved party has a right to representation by legal or other counsel at his expense at any and all stages of the proceedings set forth in these sections.

§ 6172. Stay of Displacement Pending Review.

If a complainant seeks to prevent displacement, the public entity shall not require the complainant to move until at least 20 days after it has made a determination and the complainant has had an opportunity to seek judicial review. In all cases the public entity shall notify the complainant in writing 20 days prior to the proposed new date of displacement.

§ 6174. Joint Complainants.

Where more than one person is aggrieved by the failure of the public entity to refer them to comparable permanent or adequate temporary replacement housing the complainants may join in filing a single written request for review. A determination shall be made by the public entity for each of the complainants.

§ 6176. Judicial Review.

Nothing in this Article shall in any way preclude or limit a claimant from seeking judicial review of a claim upon exhaustion of such administrative remedies as are available under this Article.

Article 6. Acquisition Policies

§ 6180. Purpose.

The purpose of this Article is to set forth the practices to be followed with respect to acquisition of real property by a public entity. Public entities shall, to the greatest extent practicable, be guided by these practices.

§ 6182. Acquisition.

(a) A public entity shall make every reasonable effort to acquire property by negotiation and to do so expeditiously.

(b) Before negotiations are initiated (see subsection 6008(n)) a public entity shall:

(1) Have the property appraised, giving the owner or his representative designated in writing an opportunity, by reasonable advance written notice, to accompany the appraiser during the inspection of the property;

(2) If the owner of real property is also the owner of a business conducted on the real property to be acquired or on the remainder, inform him of his possible right to compensation for loss of goodwill. The public entity should include a copy of the pertinent provisions of the Eminent Domain Law (Code of Civil Procedure Sections 1230.010 et seq.).

(3) Establish an amount it believes to be just compensation for the property, which amount shall, in no event, be less than the public entity's approved appraisal of the fair market value of the property as improved.

(c) The determination of just compensation shall be based upon consideration of:

(1) The real property being acquired;

(2) Where the real property acquired is part of a larger parcel, the injury, if any, to the remainder; and

(3) Loss of goodwill, where the owner of the real property is also the owner of a business conducted upon the property to be acquired or on the remainder and where the provisions of the Eminent Domain Law pertaining to compensation for loss of goodwill are satisfied. Goodwill consists of the benefits that accrue to a business as a result of its location, reputation for dependability, skill or quality, and any other circumstances resulting in probable retention of old or acquisition of new patronage.

(d) As soon as possible after the amount of just compensation is established, the public entity shall offer to acquire the property for the full amount so established and shall provide the owner with a written statement of the basis for determination of just compensation. The statement shall include the following:

(1) A general statement of the public use for which the property is to be acquired.

(2) A description of the location and extent of the property to be taken, with sufficient detail for reasonable identification, and the interest to be acquired.

(3) An inventory identifying the buildings, structures, fixtures, and other improvements.

(4) A recital of the amount of the offer and a statement that such amount:

(A) Is the full amount believed by the public entity to be just compensation for the property taken;

(B) Is not less than the approved appraisal of the fair market value of the property as improved;

(C) Disregards any decrease or increase in the fair market value of the real property to be acquired prior to the date of valuation caused by the public improvement for which the property is to be acquired for such public improvement, other than that due to physical deterioration within the reasonable control of the owner or occupant; and

(D) Does not reflect any consideration of or allowance for any relocation assistance and payments or other benefits which the owner is entitled to receive under an agreement with the public entity, except for an amount to compensate the owner for that portion of loss of goodwill provided in accordance with Section 6100.

(5) If the real property is a portion of a larger parcel, the statement shall include an apportionment of the total estimated just compensation for the partial acquisition between the value of the property being taken and the amount of damage, if any, to the remainder of the larger parcel from which such property is taken.

(6) If the owner of the real property to be acquired is also the owner of a business conducted upon the property or the remainder, the statement shall include an indication of the amount of compensation for loss of goodwill.

(e) At the initiation of negotiations (see subsection 6008(n)) a public entity shall provide written notification to the owner of a business conducted on the real property to be acquired or on the remainder, who is not also the owner of the real property, concerning his possible right to compensation for loss of goodwill. The public entity should include a copy of the pertinent provisions of the Eminent Domain Law (Code of Civil Procedure, Section 1230.010 et seq.).

(f) (1) If after receiving the public entity's offer the owner requests additional information regarding the determination of just compensation, the public entity shall provide the following information to the extent that the determination of just compensation is based thereon:

(A) The date of valuation used.

(B) The highest and best use of the property.

(C) The applicable zoning.

(D) Identification of some of the sales, contracts to sell and purchase, and leases supporting the determination of value.

(E) If the property is a portion of a larger parcel, a description of the larger parcel, with sufficient detail for reasonable identification.

(2) With respect to each sale, contract, or lease provided in accordance with (1)(D) above, the following data should be provided:

(A) The names and business or residence addresses, if known, of the parties to the transaction.

(B) The location of the property subject to the transaction.

(C) The date of transaction.

(D) The price and other significant terms and circumstances of the transaction, if known. In lieu of stating the other terms and circumstances, the public entity may, if the document is available for inspection, state the place where and the times when it is available for inspection.

(3) The requirements of this subsection do not apply to requests made after an eminent domain proceeding is commenced.

(g) Whenever a part of a parcel of property is to be acquired by a public entity for public use and the remainder, or a portion of the remainder, will be left in such size, shape or condition as to constitute an uneconomic remnant the public entity shall offer to acquire the remnant if the owner so desires. For the purposes of these Guidelines an "uneconomic remnant" shall be a parcel of real property in which the owner retains an interest after partial acquisition of his property and which has little or no utility or value to such owner. (Nothing in this subsection is intended to limit a public entity's authority to acquire real property.)

(h) Nothing in this section shall be construed to deprive a tenant of the right to obtain payment for his property interest as otherwise provided by law.

(i) (1) Prior to commencement of an eminent domain proceeding the public entity shall make reasonable efforts to discuss with the owner its offer to purchase the owner's real property. The owner shall be given a reasonable opportunity to present material which he believes to be relevant as to the question of value and to suggest modification in the proposed terms and conditions of the purchase, and the public entity shall carefully consider the owner's presentation.

(2) Prior to commencement of an eminent domain proceeding, if the evidence presented by an owner or a material change in the character or condition of the property indicates the need for a new appraisal or if a significant delay has occurred since the determination of just compensation, the public entity shall have its appraisal updated. If a modification in the public entity's determination of just compensation is warranted, an appropriate price adjustment shall be made and the new amount determined to be just compensation shall be promptly offered in writing to the owner.

(j) (1) In no event shall the public entity either advance the time of condemnation, or defer negotiations or condemnation on the deposit of funds in court for the use of the owner, or take any other action coercive or misleading in nature, in order to compel or induce an agreement on the price to be paid for the property.

(2) If any interest in property is to be acquired by exercise of the power of eminent domain, the public entity shall promptly institute formal condemnation proceedings. No public entity shall intentionally make it necessary for an owner to institute legal proceedings to prove the fact of the taking of this real property.

§ 6184. Notice of Decision to Appraise.

The public entity shall provide the owner with written notice of its decision to appraise the real property as soon as possible after the decision to appraise has been reached. The notice shall state, as a minimum, that:

(a) A specific area is being considered for a particular public use;

(b) The owner's property has been determined to be located within the area; and

(c) The owner's property, which shall be generally described, may be acquired in connection with the public use.

§ 6186. Time of Offer.

The public entity shall make its first written offer as soon as practicable following service of the Notice of Decision to Appraise. (See section 6184.)

§ 6188. Notice of Land Acquisition Procedures.

(a) At the time the public entity notifies an owner of its decision to appraise real property it shall furnish the owner a written explanation of its land acquisition procedures, describing in non-technical, understandable terms the public entity's acquisition procedures and the principal rights and options available to the owner.

(b) The notice shall include the following:

(1) A description of the basic objective of the public entity's land acquisition program and a reference to the availability of the public entity's statement covering relocation benefits for which an owner-occupant may be eligible;

(2) A statement that the owner or his representative designated in writing shall be given the opportunity to accompany each appraiser during his inspection of the property.

(3) A statement that if the acquisition of any part of real property would leave the owner with an uneconomic remnant as defined in subsection 6182(g) the public entity will offer to acquire the uneconomic remnant; if the owner so desires;

(4) A statement that if the owner is not satisfied with the public entity's offer of just compensation he will be given a reasonable opportunity to present relevant material, which the public entity will carefully consider, and that if a voluntary agreement cannot be reached the public entity, as soon as possible, will either institute a formal condemnation proceeding against the property or abandon its intention to acquire the property, giving notice of the latter as provided in section 6190.

(5) A statement that construction or development of a project shall be so scheduled that no person lawfully occupying real property shall be required to move from a dwelling (assuming a replacement dwelling as required by these Guidelines will be available) or to move his business or farm operation without at least 90 days written notice from the public entity of the date by which the move is required; and

(6) A statement that, if arrangements are made to rent the property to an owner or his tenant for a short term or for a period subject to termination by the public entity on short notice, the rental will not exceed the lesser of the fair rental value of the property to short term occupier or the pro rata portion of the fair rental value for a typical rental period.

If the owner or tenant is an occupant of a dwelling, the rental for the dwelling shall be within his financial means. (See subsection 6008(c).)

§ 6190. Notice of Public Entity's Decision Not to Acquire.

Whenever a public entity which has forwarded a Notice of Decision to Appraise or has made a firm offer subsequently decides not to acquire the property, the public entity shall serve a notice in writing on the owner, all persons occupying the property and all other persons potentially eligible for relocation payments and assistance. This notice shall state that the public entity has decided not to acquire the property. It shall be served not later than 10 days following the date of the public entity decision not to acquire.

§ 6192. Incidental Expenses.

If the real property is acquired by purchase, the public entity shall pay all reasonable expenses incident to transfer. Among the expenses requiring payment are: recording fees, transfer fees and similar expenses incident to the conveyance of real property, and the pro rata portion of charges for public service such as water, sewage and trash collection which are allowable to a period subsequent to the date of transfer of title to the public entity or the effective date of possession of such property by the public entity, whichever is earlier. The public entity shall inform the owner that he may apply for a rebate of the pro rata portion of any real property taxes paid.

2. Certificate of Compliance filed 2-16-77 (Register 77, No. 8).

§ 6194. Short Term Rental.

(a) If the public permits an owner or tenant to occupy the real property acquired on a rental basis for a short-term or for a period subject to termination by the public entity on short notice, the amount of rent required shall not exceed the lesser of the fair rental value to a short-term occupier or the pro rata portion of the fair rental value for a typical rental period.

If the owner or tenant is an occupant of a dwelling, the rental for the dwelling shall be within his financial means. (See subsection 6008(c).)

(b) A post-acquisition tenant who occupies real property acquired on a rental basis for a short term and who is informed that the property has been acquired for a public use shall be given not less than 30 days notice of termination of the tenancy.

§ 6195. Public Information.

The purchase price and other consideration paid by the public entity is public information and shall be made available upon request.

§ 6196. Service of Notice.

Service of all notices required by this article shall be made either by first class mail or by personal service upon the person to be notified.

§ 6198. Nonpossessory Interest Exception.

The provisions of 6182(b), (c), (d)(4), and (f) and 6188 shall not apply to the acquisition of any easement, right-of-way, covenant or other nonpossessory interest in real property to be acquired for the construction, reconstruction, alteration, enlargement, maintenance, renewal, repair or replacement of sub-surface sewers, waterlines or appurtenance, drains, septic tanks, or storm water drains.

Subchapter 5. Department of Housing and Community Development—Conflict of Interest Code

§ 6500. General Provisions.

The Political Reform Act, Government Code Sections 81000, et seq., requires state and local government agencies to adopt and promulgate Conflict of Interest Codes. The Fair Political Practices Commission has adopted a regulation, 2 Adm. Code of Regs. Section 18730, which contains the terms of a standard Conflict of Interest Code, which can be incorporated by reference, and which may be amended by the Fair Political Practices Commission to conform to amendments in the Political Reform Act after public notice and hearings. Therefore, the terms of 2 Cal. Code of Regs. Section 18730 and any amendments to it duly adopted by the Fair Political Practices Commission, along with the attached Appendix in which officials and employees are designated and disclosure categories are set forth, are hereby incorporated by reference and constitute the Conflict of Interest Code of the Department and Commission of Housing and Community Development.

Designated employees shall file statements of economic interests with the agency who will make the statements available for public inspection and reproduction. (Gov. Code Section 81008). Upon receipt of the statements of the Director, the agency shall make and retain a copy and forward the original of these statements to the Fair Political Practices Commission.

Subchapter 1. Loan and Grant Committees

§ 6900. Committee Membership.

(a) On an annual basis, the Director shall establish the membership of a single advisory committee.

(b) The advisory committee shall be known as the "Local Assistance Loan and Grant Committee," hereinafter "committee." All references to the following specific loan and grant committees contained in the California Code of Regulations, Title 25, Part I, Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 7000) shall be understood to be references to the Local Assistance Loan and Grant Committee:

(1) Rural Loan and Grant Committee,

(2) Urban Loan and Grant Committee,

(3) Rental Housing Construction Incentive Committee,

(4) Rehabilitation and Housing Assistance Loan and Grant Committee,

(5) Housing Development and Assistance Committee, and

(6) Rehabilitation and Construction Finance Committee.

(c) Committee membership shall consist of the following:

(1) No more than three Department employees.

(2) No less than four public members.

(d) The Department employees selected for the committee shall be selected from Department employees in exempt positions or Career Executive Assignments (CEA). In the event one or more department committee members are unable to attend a meeting of the committee, the Director may designate a substitute from among department employees in exempt positions or Career Executive Assignments (CEA).

(e) Public membership of the committee shall meet the following criteria:

(1) Each public member shall be representative of, or have experience in, one or more of the following areas:

(A) Private sector lending;

(B) For-profit housing development;

(C) Nonprofit housing development;

(D) Public sector housing development;

(E) Local or regional planning;

(F) Architecture;

(G) Local community development;

(H) Local government;

(I) Housing development consultation; and

(J) Housing issues related academia.

(2) Overall public membership shall contribute to a balance among geographic areas and between urban and rural interests.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50406(n), Health and Safety Code; and Section 11152, Government Code. Reference: Section 50402, Health and Safety Code; and Section 11152, Government Code.

HISTORY

§ 6902. Committee Jurisdiction.

(a) The Committee shall review local assistance applications and other related issues as determined by the Director.

(b) The Director shall determine at least annually the specific local assistance programs that shall present applications for review by the Committee. The Director's determination shall be based on the following criteria:

(1) Budgetary authority;

(2) Impact on personnel resources; and

(3) Committee recommendations as to local assistance applications subject to review.

(c) The Director may modify the annual selection of local assistance programs pursuant to subsection (b) based on a change in a particular program or a reassessment of the selection criteria.

(d) At least annually, the Director also shall determine the type and nature of applications submitted to the designated local assistance programs that shall be reviewed by the Committee.

(e) The Director may modify the annual determination of the type and nature of applications pursuant to subsection (d) based n a change in the program or a reassessment of the workload of the program staff or of the committee.

(f) The Committee shall review other related issues as may be assigned at the discretion of the Director.

(g) Committee recommendations shall be advisory only.

HISTORY

1. Repealer and new section filed 4-28-89; operative 4-28-89 (Register 89, No. 18). For prior history, see Register 84, No.6.

§ 6904. Committee Operations.

The following provisions shall apply to Committee operations.

(a) Meetings shall be scheduled by the Director based on one or more of the following determinations.

(1) The level of applications is great enough to require that a meeting be scheduled;

(2) A special meeting is requested by the Committee, the need for which is verifiable; and

(3) The need exists to respond to an emergency situation as defined in Section 11125.5 of the Government Code.

(b) With the exception of emergency meetings, notice of all meetings shall be provided at least ten days prior to each meeting to all persons who have requested said notice in writing.

(c) Subject to the exceptions set forth in the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act, Government Code Sections 11120 et seq., all meetings shall be open to the public and all persons shall be permitted to attend any meeting.

(d) At least annually, the Director shall appoint a chairperson for the committee.

(e) Each member shall serve at the sole discretion of the Director and shall have one vote.

(f) The Committee shall consider all oral and written material presented and make recommendations to the Director as follows:

(1) Approve;

(2) Approve with conditions;

(3) Disapprove; and

(4) Continue to a future meeting.

(g) The minutes of all meetings and all other transactions shall be recorded and retained.

2. Editorial amendment of subsection (d) filed 10–17–80; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 42).
3. Editorial correction repealing subsection (a) and relettering subsections (b)–(d) to (a)–(c) filed 4–27–83 (Register 83, No. 18).

§ 6912. Definitions.

For purposes of this subchapter, the following definitions shall apply:

"Affordable housing cost"—see Section 6924

"Affordable rent"—see Section 6922

"Exceptional medical or other expenses" means medical expenses, and/or unusual expenses, as defined in this section, which exceed 25% of the gross annual income.

"Gross income"—see Section 6914

"Housing cost of purchaser"—see Section 6920

"Large very low income family" means a very low income family which includes six or more minors.

"Low income household"—see Section 6928

"Lower income household"—see Section 6928

"Medical expenses" means those medical expenses which are to be anticipated during the 12-month period for which the gross income is computed, and which are not covered by insurance (however, premiums for such insurance may be included as medical expenses).

"Minor" means a member of the family household (excluding foster children) other than the family head or spouse, who is under 18 years of age or is a full-time student and lives at home.

"Moderate income household"—see Section 6930

"Net income"—see Section 6916

"Other lower-income household"—see Section 6928

"Persons and families of low or moderate income"—see Section 6930

"Persons of low income"—see Section 6928

"Rent"—see Section 6918

"Unusual expenses" means amounts paid by the family for the care of minors under 13 years of age or for the care of disabled or handicapped family household members, but only where such care is necessary to enable a family member to be gainfully employed, and the amount allowable as unusual expenses shall not exceed the amount of income from such employment.

"Very large lower-income family" means a lower income family which includes eight or more minors.

"Very low income household"—see Section 6926

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50052.5, 50053, 50079.5, 50093, 50105, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50052.5, 50053, 50079.5, 50093, 50105, Health and Safety Code.

§ 6914. Gross Income.

"Gross income" shall mean the anticipated income of a person or family for the twelve-month period following the date of determination of income. If the circumstances are such that it is not reasonably feasible to anticipate a level of income over a twelve-month period, a shorter period may be used subject to a redetermination at the end of such a period. "Income" shall consist of the following:

(a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), all payments from all sources received by the family head (even if temporarily absent) and each additional member of the family household who is not a minor shall be included in the annual income of a family. Income shall include, but not be limited to:

(1) The gross amount, before any payroll deductions, of wages and salaries, overtime pay, commissions, fees, tips and bonuses;

(2) The net income from operation of a business or profession or from rental or real or personal property (for this purpose, expenditures for business expansion or amortization of capital indebtedness shall not be deducted to determine the net income from a business);

(3) Interest and dividends;

(4) The full amount of periodic payments received from social security, annuities, insurance policies, retirement funds, pensions, disability or death benefits and other similar types of periodic receipts;

(5) Payments in lieu of earnings, such as unemployment and disability compensation, worker's compensation and severance pay (but see subdivision (b)(3)).

(6) Public Assistance. If the public assistance payment includes an amount specifically designated for shelter and utilities which is subject to adjustment by the public assistance agency in accordance with the actual cost of shelter and utilities, the amount of public assistance income to be included as income shall consist of:

(A) The amount of the allowance or grant exclusive of the amount specifically designated for shelter and utilities, plus

(B) The maximum amount which the public assistance agency could in fact allow for the family for shelter and utilities.

(7) Periodic and determinable allowances such as alimony and child support payments, and regular contributions or gifts received from persons not residing in the dwelling;

(8) All regular pay, special pay and allowances of a member of the Armed Forces (whether or not living in the dwelling) who is head of the family or spouse (but see subdivision (b)(5)).

Where a family has net family assets in excess of $5,000, income shall include the actual amount of income, if any, derived from all of the net family assets or 10 percent of the value of all such assets, whichever is greater. For purposes of this section, net family assets means value of equity in real property other than the household's full-time residence, savings, stocks, bonds, and other forms of capital investment. The value of necessary items such as furniture and automobiles shall be excluded.

(b) The following items shall not be considered as income:

(1) Casual, sporadic or irregular gifts;

(2) Amounts which are specifically for or in reimbursement of the cost of medical expenses;

(3) Lump-sum additions to family assets, such as inheritances, insurance payments (including payments under health and accident insurance and worker's compensation), capital gains and settlement for personal or property losses;

(4) Amounts of educational scholarships paid directly to the student or to the educational institution, and amounts paid by the government to a veteran for use in meeting the costs of tuition, fees, books and equipment. Any amounts of such scholarships, or payments to veterans not used for the above purposes of which are available for subsistence are to be included in income;

(5) The special pay to a serviceman head of a family away from home and exposed to hostile fire;

(6) Relocation payments made pursuant to federal, state, or local relocation law;

(7) Foster child care payments;

(8) The value of coupon allotments for the purchase of food pursuant to the Food Stamp Act of 1964 which is in excess of the amount actually charged the eligible household;

(9) Payments received pursuant to participation in the following volunteer programs under the ACTION Agency:

(A) National Volunteer Antipoverty Programs which include VISTA, Service Learning Programs and Special Volunteer Programs.

(B) National Older American Volunteer Programs for persons aged 60 and over which include Retired Senior Volunteer Programs, Foster Grandparent Program, Older American Community Services Program, and National Volunteer Program to Assist Small Business Experience, Service Corps of Retired Executive (SCORE) and Active Corps of Executives (ACE).

HISTORY

1. Editorial correction of NOTE filed 4-27-83 (Register 83, No. 18).

§ 6916. Net Income.

(a) For the purpose of determining affordable housing cost or affordable rent, "net income" shall be computed as follows: the annual gross income less $300 for each minor and medical expenses which exceed 3 percent of the annual gross income and unusual expenses, all divided by 12.

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50053, 50093, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50053, 50093, Health and Safety Code.

§ 6918. Rent.

"Rent" shall mean the total of monthly payments for a rental or cooperative unit for:

(a) Use and occupancy of a housing unit and land and facilities associated therewith.

(b) Any separately charged fees or service charges assessed by the lessor which are required of all tenants, other than security deposits.

(c) A reasonable allowance for utilities not included in (a) or (b) above, including garbage collection, sewer, water, electricity, gas, and other heating, cooking and refrigeration fuels. Utilities does not include telephone service. Such an allowance shall take into consideration the cost of an adequate level of service.

(d) Possessory interest, taxes, or other fees or charges assessed for use of the land and facilities associated therewith by a public or private entity other than the lessor.

Monthly rent shall be an average of estimated costs for the next twelve months.

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50052.5 and 50053, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50052.5, 50053, and 50098, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Editorial correction of NOTE filed 4-27-83 (Register 83, No. 18).

§ 6920. Housing Cost of a Purchaser.

"Housing cost" of a person or family purchasing a housing unit shall include all of the following associated with that housing unit:

(a) Principal and interest on a mortgage loan including any rehabilitation loans, and any loan insurance fees associated therewith.

(b) Property taxes and assessments.

(c) Fire and casualty insurance covering replacement value of property improvements.

(d) Property maintenance and repairs.

(e) A reasonable allowance for utilities, including garbage collection, sewer, water, electricity, gas, and other heating, cooking, and refrigeration fuels. Utilities does not include telephone service. Such an allowance shall take into consideration the cost of an adequate level of service.

(f) Homeowner association fees.

(g) Space rent, if the housing unit is situated on rented land.

Monthly housing cost of a purchaser shall be an average of estimated costs for the next twelve months.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50052.5, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50052.5, Health and Safety Code.

§ 6922. Affordable Rent.

(a) Affordable rent for a lower income household shall be the maximum rent permitted by this subchapter. Except as provided in subdivision

(b), the person or family's maximum monthly rent shall be 25 percent of the monthly net income, but in no event less than 15 percent of monthly gross income.

(b) The monthly rent shall be 15 percent of the monthly gross income if the family is:

(1) A large, very low income family, or

(2) A very large, lower income family, or

(3) A family which has exceptional medical or other expenses.

(c) To the extent that the implementing statute of a program administered by the department permits modification of this standard on the basis of economic or financial feasibility or other grounds, the department shall make a finding of such necessity when a modified standard is utilized.

(d) "Affordable rent" also means rent charged as a tenant contribution under the provisions of Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended, when the unit or household is receiving assistance pursuant to the Section 8 program.

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50052.5 and 50053, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50052.5 and 50053, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. New subsection (d) filed 6–16–82 as procedural and organizational; effective upon filing (Register 82, No. 25).
2. New subsection (e) filed 8–11–82 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 82, No. 34). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 12–9–82.
3. Certificate of Compliance including amendment of subsection (e) filed 11–19–82 (Register 82, No. 47).
4. Editorial correction repealing subsection (c) and relettering subsections (d) and (e) to (c) and (d) filed 4–27–83 (Register 83, No. 18).

§ 6924. Affordable Housing Costs (Purchasers).

(a) Affordable costs for purchasers of dwelling units means, with respect to lower income households, housing costs, as defined in Section 6920, not exceeding 25 percent of gross income.

(b) Construction costs, mortgage loans, and sales prices will be adequate to make housing available to an income group at affordable housing costs if such construction costs, mortgage loans, and sales prices, with no more than a reasonable downpayment, will result in a monthly housing cost, as defined in Section 6920, which does not average more than the amount computed in Column B or exceed for any one unit the amount computed in Column C:

(1) For lower income households with incomes above the very low income limits:

Number of Bedrooms (Column A)	Maximum Average Unit Computations (Column B)		Maximum Individual Unit Computations (Column C)
1	Lower income limit for 2–person family + 96	Very low income limit for 1–person family	Lower income limit for 2–person family 48
2	Lower income limit for 3–person family + 96	Very low income limit for 3–person family	Lower income limit for 3–person family 48
3	Lower income limit for 5–person family + 96	Very low income limit for 4–person family	Lower income limit for 5–person family 48
4 or more	Lower income limit for 7–person family + 96	Very low income limit for 6–person family	Lower income limit for 7–person family 48

(2) For very low income households:

Number of Bedrooms (Column A)	Maximum Average Unit Computations (Column B)	Maximum Individual Unit Computations (Column C)
1	Very low income limit for 2–person family x .6 48	Very low income limit for 2–person family 48
2	Very low income limit for 3–person family x .7 48	Very low income limit for 3–person family 48
3	Very low income limit for 5–person family x .6 48	Very low income limit for 5–person family 48
4 or more	Very low income limit for 7–person family x .6 48	Very low income limit for 7–person family 48

In the computations above, the lower income and very low income limits are the limits for the county in which the housing units are located or to be located.

(c) To the extent that the implementing statute of a program administered by the department permits modification of this standard on the basis of economic or financial feasibility or other grounds, the department shall make a finding of such necessity when a modified standard is utilized.

HISTORY

1. New subsection (d) filed 6–16–82 as procedural and organizational; effective upon filing (Register 82, No. 25).
2. Editorial correction repealing subsection (c) and relettering subsection (d) to (c) filed 4–27–83 (Register 83, No. 18).

§ 6926. Very Low Income Households.

(a) "Very low income households" means persons and families whose gross incomes do not exceed the qualifying limits for very low income families established and amended from time to time pursuant to Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937. The qualifying limits are set forth in Section 6932. These limits are equivalent to 50 percent of the area median income, adjusted for family size by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.

(b) "Very low income households" means the same as "very low income families" and "very low income person."

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50105, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50105, Health and Safety Code.

§ 6928. Lower Income Households.

(a) "Lower income households" means persons and families whose gross incomes do not exceed the qualifying limits for lower income families as established and amended from time to time pursuant to Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937. The qualifying limits are set forth in Section 6932. These limits are equivalent to 80 percent of the area median income, adjusted for family size and other adjustment factors by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.

(b) "Lower income households" includes very low income households.

(c) "Other lower income households" are those lower income households who are not very low income households.

(d) "Lower income households" means the same as "low income households," "persons of low income," and "low income families."

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50079.5, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50079.5, Health and Safety Code.

§ 6930. Moderate Income Households.

(a) "Moderate income households" means persons and families who are not "lower income households" and whose gross incomes do not exceed 120 percent of the area median income adjusted for family size in accordance with adjustment factors adopted by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development in establishing income limits for lower income families. For purposes of this subchapter, the income limits are set forth in Section 6932.

(b) The maximum gross income limits for moderate income households is the same as that for "persons and families of moderate income" and "persons and families of low or moderate income."

(c) "Persons and families of low or moderate income" includes very low, lower, and moderate income households.

Subchapter 2.5. Applicant Verification Requirements

Article 1. General Provisions

§ 6935. Authority and Purpose.

The Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (Pub. L. No. 104–193, 8 U.S.C. § 1621), hereinafter referred to as "PRAWORA," among other things, generally requires that receipt of public benefits be limited to U.S. citizens, nationals and qualified aliens. The purpose of this subchapter is to implement this requirement by establishing procedures for the verification of citizenship or qualified alien status of beneficiaries or prospective beneficiaries of the loan and grant programs administered by the Department.

HISTORY

1. New subchapter 2.5 (articles 1–3), article 1 (sections 6935–6935.6) and section filed 9–9–98; operative 9–9–98 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 98, No. 37).

§ 6935.2. Application.

(a) The provisions of this subchapter shall apply to the following state–funded loan and grant programs administered by the Department:

(1) Farmworker Housing Grant Program (commencing with section 7200 of this Title);

(2) Deferred–Payment Rehabilitation Loans (commencing with section 7400 of this Title);

(3) Special User Housing Rehabilitation Program (commencing with section 7450 of this Title);

(4) Office of Migrant Services (commencing with section 7600 of this Title);

(5) California Housing Rehabilitation Program (commencing with section 7670 of this Title);

(6) Rental Housing Construction Program (commencing with section 7800 of this Title);

(7) Homeownership Assistance Program (commencing with section 7900 of this Title);

(8) Emergency Housing and Assistance Program (rental assistance only) (commencing with section 7964 of this Title);

(9) Mobile Home Park Assistance Program (commencing with section 8000 of this Title);

(10) California Housing Rehabilitation Program for Owner–Occupied Housing (commencing with section 8040 of this Title);

(11) Rental Housing Construction Program—Proposition 84 Bond (commencing with section 8075 of this Title);

(12) Family Housing Demonstration Program (commencing with section 8110 of this Title);

HISTORY

1. New section filed 9–9–98; operative 9–9–98 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 98, No. 37).

§ 6935.4. Definitions.

The following definitions shall apply to this subchapter:

"Alien" means any person not a citizen or national of the United States.

"Applicant" means any person applying to the Department for a public benefit, or any person seeking to renew or extend an existing public benefit pursuant to any re–certification process.

"Assisted rental unit" means a unit designated as an assisted unit in a regulatory agreement or the management plan for a construction or rehabilitation multifamily project financed, in whole or in part through funding provided by a program identified in Section 6935.2.

"Department" means the California Department of Housing and Community Development.

"Head of Household" means the adult member of the household who is the head of the household for the purposes of determining income eligibility or rent.

"INA" means the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. § 1101 et seq.).

"INS" means the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service.

"Nonimmigrant" means the same as in Section 101(a)(15) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)).

"Nonprofit charitable organization", for purposes of this subchapter, shall mean an organization as specified in Section 432 of PRAWORA, as amended by Public Law No. 104–208 (8 U.S.C. § 1642(d)) which shall include, but not necessarily be limited to, organizations which have received a tax exemption from the Internal Revenue Service pursuant to Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3). "Nonprofit charitable organization" does not include general or limited partnerships which have a nonprofit charitable organization as a general partner unless the partnership entity itself is both non–profit and charitable. An organization is "nonprofit" if it is organized and operated for purposes other than making gains or profits for the organization, its members or its shareholders, and is precluded from distributing any gains or profits to its members or shareholders. An organization is "charitable" if it is organized and operated for charitable purposes. The term "charitable" includes organizations dedicated to relief of the poor and distressed or the underprivileged, as well as religiously–affiliated organizations and educational organizations.

"PRAWORA" means the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, (Pub. L. No. 104–193, 8 U.S.C. § 1621).

"Public Benefit" means any of the following:

(1) Any kind of rental assistance provided to a household through any program listed in section 6935.2, including but not limited to subsidized rents; tenant–based rental assistance; and rent vouchers;

(2) The right to occupy an assisted unit;

(3) Any loan or grant provided to a homeowner or shareholder in a cooperative through any program listed in section 6935.2.

"Qualified Alien" means an alien who, at the time he or she applies for, receives, or attempts to receive a public benefit, is, under Section 431(b) of the PRAWORA (8 U.S.C. § 1641(b)), any of the following:

(1) An alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence under the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1101 et seq.);

(2) An alien who is granted asylum under Section 208 of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1158);

(3) A refugee who is admitted to the United States under Section 207 of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1157);

(4) An alien who is paroled into the United States under Section 212(d)(5) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1182(d)(5)) for a period of at least one year;

(5) An alien whose deportation is being withheld under Section 243(h) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1253(h)) as in effect immediately before the effective date of section 307 of division C of Public Law 104–208) or Section 241(b)(3) of such Act (8 U.S.C. § 1251(b)(3)) (as amended by Section 305(a) of division C of Public Law 104–208);

(6) An alien who is granted conditional entry pursuant to Section 203(a)(7) of the INA as in effect prior to April 1, 1980. (See editorial note under 8 U.S.C. § 1101, "Effective Date of 1980 Amendment."); or

(7) An alien who is a Cuban or Haitian entrant (as defined in Section 501(e) of the Refugee Education Assistance Act of 1980 (8 U.S.C. § 1522 note));

(8) An alien who, under Section 431(c)(1) of the PRAWORA (8 U.S.C. § 1641(c)(1)), meets all of the conditions of subparagraphs (A), (B), (C), and (D) below:

(A) The alien has been battered or subjected to extreme cruelty in the United States by a spouse or a parent, or by a member of the spouse's or parent's family residing in the same household as the alien, and the spouse or parent of the alien consented to, or acquiesced in, such battery or cruelty;

(B) In the opinion of the department there is substantial connection between such battery and cruelty and the need for the benefits to be provided. For purposes of this subsection, the following circumstances demonstrate a substantial connection between the battery or cruelty and the need for the benefits to be provided:

(i) The benefits are needed to enable the alien to become self–sufficient following separation from the abuser.

(ii) The benefits are needed to enable the alien to escape the abuser and/or the community in which the abuser lives, or to ensure the safety of the alien from the abuser.

(iii) The benefits are needed due to a loss of financial support resulting from the alien's separation from the abuser.

(iv) The benefits are needed because the battery or cruelty, separation from the abuser, or work absences or lower job performance resulting from the battery or extreme cruelty or from legal proceedings relating thereto (including resulting child support, child custody, and divorce actions) cause the alien to lose his or her job or to earn less or to require the alien to leave his or her job for safety reasons.

(v) The benefits are needed because the alien requires medical attention or mental health counseling, or has become disabled, as a result of the battery or extreme cruelty.

(vi) The benefits are needed because the loss of a dwelling or source of income or fear of the abuser following separation from the abuser jeopardizes the alien's ability to care for his or her children (e.g., inability to house, feed, or clothe children or to put children into day care for fear of being found by the abuser).

(vii) The benefits are needed to alleviate nutritional risk or need resulting from the abuse or following separation from the abuser.

(viii) The benefits are needed to provide medical care during a pregnancy resulting from the abuser's sexual assault or abuse of, or relationship with, the alien and/or to care for any resulting children.

(ix) Where medical coverage and/or health care services are needed to replace medical coverage or health care services the alien had when living with the abuser.

(C) The alien has been approved or has a petition pending which sets forth a prima facie case for:

(i) status as a spouse or child of a United States citizen pursuant to clause (ii), (iii), or (iv) of Section 204(a)(1)(A) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1154(a)(1)(A)(ii), (iii) or (iv));

(iv) classification pursuant to clause (ii) or (iii) of Section 204(a)(1)(B) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 154(a)(1)(B)(ii) or (iii));

(v) suspension of deportation and adjustment of status pursuant to Section 244(a)(3) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1254)(a)(3)), as in effect prior to April 1, 1997, [Pub.L. 104–208, se. 501 (effective Sept. 30, 1996 pursuant to sec. 304); Pub.L. 105–33, sec. 81 (effective pursuant to sec. 5582)] (codified as "cancellation of removal under section 240A of such Act [8 U.S.C. § 1229b] as in effect prior to April 1, 1997);

(vi) status as a spouse or child of a United States citizen pursuant to clause (I) of Section 204(a)(1)(A) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1154(a)(1)(A)) or classification pursuant to clause (I) of Section 204(a)(1)(B) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1154(a)(1)(B));

(vii) cancellation of removal pursuant to Section 240(b)(2)(A) of the INA (8 U.S.C. § 1229(b)(2)).

(D) For the period for which benefits are sought, the individual responsible for the battery or cruelty does not reside in the same household or family eligibility unit as the individual subjected to the battery or cruelty.

(9) An alien who meets all of the conditions of subparagraphs (A), (B), (C), (D) and (E) below:

(A) The alien has a child who has been battered or subjected to extreme cruelty in the United States by a spouse or a parent of the alien (without the active participation of the alien in the battery or cruelty), or by a member of the spouse's or parent's family residing in the same household as the alien, and the spouse or parent consented or acquiesced to such battery or cruelty.

(B) The alien did not actively participate in such battery or cruelty;

(C) In the opinion of the department, there is a substantial connection between such battery or cruelty and the need for the benefits to be provided. For purposes of this subsection, the following circumstances demonstrate a substantial connection between the battery or cruelty and the need for the benefits to be provided:

(i) The benefits are needed to enable the alien's child to become self–sufficient following separation from the abuser.

(ii) The benefits are needed to enable the alien's child to escape the abuser and/or the community in which the abuser lives, or to ensure the safety of the alien's child from the abuser.

(iii) The benefits are needed due to a loss of financial support resulting from the alien child's separation from the abuser.

(iv) The benefits are needed because the battery or cruelty, separation from the abuser, or work absences or lower job performance resulting from the battery or extreme cruelty or from legal proceedings relating thereto (including resulting child support, child custody, and divorce actions) cause the alien's child to lose his or her job or to earn less or to require the alien's child to leave his or her job for safety reasons.

(v) The benefits are needed because the alien's child requires medical attention or mental health counseling, or has become disabled, as a result of the battery or extreme cruelty.

(vi) The benefits are needed because the loss of a dwelling or source of income or fear of the abuser following separation from the abuser jeopardizes the alien's child's ability to care for his or her children (e.g., inability to house, feed, or clothe children or to put children into day care for fear of being found by the abuser).

(vii) The benefits are needed to alleviate nutritional risk or need resulting from the abuse or following separation from the abuser.

(viii) The benefits are needed to provide medical care during a pregnancy resulting from the abuser's sexual assault or abuse of, or relationship with, the alien's child and/or to care for any resulting children.

(ix) Where medical coverage and/or health care services are needed to replace medical coverage or health care services the alien's child had when living with the abuser.

(D) The alien meets the requirements of subsection (c)(8)(C) above;

(E) For the period for which benefits are sought, the individual responsible for the battery or cruelty does not reside in the same household or family eligibility unit as the individual subjected to the battery or cruelty.

(10) An alien child who meets all of the conditions of subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C) below:

(A) The alien child resides in the same household as a parent who has been battered or subjected to extreme cruelty in the United States by that parent's spouse or by a member of the spouse's family residing in the same household as the parent and the spouse consented or acquiesced to such battery or cruelty. For purposes of this subsection, the term "battered or subjected to extreme cruelty" includes, but is not limited to being the victim of any act or threatened act of violence including any forceful detention, which results or threatens to result in physical or mental injury. Rape, molestation, incest (if the victim is a minor), or forced prostitution shall be considered acts of violence.

(B) In the opinion of the department there is a substantial connection between such battery or cruelty and the need for the benefits to be provided. For purposes of this subsection, the following circumstances demonstrate a substantial connection between the battery or cruelty and the need for the benefits to be provided:

(i) The benefits are needed to enable the alien child's parent to become self–sufficient following the separation from the abuser.

(ii) The benefits are needed to enable the alien child's parent to escape the abuser and/or the community in which the abuser lives, or to ensure the safety of the alien child's parent from the abuser.

(iii) The benefits are needed due to a loss of financial support resulting from the alien child's parent's separation from the abuser.

(iv) The benefits are needed because the battery or cruelty, separation from the abuser, or work absences or lower job performance resulting from the battery or extreme cruelty or from legal proceedings relating thereto (including resulting child support, child custody, and divorce actions) cause the alien child's parent to lose his or her job or to earn less or to require the alien child's parent to leave his or her job for safety reasons.

(v) The benefits are needed because the alien child's parent requires medical attention or mental health counseling, or has become disabled, as a result of the battery or extreme cruelty.

(vi) The benefits are needed because the loss of a dwelling or source of income or fear of the abuser following separation from the abuser jeopardizes the alien child's parent's ability to care for his or her children (e.g., inability to house, feed, or clothe children or to put children into day care for fear of being found by the abuser).

(vii) The benefits are needed to alleviate nutritional risk or need resulting from the abuse or following separation from the abuser.

(viii) The benefits are needed to provide medical care during a pregnancy resulting from the abuser's sexual assault or abuse of, or relationship with, the alien child's parent and/or to care for any resulting children.

(ix) Where medical coverage and/or health care services are needed to replace medical coverage or health care services the alien child's parent had when living with the abuser.

(c) The alien child meets the requirements of subsection (c)(8)(C) above.

"Regulatory agreement" means an agreement governing the maintenance, use and occupancy of specific units, or a specified number of units, in a rental housing development and which has been or will be entered into between a sponsor and the department as a condition of receiving assistance from any of the programs listed in section 6935.2 above.

"Rental Assistance" means any form of cash, voucher, or promise to provide the payment of rent, in whole or in part, to or on behalf of an individual, household, or family eligibility unit.

"Sponsor" or "Project Sponsor" means the person or entity, including governmental entities, which has been funded by the Department in order to facilitate a public benefit to individuals or households. Depending on the program, the project sponsor may be a grantee of, or a borrower of, funds administered by the Department. "Sponsor" or "Project Sponsor" also means the person or entity designated in a currently effective regulatory agreement as the "borrower". For the purposes of this Subchapter the term "sponsor" does not include a nonprofit charitable organization, as defined above. (Section 432 of the PRAWORA, as amended by Pub. L.

104–208 (8 U.S.C. § 1642(d)), exempts nonprofit charitable organizations from the obligation to verify eligibility.)

"Unqualified Alien" means an alien who is not a qualified alien.

§ 6937.2. Eligibility of Households.

(a) To be eligible to receive any form of rental assistance or assisted rental housing unit;

(1) In the case of a new tenancy, each adult member of a household must be eligible to receive a public benefit.

(2) In the case of a tenancy which is in existence as of the effective date of these regulations, either the head of the household or his or her spouse must be eligible to receive a public benefit, provided that the household does not include any person who is ineligible to receive the public benefit other than the head of household or spouse, the parents or grandparents of the head of household or spouse, or the children of the head of household or spouse.

(b) To be eligible to receive any form of home ownership assistance, each person whose name appears on the title for the home or, in the case of cooperatives, the share certificate, must be eligible to receive a public benefit.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 9–9–98; operative 9–9–98 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 98, No. 37).

§ 6937.4. Time at Which Eligibility Will Be Determined.

(a) Rental Assistance or Assisted Units

(1) Initial eligibility of an applicant under a program which provides rental assistance or an applicant for an assisted unit in a rental housing development shall be determined as part of the initial determination of the applicant's overall eligibility for the individual program. If an applicant fails to establish eligibility pursuant to subsection (b) of section 6939.2, the rental assistance or access to an assisted unit shall be denied.

(2) Continuing eligibility of an existing household in a rental housing development shall be determined at the time of the household's next eligibility re–certification pursuant to the requirements of the regulatory agreement. If an existing household fails to demonstrate eligibility pursuant to this subchapter, the household shall be given a written notice that the tenant's assistance will be withdrawn 30 days thereafter, either by increasing the unit's rent to a non–assisted rent level (subject to any applicable rent restrictions imposed by existing regulatory agreements by and between the project sponsor and any other governmental entity), or in the case of a direct rental subsidy, by terminating that subsidy. If the household occupies an assisted unit, the notice shall also inform the household that the tenancy will be terminated in 6 months unless, within that period, a vacant non–assisted unit is re–designated as a replacement assisted unit. In that case, the household may be permitted to remain in the formerly–assisted unit at a non–assisted rent.

(3) Eligibility of a household in a rental housing development need only be verified once during the time the household resides in that development.

(b) Home Owner Assistance

(1) Initial eligibility of an applicant for homeowner assistance shall be determined during loan origination and must be completed prior to the closing of the loan or grant. If an owner fails to establish eligibility pursuant to this subchapter, the assistance shall be denied.

(2) For all homeowners or shareholders in cooperatives who have received a loan or grant prior to the effective date of these regulations, and for owners or shareholders who have received an initial determination of eligibility under subsection (1), continuing eligibility shall be established prior to the Department's approval of any change concerning the loan or grant, or the underlying property which, pursuant to program regulations or the loan or grant documents, requires the Department's prior approval (e.g., loan extension, assumption, assignment, or subordination, or transfer, or encumbrance of the property). If the homeowner or shareholder fails to establish eligibility, the Department shall withhold its approval of the change. Under no circumstances may the assistance provided to a homeowner be transferred to an unqualified alien, nor may an unqualified alien be added to the title in a manner which would allow that unqualified alien to be a beneficiary of the program.

(c) All determinations of ineligibility shall be in writing, and shall include the reasons for the determination and a summary of the applicable appeal procedures set forth in section 6939.6.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 9–9–98; operative 9–9–98 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 98, No. 37).

Article 3. Procedures for Determining and Reporting Eligibility

§ 6939. Who Must Perform Verifications.

(a) Each sponsor shall perform eligibility verifications as required by this subchapter. (Section 432 of the PRAWORA, as amended by Pub. L. 104–208 (8 U.S.C. § 1642(d)), does not require nonprofit charitable organizations to verify eligibility.) The failure to perform eligibility verifications may, in the Department's discretion, be considered a default under the loan or grant to the sponsor. In those situations in which an applicant for a public benefit is seeking a public benefit directly from the Department, the Department shall perform the verification of eligibility.

(b) Each sponsor, including local governmental entities, shall perform the tenant verifications required pursuant to this section as part of its ongoing project management responsibilities. Each such project sponsor, or the department where it has performed the verification of eligibility, shall maintain the appropriate documentation as part of each public beneficiary's program file. In the case of governmental sponsors, where an applicant's eligibility for a public benefit has already been verified as part of an eligibility process for another federal, state, or local program subject to PRAWORA, that verification shall be deemed adequate for purposes of this subchapter and documentation of the verification shall be maintained in the public beneficiary's file.

(c) Any sponsor that verifies eligibility may consider the costs involved in performing the verifications to be a project expense; and may charge applicants, but not existing tenants, a reasonable fee for determining eligibility.

(d) The Department shall charge a fee not to exceed $13, for each verification it performs.

(e) The Department shall not be liable for any action, delay, or failure of the INS in conducting the Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE) system or other verification process.

HISTORY

1. New article 3 (sections 6939-6939.4) and section filed 9-9-98; operative 9-9-98 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 98, No. 37).

§ 6939.2. Method for Determining Eligibility.

(a) For any project receiving funds and funds from any of the programs listed in section 6935.2, and which project is also subject to federal eligibility verification procedures (such as the Section 214 requirements for Public Housing and Section 8), verification of eligibility shall be determined using federal procedures or the procedures promulgated by the federal funding source to implement the requirements of PRAWORA, if such federal procedures are in effect. In the event there are no applicable federal regulations in effect, the procedures specified in this subchapter shall apply to joint state-federally-funded projects until such time as federal regulations become effective. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this subsection, unless the federal regulations have preempted the field of verification for federally-funded projects or programs, or unless federal regulations mandate a shorter period, the 6-month waiting period prior to termination of a tenancy set forth in section 6937.4(a)(2) shall apply to projects funded under any program listed in section 6935.2.

(b) For purposes of establishing eligibility for the programs listed in section 6935.2 and which are not subject to federal PRAWORA eligibility verification procedures, all of the following procedures shall be followed:

(1) To be considered for eligibility, the applicant shall declare his or her citizenship, alienage, and/or immigration status as a United States citizen or national, a qualified alien, a nonimmigrant alien, or a parolee to the United States by completing and signing the "Statement of Citizenship, Alienage, and Immigration Status for State Public Benefits", Form HCD-Benefit Status Form 1, (2/98) version which is hereby incorporated into these regulations by reference. This form is provided by the department.

(2) With the exception of the eligibility determination of an applicant for occupancy in an assisted rental unit who is a United States citizen or national, the applicant must present documents of a type acceptable to the INS, as set forth in List A of HCD Benefit Status Form 1 (2/98) in the case of an applicant who is a citizen or national, or List B of HCD Form 1 in the case of an applicant who is an alien, which serve as reasonable evidence of the applicant's declared status at the time of application. A fee receipt from the INS for replacement of a lost, stolen, or unreadable INS document is reasonable evidence of the applicant's declared status. At the time of application, an applicant for occupancy in an assisted rental unit who is a United States citizen or national shall not be required to provide any additional supporting documentation of his or her declared status beyond a completed and executed HCD Benefit Status Form 1 (2/98). However, if such an applicant becomes a tenant, he/she shall be required to provide the supporting documentation described in List A of HCD Benefit Form 1 (2/98) upon his/her first eligibility re-certification pursuant to the requirements of the regulatory agreement.

(3) If the documents presented do not on their face appear to be genuine or to relate to the individual presenting them, the sponsor shall contact the government entity that originally issued the documents for verification. In the case of naturalized citizens, derivative citizens presenting certificates of citizenship, and aliens, the INS is the appropriate government entity to contact for verification. The sponsor shall request verification from the INS by filing INS Form G-845 or its successor, with copies of the pertinent documents provided by the applicant, with the local INS office. If an applicant has lost his or her original documents or presents expired documents or is unable to present any documentation evidencing his or her immigration status, the applicant shall be referred to the local INS office to obtain documentation.

(i) Once an applicant for occupancy in a rental unit has provided the sponsor all information required by subsection (b) to establish the applicant's eligibility, the applicant shall be eligible for public benefits until and unless the sponsor or Department receives written confirmation from the INS that the applicant does not have a legal status which would make him or her eligible for a public benefit. Where an applicant has been provided rental assistance or occupancy in an assisted rental unit pending review by the applicable governmental entity, and it is later determined that he or she was ineligible to receive that public benefit, the benefit shall be terminated in accordance with the provisions of subsection 6937.4(a)(2).

(ii) Applicants seeking approvals related to homeownership loans or cooperative shares subject to subsection 6837.4(b), whose documents do not on their face appear to be genuine or to relate to the individual presenting them shall be denied the public benefit until the sponsor or Department receives confirmation of the applicant's eligibility from the issuing governmental entity.

(4) At the time of a continuing eligibility determination made pursuant to section 6937.4, subsection (a)(2) or (b)(2), the tenant, owner, or shareholder shall complete and execute a Form 1, and present documents specified in list A or B of HCD Benefit Status Form 1 (2/98) which serve as reasonable evidence of the tenant's, owner's, or shareholder's declared status.

(5) If the INS advises that the applicant has citizen status or has immigration status which makes him or her a qualified alien, a nonimmigrant or alien paroled for less than one year under section 212(d)(5) of the INA, the INS verification shall be accepted.

(6) If the INS advises that it cannot verify that the applicant is a citizen, a national, or a qualified alien, benefits shall be denied, or discontinued, as applicable, and the applicant notified of the denial or discontinuance and of his or her right to appeal the denial pursuant to Section 6939.6.

(c) Pursuant to Section 434 of the PRAWORA (8 U.S.C. § 1644), any of the following information submitted by an applicant as reasonable evidence of the applicant's declared status under subsection (b) shall be submitted to the INS for verification:

(1) The document presented indicates immigration status but does not include an alien registration or alien admission number.

(2) The document is suspected to be counterfeit or to have been altered.

(3) The document includes an alien registration number in the A60 000 000 (not yet issued) or A80 000 000 (illegal border crossing) series.

(4) The document is one of the following: an INS Form I-181b notification letter issued in connection with an INS Form I-181 Memorandum of Creation of Record of Permanent Residence, an Arrival-Departure Record (INS Form I-94) or a foreign passport stamped "PROCESSED FOR I-551, TEMPORARY EVIDENCE OF LAWFUL PERMANENT RESIDENCE" that INS issued more than one year before the date of application for public benefits.

(d) Pursuant to Section 434 of the PRAWORA (8 U.S.C. § 1644), where the Department reasonably believes that an alien is unlawfully in the State based on the failure of the alien to provide reasonable evidence of the alien's declared status, after an opportunity to do so, said alien shall be reported to the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 9-9-98; operative 9-9-98 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 98, No. 37).

§ 6939.4. Appeal Procedures.

(a) Any person determined to be ineligible to receive benefits may appeal such determination as provided by this section.

(b) To be considered, an appeal: (1) must be submitted in writing to the entity (department, sponsor, or local government) that performed the eligibility verification; (2) must be either hand delivered or postmarked within 10 calendar days from the date of the written determination of ineligibility; and (3) must state the reason(s) the person believes the determination was in error.

(c) In the case of a sponsor that has an appeal or grievance procedure that has been approved by the department as part of the sponsor's management plan, the sponsor may use that procedure to process eligibility appeals, or it may use the procedure set forth in subsection (d) of this section.

(d) The Department and sponsors that do not have a department-approved appeal or grievance procedure shall follow the grievance procedures as follows:

(1) Upon receipt of an appeal, the verifying entity shall conduct an administrative review of the decision being appealed, including all documentary information submitted by the appellant in support of his or her appeal. Within 15 calendar days of receipt of an appeal, the administrative review shall be completed and the appellant notified in writing either that the appellant has been found eligible to receive benefits, or that the appellant has been found ineligible to receive benefits and the date, time and location at which an informal hearing will take place. The informal hearing may be by telephone or in person, in which case the hearing will be held in the general geographic area where the benefit would have been conferred.

(2) In the case of the Department, the manager of the affected program shall appoint a person other than the person who performed the initial verification to serve as an Informal Review Officer.

(3) In the case of a sponsor, the sponsor shall designate an employee of the sponsor other than the employee who performed the initial verification to serve as an Informal Review Officer. The program providing the benefit applied for may but is not required to be represented at the informal hearing.

(4) The Informal Review Officer may determine the relevance of the information or testimony, may limit the length of presentations, and may eject threatening or abusive persons from the informal hearing. The Informal Review Officer may request additional evidence, proof, or documentation from the appellant at the time of the informal hearing, or thereafter, and shall set a time after which no additional information will be accepted.

(5) The authority of the Informal Review Officer shall be limited to determinations of eligibility pursuant to this subchapter and he or she shall have no authority to overrule any decision or conclusion of the INS. Pending the Informal Review Officer's decision, any discretionary action in regards to eligibility for public benefits shall be stayed. If, during the appeal process, the appellant is found to be ineligible to receive benefits under the program applied under for reasons other than those set forth in this subchapter, the appeal shall be dismissed.

(6) The Informal Review Officer shall render a decision in writing within 15 calendar working days after the informal hearing and this will be a final administrative decision.

(7) The informal hearing shall be recorded, but only transcribed where the verifying entity deems it necessary. Tapes shall be maintained for one year after a decision is reached.

Subchapter 3. California Environmental Quality Act

Article 1. General Provisions

§ 6940. Authority.

The guidelines adopted herein implement the requirements of the California Environmental Quality Act of 1970 (CEQA), Public Resources Code Section 21000 et seq., and the State EIR Guidelines issued by the Resources Agency, Title 14 of the California Administrative Code, Division 6, Chapter 3.

HISTORY

1. New Subchapter 3, Articles 1-7 (Sections 6940-6999, not consecutive) filed 7-11-80; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 80, No. 28).
2. Amendment of NOTE filed 5-5-82; designated effective 6-2-82 pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 19).

§ 6941. Purpose.

The basic purpose of these guidelines is to carry out the intent of the Legislature that the Department, in regulating activities of private individuals, corporations, and public agencies, shall give major consideration to preventing environmental damage, while providing a decent house and a satisfying living environment for every Californian.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 21082, Public Resources Code. Reference: Title 14, CAC, Section 15050; and Section 21082, Public Resources Code.

Article 2. Definitions

§ 6950. Definitions.

For purposes of these regulations, the following definitions shall apply:

"Approval" means the decision by the department which commits the department to a definite course of action in regard to a project. With respect to activities to be carried out by other agencies or persons, approval occurs when the department contracts or commits to issue a grant, loan, permit, certificate or other entitlement for use of the project.

"Lead Agency" means the public agency which has the principal responsibility for carrying out or approving a project. If the project is to be carried out by a nongovernmental person, the Lead Agency shall be the public agency with the greatest responsibility for supervising or approving the project as a whole. Where the department is Lead Agency, it will prepare the environmental documents for the project, either directly or by contract, except as otherwise provided by department regulations. In the event that the designation of Lead Agency is in dispute, the department and other public agencies should consult with each other to determine who is Lead Agency. Any disputes with another department within the Business and Transportation Agency shall be resolved by the Secretary. If the department cannot agree on Lead Agency with any other public agency, the State Office of Planning and Research will be the final arbiter to resolve the designation of Lead Agency.

"Ministerial Projects" includes activities defined as projects which are undertaken or approved by a decision which an agent of the department makes upon a given state of facts in a prescribed manner pursuant to a legal mandate. A ministerial decision involves only the use of fixed standards or objective measurements without personal judgment.

The following definitions shall have the same meaning as defined in Title 14, California Administrative Code, Chapter 3, Article 4, Sections 15020–15043: "Categorical exemption," "Emergency," "Environment," "Environmental documents," "Draft EIR," "Final EIR," "Environmental Impact Statement (EIS)," "Initial Study (IS)," "Negative Declaration (ND)," "Notice of Determination," "Notice of Exemption," "Notice of Preparation," "Project," "Responsible Agency," and "Significant effect on the environment."

2. Editorial correction filed 10–19–82 (Register 82, No. 43).

Article 3. Exempt Activities

§ 6960. General.

CEQA either does not apply to the following activities or they are exempt from CEQA and do not require an Initial Study, Negative Declaration or EIR.

(a) Activities which are not projects. See definition of "project."

(b) Projects with no significant environmental effect, i.e., where it can be seen with certainty that there is no possibility that the activity may have a significant effect on the environment.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of NOTE filed 5–5–82; designated effective 6–2–82 pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 19).

§ 6961. Statutory Exemptions.

The following projects are statutorily exempt from CEQA:

(a) Emergency Projects. A Notice of Exemption shall be filed for the following exempt activities:

(1) Projects undertaken, carried out, or approved by a public agency to maintain, repair, restore, demolish or replace property or facilities damaged or destroyed as a result of a disaster in a disaster stricken area in which a state of emergency has been proclaimed by the Governor.

(2) Emergency repairs to public service facilities necessary to maintain service.

(3) Specific actions necessary to prevent or mitigate an emergency.

(b) Feasibility and Planning Studies. Feasibility or planning studies for possible future actions which have not been approved, adopted, or funded. However, such studies must report on the possible environmental effects of the proposed action should it be taken, including consideration of less environmentally damaging alternatives.

(c) Ministerial Projects.

(1) Ministerial projects are, in general, those entitled to approval upon a simple determination of conformance with applicable statutes, ordinances, or regulations. With these projects the agency must act upon the given facts without regard to any judgment or opinion concerning the propriety or wisdom of the act.

(2) In the absence of any discretionary provision contained in the relevant local ordinance, it shall be presumed that the following actions are ministerial:

(A) Issuance of building permits.

(B) Issuance of business licenses.

(C) Approval of final subdivision maps.

(D) Approval of individual utility service connections and disconnections.

(3) Where a project involves an approval that contains elements of both a ministerial action and a discretionary action, the project will be deemed to be discretionary and will be subject to the requirements of CEQA.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of NOTE filed 5–5–82; designated effective 6–2–82 pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 19).

§ 6962. Categorical Exemptions.

The Guidelines establish classes of projects which have been determined not to have a significant effect on the environment and are therefore categorically exempt. Provided below are only those exempt classes from Article 8 of the State EIR Guidelines which might be relevant to departmental activities. All class exemptions are inapplicable when the cumulative impact of successive projects of the same type in the same place, over time is significant. Classes 3, 4, 5, 6, and 11 are not exempt if the project may impact on an environmental resource of hazardous or critical concern which is designated, precisely mapped and officially adopted pursuant to law by federal, state or local agencies. (Areas of concern include critical air basins and coastal zones.) A categorical exemption shall not be used where there is a reasonable possibility that the activity will have a significant effect due to unusual circumstances.

(a) Class 1: Existing Facilities. Class 1 consists of the operation, repair, maintenance or minor alteration of existing public or private structures, facilities, mechanical equipment, or topographical features, involving negligible or no expansion of use beyond that previously existing, including but not limited to:

(1) Interior or exterior alterations involving such things as interior partitions, plumbing, and electrical conveyances;

(2) Electrical, gas, sewerage, or other public utility facilities;

(3) Highways and streets, sidewalks, gutters, bicycle and pedestrian trails, and similar facilities;

(4) Restoration or rehabilitation of deteriorated or damaged structures, facilities or mechanical equipment to meet current standards of public health and safety, unless it is determined that the damage was substantial and resulted from an environmental hazard such as earthquake, landslide or flood;

(5) Additions to existing structures provided that the addition will not result in an increase of more than:

(A) 50 percent of the floor area of the structures before the addition of 2,500 square feet, whichever is less; or

(B) 10,000 square feet if:

1. The project is in an area where all public services and facilities are available to allow for maximum development permissible in the general plan and

2. The area in which the project is located is not environmentally sensitive.

(6) Addition of safety or health protection devices for use during construction of, or in conjunction with, existing structures, facilities or mechanical equipment, or topographical features.

(7) Division of existing multiple family rental units into condominiums or stock cooperatives;

(8) Unless the structures are of historical, archaeological or architectural significance, the demolition and removal of the following individual small structures:

(A) Single family residences not in conjunction with the demolition of two or more units;

(B) Motels, apartments, and duplexes designed for not more than four dwelling units if not in conjunction with the demolition of two or more such structures;

(C) Stores, offices, and restaurants if designed for an occupancy load of 20 persons or less, if not in conjunction with the demolition of two or more such structures;

(D) Accessory (appurtenant) structures including garages, carports, patios, swimming pools, and fences.

(9) Conversion of a single family residence to office use.

(b) Class 2: Replacement or Reconstruction. Class 2 consists of replacement or reconstruction of existing structures and facilities where the new structure will be located on the same site as the structure replaced and will have substantially the same purpose and capacity as the structure replaced, including the replacement or reconstruction of existing utility systems and/or facilities involving negligible or no expansion of capacity.

(c) Class 3: New Construction or Conversion of Small Structures. Class 3 consists of construction and location of limited numbers of new, small facilities or structures; installation of small new equipment and facilities in small structures; and the conversion of existing small structures from one use to another where only minor modifications are made in the exterior of the structure. The numbers of structures described in this section are the maximum allowable within a two year period. Examples of this exemption include but are not limited to:

(1) Single-family residences not in conjunction with the building of two or more such units. In urbanized areas, up to three single-family residences may be constructed under this exemption.

(2) Apartments, duplexes and similar structures, with not more than four dwelling units if not in conjunction with the building of two or more such structures. In urbanized areas, the exemption applies to single apartments, duplexes and similar small structures designed for not more than six dwelling units if not constructed in conjunction with the building of two or more such structures.

(3) Stores, motels, offices, restaurants and similar small commercial structures not involving the use of significant amounts of hazardous substances, if designed for an occupant load of 30 persons or less, if not constructed in conjunction with the building of two or more such structures. In urbanized areas, the exemption also applies to commercial buildings on sites zoned for such use, if designed for an occupant load of 30 persons or less, if not constructed in conjunction with the building of 4 or more such structures and if not involving the use of significant amount of hazardous substances.

(4) Water main, sewage, electrical, gas and other utility extensions of reasonable length to serve such construction;

(5) Accessory (appurtenant) structures including garages, carports, patios, swimming pools and fences.

(d) Class 5: Minor Alterations in Land Use Limitations. Class 5 consists of minor alterations in land use limitations in areas with less than a 20% slope, which do not result in any changes in land use or density, including but not limited to:

(1) Minor lot line adjustments, side yard and set back variances not resulting in the creation of any new parcel;

(2) Issuance of minor encroachment permits;

(3) Reversion to acreage in accordance with the Subdivision Map Act.

(e) Class 6: Information Collection. Class 6 consists of basic data collection, research, experimental management and resource evaluation activities which do not result in a serious or major disturbance to an environmental resource. These may be for strictly information gathering purposes or as part of a study leading to an action which a public agency has not yet approved, adopted or funded.

(f) Class 9: Inspections. Class 9 consists of activities limited entirely to inspection, to check for performance of an operation, or quality, health or safety of a project.

(g) Class 12: Surplus Government Property Sales. Class 12 consists of sales of surplus government property except for parcels of land located in an area of statewide interest or potential area of critical concern as identified in the Governor's Environmental Goals and Policy Report prepared pursuant to Government Code Sections 65041 et seq. However, if the surplus property to be sold is located in those areas identified in the Governor's Environmental Goals and Policy Report, its sales is exempt if:

(1) The property does not have significant value for wildlife habitat or other environmental purposes; and

(2) Any of the following conditions exist:

(A) The property is of such size or shape that it is incapable of independent development or use; or

(B) The property to be sold would qualify for an exemption under any other class or categorical exemption in the State EIR Guidelines; or

(C) The use of the property and adjacent property has not changed since the time of purchase by the public agency.

(h) Class 21: Enforcement Actions by Regulatory Agencies. Class 21 consists of actions by regulatory agencies to enforce or revoke a lease, permit, license, certificate, or other entitlement for use issued, adopted or prescribed by the regulatory agency. Such actions include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) The direct referral of a violation of a lease, permit, license, certificate, or entitlement for use or of a general rule, standard, or objective to the Attorney General, District Attorney, or City Attorney as appropriate, for judicial enforcement;

(2) The adoption of an administrative decision or order enforcing or revoking the lease, permit, license, certificate, or entitlement for use or enforcing the general rule, standard, or objective.

(i) Class 26: Acquisition of Housing for Housing Assistance Programs. Class 26 consists of actions by a redevelopment agency, housing authority, or other public agency to implement an adopted Housing Assistance Plan by acquiring an interest in housing units. The housing units may be either in existence or possessing all required permits for construction when the agency makes its final decision to acquire the units.

Article 4. Procedures for Compliance with CEQA

§ 6970. CEQA Responsibilities.

The Director of the department shall appoint a CEQA officer to be responsible for all of the functions in this article, except as otherwise noted. The person or committee approving any departmental activity which is a project under CEQA shall review and consider the environmental documents and make appropriate findings as specified in Section 6971 prior to approval of the project.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 21082, Public Resources Code. Reference: Title 14, CAC, Section 15050; and Section 21100, Public Resources Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of NOTE filed 5-5-82; designated effective 6-2-82 pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 19).

§ 6971. Procedure Where the Department Is Lead Agency.

(a) General. The department is the Lead Agency if it has the principal responsibility for carrying out or approving a project. (See Section 6950 for definition.) When acting as Lead Agency, the department shall incorporate environmental considerations at the earliest feasible stage in project planning. If the Department is acting as Lead Agency for a project for which it will issue a lease, license, or permit, it must determine whether the project will need an EIR or ND within 45 days after accepting application as complete; it must adopt an ND not more 105 days after such acceptance and an EIR in not more than one year. These time periods may be waived when the project is also subject to the requirements of NEPA and the conditions of Section 15054.2(b)(4) of the state EIR Guidelines are met.

(b) Initial Steps. The Department shall:

(1) Determine whether the activity is a project and if CEQA applies to the project. If it can be seen with certainty that there is no possibility that the activity may have a significant effect on the environment, the department may proceed without consideration of environmental requirements.

(2) Determine if the project is exempt as: a) an emergency project, b) a ministerial project, or c) a categorical exemption. If it is exempt, file a Notice of Exemption with the Secretary of Resources (Appendix C).

(3) Determine if project will clearly have a significant effect on the environment (See Section 6990). If so, no Initial Study is necessary; rather, proceed to EIR.

(c) Initial Study. In all other instances, the Department shall prepare an Initial Study (IS). (See Section 6995). The Department shall:

(1) Consult with all responsible agencies to determine whether a ND or an EIR is required. This may be done quickly and informally.

(2) If the IS demonstrates that the project may have a significant effect on the environment, or if mandatory findings of significance apply, proceed to an EIR. (See Section 6990 for "Determining Significant Effect" and Section 6991 for "Mandatory Findings of Significance.")

(3) If the IS demonstrates that there will be no significant effect on the environment, or if project has been or will be modified to eliminate significant effects, proceed to preparation of Negative Declaration.

(d) Negative Declaration. The Department shall:

(1) Consult informally with responsible agencies to insure that their concerns will be reflected in the ND. This may occur during the public review period, subsection (3) below.

(2) Prepare ND (see Section 6996 for contents).

(3) Provide for public review of Negative Declaration, including the following:

(A) Provide public notice of preparation of ND, including notice to all organizations and individuals who have previously requested notice and publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the area affected by the project;

(B) Keep copies available in the Department for public inspection;

(C) Hold public hearings if additional public input is desired. (Follow departmental notice and hearing procedures.)

(4) Provide for state agency review by submission to State Clearinghouse; allow 30 days minimum review period.

(5) Consider the ND and any comments received prior to approving or disapproving the ND.

(6) Prepare notice of determination (see Section 6997) and file with the Secretary of Resources.

(e) Preparation of draft EIR. The Department shall:

(1) Send Notice of Preparation to Responsible Agencies by certified mail and to the State Clearinghouse and any federal agencies involved in funding or approving the project.

(2) Consult with Responsible Agencies, interested organizations and individuals, persons with special expertise, and relevant federal agencies prior to commencement of preparation of the draft EIR.

(3) Where a federal EIS will also be required, determine if joint EIR/EIS is appropriate.

(4) Prepare draft EIR or contract for its preparation (see Section 6998 for contents).

(5) After completion of draft EIR, send draft EIR to State Clearinghouse with cover form (Appendix A).

(6) Obtain comments on draft EIR from public agencies having jurisdiction by law and consult with persons having special expertise.

(7) Provide for public review of draft EIR, including the following:

(A) Provide Notice of Completion of draft EIR to all organizations and individuals who have previously requested it.

(B) Provide Notice of Completion of draft EIR to the public through publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the area affected by the project.

(C) Submit draft EIR to State Clearinghouse for distribution and to areawide clearinghouses, regional and local agencies.

(D) Make copies of draft EIR's available to appropriate public library systems.

(E) Hold public hearings if additional public input is desired. (Follow department notice and hearing procedures.)

(8) Provide for state agency review of draft EIR by submission to State Clearinghouse; allow 45 days review period.

(9) Evaluate comments received on draft EIR.

(f) Preparation of final EIR. The Department shall:

(1) Prepare final EIR or contract for its preparation (see Section 6998) and mitigate any significant environmental effects where feasible.

(2) Consider the significant environmental effects identified in the EIR and approve the project only if such effects have been reduced to an acceptable level.

(3) Prepare Findings for Significant Environmental Effects. (See Section 6993.)

(4) Prepare Statement of Overriding Considerations where environmental effects cannot be mitigated and the Department decides to proceed with project. (See Section 6994.)

(5) Certify that the EIR complies with CEQA and State EIR Guidelines and that the information contained in the EIR has been reviewed and considered prior to project approval.

(6) File Notice of Determination with the Secretary of Resources (Appendix B).

(7) File final EIR with the appropriate planning agency of any city and/or county which will be affected by the project.

HISTORY

1. Editorial renumbering of subsection (d) to (e), subsection (e) to (f) and subsection (e)(6) to (f)(7) filed 5–5–82; designated effective 6–2–82 pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 19).

§ 6972. Assumption of Lead Agency Responsibilities.

The Department, acting as a Responsible Agency, must assume the responsibilities of Lead Agency when the following conditions occur: the Lead Agency fails to prepare an EIR, inadequately prepares an EIR without consulting the department, or a subsequent EIR is required and the statute of limitations for challenging the Lead Agency's action under CEQA has expired (see Section 15065.3 of State EIR Guidelines). The Department may charge and collect fees if it prepares an EIR or an ND for projects for which it is the Lead Agency but not the implementing agency.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of NOTE filed 5–5–82; designated effective 6–2–82 pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 19).

§ 6973. Procedure Where the Department Is a Responsible Agency.

(a) General. Where the Department is the responsible agency (see definition Section 6950), it must require any local agency that is the Lead Agency to prepare environmental documents and submit them with the request for project approval. The Department must ensure that the environmental documents that it uses in reviewing the project comply with CEQA. The Department shall encourage a Lead Agency to incorporate environmental considerations at the earliest feasible stage in project planning and remind it of its obligation to consult and respond to consultation prior to development of environmental documents. The Department shall explain its reasons for recommending whether an EIR or an ND should be prepared, including the identification of potential environmental effects.

(b) Procedure. The Department shall:

(1) Respond to a consultation request by the Lead Agency regarding whether to prepare a ND or an EIR.

(2) No later than 45 days after receiving a Notice of Preparation for an EIR, send a written reply by certified mail or another method that will provide a record of receipt, specifying the scope and content of environmental information germane to its responsibilities.

(3) Review and comment on draft EIR's and Negative Declarations for projects which it would later be asked to approve.

(4) In those instances in which it believes that the EIR or ND is inadequate and the Lead Agency does not concur with this assessment, the Department must take the issue to court within 30 days after Notice of Determination was filed, prepare a subsequent EIR (if permissible under Section 15067 of the State EIR Guidelines) or be deemed to waive objections to the document's adequacy.

(5) Consider environmental effect of the project as shown in EIR or ND prior to reaching a decision on project. The Department shall not approve a project as proposed if there is any feasible alternative or mitigation measure within its powers that would substantially lessen any significant effect the project would have on the environment.

(6) Prepare Findings for Significant Environmental Effects (see Section 6993).

(7) Prepare Statement of Overriding Considerations (Section 6984) where environmental effects cannot be mitigated and the Department decides to approve the project (see Section 6994).

(8) File a Notice of Determination with the Secretary of Resources for those projects which the Department determines to approve or carry out (Appendix B).

§ 6974. Procedure for Federal Projects.

General. When the Department officially comments on a proposed federal project which may have a significant effect on the environment, the comments shall include description of Environmental Impact (see Section 6998).

1. Amendment of NOTE filed 5–5–82; designated effective 6–2–82 pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 19).

Article 5. Application to Developmental Activities

§ 6980. Exemption for Financial Assistance.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b), CEQA shall not apply to actions taken by the Department to provide financial assistance for the development and construction of residential housing for persons and families of low or moderate income, as defined in Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code. The Department shall be exempt from CEQA for activities relating to reviewing and acting upon applications and disbursing funds for such financial assistance for land banking and acquisition, predevelopment expenses, project design, housing construction costs, financing, and any other expenses related to the development and construction of such housing. This exemption applies only to actions taken by the Department of Housing and Community Development, and shall not relieve any other public agency, when applying for such financial assistance from the Department, from its responsibility to comply with the provisions of CEQA.

(b) The provisions of CEQA shall apply to actions taken by the Department to provide loans and grants pursuant to its programs if the project which is the subject of the application for financial assistance will not be subject to environmental review pursuant to CEQA by another public agency and if the project is not otherwise exempt from CEQA review by the Department. The Department shall become Lead Agency and take responsibility for preparation of environmental documents only when no other public agency must prepare such documents prior to construction of the housing.

History

1. Renumbering of Section 6980 to Section 6981 and new Section 6980 filed 5–5–82; designated effective 6–2–82 pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 19).

§ 6981. Division of Research and Policy Development.

(a) The following activities are not projects:

(1) Study and evaluation of housing market conditions, the housing industry, public and private housing programs, etc.

(2) Training

(3) Technical assistance

(4) Public Information and service

(5) Review of activities, applications, etc., where HCD is not the funding agency

(6) Legislative analyses and proposals.

(b) The following activities are statutorily–exempt from CEQA:

(1) Feasibility and planning studies for possible future actions which have not been approved, adopted or funded. This includes the Statewide Housing Plan prior to adoption by the Legislature. Such studies should give consideration to environmental effects.

(c) The following activities are categorically exempt from CEQA:

(1) Data collection and research.

History

1. Renumbering of Section 6981 to Section 6982 and renumbering of former Section 6980 to Section 6981 filed 5–5–82; designated effective 6–2–82 pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 19).

§ 6982. Division of Community Affairs.

(a) The following activities are not projects:

(1) Program monitoring and evaluation,

(2) Training,

(3) Technical assistance, including loan packaging assistance,

(4) Inventory of surplus lands,

(5) The Low–Income Home Management Training Program,

(6) Housing Assistance for the Disabled and Elderly,

(7) The Rural/Land Purchase Program,

(8) California Housing Advisory Service,

(9) Loans under the Homeownership Assistance Program involving financial assistance to purchasers of shares in existing mobilehome cooperative units.

(b) The following activities are statutorily–exempt from CEQA:

(1) Loans and grants related to disasters and emergency assistance.

(2) Loans and grants for feasibility and planning studies for possible future actions that have not been approved, funded, or adopted. Such studies include grants and loans made through Division of Community Affairs programs including, e.g., (i) the Comprehensive Planning Assistance Grant Program, and (ii) feasibility studies for the repair or replacement of existing water and sewer facilities pursuant to the Remote Rural Development Program.

(3) Loans and grants for the construction of housing or neighborhood facilities in an urbanized area after considering an EIR previously prepared for a specific plan or a local coastal program if the requirements of Title 14, Section 15068.6 of the State CEQA Guidelines are met.

(c) The following activities are categorically exempt from CEQA:

(1) Loans and grants for rehabilitation of deteriorated or damaged housing, minor additions to existing housing and repair and minor alteration of existing infrastructure (Class 1) including, such activities funded under the Deferred Rehabilitation Loan Program, Demonstration Housing Program, Indian Assistance Program, Remote Rural Demonstration Program, Migrant Services Program, Housing Predevelopment Loan Fund, and the Farmworker Housing Grant Program.

(2) Loans and grants for replacement or reconstruction of existing structures and facilities, including utilities (Class 2) e.g., Solar Loan Fund, Migrant Services Program.

(3) Loans and grants for new construction of limited numbers of single–family residences, and apartments, duplexes and similar structures and new construction of utility extensions of reasonable length to serve such construction, and accessory structures as described in Title 14, Section 15103 of the State CEQA Guidelines (Class 3), including, e.g., Housing Predevelopment Loan Fund, Rental Housing Construction Program, Homeownership Assistance Program, Migrant Services Program, and Farmworker Housing Grant Program.

(4) Loans for the purchase of existing structures where the loan will not be purchased by financial institutions (Class 10), including, e.g., Homeownership Assistance Program.

(5) Loans and grants to public agencies (including housing authorities, redevelopment agencies) to acquire housing units, either already existing or with all permit approvals for construction, in order to implement a Housing Assistance Plan (Class 26).

A notice of exemption must be filed for all categorically exempt activities.

(d) The following activities require preparation of environmental documents unless they are exempt under Section 6980(a) or the provisions above:

(1) Farmworker Housing Grant Program for new construction only.

(2) Housing Predevelopment Loan Fund (urban and rural), for new construction only.

(3) Remote Rural Demonstration Project, for new construction only.

(4) Rental Housing Construction Program.

(5) Homeownership Assistance Program.

(6) Indian Assistance Program, for new construction only.

(7) Century Freeway Replacement Housing Program.

The Department's CEQA responsibilities for programs within the Division of Community Affairs will depend on whether it is the Lead Agency or the Responsible Agency. If another public agency has the greatest responsibility for carrying out or approving the project, (e.g., is the recipient of a grant from HCD) it is the Lead Agency and must prepare environmental documents. In such case, HCD will have the obligations of a Responsible Agency. Where a private entity is the recipient of a loan or grant from HCD to perform one of the above activities and a local public agency does not have the primary responsibility for approving the project, HCD is Lead Agency and must prepare environmental documents unless another public agency (e.g., CHFA) has a greater responsibility for carrying out the project.

HISTORY

1. Renumbering of Section 6982 to Section 6983 and renumbering and amendment of former Section 6981 to Section 6982 filed 5–5–82; designated effective 6–2–82 pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 19).

§ 6983. Division of Codes and Standards.

(a) The following activities are not projects:

(1) Employee housing operating permits.

(2) Mobilehome park operating permits.

(3) Mobilehome titling and registration.

(4) Mobilehome occupational licensing.

(b) The following activities are ministerial and do not require preparation of environmental documents:

(1) Employee housing construction permits.

(2) Mobilehome park construction permits.

(c) The following activities are categorically exempt:

(1) Inspections, including inspections of factory–built housing, employee housing, mobilehomes, recreational vehicles, and commercial coaches (Class 9).

(d) Adoption of or amendments to the State Housing Law and Earthquake Regulations which may result in significant adverse effects upon the environment, shall require preparation of environmental documents. The Department shall be the Lead Agency with respect to adoption of or amendments to these regulations. Local Agencies shall be responsible agencies when adopting the statewide regulations which have been previously adopted by the Department. Before adopting the statewide regulations, local agencies shall consider the environmental documents, if any, prepared by the Department as required by the State CEQA Guidelines. Local agencies shall conduct an additional environmental analysis, pursuant to Title 14, CAC, Section 15067 of the State CEQA Guidelines, when making any additional local changes to the statewide regulations.

HISTORY

1. Renumbering and amendment of Section 6982 to Section 6983 filed 5–5–82; designated effective 6–2–82 pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 19).

Article 6. Criteria for Decision–Making and Findings

§ 6990. Determining Significant Effect.

(See Section 6950 for Definition.)

(a) The determination of whether a project may have a significant effect on the environment calls for careful judgment based on available data. An ironclad definition of "significant effect" is not possible because the significance of an activity may vary with the setting. For example, an activity which may not be significant in an urban area may be significant in a rural area. Where there is, or there is anticipated to be, a substantial body of opinion that considers the effect to be adverse, the Lead Agency should prepare an EIR to explore the environmental effects involved.

(b) In evaluating the significance of the environmental effect of a project, the Lead Agency shall consider both primary or direct and secondary or indirect consequences. Primary consequences are immediately related to the project (the construction of a new treatment plant may facilitate population growth in a particular area), while secondary consequences are related more to primary consequences than to the project itself (an impact upon the resource base, including land, air, water and energy use of the area in question may result from the population growth).

(c) Some examples of consequences which may be deemed to be a significant effect on the environment are contained in Appendix E.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 21082, Public Resources Code. Reference: Title 14, CAC, Section 15050; and Section 21068, Public Resources Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of NOTE filed 5–5–82; designated effective 6–2–82 pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 19).

§ 6991. Mandatory Findings of Significance.

A project shall be found to have a significant effect on the environment if:

(a) The project has the potential to degrade the quality of the environment, threaten to eliminate a plant or animal community, reduce the number of a rare or endangered plant or animal or eliminate important examples of the major periods of California history or prehistory.

(b) The project has the potential to achieve short–term environmental goals to the disadvantage of long–term environmental goals.

(c) The project has possible environmental effects which are individually limited but cumulatively considerable. As used in this subsection, "cumulatively considerable" means that the incremental effects of an individual project are considerable when viewed in connection with the effects of past projects, the effects of other current projects, and the effects of probable future projects.

(d) The environmental effects of a project will cause substantial adverse effects on human beings, either directly or indirectly.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 21082, Public Resources Code. Reference: Title 14, CAC, Section 15050; and Section 21068, Public Resources Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of NOTE filed 5–5–82; designated effective 6–2–82 pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 19).

§ 6992. Decision to Prepare an EIR.

(a) An EIR must be prepared if an Initial Study establishes that the project may have a significant effect on the environment.

(b) An EIR shall be prepared whenever it can be fairly argued on the basis of substantial evidence that the project may have a significant effect on the environment.

(c) An EIR shall be prepared when there is serious public controversy concerning the environmental effect of a project. Controversy not related to an environmental issue does not require the preparation of an EIR.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 21082, Public Resources Code. Reference: Title 14, CAC, Section 15050; Section 21100, Public Resources Code; and No Oil, Inc. v. City of Los Angeles, 1974 13 Cal.3d 68.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsections (b) and (c) filed 5–5–82; designated effective 6–2–82 pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 19).

§ 6993. Findings of Significant Environmental Effects.

(a) The Department shall not approve or carry out a project for which an environmental impact report has been completed which identifies one or more significant effects of the project unless it makes one or more of the following written findings for each of those significant effects, accompanied by a statement of the facts supporting each finding.

(1) Changes or alterations have been required in, or incorporated into, the project which mitigate or avoid the significant environmental effects thereof as identified in the final EIR.

(2) Such changes or alterations are within the responsibility and jurisdiction of another public agency and not the Department. Such changes have been adopted by such other agency or can and should be adopted by such other agency.

(3) Specific economic, social, or other considerations make infeasible the mitigation measures or project alternatives identified in the final EIR.

(b) The findings required by subsection (a) shall be supported by substantial evidence in the record.

(c) The finding in subsection (a) (2) shall not be made if the agency making the finding has concurrent jurisdiction with another agency to deal with identified mitigation measures or alternatives.

(d) A public agency shall not approve or carry out a project as proposed unless the significant environmental effects have been reduced to an acceptable level.

(e) As used in this section, the term "acceptable level" means that all significant environmental effects that can feasibly be avoided have been eliminated or substantially lessened as determined through findings as described in subsection (a), and any remaining, unavoidable significant effects have been found acceptable under Section 6994.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 21082, Public Resources Code. Reference: Title 14, Section 15050; and Section 21100, Public Resources Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of NOTE filed 5–5–82; designated effective 6–2–82 pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 19).

§ 6994. Statement of Overriding Considerations.

The benefits of a proposed project must be weighed against its unavoidable environmental effects in determining whether to approve it. Where the department allows the occurrence of significant environmental effects which are identified in the final EIR but are not mitigated, it must state in writing the reasons to support its action based on the final EIR and/or other information in the record. The Statement shall be included in the record of the project approval and mentioned in the Notice of Determination.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 5–5–82; designated effective 6–2–82 pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 19).

Article 7. Contents of Environmental Documents

§ 6995. Initial Study (IS).

(a) An IS is prepared for a project not exempt from CEQA to determine if it may have a significant effect on the environment and therefore that an EIR is required. It provides a factual basis for the finding in a Negative Declaration and enables the Lead Agency to modify the project, mitigating adverse impacts, before an EIR is written. The IS can also help to focus an EIR on the significant effects of a project. All phases of project planning, implementation and operation must be considered in the IS.

(b) Contents of an IS shall include:

(1) Description of project including location.

(2) Identification of environmental setting.

(3) Identification of environmental effects (use check list, Appendix F).

(4) Discussion of ways to mitigate significant effect identified.

(5) Examination of whether project is compatible with existing zoning and plans.

(6) Name of person(s) who prepared IS.

(Forms F and G meet the requirements above for an Initial Study.)

(c) If the project is to be carried out privately, the Department shall require the person or organization to submit appropriate data and information.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 21082, Public Resources Code. Reference: Title 14, CAC, Section 15050; and Section 21100, Public Resources Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (c) filed 5–5–82; designated effective 6–2–82 pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 19).

§ 6996. Negative Declaration.

(a) A Negative Declaration shall be prepared for a project which could have a potentially significant effect on the environment, but which the Lead Agency finds on the basis of an Initial Study will not have a significant effect on the environment.

(b) Contents of a Negative Declaration shall include:

(1) A brief description of the project, including a commonly used name for the project, if any.

(2) The location of the project and the name of the project proponent.

(3) A finding that the project will not have a significant effect on the environment.

(4) An attached copy of the Initial Study documenting reasons to support the finding.

(5) Mitigation measures, if any, included in the project to avoid potentially significant effects.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 21082, Public Resources Code. Reference: Title 14, CAC, Section 15050; and Section 21080(c), Public Resources Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of NOTE filed 5–5–82; designated effective 6–2–82 pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 19).

§ 6997. Notice of Determination.

(a) After making a decision to carry out or approve a project for which a Negative Declaration has been prepared, the Lead Agency shall file a Notice of Determination (see Appendix B).

(b) Contents of a Notice of Determination shall include:

(1) An identification of the project including name and location.

(2) A brief description of the project.

(3) The date on which the agency approved the project.

(4) The determination of the agency that the project will not have a significant effect on the environment.

(5) A statement that a Negative Declaration has been prepared pursuant to the provisions of CEQA.

(6) The address where a copy of the ND may be examined.

(c) HCD shall file the Notice of Determination with the Secretary of Resources.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 21082, Public Resources Code. Reference: Title 14, CAC, Section 15050; and Section 21108, Public Resources Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of NOTE filed 5–5–82; designated effective 6–2–82 pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 19).

§ 6998. Environmental Impact Report.

(a) Decision to prepare an EIR (see Section 6992).

(b) General. (See Article 9, State EIR Guidelines.) The EIR shall discuss environmental effects in proportion to their severity and probability of occurrence. A systematic inter–disciplinary approach should be applied. Each report shall contain a brief summary of the proposed actions and its consequences in language sufficiently simple that the issues can be understood by a layperson.

(c) Form. Not more than one EIR shall be prepared in connection with the same underlying activity. The EIR may be prepared as a separate document or as a portion of a project report. If prepared in the latter form, it must contain in one separate and distinguishable section the elements required of an EIR in subdivision (d). A single EIR may be used to describe more than one project, if such projects are essentially the same in terms of environmental impact. Further, the Lead Agency may use an earlier EIR prepared in connection with an earlier project to apply to a later project, if the circumstances of the projects are essentially the same.

(d) Contents. The following elements, which are considered in detail in Article 9 in the State EIR Guidelines, must be included in an EIR:

(1) Description of project

(2) Description of environmental setting

(3) Environmental impact

(A) The significant environmental effects of the proposed project

(B) Any significant environmental effects which cannot be avoided if the proposal is implemented

(C) Mitigation measures proposed to minimize the significant effects

(D) Alternatives to the proposed action

(E) The relationship between local short–term uses of man's environment and the maintenance and enhancement of long–term productivity

(F) Any significant environmental changes which would be involved in the proposed action should it be implemented

(G) The growth–inducing impact of the proposed action

(4) Effects found not to be significant

(5) Organizations and persons consulted.

Chapter 7. Department of Housing and Community Development Programs

Subchapter 1. Predevelopment Loan Funds

§ 7000. General.

These regulations set forth the policies and procedures governing the management and use of the Predevelopment Loan Fund governed by Sections 50530–50532.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50402 and 50406(n), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50530, 50530.5, 50531 and 50532, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. New Chapter 7, Subchapter 1 (Sections 7000–7018, not consecutive) filed 5–6–77 as an emergency; effective upon filing. Certificate of Compliance included (Register 77, No. 19).
2. Amendment filed 6–19–80; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 80, No. 25).
3. Amendment filed 1–5–82; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 82, No. 2).
4. Amendment filed 8–13–85; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 85, No. 33).
5. Amendment of section and NOTE filed 9–19–2003; operative 10–19–2003 (Register 2003, No. 38).

§ 7002. Definitions.

"Applicant" means an entity that has applied for a loan from the Fund.

"Assisted Housing" means housing for which financial assistance is provided through one or more programs designed to reduce housing costs for persons and families of low and moderate income. This assistance may include, but is not limited to, below–market interest loans, grants, rent supplements, development costs subsidies, interest subsidies, below–market priced land, grants of land, or density bonuses. Such housing may include Manufactured Housing and Mobilehome Parks, but does not include emergency shelters for the homeless.

"At–risk Housing" means existing government–assisted rental housing at risk of conversion to market–rate rents, due to factors that may include, but are not limited to, costs of necessary rehabilitation, or a modification or termination of subsidies.

"Borrower" means an "Eligible Sponsor" that has received approval for a Predevelopment Loan from the Fund.

"Construction Financing" means a short–term loan made for financing the construction or rehabilitation of a housing development.

"Cooperative Housing Corporation" is defined in Section 50091 of the Health and Safety Code.

"Department" means the California Department of Housing and Community Development.

"Director" means the Director of the Department, or his or her designee.

"Eligible Sponsors" is defined in Health and Safety Code Section 50530.

"Fund" means the Predevelopment Loan Fund.

"Limited Liability Corporation" includes a "Limited Liability Company" as defined in Section 17000 et seq. of the Corporations Code.

"Loan Agreement" means a signed contract between the borrower and the department for a predevelopment loan with all the terms and conditions as determined by the Department.

"Local Governmental Agency" means any county, city, city and county, the duly constituted governing body of an Indian reservation or rancheria, redevelopment agency or public housing authority, and also includes any state agency, public district or other political subdivision of the state, and any instrumentality thereof, which is authorized to engage in or assist in the development or operation of housing for persons and families of low income. It also includes two or more local public entities acting jointly.

"Low–Income Person" shall have the same meaning as "Lower Income Households" as defined in Section 6928 of this Part.

"Manufactured Housing" means a manufactured home, as defined in Section 18007 of the Health and Safety Code, and includes a mobilehome, as defined by Section 18008 of the Health and Safety Code, or factory–built housing as defined in Section 19971 of the Health and Safety Code.

"Mobilehome Park" is defined by Section 18214 of the Health and Safety Code.

"Nonprofit Corporation" is defined in Section 50091 of the Health and Safety Code.

"Permanent Financing" means a long–term loan which is secured by a deed of trust.

"Persons of Low Income" shall have the same meaning as "Lower Income Households" as defined by Section 6928 of this Part.

"Persons of Very Low Income" shall have the same meaning as "Very Low Income Households" as defined by Section 6926 of this Part.

"Predevelopment Loan" is defined in Health and Safety Code Section 50530.

"Public Transit Corridor" is defined in Health and Safety Code Section 50093.5.

"Preservation" in this subchapter means the acquisition of At–Risk Housing, its rehabilitation if needed, and its continued operation as Assisted Housing.

"Rural Area" is defined in Section 50199.21 of the Health and Safety Code.

"Urban Area" is defined in Section 50104.7 of the Health and Safety Code.

"Very Low Income Person" shall have the same meaning as "Very Low Income Households" as defined by Section 6926 of this Part.

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50402 and 50406, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 18007, 18008, 18214, 50055, 50091, 50093.5, 50105, 50199.21, 50530, 50530.5, 50531 and 50532.5, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 4–7–78; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 78, No. 14).
2. Amendment of subsection (l) filed 6–19–80; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 80, No. 25).
3. Amendment filed 1–5–82; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 82, No. 2).
4. Amendment filed 10–4–84; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 84, No. 40).
5. Amendment filed 8–13–85; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 85, No. 33).
6. Amendment of section and NOTE filed 9–19–2003; operative 10–19–2003 (Register 2003, No. 38).
7. Repealer of definitions of "Emergency Loan Amendment" and "Loan Committee" filed 11–1–2004; operative 12–1–2004 (Register 2004, No. 45).

§ 7003. Sponsor Eligibility.

(a) Eligible Sponsors for Predevelopment Loans are:

(1) Local Government Agencies;

(2) Nonprofit Corporations;

(3) Cooperative Housing Corporations; or

(4) Limited Liability Corporations or limited partnerships where all of the general partners are nonprofit mutual or public benefit corporations.

(b) Predevelopment Loans may be made only to Eligible Sponsors who meets the following standards:

(1) Adequate administrative capacity to implement the loans;

(2) Substantial housing development experience or substantial experience in development and administration of other types of public or nonprofit programs; and

(3) If the Eligible Sponsor has received any other loans or grants from the Department, a good record of performance under those loan or grant agreements.

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50402 and 50406(n), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50530, 50530.5, 50531 and 50532, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 9–19–2003; operative 10–19–2003 (Register 2003, No. 38).

§ 7004. Project Eligibility.

(a) Eligible Sponsors must have site control of the proposed project property by one of the following means, in the name of the Eligible Sponsor or an entity controlled by the Eligible Sponsor:

(1) Fee title.

(2) A leasehold interest on the project property with provisions that enable the Eligible Sponsor to make improvements on and encumber the property, provided that the terms and conditions of any proposed lease shall permit compliance with all Predevelopment Loan requirements.

(3) An enforceable option to purchase or lease which shall extend, or may be extended, for a minimum of 3 months beyond the deadline for application submittal. The Department may accept options of less than 3 months if the Eligible Sponsor provides evidence satisfactory to the Department that it has sufficient committed financing to acquire the property prior to expiration of the option.

(4) A disposition and development agreement with a public agency.

(5) An agreement with a public agency that gives the Eligible Sponsor exclusive rights to negotiate with that agency for acquisition of the site, provided that the major terms of the acquisition have been agreed to by both parties; or

(6) A land sales contract, or other enforceable agreement for the acquisition of the property.

(b) Housing assisted by the Predevelopment Loan Fund must be Assisted Housing at least 51% of which is designated to be occupied by Persons of Low Income and affordable to such persons in accordance with Section 6910 et seq. of this Division.

(c) No Predevelopment Loan may be made unless the Department may reasonably anticipate that a commitment can be obtained by the Eligible Sponsor for Construction Financing or Permanent Financing that will permit occupancy by Persons of Low Income.

(d) In making Predevelopment Loans, the Department may consider, but need not be limited to, the following factors:

(1) The past achievements of the Applicant or the relevant experience of the Applicant's board or consultant;

(2) The general availability of public financing for the Assisted Housing;

(3) The need for the Assisted Housing;

(4) The proposed cost of the land and the Assisted Housing;

(5) The number of units assisted by the Predevelopment Loan in relation to the loan amount;

(6) Whether the Assisted Housing will incorporate innovative or energy efficient design and techniques which promote affordable development costs and/or operating expenses;

(7) The number or percentage of units in the Assisted Housing that will be occupied by Very Low Income Persons;

(8) Whether the Assisted Housing will be located within one quarter-mile of schools, major employment centers, medical facilities, grocery stores, pharmacies, parks, and/or police and fire stations,

(9) If the Applicant is a Local Government Agency, the degree to which the city or county in which the Assisted Housing is located has complied with State Housing Element Law (Government Code Section 65580 et. seq.), in accordance with evaluation criteria established by the Department. Failure of the Applicant to comply with State Housing Element Law may be grounds for disapproving a Predevelopment Loan application.

(e) To the extent feasible, the Department shall ensure a reasonable geographic distribution of the funds. Other things being equal, the Department shall give priority to assisting developments that meet either of the following requirements:

(1) The developments will be located in Public Transit Corridors.

(2) The developments will be used for the Preservation and acquisition of existing government-assisted rental housing at risk of conversion to market-rate use. Within this category, the Department shall give priority to those applications that include matching financing from local redevelopment agencies or federal programs.

(f) The Department shall, in each Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA) issued for the program, set a minimum funding target for Rural Areas based on the lesser of:

(1) Historical level of awards made under the Rural Predevelopment Loan Program (PDLP-R), or

(2) Twenty percent (20%) of available funds at the time of NOFA issuance.

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50402 and 50406(n), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50530, 50530.5, 50531 and 50532, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 4-7-78; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 78, No. 14).
2. Amendment filed 1-5-82; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 82, No. 2).
3. Amendment filed 8-13-85; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 85, No. 33).
4. Repealer and new section filed 9-19-2003; operative 10-19-2003 (Register 2003, No. 38).

§ 7005. Uses of Funds.

(a) Predevelopment Loans may be made for required expenses which are incurred in the process of, and prior to, securing Construction or Permanent Financing for production, conversion, Preservation or rehabilitation of Assisted Housing, including Mobilehome Parks, which are recoverable from Construction or Permanent Financing once it is obtained. Loans may be made for purposes that include, but are not limited to:

(1) Costs associated with the purchase of land, including existing structures such as mobilehome parks; options to buy land or existing structures; and extensions of the time periods of options to buy land or existing structures.

(2) Fees for professional services, including but not limited to:

(A) Consultant fees;

(B) Architectural fees for reasonable architectural costs in connection with the preparation of an application for Construction or Permanent Financing;

(C) Engineering fees connected with the preparation of an application for Construction or Permanent Financing;

(D) Legal fees incurred in connection with the preparation of an application for Construction or Permanent Financing, obtaining local government approvals, site purchase, a loan closing, or for representation in litigation affecting a Predevelopment Loan Program-assisted project.

(3) Permit or application fees;

(4) Bonding fees;

(5) Costs of site preparation, related water or sewer development, or on-site material expenses;

(6) Repayment of a predevelopment loan obtained from another source and utilized by the Applicant in connection with the proposed housing development;

(7) Escrow deposits; and

(8) Other expenses recoverable from the Construction or Permanent Financing.

(b) Land purchased partially with Predevelopment Loan funds may be used for purposes other than Assisted Housing, for example, the development of non-Assisted Housing or commercial or agricultural uses. In such cases, the amount of the Predevelopment Loan may not exceed the cost for authorized purposes attributable to that portion of the land which will be used for Assisted Housing for Persons of Low Income.

(c) The Department may make Predevelopment Loans for land purchase to Eligible Sponsors even if the Eligible Sponsor is not able at the time the Predevelopment Loan is made to proceed with the development of Assisted Housing on the purchased site.

(d) The Department may make Predevelopment Loans for the development of Mobilehome Parks and Manufactured Housing subdivisions.

(e) Predevelopment Loans may not be made for Construction Financing or for the administrative expenses of the Applicant.

(f) The following limitations on eligible expenses shall apply:

(1) No more than 20% of the total monies appropriated to the Fund, or a lower limit which the Department may set in a Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA), shall be committed to any single Borrower at any time. If the Applicant is a Limited Liability Corporation or limited partnership, all Predevelopment Loan commitments to the general partner or general partners shall be counted when determining whether this limit has been reached.

(2) The aggregate amount loaned for purposes other than for an option to purchase land or existing structures, the purchase of real property or existing structures, or physical site development shall not exceed $100,000.

(3) The amount loaned for the purchase or refinance of real property shall not exceed its fair market value. Fair market value shall be determined by an appraisal based on comparable sales or by any other appraisal method or evidence of value approved by the Department. The Borrower shall pay the cost of an appraisal, but the cost may be financed through a Predevelopment Loan.

(4) Predevelopment Loans or special account disbursements for purchase option payments, purchase option extensions or escrow deposits shall not exceed 10% of the purchase price.

(5) Except for loans for option payments or escrow deposits of $1,000 or less, the option or escrow agreement shall provide for the return of the option Payment or escrow deposit if:

(A) The seller is unable to deliver clear title to the land or is unable to convey the land for any other reason, or

(B) The purchase price exceeds fair market value.

(6) If the Predevelopment Loan for an option payment or escrow deposit exceeds $15,000, the option or escrow agreement shall provide for the return of the payment or deposit if a Construction or Permanent Financing commitment cannot be obtained.

(7) Options and escrow agreements shall be assigned to the Department as security.

(8) Predevelopment Loans may be made for land purchase only if the Department finds that development of the site for affordable housing is feasible.

(9) Predevelopment Loans for engineering fees shall not exceed 50% of a housing development's total engineering costs or $10,000, whichever is greater. The Department may increase this limit if the housing development includes the construction of water and sewer lines or facilities. Disbursement of engineering fees shall be staged in accordance with the completion of engineering work.

(10) Disbursement of architectural fees shall be staged in accordance with the completion of architectural work.

(11) Predevelopment Loans for legal fees shall not exceed $5,000. Loan funds shall not be disbursed unless the legal fees are itemized. Predevelopment Loans shall not be made for legal fees incurred in the formation of Eligible Sponsors.

(12) Predevelopment Loans for consultant fees shall not exceed 1% of the housing project's development costs, and shall only be made if the tasks of the consultant are enumerated in an agreement between the Applicant and the consultant which is approved by the Department. Payments to a consultant shall be staged in accordance with the completion of various tasks.

(13) Predevelopment Loans for bonding, permits, deposits and application fees may be made to the extent that there is a need to pay for such fees prior to obtaining Construction or Permanent Financing.

(14) Predevelopment Loans for site preparation, on-site material expenses and related water or sewer development may be made only if the Applicant has made a reasonable effort to obtain funds for these purposes from alternative sources.

(15) Limitations on other loan purposes pursuant to subdivision (a)(8) of this section may be established by the Director. The Director may waive any requirement of this section not otherwise required by law if it is determined that the waiver would not adversely affect the purposes of the Fund or that the requirement would impose an intolerable burden on the Borrower.

6. Amendment of subsection (f)(15) filed 11-1-2004; operative 12-1-2004 (Register 2004, No. 45).

§ 7006. Rates and Terms.

(a) Interest. The interest rate for Predevelopment Loans is 3%. Interest will be charged only on funds actually advanced to, or on behalf of, the Borrower.

(b) Reduced Interest. The interest rate for loans may be reduced or eliminated prior to repayment of the loan if the Director makes a finding that charging it would prevent a significant number of Persons of Very Low Income from owning or occupying new or rehabilitated Assisted Housing.

(1) To obtain a reduction or elimination of the current interest rate, the Borrower shall expressly so request and submit written evidence which demonstrates the necessity of the reduction or elimination of the interest rate.

(2) On the basis of the written evidence submitted, the Department shall determine the appropriate interest rate, if any, to be charged on the loan.

(3) For all loans for which no interest is to be charged, an amount not to exceed 2% of the loan amount shall be charged as a loan origination fee, which may be:

(A) Paid in cash by the borrower at the time of loan closing; or

(B) Added to the approved loan amount and be payable at the time of loan repayment.

(c) Term. Predevelopment Loans may be made for a term of up to two years. Existing loans may be extended at the discretion of the Director.

2. Amendment of subsections (a) and (c) filed 1-5-82; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 82, No. 2).
3. Amendment of subsections (a) and (b) filed 10-4-84; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 84, No. 40).
4. Amendment filed 8-13-85; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 85, No. 33).
5. Amendment of section and NOTE filed 9-19-2003; operative 10-19-2003 (Register 2003, No. 38).
6. Amendment of subsections (b) and (c) filed 11-1-2004; operative 12-1-2004 (Register 2004, No. 45).

§ 7008. Special Conditions.

(a) Loan Documents. Before the Department disburses funds to any Borrower, the Borrower will be required to submit to the Department the following executed documents which will have been prepared by the Department or at its direction:

(1) A borrowing resolution.

(2) A Loan Agreement.

(3) A promissory note.

(4) Security instrument(s).

(5) Any other documents necessary to complete the transaction which are required by the Department. Additional documents may include, but not be limited to, a policy of titles insurance, preliminary title report, appraisal, and environmental reports.

(b) Loan Disbursements. Loan funds will be disbursed to, or on the behalf of, the borrower as the need for funds arises. Borrowers must request disbursements in writing from the Department. Disbursement requests must be supported by evidence of an obligation that is due or is about to become due.

(c) Non-Discrimination and Affirmative Action. Borrowers must agree to adopt and implement all current contract requirements of HCD and the Department of General Services for the Loan Agreement, which may cover all aspects of the construction, marketing, and management of the housing developed with the assistance of the Fund.

(d) Local, State or Federal Requirements. Borrowers will be required to abide by such local, state or federal regulations as are applicable to the proposed housing developments. These may include but are not limited to: zoning ordinances; building codes; planning; historic preservation; environmental and relocation regulations; and Article XXXIV of the California Constitution.

(e) Relocation. If the housing development financed with loan funds will result in the temporary or permanent displacement of one or more persons from their residences, the Borrower shall submit a relocation plan to the Department prior to disbursement of loan funds. Such plan shall adequately respond to the needs of displacees, as determined by the Department.

(f) Security. Each loan will be secured in a manner that adequately protects the interests of the Department. Security may include but is not limited to:

(1) Deeds of trust or other liens on real property;

(2) Assignments of options or escrow agreements;

(3) Liens on personal property; or

(4) A deed of trust or other lien on a leasehold interest in Indian trust land.

(g) Reports. Borrowers are required to provide the Department with reports on the progress of housing developments and the purposes for which the loan funds have been used. Reports must be submitted monthly.

2. Repealer filed 9-19-2003; operative 10-19-2003 (Register 2003, No. 38).

§ 7012. Processing Applications.

(a) Requests for loans must be made to the Department on its Predevelopment Loan Fund Application Form. Applications may be obtained from the Program Manager of the Predevelopment Loan Funds at P.O. Box 952054, MS 390-5, Sacramento, CA 94252-2054.

(b) Applications for loan funds will be reviewed by the Predevelopment Loan staff of the Department.

(c) Completed applications will be submitted for approval or disapproval to the Department.

(d) Applicants will be notified in writing of the Department's action, including any conditions which the Director has placed on the loan. If the loan is rejected, the written notice will include the reasons for the rejection.

(e) Reconsideration Procedure.

(1) Applicants whose loan applications have not been approved by the Director may submit a request for reconsideration by writing to the Director.

(2) The Director will review all requests for reconsideration and inform the Applicant in writing of the decision.

(3) The decisions of the Director shall be final.

4. Repealer filed 9-19-2003; operative 10-19-2003 (Register 2003, No. 38).

§ 7016. Loan Termination.

(a) Loan commitments or Loan Agreements may be terminated, or the loan amounts reduced, by the Department if the Director determines that:

(1) One or more conditions to commitment, agreement, or disbursement have not been or will not be met;

(2) Development of the Assisted Housing is not progressing or is anticipated not to progress within a reasonable time as determined by the Department.

(3) The objectives of the loan cannot be met; and/or

(4) The Department's security is jeopardized.

(b) If the Department determines that a purchased site cannot be developed by a Borrower within a reasonable period of time as determined by the Department, the Borrower shall convey the site to the Department, which shall transfer the site to be sold pursuant to Health and Safety Code Sections 50406(o) and 50532(c). In determining a reasonable period of time, the Department shall consider factors in 7004, Borrower cooperation with the Department's requirements, and continuing progress toward developing the site and obtaining Construction and Permanent Financing.

Subchapter 2. State Community Development Block Grant Program

Article 1. General

§ 7050. General.

The Federal Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1981 provides for State administration of the Federal Community Development Block Grant Nonentitlement Program. These regulations set forth the policies and procedures governing the State's management and use of these funds. In addition to these regulations, program participants must comply with Federal regulations contained in Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Part 570, Subpart I. In the event that Congress or the State Legislature add or amend any requirements concerning the use or management of these funds, grantees shall comply with such requirements upon receipt of notice from the Department of the additional requirements.

NOTE: Authorities cited: Sections 50406(h) and 50406(n), Health and Safety Code; and 24 CFR 570.489(b). Reference: Sections 50406 and 50407, Health and Safety Code; 42 U.S.C. 5301 and 5306(d); Federal Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1981 (Public Law 97-35); and 24 CFR, Part 570, Subpart I.

HISTORY

1. New Subchapter 2 (Articles 1-4, Sections 7050-7124, not consecutive) filed 12-30-82; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 83, No. 1). For history of former Subchapter 2, see Registers 82, No. 2; 80, No. 25 and 78, No. 5.
2. Amendment filed 1-19-84; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 84, No. 3).
3. Amendment filed 2-22-85; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 85, No. 9).

§ 7052. Primary Objectives.

The primary objectives of this program are: 1) the development and preservation of cities and counties by providing decent housing and a suitable living environment and expanding economic opportunities, principally for the targeted income group; and 2) not less than fifty-one percent (51%) of the funds made available to the Department pursuant to the program shall be utilized by the Department to make grants to eligible cities or counties for the purpose of providing or improving housing opportunities for the targeted income group or for purposes directly related to the provision or improvement of housing opportunities for the targeted income group including, but not limited to, the construction of infrastructure.

Pursuant to Section 104(a)(1) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended, the Department shall annually prepare a statement of community development objectives and projected uses of funds. This statement shall be made available to the public and published, and the Department shall conduct no less than two public hearings at different locations on its contents. The statement shall be available for review for at least thirty (30) days prior to the public hearings.

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50406(h) and 50406(n), Health and Safety Code; 24 CFR 570.489(b). Reference: Sections 50406, 50407 and 50828, Health and Safety Code; 42 U.S.C. 5301 and 5304(a)(1) and (2); 24 CFR, 570.489 and 570.490.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 1-19-84; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 84, No. 3).
2. Amendment filed 3-4-87; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 87, No. 10).

§ 7054. Definitions.

"Act" means Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, 42 U.S.C. 5301 et seq. , as amended.

"Activity" means any single eligible undertaking carried out as part of an applicant's program under the State CDBG Program.

"Applicant" means any eligible city or county that applies for funds pursuant to this subchapter as set forth in Section 7060.

"CFR" is the acronym used for the Code of Federal Regulations.

"Chief executive officer" of a unit of local government means the mayor of a city, the chairman of a county board of supervisors, or the official designated pursuant to law by the governing body of the unit of general local government who has the primary responsibility for the conduct of that unit's governmental affairs.

"Community Development Block Grant Funds," "CDBG Funds," or "Grant Funds" means any funds allocated by a grant agreement pursuant to this subchapter or previously funded to nonentitlement jurisdictions by HUD pursuant to their authority under the Act.

"Department" means the State of California Department of Housing and Community Development.

"Director" means the Director of the Department.

"Economic Development Allocation" means the funds set aside each year for economic development pursuant to Health and Safety Code Section 50827 and Section 7062.1.

"Federal regulations" means the federal regulations governing the State administration of the Community Development Block Grant nonentitlement funds set forth in the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 24, Part 570, Subchapter C, Subpart I, commencing with Section 570.480.

"Funding" means financial assistance provided in whole or in part for any eligible activity.

"Funding Cycle" means the annual period of time during which HUD makes funds available to the State for distribution to local governments pursuant to the Act, and includes the period of time during which the Department solicits applications and makes grant awards.

"Grant Agreement" means the contractual arrangement between the State and the Grantee which sets forth the terms and conditions by which State CDBG funds are utilized.

"Grantee" means a unit of general local government which has been awarded funds provided pursuant to this subchapter to carry out a program.

"Household" means persons occupying a housing unit as the place of residence.

"Housing Element" means the part of a city or county's General Plan as required by Article 10.6 (commencing with Section 65580) of Chapter 3 of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code.

"HUD" means the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.

"Infrastructure" means the physical systems such as roads, sidewalks, streetlights, water and sewer facilities which are necessary to provide basic community services.

"Lowest Targeted Income Group" means persons and households with incomes less than 50 percent of the latest HUD estimated area median family income who are intended to be beneficiaries of the State CDBG Program.

"Microenterprise" means a commercial enterprise that has five or fewer employees, one or more of whom owns the enterprise.

"Overpaying" means households which are paying more than 25% of their gross household income for housing costs, including utilities. Data used to document overpaying includes the percentage of renters who pay more than 25% of household income for gross rent, including utilities, and the percentage of homeowners who pay more than 25% of household income for selected housing costs, including utilities, based on the latest available U.S. Census data.

"Permanent job" means a full-time or full-time equivalent job created or retained by an activity funded under the Economic Development Allocation which is directly related to the expansion or retention of a business. To be considered "full-time" a job must provide at least 1,750 hours per year. Part-time jobs that provide at least 875 hours per year of employment may be aggregated to arrive at a full-time equivalent job of at least 1,750 hours per year.

"Poverty Persons" means individuals whose incomes are below the poverty level based on the latest available U.S. Census data.

"Program" means all of the activities funded in whole or in part included in an application which are funded under this subchapter.

"State" means the State of California.

"Targeted Income Group" or "TIG" means persons and households intended to be the principal beneficiaries of the State Community Development Block Grant program. The term targeted income group includes the component "lowest targeted income group" unless otherwise specified in this subchapter. Applicants shall use income limits provided annually by the Department in determining program benefit to the targeted income group. These income limits are based on the latest HUD estimate of area median family income with adjustments for unusually low income areas. For a family of four, the "targeted income group" limit is 80% of the latest HUD estimated or adjusted area median family income. For a family of four, the income limit for lowest targeted income group limit is 50% of the latest HUD estimated area median family income. Income limits for other household sizes are based on household size adjustment factors.

2. Amendment filed 2-22-85; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 85, No. 9).
3. Amendment filed 3-4-87; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 87, No. 10).
4. Amendment adding definitions for "CFR," "Economic Development Allocation," "Federal regulations," "Microenterprise" and "Permanent job," amendment of "Targeted Income Group," and amendment of NOTE filed 11-8-95; operative 11-8-95 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 96, No. 48).

Article 2. Application Process

§ 7056. Application and Funding Requirements.

(a) The applicant shall meet the following requirements when the application is submitted:

(1) The applicant shall submit all the application information required in Section 7062.1 and/or Section 7070 as applicable.

(2) The applicant shall have resolved any audit findings, performance problems for program income or performance problems for prior CDBG grants awarded by an urban county, by HUD under the Small Cities Program or by the State under this subchapter. The Director may waive this requirement when such problems or findings result in no obligation to return funds to the grantor, arrangements satisfactory to the grantor have been made for repayment, disencumbrance, performance, or a formal action to resolve the matter has been taken.

(b) Applicants shall meet the following requirements prior to an award of grant funds:

(1) As a condition of receiving funds pursuant to this subchapter, an eligible city or county shall have submitted a housing element to the Department in accordance with the requirements of Article 10.6 (commencing with Section 65580) of Chapter 3 of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code. However, except as otherwise provided in Section 50830 of the Health and Safety Code, no application for funds shall be denied because of the content of the housing element or because of the findings made by the Department pursuant to Section 65585 of the Government Code.

(2) (A) Except as otherwise provided in subparagraphs (B) and (C), no city or county shall be eligible to receive funds pursuant to this Subchapter if the city or county has adopted a general plan, ordinance, or other measure which directly limits, by number, either of the following:

1. The building permits that may be issued for residential construction.
2. The buildable lots which may be developed for residential purposes.

(B) Subparagraph (A) shall not apply to either of the following:

1. An ordinance adopted by a city or county which does any of the following:

a. Imposes a moratorium, to protect the public health and safety, on residential construction for a specified period of time, if, under the terms of the ordinance, the moratorium will cease when the public health or safety is no longer jeopardized by the construction.

b. Creates agricultural preserves pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 51200) of Part 2 of Division 1 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

c. Was adopted pursuant to a specific requirement of a state or multi-state board, agency, department, or commission.

2. A city or county which has a housing element that the department has found to be adequate pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 65585 of the Government Code or which is deemed to be in compliance with the requirements of Article 10.6 (commencing with Section 65580) of Chapter 3 of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code pursuant to Section 65586 of the Government Code at the time the city or county applies for funds under the program, unless a final order has been issued by a court in which the court determined that the housing element is not in compliance with Article 10.6 (commencing with Section 65580) of Chapter 3 of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code.

(C) A city or county which has adopted a general plan, ordinance, or other measure subject to the restrictions of subparagraph (A), which are not exempted by subdivision (B), may, notwithstanding subparagraph (A), receive funds pursuant to this subchapter if the use of the funds is restricted for housing for the targeted income group. However, applications from cities or counties which have not adopted a general plan, ordinance, or other measure subject to the restrictions of subparagraph (A) shall, to the extent that eligible applications for grants exceed the amount available for distribution pursuant to this Subchapter have priority over applications from cities or counties which have adopted such a general plan, ordinance, or other measure which are not exempted by subdivision (B).

(3) At least fifty-one percent (51%) of the funds applied for shall benefit the targeted income group. No activity or portion of a program assisted by these funds may exclude from its benefits the lowest targeted income group. Individual activities shall meet one of the three national objectives which are: (1) the development of viable urban communities by providing decent housing and a suitable living environment and expanding economic opportunities, principally for persons of low- and moderate-income; (2) aiding in the prevention or elimination of slums or blight; or (3) meeting other community development needs having a particular urgency. For the purposes of this section, "slums" and "blight" means a blighted area or structure characterized by one or more of the following conditions: (1) the buildings and structures, used or intended to be used for living, commercial, industrial, or other purposes, which are unfit to occupy for such purposes and are conducive to ill health, transmission of disease, infant mortality, juvenile delinquency, and crime because of factors listed in Health and Safety Code Section 33031; and (2) properties which suffer from economic dislocation, deterioration, or disuse because of factors listed in Health and Safety Code, Section 33032. For the purposes of this section, an activity will be considered to address the standard of urgency if the applicant certifies that the activity is designed to alleviate existing conditions which pose a serious and immediate threat to the health or welfare of the community which are of recent origin or which recently became urgent, that the applicant is unable to finance the activity on its own, and that other sources of funding are not available to meet such needs. For the purposes of this section, any condition which has existed longer than eighteen (18) months prior to the final filing date for applications shall not be considered to meet the standard of urgency.

(4) The single-year program described in the application must be scheduled for completion within twenty-four (24) months from the date the grant agreement is executed by the State. The multi-year, two or three year program described in the application must be scheduled for completion within 36 or 48 months, respectively. The Department may waive this provision in writing if it determines that the program, by its nature, cannot be completed within the 24, 36, or 48 month period, or that conditions beyond the grantee's or State's control hinder program completion.

(5)(A) If CDBG grant funds or local program income will be used to operate a program (i.e., activities serving multiple separate projects, not persons), the applicant shall submit program guidelines to the Department for approval. No CDBG grant funds or local program income shall be expended to operate a program until the Department has approved the program guidelines in writing.

(B) The program guidelines shall describe how the program will be operated and how it will comply with State and federal regulations. In addition, program guidelines shall address the following topics:

1. Loan terms and interest rates;

2. Loan underwriting standards;

3. Loan application processing procedures and timing for loan approvals;

4. Procedures for resolving disputes between the participant and the CDBG grantee;

5. Description of any property restrictions imposed as a condition of receiving the loan (e.g., resale controls, equity sharing);

6. Loan servicing policies addressing the issues of: subordination; refinancing; change in occupancy, change in use, assumptions, and verification of payment of taxes and insurance.

7. If the program will involve rehabilitation or construction, procedures for developing the scope of work, description of the contractor procurement and payment process, and a description of the conflict resolution process in the event of a dispute between the contractor and the program participant.

§ 7060. Eligible Applicants.

Any city or county is eligible to apply for the State CDBG Program except a city or county which participates in or is eligible to participate in the HUD administered Community Development Block Grant Entitlement Program. The following restrictions shall apply to all applicants under the State Program.

(a) Except as provided in Sections 7062 and 7062.1, an applicant may submit only one application each funding cycle for activities in its jurisdiction. A grantee receiving a grant award for up to three annual funding awards pursuant to Section 7064(c) that does not undertake the portion of its program funded from the second or third funding award may submit a new application, provided the multi year award has been terminated under the terms of the grant agreement. A grantee that has received a multiple year award for up to three years, where any of the annual awards is less than $500,000, may submit an application under the second and/or third year for additional awards, which when combined with their existing annual funding awards, do not exceed $500,000 per year.

(b) Applications may be submitted by individual eligible applicants or by groups of eligible applicants in any of the following forms. Except as provided in paragraphs (5) and (6) below, no eligible applicant may be included in more than one application that provides direct program benefits to that political subdivision.

(1) An eligible applicant may apply on its own behalf.

(2) An eligible applicant may apply on its own behalf and in the same application on behalf of one or more other eligible applicants.

(3) An eligible applicant may apply on behalf of one or more other eligible applicants in the same application or may apply on behalf of one or more other eligible applicants in separate applications.

(4) Two or more eligible applicants which share a program may submit a joint application.

(5) In addition to an application submitted under Section 7060(a), an eligible applicant may apply separately for activities in target areas within or outside of the applicant's jurisdiction when there are concentrations of Native American Indians as described in Section 7062 provided the concentration is within an eligible city or county. Applications for target areas outside the applicant's jurisdiction must include a joint powers agreement with the city or county in which the target area is located.

(6) In addition to an application submitted under Section 7060(a) or Section 7060(b)(5), an eligible applicant may apply separately for activities under Section 7062.1.

(c) Cooperation agreements. Executed joint powers agreements, consistent with the requirements of Section 6500 et seq. of the Government Code must be submitted with joint applications and applications on behalf of another unit or units of local government. These agreements must be on a form provided by the Department.

§ 7062. Special Allocation for Native American Indian Communities.

Pursuant to the requirements of 24 CFR, Part 1, the Department finds that there are within the State of California, communities principally comprised of low-income Native American Indians not recognized as Indian Tribes as defined in Section 102(a)(17) of the Act (the Act defines Indian Tribes as any Indian tribe, band, group, and nation . . . of the United States, which is considered an eligible recipient under the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act (Public Law 93-638), or under the State and Local Fiscal Assistance Act of 1972 (Public Law 92-512)). The Department also finds that these communities have, in previous years, received the benefits of the Act primarily through the Department's successful submittal of applications on their behalf. The Department further finds that its inability to continue to apply on behalf of this minority population, caused by the legal constraints of the 1981 amendments to the Act, and the legal ineligibility of these groups to apply on their own behalf for federally- or State-administered CDBG funds, will have the effect of depriving this minority group from participating in the State CDBG Program unless there are some affirmative measures to ensure its participation.

(a) Pursuant to the requirements and authority of 24 CFR 1.4(c)(6)(ii) and by the direction of the State Legislature, the Department shall set aside an amount equal to one and one quarter percent (1.25%) of the total State CDBG funds to be granted to eligible applicants for identifiable geographic areas within eligible cities and counties comprised of high concentrations of Native American Indians not recognized as Indian Tribes as defined in Section 102(a)(17) of the Act. For the purpose of this section, identifiable geographic areas comprised of high concentrations of Native American Indians means identifiable geographic areas comprised of no less than fifty one percent (51%) Native American Indians not recognized as an Indian Tribe by the Act. An identifiable geographic area may be defined by locally accepted social, historical, physical, political, or past programmatic boundaries.

(b) An application for this set aside may be in addition to another application submitted by an eligible city or county pursuant to Section 7060(b)(1)–(5). Applications submitted under this section will be independently evaluated and ranked against other applications for this special allocation without regard to the rating of an application submitted pursuant to another section of this subchapter.

(c) An application submitted pursuant to this section shall be in the form prescribed for applications in Section 7070 and shall comply in all other respects with this subchapter. CDBG funds utilized within the identifiable geographic areas must principally benefit residents in the targeted income groups without regard to race, religion, national origin, or sex. In the event all the set aside funds are not awarded in a funding cycle, the Department shall award the remaining funds to the highest ranked unfunded applications submitted under Section 7072.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (b) filed 1–19–84; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 84, No. 3).
2. Amendment of subsection (c) filed 2–22–85; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 85, No. 9).

§ 7062.1. Special Allocation for Economic Development.

(a) The Department shall set aside from the total amount available from HUD, for grants to cities and counties an amount equal to thirty percent (30%) for the activities specified in this section. Applications submitted under this section must comply with all the requirements of this subchapter except where noted in this section. Economic Development Allocation funds shall be awarded through three components: the California Community Economic Enterprise Fund ("Enterprise Fund") set forth in subsection (b); the Over–the–Counter Component ("OTC Component") set forth in subsection (c); and the Planning and Technical Assistance Component ("Planning Component") set forth in subsection (d).

(1) Activities eligible for funding under the Economic Development Allocation are those activities which are subject to the Standards for Evaluating Public Benefits set forth in subsection (f) of 24 CFR Section 570.482 as well as activities which assist microenterprises. Eligible activities shall also meet a national objective as specified in Section 104(b)(3) of the Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 5304(b)(3)) and 24 CFR Section 570.483. The Department shall utilize Section 105(a) of the Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 5305(a)), 24 CFR Section 570.482, and Subpart C of Part 570 of the federal CDBG regulations commencing with Section 570.200, for guidance in determining the eligibility of activities proposed under this section. Where CDBG funds are used for public improvements (e.g., water, sewer or road improvements) the national objective shall be met pursuant to 24 CFR Section 570.483.

(2) In order to be eligible for funding from the Enterprise Fund or the OTC Component, with the exception of assistance to microenterprises, a project or activity (hereinafter collectively referred to as an "activity") shall be capable of generating sufficient public benefit relative to the amount of CDBG assistance provided as required by the Act. The Department, with respect to activities funded from the OTC Component, and Grantees with respect to activities funded with Enterprise Funds, shall utilize the federal standards specified at 24 CFR Section 570.484(f) to determine whether sufficient public benefit will be generated by a proposed activity.

(3) Prior to the funding of any activity from either the Enterprise Fund or the OTC Component, the activity shall be underwritten to insure that: (i) the activity's costs are reasonable; (ii) that all sources of activity financing are committed; (iii) that to the extent practicable, CDBG funds are not substituted for non–Federal financial support; (iv) that the activity is financially feasible; (v) that to the extent practicable, the return on the owner's equity investment will not be unreasonably high; and (vi) that to the extent practicable, CDBG funds are disbursed on a pro rata basis with other finances provided to the activity. Activities shall be underwritten by the Department, with respect to activities funded from the OTC Component, and by Grantees with respect to activities funded with Enterprise Funds, utilizing the federal Guidelines and Objectives for Evaluating Project Costs and Financial Requirements set forth as Appendix A to 24 CFR Part 570.

(4) An activity funded from the Enterprise Fund or the OTC Component shall be reevaluated by the Department or grantee pursuant to subsections (a)(2) and (a)(3) of this Section if the underlying assumptions relied upon by the Department or the Enterprise Fund grant recipient in making its original funding decision materially change. A "material change", for these purposes, means: (1) a change in the size, scope, location or public benefit of the activity; or (2) a change in the terms or the amount of the private funds (including lender's funds and equity capital) to be invested in the activity; or (3) a change in the terms or the amount of the CDBG assistance to be made available to the activity. If a material change has occurred and a reevaluation of the activity indicates that the financial elements and public benefit to be derived have also changed, then appropriate adjustments in the amount, the type of CDBG assistance and/or the terms and conditions under which that assistance has been offered shall be made to reflect the impact of the material change.

(5) In the event that an activity funded under the Enterprise Fund or OTC Component fails to meet a federal national objective or state or federal eligibility requirement, at the Department's discretion, a Grantee may be required to repay all or a portion of the grant amount from a non–federal source of revenue, and/or may be required to return all or part of any program income received from the CDBG–assisted activity to the Department. In determining the appropriate remedy, the Department shall, at a minimum, consider the following factors: (1) actions taken by the Grantee to avoid the adverse circumstances in the first place; (2) actions taken by the Grantee to mitigate the circumstances once the problem was discovered; and (3) timeliness of steps taken to protect and/or recover CDBG funds. Failure by a Grantee to comply with any requirements or written instructions issued by the Department pursuant to this subsection shall be considered a failure by the Grantee to resolve any "audit findings or performance problems" as that phrase is used in Section 7056(a)(2).

(6) Funding maximums from the Economic Development Allocation and the Planning Component shall be as set forth in Health and Safety Code Section 50832 subdivision (a) and Section 50833 subdivisions (a) and (b). The Department may waive the eight hundred thousand dollar ($800,000) and five hundred thousand dollar ($500,000) limitations for the Economic Development Allocation after September 1 of each year.

(7) All Economic Development Allocation funds returned, disencumbered or paid to the State in the form of program income ("returned funds") shall be made available to fund current–year applications to the Enterprise Fund or the OTC Component. On May 1 of each year, if there are any unawarded Enterprise Funds or OTC Component funds, including returned funds, the Department may reallocate funds between the components based on relative demand, notwithstanding the provisions in subsection (b) of this Section. On June 1 of each year, unawarded funds remaining in the Enterprise Fund, the OTC Component, or the Planning Component, including returned funds, shall be made available to fund unfunded applications submitted pursuant to Section 7072.

(8) Grants to eligible local governments may be passed through to qualified organizations chartered to perform economic development activities.

(9) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section, the Director may alter the order applications are reviewed for applicants requesting funds for an urgent need such as an imminent plant closure, an emergency recognized by the State. The Director's decision to alter the order an application is reviewed shall be in writing and made part of the application file.

(b) Enterprise Fund. Economic Development Allocation funds set aside for use pursuant to this subsection shall be known as the California Community Economic Enterprise Fund (Enterprise Fund). The purpose of the Enterprise Fund is to provide a source of funds to establish or enhance local revolving loan fund programs. For the 1995 program year only, not more than fifty percent (50%) of the Economic Development Allocation funds shall be allocated to the Enterprise Fund. For all subsequent program years, not more than seventy percent (70%) of all Economic Development Allocation funds shall be allocated to the Enterprise Fund.

(1) At least seventy (70) days prior to the due date for applications, the Department shall notify all eligible cities and counties of the anticipated level of funding for the Enterprise Fund through a Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA) and the deadline for receipt of applications. The Department shall also make available application forms and a training manual which will provide eligible applicants with a consistent format for presenting proposals, information on proposal review factors, and guidance on program policies that may affect an applicant's program design.

(2) The maximum Enterprise Fund grant award to a single applicant in a program year shall not exceed $500,000, except as specified at 7062.1(a)(6). The Director may establish a lower maximum award through each year's NOFA. A decision to reduce the maximum award shall be based upon the relative demand for Enterprise Fund grants and OTC Component funds during the previous year and the total Economic Development Allocation funds available.

(3) Activities which are eligible for funding from a local revolving loan fund include, but are not limited to: construction loans; new equipment purchase loans; working capital loans; land acquisition loans; loan guarantees; loans for privately owned on-site improvements; grants for public off-site sewer, water and road improvements; and assistance to microenterprises.

(4) The cost-per-job created or retained for a grantee's aggregate activities proposed for funding from the Enterprise Fund shall not exceed $35,000 in CDBG funds, or $50,000 in CDBG funds per job created or retained for each activity. Any activity funded under this component shall meet the standards for public benefit set forth in subsection (f) of 24 CFR Section 570.482.

(5) Allocation Review Procedures and Evaluation Criteria.

(A) Each eligible applicant shall submit an original and two (2) copies of its application to the Department by the application deadline specified in the NOFA. Applications submitted by mail shall be received no later than the deadline. Applications delivered to the Department must be date stamped by the Department prior to 5 P.M. on the due date.

(B) In order to be considered complete, an application shall contain the information requested in the NOFA and such other information as necessary for the Department to evaluate the application using the points and rating factors set forth in subsection (b)(5)(D) of this Section. If an application contains a description or analysis which includes quantified information, the source of the information, and the method of computation shall be described. If the Department determines that the method of computation leads to conclusions which are inaccurate or misleading, it may, after consultation with the applicant, adjust the method of computation or the conclusions during the evaluation process.

(C) Within thirty (30) days of receipt of an incomplete application, the Department shall return the application to the applicant with a written explanation of the reasons why the application is incomplete.

(D) The Department shall evaluate, rate and rank each complete application utilizing the following evaluation criteria and assigned points:

Evaluation Criterion
Need for Program:	30 Total Points
Relative Poverty Index	15 Points
Relative Unemployment Rate	10 points
Adverse Economic Event	5 Points
Local Program Capacity:	50 Total Points
Performance on Past CDBG ED Grants	20 points
Relative Strength of Basic Program Design	10 Points
Relative Experience of Program Operators	10 Points
Other Local Organizational Support	10 Points
Program Effectiveness:	20 Points
Commitment of Other (non-state, non-federal) Funding Sources	10 Points
Extent to Which Program Complements Local or Regional Economic Development Plan	10 points
Maximum Total Points	100 Points

(E) For purposes of this subsection (b)(5), the foregoing terms shall be defined or applied as follows:

1. "adverse economic event" shall mean an event of recent origin which has the effect of significantly reducing employment opportunities for the labor force within the applicant's jurisdiction.

2. "unemployment rate" shall mean the unemployment rate for the city or county applicant as measured by the applicant county's unemployment rate as published in the most recently available State Employment Development Department's "Monthly Labor Force For Counties".

3. Factors which shall be considered in assessing an applicant's performance on past CDBG grants shall include: Achievement of job creation or job retention objectives specified in the grant agreement; leveraging of other funds as specified in the grant agreement; and, timely expenditure of CDBG funds.

4. "basic program design" shall be evaluated as follows: The extent to which the applicant's program guidelines are consistent with CDBG program requirements and reflect prudent lending practices and procedures.

5. "other local organizational support" shall mean: The documented intent of local economic development organizations, such as local economic development corporations, Economic Development Districts, or Small Business Development Corporations, to commit resources towards implementation of the Enterprise Fund program.

(F) The Department shall complete the ranking of applications within eighty (80) days from the application deadline. Applicants shall be notified in writing of point scores, fund reservations and any adjustments necessary to comply with national objective or eligibility requirements. The Department may condition its award of funds in order to achieve the purposes of this subchapter and to ensure compliance with applicable State and federal requirements.

(G) Successful applicants shall receive a reservation of Enterprise Funds equal to the approved grant amount. These reserved funds shall be held by the Department pending drawdown requests for specific eligible activities.

(H) Successful applicants shall be subject to the requirements of Section 7076(d) in ensuring timely execution of the grant agreement and in the timing for incurring costs under the grant agreement.

(6) The assessment of a specific proposed activity's eligibility for funding for activities of $50,000 or less shall be performed by Grantee and reviewed by the Department as part of the grant monitoring process. The assessment of eligibility for specific activities over $50,000 shall be performed by the Department and shall occur prior to approval of the initial drawdown request for that activity.

(7) A Grantee's unused Enterprise Fund grant funds shall be disencumbered twenty-four months after grant agreement execution. The Department may waive this provision in writing if it determines that compelling circumstances warrant the waiver. For purposes of this subsection only, for activities of $50,000 or less, funds shall be considered "unused" if not approved by the local loan committee for disbursement as a loan to a specified borrower; for activities over $50,000, funds shall be considered unused if the Department has not yet received complete documentation, as determined by the Department, of the proposed borrower's eligibility.

(8) Upon receipt of an application and based on availability of funds, the Director may allocate a portion of the Enterprise Funds to assist eligible jurisdictions directly affected by announced military base closures or reductions. Enterprise Funds shall be made available pursuant to this subdivision (b)(8) only if the Enterprise Funds will be used to obtain federal funds for capitalizing local revolving loan funds which will be used to mitigate the economic displacement caused by such base closures or reductions.

(c) Over-the-Counter Component. Economic Development Allocation funds not allocated to either the Enterprise Fund or the Planning Component shall be made available for award pursuant to this subsection (c), which shall be known as the "Over-the Counter-Component" or "OTC Component". Through the OTC Component, the Department shall provide grants to eligible cities and counties to: make loans to employers for an identified CDBG-eligible activity, provided the loan will result in the creation or retention of permanent jobs; or to construct infrastructure improvements which are necessary to accommodate the creation, expansion or retention of a business that will create or retain jobs.

(1) Through a notice of funding availability ("NOFA"), each program year the Department shall notify all eligible cities and counties of the anticipated level of funding for the OTC Component. OTC Component applications shall be accepted on a continuous basis.

(2) Awards from the OTC Component to a single city or county in a single program year shall not exceed $500,000, regardless of the number of applications, except as specified in subsection 7062.1(a)(6).

(3) Notwithstanding Section 7064(c), two or more applicants may submit a joint application for an OTC Component award. The maximum award for a joint application shall be five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) per participating applicant per program year.

(4) In order to be considered complete, an application shall contain the information requested in the NOFA, and such other information as necessary for the Department to evaluate the application using the points and rating factors set forth in subsection (c)(7) of this section and the following information as appropriate:

(A) If an applicant contains a description or analysis which includes quantified information, the source of the information, and the method of computation shall be described. If the Department determines that the method of computation leads to conclusions which are inaccurate or misleading, it may, after consultation with the applicant, adjust the method of computation or the conclusions during the evaluation process.

(B) Evidence that activities proposed for funding meet one of the national objectives specified under Section 7056(b)(3) and detailed under 24 CFR Section 570.483.

(C) If an applicant asserts that an activity will meet the national objective of principally benefitting the TIG, the application shall include a description of the means of verification which the applicant will use to determine the number and income of those households actually benefitting from the program.

(D) A schedule demonstrating that any new jobs that will be generated by the program will be available within 24 months of execution of the grant agreement by the Department.

(E) For off-site public improvement activities, the application shall document the following: how the activity meets the national objective and public benefit requirements specified in 24 CFR Section 570.482(f); that the applicant has negotiated with the businesses and other beneficiaries that will be served by these improvements and obtained an appropriate funding contribution towards the cost of the improvements; and how the activity meets the requirements of paragraphs (2) and (3) of subsection (a) of this Section.

(5) The Department shall review applications based on order of receipt. Within thirty (30) days of receipt of an incomplete application, the Department shall notify the applicant in writing of the reasons why the application is incomplete.

(6) Within 60 days of the date an application is determined to be complete, the Department shall review the application for compliance with state and federal program requirements and provide the applicant, in writing, the Department's decision to approve or deny funding for the application. Applications eligible for funding shall be funded in order of receipt of a complete application.

(7) In making funding decisions, the Department shall first evaluate the application using the following factors and points as threshold criteria.

Factor	Points
(A) Percent of county-wide unemployment relative to the Statewide average	A maximum of twenty-five points
(B) Ratio of CDBG funds per job—maximum ratio of $35,000 per job created or retained	A maximum of fifteen points
(C) Ratio of private funds to CDBG funds	A maximum of fifteen points
(D) Quality of applicant's past performance for CDBG economic development contracts	A maximum of fifteen points
(E) Percent of funds allocated to applicant's general administrative costs (for this purpose, general administrative costs do not include funds budgeted for planning studies).	A maximum of ten points

(8) Applications which have received 50 or more points shall be reviewed for funding using the following factors:

(A) the extent of the applicant's need for CDBG funds,

(B) the market feasibility of the proposed activities,

(C) the feasibility of the proposed activities under local and other regulatory requirements,

(D) the financial feasibility of the proposed activities. (In analyzing this factor, the Department may determine that an activity is feasible even though other funding sources have not committed their funding to an activity. If the application documents the terms and conditions that will be offered by the other funding sources, then the Department may conditionally commit to funding. This commitment of funding by the Department shall be conditioned upon the final commitment from the other funding sources.),

(E) the capacity of the applicant and its borrower, subcontractors or subgrantees to manage the proposed activities,

(F) the appropriateness of the terms proposed by the applicant, given the documented needs of the business and given the amount of public benefit in the form of job creation or job retention that will result from the CDBG-assisted activity,

(G) the status of the ownership or control of any real estate needed for the proposed activities,

(H) the extent to which the proposed activities involve intrastate relocation of jobs or business, and

(I) the extent of recruitment, training and promotional opportunities for targeted income groups.

(d) Planning and Technical Assistance Component. Through the Planning and Technical Assistance Component ("Planning Component"), eligible cities and counties may apply for, and the Department may award, grants for economic development planning and technical assistance activities. No single city or county shall receive more than two grants or thirty five thousand dollars ($35,000) per year. Two or more applicants which share a planning program may submit a joint application. The maximum award for a joint application shall be thirty five thousand dollars ($35,000) per participating applicant.

(1) Eligible Activities. To be eligible for funding under the Planning Component, the proposed planning studies or technical assistance must assist or support an economic development activity which, if brought to completion, will meet a national objective as specified in 24 CFR Section 570.483 and result in job creation or retention. For purposes of this subsection (d)(1), an activity shall be considered as meeting the national objective of principally benefitting TIG persons if the applicant presents convincing information that at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the anticipated beneficiaries of the economic development activity assisted with funds provided by this component will be members of the TIG. General studies not reasonably related to an economic development activity likely to result in the creation or retention of jobs are not eligible for funding under the Planning Component; nor are activities related to implementation of a program.

(2) As a condition of receiving a commitment of funds under the Planning Component, successful applicants shall be required to provide a cash match the amount of which shall be based on the amount of the applicant's local sales and use tax revenues relative to the sales and use tax revenues for each potentially eligible city and county, up to a maximum of twenty-five percent (25%) of the CDBG grant award.

(3) Application Procedures and Evaluation Criteria. Each program year, the Department shall notify all eligible cities and counties of the anticipated level of funding for the Planning Component and the earliest date for submitting applications through a notice of funding availability ("NOFA"). The Department shall review Planning Component applications to determine if they meet minimum program eligibility and cash match requirements. The Department shall notify applicants, in writing, within 60 days of receipt of a complete application of the Department's funding determination. To be eligible for funding consideration, an application must meet the following requirements:

(A) The funding request shall contain all the information required in the NOFA and shall contain a certified resolution adopted by the governing body of the eligible jurisdiction documenting the availability of the cash match;

(B) The funding request shall be for an eligible activity and must meet a national objective as specified in 24 CFR Section 570.483; and

(C) If funds will be used to provide direct assistance to an identified business, the activity shall be considered to be technical assistance to a private, for-profit business and the application must include a letter from the benefitted business which: (i) explains why the benefitting business is unable to provide funding for the activity; and (ii) conditionally commits the business to proceeding with the activities which are the subject of the CDBG grant.

§ 7062.3. Special 108 Loan Guaranty Pledges.

(a) Commitment of future federal allocations of CDBG Funds to the State ("State pledges") by the Department as collateral for federal guarantees of notes or other obligations issued by eligible cities and counties ("loan guarantees") pursuant to Section 108 of the Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 5308) and 24 CFR Subchapter C, Part 570, Subpart M commencing with Section 570.700 (collectively, "Section 108") shall be subject to the following conditions:

(1) State pledges shall be given as collateral for loan guarantees only for loans of between $500,000 and $2,000,000.

(2) The total of all outstanding State pledges at any given point in time shall not exceed $16,000,000.

(3) To receive a State Pledge, in addition to the eligibility requirements established by Section 108 of the Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 5308), an activity must: meet the eligibility requirements specified at Section 7062.1 subsection (a)(2) and (a)(3); and address one of the three CDBG national objectives specified in Section 7052 and as specified in 24 CFR Section 570.483.

(4) Applicants shall demonstrate a reliable repayment source and adequate security in the event the primary source of repayment defaults. The Department may require that the applicant city or county pledge other sources of repayment for the loan such as any local CDBG program income.

(5) State pledges shall not be committed as security for a guaranty which guaranty is the primary source of repayment for federally-issued securities.

(6) The proposed activity upon which the application for State pledges has been based shall be reviewed by the Department according to the HUD guidelines for financial underwriting referenced at Section 7062.1(a)(3).

(7) Any Loan Guaranty Pledges made pursuant to Section 7062.3 are excluded from any funding limitations set forth in this section or set forth at Health and Safety Code Section 50832(a).

(b) Application Procedures and Evaluation Criteria.

(1) To obtain a State pledge, eligible jurisdiction shall make a formal application in writing to the Department.

(2) Applications which have been determined by the Department to be complete shall be reviewed and a decision whether or not to issue a State pledge shall be made in writing within 60 days of the date of receipt of a complete application.

(3) In order to be considered complete, an application shall, at a minimum, include the following:

(A) the amount of the State pledge requested;

(B) sufficient information for the Department to determine that all of the conditions of subsection (a) of this Section have been met; and

(C) sufficient information to conduct the financial underwriting review required by subsection (a)(6) of this Section.

(4) An incomplete application shall be returned to the applicant with a written explanation as to the applicant's deficiencies.

(c) If the Department determines that the requirements of subsection (a) have been met, and that the activity underlying the application conforms to the underwriting standards of subsection (a)(6), the Department shall prepare and issue to the applicant a certification containing, at a minimum, the following statements:

(1) the State of California, acting by and through the Department, agrees to make a pledge of future CDBG grants for which the State may become eligible in the amount of the approved application as security for a loan guaranty from HUD in an equivalent amount;

(2) the Department possesses the legal authority to make such a pledge;

(3) at least seventy percent (70%) of the aggregate use of CDBG funds received by the State, guaranteed loan funds, and program income during the one, two, or three years specified by the Department for its CDBG program will be for activities that benefit low and moderate income persons; and

(4) the Department agrees to assume the responsibilities set forth in 24 CFR Section 570.710 requiring the Department to ensure that the applicant complies with all applicable federal requirements governing the use of guaranteed loan funds.

§ 7064. Grant Funding.

(a) The amount of funds available for grants is equal to the total allocation of federal funds made available to the State under the Act after subtracting an allowable amount for State administrative costs. Grant funding is subject to the availability of federal funds.

(b) Eligible applicants may apply for funds to undertake any one or any combination of the eligible activities described in Section 7058.

(c) Except as provided in Section 7062.1, applicants may apply for funds from either one, two or three annual funding awards. The maximum grant amount per application for one funding award, regardless of the number of cities and counties included in the application, is five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000). The maximum grant amount per application for up to three annual funding awards regardless of the number of cities and counties included in the application, is one million, five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000). Funds applied for under Section 7062 are not included in these funding maximums. There is no maximum amount for applications submitted under Section 7062 other than the amount of funds set aside for this purpose. In the annual application process, priority for funding will be given to applicants that received prior State approval for a grant for the second or third year funding award. These priorities are subject to the availability of federal funds and the satisfactory performance by grantees. If federal funding to the State is insufficient to meet commitments for the second or third part of a two or three year funding award, the Department will establish a procedure for awarding available funds based on previous rankings and program performance.

§ 7065. Emergency Program Amendments.

(a) A grantee may make a written request to the Department to amend or replace a project or activity set forth in a grant agreement with a project or activity which would alleviate existing conditions which pose a serious actual or impending threat to the health or welfare of the community.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Subchapter, the Department shall approve such a request and amend the grant agreement accordingly if the Department makes the following findings in writing:

(1) The grantee is located in an area for which the Governor has proclaimed either a "state of emergency" or a "local emergency", as those terms are defined in Government Code Section 8558, within 18 months of the grantee's application under this section.

(2) The replacement project or activity is designed to alleviate existing conditions which pose a serious actual or impending threat to the health and welfare of the community;

(3) The grantee is unable to finance the project or activity on its own, and other sources of funding are not available; and

(4) The replacement project or activity is otherwise eligible for funding under this Subchapter.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50406(h) and 50406(n), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50407 and 50825, Health and Safety Code; 24 CFR 570.208(c), 24 CFR 570.483(d); and 24 CFR 570.489(a)(1)(i).

HISTORY

1. New section filed 5–19–99 as an emergency; operative 5–19–99 (Register 99, No. 21). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL by 9–16–99 or emergency language will be repealed by operation of law on the following day. For prior history, see Register 98, No. 44.

§ 7065.5. Emergency Disaster Assistance.

(a) Notwithstanding any provision in this Subchapter to the contrary, in the event that the Governor proclaims either a "state of emergency" or a "local emergency," as those terms are defined in Government Code Section 8558, for a period not to exceed 18 months following the date of the proclamation, the Department may make program funds available through issuance of one or more special Notices of Funding Availability

("NOFAs") to otherwise eligible applicants located in the areas covered by the proclamation pursuant to the following special conditions:

(1) The project or activity shall be designed to alleviate existing conditions which pose a serious actual or impending threat to the health or welfare of the community.

(2) The applicant shall demonstrate that it is unable to finance the project or activity on its own and that other sources of funding are unavailable.

(3) The proposed project or activity shall be otherwise eligible for funding under this Subchapter, or eligible pursuant to HUD eligibility criteria related to the emergency.

(b) In order to address the most serious, emergent health, safety, and general welfare needs, the Department may adopt measures to direct funding awards to designated project or activity types, or areas. These measures may include, but are not limited to:

(1) Limiting a NOFA to a designated type of project or activity, or geographic area.

(2) Awarding bonus points within a NOFA to a designated type of project or activity, or geographic area.

(3) Reserving a portion of funds in a NOFA for a designated type of project or activity, or geographic area.

(4) Establishing maximum award amounts per applicant, type of project, or type of activity.

(5) Making funds available through an over-the-counter process, meaning the Department continuously accepts and evaluates applications until funds are exhausted.

(c) To the extent necessary to address the most serious, emergent health, safety and general welfare needs, and to expedite the process of making awards, the Department may alter or waive the evaluation criteria set forth in Section 7062.1 and Sections 7078 and 7078.7.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50406, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50406, 50407 and 50825, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 4-5-2007 as an emergency; operative 4-5-2007 (Register 2007, No. 14). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL by 10-2-2007 or emergency language will be repealed by operation of law on the following day.

§ 7066. Procedure for Continuation of Funding.

(a) Grantees with prior State approval for two or three year funding awards shall notify the Department in writing by the final date for submitting applications of their intent to continue the second or third year part of their program. Failure by the Grantee to so notify the Department will be deemed a waiver of continued funding.

(b) Funding will be continued provided adequate funds have been received by the Department from HUD, and the Grantee has performed in accordance with the grant agreement. Disencumbrance of funds not expended in accordance with the grant agreement and the performance measures described in Sections 7078.4 and 7062.1(b)(7) shall constitute satisfactory performance under the grant agreement.

(c) For a single year funding award 24-month contract, a grantee that does not expend twenty-five percent (25%) of awarded dollars by the 12th month of the Program contract shall be sent a hold out letter for the next funding cycle. A waiver from hold out status may be granted if the grantee expends seventy-five percent (75%) of awarded dollars by the 18th month. If a grantee cannot make the 18th month expenditure milestone, the grantee may avoid hold out status and a reduction in points in future applications for failure to meet milestones if, at the Grantee's request, the Department disencumbers funds from the Program contract equal to the difference between what has been expended and 75% of awarded dollars.

(d) For each program activity with multi-year funding awards, if a grantee does not spend twenty-five percent (25%) of an annual funding award by the 12th month from award, the Department may disencumber the difference between what was expended for that program activity and the 25% milestone. If a grantee does not spend seventy-five percent (75%) of an annual funding award by the 18th month from award, the Department may disencumber the difference between what was expended and the 75% milestone. All unexpended funds remaining 24 months from an award shall be disencumbered by the Department. A grantee that has funds disencumbered after 24 months shall not be eligible to apply for any additional funding in future application cycles, other than for the original difference, if any, described in Section 7060 between the amount of the annual award that was disencumbered and the maximum annual award of $500,000.

(e) For a multi-year funding award for a single program specific activity, the grantee shall specify in its application the times that Program funding will be needed. Department staff shall assign milestones based on the project's timeline shown in the application and the Department's need for timely expenditure of CDBG funds. If a grantee does not meet the milestones assigned to the project, the Department may disencumber funds up to the designated milestone.

HISTORY

1. Repealer of former subsection (a) and relettering of subsections (b) and (c) to subsections (a) and (b) filed 1-19-84; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 84, No. 3).
2. Amendment of subsections (a) and (b) and new subsections (c)-(e) filed 4-25-2005; operative 5-25-2005 (Register 2005, No. 17).

§ 7068. Administrative Cost Limitation.

Grantees may expend up to seven and a half percent (7 1/2%) of the grant amount for administrative costs, provided that such amounts are justified for the type and complexity of the program, and that there are records to document these charges.

Activity delivery costs directly related to a specific activity are not part of the general administrative costs. For example, the cost of a housing rehabilitation specialist is a rehabilitation cost and the legal costs relating to property acquisition are acquisition costs.

Administrative costs may include, but are not limited to, the following categories:

(a) General administrative activities. Such costs for administration include:

(1) Salaries, wages, and related costs of the Grantee's staff engaged in general management, general legal services, accounting, and auditing.

(2) Travel costs incurred in carrying out the general management of the program.

(3) Administrative services performed under third-party contracts including contracts for such services as general legal services, accounting services, and audit services; and

(4) Other costs for goods and services related to the general management of the program including rental and maintenance of office space, insurance, utilities, office supplies, and rental or purchase of office equipment.

(b) Information and resources provided to persons in the targeted income group, and to citizen organizations participating in the planning, implementation, or assessment of the Grantee's program.

(c) Costs incurred for environmental studies, including historic preservation clearances, and specific environmental assessments and clearances related to the CDBG Program.

(d) Fair housing activities to facilitate compliance with the requirements of Section 7084.

(e) Community development planning activities.

If a cost cannot be associated with one of the above listed groups and cannot be associated with direct program costs, the Department shall upon the grantee's request make a determination of whether it is an administrative cost, a program cost, or an ineligible cost.

§ 7070. Contents of the Application.

Applications shall be submitted on forms prescribed by the Department and shall consist of the following items and any other information deemed necessary by the Department to judge the application. The specific forms and required information will be made available annually in the NOFA and accompanying application packet. This information provides the basis for the evaluation in Section 7078 and includes the assurances and agreements necessary for compliance with this subchapter. Where a description or analysis includes quantified information, the source of the information and the method of computation must be described. If the Department determines that the methods of computation are inaccurate or misleading, it may, after consultation with the applicant, adjust this information during the evaluation process.

§ 7072. Submission of General Allocation and Native American Applications.

At least seventy (70) days prior to the due date for applications, the Department will notify all eligible cities and counties of the anticipated level of funding for the State program, and will provide them with a schedule for filing applications. Applications must be received by the closing date. Each eligible applicant shall submit two (2) copies of its application to the Department.

2. Amendment of section heading filed 2–22–85; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 85, No. 9).
3. Amendment filed 4–26–2002; operative 4–26–2002 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2002, No. 17).

§ 7074. Preliminary Review of Applications.

After the final date for the receipt of applications, the Department shall review each application for compliance with the provisions contained in Sections 7056 and 7070 and for a general understanding of the proposed projects. The Department will establish a schedule for applicants to respond to questions concerning their applications. These discussions will be recorded, and shall be limited to a discussion of the contents of the application. If there is a discrepancy between the applicant's written and oral statements, the written information in the application shall prevail. The Department may, in its sole discretion, request additional information to complete or clarify what is contained in the application.

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50406(h) and 50406(n), Health and Safety Code; 24 CFR 570.489(b). Reference: Sections 50406 and 50407, Health and Safety Code; 42 U.S.C. 5306(d)(2); 24 CFR 570.489.

§ 7076. Award of Funds.

(a) The Department will rate and fund applications based on all of the activities in the application. Preliminary scores for each of the rating factors set forth in Section 7078 will be totalled by the Department, and applications will be ranked according to point totals. In case of a tied score, the application with the most points for the factor in Section 7078(a) shall receive the higher ranking. If the score remains tied after this computation, the application with the most points for the factors in Section 7078(b) shall receive the highest rating. The Department will establish a preliminary funding cutoff score based on the total amount of funds available for grants. For applications above the cutoff score, the Department will evaluate the activities in each application to determine whether or not the total amount of funds requested for housing and related activities complies with the requirements of Section 7052, which states that at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the funds made available through the State CDBG program must be used for the purpose of providing or improving housing opportunities for the targeted income group, or for directly related purposes, such as the construction of infrastructure. Targeted income group residents receiving housing or housing related benefits as a result of grants available as of that date under Section 7062.1 shall be included in the calculation of compliance with this provision. If the requirement is not met in the preliminary ranking, the Department will determine a method of increasing the amount of funding for housing activities.

(b) In the event there are insufficient funds to fund an applicant's whole program, this applicant will be offered the amount of funds available, provided it is sufficient to complete all or a complete portion of an activity which, if evaluated separately, would have been awarded funds.

(c) The Department may condition its award of funds in order to achieve the purposes of this subchapter and to ensure compliance with applicable State and federal law.

(d) The Department will complete the ranking process within eighty (80) days from the final date for submitting applications. Applicants will be notified in writing of point scores, fund awards, any grant conditions, and any adjustments made to comply with the requirement in Section 7052 that at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the State program funds be used for housing development and related improvements. Successful applicants have thirty (30) days from the date grant agreements are mailed by the Department to execute the grant agreements and return them to the Department and to comply with the provisions in Section 7056. The Department shall return to grantees a fully executed copy of the grant agreement provided the State has received funding authorization from HUD. Grantees shall not incur costs against the grant agreement prior to the date the agreement is signed by the State without prior State approval. If the State has not received this authorization from HUD by the time the grantee has forwarded to the Department the grant agreement executed by the grantee, the Department may withhold their execution of the agreements until this authorization is received. In the event an approved applicant elects not to participate in the Program or does not comply with the provisions in Section 7056, the unfunded applicant receiving the highest score will be offered a grant award, provided the requirements of Section 7052 are met.

2. Amendment filed 2–22–85; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 85, No. 9).
3. Amendment of subsection (a) filed 4–26–2002; operative 4–26–2002 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2002, No. 17).

§ 7078. Evaluation Criteria.

All applications are given quantitative ratings and ranked against each other. In rating joint applications, information for the combined needs of all participating localities will be used for the purpose of evaluating these pursuant to this section. Points are assigned according to the criteria specified in Sections 7078.1, 7078.2, 7078.3, 7078.4, 7078.5, 7078.6, and 7078.7. The maximum score possible is 1,000 points. The total number of points in the rating system is allocated as follows:

(a) Poverty Index—a maximum of one hundred (100) points.

(b) Targeted Income Group Benefit—a maximum of three hundred (300) points.

(c) Need for Activity—a maximum of two hundred (200) points.

(d) Capacity—a maximum of one hundred and fifty (150) points.

(e) Performance—a maximum of one hundred and fifty (150) points.

(f) Leverage—a maximum of fifty (50) points.

(g) State Objectives—a maximum of fifty (50) points.

§ 7078.1. Poverty Index (100 points).

The Department will compare all applicants in terms of the percentage of their population with incomes below the poverty level as defined in the latest available decennial census. The Department will compute individual scores by dividing each applicant's percentage of poverty persons by the highest percentage of poverty persons of any applicant and multiplying by 100. Applicants who elect to target their local program to fewer census tracts, or census block groups, than there are in their jurisdiction, shall receive scores based on either those targeted tracts or all the tracts, whichever results in a higher point score. In untracked counties, enumeration districts shall be used if the use of such data will result in a higher score for the applicant.

1. Amendment filed 2–22–85; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d). (Register 85, No. 9).
2. Amendment of section and Note filed 7–31–96; operative 7–31–96 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 96, No. 31).

§ 7078.2. Targeted Income Group Benefit (300 points).

All applications shall be scored and ranked using the following methodology:

Extent to which the projects and activities will benefit the targeted income group (TIG) (a maximum of 300 points). The Department will assign points for benefit based on the percentage of total program funds that would benefit the targeted income group. Applicants that demonstrate the greatest benefit to the targeted income group receive the most points.

(a) The method of computing the amount of funds that benefit the targeted income group will vary depending on the type of activity, as follows:

(1) For activities that provide benefits directly to individual households, such as housing rehabilitation activities, the methods of determining benefit are:

A. If there are income eligibility limits for the beneficiaries of the activity and these limits do not exceed the targeted income group limits for each household size, the percentage of benefit for this project or activity is 100.

B. If there are no income eligibility limits or if the income eligibility limits exceed the targeted income group limits, the number of households, by household size, within these limits shall be estimated by the applicant to determine the percentage of benefit. To receive scoring credit for the stated estimate, the application must describe the methodology used in arriving at the estimate. Statistically valid sampling or data from a reliable third party, such as the U.S. Census Bureau, will be accepted. The Department shall make available methodologies for conducting sampling which it considers statistically valid. Applicants using methodologies other than those described by the Department must demonstrate the validity of their alternative methodology. The Department, at its sole discretion, will assign a need score based upon methodologically sound data as contained within the application. In the absence of methodologically sound data, the Department may rely upon available census data to establish a score.

(2) For activities that provide services or benefits to residents of a geographic area rather than to individual households, such as a public facilities activity, the applicant's method of determining benefit will be to estimate the percentage of all households in the service area that have incomes below the targeted income group limits. If data for income is not available by household size, this estimate will be based on the targeted income group limit for a family of four. To receive scoring credit for the stated estimate, the application must describe the methodology used in arriving at the estimate. Statistically valid sampling or data from a reliable third party, such as the U.S. Census Bureau, will be accepted. The Department shall make available methodologies for conducting sampling which it considers statistically valid. Applicants using methodologies other than those described by the Department must demonstrate the validity of their alternative methodology. The Department, at its sole discretion, will assign a need score based upon methodologically sound data as contained within the application. In the absence of methodologically sound data, the Department may rely upon available census data to establish a score.

(b) The point score for the percentage of funds in each application that benefits the targeted income group will be computed by the Department for each activity as follows:

(1) The amount of funds to benefit the targeted income group for each activity is determined by dividing the number of households in this income group to be benefited by the total number of households to benefit from the activity and multiplying by the amount of funds requested for the activity.

(2) To compute the percentage of funds benefiting the targeted income group, the amounts determined for each activity are added together and divided by the total amount of requested funds. This number, multiplied by 100, is the overall percentage of funds benefiting households in the targeted income group.

(3) To compute the actual number of points to be awarded to the applicant, the number fifty–one (51) is subtracted from the overall percentage of households in the targeted income groups benefiting from the activity, and the result is multiplied by seven and sixty nine hundredths (7.69). This product is the number of points, rounded to the nearest whole integer, assigned the application for the extent of benefit to the targeted income group. If the product is 301 or more points, the amount of points awarded shall be 300 points.

4. Amendment of subsection (b)(3) filed 4–26–2002; operative 4–26–2002 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2002, No. 17).

§ 7078.3. Need for Activity (200 points).

The Department will assign points based on the seriousness of the locality's community development needs, and the impact the program will have on those needs using the following criteria:

(a) Need for community development assistance (200 points). The Department will evaluate each applicant's needs based upon the extent to which:

(1) The need for the program is well–documented, and the program addresses needs which are basic and serious;

(2) Most or all of the funds address basic and serious community development needs and these needs are more crucial than the needs of other applicants;

(3) The program resolves completely or to a large degree basic and serious community development needs.

(b) For the following activities, the Department shall evaluate the factors stated below in establishing a need score:

(1) For housing rehabilitation activities: The Department shall assess the relative condition of local housing stock based on data requested and described within the annual Notice of Funding Availability. The Department shall accept supplemental information regarding housing stock condition. The Department shall assign competitive points based upon its evaluation of the supplemental data. An applicant may designate a target area wherein the rehabilitation will occur and data for those areas, in addition to community–wide information, will be evaluated in assessing need.

(2) For public works projects: The Department shall assess the relative severity of the health and safety problem to be addressed and the likelihood that the funds requested will substantially reduce or eliminate the problem. Those applications with strong third party documentation, including ranking on other agencies' funding lists, and orders from governmental agencies, will be more competitive.

(3) For new construction projects: The Department shall assess the relative need for new construction based on data requested and described in the annual Notice of Funding Availability. The Department shall accept supplemental information regarding new construction needs. The Department shall assign competitive points based upon its evaluation of the supplemental data.

(4) For community facilities and public services activities: The Department shall assess the relative need for community facilities and public services based on: (i) the severity of the problem being addressed; and (ii) the extent to which the proposed action would solve the problem. Those applicants providing strong third–party documentation of the problem, including but not limited to waiting list information, ranking on other agencies' funding lists, and orders from governmental agencies, will be more competitive.

The Department will evaluate the above factors and assign points based upon the relative severity of each factor among all applicant communities.

HISTORY

1. Renumbering of former section 7078.3 to new section 7078.6, new section heading, renumbering of former section 7078.2(b) to first paragraph of new section 7078.3, and new subsections (a)–(b)(4), closing paragraph and NOTE filed 7–31–96; operative 7–31–96 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 96, No. 31).

§ 7078.4. Prior Performance Operating CDBG Grants (150 points).

(a) The Department shall rate applications based on the applicant's performance in administering non–economic development grants for grants funded within the four (4) program years preceding the program year under which the application has been submitted. Applicants that have not received a non–economic development grant during this period shall be rated on their capacity to administer a CDBG grant as set forth in section 7078.5 below.

(b) The Department shall give greater weight to performance under the general allocation and Native American grants than to performance under planning and technical assistance grants.

(c) The Department shall rate applicant's performance based on the following criteria:

(1) For a prior single year funding award 24 month contract, a competitive applicant will have expended at least twenty five (25%) of awarded dollars by the twelfth month of the Program contract and at least seventy–five percent (75%) by the eighteenth (18th) month.

(2) For each program activity with multi–year funding awards, a grantee that has more than 50% of a prior annual funding award disencumbered pursuant to subsection (c) of Section 7066 will be subject to negative performance points.

(3) For a project–specific multi–year funding award, a grantee that has had more than 50% of a prior annual funding award disencumbered pursuant to subsection (d) of Section 7066 will be subject to negative performance points.

(4) For all CDBG activities from open grants, the most competitive applicants will have expended a larger percentage of the awarded dollars than as set forth in this section.

(5) For all CDBG activities described within this section, competitive applicants will have expended all dollars and concluded all work by the date specified in the CDBG contract with the State. If there are delays in expenditures, circumstances must be described to the Department, in writing, at the time of the delay. If the Department previously has advised the jurisdiction in writing that there will be no performance consequences as a result of the delay, then the jurisdiction will not be at a competitive disadvantage.

(d) The Department shall also rate applications based on the applicant's timeliness in reporting to the Department, pursuant to Section 7110. The most competitive applicants will have submitted all required reports for past non–economic development grants to the Department in accordance with deadlines established and publicized by the Department. Such reports include, but are not limited to annual grantee performance reports, quarterly or other periodic reports, and close out reports.

(e) The Department shall also rate applications based on the applicant's timeliness in resolving audit and monitoring findings, if any. Where a jurisdiction demonstrates a good faith attempt to resolve outstanding issues, they will not suffer a competitive disadvantage.

(f) Applicants with no CDBG grant experience within the timeframe described in 7078.4(a), will be at no competitive disadvantage compared to those applicants who have met but not exceeded their milestones and will receive all of the available performance points, except those points awarded under Section 7078.4(c)(4).

(g) The Department shall also rate applications based on the applicant's timeliness in clearing special conditions or starting the project.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 7–31–96; operative 7–31–96 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 96, No. 31).
2. Amendment filed 4–26–2002; operative 4–26–2002 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2002, No. 17).
3. Repealer and new subsections (c)(1)–(3) filed 4–25–2005; operative 5–25–2005 (Register 2005, No. 17).

§ 7078.5. Capacity (150 points).

(a) If the applicant has administered a CDBG grant within the time frame set forth in paragraph 7078.4(a) above, they will be deemed to have some capacity to administer the proposed activity and will receive up to 100 points. If the applicant has not administered a CDBG grant within the time frame set forth in paragraph 7078.4(a) above, the application will be evaluated based on the following criteria:

(1) The applicant currently has staff with the capability or experience to administer the funds being applied for as demonstrated by resumes and descriptions of duties included as part of the application; or

(2) The applicant has contracted with, or will contract with a subcontractor that has the capacity or experience to administer the funds being applied for. The applicant shall include either an executed copy of a contract between the applicant and the subcontractor, or a copy of a signed letter of interest to enter into a contract from the proposed subcontractor.

(b) The applicant can demonstrate an increased level of capacity by completing and documenting actions that make the proposed project ready to proceed. Applicants that document actions or activity directly linked to the proposed project or program will be awarded up to 50 points. Readiness to proceed may be demonstrated by such factors as: documented commitments from all funding sources to the project; completion of environmental reviews; site control; procurement of a program operator.

2. Amendment filed 4–26–2002; operative 4–26–2002 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2002, No. 17).

§ 7078.6. Leverage (50 points).

(a) The Department shall rate applications based on private and local governmental commitments to provide additional resources which will be directly linked to the proposed project or program. To be considered for rating under this section, a commitment must be in writing, specify the dollar amount committed and, in the case of a governmental entity, be accompanied by an authorizing resolution from the governing board. Redevelopment agencies and counties providing resources to a city-sponsored program or project shall be considered local government for purposes of this section. Federal or state funds being passed through a private entity shall not be considered a commitment. For competitive purposes, the Department will evaluate private leverage by comparing committed dollars among applications for the same activity.

(b) For non-monetary commitments from a local government, such as a relaxation of regulatory requirements, the Department, in its sole discretion, shall rate each jurisdiction in comparison with its competitors on the extent to which they contribute to the project's objectives. For competitive purposes, the Department will evaluate local regulatory relief by comparing local actions among applications for the same activity.

(c) Local government commitments shall be separated into groups based on applicants' relative tax bases. Groupings shall be calculated annually based on the information on local revenues contained in the most recently published Financial Transactions Concerning Cities and Counties of California published by the State Controller. These groupings shall be announced in the annual Notice of Funding Availability.

§ 7078.7. State Objectives (50 points).

(a) The Department may award an application up to 50 points for addressing one or more state objectives as identified in the annual CDBG NOFA.

(b) Department selection of state objectives shall be based on one or more of the following:

(1) Emergent circumstances such as natural disaster or economic dislocation.

(2) Imbalance among the types of activities funded in prior years' awards such as housing rehabilitation programs compared to public infrastructure projects.

(3) Imbalance in the geographic distribution of funds in prior years' awards.

(4) Imbalance in the population served in prior years' awards such as smaller jurisdictions compared to larger jurisdictions, general program beneficiaries compared to special needs groups such as farm workers, under-trained work force, or historically unsuccessful or inactive applicants compared to active, successful applicants.

(5) Federal funding priorities as publicly announced by HUD.

(6) Housing and community development needs or objectives identified in the annual Consolidated Plan required by HUD.

Article 3. Other Program Requirements

§ 7080. Citizen Participation.

Each applicant shall provide opportunities for the participation of all persons who may be affected by the program, especially persons with incomes in the targeted income group. The opportunity to participate shall be available, at minimum, during the following phases of the program: program design and preparation of the application; the preparation of the annual performance report required in Section 7110; the preparation of any program amendments which constitute a reallocation of more than ten percent (10%) of the total program budget; and the preparation of any program amendments which constitute changes in policies, standards, or criteria for program implementation. A minimum of one public meeting is required at each of the program phases listed above. In addition, each applicant shall hold a minimum of one public hearing prior to submitting the application to the Department. The applicant shall provide for public notice prior to each meeting and public hearing and shall make program information available to the public prior to these meetings and hearings. Applicants shall use standard legal and other forms of notice including bilingual notice in areas with concentrations of non-English speaking minorities.

Applicants shall invite written comments on the proposed program and shall write a reply to any comments received. This written correspondence shall be maintained as a part of the public record and copies shall be submitted to the Department along with the application. The Department will respond within thirty (30) days to all correspondence written directly to the Department regarding an applicant's program. Applicants shall maintain a file of documents relevant to their block grant program, including proposed activities and final application, minutes of public meetings and hearings, copies of public notices and performance reviews; these documents shall be available to the public during normal working hours. Citizens shall be provided full and timely access to program records and information in a manner consistent with applicable laws regarding personal privacy and obligations of confidentiality.

§ 7082. Environmental Reviews.

The grantee shall assume the responsibility for environmental review, decision-making and all other actions required under the California Environmental Quality Act of 1970 (CEQA), Public Resources Code 21000 et seq.; and the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA), 42 U.S.C. 4321 et seq.

In order to ensure compliance with NEPA, grantees shall assume the responsibilities for environmental review and decision making following the procedures for "recipients" of Block Grant funds as set forth in 24 CFR, Part 58, entitled "Environmental Review Procedures for Title I Community Development Block Grant Programs." The Department shall assume the responsibilities set forth in Subpart C of 24 CFR, Part 58 and fulfill the State's role under Subpart J of 24 CFR, Part 58.

HISTORY

1. Repealer of subsection (a) and subsection (b) designator and amendment of NOTE filed 7–31–96; operative 7–31–96 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 96, No. 31).

§ 7084. Nondiscrimination.

(a) Discrimination prohibited. No person shall, on the grounds of race, color, religion, ancestry, marital status, physical handicap, national origin, sex, or any other arbitrary basis be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under, any program or activity funded in whole or in part with CDBG funds made available pursuant to this subchapter. All grantees shall comply with the requirements contained in 24 CFR 570.601, 570.602, 570.607, 570.506(g).

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50406(h) and 50406(n), Health and Safety Code. Reference: 24 CFR 570.506(g), 570.601, 570.602, 570.607.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (a), repealer of subsections (b)–(d)(2) and amendment of NOTE filed 7–31–96; operative 7–31–96 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 96, No. 31).

§ 7086. Relocation and Acquisition.

The provisions of the Uniform Relocation Act, as amended, 49 CFR Part 24, and 42 U.S.C. 5304(d) shall be followed where any acquisition of real property is carried out by a grantee and assisted in whole or in part by funds allocated pursuant to this subchapter. In addition, where the rehabilitation of residential rental units results in increased rents for members of the targeted income group, the grantee shall also comply with the requirements of the above-cited sections of federal law. Relocation expenses which may, by law, be paid are eligible expenses for use of CDBG funds.

1. Amendment of section and NOTE filed 7-31-96; operative 7-31-96 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 96, No. 31).

§ 7088. Labor Standards.

(a) All laborers and mechanics employed by contactors or subcontractors on construction work assisted pursuant to this subchapter shall be paid by wages at rates not less than those prevailing on similar construction in the locality as determined by the Secretary of Labor in accordance with the Davis-Bacon Act, as amended (40 U.S.C. 276(a) to 276(a)(5)), and shall receive overtime compensation in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the Contract Work Hours and Safety Standards Act (40 U.S.C. 327-333), and the contractors and subcontractors shall comply with all regulations issued pursuant to these Acts and with other applicable federal laws and regulations pertaining to labor standards. This section shall apply to the rehabilitation of residential property only if such property is designed for residential use of eight or more families. The Secretary of Labor has, with respect to the labor standards specified in this section, the authority and functions set forth in Reorganization Plan Number 14 of 1950 (5 U.S.C. 133z-15), and Section 2 of the Act of June 13, 1934, as amended (40 U.S.C. 276(c))

(b) Grantees shall also assume all responsibilities for compliance with the provisions of Cal. Labor Code, Section 1720 et seq., regarding State labor standards compliance for Public Works as defined in Cal. Labor Code, Section 1720.

§ 7090. Architectural Barriers Act of 1968.

Every building or facility, other than a privately-owned residential structure, designed, constructed, or altered with funds made available pursuant to this subchapter, shall comply with the requirements of 24 CFR Parts 40 and 41 issued pursuant to the Architectural Barriers Act of 1968 (42 U.S.C. 4151).

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50406(h) and 50406(n), Health and Safety Code; 24 CFR 570.489(b). Reference: Sections 50406 and 50407, Health and Safety Code; 42 U.S.C. 4151; 24 CFR, Parts 40 and 41; 24 CFR 570.489.

§ 7092. Hatch Act.

Neither the Community Development Block Grant Program nor the funds provided therefor, nor the personnel employed in the administration of the program shall in any way or to any extent engage in the conduct of political activities in contravention of Chapter 15 of Title 5, United States Code.

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50406(h) and 50406(n), Health and Safety Code; 24 CFR 570.489(b). Reference: Sections 50406 and 50407, Health and Safety Code; 5 U.S.C. 1501 et seq.; 24 CFR 570.489.

§ 7094. Lead-based Paint Poisoning Prevention Act.

CDBG grantees must comply with HUD's Lead-Based Paint Regulations (24 CFR, Part 35) issued pursuant to the Lead-Based Paint Poisoning Prevention Act (42 U.S.C. 4831 et seq.) requiring prohibition of the use of lead-based paint, whenever funding awarded pursuant to this subchapter is used directly or indirectly by the grantee for construction, rehabilitation, or modernization of residential structures, elimination of immediate lead-based paint hazards in residential structures assisted pursuant to this subchapter, or the notification of the hazards of lead-based paint poisoning to purchasers and tenants of residential structures constructed prior to 1950 and funded under the CDBG program.

§ 7110. Monitoring and Reporting of Program Performance.

(a) Grantees shall monitor the performance of grant-supported activities to assure that time schedules are being met and the milestones in the work schedule are being accomplished. This review shall be made for each activity in the approved grant agreement.

(b) Each grantee shall prepare annual and periodic performance reports. Except as provided for in subdivision (d) below, performance reports shall not be required more frequently than quarterly unless warranted by special circumstances.

(c) The performance report for each activity shall describe the following:

(1) A description of actual accomplishments compared to the objectives established for the reporting period. In addition, where the results of activities can be quantified, unit costs shall be reported.

(2) Reasons why established objectives were not met.

(3) Other information such as a specific explanation of cost overruns or high unit costs.

(d) Between the required performance reporting dates, events may occur which have an impact upon the activity or program. In such cases, the grantee shall inform the Department in writing as soon as the following occur:

(1) Problems, delays, or adverse conditions which will affect the grantee's ability to attain program objectives, prevent the meeting of time schedules or goals, or preclude the attainment of work units by the established time period. This reporting shall be accompanied by a statement of the action taken or contemplated, and any assistance needed, to resolve the situation.

(2) Completion of each milestone in the work schedule.

(e) If a performance review conducted by a grantee discloses the need for change in the budget estimates in accordance with the criteria established in Section 7114, the grantee shall submit a request for budget revision pursuant to that section.

(f) The Department will make site visits to review program accomplishments and management control systems, and to or provide program assistance.

(g) The Department will review each grantee's performance to determine whether:

(1) the grantee has carried out the program as described in its application;

(2) the program complies with this subchapter and other applicable laws and regulations; and

(3) the grantee has the continuing capacity to complete the approved program according to time schedules approved by the Department.

If performance is found not to be in conformance with the grant application, agreement, or approved amendments, the Department may require corrective or remedial actions, or may recall or disencumber grant funds.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsections (b) and (d) filed 2–22–85; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 85, No. 9).
2. Amendment of subsection (b) and NOTE filed 7–31–96; operative 7–31–96 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 96, No. 31).

§ 7112. Grant Payment Requirements.

(a) Grant payment methods shall minimize the time elapsing between the disbursement by a grantee and the transfer of funds from the State to the grantee, whether such disbursement occurs prior to or subsequent to the transfer of funds.

(b) Grant payments are made to grantees by an advance or a reimbursement. An advance is a payment made by the State to a grantee upon its request before cash outlays are made by the grantee, subject to limitations provided in the grant agreement, and based on the type of grantee program. A reimbursement is a payment made to a grantee upon request for payment of costs already paid by grantee.

(c) Unless otherwise provided by regulation, the State shall not withhold payments for allowable charges made by grantees at any time during the grant period unless (1) a grantee has failed to comply with the grant agreement, or (2) the grantee is indebted to the State and collection of the indebtedness will not impair accomplishment of the objectives of any grant program sponsored by the Department. Under such conditions, the Department may, upon 15 days notice, inform the grantee that payments will not be made for obligations incurred after a specified date until the noncompliance is resolved or the indebtedness to the State is liquidated.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (b) filed 1–19–84; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 84, No. 3).

§ 7114. Revision Procedures.

(a) "Cost categories," as used in this section, means any of the following: personal services, operating expenses, capital outlays, loans, grants or indirect costs.

(b) "Grant budget," as used in this section, means the approved financial plan to carry out the purpose of the grant program, or activity. It should be related to performance for program evaluation purposes.

(c) The grantee may not amend the program or activity in a manner which is inconsistent with the original basis for the award without the Department's written approval of the change. In addition, grantees shall request prior written approval from the Department when a program or budget revision will be necessary for the following reasons:

(1) Changes are to be made in the scope or the objective of the program or activity.

(2) Additional funding is needed.

(3) Amounts budgeted for indirect costs must be reallocated to absorb increases in direct costs.

(4) The need for transfers of funds among cost categories or activities when the cumulative amount of such transfers exceeds or is expected to exceed ten percent (10%) of the activity budget. The same criteria shall apply to the cumulative amount of transfers among programs or activities when budgeted separately for an award, except that no transfer is permitted that would cause any grant appropriation, or part thereof, to be used for purposes other than those intended in the grant program; or

(5) When the Department awards a grant which provides support for both construction and nonconstruction work to make any Fund or budget transfers between the two types of work supported.

(d) Grantees shall notify the Department whenever the amount of authorized funds is expected to exceed the needs of the grantee by more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(e) Within 30 days from the date of receipt of the request for grant budget and program revisions, the Department shall review the request and notify the grantee whether or not the revisions have been approved. If the revision is still under consideration at the end of 30 days, the Department shall inform the grantee in writing as to when the grantee may expect the decision.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (b) (4) filed 1-19-84; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 84, No. 3).
2. Amendment filed 2-22-85; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 85, No. 9).

§ 7116. Grant Closeout Procedures.

(a) The following definitions shall apply for the purpose of this section.

(1) "Grant closeout" is the process by which the Department determines that all applicable administrative actions and all required work of the grant have been completed by the grantee and the State.

(2) "Date of completion" is the date when all work under a grant is completed, or the date in the grant agreement, or any supplement or amendment thereto on which funding ends.

(3) "Termination of a grant" means the cancellation of funding, in whole or in part, at any time prior to the date of completion.

(4) "Suspension of a grant" is an action by the Department which temporarily suspends funding under the grant pending either corrective action by the grantee or a decision by the Department to terminate the grant.

(5) "Disallowed costs" are those charges to a grant which the Department determines to be unallowable.

(b) The grant closeout procedures include the following:

(1) Upon request, the Department shall make payments to a grantee for allowable reimbursable costs under the grant being closed out.

(2) The grantee shall refund to the Department any balance of unobligated cash advanced to the grantee that is not authorized to be retained by the grantee.

(3) Within 90 days after the date of completion of the grant the grantee shall provide the Department with all financial, performance, and other reports required as a condition of the grant. The Department may grant time extensions for cause when requested by the grantee.

(4) When authorized by the grant agreement, the Department may make a settlement for any upward or downward adjustments to the State share of costs after the reports are received.

(5) The grantee shall account for any property acquired in whole or in part with grant funds, in accordance with the provisions of Section 7118, pertaining to property management and Section 7104, pertaining to program income.

(6) In the event a final audit has not been performed prior to the closeout of the grant, the Department shall retain the right to recover the amount of disallowed costs after fully considering the recommendations of the final audit.

(c) The Department shall provide procedures to be followed when a grantee fails to comply with the agreement. When that occurs, the Department may, after notifying the grantee in writing, suspend the grant and withhold further payments, or prohibit the grantee from incurring additional obligations of grant funds, pending corrective action by the grantee or a decision to terminate in accordance with subdivision (d). The Department shall allow costs which the grantee could not avoid during the period of suspension provided that the costs meet the provisions of the U.S. Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular A-87.

(d) Grants may be terminated as follows:

(1) Termination for cause. The Department may terminate any grant, in whole or in part, at any time before the date of completion whenever the Department determines that the grantee has failed to comply with the conditions of the grant agreement. The Department shall promptly notify the grantee in writing of the determination, the reasons for the termination, and the effective date. Payments made to grantees or recoveries by the Department under grants terminated for cause shall be in accord with the legal rights and liabilities of the parties.

(2) Termination for convenience. The Department or the grantee may terminate a grant, in whole or in part, when both parties agree that the continuation of the project would not produce beneficial results commensurate with the further expenditure of funds. The two parties shall agree upon the termination conditions, and the portion of the grant to be terminated. The grantee shall not incur new obligations for the terminated portion after the effective date of the termination, and shall cancel as many outstanding obligations as possible. The Department will fund all eligible obligations that the grantee cannot cancel.

§ 7126. Conflict of Interest.

Grantees shall enforce standards for conflicts of interest which govern the performance of their officers, employees, or agents engaged in the award and administration of State CDBG grant funds. The standards for conflicts of interest shall prohibit any conflict of interest as defined in Title 24 Code of Federal Regulations Part 570.611 (as revised on 10–14–83) which is hereby incorporated by reference. The Department shall use the criteria and standards set forth in Title 24 CFR 570.611 in evaluating questions concerning potential conflicts of interest.

(c) In the event of a conflict between the provisions of Subchapter 19 and this Subchapter 3, the provisions of this Subchapter 3 shall prevail.

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50402 and 50406, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50517.5, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Renumbering of former section 7239 to new section 7201, including amendment of subsection (a), filed 4–2–2008; operative 5–2–2008 (Register 2008, No. 14).

§ 7202. Definitions.

In addition to the definitions found in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 50050), of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, the following definitions and, for rental housing developments only, those found in the Uniform Multifamily Regulations ("UMRs") (Chapter 7, subchapter 19, Section 8301), shall apply to this subchapter. In the event of a conflict between the following definitions and those found in the UMRs, the following definitions prevail for the purpose of this subchapter. References to code sections refer to sections of these regulations unless otherwise noted:

(a) "Agricultural employment" means employed in the cultivation and tillage of the soil; the production, cultivation, growing and harvesting of any agricultural or horticultural commodities; the raising of livestock, bees, furbearing animals, or poultry; dairying, forestry, and lumbering operations; and any work on a farm as incident to or in conjunction with such farming operations, including the delivery and preparation of commodities for market or storage.

(b) "Agricultural household" means an agricultural worker or workers and other persons who reside or will reside with an agricultural worker in an assisted unit.

(c) "Agricultural worker" means an individual who derives or prior to retirement or disability derived a substantial portion of his/her income from agricultural employment.

(d) "Applicant" means an organization that applies for a loan and/or grant from the Fund.

(e) "Assistance" means a loan and/or grant provided from the Fund to an applicant, or a grant made directly to an agricultural worker.

(f) "Assisted unit" means a residential housing unit that is purchased, developed or rehabilitated with assistance from the Fund and is subject to the occupancy, resale, or rent restrictions imposed by this Subchapter.

(g) "Award" means a commitment of money from the Fund in the form of a grant or a loan that is made to a recipient by the Department.

(h) "Borrower" means an eligible organization that has applied for, or has received approval for, a loan from the Fund. The term "borrower" shall include successors in interest and assignees of a borrower.

(i) "CalHFA" means the California Housing Finance Agency.

(j) "Cash investments" include but are not limited to:

(1) Recipient's cash contribution;
(2) Private financial assistance;
(3) Local public entity financial assistance;
(4) State financial assistance from programs other than the Fund;
(5) Federal government financial assistance.

(k) "Department" means the California Department of Housing and Community Development.

(l) "Fiscal Integrity," with respect to a Rental Housing Development, means that the total Operating Income plus funds released pursuant to the Regulatory Agreement from the operating reserve account is sufficient to: (1) pay all current Operating Expenses (including asset management fees and deferred developer fees, if permitted by the Regulatory Agreement); (2) pay all current debt service (excluding deferred interest); (3) fully fund all reserve accounts (other than the operating reserve account) established pursuant to the Regulatory Agreement; and (4) pay other extraordinary costs permitted by the Regulatory Agreement. The ability to pay any or all of the permitted annual Distributions shall not be considered in determining Fiscal Integrity.

(m) "Fund" means the Joe Serna, Jr. Farmworker Housing Grant Fund.

(n) "Grant" means a commitment of money from the Fund in the form of a grant that is made to a grantee by the Department.

(o) "Grantee" means an eligible organization that has applied or has received approval for a grant from the Fund. The term "Grantee" shall include successors in interest and assignees of a grantee.

(p) "Grant Agreement" means the written agreement between the department and the developer of a rental housing development receiving a grant or the developer of an ownership housing project, as more fully described in Section 7226, ensuring compliance with construction, financial and program obligations.

(q) "Housing cost"—for homeownership, see Title 25, California Administrative Code, Section 6920.

(r) "Housing development" means residential housing and related support facilities necessary to such housing that receives assistance from the Fund and includes assisted housing units.

(s) "In-kind contributions" include but are not limited to contributions directly related to the housing development in the form of:

(1) labor and/or other eligible services;

(2) land and/or site development;

(3) existing structures;

(4) materials.

(t) "Limited Partnership" means a "limited partnership" as defined in Section 171.5 of the Corporations Code and in which each general partner is a nonprofit public benefit corporation, a limited liability company where all the members are nonprofit public benefit corporations, or a combination of both.

(u) "Local public entity" means any county, city, city and county, redevelopment agency or public housing authority, and also includes any state agency, public district or other political subdivision of the state, and any instrumentality thereof, which is authorized to engage in or assist in the development or operation of housing for persons and families of low income. It also includes the governing body or housing authority of a federally recognized Indian tribe. It also includes two or more local public entities acting jointly.

(v) "Low/lower income household"—see Title 25, California Administrative Code Section 6928.

(w) "Manufactured housing" means a mobilehome, as defined by Health and Safety Code Section 18008.

(x) "Matching share" means the proceeds of loans, cash investments, or in-kind contributions that the recipient commits to the total development or rehabilitation cost of the housing development. The Department will determine the valuation and eligibility of a proposed matching share where necessary.

(y) "Net income"—see Title 25, California Administrative Code, Section 6916.

(z) "NOFA" is the acronym for Notice of Funding Availability. The NOFA is the document used by the department to announce that funds are available and applications may be submitted.

(aa) "Nonprofit Corporation" means the same as "nonprofit corporation" defined in Health and Safety Code Section 50091.

(bb) "Program" means the Joe Serna, Jr. Farmworker Housing Grant Program.

(cc) "Project" means: the acquisition, rehabilitation, and/or construction of a rental housing development; or the construction of single-family homes where the title to the homes will be transferred to an Agricultural Worker.

(dd) "Project organization or planning costs" include developer fees.

(ee) "Recipient" means an eligible organization that has applied or has received approval for an award of funds in the form of a grant or loan from the Fund. The term "Recipient" shall include successors in interest and assignees of a recipient.

(ff) "Regulatory Agreement" means the written agreement between the Department and a Borrower that will be recorded as a lien on the rental housing development to control the use and maintenance of the project, including restricting rent and occupancy of assisted units.

(gg) "Rehabilitation" means repairs and improvements to a dwelling unit necessary to make it a modest, decent, safe, and sanitary dwelling which meets applicable state and local building and housing standards mandated by the enforcement agency.

(hh) "Related support facilities" include but are not limited to:

(1) water and sewer facilities and other utilities directly related to the proposed housing development.

(2) physical improvements for child care services, recreational activities, meeting room(s) all of which are intended for use of project residents.

(3) solar and other alternative energy efficient systems.

(ii) "Rental Housing Development" means the same as "Rental Housing Development" as defined in subsection (o) of Section 8301.

(jj) "Rural Development" or "RD" means the United States Department of Agriculture acting through the Rural Housing Service, formerly knows as the Farmers Home Administration.

(kk) "Subsequent Grant Agreement" means the written agreement between the Department and an Agricultural Household purchasing an owner-occupied unit used to ensure compliance with Program requirements as further described in Section 7228.

(ll) "Very low income"—see Title 25, California Administrative Code, Section 6926.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 2-10-83; designated effective 3-4-83 pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 83, No. 7).
2. Amendment of definitions of "Grant" and "Grantee" and repealer of definition of "Nonprofit corporation" filed 10-1-2002; operative 10-1-2002 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2002, No. 40).
3. Amendment filed 4-2-2008; operative 5-2-2008 (Register 2008, No. 14).

Article 2. Program Requirements

§ 7204. Project Eligibility Requirements.

Program funds may only be expended for housing developments that meet the following criteria:

(a) The housing development must contain assisted units to be occupied by agricultural households.

(b) To the greatest extent possible, assisted units are to be occupied by lower-income agricultural households.

(c) To the greatest extent possible, any non-assisted units are to be occupied by agricultural households.

(d) Assisted units in a rental housing development required to be made available to lower-income households pursuant to Section 7209 are to be made available at affordable rents as defined in Health and Safety Code Section 50053.

(e) When grant funds are to be used for homeownership purposes, assisted units shall be newly constructed, and are to be made available to lower-income households at a total monthly housing cost not to exceed 35% of monthly net income.

(1) An eligible household's monthly housing costs may exceed 35% of monthly net income if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(A) the proposed housing costs are approximately the same as the present housing costs of the household, and

(B) a satisfactory credit record has been maintained by the households, and

(C) the household has demonstrated an ability to sustain its present housing expense without serious difficulty.

(2) In the alternative, a different standard can be applied if it has otherwise been determined by the Department that the eligible household can assume greater responsibility for monthly housing costs.

§ 7205. Applicant Eligibility Requirements.

(a) To be eligible to apply for funding, the applicant shall be a local public entity, nonprofit corporation, limited liability company, or limited partnership. In the case of a nonprofit corporation, limited liability company, or limited partnership, the applicant shall demonstrate to the department's satisfaction that the applicant is independent from any direction of, or control by, a for-profit entity and shall meet the requirements of Section 7205.1.

(b) To be eligible to receive funding, the applicant shall demonstrate to the Department's satisfaction that:

(1) It has the ability to timely proceed with the construction or rehabilitation of the development or program upon commitment of Program funds; and

(2) It has sufficient experience and organizational capacity to carry out the activity for which Program funds are being requested. In the case of a rental housing development, the applicant shall have:

(A) Successfully developed and owned a minimum of one rental housing project; and/or

(B) Have a staff with demonstrated experience in developing and owning a minimum of one rental housing project.

(C) Have a staff with demonstrated experience in managing a rental housing development occupied primarily by agricultural workers and their families.

(c) To be eligible to receive a commitment of funds to provide direct grants to Agricultural Employees for the purchase of a new conventionally constructed homes, or rehabilitation of existing owner-occupied housing, the Applicant shall demonstrate to the Department's satisfaction that it is sponsoring and supervising the program of rehabilitation or construction.

(d) To be eligible to receive funding for the purchase of Manufactured Homes not placed on a permanent foundation, the Applicant shall demonstrate to the Department's satisfaction that it is operating, or will operate using Program funds, a program to address and remedy the impacts of current and potential displacement of Agricultural Households from existing labor camps, mobilehome parks, or other housing due to governmental actions to enforce health and safety laws including, but not limited to the Mobilehome Parks Act and the Employee Housing Act.

§ 7205.1. Limited Partnership Eligibility Requirements.

(a) To be eligible to apply for funding, a limited partnership shall demonstrate to the Department's satisfaction that it is controlled by a nonprofit public benefit corporation, limited liability company, or a combination of both. If the limited partnership is controlled by a limited liability company, the limited liability company shall demonstrate to the Department's satisfaction that it is controlled by a nonprofit public benefit corporation.

(b) In making its determination, the Department shall consider the limited partnership agreement, any limited liability company operating agreement, the articles and bylaws of any nonprofit corporation, and any pertinent side agreements between limited and general partners relating to the management and operations of the limited partnership (collectively, "organizational documents").

(c) In order to demonstrate control, a nonprofit corporation or limited liability company must have the authority to perform substantially all of the following functions, as shown in the organizational documents:

(1) Employ and maintain a staff that has the experience and ability to perform the responsibilities and functions of the partnership.

(2) Rent, maintain and repair the rental housing development or, if such duties are delegated to a property management agent, hire and oversee the work of the property management agent.

(3) Hire and oversee the work of all persons necessary to provide services for the management and operation of the limited partnership business.

(4) Execute and enforce all contracts executed by the limited partnership.

(5) Execute and deliver all partnership documents on behalf of the limited partnership.

(6) Prepare or cause to be prepared all reports to be provided to the partners and lenders on a monthly, quarterly, or annual basis consistent with the requirements of the limited partnership agreement.

(7) Coordinate all present and future development, construction, or rehabilitation of the rental housing development that is the subject of the limited partnership agreement.

(8) Monitor compliance with all government regulations and file or supervise the filing of all required documents with government agencies.

(9) Acquire, hold, assign or dispose of partnership property or any interest in partnership property.

(10) Borrow money on behalf of the limited partnership, encumber limited partnership assets, place title in the name of a nominee to obtain financing, prepay in whole or in part, refinance, increase, modify or extend any obligation.

(11) Pay organizational expenses incurred in the creation of the partnership and all operational expenses.

(12) Determine the amount and timing of distributions to partners and establish and maintain all required reserves.

§ 7205.2. Nonprofit Corporation Eligibility Requirements.

For all applicants, where a nonprofit corporation is part of the ownership structure, the involved nonprofit corporation shall meet the following requirements:

(a) The articles and by laws shall clearly demonstrate that the corporation's authorized mission includes the provision of affordable or low-income housing.

(b) Any fees earned as a general partner shall remain with the corporation. No fees shall be assigned to a for-profit organization.

(c) The partnership agreement shall be structured to permit the nonprofit corporation to eventually purchase the rental housing development.

§ 7206. Eligible Activities.

Subject to all applicable requirements of this subchapter, Program funds may be used for the following activities:

(a) Rehabilitation, acquisition and rehabilitation, or construction of a Rental Housing Development.

(b) Single-family new construction in which the ultimate Grantees are participants. Title to the development property may be held in the name of the recipient until completion of construction of the individual home, or title to the development property may be transferred to a Grantee prior to or during construction. Development may be on contiguous lots or on scattered sites.

(c) Owner-occupied rehabilitation.

(d) Acquisition of Manufactured Homes not installed on permanent foundations as part of a program to address and remedy the impacts of current and potential displacement of farmworker families from existing labor camps, mobilehome parks, or other housing.

(e) Migrant farmworker assistance as permitted under subdivision (c) of Section 50517.10 of the Health and Safety Code.

§ 7207. Site Control Requirements.

(a) For a Rental Housing Development, at the time of Application the Applicant shall have site control pursuant to Section 8303.

(b) For a single-family Project, at the time of Application, the Applicant shall have site control pursuant to either subsection (a), (c), (d), (e), or (f) of Section 8303, or pursuant to a ground lease. If the project will be on a lease, the terms and conditions of the proposed lease shall permit the lessee to make improvements on and encumber the property, and permit compliance with all requirements of this subchapter.

(c) Grants by the department to individual Agricultural Workers shall not be disbursed unless and until the Agricultural Worker is the fee owner of the real property, the lessee under a lease, or, in the case of a Manufactured Home not on a permanent foundation, is the registered owner.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 4-2-2008; operative 5-2-2008 (Register 2008, No. 14).

§ 7208. General Requirements.

(a) Matching Share. Before the Department will make a firm commitment for a grant or a loan, an applicant must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Department that it can and will provide for the housing development a matching share at least equal to the offered grant or loan; or in the case of an application for not more than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), the applicant demonstrates to the department's satisfaction its inability to secure adequate financing from other sources.

(b) Architectural and Engineering Requirements. Housing developments not involving a public lender or insurer of loans shall be subject to a Departmental review of the architectural and engineering aspects of the project.

(c) Non-Discrimination and Affirmative Action. Recipients must agree not to discriminate on account of race, sex, age, marital status, physical disability, creed, religion, or national origin and to abide by all local, state and federal regulations precluding such discrimination. Moreover, recipients must agree to adopt and implement affirmative action programs to cover all aspects of the construction, rehabilitation, marketing, and management of the housing developed with the assistance of the Fund.

(1) Recipients will be required to execute certificates of nondiscrimination.

(2) Recipients will be required to adopt and implement affirmative action programs approved by the Department.

(d) Local, State or Federal Requirements. Recipients are required to abide by such local, state or federal rules and regulations as are applicable to the proposed housing development. These may include but are not limited to: zoning ordinances, building and housing codes; planning; historical preservation, environmental, tenant occupancy, and relocation regulations; and applicable federal requirements.

(e) Reports. Recipients are required to provide the Department with periodic reports on the progress of the housing development and the expenditure of grant and/or loan funds from the date of grant and/or loan approval to date of completion of the housing development and occupancy by agricultural households. Recipients are also required to provide the Department with reports on the characteristics of the housing development and its occupants.

§ 7209. Minimum Number of Assisted Units and Affordability.

(a) For a Rental Housing Development, Assisted Units shall be provided shall be as follows:

(1) When Program funds amount to less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the total development/rehabilitation cost or value of a project, whichever is applicable, for every one percent (1%) of the total development/rehabilitation cost or value which Program funds constitute, a minimum of two percent (2%) of the total number of units of the housing development shall be designated as assisted units restricted to occupancy by agricultural households.

(2) When the funds amount to twenty five percent (25%) or more of the total development/rehabilitation cost or value of a housing development, the number of assisted units restricted to occupancy by agricultural households shall be directly proportional to the percentage of Program funds awarded to the total development/rehabilitation costs, but not less than fifty percent (50%) of the total number of units in the housing development.

(3) To the greatest extent possible consistent with fiscal integrity, at least ten percent (10%) of the assisted units shall be reserved for agricultural households with incomes no greater than thirty percent (30%) of area median income (AMI). These units shall be distributed reasonably among bedroom sizes. The remaining ninety percent (90%) of assisted units shall be reserved for agricultural households with incomes no greater than 80% of AMI.

(4) Rent limits for initial occupancy and for each subsequent tenancy by a new eligible household shall apply to all assisted units in accordance with subdivision (b) of Health and Safety Code Section 50053.

(5) In the event that the agricultural worker population in a Rental Housing Development falls below the minimum number required to occupy the housing development either through change of status or by persons leaving the housing development, the recipient shall implement an affirmative marketing plan which will recruit other agricultural households as units become available until the minimum number is once again in occupancy.

(b) For homeownership housing developments, where program funds are used for subdivision development costs, the percentage of assisted units shall not be less than the percentage of the total development cost or value which Program funds constitute.

§ 7209.5. Eligible Expenditures.

(a) The costs which may be paid from Program funds for the rehabilitation or construction of conventionally constructed housing are only those which are approved by the Department as reasonable and necessary for the construction or rehabilitation of the housing development, including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) The cost of refinancing or acquiring land and any buildings thereon, including payments for commissions, options, deposits, or contracts to purchase properties on a proposed housing development site or payments for the purchase of such properties.

(2) The cost of site preparation, demolition, and clearing.

(3) Architectural, engineering, legal, accounting, packaging and other fees paid or payable in connection with the planning, execution, and financing of a housing development and the finding of an eligible mortgage for a housing development.

(4) The cost of necessary reports, studies, surveys, plans, permits, and fees.

(5) The cost of insurance, interest and financing, tax and assessment costs, and other operating and carrying costs incurred during construction or rehabilitation.

(6) The cost of construction or rehabilitation of the housing development and related support facilities including material, direct labor, and actual construction supervision.

(7) The cost of land improvements, including, but not limited to, landscaping, site preparation and streets, sewers, utilities, and other offsite improvements, whether or not such costs are paid in cash or in a form other than cash.

(8) A reasonable profit in addition to job overhead to the general contractor and subcontractors.

(9) An allowance for reasonable reserves set aside to defray unanticipated additional development or rehabilitation costs and operating costs during the initial years of occupancy of the housing development.

(10) Repayment of a predevelopment loan made by a public entity or nonprofit corporation incorporated in any state or the District of Columbia.

(11) The cost of developing or modifying a housing development or structure so that it is accessible to and convenient for the elderly or disabled.

(12) The cost of such other items, including tenant and homeowner relocation and tenant and homeowner counseling, as the Department shall determine to be reasonable and necessary for the development or rehabilitation of a housing development.

(13) The cost of solar and other energy efficient alternative systems.

(b) The costs which may be paid from Program funds for the purchase of a Manufactured Home are only those which are approved by the Department as reasonable and necessary for the acquisition and installation of the Manufactured Home including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) Purchase of the Manufactured Home including taxes and registration fees; and

(2) Delivery, installation, and set-up charges;

(c) Unauthorized Costs. Program funds shall not be used for:

(1) A recipient's project organization or planning costs including, but not limited to, administrative costs or developer fees.

(2) Downpayment assistance.

(d) Special Limitations. The following limitations on eligible expenses will apply.

(1) Engineering Fees. These fees must not exceed prevailing rates unless an unusual engineering situation exists and is substantiated. Normally, the engineering fees allowable under RD and/or HUD-FHA schedules and practices will provide the upper limit for such cost expenditures.

(2) Architectural Fees. These fees must not exceed prevailing rates unless an unusual architectural situation exists and is substantiated. Normally, the architectural fees allowable under RD and/or HUD-FHA schedules and practices will provide the upper limit for such expenditures.

(3) Grant or Loan Packager Fees. Program funds may be used for such fees if all of the following occur:

(A) The tasks and fees of the packager are enumerated in an agreement between the applicant and the packager which is subject to prior approval by the Department;

(B) The applicant is incapable of carrying out the task for which these services are sought;

(C) The applicant does not have the funds with which to hire a packager;

(D) Payments to the packager are staged in accordance with the completion of various tasks;

(E) For RD financed housing developments, such fees will be disbursed from the Fund only if, in advance of the initial disbursement, RD approves the use of a packager and the fees to be paid; and

(F) Charges payable from Program funds for such fees may be approved to a maximum of 1% of the housing development's costs or $100 per unit, whichever is less.

(4) Legal Fees. These fees must be reasonable relative to the legal work required. Normally, the legal fees allowable under RD and/or HUD-FHA schedules and practices will provide the upper limit for such expenses. Billings or statements for legal services must be itemized.

(e) Waivers. The Director may waive any requirement of this section not required by law if it is determined that such requirement would adversely affect the purposes of the grant program or that such requirement would impose an intolerable burden on the grantee.

HISTORY

1. Renumbering of former section 7206 to new section 7209.5, including amendment of section, filed 4-2-2008; operative 5-2-2008 (Register 2008, No. 14).

§ 7210. Site and Design Criteria.

(a) Applicants shall observe the following criteria relative to the location and design of proposed housing developments:

(1) Site Criteria.

(A) The location is in or reasonably near a residential area with access to schools, shopping, medical services, social services and employment;

(B) The location does not unnecessarily confine assisted units to an area in which there exists a high concentration of low income households.

(C) The location of the housing development is not found to be inconsistent with the housing element or housing assistance plan of the public jurisdiction in which the housing development is to be located;

(D) The characteristics of the site, including its topography and distance to public utilities, do not result in unreasonable development or rehabilitation costs; and

(E) The site will not be in a 100 year flood plain unless sufficient measures have been taken, as determined by the Department, to ensure the security of the housing development in the event of flooding.

(2) Design Criteria.

(A) The design will provide safe, sanitary, and decent housing meeting the requirements of all applicable building and housing standards and codes;

(B) The design to the maximum extent feasible, is compatible with the existing community in which the housing development will be located;

(C) To the maximum extent feasible, the design of the improvements, the materials and the mechanical equipment to be used, and the siting of the structures shall be consistent with effective energy conservation design principles; and

(D) The design provides for a cost effective use of grant funds in order to achieve affordable housing costs for agricultural households.

(b) A major deficiency in meeting one or more of the listed site or design criteria may result in the Department's rejection of an application.

§ 7211. Loan Terms and Requirements.

(a) The term of a loan for a rental housing development shall be for 55 years commencing on the date of recordation of the Program loan documents.

(b) A loan shall bear simple interest at the rate of three percent (3%) per annum.

(c) Repayment of principal and interest on a loan shall be deferred for the full term except that, for rental housing developments, payments shall be required to the extent of available cash flow and residual receipts pursuant to Section 8314.

(d) Loans shall be evidenced by a promissory note the repayment of which shall be secured by a deed of trust recorded as a lien on the development property and improvements.

§ 7212. Priorities in Use of Funds.

(a) Special consideration may be given to housing developments which meet one or more of the following criteria:

(1) The plan for development or rehabilitation provides for ownership or eventual ownership by agricultural employees, including ownership of shares in a cooperative housing corporation.

(2) The housing development conforms with the Statewide Housing Plan and the Farmworker Housing Assistance Plan, and the housing element for the jurisdiction in which the development will be located.

(3) The number of dwelling units projected to be occupied by agricultural households and to be regulated as such in the regulatory agreement or grant agreement will be large in relation to the total amount of grant funds requested.

(4) The plan for development provides for rehabilitation of existing housing provided that the total development cost of rehabilitation compares favorably with the cost of new construction for a comparable facility.

(5) The plan for development or rehabilitation provides that some or all of the housing units of the housing development will be accessible and adaptable to the needs of the elderly or disabled.

(6) There are social and economic factors associated with the housing development such as:

(A) The housing development is intended to serve households with the greatest need for government assistance in obtaining adequate and affordable housing as measured by the extent to which the development serves agricultural workers at the lowest income levels.

(B) Labor and economic development programs and any other relevant programs or services will be available on site or in close proximity to the housing development.

(C) Other significant social or economic aspects merit special considerations.

(7) There is an urgent need for farmworker housing in the area where the housing development will be located based on local vacancy rates or evidenced by verification from the local government or as shown in a Department–approved market study.

(8) The housing development will utilize solar and other alternative energy efficient systems.

(9) The housing development will utilize manufactured housing or other cost–efficient design or construction techniques for the purpose of making housing affordable to lower–income households.

(10) The applicant has demonstrated an ability to proceed with the project more quickly than other projects and/or applicants.

(11) The applicant has a high degree of experience in development and ownership of affordable housing relative to other applicants.

(12) For tax credit projects, the project will leverage a high amount of other funding relative to other tax credit projects.

Article 3. Application Procedure

§ 7215. Application Process.

(a) The Department shall periodically issue a Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA) that specifies, among other things, the amount of funds available, application requirements, the selection and weighting of funding priorities, the deadline for submittal of applications, the schedule for rating and ranking of applications and awarding funds, and the general terms and conditions of funding commitments. A NOFA may declare as ineligible applications for which the Department has issued, or concurrently will issue, a special NOFA pursuant to subsection (e).

(b) Applicants shall make application on a form made available by the Department requesting information required by this Subchapter 3.

(c) Applications selected for funding shall be approved at loan and/or grant amounts, terms, and conditions specified by the Department based on staff's analysis of the financing structure and amount of funds necessary for the activity to be financially feasible, and, in the case of a rental housing development, to meet the underwriting requirements of Sections 8310, 8311, and 8312. For each application selected for funding, the Department shall issue an award letter and a conditional loan and/or grant commitment.

(d) In order to implement the goals and purposes of the Program, the Department may adopt measures to direct funding awards to designated types of housing developments based on the factors set forth in Section 7212. These measures may include, but are not limited to:

(1) Issuing a special NOFA for designated project types.

(2) Awarding bonus points within a particular NOFA to designated development types.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in these regulations to the contrary, a special NOFA issued pursuant to this subsection may establish an over–the–counter application process, meaning the Department continuously accepts and rates applications according to minimum threshold criteria based on Section 7212 published in a NOFA for the process, and makes awards to housing developments that meet or exceed these criteria until the funding available for the process is exhausted.

§ 7217. Contents of Applications.

(a) Application shall be made on a form made available by the department requesting information required by these regulations and, for Rental Housing Developments, the Uniform Multifamily Regulations. Applicants shall provide sufficient information for the department to determine that the applicant is eligible, that the project is eligible, that the proposed uses of Program funds are eligible, and in the case of a Rental Housing Developments, that the project will maintain Fiscal Integrity.

(b) Use of RD, CHFA or other Department funds. If the applicant will use RD, CalHFA or other Department program loans or grants as all or part of its matching share, the applicant shall submit with its application a copy of the preliminary or final application, as the case may be, it has submitted for such matching funding.

(c) All applicants shall provide the following information:

(1) Contact information for the following if they are involved in the project: applicant, sponsor, developer, general contractor, credit enhancer, borrower's counsel, bond counsel, credit enhancer, and property manager.

(2) A resolution authorizing the application for the grant with original signatures of the authorized officials of the applicant organization.

(3) A description of the proposed site, available utilities and amenities, and the following:

(A) Information sufficient to demonstrate compliance with sections 7210 and 8303 regarding site criteria and control;

(B) A preliminary title report;

(C) Description of current and proposed ownership; and

(D) Phase I or Phase II environmental report.

(4) A description of the proposed improvements both residential and commercial, and a timetable for construction.

(5) A plot plan and detailed plans and specifications.

(6) A detailed cost breakdown for such items as land acquisition, site development, construction (including rehabilitation), equipment, utility connections, financing, fees and furnishings if such are to be included.

(7) Sources and uses for both construction and permanent financing of the housing development including the amount of Program funds needed and the source and amount of the matching share.

(8) Information on the method of construction or rehabilitation and on the architectural, engineering and legal services to be provided including copies of any contracts for the provisions of these services.

(9) Satisfactory evidence of review and approval by the required state and local officials.

(10) A market analysis which supports the need for the proposed housing and includes the characteristics of the persons eligible for occupancy including income and estimates of the number of eligible occupants willing and able to occupy the proposed housing. This market analysis shall specifically address the demand for agricultural worker housing and the ability of local agricultural workers to pay the rents or housing costs proposed in the application.

(11) Income ranges of the agricultural households to be served.

(12) Existing or proposed legal composition of the applicant, including:

(A) For nonprofit corporations: articles of incorporation or enabling resolution of operating authority, bylaws, and a list of directors and officers;

(B) For limited liability companies: the operating agreement and the names of all members.

(C) For limited partnerships, the appropriate information required in subparagraphs (A) and (B) for each general partner.

(13) Current financial statement for nonprofit organization applicants.

(14) A description and justification of any related facilities to be financed by the Program funds.

(15) A satisfactory survey of the land.

(16) A resolution authorizing the application for the grant with original signatures of the authorized officials of the applicant organization.

(17) Other materials as required by the Department in its application instructions.

(d) Rental Housing Development applications shall also include:

(1) Detailed operating budgets for the first year's operation and for a typical year's operation that include:

(A) Allowance for vacancies and non-payment of rents or fees;

(B) Allowances for accumulation of a reserve account as required by Section 7234; and

(C) Separate listings of all applicable federal, state and local taxes.

(D) Identification of any operating subsidies.

(2) Narrative statements of the proposed manner of managing the housing and information on the qualifications of the management staff.

(3) A statement of policy regarding management and operation including method of tenant selection, proposed lease and grievance procedures, and proposed rules and regulations for the housing development.

(4) A schedule of proposed rents and utility estimates which indicates that the monthly shelter costs for assisted units will be affordable by low income agricultural households as provided in Section 7204(b).

(5) For rehabilitation projects: a physical needs assessment; description of any relocation plans, scope of proposed work, current rent roll, and current tenant incomes and household size by unit.

(6) History and status of any legal proceedings involving the applicant or any of the following, as appropriate to the organization of the applicant: principals, officers, directors, senior executives, general partners, members, and owners with more than a 10% interest.

(7) Description of at least the last five years' experience in developing projects similar to the project being applied for and describing the applicant's relationship to the development process (e.g., principal, affiliate, general partner, managing member). If the applicant will be relying on the experience of specific individuals within the applicant's organization, resumes and statements of qualifications for those individuals shall be included.

(8) Any special issues regarding the development (e.g., soils, slope, historic preservation, relocation, environmental).

(9) Narrative and/or documentation evidencing compliance with Section 7205.1 regarding sponsor control for the entity and/or individual(s) for which experience is claimed in paragraph (7) above.

(e) Homeownership Applications shall also include:

(1) Information regarding the financing of the individual dwelling units including the amount of grant needed and the source and amount of matching share; and

(2) A breakdown of the pro rata share of the grant which will be applied to each assisted dwelling unit and the criteria used to make such a determination.

(f) The Director may waive any requirement of this section provided that he/she has determined that the submittal of such information at the time of grant application is unnecessary for adequate evaluation of the feasibility of a proposed housing development.

§ 7220. Grant or Loan Cancellation.

(a) After notice has been given to the recipient and other parties with an interest in the housing development, an award of Program funds may be canceled. Cancellation may occur after an award has been approved but before any disbursements have been made or after partial disbursement of the Program funds, if the following occur:

(1) The objectives for which the award was made cannot, for any reason, be met; or

(2) Alternative sources of matching financing cannot be obtained by the recipient; or

(3) The recipient has not abided by the conditions of the conditional commitment or other agreements executed with the Department.

(4) The recipient has failed to execute required agreements or to provide necessary documentation within a reasonable time period prescribed by the Department.

Article 4. Program Operations

§ 7222. Environmental Clearances.

(a) Whenever a proposed housing development is a project which potentially may have a significant impact on the environment and is not categorically exempt, recipients will be responsible for supplying in a timely and responsive way all data and information to all public agencies that have the primary responsibility for complying with requirements of the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) and the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA).

(b) Program applicants for projects subject to CEQA shall provide the Department with assurances of compliance with CEQA.

(c) Recipients which are local public entities shall act as lead agency for projects subject to CEQA unless another public entity has assumed the role of lead agency.

The activities of the Department regarding implementation of CEQA shall be governed by Subchapter 3 of Chapter 6.5 of Title 25, California Administrative Code (Sections 6940 et seq.).

2. New article heading and amendment of section filed 4-2-2008; operative 5-2-2008 (Register 2008, No. 14).

§ 7224. Coordination with Federal Agencies.

(a) Recipients which will utilize federal assistance, such as loans and/or grants from RD, as their matching share, shall submit promptly to the Department copies of all letters from the federal agencies that have a bearing on the housing development.

(b) The department will work with the federal agencies to ensure a coordinated approach to processing and approving applications for housing developments.

(c) In the event a conflict exists between federal and state regulations, the Department shall yield to the federal regulations insofar as not prohibited by State law or the legitimate interests of the State.

(d) The Department always maintains the right to monitor housing developments assisted by its grant in areas of concern to the Department.

§ 7226. Grant Agreement.

(a) In order to close a grant, a grantee is required to execute a Grant Agreement with the Department.

(b) The Grant Agreement shall be in a form determined by the Department and shall contain, but not be limited to, the following conditions:

(1) Assisted Units. It shall specify the minimum number of units of the housing development which have been designated as assisted units subject to program occupancy and resale restrictions.

(2) Recordation. It shall require the grantee to cause the Grant Agreement to be recorded in the Official Records of the county in which the housing development is or will be situated.

(3) Lien. The Grant Agreement shall be recorded as a lien on the real property of the housing development, or the title of a manufactured home not on a permanent foundation, in favor of the Department for the purpose of securing performance of the conditions of the Grant Agreement. The lien shall endure for the duration of the Grant Agreement and shall be subject to the provisions of Section 7230.

(4) Duration. It shall state that it is binding on the grantee for a term of fifty-five (55) years for rental housing development new construction and rehabilitation, a term of twenty (20) years for conventionally-constructed ownership housing or manufactured housing placed on a permanent foundation, and a term of ten (10) years for manufactured housing not on a permanent foundation. The Department may in its discretion prescribe a lesser period for the duration of Grant Agreements relating to housing to be developed for ownership by individual agricultural households.

(5) Conveyance. It shall state that for the duration of the Grant Agreement, no contract for sale or conveyance of the housing development, or any portion thereof, shall be entered into or made without the express prior written approval of the Department, which approval shall be given in accordance with the provisions of Section 7228.

(6) Covenants. In addition, the Grant Agreement will contain, but not be limited to, the following covenants:

(A) Agricultural households shall be given a priority for occupancy in non-assisted units, and those agricultural households of low income shall be given a preference for occupancy in assisted units.

(B) The grantee shall accept the criteria for tenant and homeowner selection that has been determined by the Department for assisted units.

(C) The grantee shall accept the terms of occupancy agreements that have been prescribed by the Department for assisted units.

(D) With regard to rental housing developments, the grantee shall additionally agree to abide by the provisions of Section 7234.

(7) The Grant Agreement shall further provide that in the event of a breach of any of its conditions or covenants, the grantee or its successors in interest, the Department shall have the option to enforce the Grant Agreement by proceeding at law or in equity. The Department may, at its option, require the grantee or its successor in interest to immediately repay to the State the total amount of the grant then due with interest. The interest rate shall be the same as the average rate returned by the investment of state funds through the California Pooled Money Investment Board from the date of breach to the date of repayment.

(8) It shall provide that in the event of a forced sale or conveyance of the housing development resulting from an action to foreclose on a mortgage or deed of trust, the execution of a judgment lien, or other action resulting in an involuntary sale, the purchaser shall take title subject to these conditions and limitations, unless the appropriate amount of the grant is returned to the Department in accordance with these regulations.

HISTORY

1. Renumbering of former Section 7226 to Section 7224 and renumbering and amendment of Section 7228 to Section 7226 filed 2-10-83; designated effective 3-4-83 pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 83, No. 7).
2. Amendment of subsections (b)(3)-(4) and (b)(6)(D) filed 4-2-2008; operative 5-2-2008 (Register 2008, No. 14).

§ 7228. Conveyance of the Housing Development.

The following provisions govern the sale or conveyance of the housing development, or any part thereof.

(a) Conveyance to Agricultural Households for the Purpose of Homeownership. If the grantee intends to sell or convey all or a portion of the housing development to individual agricultural households for the purpose of homeownership, the Department will authorize the sale or conveyance after the following conditions are met:

(1) Identification of Assisted Units. The grantee must identify any assisted units that will be located in the conveyed portion(s) of the housing development.

(2) Allocation of Grant Funds. For each assisted unit identified, the grantee shall specify in monetary terms the portion of the grant funds that will be used to reduce the costs of acquiring ownership of the assisted unit by an agricultural household.

(3) Subsequent Grant Agreement. Prior to or concurrently with the sale or conveyance of an assisted unit, the grantee shall ensure that a representative of the agricultural household which will own the assisted unit executes a Subsequent Grant Agreement with the Department which shall be in a form prescribed by the Department and contain the following conditions:

(A) It shall be binding upon the agricultural household for a term of twenty (20) years for conventionally-constructed housing or manufactured housing placed on a permanent foundation, and for a term of ten (10) years for manufactured housing not on a permanent foundation.

(B) It shall require the members of the agricultural household to reside in the assisted unit for the duration of the Subsequent Grant Agreement.

(C) It shall contain the following conditions with respect to the sale or conveyance of an assisted unit by the agricultural household.

1. If an assisted unit is sold or conveyed within a period of 10 years from the date of execution of the Subsequent Grant Agreement, an amount equal to the sum allocated to the assisted unit pursuant to subdivision (a)(2) of this section shall be paid to the Department.

2. If an assisted unit, other than a manufactured home not installed on a permanent foundation, is sold or conveyed more than ten years after the date of execution of the Subsequent Grant Agreement, the Department shall be repaid an amount equal to the sum allocated pursuant to subdivision (a)(2) of this section minus 10% of that amount for each additional year that the agricultural household occupies the assisted unit beyond the tenth year. The lien for a manufactured home not installed on a permanent foundation shall be released 10 years from the date of execution of the Subsequent Grant Agreement, and no repayment of grant funds will be required, if the homeowner is in compliance with the Subsequent Grant Agreement.

3. The Department shall determine whether or not any amounts subject to repayment to the Department, as specified above, will be assigned to the new owner in lieu of repayment to the Department.

4. The Subsequent Grant Agreement shall terminate after the grant funds have been repaid to the Department and the assisted unit has been sold or conveyed.

(4) Recordation of the Subsequent Grant Agreement. The grantee shall cause the Subsequent Grant Agreement and other pertinent documents to be recorded in the official records of the county in which the housing development is located.

(5) Sale of Non-assisted Units. After the total number of assisted units has been determined, the Department shall approve the sale or conveyance of any housing units not identified as assisted units and shall, at the time of sale or conveyance, release any such units from the lien securing performance of the Grant Agreement. The grant shall not be used to reduce the acquisition cost of a non-assisted unit.

(6) Termination of Grant Agreement. The Department shall terminate the Grant Agreement and the lien securing its performance after sale or conveyance of all of the assisted units if all of the conditions of the Grant Agreement have been satisfied, as determined by the Department.

(7) The Department may charge an administrative fee for its costs in processing a Subsequent Grant Agreement.

(b) Conveyance For Continued Agricultural Households Occupancy. If the grantee intends to sell or convey the housing development to an entity that will continue to use the development to provide housing for agricultural households, the Department will authorize the sale or conveyance provided that:

(1) The successor in interest to the grantee agrees to assume the obligations of the grantee, including the assumption of the conditions and obligations specified in the Grant Agreement between the grantee and the Department.

(2) The successor in interest agrees to take title to the housing development subject to the Grant Agreement between the grantee and the Department.

(3) The successor in interest agrees to an extension of the duration of the Grant Agreement where the Department has determined that such an extension would be in the best interest of the continued operation of the housing development.

(4) The successor in interest has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Department that it can adequately operate the housing development in accordance with the requirements of the program and meet its obligations under the Grant Agreement.

(c) Conveyance For Use Other Than Agricultural Household Occupancy. The grantee shall not sell or convey the housing development to an entity that will not continue to use the development to provide housing for agricultural households in accordance with program requirements unless the Department has approved such sale or conveyance. The Department will approve a sale or conveyance provided that the grantee has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Department that good cause exists for terminating the operation of the housing development as provided in Section 7236; and the grantee repays the state the full amount of the grant.

§ 7231. Regulatory Agreement.

(a) In order to close a loan, a recipient shall enter into a regulatory agreement with the Department with a term not less than the term of the loan. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded against the rental housing development property prior to the disbursement of any Program funds.

(b) The Regulatory Agreement shall be in a form determined by the Department and shall contain, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) The number, type and income level of Assisted Units pursuant to Section 7209.

(2) Standards for tenant selection pursuant to Section 8305.

(3) Provisions regulating the terms of the rental agreement pursuant to Section 8307.

(4) Provisions related to operation of the project pursuant to Section 7234.

(5) Provisions for limitation on distributions pursuant to Section 8314.

(6) Description of the conditions constituting breach of the regulatory agreement and remedies available to the parties thereto.

(7) Provisions governing use and operation of non-Assisted Units and common areas to the extent necessary to ensure compliance with Program requirements.

(8) Provisions specifying that the regulatory agreement shall be binding on all successors and assigns of the borrower.

(9) Other provisions necessary to assure compliance with the requirements of the Program.

§ 7232. Disbursements.

(a) Program funds shall only be disbursed for payment of obligations which are due or for reimbursement of expenditures previously approved by the Department.

(b) The recipient must request disbursements of Program funds on a form prescribed by the Department and such requests must be in accordance with authorized amounts set forth in the budget approved by the Department. With the prior approval of the Department, the recipient may transfer any allocations or portions thereof set forth in the approved budget to other allocated items of said budget.

2. Amendment of section heading and section filed 4–2–2008; operative 5–2–2008 (Register 2008, No. 14).

§ 7234. Operation of Rental Housing Developments.

Except as otherwise explicitly set forth in this section, operation requirements shall refer to the entire development and all units therein, rather than only to the assisted portion:

(a) Occupancy Restrictions. The recipient shall maintain the housing development so that assisted units shall only be occupied by agricultural households in accordance with the provisions of Section 7208(g).

(b) Operating Reserves. Operating reserves for a housing development shall be established as required by Section 8308. The Department, at its discretion, may allow the use of the grant funds to satisfy part or all of this requirement.

(c) Replacement Reserve. Replacement reserves for a housing development shall be established as required by Section 8309.

(d) Housing Costs. The Department will approve a schedule of rents as may be necessary to provide occupants of the housing development with affordable housing costs to the extent consistent with the maintenance of the fiscal integrity of the housing development and the requirements of other agencies which have financed the housing development.

(1) The recipient shall not increase the rent on any unit of the housing development without the prior permission of the Department, which shall be given if the recipient demonstrates that such increase is required to defray necessary operating costs or to avoid jeopardizing the fiscal integrity of the housing development and that such increase complies with the procedures and limits required by the federal or other state agencies which have financed the housing development. Rents in Assisted Units may be adjusted no more often than annually. The amount and method of adjustment for Assisted Units shall be in accordance with procedures used by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee.

(e) Occupancy Rules. Documents, including rental agreements, governing, tenant occupancy of the housing development shall be subject to approval by the Department.

(f) Linguistic Services. The recipient shall provide linguistically appropriate services and publications to the occupants of the housing development.

(1) If requested, the Department will provide recipients technical assistance in meeting this obligation.

(g) Maintenance. The recipient shall maintain the housing development in a way which protects the public interest and the health, safety and welfare of its occupants, and the secured interest of the Department.

(h) Right of Inspection. The Department may, through its agents or employees, with prior notice enter upon and inspect the lands, buildings, and equipment of the grantee, including books and records, at any time before, during or after the construction or rehabilitation of the housing development.

(1) The Department shall neither enter or inspect any unit which is occupied, whether or not the occupant is present, without the prior consent of the occupant.

(2) After inspection of the housing development, the Department may require such repairs or corrections as may be necessary to protect the public interest or the health, safety, or welfare of the occupants of the housing development.

§ 7236. Termination of Grant Agreement.

(a) A grantee may terminate a Grant Agreement upon request provided that the grantee repays the Department the full amount of the grant and the Department has determined that one or more of the following or similar circumstances has occurred which makes the continued operation of the housing development in compliance with Program requirements no longer feasible:

(1) The employment of agricultural workers has greatly decreased in the area.

(2) A sufficient number of agricultural workers and their families in fact do not apply to live in the housing development.

(3) The dwelling units of the housing development are no longer suitable because of design, size, or age, for the housing needs of the agricultural workers and their families employed in the area.

(4) The grantee's continued operation of the housing development is no longer financially feasible and the grantee has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Department that it has made a good faith effort to convey the housing development in accordance with Section 7228(b).

Subchapter 4. Multifamily Housing Program

Article 1. General

§ 7300. Purpose and Scope.

(a) These regulations implement and interpret Chapter 6.7 (commencing with Section 50675) of Part 2 of Division 31, Health and Safety Code, which establishes the Multifamily Housing Program.

(b) These regulations establish terms, conditions and procedures for funds awarded after the effective date of these regulations.

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50406(n), 50675.1(c) and 50675.11, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50406 and 50675, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subchapter 4 heading and new subchapter 4 (articles 1–5, sections 7300–7336), article 1 (sections 7300–7301) and section filed 1–8–2002; operative 1–8–2002 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2002, No. 2). For prior history of subchapter 4 (articles 1–2, sections 7300–7330), see Register 96, No. 12.

§ 7300.1. Uniform Multifamily Underwriting and Program Rules.

(a) Subchapter 19 of Title 25, Division 1, Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 8300) is hereby incorporated by reference into this subchapter and shall apply to rental housing developments receiving assistance under the Multifamily Housing Program.

(b) In the event of a conflict between the provisions of Subchapter 19 and this Subchapter 4, the provisions of this Subchapter 4 shall prevail.

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50406(n), 50675.1(c) and 50675.11, Health and Safety Code. Reference: 50675.1, 50675.2, 50675.4, 50675.5, 50675.6, 50675.7 and 50675.8, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 9–29–2003; operative 9–29–2003 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2003, No. 40).

§ 7301. Definitions.

In addition to the definitions found in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 50050), of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, and Health and Safety Code Section 50675.2, the following definitions and those found in the Uniform Multifamily Regulations (Chapter 7, subchapter 19, Section 8301) shall apply to this subchapter. In the event of a conflict between the following definitions and those cited above, the following definitions prevail for the purposes of these regulations. The defined terms will be capitalized as they appear in the regulation text. References to code sections refer to sections of these regulations unless otherwise noted:

(a) "Affordable Rents" means Rents established for Assisted Units in accordance with Section 7312.

(b) "Area Median Income" means the most recent applicable county median family income published by TCAC.

(c) "Article XXXIV" means the Article of the California Constitution (Health and Safety Code Section 37000) that requires advance voter approval of certain publicly funded low-rent housing Projects.

(d) "Disabled Household" means a household in which a member has an orthopedic disability impairing personal mobility or a physical disability affecting his or her ability to obtain employment, or in which a person requires special care or facilities in the home. "Disabled Household" also includes a household in which a member has a developmental disability specified in subdivision 4512(a) of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or a mental disorder, which would render him or her eligible to participate in programs of rehabilitation or social services conducted by or on behalf of a public agency, or a single person with such a developmental disability or mental disorder.

(e) "Efficiency Unit" means a Dwelling Unit containing only one habitable room. A room in a structure that is a single-family house at the time of application will not be considered to be an Efficiency Unit eligible for program funds.

(f) "Eligible Households" means households whose incomes do not exceed the income limits specified by TCAC or other, lower income limits agreed to by a Project Sponsor and the Department. In non-Special Needs Population Projects, household income will be calculated on the basis of Units in accordance with TCAC rules and procedures. In Special Needs Populations Projects, household income may be calculated on the basis of bedrooms within a single-family house and bedrooms within an apartment Unit, provided all Project Units are located on the same parcel or on contiguous parcels and the bedrooms are: (1) occupied by a single individual who is a member of a Special Needs Populations, or an individual member of a Special Needs Populations and his or her relatives or caretaker and (2) subject to an individual rental or occupancy agreement. In transitional Special Needs Populations Projects, household income may be calculated on the basis of each occupant of each bedroom provided all Project Units are located on the same parcel or on contiguous parcels and no more than 2 unrelated persons are occupying a bedroom.

(g) "Fiscal Integrity" means that the total Operating Income plus funds released pursuant to the Regulatory Agreement from the operating reserve account is sufficient to: (1) pay all current Operating Expenses; (2) pay all current debt service (excluding deferred interest); (3) fully fund all reserve accounts (other than the operating reserve account) established pursuant to the Regulatory Agreement; and (4) pay other extraordinary costs permitted by the Regulatory Agreement. The ability to pay any or all of the permitted annual Distributions shall not be considered in determining Fiscal Integrity.

(h) "Fund" means the Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund established pursuant to Section 50661 of the Health and Safety Code.

(i) "Initial Operating Year" means the initial period of operation of the Rental Housing Development, beginning at the time of the initial occupancy of the completed Project and ending on the last day of the fiscal year for the development.

(j) "Manager's Unit" means a Unit in which the on-site manager of the Project resides. A Manager's Unit will not be considered to be an MHP Assisted Unit, nor will it be considered to be a Restricted Unit for the purpose of calculating allowable Distributions. A Manager's Unit will be considered to be a Restricted Unit for the purpose of allocating development costs and may qualify for a loan amount up to the amount applicable to the 60% of AMI level.

(k) "Nonprofit Corporation" means the same as defined in Section 50091 of the Health and Safety Code.

(l) "Refinance" means to pay off all or a portion of existing debt secured by the Project with the proceeds of a Program loan or other financing also secured by the Project.

(m)

(n) "Rehabilitation" means the term as defined in Section 50096 of the Health and Safety Code, including improvements and repairs made to a residential structure acquired for the purpose of preserving its affordability.

(o) "Rent" means the same as "gross Rent," as defined in the Internal Revenue Code (26 USC 42(g)(2)(B). It includes all mandatory charges, other than deposits, paid by the tenant for the use and occupancy of an Assisted Unit, plus a utility allowance established in accordance with TCAC regulations. For Units assisted under the HUD Section 8 or similar rental subsidy program, Rent includes only the tenant contribution portion of the contract rent.

(p) "Rent-Up Costs" means costs incurred in connection with marketing and preparing an Assisted Unit for occupancy while the Unit is on the housing market but not yet rented to its first tenant.

(q) "Residential Hotel" means any building that contains 6 or more Residential Hotel Units, where a majority of the Units are Residential Hotel Units. Single-family houses are not considered Residential Hotels.

(r) "Residential Hotel Unit," also referred to as a single room occupancy Unit or an SRO, means an Efficiency Unit that: (1) is occupied as a primary residence, and (2) is subject to state landlord-tenant law pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1940) of Title 5 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code. The term also includes a Unit in an "SRO Project" as described in California Code of Regulations, Title 4, Section 10325(g)(3).

(s) "Special Needs Populations" means Disabled Households, agricultural workers, single-parent households, survivors of physical abuse, homeless persons or persons at risk of becoming homeless, chronically ill persons including those with HIV and mental illness, displaced teenage parents (or expectant teenage parents), homeless youth as defined in Government Code section 11139.5, individuals exiting from institutional settings, chronic substance abusers, or other specific groups with unique housing needs as determined by the Department. "Special Needs Populations" do not include seniors or the frail elderly unless they otherwise qualify as a Special Needs Population.

(t) "State Median Income" means the most recent total median family income for California issued by the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD"). For the purposes of assigning point scores and establishing income limits for Assisted Units, State Median Income percentages will be expressed as a percentage of Area Median Income rounded up to the next highest five percent increment as calculated annually by the Department.

(u) "Substantial Rehabilitation" means a Rehabilitation Project where the contract for Rehabilitation work equals or exceeds $25,000 per Unit.

2. Amendment filed 9-29-2003; operative 9-29-2003 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2003, No. 40).

Article 2. Program Requirements

§ 7302. Eligible Project.

Proposed Projects are eligible only if:

(a) the Project includes the new construction or Rehabilitation of a Rental Housing Development or conversion of a nonresidential structure to a Rental Housing Development; for purposes of calculating Program loan amounts and for the purpose of determining compliance with Program requirements that a Rental Housing Development contain 5 or more Units, a single-family house is considered to be one Unit, and an apartment Unit in an apartment building is considered to be one Unit regardless of the number of bedrooms within the apartment Unit;

(b) other development funding sources are insufficient to cover Project development costs; and

(c) at the time of the application due date, the construction or Rehabilitation work has not commenced, except for emergency repairs to existing structures required to eliminate hazards or threats to health and safety.

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50406(n), 50675.1(c) and 50675.11, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50675.2(d), 50675.4 and 50675.7, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. New article 2 (sections 7302–7316) and section filed 1–8–2002; operative 1–8–2002 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2002, No. 2).
2. Amendment filed 9–29–2003; operative 9–29–2003 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2003, No. 40).

§ 7303. Eligible Sponsor.

(a) A Sponsor shall be any individual, joint venture, partnership, limited partnership, trust, corporation, limited liability corporation, local public entity, duly constituted governing body of an Indian reservation or rancheria, or other legal entity, or any combination thereof which meets the requirements of subsection (c), below.

(b) A Sponsor shall be organized on a for–profit, including limited profit, or nonprofit basis.

(c) In order to be eligible for funding, a Sponsor must demonstrate experience relevant to owning and developing affordable rental housing through one or more of the following:

(1) successful prior ownership and development of affordable rental housing;

(2) employment of a staff with demonstrated experience owning and developing affordable rental housing.

(d) Where 70% or more of the Units are reserved for Special Needs Populations, the Sponsor may qualify for development or ownership experience required by subsection (c)(1), above, by demonstrating that the Sponsor has experience owning and developing affordable rental housing or operating and developing affordable rental housing through the following:

(1) the Sponsor may qualify for development experience by contracting with a developer or development consultant for the provision of comprehensive development management services, provided that the Sponsor and the contractor have entered into an agreement acceptable to the Department making the contractor responsible for financial packaging, selection of other consultants, selecting the general construction contractor and property management agent, oversight of architectural design, construction management, and other major aspects of the development process; and

(2) the Sponsor may qualify for ownership experience if the role and responsibility of the Sponsor in the Projects submitted for such experience is commensurate with the ownership role and responsibilities in the proposed Project.

(e) If the Sponsor is a joint venture, and qualifies as an eligible Sponsor under the preceding subsections based on the experience of only one joint venture partner, that partner must have a controlling interest in the joint venture and a substantial and continued role in the Project's ongoing operations, as evidenced in the documents governing the joint venture.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 1–8–2002; operative 1–8–2002 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2002, No. 2).
2. Amendment filed 9–29–2003; operative 9–29–2003 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2003, No. 40).

§ 7304. Eligible Uses of Funds.

(a) Funds shall be used only for approved eligible costs that are incurred on the Project as set forth in this section, including the Refinance of interim loans used to pay such costs. In addition, the costs must be necessary and must be consistent with the lowest reasonable cost consistent with the Project's scope and area as determined by the Department.

(b) Eligible costs include the following:

(1) property acquisition;

(2) refinancing of existing long–term debt, only in connection with a Project involving Substantial Rehabilitation, and only to the extent necessary to reduce debt service to a level consistent with the provision of Affordable Rents in Assisted Units and with the Fiscal Integrity of the Project;

(3) land lease payments;

(4) construction and Rehabilitation work;

(5) off–site improvements, such as sewers, utilities and streets, directly related to, and required by the Rental Housing Development;

(6) on–site improvements related to the Rental Housing Development;

(7) architectural, appraisal, engineering, legal and other consulting costs and fees, which are directly related to the planning and execution of the Project and which are incurred through third–party contracts;

(8) development costs of a residential Unit reserved for an on–site manager, childcare facilities, and after–school care and social service facilities integrally linked to, and addressing the needs of the tenants of the Assisted Units;

(9) a reasonable developer fee subject to the provisions of Section 8312 of this title;

(10) Rent–Up Costs;

(11) carrying costs during construction, including insurance, construction financing fees and interest, taxes, and any other expenses necessary to hold the property while the Rental Housing Development is under construction;

(12) building permits and state and local fees;

(13) capitalized operating and capitalized replacement reserves up to the amount of the initial deposit required by the Department pursuant to Sections 8308(b) and 8309(b) of this title.

(14) escrow, title insurance, recording and other related costs;

(15) costs for items intended to assure the completion of construction, such as contractor bond premiums;

(16) environmental hazard reports, surveys, and investigations;

(17) costs of relocation benefits and assistance required by law; and

(18) any other costs of Rehabilitation or new construction approved by the Department.

(c) Except as provided in subsection (b)(8), above, no Program funds shall be used for costs associated exclusively with non–Restricted Units or Commercial Space. A Manager's Unit may be considered to be a Restricted Unit for the purpose of allocating development costs. If only a portion of the Rental Housing Development consists of Restricted Units, the Program loan amount shall not exceed the sum of the following:

(1) the costs of all items specified in subsection (b), above, associated exclusively with the Restricted Units;

(2) a share of the costs of common areas used primarily by residential tenants. This share shall be in direct proportion to the ratio between the gross floor area of the Restricted Units and the gross floor area of all residential Units; and

(3) a share of the cost of other items such as roofs that cannot specifically be allocated to Restricted Units, non–Restricted Units, or Commercial Space. This share shall be in direct proportion to the ratio between:

(A) the gross floor area of the Restricted Units, plus a share of the gross floor area of common areas used primarily by residential tenants in direct proportion to the ratio between the gross floor area of the Restricted Units and the gross floor area of all Units; and

(B) the total gross floor area of the structure or structures.

2. Repealer and reservation of section filed 9–29–2003; operative 9–29–2003 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2003, No. 40).

§ 7306. Type and Term of Loan.

(a) Program funds shall be used for post–construction, permanent financing only, except under an agreement with California Housing Finance Agency to provide construction period financing to eligible Projects receiving financing from both California Housing Finance Agency and the Program.

(b) The initial term of the loan shall be 55 years, commencing on the date of recordation of the Program loan documents.

(c) Upon request by the Sponsor, the Department may approve a 10–year extension of the loan term if the Department determines both of the following are met:

(1) The Sponsor is in compliance with the Regulatory Agreement and other Program loan documents and agrees to continue to comply during the extended term; and

(2) The extension is necessary to continue operations consistent with Program requirements.

(d) The Department may condition the extension on such terms as it deems necessary to ensure compliance with the requirements of the Program.

(e) The Program loan shall be secured by the Project real property and improvements, subject only to liens, encumbrances and other matters of record approved by the Department. The Program loan shall have priority over loans from local public agencies and loans provided by the Affordable Housing Program administered by the Federal Home Loan Bank, provided that the Department may subordinate to these loans if they have a principal amount equal to or greater than twice the amount of the Program loan.

(f) Where the requirements of federal funding for a project, or the requirements of the low–income housing tax credits used in a project, would cause a violation of the requirements of these regulations, the requirements of these regulations may be modified as necessary to ensure program compatibility. Where the requirements of federal funding or tax credits create what are deemed to be minor inconsistencies as determined by the director of the Department, the Department may waive the requirements of these regulations as deemed necessary to avoid an unnecessary administrative burden. Any such modifications or waivers shall be included in the Regulatory Agreement or other documents governing the MHP loan.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 1–8–2002; operative 1–8–2002 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2002, No. 2).
2. Amendment of subsections (a) and (c)(1) filed 9–29–2003; operative 9–29–2003 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2003, No. 40).

§ 7307. Maximum Loan Amounts.

(a) The loan amount shall not exceed the total eligible costs required, when considered with other available financing and assistance, in order to:

(1) enable the acquisition, development and construction or Rehabilitation of the Rental Housing Development;

(2) ensure that Rents for Assisted Units comply with Program requirements; and

(3) operate in compliance with all other Program requirements.

(b) The loan amount is further limited to the sum of:

(1) a base amount per Restricted Unit; plus

(2) the amount per Restricted Unit required to reduce Rents from 30% of 60% of Area Median Income to the actual maximum restricted Rent for the Unit, assuming that the Rent reduction will be achieved by substituting Program funds for private amortized debt, and calculated by the Department based on private market multifamily rental loan terms available at the time of issuance of each notice of funding availability.

The initial base amount shall be $30,000 per Restricted Unit. The Department may periodically adjust this amount as necessary to ensure a sufficient volume of applications that meet the objectives of the Program, as evidenced by high rating scores received under Section 7320(b). In making adjustments to the base amount, the Department shall consider (A) demand evidenced in previous funding rounds; (B) the total amount of Program funds available for award; (C) trends in Project development costs; and (D) trends in the terms and availability of supplemental development funding sources.

(c) For loan limit calculations, Unit count shall include the number of single–family houses plus the number of Units within an apartment building or Residential Hotel regardless of whether bedrooms are rented individually.

For Units receiving rental assistance under renewable rental subsidy contracts, the loan amount will be based on the level of income restriction that will apply following the closing of the Program loan.

(d) In each notice of funding availability, the Department shall establish a maximum per Project loan amount. This maximum shall be set at a level that ensures sufficient demand for Program funds while meeting the Program's geographic and other distribution goals, taking into account the demand evidenced in previous funding rounds, the availability of other sources of rental subsidy financing and the total amount of Program funds available for award.

§ 7308. Interest Rate and Loan Repayments.

(a) Loans shall bear simple interest of 3% per annum on the unpaid principal balance. Interest shall accrue from the date that funds are disbursed by the Department to or on behalf of the Sponsor.

(b) For the first 30 years of the loan term, payments in the amount of 0.42% of the outstanding principal loan balance shall be payable to the Department commencing on the last day of the Initial Operating Year and continuing on each anniversary date thereafter. The balance of accrued interest shall be payable out of Operating Income remaining after payment of approved Operating Expenses, debt service on other loans, reserve deposits, and Sponsor Distributions. Commencing on the 30th anniversary of the last day of the Initial Operating Year, interest shall be payable in an amount equal to the lesser of: (1) the full amount of interest accruing on the outstanding principal loan amount; or (2) the amount determined by the Department to be necessary to cover the costs of continued monitoring of the Project for compliance with the requirements of the Program. HUD Section 811 and 202 projects will be subject to the requirements of this subsection.

(c) Except for the required payment of 0.42% of the outstanding principal loan balance, the Department shall permit the deferral of accrued interest for such periods and subject to such conditions as will enable the Sponsor to maintain Affordable Rents, maintain the Fiscal Integrity of the Project and pay allowable Distributions pursuant to Section 8314 of this title.

(d) All Program loan payments (including the 0.42% loan payment) shall be applied in the following order: (1) to any expenses incurred by the Department to protect the property or the Department's security interest in the property, or incurred due to the Sponsor's failure to perform any of the Sponsor's covenants and agreements contained in the deed of trust or other loan documents; (2) to the payment of accrued interest; and (3) to the reduction of principal.

(e) The total outstanding principal and interest, including deferred interest, shall be due and payable in full to the Department at the end of the loan term including any extension granted by the Department. The Department shall, at the end of the loan term, forgive that portion of the Program loan, including principal and deferred interest, applied to the costs of developing childcare facilities provided that such facilities have been operated for childcare purposes for a period of not less than 10 years.

§ 7309. Appraisal and Market Study Requirements.

(a) As a condition of funding, the Department may require an appraisal or market study, or both, to:

(1) establish a market value for the land to be purchased or leased as part of the Project for purposes of evaluating the reasonableness of the purchase price or lease terms pursuant to Section 7304;

(2) assist with establishing other reasonable development costs pursuant to Section 7304;

(3) assess Fiscal Integrity;

(4) verify an adequate tenant market.

(b) Any appraisal required by the Department shall be prepared at the Sponsor's expense by an individual or firm which:

(1) has the appropriate license and the knowledge and experience necessary to competently appraise low–income residential rental property;

(2) is aware of, understands, and correctly employs those recognized methods and techniques that are necessary to produce a credible appraisal;

(3) in reporting the results of the appraisal, communicates each analysis, opinion and conclusion in a manner that is not misleading as to the true value and condition of the property; and

(4) is an independent third party having no identity of interest with the Sponsor, the partners of the Sponsor, the intended partners of the Sponsor, or with the general contractor.

(c) Any market study required by the Department shall be prepared at the Sponsor's expense by an individual or firm which:

(1) has the knowledge and experience necessary to conduct a competent market study for low–income residential rental property;

(2) is aware of, understands, and correctly employs those recognized methods and techniques that are necessary to produce a credible market study;

(3) in reporting the results of the market study, communicates each analysis, opinion and conclusion in a manner that is not misleading as to the true market needs for low–income residential property; and

(4) is an independent third party having no identity of interest with the Sponsor, the partners of the Sponsor, the intended partners of the Sponsor, or with the general contractor.

2. Repealer and reservation of section filed 9–29–2003; operative 9–29–2003 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2003, No. 40).

§ 7311. Over–Income Households.

(a) If, at the time of recertification, a tenant household's income exceeds the limit for an income level applicable to new tenants that is greater than the income limit designated for the household, and, to the extent a rent increase for the household is permitted by statutes and regulations governing the low income housing tax credit program, the Sponsor:

(1) shall redesignate the tenant's Unit as a Unit at the higher income level;

(2) shall increase the tenant's Rent to the level applicable to Units at the higher income level; and

(3) shall designate the next available comparable Unit as a Unit at the income level originally applicable to the household unit the Unit mix required by the Program regulatory agreement is achieved. A Unit shall be deemed "comparable" if it has the same number of bedrooms as the original Unit.

For example, in a Project where the income limits utilized to qualify new tenants are 20%, 40% and 50% of Area Median Income, if the income of a household occupying a Unit designated as a 20% Unit increases to 48% of Area Median Income, the Sponsor must redesignate the household's Unit as a Unit at the 50% level, increase the tenant's Rent to the level applicable to Units at the 50% level, and designate the next available comparable Unit as a Unit at the 20% income level.

(b) If at the time of recertification a tenant household's income exceeds the income limit designated for the household's Unit, but does not exceed the limit for a higher income level applicable to new tenants, the Sponsor may increase the household's Rent to an amount not exceeding the Rent limit applicable to the household's income level at the time of recertification. For purposes of this subsection, income levels shall not be limited to those applicable to new tenants, and shall consist of five percent increments of area median income. Continuing with the example described in the subsection (a), the income levels utilized to establish Rent limits upon recertification would be 20%, 25%, 30%, 35%, etc. A household occupying a Unit in this project with a 20% limit whose income, upon recertification, had increased to 32% of area median income could have their Rent increased to the Rent level applicable to the 35% income level.

§ 7312. Rent Standards.

The Department shall establish Rent limits for Assisted Units in each Project in accordance with the following:

(a) Rent limits for initial occupancy and for each subsequent occupancy by a new Eligible Household shall be based on Unit type, applicable income limit, and area in which the Project is located, following the calculation procedures used by TCAC and using the income limits recognized by TCAC for purposes of application scoring as well as the income limits utilized by the Program for this purpose pursuant to Section 7320(b)(1). The maximum Rent limit shall be 30% of 60% of Area Median Income for the appropriate Unit size.

(b) Rents will be further restricted in accordance with Rent and income limits submitted by the Sponsor in its application for the Program loan, approved by the Department, and set forth in the Regulatory Agreement. Rents shall not exceed 30% of the applicable income eligibility level.

(c) Rents in Assisted Units may be adjusted no more often than annually. The amount and method of adjustment for Assisted Units shall be in accordance with the regulations and procedures used by TCAC.

(d) The Department may permit an annual Rent increase greater than that permitted by this section if the Project's continued Fiscal Integrity is jeopardized due to factors that could not be reasonably foreseen.

(e) For Units receiving HUD Section 8 or other similar rental assistance, the rules of the rental assistance program pertaining to Rent increases will prevail for as long as the rental assistance remains in place. Changes in the tenant contribution amounts may occur more often than annually as required by the rental assistance program.

(f) Where a Project is receiving renewable Project-based rental assistance:

(1) the Sponsor shall in good faith apply for and accept all renewals available;

(2) the Sponsor shall fund a transition reserve to be used in the event the rental assistance contract is terminated. The transition reserve shall be in an amount sufficient to prevent, for two years, Rent increases for Units that formerly received rental assistance and were restricted to households with incomes not exceeding a percentage of State Median Income, expressed as a percentage of Area Median Income. The transition reserve may be capitalized or funded from annual project cash flow in amounts to be approved by the Department. Use of funds in the reserve shall be subject to the review and approval of the Department; and

(3) if the Project-based rental assistance is terminated, Rents for Units previously covered by this assistance may be increased above the levels allowed pursuant to subsection (c), above, but only to the minimum extent required for Fiscal Integrity, as determined by the Department. In addition, Rents for such Units restricted to households with incomes not exceeding a percentage of State Median Income, expressed as a percentage of Area Median Income, shall not in any event be increased to an amount in excess of 30% of 50% of Area Median Income, adjusted by number of bedrooms in accordance with TCAC requirements.

§ 7314. Limits on Design Features.

Except where required to secure local government approvals essential to completion of the Project, or where necessary to receive tax credits for historic preservation, costs associated with the following items are ineligible for funding with Program loan proceeds, and cannot be paid for from syndication proceeds or loans supported by Rents from Assisted Units:

(a) building and roof shapes, ornamentation and exterior finish schemes whose costs are in excess of the typical costs of these features in modestly designed rental housing;

(b) fireplaces, tennis courts, and similar amenities not typically found in modestly designed rental housing; and

(c) custom-made windows, ceramic tile floors and counters, hardwood floors, and similar features using materials not typically found in modestly designed rental housing, except where such materials have lower lifecycle costs due to lower operating, maintenance and replacement costs.

§ 7315. Relocation Requirements.

(a) The Sponsor of a Project resulting in displacement of residential tenants shall be solely responsible for providing the assistance and benefits set forth in this section and in applicable state and federal law, and shall agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Department from any liabilities or claims for relocation-related costs.

(b) All tenants of a property who are displaced as a direct result of the development of a Project shall be entitled to relocation benefits and assistance as provided in Title 1, Division 7, Chapter 16 of the Government Code, commencing at Section 7260, and Subchapter 1 of Chapter 6 of Title 25 of the California Code of Regulations, commencing at Section 6000. Displaced tenants who are not replaced with Eligible Households under this Program shall be provided relocation benefits and assistance from funds other than Program funds.

(c) The Sponsor shall prepare a relocation plan in conformance with the provisions of California Code of Regulations, Title 25, Section 6038. The relocation plan shall be subject to the review and approval by the Department prior to the disbursement of Program funds.

(d) All Eligible Households who are temporarily displaced as a direct result of the development of the Project shall be entitled, upon initial occupancy of the Rental Housing Development, to occupy Assisted Units meeting the tenant occupancy standards set forth in Section 8305 of this title.

(e) All in-Eligible Households who are temporarily displaced as a direct result of the development of the Project shall be entitled, upon initial occupancy of the Rental Housing Development, to occupy any available non-Assisted Units for which they qualify.

(f) Notwithstanding the preceding subsections, tenants who are notified in writing prior to their occupancy of an existing Unit that the Unit may be demolished as a result of funding provided under the Program shall not be eligible for relocation benefits and assistance under this section. The form of any notices used for this purpose shall be subject to Department approval.

§ 7316. Construction Requirements.

(a) The Department may review Project plans and specifications to ensure the following objectives:

(1) Maintenance, repair, and replacement costs shall be minimized during the useful life of the Rental Housing Development through use of durable, low maintenance materials and equipment and design features that minimize wear and tear.

(2) Operating costs shall be minimized during the useful life of the Rental Housing Development.

(3) Tenant security shall be enhanced through features such as those designed to prevent or discourage unauthorized access and to allow for ready monitoring of public areas.

(4) Unit sizes, amenities, and general design features shall not exceed the standard for new developments rented at or below the market rent in the area of the Project, and Unit density shall not be substantially less than the average for new developments with such Units.

(b) The Sponsor shall ensure that the construction work for the Project is performed in a competent, professional manner at the lowest reasonable cost consistent with the Project's scope, design and locality and not in excess of the total funds available.

(c) The Sponsor shall enter into a written contract for the construction or Rehabilitation work with a contractor having the appropriate state license. The contract shall be subject to the prior approval of the Department to determine compliance with Program requirements.

(d) The construction contract shall be a completely integrated agreement containing all the understandings, covenants, conditions and representations between the parties and shall specify a total contract price consistent with the Project budget approved by the Department.

(e) The Sponsor shall ensure that the construction contract requires compliance with state prevailing wage law (Chapter 1 of Part 7 of Division 2 of the Labor Code, commencing with Section 1720). The construction contract shall require the contractor to maintain labor records as required by law, and to make these records available to any enforcement agency upon request. Prior to the close of the Program loan, the Sponsor shall provide to the Department a certification that prevailing wages have been paid or will be paid, and that the records shall be available consistent with the requirements of this subsection.

Article 3. Application Procedures

§ 7317. Application Process.

(a) The Department shall periodically issue a Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA) that specifies, among other things, the amount of funds available, application requirements, the allocation of rating points, minimum eligibility threshold point scores, the deadline for submittal of applications, the schedule for rating and ranking applications and awarding funds, and the general terms and conditions of funding commitments. A NOFA may declare as ineligible those Project applications for which the Department has issued, or concurrently will issue, a special NOFA pursuant to subsection (c)(4), below.

(b) Applications selected for funding shall be approved at loan amounts, terms, and conditions specified by the Department. For each Project selected for funding, the Department shall issue an award letter and a conditional loan commitment.

(c) In order to implement goals and purposes of the Program, the Department may adopt measures to direct funding awards to designated Project types including, but not limited to, Rural Area Projects, Projects located in areas needing additional funding to achieve a reasonable geographic distribution of Program funds, Projects preserving continued affordability, and Projects with specified funding characteristics, including, but not limited to, Projects receiving an award of tax credits from TCAC. These measures may include, but are not limited to:

(1) Issuing a special NOFA for designated Project types.

(2) Awarding bonus points within a particular NOFA to designated Project types.

(3) Reserving a portion of funds in the NOFA for designated Project types.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in these regulations to the contrary, a special NOFA issued pursuant to this subsection may establish an over-the-counter application process, meaning the Department continuously accepts and rates applications according to minimum threshold criteria published in a NOFA for the process, and makes loans to Projects that meet or exceed these criteria until the funding available for the process is exhausted. At a minimum, a special NOFA shall include a description of the application process and funding conditions, shall require compliance with Section 7320(a), and shall establish minimum funding threshold criteria based on the rating criteria set forth in Section 7320(b).

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50406(n), 50675.1(c) and 50675.11, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50675.1(c), 50675.6 and 50675.7, Health and Safety Code.

§ 7318. Application Requirements.

(a) Application shall be made on a form made available by the Department requesting the information required by Multifamily Housing Program Regulations.

(b) An application shall be deemed complete when the Department is able to review the application and assess the proposed Project's feasibility pursuant to Section 8310 of this title and to determine from the information provided whether the Project is eligible for rating and ranking pursuant to Section 7320.

(c) Submission of an application by the applicant and a co-applicant must be authorized by resolutions of the governing boards of both the applicant and co-applicant, unless the applicants are individuals.

§ 7320. Project Selection.

(a) Projects shall not be eligible for an award of funds unless the application demonstrates that all of the following conditions exist:

(1) The applicant is an eligible Sponsor pursuant to Section 7303;

(2) The Project involves an eligible Project pursuant to Section 7302;

(3) All proposed uses of Program funds are eligible pursuant to Section 7304;

(4) The application is complete pursuant to Section 7318;

(5) The Project will maintain Fiscal Integrity consistent with proposed Rents in the Assisted Units and is feasible pursuant to Section 8310 of this title;

(6) The Project site is free from severe adverse environmental conditions, such as the presence of toxic waste that is economically infeasible to remove and that cannot be mitigated;

(7) The Project site is reasonably accessible to public transportation, shopping, medical services, recreation, schools, and employment in relation to the needs of the Project tenants;

(8) In Projects targeting Special Needs Populations, the Project will provide services suitable to the needs of the tenants, and the application demonstrates a specific, feasible plan for delivery and funding of those services including identification of service partners and funding sources; and

(9) The Project complies with the requirements of Sections 8302 and 8303 of this title.

(b) Applications shall be reviewed by the Department to determine compliance with subsection (a), above, and shall be rated and ranked in accordance with this subsection (b). Applications shall be ranked in the order of their point scores. The Department may establish a preliminary point score and ranking for applications prior to determining their compliance with subsection (a), above. If an application will not be within a fundable range as indicated by the preliminary ranking, the Department is not required to determine the application's compliance with subsection (a), above. Additional or alternative scoring may be implemented in particular NOFA's for designated Project types as described above in Section 7317(c).

The following criteria shall be used to rate applications:

(1) The extent to which the Project serves households at the lowest income levels — 35 points maximum.

Applications will be scored based on the percentage of Restricted Units limited to various percentages of the State Median Income, expressed as a percentage of Area Median Income and adjusted by household size, and in accordance with the following schedules:

High Income Areas

For purposes of this subchapter, "high income areas" means counties with Area Median Incomes that exceed 110% of the State Median Income.

(A) 0.75 points will be awarded for each percent of Restricted Units that are Restricted Units for households with incomes less than or equal to 40% of State Median Income, expressed as a percentage of Area Median Income.

(B) 1 point will be awarded for each percent of Restricted Units that are Restricted Units for households with incomes less than or equal to 35% of State Median Income, expressed as a percentage of Area Median Income.

(C) 1.5 points will be awarded for each percent of Restricted Units that are Restricted Units for households with incomes not exceeding 20% of State Median Income (adjusted by the Department to avoid exclusion of working CalWORKs recipients and individuals receiving SSI and expressed as a percentage of Area Median Income) for the first 10% of total Restricted Units; then 1 point for each subsequent percent of total Restricted Units.

Point scores will be rounded to the nearest one hundredth point in this category.

Other Areas

(D) .75 points will be awarded for each percent of Restricted Units that are Restricted Units for households with incomes less than or equal to 35% of State Median Income, expressed as a percentage of Area Median Income.

(E) 1 point will be awarded for each percent of Restricted Units that are Restricted Units for households with incomes less than or equal to 30% of State Median Income, expressed as a percentage of Area Median Income.

(F) 1.5 points will be awarded for each percent of Restricted Units that are Restricted Units for households with incomes not exceeding 20% of State Median Income (adjusted by the Department to avoid exclusion of working CalWORKs recipients and individuals receiving SSI and expressed as a percentage of Area Median Income) for the first 10% of total Restricted Units; then 1 point for each subsequent percent of total Restricted Units.

In Projects that rely on renewable Project-based rental assistance contracts to maintain Fiscal Integrity consistent with the targeted income limits (and associated tenant Rents), scores will be based on the income limits and Rents applicable under the rent subsidy contract.

Point scores will be rounded to the nearest one hundredth point in this category.

(2) The extent to which the Project addresses the most serious identified local housing needs — 15 points maximum.

(A) 5 points will be awarded based on the receipt of:

1. a letter from the local housing agency, or city, or county in which the proposed Project will be located, stating that the proposed Project will address a serious local housing need as identified in a specific local policy document; or

2. for Projects with a minimum of 70% of Project Units reserved for Special Needs Populations, a letter from a local government entity responsible for delivery of Special Needs Populations' services, stating that the proposed Project will address a serious local housing need related to Special Needs Populations served by the Project.

(B) Projects will receive 10 additional points if:

1. at least 70% of the total Units are reserved for Special Needs Populations; or

2. at least 70% of the total Units have 2 or more bedrooms, and they are located in one of the following counties: San Diego, Orange, Los Angeles, Ventura, Santa Barbara, San Luis Obispo, Monterey, Santa Cruz, San Mateo, Santa Clara, San Francisco, Alameda, Contra Costa, Napa, Solano, Marin or Sonoma.

(C) For Projects not meeting the requirements of subsection (b)(2)(B), above, up to 10 points will be awarded on the basis of vacancy rate comparisons with competitive developments as described in subparagraph (3), below. (For purposes of the following vacancy rate comparison, Units reserved for Special Needs Populations in the proposed Project and competitive Projects shall not be considered.)

1. Competitive developments are multifamily rental developments with Units similar to those in the Project, which are not severely dilapidated, are not being purposely held vacant or partially vacant, and are not affected by some other unique situation that is artificially depressing occupancy levels. If the proposed Project is for the elderly, competitive Projects must be limited to this population;

2. Units similar to those in the Project are defined as Units with the same number of bedrooms and bathrooms. Where the proposed Project contains 3 or 4 bedroom Units and where 3 or 4 bedroom multifamily rental developments do not exist in the market area of the proposed Project, competitive developments will be those multifamily rental developments containing the largest Units in the market area of the proposed Project while meeting the requirements of subparagraph (1.), above;

3. Points will be awarded on the basis of either the weighted average vacancy rate, as documented by the Sponsor, of 5 or more competitive developments, nearest the proposed Project, or the vacancy rate for competitive Projects as determined by a market study, performed by a qualified third party in accordance with the Department's application of TCAC Market Study Guidelines dated February 2002 except that market studies for proposed elderly Projects shall be limited to competitive elderly developments as follows:

(i) 10 points will be awarded if the vacancy rate is lower than 3%.

(ii) 5 points will be awarded if the vacancy rate is at least 3% but less than or equal to 5%.

(3) The development and ownership experience of the Project Sponsor — 20 points maximum.

(A) Applications will be scored based on the number of subsidized Rental Housing Developments (including tax credit Projects) that the Sponsor has completed over the last 5 years and whether they have identified performance problems.

(B) A Sponsor may include the experience of its affiliated entities or its principals (e.g., employees responsible for managing development activities), but not the experience of non-management board members. A Sponsor may include the experience of a partner in order to gain experience points; however, the experienced partner must have a controlling interest in the partnership and a substantial and continued role in the Project's ongoing operations, as evidenced in partnership documents. In such cases, points will be awarded based only on the experience of the more experienced partner. Any dissolution of the partnership or withdrawal of the more experienced partner will require prior written approval by the Department.

(C) To be counted towards experience pursuant to subsection (b)(3), above, completed Projects cited for experience points must contain 10 or more Units, except if the proposed Project contains less than 15 Units and at least 70% of the total Units in the proposed Project are reserved for Special Needs Populations, completed Projects submitted for experience points must contain at least 5 Units.

(D) 4 points will be awarded for each Project completed in the 5 years preceding the application due date, up to a maximum of 20 points.

(E) Where at least 70% of the Units in the proposed Project are reserved for Special Needs Populations, the Sponsor may elect to have its application scored based on the lesser of:

1. The number of subsidized Rental Housing Developments that the Sponsor's development consultant or contracted developer has completed in the last five years;

2. The number of subsidized Rental Housing Developments that the Sponsor, or affiliates or principals of the Sponsor either own or operate under a long-term lease or other arrangement that involves all responsibilities commensurate with ownership.

To qualify for scoring under this alternative, the Sponsor must contract with the developer or development consultant for comprehensive development services, including financial packaging, selection of other consultants, selection of the construction contractor and property management agent, oversight of architectural design, construction management, and other major aspects of the development process.

Applications scored under this alternative shall be awarded 4 points per Rental Housing Development, up to a maximum of 20 points.

(F) 5 points will be deducted for each occurrence or event in the following categories, with a maximum deduction of 10 points per category and a maximum total deduction of 50 points:

1. removal or withdrawal under threat of removal as general partner;

2. failure to submit, when due, compliance documentation required under the Department Program;

3. use of reserve funds for Department–assisted Projects in a manner contrary to Program requirements, or failure to deposit reserve funds as required by the Department;

4. failure to provide promised supportive services to a Special Needs Population or other tenants of a publicly funded Project;

5. other significant violations of the requirements of Department programs or of the programs of other public agencies, such as the failure to adequately maintain a Project or the books and records thereof.

Events occurring in connection with Projects under the control of the Sponsor shall be used as the basis for point deductions. Such events shall have had a detrimental effect on the Project or the Department's ability to monitor the Project, as determined by the Department. Events shall not result in the deduction of points if they have been fully resolved as determined by, or to the satisfaction of, the Department as of the application due date.

(4) The percentage of Units for families or Special Needs Populations and "at–risk" Rental Housing Developments — 35 points maximum.

Applications will be scored based on the percentage of Project Units that will have 2 or more bedrooms, or that are reserved for Special Needs Populations. Projects must have at least 5 Units reserved for Special Needs Populations to receive points for Special Needs Populations' Units. To receive points for Special Needs Populations' Units, a complete and detailed supportive services plan acceptable to the Department, describing services appropriate to the needs of the targeted population, a line item budget, and documentation identifying proposed funding sources must accompany the application, along with detailed documentation acceptable to the Department describing the experience and capacity of the services provider.

(A) .2 points will be awarded for each percent of total Project Units that have 2 bedrooms.

(B) .7 points will be awarded for each percent of total Project Units that have 3 or more bedrooms.

(C) 1 point will be awarded for each percent of total Project Units that are reserved for a Special Needs Population or Populations.

(D) Projects approved by the Department as "at–risk", as defined by TCAC Regulations, will receive 35 points in this category.

Point scores will be rounded to the nearest one hundredth point in this category.

(5) Leverage of other funds, in those jurisdictions where they are available — 20 points maximum.

Applications will be scored based on the leverage of other funds, meaning the amount of non–Program funds for permanent funding of the development costs attributable to the Restricted Units, as a percentage of the requested amount of Program funds. Deferred developer fees will not be counted as leveraged funds. Land donations will be counted as leveraged funds where the value is established with a current appraisal. One–half point will be awarded for each full 5–percentage point increment above 100%. Rural Area Projects will be awarded one–half point for each full 5–percentage point increment above 50%. For example, a non–Rural Area Project where other funds are equal to 100% of requested Program funds will receive zero (0) points, a Project where other funds equal 150% will receive 5 points, a Project where other funds equal 250% will receive 15 points, and a Project where non–Program funds equal 300% of requested Program funds will receive the maximum 20 points.

(6) Project Readiness — 15 points maximum.

(A) 2.5 points will be awarded to Projects for each of the following circumstances as documented in the application. If a particular category is not applicable, full points shall be awarded in that category.

1. obtaining enforceable commitments for all construction financing, not including tax–exempt bonds, 4% tax credits, and funding to be provided by another Department program. Funds from other Department programs proposed for construction financing for the Project must be awarded prior to final rating and ranking for the MHP application;

2. completion of all necessary environmental clearances (California Environmental Quality Act and National Environmental Policy Act) and of a Phase I Environmental Site Assessment;

3. obtaining all necessary and discretionary public land use approvals except building permits and other ministerial approvals;

4. either:

(a) the Sponsor has fee title ownership to the site or a long–term leasehold securing the site meeting the criteria for Program site control; or

(b) the Sponsor can demonstrate that the working drawings are at least 50% complete, as certified by the Project architect;

5. obtaining local design review approval to the extent such approval is required;

6. obtaining commitments for all deferred–payment financing, grants and subsidies, in accordance with TCAC requirements and with the same exceptions as allowed by TCAC. Deferred–payment financing, grant funds and subsidies from other Department programs proposed for Project financing must be awarded prior to final rating and ranking for the MHP application.

(7) Adaptive Reuse/Infill/Proximity to Amenities — 10 points maximum.

The following criteria shall apply only to applications requesting funds appropriated pursuant to Section 53533(a)(1) of the Health and Safety Code.

Applications will receive 10 points for meeting any of the following three conditions. Applications not meeting any one of these three conditions will not receive points pursuant to this criterion.

(A) Adaptive reuse. The Project will be located in a developed area served with public infrastructure and shall consist of the rehabilitation of vacant or underused commercial or industrial buildings.

(B) Infill development. The Project will be located in a developed area.

(C) Proximity to amenities. The Project will be proximate to public transit, public schools, public parks, or public recreational facilities, as determined by TCAC regulations that would result in TCAC scoring points given thereto; or the Project will be located within one mile of a Job Center. A Job Center is a concentration of employment opportunities reasonably available to the tenants of the Project.

(c) In the event of tied point scores, the Department shall rank tied applications based on the lowest weighted average affordability of Restricted Units, which shall be computed as follows:

(1) Multiplying each income limit applicable to the Project by the number of Units restricted at that income level.

(2) Adding the products calculated pursuant to the previous subsection.

(3) Dividing the sum calculated pursuant to the previous subsection by the number of Restricted Units in the Project.

Article 4. Program Operations

§ 7321. Legal Documents.

(a) Upon the award of Program funds to a Project, the Department shall enter into one or more agreements with the Sponsor, which may be in the form of a conditional commitment letter issued by the Department and accepted by the Sponsor, which shall commit monies from the Fund in an amount sufficient to fund the approved loan amount. The agreement or agreements shall contain the following:

(1) a description of the approved Project and the permitted uses of Program funds;

(2) the amount and terms of the loan;

(3) the regulatory restrictions to be applied to the Project through the Regulatory Agreement;

(4) provisions governing the construction work and, as applicable, the acquisition of the Project site, and the disbursement of loan proceeds;

(5) special conditions imposed as part of Department approval of the Project;

(6) requirements for the execution and the recordation of the agreements and documents required under the Program;

(7) terms and conditions required by federal or state law;

(8) requirements regarding the establishment of escrow accounts for the deposit of documents and the disbursement of loan proceeds;

(9) the approved schedule of the Project, including land acquisition if any, commencement and completion of construction or Rehabilitation work, and occupancy by Eligible Households;

(10) the approved Project development budget and sources and uses of funds and financing;

(11) requirements for reporting to the Department;

(12) terms and conditions for the inspection and monitoring of the Project in order to verify compliance with the requirements of the Program;

(13) provisions regarding tenant relocation;

(14) provisions relating to the erection and placement on or in the vicinity of the Project site a sign indicating that the Department has provided financing for the Project. The Department may also arrange for publicity of the Program loan in its sole discretion; and

(15) other provisions necessary to ensure compliance with the requirements of the Program.

(b) The Department shall enter into a Regulatory Agreement with the Sponsor for not less than the original term of the loan that shall be recorded against the Project property title prior to the disbursement of funds. The Regulatory Agreement shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) the number, type and income level of Assisted Units pursuant to Section 8304 of this title;

(2) standards for tenant selection pursuant to Section 8305 of this title;

(3) provisions regulating the terms of the rental agreement pursuant to Section 8307 of this title;

(4) provisions related to an annual operating budget approved by the Department pursuant to Section 7326;

(5) provisions related to a management plan pursuant to Section 7324;

(6) provisions related to a Rent schedule, including initial Rent levels for Assisted Units and non-Assisted Units pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) of Section 7312;

(7) conditions and procedures for permitting Rent increases pursuant to Section 7312;

(8) provisions for limitations on Distributions pursuant to Section 8314 of this title;

(9) provisions relating to annual reports, inspections and independent audits pursuant to Section 7325;

(10) provisions regarding the deposit and withdrawal of funds to and from reserve accounts;

(11) assurances that the Rental Housing Development will be maintained in a safe and sanitary condition in compliance with state and local housing codes and the management plan, pursuant to Section 7324;

(12) description of the conditions constituting breach of the Regulatory Agreement and remedies available to the parties thereto;

(13) provisions governing use and operation of non-Assisted Units and common areas to the extent necessary to ensure compliance with Program requirements;

(14) provisions relating to enforcement of Program requirements by tenants;

(15) special conditions of loan approval imposed by the Department;

(16) provisions specifying that the Regulatory Agreement shall be binding on all assigns and successors in interest of the Sponsor and that all sales, transfers, and encumbrances shall be subject to Section 7322;

(17) for Projects serving Special Needs Populations and/or providing services to the general tenant population, provisions regarding the implementation and maintenance of services and facilities for the targeted Special Needs Population group and/or general tenant population; and

(18) other provisions necessary to assure compliance with the requirements of the Program.

(c) All loans shall be evidenced by a promissory note payable to the Department in the principal amount of the loan and stating the terms of the loan consistent with the requirements of the Program. The note shall be secured by a deed of trust on the Project property naming the Department as beneficiary or by other security acceptable to the Department; this deed of trust or other security shall be recorded junior only to such liens, encumbrances and other matters of record approved by the Department and shall secure the Department's financial interest in the Project and the performance of Sponsor's Program obligations.

HISTORY

1. New article 4 (sections 7321–7326) and section filed 1–8–2002; operative 1–8–2002 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2002, No. 2).
2. Amendment of subsections (b)(1)–(b)(3), (b)(7) and (b)(8) filed 9–29–2003; operative 9–29–2003 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2003, No. 40).

§ 7322. Sales, Transfers, and Encumbrances.

(a) A Sponsor shall not sell, assign, transfer, or convey the Rental Housing Development, or any interest therein or portion thereof, without the express prior written approval of the Department. A sale, transfer or conveyance shall be approved only if all of the following requirements are met:

(1) the existing Sponsor is in compliance with the Regulatory Agreement, or the sale, transfer or conveyance will result in the cure of any existing violations;

(2) the successor-in-interest to the Sponsor agrees to assume all obligations of the existing Sponsor pursuant to the Regulatory Agreement and the Program;

(3) the successor-in-interest is an eligible Sponsor and demonstrates to the Department's satisfaction that it can successfully own and operate the Rental Housing Development and comply with all Program requirements; and

(4) no terms of the sale, transfer, or conveyance jeopardize either the Department's security or the successor's ability to comply with all Program requirements.

(b) If the Sponsor or its successor-in-interest is a partnership, the Sponsor shall not discharge or replace any general partner or amend, modify or add to its partnership agreement, or cause or permit the general partner to amend, modify or add to the organizational documents of the general partner, without the prior written approval of the Department. The Sponsor may transfer limited partnership interests without the prior written approval of the Department.

(c) The Department shall grant its approval of a sale, assignment, transfer, or conveyance subject to such terms and conditions as may be necessary to preserve or establish the Fiscal Integrity of the Project. Such conditions may include:

(1) the deposit of sales proceeds, or a portion thereof, to maintain required reserves, or to offset negative cash flow;

(2) the recapture of syndication proceeds or other funds in accordance with special conditions included in any agreement executed by the Sponsor; or

(3) such conditions as may be necessary to ensure compliance with the Program requirements.

(d) The Sponsor shall not encumber, pledge, or hypothecate the Rental Housing Development, or any interest therein or portion thereof, or allow any lien, charge, or assessment against the Rental Housing Development without the prior written approval of the Department. The Department may permit refinancing of existing liens or additional financing secured by the Rental Housing Development to the extent necessary to maintain or improve the Fiscal Integrity of the Project, to maintain Affordable Rents, or to decrease Rents.

1. New section filed 1–8–2002; operative 1–8–2002 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2002, No. 2).

§ 7323. Defaults and Loan Cancellations.

(a) In the event of a breach or violation by the Sponsor of any of the provisions of the Regulatory Agreement, the promissory note, or the deed of trust, or any other agreement pertaining to the Project, the Department may give written notice to the Sponsor to cure the breach or violation within a period of not less than 15 days. If the breach or violation is not cured to the satisfaction of the Department within the specified time period, the Department, at its option, may declare a default under the relevant document(s) and may seek legal remedies for the default including the following:

(1) The Department may accelerate all amounts, including outstanding principal and interest, due under the loan and demand immediate repayment thereof. Upon a failure to repay such accelerated amounts in full, the Department may proceed with a foreclosure in accordance with the provisions of the deed of trust and state law regarding foreclosures.

(2) The Department may seek, in a court of competent jurisdiction, an order for specific performance of the defaulted obligation or the appointment of a receiver to operate the Rental Housing Development in accordance with Program requirements.

(3) The Department may seek such other remedies as may be available under the relevant agreement or any law.

(b) If the breach or violation involves charging tenants Rent or other charges in excess of those permitted under the Regulatory Agreement, the Department may demand the return of such excess Rents or other charges to the respective households. In any action to enforce the provisions of the Regulatory Agreement, the Department may seek, as an additional remedy, the repayment of such overcharges.

(c) The Department may cancel Loan commitments under any of the following conditions:

(1) the objectives and requirements of the Program cannot be met;

(2) implementation of the Project cannot proceed in a timely fashion in accordance with the approved plans and schedules;

(3) special conditions have not been fulfilled within required time periods; or

(4) there has been a material change, not approved by the Department, in the principals or management of the Sponsor or Project. The Department, in writing and upon demonstration by the Sponsor of good cause, may extend the date for compliance with any of the conditions in this subsection.

(d) Upon receipt of a notice from the Department of intent to cancel the loan, the Sponsor shall have the right to appeal to the Director.

(e) The Department may use amounts in the Fund to cure or avoid a Sponsor's default on the terms of any loan or other obligation that jeopardizes the Fiscal Integrity of a Project or the Department's security in the Project. Such defaults may include defaults or impending defaults in payments on mortgages, failures to pay taxes, or failures to maintain insurance or required reserves. The payment or advance of funds by the Department pursuant to this subsection shall be solely within the discretion of the Department and no Sponsor shall be entitled to or have any right to payment of these funds. All funds advanced pursuant to this subsection shall be part of the Program loan and, upon demand, due and payable to the Department. Where it becomes necessary to use the Fund to assist a Project to avoid threatened defaults or foreclosures, the Department shall take those actions necessary, including, but not limited to, foreclosure or forced sale of the Project property, to prevent further, similar occurrences and ensure compliance with the terms of the applicable agreements.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 1–8–2002; operative 1–8–2002 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2002, No. 2).

§ 7324. Management and Maintenance.

(a) The Sponsor shall be responsible for all management functions of the Rental Housing Development including selection of the tenants, annual recertification of household income and size, evictions, and collection of Rent.

(b) The Sponsor is responsible for all repair and maintenance functions of the Rental Housing Development, including ordinary maintenance and replacement of capital items. The Sponsor shall ensure maintenance of residential Units, Commercial Space and common areas in accordance with local health, building, and housing codes, and the management plan.

(c) The Sponsor shall ensure that the Rental Housing Development is managed by an entity approved by the Department that is actively in the business of managing low-income housing. Any management contract entered into for this purpose shall be subject to Department approval and contain a provision allowing the Sponsor to terminate the contract upon 30-days' notice. The Sponsor shall terminate said contract as directed by the Department upon determination that management does not comply with Program requirements.

(d) The Sponsor shall develop a management plan subject to Department approval prior to loan closing. Any change to the plan shall be subject to the approval of the Department. The plan shall be consistent with Program requirements and shall include the following:

(1) the role and responsibility of the Sponsor and its delegation of authority, if any, to the managing agent;

(2) personnel policy and staffing arrangements;

(3) plans and procedures for publicizing and achieving early and continued occupancy;

(4) procedures for determining tenant eligibility and selecting tenants and for certifying and annually recertifying household income and size;

(5) plans for carrying out an effective maintenance and repair program;

(6) Rent collection policies and procedures;

(7) a program for maintaining adequate accounting records and handling necessary forms and vouchers;

(8) plans for enhancing tenant-management relations;

(9) the management agreement, if any;

(10) provisions for periodic update of the management plan;

(11) appeal and grievance procedures;

(12) plans for collections for tenant-caused damages, processing evictions and terminations; and

(13) for Projects serving Special Needs Populations and/or providing special services to the general tenant population, a supportive services plan, that includes:

(A) a description of the services to be provided;

(B) a preliminary services budget;

(C) funding source(s);

(D) identification of the organization(s) that will provide services;

(E) a preliminary staffing plan;

(F) location of services to be provided off site; and

(G) any special eligibility requirements for the services.

§ 7325. Reporting.

No later than 90 days after the end of each Project fiscal year, the Sponsor shall submit an independent audit of the Rental Housing Development prepared by a certified public accountant in accordance with Department audit requirements, as specified in the Department's Rental Housing Construction Program Information Memorandum dated August 14, 1995, as periodically updated and incorporated by reference. Upon a determination that the cost of meeting this requirement exceeds the potential benefits from it to the Department and to the tenants of the Rental Housing Development, the Department may:

(a) reduce the required frequency of the audit;

(b) accept an audited financial statement in lieu of the audit; or

(c) waive this requirement completely.

§ 7326. Operating Budget.

(a) Prior to loan closing, the Sponsor shall submit an initial operating budget to the Department. Such budget shall show all anticipated income; expenses for management, operations and maintenance; debt service; and reserve deposits for the Initial Operating Year.

(b) For as long as deemed necessary by the Department to ensure compliance with Program requirements, the Sponsor shall submit to the Department for its approval, 60 days prior to the end of each Project fiscal year, a proposed operating budget. The proposed operating budget shall set forth the Sponsor's estimate of the Project's Operating Income, Operating Expenses, debt service for the upcoming year, and any proposed Rent increases pursuant to Section 7312. In lieu of the requirement for submission of complete proposed operating budgets, the Department may require submission of limited budget information, such as a proposed Rent schedule, proposed management fees, and reserve deposit amounts. The Department may re–impose the requirement for submission of complete operating budgets where necessary to ensure compliance with Program requirements.

(c) The initial and subsequent proposed operating budgets, where required, shall be subject to the approval of the Department based on its determination that the budget line items are reasonable and necessary in light of costs for comparable Rental Housing Developments and prior year budgets. Actual expenditures in excess of the approved budget amount shall be subject to Department approval.

(d) The initial operating budget and subsequent proposed operating budgets shall include periodic deposits to the operating reserve, replacement reserve, and any other reserve account required by the Department in accordance with the requirements of Sections 8308 and 8309 of this title.

(e) For Projects with non–Assisted Units or Commercial Space, all budgets submitted pursuant to this section shall show income and uses of income allocated among Assisted Units, Restricted Units, non–Restricted Units, and Commercial Space. The allocation method used for each budget line item shall be subject to Department approval, and shall apportion income and expenses in a manner that accurately reflects the particular physical, operational and economic characteristics of the Project.

Article 5. Rent Write–Down Loans

§ 7327. General.

(a) This Article 5 governs Program loans designated as Rent Write–Down (RWD) loans for the purpose of lowering income limits and corresponding Rent levels for Low Income Housing Tax Credit Program Projects that are otherwise feasible without the use of Program funds.

(b) This article will govern the award, terms, conditions and uses of RWD loans only. Except where specifically noted the provisions of Articles 1, 2, 3 and 4 do not govern RWD loans

§ 7329. Eligibility for RWD Loans.

(a) In order to receive an RWD loan, the Project must:

(1) have received an award of 9% or 4% tax credits from TCAC;

(2) include the new construction or Rehabilitation of a Rental Housing Development, or conversion of a nonresidential structure to a Rental Housing Development;

(3) have sufficient financing and funding commitments to demonstrate that the Project is feasible at marketable rents without the use of Program funds;

(4) not receive other funds from the Program; and

(5) not have completed construction at the time of the award of Program funds, as evidenced by the lack of a recorded notice of completion or comparable indicator of construction status.

(b) The Sponsor may be any entity qualified to receive a tax credit allocation from TCAC.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 1–8–2002; operative 1–8–2002 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2002, No. 2).

§ 7330. Amounts and Terms for RWD Loans.

(a) RWD loan amounts shall be limited to the sum of a base amount per Assisted Unit plus the amount required to:

(1) reduce Rents from the rent structure for Assisted Units that would apply without RWD assistance to the proposed restricted Rents for Assisted Units, by either substituting Program funds for amortized debt or capitalizing a rent subsidy reserve; and

(2) preserve Project cash flow at the level that would be generated without participation in the RWD program.

The initial base amount shall be $3,000. The Department may periodically adjust the base amount to equal the lowest amount necessary to ensure sufficient demand for Program funds, taking into account factors such as the previous demand for RWD funds and the total amount of Program funds available for award under the RWD component.

(b) RWD funds may be used to capitalize a reserve only if it is not feasible to reduce Rents and maintain Project cash flow by substituting

RWD funds for amortized debt. The amount of the capitalized reserve shall not exceed the amount needed to reduce Rents and preserve cash flow at the level that would apply without RWD assistance for a period of 20 years. Thereafter the Assisted Units shall continue to be occupied by eligible households at affordable Rents for the remaining term of the Regulatory Agreement. The Department shall disburse the funds in a manner to ensure the fiscal integrity of the Project for the 20-year period.

(c) Program funds shall be used for post-construction, permanent financing only, except under an agreement with California Housing Finance Agency to provide construction period financing to eligible projects receiving financing from both California Housing Finance Agency and the Program.

(d) The interest rate and loan repayment terms shall be as set forth in Section 7308.

(e) The initial term of the loan shall be 55 years, commencing on the date of recordation of the Program loan documents.

(f) Upon request by the Sponsor, the Department may approve a 10-year extension of the loan term if the Department determines both of the following are met:

(1) The Sponsor is in compliance with the Regulatory Agreement and other Program loan documents and agrees to continue to comply during the extended term.

(2) The extension is necessary to continue operations consistent with Program requirements.

The Department may condition the extension on such terms as it deems necessary to ensure compliance with the requirements of the Program.

(g) The Program loan shall be secured by the Project real property and improvements, subject only to liens, encumbrances and other matters of record approved by the Department.

2. Amendment of subsections (b)-(c) and (f)(1) filed 9-29-2003; operative 9-29-2003 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2003, No. 40).

§ 7331. Occupancy and Rent Requirements

(a) Upon initial occupancy, Assisted Units shall be restricted to one or more of the following income levels: 20%, 30%, 35%, or 40% of State Median Income, expressed as a percentage of Area Median Income. Rents for Assisted Units shall not exceed 30% of the applicable income limit.

(b) No more than 30% of the total Units in a Project assisted with a RWD loan may be funded as Assisted Units.

(c) The Sponsor shall provide relocation benefits and assistance for tenants directly displaced as a result of RWD funds.

(d) Assisted Units shall not differ substantially in size or amenity level from non-Assisted Units with the same number of bedrooms, and Units shall not differ in size or amenity level on the basis of income-level restrictions. Assisted Units shall not be segregated from non-Assisted Units, and Units shall not be segregated from each other on the basis of income-level restriction. Within these limits, Sponsors may change the designation of a particular Unit from Assisted to non-Assisted or from one income-restriction to another over time. For Projects involving Rehabilitation or conversion, the Department may permit certain Units to be designated as exclusively market-rate Units where necessary for Fiscal Integrity and where all other Program requirements are satisfied.

(e) The number, size, type, and amenity level of Assisted Units shall not be fewer than the number nor different from the size, type and amenity level described in the Regulatory Agreement for the full loan term.

(f) Sponsors shall select only Eligible Households as tenants of Assisted Units, and shall annually recertify household income and size to determine continued eligibility. If, at the time of tenant recertification, a household's income exceeds the income limit designated for the household's Unit by more than 10% of State Median Income, the Sponsor shall increase the household's Rent to the level applicable to other households with similar incomes, and shall designate the next available Unit as an Assisted Unit restricted for occupancy by households at the income level formerly applicable to the first Unit until the mix required by the Regulatory Agreement is achieved.

§ 7332. Application Process.

(a) The Department may issue a NOFA limited to RWD loans and as authorized by Section 7317(c)(4). The NOFA shall specify the amount of RWD funds available, the period during which loan applications may be accepted and the specific requirements of the RWD loan application. The NOFA may establish a minimum point total for rating Projects pursuant to the criteria set forth in Section 7320(b) or similar TCAC criteria, and may provide that Projects meeting or exceeding that minimum score may be eligible for funding so long as funds are available.

(b) Projects shall not be eligible for an award of funds unless the application demonstrates that all of the following conditions exist:

(1) The application meets the eligibility requirements pursuant to Section 7329; and

(2) The application is complete. Applications shall be deemed complete when the Department is able to assess that the Project is eligible pursuant to Section 7329 and to rate the Project pursuant to Section 7332(a).

(c) The application shall be made on a form made available by the Department requesting the information required by the Multifamily Housing Program Regulations and shall include the proposed number of Assisted Units and the income and Rent levels to be achieved in the Assisted Units as a result of the RWD loan. The application shall also specify the proposed use of the proceeds of the RWD loan, which may include a capitalized rent reserve fund or a reduction in the approved permanent amortized financing for the Project.

§ 7333. Legal Documents.

(a) The provisions of Section 7321(a) shall apply to loans made under this article.

(b) The Department shall enter into a Regulatory Agreement with the Sponsor for not less than the original term of the loan that shall be recorded against the Project property title prior to the disbursement of funds. The Regulatory Agreement shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) the number, type and income level of Assisted Units pursuant to Section 7331;

(2) provisions related to a management plan pursuant to Section 7324;

(3) provisions related to a Rent schedule, including initial Rent levels for Assisted Units and non-Assisted Units pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) of Section 7331;

(4) conditions and procedures for permitting Rent increases;

(5) provisions relating to annual reports, inspections and independent audits pursuant to Section 7325;

(6) provisions regarding the deposit and withdrawal of funds to and from reserve accounts;

(7) assurances that the Rental Housing Development will be maintained in a safe and sanitary condition in compliance with state and local housing codes and the management plan, pursuant to Section 7324;

(8) description of the conditions constituting breach of the Regulatory Agreement and remedies available to the parties thereto;

(9) provisions governing use and operation of non-Assisted Units and common areas to the extent necessary to ensure compliance with Program requirements;

(10) provisions relating to enforcement of Program requirements by tenants;

(11) special conditions of loan approval imposed by the Department;

(12) provisions specifying that the Regulatory Agreement shall be binding on all assigns and successors in interest of the Sponsor and that all sales, transfers, and encumbrances shall be subject to Section 7322;

(13) for Projects serving Special Needs Populations and/or providing services to the general tenant population, provisions regarding the implementation and maintenance of services and facilities for the targeted Special Needs Population group and/or general tenant population; and

(14) other provisions necessary to assure compliance with the requirements of the Program.

(c) All loans shall be evidenced by a promissory note payable to the Department in the principal amount of the loan and stating the terms of the loan consistent with the requirements of the Program. The note shall be secured by a deed of trust on the Project property naming the Department as beneficiary or by other security acceptable to the Department; this deed of trust or other security shall be recorded junior only to such liens, encumbrances and other matters of record approved by the Department and shall secure the Department's financial interest in the Project and the performance of Sponsor's Program obligations.

Article 6. Supportive Housing Loans

§ 7340. General.

(a) This Article 6 governs Projects funded pursuant to Health and Safety Code Sections 50675.14 and 53533(a)(3) for the purpose of providing loans to supportive housing Projects.

(b) The provisions of Articles 1, 2, 3 and 4 of this subchapter 4 apply to assistance made available pursuant to this Article 6 except as modified herein.

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50406(n), 50675.1(c), 50675.11, 50675.14(c) and 53533(a)(3), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50675, 50675.14 and 53533(a)(3), Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. New article 6 (sections 7340-7347) and section filed 4-14-2005; operative 5-14-2005 (Register 2005, No. 15).

§ 7341. Definitions.

For the purposes of this Article, in addition to the definitions in Section 7301 and Section 8301, the following definitions shall apply:

(a) "Supportive Housing Unit" means a Unit of permanent housing linked to supportive services restricted to occupancy by an Eligible Household and which meets all of the following requirements:

(1) Occupancy is restricted to Eligible Households that are Homeless or At Risk of Homelessness and that include a Disabled Adult.

(2) It is operated as independent housing, in which each tenant:

(A) Holds a lease or rental agreement in his or her own name and is responsible for paying Rent;

(B) Has his or her own room or apartment and is individually responsible for arranging any shared tenancy, to the extent that shared tenancy is allowed under his or her lease; and

(C) May stay as long as he or she pays his or her share of Rent and complies with the terms of his or her lease.

(3) The Unit is subject to applicable state and federal landlord-tenant laws.

(4) The tenant's participation in services or any particular service shall not be required as a condition of tenancy.

(5) At initial occupancy, the tenant household income, to the extent that it can be documented, shall not exceed 30 percent of the greater of State Median Income or Area Median Income.

(b) "Homeless" means:

(1) Moving from an emergency shelter; or

(2) Moving from Transitional Housing; or

(3) Currently Homeless which means:

(A) An individual who lacks a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence; or

(B) An individual who has a primary nighttime residence that is:

(i) A supervised publicly or privately operated shelter designed to provide temporary living accommodations (including welfare hotels, congregate shelters, and Transitional Housing for the mentally ill); or

(ii) An institution that provides a temporary residence for individuals intended to be institutionalized; or

(iii) A public or private place not designed for, or ordinarily used as, a regular sleeping accommodation for human beings.

(c) "At Risk of Homelessness" means:

(1) Households with incomes at or below the greater of 20 percent of State Median Income (SMI) or Area Median Income (AMI) with no rental subsidy available to the household; or

(2) Households with incomes above 20 percent but not exceeding 30 percent of the greater of SMI or AMI who:

(A) Face immediate eviction and have been unable to identify a subsequent residence; or

(B) Face imminent release from an institution (i.e.; jail, hospital or foster care system) where other housing placement resources are not available; or

(C) Reside in an overcrowded setting (more than two persons per living/sleeping area) in which the household does not hold a lease; or

(D) Reside in substandard housing subject to a current official vacation notice; or

(E) Pay more than 50 percent of income in housing costs.

(d) "High Risk of Homelessness" means the same as "Homeless" or "At Risk of Homelessness."

(e) "Disabled Adult" for the purposes of this Article 6 only shall mean a person 18 years of age or older, or an emancipated minor, with one of the following disabilities:

(1) Mental illness;

(2) HIV or AIDS;

(3) Substance abuse;

(4) Developmental disability; or

(5) Long-term chronic health condition that qualifies them for:

(A) Eligibility under either of two Medicaid Waiver programs, the Multipurpose Senior Services Program (MSSP) or the Assisted Living Waiver Pilot Project (or its successor);

(B) Eligibility for 20 or more personal care hours per week under the In-Home Supportive Services Program (IHSS); or

(C) Eligibility for services under the Program of All Inclusive Care for the Elderly (PACE).

Eligibility for these programs must be established by the agency responsible for determining eligibility for the benefits it provides.

§ 7342. Eligible Project.

In order to be eligible to apply for funding pursuant to this Article 6, in addition to the requirements of Section 7302, a proposed Project shall:

(a) Contain Supportive Housing Units at least equal to the greater of 5 Units or 35 percent of the total number of Units in the Project;

(b) Restrict Supportive Housing Units for permanent housing for Eligible Households that are Homeless or At-Risk of Homelessness and that include a Disabled Adult;

(c) In the event that the Department utilizes an over-the-counter selection process, meet or exceed the minimum points required by subsection (a) of Section 7346;

(d) Be linked to onsite or offsite services that assist the tenant in retaining the housing, improving his or her health status, and maximizing his or her ability to live and, when possible, work in the community;

(e) Utilize a primary service provider (the entity responsible for overall implementation of the service plan, including coordination between service providers, where there are more than one) with at least 24 months' experience in the provision of the proposed services to the targeted population, and a successful history of securing funds for similar activities;

(f) Utilize a property management agent with at least 24 months' experience in managing a special needs or supportive housing Project that would qualify as a Rental Housing Development pursuant to Section 8301(o), except that if the proposed Project has fewer than 10 Units, the Department may approve a property management agent with experience managing projects that do not qualify as Rental Housing Developments, provided that the agent has at least 24 months' experience managing housing for the specific population targeted by the proposed Project; and

(g) Not be operated as either a health facility, as defined by Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, or an alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facility, as defined by Section 11834.02 of the Health and Safety Code.

§ 7343. Eligible Sponsor.

In order to be eligible to apply for funding pursuant to this Article 6, in addition to the requirements of Section 7303, a Sponsor shall:

(a) Have at least 24 months experience in the ownership or operation of at least one Rental Housing Development with 5 or more Units that includes Units reserved for the disabled or other special needs group; and

(b) If the Department uses an over-the-counter application process, have sufficient experience to score at least 4 points under the development and ownership scoring criteria (pursuant to Section 7320(b)(3)), except that the score shall be based on experience acquired in the prior 10 years.

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50406(n), 50675.1(c), 50675.11, 50675.14(c), and 53533(a)(3), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50675.7(c)(3), 50675.14(e) and 53533(a)(3), Health and Safety Code.

§ 7344. Application Requirements.

In addition to the application requirements of Article 3, applications for funding under this Article shall include all the following information:

(a) Information sufficient to ascertain that the requirements of sections 7342 and 7343 have been met, and including at least one reference able to verify the role of the Sponsor in Projects submitted for experience;

(b) A supportive services plan that meets the requirements of Section 7345.

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50406(n), 50675.1(c), 50675.11, 50675.14(c) and 53533(a)(3), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50675.6, 50675.7, 50675.14 and 53533(a)(3), Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 4-14-2005; operative 5-14-2005 (Register 2005, No. 15).

§ 7345. Supportive Services Plan.

A supportive services plan shall be subject to the Department's approval and shall contain the following information and address the following topics:

(a) A description of the target population to be served including a narrative describing the tenant selection criteria, tenant eligibility verification process, tenant selection process, and expected sources of referrals. The tenant selection criteria and process shall be in accordance with applicable state and federal fair housing laws. The narrative shall also describe any reasonable accommodation policies as they relate to targeting and tenant selection of persons with disabilities.

(b) A description of the service needs of each target population that will be served.

(c) A description of the services that will be provided, where the services will be provided, who the provider will be, the provider's experience, and the provider's relationship to applicant.

(d) Documentation confirming the number of supportive service staff available to the Project and a narrative explaining staffing ratio and experience. Staffing levels must be documented as sufficient to make services available to meet the needs of the target population.

(e) A services line-item budget itemizing all expenses and listing the sources, amounts, and status (i.e., proposed or committed) of supportive service funds. The budget must demonstrate that the level of proposed funding is adequate to the types and levels of services to be provided and that all necessary costs are included.

(f) A narrative description of tenant engagement plan (i.e., plan to elicit voluntary tenant participation in services).

(g) Commitments or letters of intent to provide operational funding for a minimum of 25 percent of the total service budget. This requirement may be waived where the service provider documents a history of securing supportive service funding sufficient for the Department to make a determination that the proposed Project service funding needs will be attainable. (All Sponsors must document commitment of 100 percent of the approved services budget prior to the disbursement of MHP funds.)

(h) An assessment from a public or nonprofit funding or regulatory agency with oversight or monitoring responsibilities for the proposed supportive services for the proposed target population that verifies that:

(1) The proposed services and staffing levels are adequate and appropriate to meet the needs of the target population(s); and

(2) The applicant or proposed service provider is a viable provider of the proposed support services.

(i) If the Sponsor is applying for a competitive advantage in the Leverage scoring category based on collaborative relationships and a focus on measurable outcomes and a plan for evaluation pursuant to Section 7346(c), the following information:

(1) Evidence of its collaboration with an organization other than the Sponsor or affiliates of the Sponsor to provide a portion of the services to Project tenants, or evidence of collaboration among specialized intra-organizational programs, groups, or departments. The evidence of collaboration must: be in writing (e.g., contract, memorandum of understanding, letter of intent, letter of interest, or letter of understanding); clearly identify the entity it is from (e.g., on letter head paper); include the Project address; specify the services to be included in the collaborative effort; specify whether the services will be funded or provided, or both; include the estimated value of funds or in-kind services; include the term of the funding or service; and include a brief description and history of the entity providing the funding or services.

(2) A plan listing the projected outcomes and outcome measures that will be tracked and detailing how data will be collected, analyzed and evaluated.

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50406(n), 50675.1(c), 50675.11, 50675.14(c), and 53533(a)(3), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50675.14(b) and 53533(a)(3), Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

§ 7346. Application Point Scoring.

Pursuant to Section 7317(c), the Department has the discretion to make funds under this Article 6 available on a competitive or over-the-counter basis.

(a) In the event that the Department utilizes an over-the-counter process, the following provisions shall apply, and in order to be considered for funding, an application shall:

(1) Score a minimum of 125 points utilizing the criteria set forth in Section 7320, except that Development and Ownership Experience (Section 7320(b)(3)) shall be scored based on experience acquired in the prior 10 years;

(2) Score a minimum of 4 points in the Development and Ownership Experience criterion (Section 7320(b)(3)) based on the Sponsor's experience acquired in the prior 10 years; and

(3) Score a minimum of 5 points in the Project Readiness criterion (Section 7320(b)(6)).

(b) Projects requesting both MHP Supportive Housing and MHP General funding shall be scored under the requirements specified in Section 7320(b)(7), Adaptive Reuse/Infill/Proximity to Amenities. Projects requesting only Supportive Housing funding, and not MHP General funding, shall receive the full 10 points available under this scoring criterion.

(c) Applications that demonstrate collaboration with programs that meet the needs of disabled tenants at High Risk of Homelessness and include a focus on measurable outcomes and a plan for evaluation will receive a competitive advantage in the Leverage Scoring Category (Section 7320(b)(5)) as follows:

(1) Applications will be deemed to meet the "collaboration" criterion if the application documents a commitment from an organization other than the applicant or affiliates of the applicant to provide a portion of the services to Project tenants. Cooperation among specialized intra-organizational programs, groups, or departments may also qualify as collaboration.

(2) Applications will be deemed to meet the focus on measurable outcomes criterion if the applicant establishes reasonable projected outcomes and outcome measures for residential stability, increased skills or income, and greater self-determination. Applications will be deemed to meet the requirement for a plan for evaluation if the applicant can reasonably describe the proposed system for tracking the data and agrees to collect and evaluate data on outcomes at least annually, with a baseline established at move-in. As specified in Subdivision (c)(3), further competitive advantage will be awarded to applications that track and evaluate pre- and post-occupancy service utilization data for tenants who were, or become during occupancy, incarcerated, hospitalized, housed in a residential treatment facility, or in homeless facilities, and include this in their evaluation.

(3) Applications will be scored based on the amount of non-MHP funds for permanent funding of the development costs attributable to the Restricted Units, as a percentage of the requested amount of MHP funds. The leverage advantage for qualifying Projects will be applied as follows:

(A) Projects containing at least the minimum 35%, but less than 75% of total Units as Supportive Housing Units will receive one half point for every full 5 percentage point increment of other funds as a percentage of MHP funds. These Projects will receive the first half point when the other funds are equal to 55% of MHP funds. The maximum point award (20 points) will be reached when the other funds are equal to 250% of MHP funds.

(B) Projects containing 75% or more of total Units as Supportive Housing Units will receive one full point for every full 5 percentage point increment of other funds as a percentage of MHP funds. These Projects will receive the first point when the other funds are equal to 55% of MHP funds. The maximum point award (20 points) will be reached when other funds are equal to 150% of MHP funds.

(C) An additional 2 points will be awarded to Projects that track and evaluate service utilization data, up to the maximum 20 points available under the leverage scoring criterion.

Applications that do not demonstrate both collaboration and a focus on measurable outcomes with a plan for evaluation shall be awarded leverage points solely pursuant to Section 7320(b)(5).

§ 7347. Reporting Requirements.

At the time the Sponsor submits the annual Project audit required by Section 7325, the Sponsor shall also submit a supplemental report including the following information:

(a) The length of occupancy by each supportive housing tenant.

(b) Changes in each supportive housing tenant's employment status during the previous year.

(c) Changes in each supportive housing tenant's source and amount of income during the previous year.

(d) Data on any measurable outcomes that the Sponsor agreed to collect pursuant to Section 7346(c)(2), along with an evaluation of the Project based on this data.

Subchapter 5. Deferred-Payment Rehabilitation Loans

§ 7400. General.

These regulations set forth the policies and procedures governing the management and use of the Deferred-Payment Rehabilitation Loan Fund established by Sections 50660-50670 of the California Health and Safety Code.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50662, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50660-50668, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. New Subchapter 5 (Sections 7400-7436, not consecutive) filed 2-28-79 as an emergency; effective upon filing. Certificate of Compliance included (Register 79, No. 9).
2. Certificate of Compliance filed 6-12-79; transmitted to OAH 6-8-79 (Register 79, No. 24).
3. Repealer of Subchapter 5 (Sections 7400-7436, not consecutive) and new Subchapter 5 (Sections 7400-7436 not consecutive) filed 5-2-80; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 80, No. 18).

§ 7402. Definitions.

The following terms and definitions shall apply to this subchapter.

"Ability to afford" means that the total shelter expense does not exceed 30 percent of the gross income of the owner-occupant borrower pursuant to the provisions of this section. Components of shelter expenses may include, but are not limited to, rent, property taxes, owner-paid utilities, insurance, existing mortgage costs, existing home improvement loan payments, and any proposed rehabilitation costs.

"Affordable rent" means rents for low and very low income households as defined in Section 6922.

"Assisted units" means those units which directly benefit from funds from the Fund.

"Borrower" means a property owner receiving deferred-payment loans from a local entity pursuant to provisions of this subchapter.

"Commitment" means a specific fund award from the Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund.

"Concentrated rehabilitation area" means an area characterized by substantial deterioration of residential structures which is designated as such by the California Housing Finance Agency pursuant to Section 51302 of the Health and Safety Code.

"Department" means the California Department of Housing and Community Development.

"Deferred payment loans" means loans made by a local entity to borrowers with funds from the Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund.

"Director" means the Director of the California Department of Housing and Community Development.

"Elderly" means a family in which the head of the household is 60 years of age or older or a single person who is 60 years of age or older.

"Enforcement agency" means a local entity eligible pursuant to the provisions of this subchapter that is enforcing applicable codes on residential properties and is eligible for loans from the Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund without interest.

"Fair Market Rent" means rent limits as established by HUD for the Section 8 Existing or Moderate Rehabilitation Housing Assistance Payments Program.

"Fair Rate of Return" means an annual before-tax rate of return not to exceed 8% of cash investment in rental property to for-profit owners.

"Fund" means the Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund.

"Household" means one or more persons who are (1) low or moderate income household owner-occupants or (2) low income renters.

"Housing development" means a rental or cooperatively-owned residential property, including a residential hotel, eligible to receive loan funds pursuant to the provisions of this subchapter for the primary purpose of providing affordable, decent, safe, and sanitary housing. A housing development may include any buildings, land, equipment, facilities or other real or personal property including, but not limited to, streets, sewers, utilities, and other non-housing facilities such as administrative, health, recreational, educational and child-care facilities which are an integral part of a housing development.

"Loan Agreement" is the lender's agreement between the ultimate borrower and the local entity.

"Loan Committee" means the Rehabilitation and Construction Finance Loan and Grant Committee established pursuant to Section 6902(d).

"Local entity" means a local public entity or a non-profit corporation as defined in these regulations.

"Local public entity" includes all entities set forth in Section 50079 of the Health and Safety Code.

"Low-income" means the income limit established by Section 6928.

"Moderate-income" means the income limit established by Section 6930.

"Monthly debt service" means the amount of money a borrower must pay each month on a loan for principal and interest.

"Mortgage assistance area" means that area defined in Section 50085 of the Health and Safety Code.

"Net income" means the income of a person or family as defined in Section 6916.

"Nonprofit corporation" means a corporation incorporated pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110) of Division 2 of Title I of the Corporations Code governing public benefit corporations or a corporation subject to said Part pursuant to the terms of Section 9912 of the Corporations Code.

"Owner" means any individual, joint venture, partnership, limited partnership, trust, corporation, cooperative, local public entity, or other legal entity or any combination thereof, whether for profit, nonprofit, or organized for limited profit, owning residential property in fee simple pursuant to the provisions of this subchapter.

"Owner-occupant" means an owner of one to four unit residential property who use one of the units as a principal residence.

"Program" means the Deferred Payment Rehabilitation Loan Program.

"Rehabilitation" means repairs and improvements to a substandard structure necessary to make it meet rehabilitation standards and may include common non-commercial areas used by residents of the property.

"Rehabilitation program" means an ongoing program involving construction assistance, financial assistance or technical assistance in the rehabilitation of residential property.

"Rehabilitation standards" means applicable state or local building or housing standards adopted by a city or county pursuant to the State Housing Law, Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 17910) of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code and specifically Section 17958.8. Rehabilitation standards include room additions necessary to alleviate overcrowding for eligible households.

"Rental unit" means a dwelling in a single-family or multi-family structure of two or more units, including a guest room in a residential hotel, which is rented or leased to a person or household. For purposes of this subchapter, a unit in a stock cooperative or limited-equity housing cooperative is a rental unit.

"Residential hotel" means any building containing six or more guest rooms intended or designed to be used for, or which are occupied for, sleeping purposes by tenants, which is also the primary residence of these tenants, provided that a majority of these rooms are residential hotel units.

"Residential hotel unit" means a room in a residential hotel used or intended or designed to be used as a primary residence, which is subject to the provisions of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1940) of Title 5 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, but which lacks either or both a self-contained kitchen or bathroom.

"Room addition" means rooms which are added to a structure to alleviate documented overcrowding. "Room addition" shall not include an increase in the number of rooms within the existing living space of an existing structure.

"Rural area" means an area as defined by Section 50101 of the Health and Safety Code.

"Substandard building" means any residential building or any portion of a residential building, including, but not limited to, any dwelling unit, guest room, or suite of rooms, or the premises on which the same is located, in which there exist any of the conditions listed in Section 17920.3 of the Health and Safety Code, to the extent that the conditions endanger the life, limb, health, property, safety, or welfare of the public or occupants thereof; violation of any rehabilitation standards adopted by the local public entity or nonprofit corporation as part of its residential rehabilitation program may contribute to the substandard nature of a structure if they are life- or health-endangering.

"Transfer of property" means to sell, convey, transfer, or alienate title, voluntarily or otherwise, to the property, except in the case of the transfer of the property to an owner occupant's spouse as a consequence of death or dissolution.

§ 7404. Eligibility Criteria.

(a) The local entity shall have available, and commit to the extent feasible, CHFA funds, CDBG grants and BMIR loans, HUD 312 loans, Marks–Foran rehabilitation and refinancing funds, FmHA loans or other funds to be used in combination with commitments from the Fund in designated areas. Local entities that are operating or will operate one or more of the following rehabilitation programs in conjunction with this program are eligible to apply for Fund commitments from the Department pursuant to the provisions of this subchapter.

(1) A rehabilitation loan program conducted in a CHFA Concentrated Rehabilitation Area designated pursuant to Section 51302 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) A residential rehabilitation financing program conducted pursuant to the Marks–Foran Program commencing with Section 37910 of the Health and Safety Code.

(3) A city–wide or county–wide systematic enforcement program pursuant to which the CHFA has allocated sufficient funds for improvement loans for rehabilitation of housing pursuant to Section 51311 of the Health and Safety Code.

(4) A code enforcement agency repairing substandard structures following the owner's failure to commence work following a final notice or order from the enforcement agency.

(5) A program conducted by the CHFA in a mortgage assistance area as defined in Section 50085, Health and Safety Code, provided such area is located in a rural area.

(6) A rehabilitation or code enforcement program being undertaken by a local entity in an area in which federal funds are being used or will be used in conjunction with the Deferred Payment Rehabilitation Loan Program.

(b) Local entities applying for fund commitments to lend to local borrowers must demonstrate upon application:

(1) capacity to undertake or operate a rehabilitation loan program; and

(2) capacity to manage, monitor, and enforce the terms and conditions of this subchapter.

(c) When a local entity proposes, in an application for commitments from the Fund, to make rehabilitation loans within the jurisdiction of a city or county which has made or is considering its own application for funds from the Fund, the local entity must receive prior written authorization for such application from the governing body of the city or county. Such written authorization shall be included with the application made by the local entity.

(d) Applications by nonprofit corporations for new commitments or loans from new commitments from the Fund shall include approval for such applications from the governing body of each city or county having jurisdiction over the area or areas in which loans are to be made. Said approval shall specifically authorize the nonprofit corporation to make rehabilitation loans in the designated area or areas.

(e) The Department may provide deferred payment loans directly to the owner–occupant of a dwelling unit or owner of a rental housing development pursuant to Section 50668(b) of the California Health and Safety Code.

(f) An owner–occupant household of low or moderate income which satisfies the following criteria is eligible for a deferred payment loan pursuant to the provisions of this subchapter:

(1) It is the owner–occupant of the unit to be assisted.

(2) The property is eligible under a rehabilitation program designated under subsection(a) of this section. For projects which directly benefit from funds of programs designated under (a)(1)–(a)(5) borrowers may be low or moderate income households. For projects which directly benefit from funds of programs designated under (a)(6), owner–occupant borrowers shall be low income households only, except that where program areas designated under (a)(6) overlap with other eligible program areas, the least restrictive income limits for borrowers shall apply.

(3) The monthly payments required by any combination of loans available through CHFA, Marks–Foran, CDBG, HUD 312, FmHA and rehabilitation/refinancing by private lending institutions or other sources to cover the cost of meeting rehabilitation standards would result in the total shelter expense exceeding the owner's ability to afford such shelter expenses.

(g) An owner of rental units which satisfies the following criteria is eligible for a deferred payment loan pursuant to the provisions of this subchapter:

(1) It owns a single–family or multi–family rental residential property in which the units are, or will be, occupied by low–income households pursuant to Section 7416(b).

(2) The property is in a rehabilitation program designated under subsection (a).

(3) The owner agrees to rent to low–income households pursuant to Section 7416.

(4) The owner agrees to limit rent increases pursuant to Section 7412(c).

(5) The loan is necessary to avoid increases in monthly debt service, necessitated by any combination of loans available through CHFA, Marks–Foran, CDBG, HUD 312, FmHA, refinancing/rehabilitation by private lending institutions, or local agency lending programs, which are necessary to cover the cost of meeting rehabilitation standards, as determined by increased rents, which either would exceed the affordable rents for low–income households residing in the rental property at the commencement of rehabilitation work funded by the local agency or by others; or which would make it economically infeasible to use available subsidies, such as Section 8, in order to provide affordable rents to low–income households.

(h) The Loan Committee may modify income requirements and definitions to allow a local entity to use standards more compatible with those used in local programs if the purpose of this program is furthered by such modification.

§ 7406. Loan Limits.

The following limitations shall apply to all Fund commitments or deferred payment loans made by local entities:

(a) The Loan Committee shall authorize no more than 10 percent of the appropriation to the Fund for rehabilitation activities of code enforcement agencies pursuant to Section 7404(a)(4). Not less than 20 percent of the appropriations to the Fund on or after January 1, 1980 shall be expended in rural areas.

(b) Loans for direct rehabilitation and repairs by code enforcement agencies.

(1) The maximum amount of funds loaned to a local entity shall be $10,000 per unit.

(2) Funds received pursuant to this subsection shall be applied to the total permitted by subsection (a) of this section.

(3) The maximum loan from the Fund plus other indebtedness against the property shall not exceed 90 percent of the anticipated after–rehabilitation value of the property.

(c) Loans to low and moderate income owner–occupants of a unit to be assisted.

(1) The maximum deferred payment loan per unit shall be $10,000 or $20,000 when there are room additions, subject to the limitation of subdivisions (2) and (3), and may be subordinate to prior loans and liens.

(2) The maximum deferred payment loan plus other indebtedness against the property shall not exceed 90 percent of the anticipated after–rehabilitation value of the property. The existence of senior citizen tax deferral liens shall not be included in the calculation of indebtedness.

(3) Loans shall be limited to the amount necessary to cover the cost of meeting rehabilitation standards which cannot be financed by any combination of funds otherwise available without exceeding the borrower's ability to afford shelter expenses. Such funds may be derived from sources such as Marks–Foran, CHFA, CDBG, HUD 312, FmHA, or funds from private lenders. A loan to an elderly owner–occupant of low income may be permitted without requiring the other financing specified in subsection 7404(f)(3). With Department permission, this requirement may also be waived where its enforcement would require loans from other sources in such small amounts that the local entity determines that the administration and processing of such other loans is impractical or unreasonable.

(4) The borrower shall receive only one deferred payment loan.

(5) Exceptions to subparagraphs (c)(1), (c)(2), and (c)(4) may be recommended by a vote of the Loan Committee if it finds the presence of extraordinary circumstances, such as where the existing loan limit is not sufficient to cover costs attributed to retrofitting a unit for the handicapped, or where there are urgent health and safety needs, such as a polluted water supply or severe foundation problems. In either case, the local entity must document that no other funds are available for this purpose.

(d) Loans to owners of rental units.

(1) The maximum deferred payment loan to an owner of rental units shall be $10,000 per unit, or $20,000 when there are room additions, $5,000 per residential hotel room, and $200,000 per housing development, subject to the limitations of subdivisions (2) and (3). Maximum loan amounts shall be based on the number of units after rehabilitation. The deferred payment loan may be subordinate to prior loans and liens.

(2) The maximum deferred payment loan plus other indebtedness against the property shall not exceed 90 percent of the anticipated after–rehabilitation value of the property.

(3) Loans qualifying under Section 7404(g)(5) shall be limited to the amount of the cost of meeting rehabilitation standards which exceed the amount which can be financed by any combination of funds otherwise available without exceeding monthly debt service, as determined by increased rents, which either would exceed the affordable rents for one or more low–income households residing in the rental property or having been displaced from the rental property at the commencement of rehabilitation work funded by the local entity or by CHFA; or make it economically infeasible to accept subsidies, such as Section 8, available to provide affordable rents to low–income households. With Department permission, this requirement may be waived where its enforcement would require loans from other sources in such small amounts that the local entity determines that the administration and processing of such other loans is impractical or unreasonable.

(4) The borrower shall receive only one deferred payment loan for each housing development assisted.

(5) Exceptions to subparagraphs (d)(1), (d)(2), and (d)(4) may be recommended by a vote of the Loan Committee if it finds the presence of extraordinary circumstances, such as where the existing loan limit is not sufficient to cover costs attributed to retrofitting a unit for the handicapped, or where there are urgent health and safety needs, such as a polluted water supply or severe foundation problems. In either case, the local entity must document that no other funds are available for this purpose.

§ 7408. Rates and Terms.

The following rates and terms apply to all commitments and loans from the Fund.

(a) Commitments of funds to local entities for borrowers.

(1) All funds committed from the Fund to local entities shall be loaned to borrowers within a period to be determined by the Department.

(2) The Loan Committee may provide for a waiver of interest payments when, and to the extent that, a local entity remits to the Department, in advance on behalf of the borrower, a sum equal to not less than 15 percent of the original principal balance of the loan to the borrower. This sum shall be in lieu of interest. Local entities may choose to make such advance payments when they make loans to borrowers at less than 3 percent.

(3) Funds, including loan principal and interest, including any interest attributable to delinquency paid thereon by borrowers, shall be repaid by local entities to the Department promptly as borrowers repay loans to local entities.

(b) Loans to local entities for direct rehabilitation and repair by code enforcement agencies.

(1) Loans made pursuant to this subsection shall not bear interest, except as provided under (b)(2).

(2) Any rehabilitation expenditures pursuant to this subsection shall be made a special assessment or lien against the properties affected and shall require that the full amount collected by the local entities, up to the cost of rehabilitation, and any interest collected on that sum, be promptly repaid to the Fund.

(3) Loan funds shall be expended within a period to be determined by the Department.

(c) Loans to low or moderate–income owner–occupants of units to be assisted.

(1) Loans from local entities to borrowers shall bear simple interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum on the original balance which shall be payable to the local entities when the loan is due.

(2) Payment of interest by the borrower may be waived or adjusted to less than 3 percent only when a local entity complies with the requirements of subsection (a)(3).

(3) Loans to elderly borrowers shall be due and repayable to the local entity upon sale, conveyance or transfer of the property or any interest therein, although the borrower may repay the entire amount of the loan earlier at his or her discretion. Loans shall also be due and repayable if the elderly borrower no longer occupies the unit as his or her principal residence for reasons other than medical treatment or disability, requiring a temporary alternative residence for the elderly borrower.

(4) Loans to non–elderly owner–occupants shall be due and repayable to the local entity if the borrower no longer occupies the unit as his or her principal residence or upon sale, conveyance or transfer of the property or any interest therein to any person other than a person of low or moderate income who is eligible pursuant to Section 7404(f). Loans shall have five–year terms, which may be renewed as long as the property is not transferred, the borrower continues to occupy the property and the borrower's income and assets are such that the deferred payment loan could not be feasibly repaid by refinancing from other sources. A local entity shall only renew loans for one five–year period at a time. A borrower may repay the entire amount of the loan earlier at his or her discretion. If the borrower becomes elderly during the term of the loan, the loan shall be repaid pursuant to subsection (3).

(5) Local entities may not approve or agree to any refinancing, assumption or subordination with respect to a Program loan or real property securing the loan without the prior approval of the Department.

(d) Loans to owners of rental units.

(1) Loans from local entities to borrowers shall bear simple interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum on unpaid principal balance which shall be payable to the local entity when the loan is due.

(2) Loans shall have five–year terms unless the local entity and the Department determine that a longer term is required to ensure the economic feasibility of obtaining other rehabilitation financing or accepting subsidies. The initial five–year term may be renewed up to five additional five–year periods for a total term of up to thirty years, as long as the local entity determines that low income households residing in the rental units will benefit, pursuant to the loan agreement. Local entities shall renew loans only for one five–year period at a time unless multiple five–year periods are essential to the feasibility of continuing to benefit low–income households.

(3) Local entities may not approve, or agree to any refinancing, assumption or subordination with respect to a Program loan or real property securing the loan without the prior approval of the Department.

(e) Incremental repayments to either the Department or local entities shall not be permitted.

§ 7410. Conditions of Fund Commitments to Local Entities.

The following special conditions shall apply to all fund commitments made to local entities.

(a) Before the Department disburses funds, the local entity will be required to submit to the Department the following documents which will have been prepared by the Department or at its direction:

(1) A resolution authorizing the acceptance of funds pursuant to the terms of these regulations;

(2) An executed Standard Agreement between the local entity and the Department;

(3) Borrower documents and completed application forms to be used between the local entity and borrowers, including copies of the loan agreement, promissory note, and security instrument(s); and

(4) Any other documents deemed necessary by the Department.

(b) Local entities shall agree not to discriminate or permit discrimination on account of race, color, religion, ancestry, sex, age, national origin, marital status, and mental or physical handicap, in accordance with all local, state, and federal laws governing and restricting such discrimination or requiring affirmative action. In addition, local entities shall agree not to discriminate, due in whole or in part to the consideration of conditions, characteristics or trends in the neighborhood or geographic area surrounding the housing development, unless it can demonstrate that such consideration in the particular case is required to avoid an unsafe and unsound business practice.

(c) Local entities shall agree not to substitute commitments from the Fund for similar local funds. This requirement applies to the local entities overall rehabilitation activities in the jurisdiction, rather than on a loan–by–loan basis.

(d) The Standard Agreement with local entities shall specify, in addition to the other items in this section, conditions including, but not limited to:

(1) Terms and conditions of borrower loans, including rate of interest, term, amount and purpose of such loans;

(2) Terms and conditions related to extensions and assumptions of borrower loans;

(3) Terms and conditions related to the making and monitoring of loans to borrowers or transactions with owners of buildings subject to code enforcement repairs and rehabilitation;

(4) Terms and conditions related to administration of the local program, including coordination and use of other sources of rehabilitation and refinancing funds in combination with deferred payment loans;

(5) Terms and conditions related to the ability of the Department or its agents to enter and inspect properties affected or to be affected by funds from the Fund, and records of the local entity and/or borrower related to funds from the Fund;

(6) Terms and conditions related to borrower default, late repayment and collection of the loans by the local entity;

(7) Terms and conditions related to remedies for breach of the Standard Agreement and extension of the period for fund commitments;

(8) Terms and conditions related to truth–in–lending disclosure;

(9) Terms and conditions related to requiring evidence of adequate casualty loss insurance; and

(10) Terms and conditions related to the assignment to the Department of all rights of the local entities arising from loans to borrowers.

(e) Local entities shall provide the Department with reports on the progress of rehabilitation and related purposes for which the funds have been used. Reports shall be submitted on a semi–annual basis or at other intervals required by the Department. The Department shall determine the required contents of the reports.

(f) Pertinent information on each loan to borrowers shall be provided promptly to the Department in the form required by the Department. All loan documents and agreements related to loans to borrowers shall be kept on file by the local entity as directed by the Department.

(g) Primary responsibility for monitoring and enforcing conditions of the loans shall be taken by local entities, and such enforcement shall be taken promptly by the local entity to protect the security of the loan or the benefits to low–income tenants. Local entities shall provide that inspections of the premises to be rehabilitated by loan proceeds are performed and that such work meets applicable code standards.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provisions of these regulations, and any amendments thereto, or any terms of any documents, agreements or notes executed by and between the Department and the local public entity, the obligation of the local public entity to repay principal and interest on a commitment made under these regulations shall be limited to that amount actually recovered from each loan made by the local public entity.

(i) Nonprofit corporations obtaining commitments from the Fund shall present evidence of adequate fidelity bonds.

3. Amendment filed 6–3–85; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 85, No. 23).

§ 7412. Conditions of Loans to Borrowers.

The following general conditions shall apply to all loans made by local entities to borrowers.

(a) The following documents shall be executed by all borrowers and local entities as applicable:

(1) A loan agreement, which, in the case of loans to rehabilitate rental units, shall be recorded or referenced in a recorded document;

(2) A promissory note;

(3) A security instrument to be recorded;

(4) Truth–in–lending disclosure; and

(5) Other documents required by the Department or required by the local entity and approved by the Department.

(b) The loan agreement shall be in a form determined by the Department and contain, but not be limited to, the following provisions:

(1) Amount, term, and interest on the loan, including specific terms of payment and repayment of principal and interest;

(2) Terms and conditions regarding non–discrimination and affirmative action in hiring, as required by law;

(3) Terms and conditions regarding contractor selection, self–help, rehabilitation work to be done, bonding, and payments to contractors;

(4) Compliance with local, state or federal laws, ordinances and regulations applicable to proposed loans, rehabilitation, and use of the premises, including zoning ordinances, building codes, planning, historic preservation, environmental, and relocation regulations;

(5) Terms and conditions relating to defaults in repayment or compliance with the loan agreement;

(6) Provisions allowing the local entity or Department, their agents or employees, with the prior consent of the borrower and the occupant in each instance, to enter upon and inspect the lands, buildings, and equipment of the borrower at any time during or after rehabilitation of the subject property; or to inspect the books and records of the owner related to the subject loan funds, at any time during or after rehabilitation of the property assisted by the loan;

(7) Terms and conditions related to program reporting requirements;

(8) Terms and conditions related to extensions, refinancing, assumptions, or subordination of the loan; and

(9) Provisions that enforcement shall be by proceeding at law or in equity, at the option of the local entity or department, against any person or persons violating or attempting to violate any covenant, either to restrain violation or to recover damages.

(c) The loan agreement with borrowers to rehabilitate rental units shall include, in addition to the provisions contained in subdivision (b), provisions covering the following special conditions:

(1) Pursuant to Section 7416(a)–(d), rental units in the residential property shall be rented to low income households;

(2) Loans pursuant to Section 7404(a)(1) shall be made only if the borrower agrees to restrict rents as required by regulation of the California Housing Finance Agency pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 51307;

(3) Loans pursuant to Section 7404(a)(2) shall be made if the borrower contracts during the term of the loan to limit rent increases as provided in Section 37922.5 of the Health and Safety Code;

(4) Loans pursuant to Section 7404(a)(3) shall be made if the borrower accepts a loan for rehabilitation from the California Housing Finance Agency and agrees to limit rents and profits as required by such a loan;

(5) Loans pursuant to Section 7404(a)(5) and (6) shall be made if the borrower agrees to execute an agreement, to be provided by the Department, whereby the borrower agrees during the term of the loan not to raise residential rents for all assisted units in a rental housing development by an annual amount greater than 50% of the annual average percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers, Western Region, All Items ("CPI") as published by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. In the event such index is no longer published or available, an alternative index shall be selected by the Department. The alternative shall be based on the same factors which determine the CPI to the extent possible. However, if the units are located in a community which has adopted rent stabilization ordinances which would require a lower increase in rents, the local provisions shall apply.

(6) Where program areas under Section 7404(a)(5) and (6) overlap with other eligible program areas, the provisions which require the lowest increase in rents shall apply.

(7) Loans to rehabilitate one or more units for which Section 8 Housing Assistance Payments will be used, shall be made only if the borrower agrees during the term of the loan not to raise rents by an amount greater than the annual rent adjustments for Section 8 units as determined and published by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development;

(8) Terms and conditions related to tenancy standards and procedures pursuant to Section 7416.

(9) The loan agreement shall be binding on the borrower and successors in interest for the full term of the loan, regardless of sale, transfer or prepayment.

(d) Loans by local entities shall be secured in a manner that adequately protects the interests of the Department. Security may include, but is not limited to, deeds of trust or mortgages.

§ 7414. Authorized Expenses.

Funds from the Fund may be used only with respect to the following authorized expenses.

(a) Loans to local entities for direct code enforcement repair or rehabilitation pursuant to Section 7404(a)(4) may be used only for actual rehabilitation and repair costs. They may not be used for governmental administrative costs, overhead costs, costs of collection or foreclosures, or other items.

(b) Loans from the Fund made by local entities to borrowers may include the following costs:

(1) Costs of rehabilitating, or the reconstruction of, eligible properties in conformance with rehabilitation standards, except as excluded under subsection (c);

(2) Room additions or enlargements pursuant to Section 7402;

(3) Costs for improvements related to making the housing development accessible to and usable by the handicapped;

(4) In unusual cases, and if approved by the Department after consideration of need and cost by the local entity, the cost of design services for the preparation of plans, drawings, and specifications for the rehabilitation of the property;

(5) The cost of building permits and related fees required for the rehabilitation, if not included in the construction contract;

(6) Costs of title reports, credit reports, appraisal reports and fees for recording documents related to the loan; and

(7) The cost of repair and installation of alternative energy conservation systems and weatherization when done in conjunction with other rehabilitation work.

(c) Loans made by local entities pursuant to this subchapter may not include the following unauthorized expenses:

(1) Real property acquisition;

(2) New construction, except for room additions as authorized by this subchapter;

(3) Refinancing;

(4) General property improvements unless such improvements are necessary to correct unsafe, unhealthy or insanitary conditions, including renovations and remodeling, such as remodeling of kitchens and bathrooms, installation of new appliances; landscaping; or the purchase and/or installation of central air conditioning;

(5) Materials, fixtures or equipment of a type of quality which exceeds that customarily used in the locality for properties of the same general type as the property to be rehabilitated;

(6) Appliances not required by rehabilitation standards;

(7) The purchase, installation, or repair of furnishings or trade fixtures;

(8) Local entity administration, consulting, loan packaging, and overhead costs; and

(9) Expenses related to displacement and relocation of tenants in rental units rehabilitated under the program.

(d) Expenses related to rehabilitation activities which result in a decrease in the number of rooms or units in a residence or housing development may be authorized where the following criteria are met:

(1) no permanent displacement will result; and

(2) it is necessary to meet applicable building or housing codes; or

(3) the new unit composition meets a greater housing need than does the existing unit composition; or

(4) the new unit composition is necessary to ensure the economic feasibility of the project.

(e) Expenses related to rehabilitation activities which result in an increase in the number of residential units or conversion of non-residential structures to residential use may be authorized where the following criteria are met:

(1) the additional units will be made available to low income households pursuant to Section 7416 for the purpose of alleviating a shortage of standard rental housing affordable to such households in the community; and

(2) the additional units or conversions are necessary to make rehabilitation and continued maintenance economically feasible.

In cases where nonresidential structures are converted to residential use, the borrower must agree to execute documents to ensure that units created will be reserved for occupancy by low-income households pursuant to Section 7416 for a period of at least fifteen years by agreeing to extend the loan after each five-year term as provided for in Section 7408(d).

(f) In buildings where there are mixed residential and commercial uses, authorized expenses shall include only those expenses attributable to portions of the structure which directly benefit residential uses. Where common elements, such as roofs, are to be rehabilitated, program funds may be used for the residential portion of the total costs, based on the percentage of residential floor area in the structure.

(g) Administrative costs of the Department shall be derived from the Fund.

(h) Related administrative costs of local entities may be derived from the Fund if it is determined by the Department that such payments are necessary for local entities to implement and assure compliance with this program.

§ 7415. Grants for Administrative Costs.

The following conditions shall apply to awards for related administrative costs.

(a) Local entities that are eligible to receive funds for administrative costs of operating the program are limited to:

(1) Local public entities that are not jurisdictions designated as entitlement grantees under HUD's Community Development Block Grant program, and that will operate the program and make loans in rural areas.

(2) Nonprofit corporations that will operate the program and make loans in rural areas.

(b) The Department may provide grant funds to eligible local entities for costs of administering the program in an amount up to 15 percent of the total loan commitment from the Fund.

(c) Eligible costs may include, but are not limited to, personal services, operating expenses, and rental of equipment. Proposed items of administration and other costs shall be set forth in the application. Only those costs specifically approved by the Department may be reimbursed from the Fund. Administrative costs will be accounted for on a direct cost basis unless an indirect cost rate has been approved by the Department.

(1) Personal services include:

(A) Staff salaries, wages and benefits; and

(B) Contract services in administration of the program.

(2) Operating expenses and equipment include:

(A) Office supplies, printing and copying and telephone charges;

(B) Travel;

(C) Office rent and utilities related to the program operation;

(D) Rented office equipment; and

(E) Insurance and fidelity bonds.

(d) Ineligible costs include costs to be included in loans to borrowers as set forth in Section 7414(b).

§ 7416. Tenancy Standards and Procedures.

The following terms and conditions govern tenant selection, relations, and evictions for low-income tenants of rental units rehabilitated with loans from the Fund.

(a) Initial priority for rental units shall be given to those households which resided on the premises prior to rehabilitation and were displaced due to, or during the process of, rehabilitation.

(b) Borrowers shall agree to rent 100 percent of the residential units in a housing development rehabilitated with loans from the Fund, other than owner-occupied residences or units, to low income households during the term of the loan, except where it is necessary to preserve the economic feasibility of the development or avoid displacement. In such cases, the Department may approve a lower percentage, however, in no case shall less than 50 percent of the units be designated for low income households. If the designated number of low income units are initially occupied by non-low income households but subsequently become vacant, the borrower shall agree to rent such units to low income households. The borrower shall affirmatively seek such households by contacting the local housing authority. Where the borrower cannot obtain such low income tenants by contacting the local housing authority, the borrower shall contact the local entity for guidance. The local entity shall contact the Department if its efforts do not result in low income tenants for the vacant units.

(c) If rental subsidies are available, borrowers may accept rent subsidies for assisted units.

(d) Rents shall remain at pre-loan application levels until rehabilitation is completed. After rehabilitation, increases in rents shall be limited to avoid displacement of low and moderate income households pursuant to Government Code Section 7265.3(b). Proposed after-rehabilitation rents shall be established by the local entity and borrower prior to approval of the loan agreement by the Department. Rents shall be set at levels in accordance with the provisions set forth in Section 7412(c) and consistent with the economic feasibility of the housing development and a fair rate of return to the owner of the housing development as determined by the Department.

(e) The borrower shall agree to use a lease prepared by the Department which conforms to California law and the requirements of Sections 11402 and 11405–11406 or other lease subject to the approval of the Department.

(f) The borrower and tenants shall comply promptly and fairly with their responsibilities under law and as set forth in the lease. In addition, the borrower shall make every effort feasible to ensure the stability and security of tenants.

(g) If a tenant's income exceeds the standard pursuant to which he or she was accepted for tenancy, that fact alone shall neither cause the tenant's eviction nor be a violation of the borrower's loan agreement or these regulations.

§ 7420. Review of Applications for Fund Commitments.

The following criteria shall be used to review applications in determining Fund commitments to local entities.

(a) Compliance with State Housing Element requirements contained in Section 65302(c) of the Government Code;

(b) The local entity's ability to lend the funds upon receipt of a commitment;

(c) Evidence of need in terms of substandard housing; and

(d) Other considerations as deemed appropriately by the Department.

§ 7422. Application Process.

The Department shall prepare and provide application forms and program documents upon request. The process shall include, but not be limited to the following activities.

(a) Applications for fund commitments to local entities will be reviewed by Department staff.

(b) Information and staff recommendations regarding completed applications from eligible local entities will be submitted for consideration by the Loan Committee.

(c) The Loan Committee shall make recommendations to the Director regarding the applications pursuant to Section 6904.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50662, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50660–50668, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 10–2–81; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 81, No. 40).

§ 7424. Department Review of Local Activities.

(a) The Department shall review and approve or disapprove all loan applications for funds from the Fund involving assistance to rental units, as well as all assumptions and extensions of such loans.

(b) At the discretion of the Department, loan applications from owner-occupants or extensions of such loans may be reviewed in their entirety and are subject to approval by the Department.

(c) Any time during the operation of the program, the Department may request or perform a review or financial audit of any and all phases of the local entity's program operation. The local entity shall provide any requested documentation related to monitoring and enforcing the Standard Agreement.

(d) Any person or owner affected by this program may petition the Department to review any phase of implementation of the local entity's program. Grievances may relate to, but not be limited to, eligibility, terms of tenancy, or authorized expenditures. Review undertaken by the Department under this section may be informal or may follow the procedures outlined in Government Code Section 1180 et seq. at the option of the Department. Failure to petition the Department shall not limit a complainant's right to seek judicial review; nor shall the Department's review pursuant to a petition preclude de novo judicial review.

(e) Reports describing the progress and problems of the local entity's program, including loan disbursals and grant expenditures, if any, shall be submitted to the Department until such time as the local entity has loaned all of its commitment from the Fund. Reports shall be submitted at intervals determined by the Department. The Department may provide local entities with the format for such reports.

(f) As a result of any Department findings of noncompliance resulting from reviews pursuant to subsections (a)–(e), the Department may require that the local entity remedy the situation in order to remain in the program.

§ 7426. Appeals Procedure.

The following appeals procedures shall apply to operation of the program.

(a) Local entities whose applications for fund commitments are not recommended for approval by the Loan Committee may appeal the Committee's decision in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6906.

(b) Borrowers whose loan applications have not been approved by the local entity may appeal to the local entity.

(c) A local entity may appeal any action by Department staff on applications for loans to borrowers to the Loan Committee. The Loan Committee shall make a recommendation on the appeal to the Director, whose decision shall be final.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 10–2–81; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 81, No. 40).

§ 7428. Disbursement of Funds.

The following procedure shall govern disbursement of funds to local entities.

(a) Funds for loans will be disbursed to, or on behalf of, the local entity as the need for funds arises in a manner determined by the Department. Such disbursements may include advance payments on the total approved loan fund commitment and payments thereafter as needed to facilitate effective administration of the program by local entities.

(b) The Department shall disburse administrative grant funds to local entities on a quarterly basis or on a loan–by–loan basis, at the discretion of the Department.

(c) The local entity must request disbursements of funds in writing at least twenty days before receipt is required.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 10–2–81; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 81, No. 40).

§ 7430. Cancellation of Commitments.

Commitments to local entities may be cancelled by the Department after they have been approved but before any disbursements have been made, or further disbursements may be cancelled after initial disbursements have been made if a local entity is not operating the program in accordance with the schedule or other provisions in the application or Standard Agreement or if the objectives of the commitment cannot be met. Upon notice of cancellation, the local entity shall have a right to a hearing before the Loan Committee. The Loan Committee shall consider the appeal at its next regularly scheduled meeting and make a recommendation to the Director, whose decision shall be final.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 10–2–81; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 81, No. 40).
2. Amendment filed 6–3–85; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 85, No. 23).

§ 7432. Defaults, Transfers and Assumptions.

(a) In the event a borrower should default on any of its debts to a lender or creditor whose loan is secured in any manner by the subject property and the lender or secured creditor should proceed to force a sale of the subject property after a foreclosure procedure, or in the event a judgment has been taken against the property owner and the judgment creditor should proceed to force a sale of the subject property in satisfaction of its claim, the Department by this fact approves the sale. In the case of an assisted owner–occupied unit, the deferred payment loan shall be repaid according to law or the loan may be assumed for the remaining term of the loan by an eligible purchaser, with the approval of the Department; at the end of the loan term, such loan shall be repaid in full including all accrued interest. In the case of elderly owner–occupants, deferred payment loans shall be repaid in full, including all accrued interest, upon sale or transfer of the property. If the property includes assisted rental units, the purchaser may take it subject to the restrictions of the loan agreement between the local entity and borrower, subject to the approval of the Department.

(b) If an assisted owner–occupied unit is transferred, the deferred payment loan shall either be repaid or may be assumed for the remaining term of the loan by a person who meets eligibility requirements of the program, with the approval of the Department; at the end of the loan term, such loan shall be repaid in full, including all accrued interest. In the case of elderly owner–occupants, deferred payment loans shall be repaid in full including all accrued interest, upon sale or transfer of the property. If a property with assisted rental units is transferred, the transferee may assume the loan. In all cases, the transferee of a property with assisted rental units shall take the property subject to the restrictions of the loan agreement between the local entity and the original borrower, subject to the approval of the Department.

(c) Local entities shall process requests or applications for loan assumptions in accordance with these regulations, using documents provided by the Department, during the term of the Standard Agreement between the local entity and the Department. This obligation shall continue until all loans under this program have been paid in full.

(d) When a loan is repaid by an owner–occupant borrower, the loan agreement with the borrower shall be terminated and the Deed of Trust shall be reconveyed.

(e) A reserve fund in the amount of 3 percent of the maximum amount of total program assets, including the total outstanding loan balance plus the balance of the Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund, shall be maintained by the Department. The reserve fund balance shall be calculated annually. The purpose of this fund is to permit the Department to utilize such funds, when required in the case of a defaulted loan to protect the security interests of the Department. In addition, such funds may be applied to the State's administrative and legal expenses incurred in connection with such defaults. The Loan Committee may change the size of and establish the terms or use of the reserve fund by a majority vote.

(f) In the event a borrower or successor–in–interest defaults on any material provision of the loan agreement or these regulations, the local entity shall promptly demand rectification of the default. If substantial progress is not made in rectification within 30 days from such notice, at the discretion of the Department the local entity shall declare the note evidencing the loan to be due and payable.

(g) In the event a local entity defaults on any material provision of the Standard Agreement with the Department or these regulations, the Department may demand rectification of the default. If substantial progress is not made in rectification within 60 days from such notice, the Department may seek such remedies as are available to it under the terms of the Standard Agreement.

History

1. Amendment filed 4-5-84; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 84, No. 14).
2. Amendment filed 6-9-87; operative 7-9-87 (Register 87, No. 25).

§ 7454. Eligible Use of Funds.

The Department shall provide direct deferred payment loans from the Fund to eligible sponsors to be used for the following purposes:

(a) to rehabilitate a substandard rental housing development for occupancy by eligible households without the use of rental assistance subsidies; or

(b) to purchase and rehabilitate a substandard rental housing development for occupancy by eligible households without the use of rental assistance subsidies.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50662, Health and Safety Code; Reference cited: Sections 50669-50670, Health and Safety Code.

§ 7456. Authorized Expenses.

(a) Loans from the Fund may be used for costs including, but not limited to, the following authorized expenses:

(1) All or a portion of the costs of purchasing rental housing developments;

(2) All or a portion of the costs of rehabilitating and otherwise upgrading the rental housing development to conform with applicable building or housing codes and to improve habitability and maintenance of the property, except:

(A) Purchase, installation, or repair of furnishings other than essential appliances;

(B) Materials, fixtures, or equipment of a type or quality which exceeds that customarily used for properties of the same general type to be rehabilitated.

(C) Administrative and overhead costs, except as provided in subparagraph (a)(13).

(3) The cost of room additions or enlargements, if the sponsor can document the need to eliminate overcrowding or unhealthy conditions.

(4) Costs of improvements related to making a unit accessible to and useable by the elderly or handicapped.

(5) The cost of architectural, engineering, and other professional services for the development of the project, including but not limited to the preparation of plans, drawings, and specifications for the rehabilitation of the property.

(6) The cost of building permits and related fees required for the rehabilitation.

(7) The cost of title reports, title insurance, appraisals and fees for recording documents related to the loan.

(8) The cost of repair and installation of energy conservation systems and weatherization when done in conjunction with other rehabilitation work.

(9) The cost of security and fire protection devices.

(10) Costs relating to displacement and temporary or permanent relocation of existing tenants of the rental housing development.

(11) Costs required by the Department related to review and approval of the loan.

(12) The cost of legal fees.

(13) The cost of a non-profit sponsor's overhead and administration directly related to program implementation may be included in a loan, provided the sponsor can demonstrate that such costs are necessary for the non-profit corporation to implement the project. Such costs shall not exceed 5 percent of the total loan amount, or $20,000, whichever is less.

(b) In buildings with mixed residential and commercial uses, loans from the Fund may be used for the cost of all items specified in subdivision (a) associated exclusively with the residential use. They may also be used for a share of the cost of such items that cannot specifically be allocated to either the residential or commercial uses; this share shall not exceed an amount in direct proportion to the ratio between the gross floor area of the residential use and the total gross floor area of the buildings. No loans from the Fund may be used for costs associated exclusively with commercial uses or with common elements, such as exterior facades, that are improved primarily for the benefit of the commercial use.

(c) No loans from the Fund may be used to refinance existing permanent financing.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 4–5–84; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 84, No. 14).
2. Amendment of subsection (a)(13) filed 6–9–87; operative 7–9–87 (Register 87, No. 25).

§ 7458. Eligibility of Sponsors.

(a) At the time of application for assistance, the sponsor shall provide evidence to the Department that it has or will have the capability to rehabilitate, own and/or manage the rental housing development. In determining the capability of a sponsor, the Department shall consider the extent to which the sponsor is or will be:

(1) administratively and financially capable, as evidenced by a current financial statement and previous experience of the sponsor or persons affiliated with the sponsor in developing, owning, managing or rehabilitating private or publicly-assisted housing developments; and

(2) capable of proceeding promptly to implement a program to acquire and rehabilitate, or rehabilitate and manage a rental housing development for eligible households in accordance with this subchapter.

(b) If the sponsor is a local public entity (including a city; county and county; housing authority; redevelopment agency; community development commission; or any other local agency established by, or whose members are the same as, or appointed by, the legislative body of a city, county, or city and county), as a condition of eligibility to apply for funds pursuant to this subchapter, the city, county, or city and county with jurisdiction over the proposed project shall have submitted a housing element which is in accordance with the requirements of Article 10.6 (commencing with Section 65580) of Chapter 3 of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code to the Department. However, no application for funds shall be denied because of the content of the housing element or because of the findings made by the Department pursuant to Section 65585 of the Government code.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50662, Health and Safety Code; Reference cited: Sections 50669–50670, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 4–5–84; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 84, No. 14).

§ 7460. Loan Limits, Rates and Terms.

The following loan limits, rates and terms shall apply to all loans made pursuant to this subchapter.

(a) Loan Limits:

(1)

	Residential Hotel Unit	Small Unit (less than 3 bedrooms)	Large Unit (3 bedrooms or more)
Rehabilitation	$15,000	$25,000	$35,000
Acquisition/Rehabilitation	$25,000	$35,000	$45,000

For rehabilitation of a single-family dwelling the loan limit is $45,000 for a project of up to three bedrooms, plus $10,000 for each additional bedroom beyond three bedrooms. For acquisition/rehabilitation of a single-family dwelling, the loan limit is $160,000 for a project of up to three bedrooms, plus $40,000 for each additional bedroom beyond three bedrooms.

(2) Exceptions to these limits may be approved by the Director if warranted by the presence of extraordinary conditions, such as high prevailing costs of acquiring rental housing developments in certain localities or the need for extensive structural rehabilitation work required by the state or local building and safety codes.

(3) The maximum deferred payment loan plus other indebtedness against the property shall not exceed 90 percent of the sum of the fair market value of the rental housing development prior to rehabilitation or acquisition and rehabilitation plus the anticipated cost of the rehabilitation work to be undertaken. A nonprofit or local public entity sponsor may receive a 100 percent loan if it demonstrates the need for full financing.

(b) Loan Rates:

(1) Loans shall bear simple interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum on the original principal balance disbursed, to be paid annually. However, the Department may reduce or eliminate interest payments on a loan for any year, or alternatively defer interest payments until the deferred payment loan is due, if the Department determines that payment of interest will threaten the provision of affordable rents or the fiscal integrity of the rental housing development.

(2) Principal and any approved deferred interest payments shall be deferred and paid in a single payment at the expiration of the term of the loan or pursuant to section 7472.

(c) Term: Loans shall have a term of the lesser of 30 years or the useful life of the housing development, as determined by an appraisal of the property accepted by the Department.

will be repealed by operation of law on 2–7–90. For prior history, see Register 89, No. 24.

2. Amendment refiled 2–5–90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 2–7–90 (Register 90, No. 6). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed by operation of law on 6–7–90.

3. Amendment of subsection (a)(1) filed 3–5–90 as an emergency; operative 3–5–90 (Register 90, No. 12). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 7–3–90.

4. Certificate of Compliance as to 2–5–90 and 3–5–90 orders including amendment transmitted to OAL 3–16–90 and filed 4–16–90; operative 5–16–90 (Register 90, No. 20).

§ 7462. Regulatory Agreement.

Before any funds may be disbarred from the Fund, the Department shall enter into a Regulatory Agreement with sponsors, which shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) standards for tenant selection to ensure occupancy by eligible households;

(b) a rent schedule established by the Department at levels affordable to low income households to the extent consistent with the financial integrity of the rental housing development;

(c) conditions and procedures for permitting rent increases;

(d) limitations on profits allowed for–profit and limited–profit sponsors to a fair rate of return. No return shall be allowed non–profit and public entity sponsors;

(e) assurances that the sponsor will maintain the rental housing development in a safe and sanitary condition in compliance with state and local housing codes;

(f) conditions and a schedule for reporting to the Department by the sponsor;

(g) conditions relating to Departmental review and inspections;

(h) a schedule for project implementation, including a timetable for ownership of the rental housing development, commencement of rehabilitation work, and occupancy of the project by eligible households;

(i) conditions relating to completion of rehabilitation work, fund disbursements, and reporting of progress;

(j) provisions relating to the term and amount of the loan, repayment to the Fund, payment of interest, assumptions of the loan, refinancing and sale of the rental housing development;

(k) terms and conditions with respect to default, late repayment and collection of loans;

(l) terms and conditions relating to breach of the regulatory agreement and remedies therefore;

(m) provisions regulating the terms of the occupancy agreement between the sponsor and tenants of the rental housing development, including terms requiring good cause for any eviction, the establishment of a grievance procedure for hearing complaints of tenants and providing for notice to tenants of proposed rent increases;

(n) provisions ensuring that the relocation requirements of Section 50670(g) of the Health and Safety Code will be adhered to;

(o) provisions requiring the approval of the Department for all general contracts for approved rehabilitation work; such contracts shall include provisions which require, pursuant to state or federal law, the use of affirmative action in hiring by contractors and subcontractors;

(p) provisions limiting encumbrances against the rental housing development without prior Department approval;

(q) provisions relating to a replacement reserve;

(r) provisions relating to requirements for proper management of the rental housing development, including approval by the Department for any management contract or master lease; and

(s) other provisions necessary to assure compliance with the intent of the program.

2. Amendment of subsection (n) filed 6–9–87; operative 7–9–87 (Register 87, No. 25).

§ 7464. Loan Closing, Security, and Disbursements.

(a) Before the Department may disburse funds to any sponsor, the approved loan shall be closed by execution of the following agreements and documents, which will have been prepared by the Department or at its direction:

(1) a regulatory agreement;

(2) a promissory note;

(3) security instrument(s); and

(4) other agreements and documents required by the Department.

(b) The sponsor must demonstrate that sufficient security may be given to secure both the amount of the loan and the obligations and restrictions of the regulatory agreement. A deed of trust in a form approved by the Department shall be executed in favor of the Department. Upon execution by the sponsor and Department, the deed of trust and regulatory agreement, which shall constitute an enforceable lien on the rental housing development, shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the rental housing development to which they relate is located.

(c) Loan Disbursements. Program loan funds will be disbursed to, or on the behalf of, the sponsor as the need for funds arises. Sponsors must request disbursements of loan funds on forms approved by the Department at least 20 days before receipt is required. Disbursement requests must be supported with evidence of an obligation. The Department may contract for services related to the disbursement of loan funds to sponsors.

(d) The sponsor shall obtain ownership of the rental housing development within six months of loan approval. No funds shall be disbursed for rehabilitation work until the sponsor owns the rental housing development.

1. Amendment of subsection (c) filed 4–5–84; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 84, No. 14).

§ 7466. Tenancy Standards and Procedures.

Procedures for tenant selection, rents, and eviction for tenants of residential housing developments shall be governed by the regulatory agreement which shall include, but not be limited to, the following terms:

(a) Sponsors shall select only eligible households as tenants.

(b) Sponsors shall give first priority subsequent to rehabilitation to eligible households displaced as a result of rehabilitation assisted by the Program.

(c) Sponsors shall not unlawfully discriminate or permit unlawful discrimination in the selection or treatment of tenants, and shall abide by all local, State, and Federal laws and regulations prohibiting such discrimination.

(d) The Department shall establish a schedule of affordable rents to low and very low income tenants of the rental housing development, to the extent consistent with the financial integrity of such development. Rents may be periodically increased after sponsors submit a written request to the Department which demonstrates that such increases are necessary to defray operating costs and to avoid jeopardizing the financial integrity of the housing development. Rents may be increased only upon Department approval of the request. In the event that the Department does not act on a request for a rent increase within 60 days from documented receipt of the request, such increase shall be deemed approved.

(e) The sponsor shall use a lease for occupancy on a form approved by the Department. Included in the lease shall be a requirement that tenants shall promptly report to sponsors any increase in income. Sponsors shall annually redetermine tenants' income eligibility on a form approved by the Department. If a tenant's net income exceeds the upper limit for low income households, the tenant shall be required to vacate the assisted unit within six months from the date of income redetermination or notice to the sponsor of an increase in income over the permissible income level.

(f) The sponsor and tenants shall comply promptly and fairly with the responsibilities under law and as set forth in the lease.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (d) filed 4–5–84; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 84, No. 14).

§ 7470. Departmental Review of Rehabilitation and Operations.

(a) The Department shall issue administrative standards governing inspection, preparation of rehabilitation specifications, bidding, awards to contractors, disbursement of funds to contractors or others, and monitoring procedures during the process of rehabilitation.

(b) At any time during the acquisition, rehabilitation, and the term of the loan, the Department may initiate a review or a financial or physical audit of any and all phases of the sponsor's activities under the Program. The sponsor shall promptly provide any requested documentation related to such activities.

(c) The sponsor shall submit a certified report annually to the Department in a form approved by the Department. The report shall contain such information as the Department may require, including but not limited to:

(1) Certification by the sponsor as to the financial condition of the rental housing development, as evidenced by a financial statement including a balance sheet and profit and loss statement indicating surplus or deficits in operating accounts and the amounts of any fiscal reserves;

(2) Certification of any substantial physical defects in the rental housing development, including a description of any notice or citation for violations of local housing codes or any major repair or maintenance work undertaken or needed in the reporting year;

(3) the occupancy of the rental housing development indicating:

(A) for rental housing developments other than residential hotels, the number of elderly, handicapped or elderly and handicapped households currently residing in the rental housing development;

(B) the incomes of current residents;

(C) current rents charged residents and what utilities, if any, are included in the rents.

(4) general management performance, including occupancy rates, management problems, tenant relations, and other relevant information;

(5) other information deemed necessary by the Department to monitor compliance with the regulatory agreement.

(d) At the Department's request, the sponsor shall provide, at its own expense, an audit of the financial condition of the rental housing development certified by a Certified Public Accountant or other person designated by the Department.

(e) Any person may request the Department to review any phase of implementation or operation of the sponsor's program. Grievances may relate to, but not be limited to, eligibility, terms of tenancy, or authorized expenditures. Review undertaken by the Department under this section may be informal or, at the Department's discretion, may follow the procedures outlined in Government Code, Sections 1180 et seq. Failure to petition the Department shall not limit a complainant's right to seek judicial review, nor shall such review replace a complainant's right to seek de novo judicial review.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsections (b) and (c)(2)–(c)(5) filed 4–5–84; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 84, No. 14).

§ 7472. Defaults, Transfers and Loan Cancellation.

(a) In the event a sponsor should default on any of its debts to a lender or creditor whose loan is secured in any manner by the subject property, and the lender or secured creditor should proceed to force a sale of the subject property after a foreclosure procedure, or in the event a judgment has been taken against the property owner and the judgment creditor should proceed to force a sale of the subject property in satisfaction of its claim, the Department by this fact approves the sale.

(b) No sponsor shall sell, encumber or convey the rental housing development without express, prior written approval of the sale by the Department. Approval of a sale or conveyance shall be given, provided:

(1) the successor–in–interest to the grantor agrees to assume the deferred payment loan and all obligations of the existing sponsor pursuant to the regulatory agreement and this program; and

(2) the successor in interest is an eligible sponsor and demonstrates to the Department's satisfaction that it can successfully own and operate the rental housing development.

(c) In addition, the Department may permit a sale and termination of the regulatory agreement and all other obligations pursuant to this subchapter only if:

(1) all sums owed to the Department by the sponsor are paid; and

(2) Such an action is necessary to protect the interests and security of the state.

(d) In the event a sponsor or successor–in–interest defaults on any material provision of the deed of trust or regulatory agreement, the Department shall provide the sponsor with a written notice of breach or default and seek and encourage correction or compliance. If substantial progress is not made in rectification within 30 days of such notice, the Department may, at its discretion, declare the note evidencing the loan to be due and payable. In addition, the Department may seek any other remedy available in law or equity.

(e) In the event of foreclosure, default, or forced sale, the purchaser shall take title subject to the conditions of the regulatory agreement for the remaining duration of the original loan term.

(f) Unexpended loans to sponsors may be cancelled by the Department if the objectives of the loan cannot be met, implementation cannot proceed according to the sponsor's plans and schedule, special conditions have not been fulfilled within required periods, control/ownership of the rental housing development has not been obtained within six months, or rehabilitation has not commenced within twelve months of the date of loan approval. Upon receipt of a notice of intention to cancel the loan from the Department, the sponsor shall have a right to a hearing before the Loan Committee within thirty days; the Committee shall make a recommendation to the Director, who shall issue a written decision within ten working days of the hearing.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsections (b) and (d) filed 4–5–84; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 84, No. 14).

§ 7474. Application Process.

(a) Applications for Special User Housing Rehabilitation Program deferred loan funds shall be made on forms supplied by the Department and in accordance with request for proposal guidelines and instructions to be issued by the Department. Information required shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) evidence of sponsor eligibility of the applicant pursuant to the provisions of Section 7458;

(2) a detailed plan of the proposed project, including:

(A) the amount of loan funds requested;

(B) a description of the nature and costs of rehabilitation or acquisition and rehabilitation to be undertaken;

(C) a plan for ownership, management, and occupancy of the development;

(D) a financial analysis of the project, indicating anticipated expenses and revenues:

(E) a description of the existing liens and loans on or secured by the property;

(F) an analysis of existing and projected rent levels, including a determination as to whether projected rents will be affordable to very low income households;

(G) an indication of any temporary or permanent displacement and relocation of current residents which may be necessary, and costs of such activities; and

(H) a schedule for implementation.

(b) After receipt of an application, the Department shall provide notice to the local governing body of the community in which the assisted rental housing development will be located to provide an opportunity for comment by that community.

(c) Applications for loans will be reviewed by the staff of the Department to determine project eligibility and economic feasibility. The Department may require that an independent appraisal, at the sponsor's expense, be made of the value and cost of rehabilitation of the property and shall inspect the proposed rental housing development to ensure the economic feasibility of rehabilitating the property.

(d) Applications which involve acquisition of a rental housing development shall include a copy of an agreement or option between the sponsor and seller of the rental housing development which specifies all terms of the prospective sales transaction.

(e) On the basis of its review of the applications, Department staff will prepare recommendations, and submit such recommendations to the Loan Committee for its review and recommendation within 90 days after the application is deemed complete.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (a) filed 4–5–84; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 84, No. 14).

§ 7476. Loan Committee Review and Action.

(a) The Loan Committee shall review all applications for Special User Housing Rehabilitation Program deferred loans, except emergency loans, and all other significant matters affecting rental housing developments assisted by the Program including, but not limited to, reductions or elimination of annual interest payments. It shall adopt operating policies and procedures for the Program, and shall perform other functions and duties as may be required by the Director or by law.

(b) The Loan Committee shall be constituted and shall operate as set forth in Subchapter 1 (commencing with Section 6900) of Chapter 6.5 of Part 1 of Title 25, California Administrative Code.

(c) In taking action on applications or other matters, the Loan Committee shall consider the application or request, any written or oral testimony of an applicant or other interested person, priorities or loan distribution policies pursuant to Section 7478, recommendations of Program staff, and any other relevant information.

(d) Approval, approval with conditions, or denial of any action by the Loan Committee shall constitute a recommendation to the Director, who shall consider the Committee's recommendation in approving or denying a loan or any other matter.

(e) The Director shall, within 15 days after the date on which the loan committee considers any request for action, inform the applicant in writing of its decision, stating:

(1) that it has approved, approved with conditions, denied, or continued consideration of the request or application;

(2) the basis for denial or postponement of consideration; and

(3) that the applicant has a right of appeal as specified in Section 7580.

(f) The Director shall specify in any decision regarding approval of an application:

(1) the amount and terms of the deferred payment loan to be provided to the applicant or the terms of any other decision; and

(2) conditions attached to the approval of the loan or other request.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsections (a), (e) and (f) filed 4–5–84; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 84, No. 14).

§ 7478. Funding Priorities and Loan Distribution Policies.

(a) Priorities for allocation of Special User Housing Rehabilitation Program funds shall be given to applications which:

(1) address a major unmet local housing need, as evidenced by indicators such as low vacancy rates and high market rents in comparable unsubsidized developments and long waiting lists for comparable subsidized developments, and as evidenced by specific provisions in a local public entity's adopted Housing Element, Housing Assistance Plan or Redevelopment Plan which identifies needs and implementation strategies directly related to the type of project for which the application was submitted;

(2) prevent or minimize permanent displacement of existing residents;

(3) show evidence of local support in the form of financial assistance or assistance in the rehabilitation process;

(4) demonstrate superior ability to manage the development after rehabilitation, as evidenced by relevant factors such as experience managing comparable developments, qualifications of the management team, and the quality of the sponsor's plans for management;

(5) involve projects located on sites appropriate to the needs of prospective residents;

(6) maximize long–term benefit for very low income households;

(7) demonstrate superior ability to acquire and rehabilitate the project, as demonstrated by relevant factors such as previous development experience, general qualifications of the development team, and financial stability;

(8) correct major health and safety code violations rather than make only general property improvements;

(9) use Program funds in a cost–effective manner, as measured by such relevant indicators of cost–effectiveness as the per–unit allocation of Program funds and the ratio of Program funds to other funds used on the project;

(10) provide for after–rehabilitation rents below the local market average; and

(11) meet other priorities that may be established administratively by the Department.

(b) At least twenty percent of the total value of loans provided from the Fund to the Special User Housing Rehabilitation Program shall be for rental housing developments located in rural areas.

(c) At least twenty–five percent of the total value of loans provided from the Fund to the Program for rental housing developments other than residential hotels shall benefit handicapped households.

Subchapter 6.5. California Self–Help Housing Program

Article 1. General

§ 7530. Purpose and Scope.

This subchapter implements and interprets the California Self–Help Housing Program, Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 50690) of the Health and Safety Code. It establishes procedures for the award and disbursement of loans and grants and establishes policies and procedures for use of these funds to assist self–help construction of housing by low– and moderate–income households.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50697(d), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50690–50698, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. New Subchapter 6.5 (Articles 1–6, Sections 7530–7584, not consecutive) filed 4–16–86; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 86, No. 16).

§ 7532. Definitions.

In addition to the definitions contained in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 50050) and Section 50692 of the Health and Safety Code, the following definitions apply to this subchapter:

"Applicant" means any eligible sponsor applying for funds pursuant to this subchapter.

"Assisted units" means residential units which have been constructed or rehabilitated with technical assistance or funds provided in whole or in part from the Fund and which are, or will be, occupied by eligible households.

"Cooperative" means a limited equity housing cooperative as defined in Health and Safety Code Section 33007.5.

"Department" means the California Department of Housing and Community Development.

"Deferred Payment Loan" means a loan made by the Department to an eligible household, rental sponsor or cooperative from the Fund pursuant to Article 5 of this subchapter.

"Director" means the Director of the Department of Housing and Community Development, or his or her delegate.

"Eligible Household" means: (a) for purposes of technical assistance, a low- or moderate-income household participating in a self-help housing program conducted by an eligible sponsor; and (b) for purposes of mortgage assistance, eligible household means a low-income household participating in a self-help housing program conducted by an eligible sponsor. An eligible household must own, or have the opportunity to own, a residential unit, must be accepted as a member of a limited equity housing cooperative, or a renter, pursuant to Section 7576.

"Eligible Sponsors" means local public entities or nonprofit corporations including cooperatives that are engaged in, or will be engaged in developing, conducting, administering or coordinating programs of assistance which will aid eligible households construct or rehabilitate residential units for their own use.

"Fund" means the Self-Help Housing Fund established by Section 50697.1 of the Health and Safety Code.

"Grantee" means an eligible sponsor that has received a grant or loan from the fund.

"Gross Monthly Income" means gross monthly income as defined in Section 6914, of this Part.

"Low-income households" means the same as lower-income households.

"Lower-income households" means persons and families who meet the requirements of Section 6928 of this Part.

"Moderate-income households" means persons and families who meet the requirements of Section 6930 of this Part.

"Monthly housing costs" means housing costs as set forth in Section 6920 of this Part.

"Project" means a housing development as defined by Section 50073 of the Health and Safety Code. In addition, "project" includes the provision of technical assistance to eligible households.

"Property" means the real property on which the self-help construction has or will be undertaken and includes the improvements thereon.

"Rehabilitation" means rehabilitation as defined in Section 7402 of this Part and specifically excludes items listed in Section 7414(c) 1 through 9 of this Part.

"Rental Housing Development" means a rental housing development as defined in Section 7802 of this Part.

"Rental Sponsor" means an eligible sponsor who is, or will be, the owner of a rental housing development.

HISTORY

1. Repealer of definition of "Committee" filed 11–1–2004; operative 12–1–2004 (Register 2004, No. 45).

Article 2. Application Process

§ 7540. Application Process.

(a) Applications for assistance may be made only in response to a Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA). The Department shall issue the NOFA for technical and mortgage assistance, specifying the amount of funds available, the dates that applications will be accepted, and the general terms and conditions of funding commitments. The Department shall also make information available in each NOFA describing the method used in evaluating applications in response to the NOFA.

(b) An eligible applicant seeking funding shall submit an application for each project containing the following information and material:

(1) For nonprofit applicants, a copy of the adopted by-laws, and articles of incorporation of the applicant and any amendments thereto; evidence, of tax-exempt status; and a current list of members of the governing board, principle officers and employees responsible for implementing the project;

(2) A detailed description of the project;

(3) A detailed plan and schedule for the project;

(4) A description of the type and amount of self-help construction to be utilized in the project;

(5) A detailed financial plan for the project which identifies the anticipated sources of all financing and proposed specific uses for program funds;

(6) The work experience of the parties implementing the project;

(7) Any commitments for financing and other assistance to the project;

(8) A certified resolution from the applicants' governing boards authorizing the submittal of an application and the execution of the documents and agreements required under the regulations;

(9) A list of funding sources for previous projects;

(10) Any other information required by the Department to determine the eligibility or evaluate the feasibility of the project.

(c) Department staff shall review applications and submit recommendations for disposition based on the criteria of Section 7542 and submit them to the Director for the Director's consideration and decision.

(d) Awards to any one sponsor shall not exceed 20 percent of monies available in each NOFA.

(e) A minimum of 20 percent of the Fund shall be set aside for rural areas unless 12 months after issuance of the first NOFA, the lack of eligible applications for technical assistance grants and mortgage assistance would result in unused funds.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50697(d), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50696, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (c), repealer of subsection (d) and subsection relettering filed 11–1–2004; operative 12–1–2004 (Register 2004, No. 45).

§ 7542. Evaluation Criteria.

(a) Applications for funds that serve the largest proportion of low-income households shall receive priority.

(b) In evaluating technical assistance applications, the Department shall include, but not be limited to, the following factors in its evaluation:

(1) The extent to which the applicant uses available federal, state and local programs and resources in the project;

(2) The applicant's organizational capacity to carry out the project;

(3) The project's feasibility;

(4) The project's cost effectiveness in terms of per unit self-help housing fund costs; and

(5) The extent to which project participants use self-help labor.

(c) In evaluating mortgage assistance applications, the Department will consider the following factors in addition to the factors listed under (b).

(1) The extent to which the estimated cost of the units to be constructed or rehabilitated is consistent with the lowest possible cost of residential units in the same area meeting minimum health and safety code standards and local building and land use requirements;

(2) The extent to which adequate financing for the project is assured;

(3) The extent to which the grantee provides information on the estimated income levels of the households that are to receive mortgage assistance; and

(4) The likelihood that the applicant will complete the project within two years of executing an agreement with the Department, pursuant to Section 7562(d) of this Subchapter.

(d) The Department may establish more specific rating and ranking criteria in each Notice of Funding Availability, based on the criteria in (b) and (c) of this section.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50697(d), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50696, Health and Safety Code.

§ 7544. Conditional Commitment.

Upon approval by the Director, the recommendation of the Department staff shall constitute a conditional commitment of funds to the applicant subject to the terms of the NOFA, the contents of the application, and such conditions as may be included as part of the Director's approval. The Department and the applicant shall thereafter enter into the Technical Assistance Standard Agreement or the Mortgage Assistance Standard Agreement as appropriate, subject to the applicable provisions of this subchapter.

1. Amendment filed 11-1-2004; operative 12-1-2004 (Register 2004, No. 45).

Article 3. Technical Assistance Grants

§ 7550. Technical Assistance Grants.

(a) The Department may make grants for technical assistance to eligible sponsors. Technical assistance funds may be used for the following purposes:

(1) Assistance, training, and supervision on self-help construction activities and techniques;

(2) Assistance in project development which includes, but is not limited to, the preparation of plans for self-help housing, preparation of contracts for professional services, application for project funding, packaging households' applications for assistance, preparation of subdivision maps, review of engineering plans and specifications for construction and rehabilitation projects, and compliance with appropriate requirements of funding agencies and local government;

(3) Administrative costs of providing technical assistance for the activity funded by the Department including, but not limited to, wages, salaries and fringe benefits of clerical and management personnel and payment for rent, utilities, communications, printing and travel expenses.

(b) Technical assistance grants shall not be used for purchase of land, materials, tools and construction equipment, or for any costs of construction.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50697(d), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50696, Health and Safety Code.

§ 7552. Amount and Term of Grants.

(a) The Department shall ensure that not less than 15 percent or more than 25 percent of a NOFA is used for technical assistance grants. However, the Department may adopt different allocation percentages if, 12 months after issuance of a NOFA, the lack of eligible applications for technical assistance grants would result in unused funds.

(b) The Department shall not award a technical assistance grant exceeding $300,000 for any one project.

(c) The grantee shall complete the project within two years from the effective date of the Technical Assistance Standard Agreement or such lesser term as may be set forth on the application's approval. Extension of the grant term may be made at the discretion of the Director in the event of delays in project implementation beyond the reasonable control of the grantee.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50697(d), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50696, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsections (b) and (c) filed 3-22-2004; operative 3-22-2004 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2004, No. 13).

§ 7554. Technical Assistance Standard Agreement (TASA).

(a) A grantee under this Article shall execute a Technical Assistance Standard Agreement (TASA) with the Department.

(b) The TASA shall contain the following terms and conditions:

(1) The minimum number of new and/or rehabilitated units of self-help housing to be occupied by eligible households which will be developed as a direct result of the technical assistance grant.

(2) A budget setting forth the kinds and amounts of allowable expenditures to be made with the grant funds.

(3) The manner, timing and conditions for disbursement of funds to grantees.

(4) A timetable for completion of each stage of the project and for final project completion.

(5) Terms necessary to ensure compliance with these Regulations, and any special conditions imposed by the grant approval.

(6) The remedies of the Department in the event of a breach or violation by the grantee of the terms and conditions of the TASA.

(7) A requirement that the grantee submit to the Department a performance report for each stage of the project. Each report shall describe the progress of the project and shall include the estimated time to completion and a detailed itemized breakdown of grant and other expenditures. The Department shall have the right, without charges or royalty, to publish and distribute all reports, data, memoranda, bulletins or manuals developed or written by the grantee or its officers, employees, or agents in its implementation of the project.

(8) A provision that all books, records, documents and files of the grantee which are maintained for the project shall be available upon notice for inspection by the Department and its representatives.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50697(d), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50696, Health and Safety Code.

§ 7556. Disbursement of Funds.

Following grant approval and execution of a TASA, compliance with all applicable conditions therein, and upon submittal of the grantee's request for funds to commence the project, the Department may disburse an advance payment to the grantee. In order to receive an advance payment, the grantee must certify that it does not have available funds to initiate the project. The advance payment shall not exceed a three-month share of the amount budgeted for the total grant. Subsequent disbursements shall be made only to reimburse the grantee for actual and eligible costs incurred pursuant to the Technical Assistance Standard Agreement.

Article 4. Mortgage Assistance: General Provisions

§ 7560. Eligible Uses of Funds.

(a) The Department may commit funds to eligible sponsors for the provision of mortgage assistance to eligible households engaged in self-help construction by either of the following two methods:

(1) As deferred payment loans directly eligible households pursuant to Section 7572, or to cooperatives, pursuant to Section 7576.

(2) In the form of payment(s), or on behalf of, eligible households in order to reduce the mortgage interest costs of the households, pursuant to Section 7578.

(b) Before providing mortgage assistance under (a), eligible sponsors may use the funds for certain development costs pursuant to Article 6.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50697(d), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50696, Health and Safety Code.

§ 7562. Amount and Terms of Mortgage Assistance.

(a) The Department shall ensure that not less than 75 percent or more than 85 percent of the Fund is used for mortgage assistance to eligible households. However, the Department may adopt different allocation percentages if, 12 months after issuance of a NOFA, the lack of eligible applications for either technical assistance or mortgage assistance would result in unused funds.

(b) The maximum amount for mortgage assistance for any one project shall not exceed the lesser of $300,000 or the projected mortgage assistance from the Fund necessary to ensure that eligible households participating in a project pay no more than 30% of their gross monthly income for monthly housing costs.

(c) Mortgage assistance for any one eligible household shall not exceed $15,000.

(d) The grantee shall provide mortgage assistance directly to or on behalf of eligible households in the form of deferred payment loans or interest subsidies within two years from the effective date of the Mortgage Assistance Standard Agreement.

(e) The Director may increase the limit on mortgage assistance for an eligible household and extend the two-year term if the Department determines that such increase or extension is necessary to avoid special hardship for the eligible household or to ensure the economic feasibility of the project.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50697(d), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50696, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (e) filed 11-1-2004; operative 12-1-2004 (Register 2004, No. 45).

§ 7564. Mortgage Assistance Standard Agreement.

(a) A grantee under this Article shall execute a Mortgage Assistance Standard Agreement (MASA) with the Department.

(b) The MASA shall contain the following terms and conditions:

(1) Where funds committed under the MASA are to be used for development assistance pursuant to Article 6 prior to allocation as mortgage assistance to eligible households, the MASA shall contain the terms and conditions set forth in Section 7584.

(2) The grantee shall indicate the estimated income levels of the households that will receive mortgage assistance and such information shall be consistent with the information provided in the approved application, pursuant to Section 7542(c)(3).

(3) Prior to fund disbursement to eligible households, the grantee shall identify each eligible household which will occupy an assisted unit and the amount of mortgage assistance funds for each household.

(4) On or before the sale or conveyance of a newly constructed assisted unit to an eligible household, or on or before the Department's disbursement of funds for an assisted unit to be rehabilitated, the grantee shall ensure that the eligible household which will own and/or occupy the assisted unit executes the Deferred Payment Loan agreement and related documents pursuant to Article 5.

(5) Conditions for the disbursement of mortgage assistance funds to, or on behalf of, eligible households, including the allocation to eligible households of funds which have been used for development assistance shall be specified in the MASA.

(6) For the duration of the MASA, the grantee shall not sell or convey the project, or any portion thereof or interest therein, except as specifically provided in the Agreement.

(7) In the event of a breach of any of its conditions or covenants by the grantee or its successors in interest, the Department shall have the option to enforce the Agreement by any proceeding at law or in equity. The Department may, at its option, require the grantee or its successor in interest to repay immediately to the State the total amount of the loan then due with simple interest at 10% per annum.

(8) A requirement that the grantee submit a performance report to the Department for each stage of the project. Each report shall describe the progress of the project, and shall include the estimated time to completion and a detailed itemized breakdown of grant and other expenditures. The Department shall have the right, without charges or royalty, to publish and distribute all reports, data, memoranda, bulletins or manuals developed or written by the grantee or its offices, employees or agents in its implementation of the project.

(9) A provision that all books, records, documents and files of the grantee which are maintained for the project shall be available upon notice for inspection by the Department and its representatives.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50697(d), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50696 and 50697.5, Health and Safety Code.

Article 5. Deferred Payment Loans and Other Forms of Mortgage Assistance

§ 7570. Household Eligibility and Amount of Loans.

(a) Eligibility for participation with a commitment for mortgage assistance is limited to low-income households. This eligibility shall be determined at the time the sponsor gives final approval for a household's participation in the program, or on approval of permanent financing, whichever is earlier.

(b) For new construction, the maximum deferred payment loan which an eligible household may receive shall be determined as follows:

(1) Determine the amount of total financing required by subtracting from the sales price any downpayment or subsidies other than from the Department;

(2) Calculate 30% of the eligible household's gross monthly income as established at the time permanent financing is approved. From this amount, subtract property taxes, insurance, and utilities and, if required, mortgage insurance and homeowner association fees, to determine the net income available for mortgage payment;

(3) Using the interest rate and term of the first mortgage, calculate the mortgage that the net income in (2) will amortize.

(4) Subtract the amount calculated in (3) from the fist mortgage calculated in (1). This amount, if positive, is the allowable mortgage assistance, up to a maximum of $15,000, for the eligible household.

(c) An eligible household may receive a deferred amount loan for the rehabilitation of an assisted unit subject to the following conditions:

(1) The after-rehabilitation loan-to-value ratio, including the Department's loan, shall not exceed 95 percent.

(2) The proceeds of the deferred payment loan shall only finance rehabilitation costs directly related to compliance with local code rehabilitation standards.

(3) The amount of the deferred payment loan shall not exceed the lesser of the following:

(A) $15,000 or

(B) The amount needed to finance the direct cost of the approved rehabilitation work necessary to comply with rehabilitation standards.

(4) Priority shall be given to eligible households spending 30 percent or more of their gross monthly income on housing costs. Households spending less than 25 percent of their gross monthly income for housing costs shall provide evidence that necessary financing cannot be obtained from other sources. "Gross monthly income" shall be established at the time the sponsor gives final approval for a household's participation in the program.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50697(d), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50696, Health and Safety Code.

§ 7572. Terms and Conditions of Deferred Payment Loans to Households.

(a) An eligible household receiving a loan pursuant to this Article shall enter into a Deferred Payment Loan Agreement (DPLA) with the Department. The term of the DPLA shall not exceed 20 years.

(b) The DPLA shall contain the following terms and conditions:

(1) The eligible household shall execute a Promissory Note containing the terms set forth in subdivisions (b)(2), (b)(3) and (b)(4) of this section and a Deed of Trust. The Deed of Trust shall be sufficient for recordation and sufficient to secure the obligations of the Promissory Note. The DPLA shall provide for the order of recordation of the Deed of Trust and for its priority with respect to other liens and encumbrances recorded against the assisted unit.

(2) The DPLA shall include a provision that the agreement will terminate and the eligible household will be required to repay the outstanding mortgage assistance and accrued interest if the household ceases to occupy the assisted unit as its principal residence, other than as the result of a sale, transfer, or conveyance pursuant to Section 7574.

(3) A Deferred Payment Loan shall bear simple interest at seven (7) percent per year for the first ten years of the loan to any one eligible household. Repayment of principal and payment of interest shall be deferred until sale or conveyance of the assisted unit pursuant to Section 7574.

(4) The loan principal and accrued interest shall be forgiven at 10 percent per year of the total outstanding amount beginning with the 11th year, with total forgiveness of both interest and principal after 20 years provided that an eligible household remains in compliance with the DPLA.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50697(d), the Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50696 and 50697(d), Health and Safety Code.

§ 7574. Resale and Loan Assumption.

(a) The owner of an assisted unit shall notify the Department prior to the sale, transfer or conveyance of the assisted unit or any interest therein.

(b) The sale, transfer, or conveyance of an assisted unit or interest therein is subject to the following conditions:

(1) If the sale or transfer is to a low-income household, the purchaser may assume the deferred payment loan upon completion of terms and conditions set forth in Sections 7572 and 7574(c).

(2) If the sale, transfer, or conveyance is not to a low-income household, the deferred payment loan and accrued interest shall be due and payable upon the sale, transfer, or conveyance pursuant to Section 7572.

(3) If, at time of resale, the market value of the housing unit is less than the sum of the outstanding balances on permitted mortgages and permitted liens, plus the value of sweat equity, then the amount of mortgage assistance due in repayment, or available for assumption, shall be reduced by the difference between the market value of the housing unit and said sum. The Department shall establish a value for the sweat equity based on information submitted by the grantee and shall determine the fair market value at the time of the proposed resale.

(c) A low-income household seeking to assume the deferred payment loan shall:

(1) Apply to the Department on an approved form;

(2) Provide the Department with complete and accurate information as to income and estimated housing costs; and

(3) Execute a new Deferred Payment Loan Agreement for the principal balance remaining on the loan.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50697(d), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50696, Health and Safety Code.

§ 7576. Terms and Conditions of Deferred Payment Loans for Cooperatives or Rental Sponsors.

(a) Individual households occupying assisted units in cooperatives or in rental housing developments shall not be entitled to Deferred Payment Loans. Such loans may be made to cooperatives or rental sponsors for the benefit of eligible households as follows:

(1) The loan shall have a term of twenty years and shall bear simple interest at seven percent (7%) per annum, with payments of principal and interest to be deferred except where repayment is required pursuant to this Section and Section 7574;

(2) The cooperative or rental sponsor agrees to execute a Promissory Note evidencing the loan and a Deed of Trust on the property securing the Note. The Deed of Trust shall be recorded as a lien against the property;

(3) The proceeds of the loan shall be utilized to reduce the housing costs of eligible households in assisted units in the cooperative or rental housing development, subject to the limits and requirements set forth in Section 7570;

(b) The cooperative or rental sponsor shall enter into a regulatory agreement with the Department that includes but is not limited to, the following provisions:

(1) The type and number of assisted units to be occupied by eligible households during the term of the loan;

(2) The manner in which the loan shall result in reduced housing costs or rents for eligible households and long-term rights to occupancy;

(3) The cooperative or rental sponsor shall not sell, transfer, convey, or encumber its interest or any portion thereof in the property without the prior written approval of the Department;

(4) The term of the regulatory agreement shall not be less than 20 years; but shall not exceed 20 years from the date of completion of construction or rehabilitation.

(5) The Deferred Payment Loan and all accrued interest thereon shall be forgiven twenty years after the date of execution of the regulatory agreement provided that the cooperative or rental sponsor has substantially complied with the provisions thereof.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50697(d), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50696 and 50697(d), Health and Safety Code.

§ 7578. Mortgage Subsidy Assistance.

(a) In lieu of assistance provided to eligible households through deferred payment loans, sponsors may propose, in their applications for funding, a method for providing assistance to eligible households to reduce their monthly mortgage interest costs. The Department may accept or reject the proposal, or require the sponsor to amend the proposal.

(b) The Department will use the following criteria in evaluating the proposal for acceptance, rejection, or modification:

(1) The capability of the Department, sponsor, lender or other party to administer and monitor the payments;

(2) The extent to which the proposed method will maximize the benefits of program funds for eligible households;

(3) The extent to which the proposal will encourage resale of the assisted units to low-income households; and

(4) The adequacy of proposed security to protect the program funds and ensure compliance with program requirements.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50697(d), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50696, Health and Safety Code.

Article 6. Development Assistance

§ 7580. Development Assistance Under the Mortgage Assistance Standard Agreement.

A grantee may apply for funds awarded under Article 4 for payment of approved development costs pursuant to this Article and applicable provisions of the MASA. For each project, the amount of development assistance shall not exceed the amount of mortgage assistance committed pursuant to Article 4.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50697(d), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50696, Health and Safety Code.

§ 7582. Eligible Uses of Funds.

Development assistance may be used for costs incurred in connection with self-help construction including the following.

(a) The cost of acquiring or refinancing the property;

(b) The cost of site preparation, demolition, and clearing;

(c) Architectural, engineering, legal, accounting, consulting, and other fees in connection with the planning, execution, and financing of the project;

(d) The cost of necessary studies, surveys, plans and permits;

(e) The cost of insurance, interest and financing, taxes and assessments and carrying costs incurred during self-help construction;

(f) Onsite construction costs of labor and material directly for self-help construction;

(g) The cost of offsite improvements, including streets, sewers, and utilities.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50697(d), Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50696, Health and Safety Code.

§ 7584. Terms and Conditions of Development Assistance.

(a) As a condition of a commitment of development assistance funds, the following terms and conditions shall be incorporated into the MASA:

(1) The amount, timing and manner of disbursement of development assistance funds by the Department;

(2) A description and allocation of eligible costs to be paid by development assistance funds;

(3) The timing of and manner by which the development assistance shall be provided to eligible households or cooperatives as mortgage assistance. The grantee shall be required to complete the project and provide mortgage assistance to eligible households within two years of the date of commitment of the development assistance; and

(4) Remedies of the Department in the event that the grantee breaches, defaults or violates the development assistance provisions of the MASA.

(5) The order of recordation and the priority to be accorded the Deed of Trust referred to in subdivision (b) below.

(b) Development assistance for the project shall be provided in the form of a loan evidenced by a note in the amount of the approved development assistance and secured by a Deed of Trust in favor of the Department which shall be recorded as a lien against the property.

(c) The note shall bear interest at ten percent (10%) per annum which interest shall be forgiven upon grantee's performance of the development assistance as specified in the MASA. Principal of the development assistance note shall be reduced in increments, and parcels released from the lien of the development assistance Deed of Trust, when mortgage assistance is provided to eligible households in accordance with the MASA.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of NOTE filed 2–26–82; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 82, No. 9).

§ 7602. Definitions.

(a) "Agricultural employment" means work on either a farm, ranch or orchard, or the processing of agricultural products.

(b) "Applicant" means an individual who signs an application for admission to a migrant housing center.

(c) "Contractor" means a housing authority, school district, health agency or other appropriate local public or private nonprofit agency and its agents and other appropriate local public or private nonprofit agency and its agents and employees which has contracted with the Department to operate and maintain and provide services for one or more migrant centers pursuant to Subchapter 8.5 of Part 2 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, commencing with Section 50710.

(d) "Department" means the Department of Housing and Community Development, Office of Migrant Services.

(e) "Earned income" means income received as payment for work.

(f) "Household" means immediate family members who reside, or who have made application to reside together, as a single family at a migrant center.

(g) "Immediate family" means a migrant center resident and his or her parents, children and spouse, or any other related dependents or persons who regularly live with the family and whose income(s) and resources are available for use in meeting the living expense of the group. In addition to sons and daughters of a resident, "children" shall include minors who are financially dependent on a resident, whether or not they are related to the resident. "Spouse" shall include a person who acts as the husband or wife of the resident, whether or not they are legally married.

(h) "Migrant center" and "migrant housing center" mean a housing center administered by the Department and operated by a contractor for the purpose of providing housing for migratory agricultural workers pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50710 and shall include all housing units, common areas and structures, equipment and furniture within a housing center, excepting those facilities owned exclusively by a contractor or other interests and not meant for the use of migratory agricultural workers.

(i) "Migratory agricultural worker" means an individual who:

(1) has the employment status of one of the following:

(A) during the current or preceding calendar year, derived at least 50 percent of his/her total annual household earned income from agricultural employment, or

(B) can produce current evidence of a current job offer in agricultural employment; and

(2) performs, has performed, or will perform such agricultural labor during the current or preceding calendar year under conditions which require roundtrip travel exceeding 100 miles per day such that he/she was unable to return to his/her chosen place of residence within the same day of labor; and

(3) has resided together with his/her immediate family outside a 50 mile radius of the migrant center for at least 3 months out of the preceding 6 month period.

(j) "Operating costs" means the amount of the total expenditures necessary to pay for the costs of operating a migrant family housing center in compliance with Sections 50710 through 50713 of the Health and Safety Code and Sections 7601 through 7665 of Title 25 of the California Code of Regulations. Costs shall include permanent salaries/wages, temporary salaries/wages, and personnel benefits; center office supplies, household supplies, communication, travel and gas/oil; minor equipment and repair/maintenance; purchases under $150.00; major equipment purchase and repair/maintenance, equipment rental, electricity, and gas; garbage, trash, sewer, and water; other costs; electric/plumbing/paint/solar supplies and services; lumber and materials; grounds maintenance; rehabilitation and repairs; debt service; replacement reserves; administrative support services, travel and auditing expenses.

(k) "Resident" means an individual migratory agricultural worker who signs a lease to reside in a migrant center.

3. Editorial correction of subsection (d) (Register 95, No. 30).
4. Amendment of subsections (g) and (j) filed 2–22–96; operative 2–22–96 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 96, No. 8).
5. Change without regulatory effect amending subsections (g) and (j) filed 7–31–97 pursuant to section 100, title 1, California Code of Regulations (Register 97, No. 31).
6. Amendment of subsections (g), (i)(1)(A) and (j) filed 3–17–98; operative 3–17–98 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 98, No. 12).

Article 2. Admissions

§ 7610. Eligibility for Admission.

An applicant and his/her immediate family are eligible for admission to a migrant center if they meet all of the following criteria:

(a) The applicant or applicant's spouse is a migratory agricultural worker. In determining status as a migratory agricultural worker, as defined in Section 7602, the combined earned income of all members of the applicant's household shall be considered, and as long as 50% of the household's combined earned income is derived from agricultural employment, any individual household members may engage in non–agricultural employment.

Income from employment at a migrant center shall be included as agricultural employment in the total annual household income when evaluating compliance with the above 50% requirement.

(b) There is more than one person in the applicant's household and all household members are members of the applicant's immediate family.

(c) The applicant and his/her household conforms to the occupancy standards set out in Section 7612.

(d) The contractor may determine that an applicant is not eligible for admission if, on the basis of substantial, factual evidence of that person's prior actions there is good cause to believe that the applicant or any member of his/her household will repeatedly fail to pay rent, will create a substantial threat to the health and safety of other residents, or will repeatedly breach material requirements of the lease. Unsubstantiated oral statements will not be deemed substantial factual evidence.

(e) The above eligibility criteria shall be exclusive and no other factors shall be considered in determining eligibility of applicants.

2. Amendment of subsection (a) filed 2–22–96; operative 2–22–96 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 96, No. 8).
3. Change without regulatory effect amending subsection (a) filed 7–31–97 pursuant to section 100, title 1, California Code of Regulations (Register 97, No. 31).
4. Amendment of subsection (a) filed 3–17–98; operative 3–17–98 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4(d) (Register 98, No. 12).

§ 7611. Admission Priorities.

(a) Applicants shall apply for admission on a first–come, first–serve basis, on the day that each migrant center opens for housing registration. An alternative method permitting preferential admission for residents of the migrant center's previous season may be used if approved by the Department.

(b) Applicants who have previous or current agricultural employment shall be given priority for occupancy of units during the opening day each season over those who have no history of current or past agricultural employment, but have offers of employment.

(c) If more eligible applicants apply than there are available units, the contractor shall maintain a waiting list with applicants listed in order of date and time of application. A priority number shall be issued upon application and shall be noted on the application form. When a housing unit becomes vacant, the contractor shall offer the unit to the first eligible appropriate candidate on the list. If after a good faith effort the contractor is unable to contact the first applicant on the list, the contractor may offer the unit to the next eligible appropriate candidate on the list, until the list is exhausted. If an applicant has not checked in with the contractor in the prior 24 hours, his/her name may be dropped from the waiting list.

(d) The foregoing priority shall be followed without regard to race, creed, religion, sex, color, or national origin or any other factor precluded by law.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50710, Health and Safety Code; Reference: Section 50710, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 2–26–82; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 82, No. 9).
2. Amendment filed 11–2–88; operative 12–2–88 (Register 88, No. 46).

§ 7612. Occupancy Standards.

(a) Each migrant center shall remain open 180 days each calendar year. The period of time during which a migrant center is open may be extended or reduced pursuant to written agreement between the Department and the contractor responsible for the operation and maintenance of that migrant housing center.

(b) A migratory agricultural worker and his/her immediate family may not occupy more than two housing units at any one time.

(c) To avoid overcrowding and prevent waste of space, dwellings are to be assigned in accordance with the occupancy standards set forth as follows:

Number of Bedrooms	Maximum number of Persons
2	7
3	10
4	13

These maximum standards may be waived by the contractor when appropriate in order to make temporary use of available vacant units or to house families in urgent need.

If a resident is living in a unit which is too small for his/her household according to these occupancy standards, the contractor may transfer resident to the next available unit of appropriate size or may provide resident with an available additional unit. In addition, contractor may require a resident who is living in a unit which is too large for his/her household to exchange units with a resident who is living in a unit which is too small.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of NOTE filed 2–26–82; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 82, No. 9).

§ 7613. Application and Admission Requirements.

(a) The Application for Admission constitutes the basic record of each migratory agricultural worker and his/her household who has applied for admission to a migrant housing center. Each applicant shall provide all information requested in the Application for Admission, sign the application, and attest to the accuracy of the data provided.

(b) Each application for Admission shall reflect the date and time of application by the applicant.

(c) Applications for Admission shall be available in English and the language spoken by a majority of applicants. The contractor shall provide assistance to all applicants in filling out the application.

(d) The Application for Admission and all other materials relating to the eligibility of the applicant and his/her household, including applicants who are found ineligible, shall be kept in an active file.

(e) The Application for Admission shall call only for information necessary to determine the eligibility of the applicant and his/her household as defined in Section 7610. Such information shall include the size and composition of the applicant's household.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50710, Health and Safety Code; Reference: Section 50710, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 2–26–82; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 82, No. 9).

§ 7614. Verification.

(a) The contractor shall verify information provided by the applicant.

(b) The contractor shall accept a document submitted by an applicant for verification if it provides credible evidence of applicant's eligibility. The department may determine which types of documents do not provide credible evidence. The following are examples of acceptable documents but other forms of documentation offered by the applicant may be accepted:

(1) Income tax reports (e.g. W–2 forms) or other statements from employers or other income sources.

(2) Signed employer verification form,

(3) Migrant transfer record,

(4) Unemployment insurance benefits reports,

(5) Vehicle license number,

(6) Driver license.

(7) Signed current letter from employer or potential employer verifying current job offer for an applicant with no prior history of agricultural employment.

(c) Information obtained by telephone or personal interview may be used for admission, provided that no other documentation can be provided by applicant. A memorandum shall be placed in the verification records summarizing the information, stating the source and date of contact, and shall be signed and dated by the contractor's agent or employee who prepared the memorandum.

(d) In order to determine whether an applicant is ineligible for admission on the grounds stated in Section 7610 (d), the contractor may rely upon, for example, written records of a migrant center or other housing management, statements of a migrant center manager or other housing manager or owner or a chairperson of a resident council, and written records of administrative and court hearings in cases where action was brought against the applicant regarding conduct in a migrant center or other housing. Only credible information regarding the applicant's prior actions may be taken into account.

(e) Documents and other verification information shall be required only for the purpose of determining eligibility under the criteria in Section 7610 and shall not be required for any other purpose.

(f) Verification information shall be reviewed and evaluated as received for completeness, accuracy, and conclusiveness. Where the information received, at the time of application, is not adequate to verify the applicant's eligibility, the contractor may exercise discretion and either notify applicant that he/she is ineligible or permit applicant an additional 24 hours to produce the necessary documents. If during the verification process it becomes evident that for one or more reasons an applicant is ineligible, the investigation is to be discontinued and the applicant notified of his/her ineligibility and the reasons therefor, and of his/her right to a hearing as provided in Section 7615.

(g) If a determination is made that an applicant is not eligible the reasons for that finding and a summary of the information upon which that finding is based shall be written on the application form and signed by the staff person who made the determination.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 2–26–82; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 82, No. 9).
2. New subsection (b)(7) filed 11–2–88; operative 12–2–88 (Register 88, No. 46).

§ 7615. Notification to Applicants.

(a) Each applicant shall be notified as promptly as possible regarding his/her eligibility status. If determined to be ineligible for admission, the applicant is to be informed in writing of the determination, the reasons for the determination, and of his/her right to request a hearing pursuant to subsection (b) of this section. For each such case, a record shall be maintained, including a notation of the circumstances involved, final action taken, and the dates. A form for requesting a hearing shall be in English and in any other language spoken by a majority of applicants.

(b) An applicant must request a hearing within 24 hours after written notification of ineligibility is personally delivered, or his/her rights to a hearing shall be deemed to be waived.

(c) Except where an applicant is refused admission due to lack of appropriately– sized housing units, contractor shall hold an appropriate unit vacant until the time to request a hearing has passed or, if a hearing is timely requested, until after a hearing is conducted.

(d) A hearing requested pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be held promptly, and shall be conducted in the primary language of the applicant or with a translator who speaks such language. Applicant shall not be required to miss work in order to appear at the hearing. The hearing requested pursuant to this section shall be conducted by a supervisor of the person who made the determination that the applicant was ineligible. Such decision shall be in writing and set forth the reasons and findings for the decision.

(e) Each applicant determined to be eligible for admission shall be housed promptly. The date that housing units are assigned may be designated by the Department.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 2–26–82; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 82, No. 9).

§ 7616. Execution and Amendment of Dwelling Lease.

(a) At the time of admission, the applicant accepted for admission shall sign the lease. The lease shall comply with Section 7623 and shall be prepared in triplicate. One copy shall be given to the applicant, one copy to the Contractor, and the original shall be filed in the permanent record folder established for the applicant at the center office.

(b) If, through any cause, the signer of the lease ceases to be a member of the resident household, a new lease shall be signed by the family member qualifying as head of the household, provided the household remains eligible for continued occupancy.

(c) If a resident household transfers to a different migrant center a new lease shall be executed to reflect the new dwelling.

(d) If, at any time during the term of the lease, any other change in the resident's status results in the need to change or amend any provisions of the lease, the lease should be amended to reflect the changes.

(e) All lease revisions are to be dated and signed by the resident.

§ 7624. Resident's Handbook.

Each contractor shall give the Resident a copy of the following Resident's Handbook for Migrant Housing Centers at the time of the execution of the lease. This Handbook shall be in English and the language spoken by a majority of applicants. The provisions of this Handbook are binding on all Residents, contractors, and the Department.

RESIDENT'S HANDBOOK FOR MIGRANT HOUSING CENTERS

Welcome to the Migrant Housing Center. This Handbook contains important information concerning the rights and responsibilities of residents and management of the migrant center. Please read it carefully and keep it with you while you are living at the center.

RENT

Rent shall be paid either monthly, bi-weekly, or weekly, depending on your agreement with the manager.

The department shall establish a schedule of rents from a statewide base for 1998 of seven dollars and fifty cents ($7.50) per day for a two-bedroom dwelling. An additional fifty cents ($.50) per day shall be charged for a three-bedroom unit, and an additional one dollar ($1.00) per day shall be charged for a four-bedroom or larger unit. In any year, any household which occupies more than one two-bedroom unit shall pay one dollar ($1.00) per day for the second unit.

The base rent shall be adjusted, if necessary, at the beginning of each state fiscal year to an amount calculated by the Department considering total statewide operating cost throughout the state and total state and other funds available for all centers and after an opportunity for resident comment. There may be additional mid-season adjustments in rent after 30 days written notice. The exact rules for rent adjustments are in the Office of Migrant Services Housing Center Regulations, sections 7650 and 7653.

SECURITY DEPOSIT

The security deposit will be no less than $100.00 and no more than $125.00. This deposit may only be used by management for unpaid rent, for any cost to clean the unit beyond normal wear and tear, and for the cost to repair damages beyond normal wear and tear caused by you or your guests. The security deposit may not be used for charges caused by normal wear and tear.

An additional security deposit of $25.00 is required for the first two electronic gate security cards issued to you, and for each additional card thereafter, if your center has an electronic security gate. In the event an electronic gate security card is lost or not returned, you will forfeit this deposit. An additional deposit will be required before a new electronic gate security card is issued to you. If an electronic gate security card is returned damaged, you must pay actual replacement cost of the gate card.

Management shall make arrangements with you to pay these deposits at a later time if you cannot afford to pay the full amount at the time you are admitted to the center.

The rules for getting back your deposit at the end of the residency are as follows:

If you give management at least three days notice that you are leaving, management shall return the deposit to you on the day you move out. If management keeps all or part of deposit, they must provide a written statement explaining why those amounts were withheld.

If you do not give management at least three days notice that you are leaving, management will make permissible deductions and send the deposit to your forwarding address within two weeks. If the management does not have a forwarding address, management will hold your deposit for six months. After six months your deposit is forfeited. If management must hold your deposit, it will not entitle you to preference for admission the next year.

UTILITIES

All utilities (excluding telephone service), are to be paid by management at no additional charge to you.

TRANSFER

If you are living in a housing unit which is too small for your family, according to the occupancy standards set forth in the Office of Migrant Services Housing Center Regulations, management may transfer your family to the next available appropriate unit, or may provide your family with an additional available housing unit.

In addition, if you are living in a unit which is too large for your family, management may require you to exchange units with a family which is living in a unit which is too small. If there is such an exchange, the family in the larger unit must receive at least seven (7) days written notice from management.

GUESTS

You may have guests (including overnight), but you must get permission from management if guests will be staying more than 3 days.

MANAGEMENT RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

(a) All center personnel are answerable to management.

(b) Management is authorized to provide free housing and utilities to center personnel who received or who will receive said housing benefits as a condition of their employment.

(c) During the off-season management is authorized to enter into sub-lease agreements with federal, state, and local public entities for use of the common facilities. Such facilities shall be available for use by center residents during the on-season.

(d) Management is to keep the center in a decent, safe, and sanitary condition. Repairs are to be made promptly.

(e) Management shall repair and maintain all electrical, plumbing, sanitary, heating, ventilating, and cooling equipment, and appliances supplied by the Department in accordance with contractor's budget.

(f) Management and residents shall cooperate on all matters pertaining to energy conservation.

(g) Management is authorized to reduce or stop charging rent on housing units which develop major defects that make the unit a threat to the health or safety of the resident and his/her family. However, management shall repair the unit or move the residents to another unit as soon as possible.

(h) The Department shall provide funds to contractor for the purpose of relocating residents displaced as a result of rehabilitation activities of management. Replacement housing shall be provided without any additional cost to resident and his/her family.

RESIDENT'S RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

You, as a resident, agree to:

(a) Use your residence only as a private dwelling unit for you and your family;

(b) Keep your yard in a clean and safe condition;

(c) Dispose of rubbish properly in a safe and sanitary manner;

(d) Keep your family or guests from damaging or removing the property of the Migrant Center;

(e) Pay for damages caused by those under your control, according to a schedule of maintenance and repair charges;

(f) Keep from disturbing the other residents;

(g) Keep no pets on the premises;

(h) Park vehicles only at areas designated for this purpose. Vehicles shall not be abandoned, repaired or maintained within the center; however, routine servicing is permitted if it does not involve toxic substances (including, but not limited to, oil and brake fluids or car batteries) or does not create a danger for the residents, and if it is consistent with local rules and regulations;

(i) Make no major additions or changes to your residence, its equipment, or furniture provided by management.

(j) Tell the management if you and your family will be away for more than three (3) days;

(k) Leave your residence clean and in good condition when you vacate the premises;

(l) Obey the rules and policies governing the Migrant Centers in existence when you moved in;

(m) Report damages and needed repairs to management. If management does not repair your unit in a reasonable time, the request should be submitted in writing. In the event management does not respond to your written request within a reasonable time, you may do such repairs up to two times each year, each time spending an amount equal to one (1) month's rent and deduct this amount from your rent payments;

(n) If there are major defects in the housing unit that make the unit a threat to your health or safety you may ask for immediate repairs or to be relocated to another unit. If management does not make repairs or relocate you, within a reasonable time, you may stop paying rent and pay only reasonable rental value for your unit.

(o) You must physically occupy your unit within seven days after being admitted to the center and must continue to physically occupy the unit until you leave the center. If you leave the unit vacant for more than seven days and there are other eligible families waiting for housing, management may lease your unit to another family. Management may, at their discretion, permit you to leave the unit vacant for a longer period of time.

(p) Comply with other rights and obligations agreed upon by management and the Resident Council and approved by the California Department of Housing and Community Development;

(q) You and your guests, upon advance notice to management, may use the common facilities of the Migrant Center for meetings or other lawful activities which do not interfere with other activities or the rights of other residents;

(r) You and your guests have a right to privacy;

(s) Management may not retaliate against you for any lawful action including exercising the rights given you under this handbook and/or the laws of the United States or the State of California.

RULES, REGULATIONS AND POLICIES

You and management both agree to follow the written rules, regulations, laws and policies governing the Migrant Centers. Local management rules and policies may be changed only if residents are given 30 days written notice of changes. The following rules and regulations are to be made available to you in English and in the language spoken by the majority of residents:

(a) Schedule of Rents;

(b) Schedule of Maintenance and Repair Charges;

(c) Occupancy and Eligibility Policies;

(d) Local Management Rules, Regulations and Policies;

(e) Grievance Procedures;

(f) Department of Housing and Community Development, Office of Migrant Services Regulations.

INSPECTION

When you move in, you must be provided with an inventory list detailing the condition of the unit and the equipment provided with the unit. The list is to be signed by both you and the management. If you disagree as to the conditions of the unit or its equipment, you should note this on the list before, or as soon after moving in as possible. Both you and the management are to keep a copy of this inventory. This list will help in determining how much of your security deposit will be returned to you.

ENTRY OF RESIDENCE DURING TENANCY

Management may enter only during reasonable hours with either your permission or that of an adult member of your family. If management reasonable suspects an emergency exists, such as a fire, management may enter at any time.

After giving 24 hours written notice, management may enter your units to inspect, repair, maintain, or show it to others interested in renting the unit after you leave. This notice is not required if you requested such entry.

You shall not unreasonably deny management permission to enter your unit.

TERMINATION OF LEASE

You may end your lease at any time. Rent is only paid for the period you actually occupied the housing unit. And unused rent shall be returned to you. If you give at least three (3) days notice of intent to vacate the center, management must, on the day you move out, return the unused rent to you. If you do not give at least three (3) days notice of intent to leave, management has two (2) weeks within which to send the unused rent to your forwarding address. In the event you do not give management a forwarding address, management shall hold your unused rent for six months and return it to you if you pick it up or provide a forwarding address within six months. After six months, the rent is forfeited. If management must hold your unused rent, it will not entitle you to preference in admission to the housing center the next year.

Management may require you to move out if you have seriously or repeatedly violated important terms of the lease agreement such as not paying rent; serious interference with the rights of other migrant residents; knowingly giving false statements of important facts to management concerning your eligibility for migrant housing; or for other good cause.

In order for management to begin termination of this lease, it must give you or an adult member of your household a written notice stating the reason(s) for termination and notifying you of your right to request a hearing as allowed under the grievance procedure.

If you have not paid your rent, management shall give you a seven (7) day notice to either pay the rent or move out. If your actions cause an immediate threat to the health and safety of the other residents, the management shall give you a reasonable time to move out, but not less than three (3) days.

In all other cases, 14 days notice shall be given to either comply with the terms of the lease or move out.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

If you and management disagree as to the rights and obligations under the lease, including the right of management to terminate your lease, these disagreements will be settled through the complaint and grievance procedure in the regulations of the Office of Migrant Services. You may not use the grievance procedure if management terminates your lease because your actions cause an immediate threat to the health and safety of your neighbors.

Article 4. Complaint and Grievance Procedure

§ 7630. Complaint and Grievance.

All grievances of residents of migrant housing centers shall be resolved in accordance with the procedure set forth in this Article. A grievance is any factual or legal dispute which a resident may have with respect to contractor action or failure to act, in accordance with the lease, contractor policies, these regulations, or law which adversely affect the resident's rights, duties, welfare, or status. Failure to present a grievance shall not bar its use in any judicial proceeding.

Except in cases involving eviction of the resident, a resident may not request a grievance hearing until he/she has taken both of the following actions personally or through the tenant council:

(a) First, the resident must submit a written complaint to contractor. Contractor must respond, in writing, within 10 days after receiving the written complaint.

(b) If the problem has not been resolved after the resident has received contractor's written response or after the time for contractor to respond has passed, the resident must submit a written complaint to the department. The department must respond in writing within 10 days after receiving the written complaint. After the department has responded in writing or after the time to respond has passed, the resident may then request a grievance hearing, if the dispute has not been settled.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 2-26-82; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 82, No. 9).

§ 7632. Presentation of Grievance.

The resident shall personally present a grievance to the resident's migrant housing center manager or to the contractor's main office. For purposes of this section, grievances shall be accepted by the center manager until 5:00 p.m. The resident shall present the grievance within three (3) working days from receipt of notice in the case of a termination. In a case other than a termination, the resident must have complied with the procedures in Section 7630, and must present the grievance within 3 days after receiving a written response from the department or, if no response is received, within 3 days after the time for the department to respond has passed. The grievance may be presented orally or in writing. The contractor may request that an oral grievance be confirmed in writing by the resident. The contractor and the resident and any representative of either may discuss the grievance informally and attempt to settle the grievance without a hearing.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of NOTE filed 2-26-82; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 82, No. 9).

§ 7635. Selection of Hearing Officer or Panel.

Grievances not resolved informally in accordance with Sections 7630, 7632 and 7633 shall be presented before a hearing officer or hearing panel. A hearing officer or panel shall be selected as follows:

(a) The hearing officer shall be an impartial, disinterested person selected jointly by the resident and the contractor.

(b) In the event they cannot agree, each will pick one member of a hearing panel, and the members so appointed shall select a third member. If the members appointed by the resident and the contractor cannot agree upon a third member, then the third member shall come from a community based organization mutually agreed upon by the contractor and the resident council.

(c) In lieu of the procedure set forth in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a contractor may provide for the appointment of hearing officer or hearing panel by any method which is approved by the majority of the tenant council.

(d) In the event the hearing officers or members of the hearing panel are not fluent in the language most readily understood and spoken by the resident, the contractor will make a reasonable good faith effort to provide a translator for the benefit of all parties involved.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of NOTE filed 2-26-82; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 82, No. 9).

§ 7637. Due Process Hearing.

At and before the hearing, the resident shall be entitled to:

(a) Examine before the hearing any documents, regulations, and records of the contractor relevant to the hearing. The contractor may not, at the hearing, rely on any document requested by the resident before the hearing, but not made available to the resident. If the resident prevails, the cost of copying such documents shall be paid by the contractor;

(b) Be represented by counsel or other person chosen by the resident as his or her representative;

(c) Request a private or public hearing;

(d) Present evidence and arguments in support of the grievance, controvert evidence relied on by the contractor and confront and cross-examine all witnesses on whose testimony or information the contractor relies.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of NOTE filed 2-26-82; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 82, No. 9).

§ 7638. Non-Appearance.

If either party or his/her representative fails to appear at a scheduled hearing, the hearing officer or panel may decide that the non-appearing party has waived his/her right to a hearing and shall notify the parties of the decision. The hearing may be continued to a later date, but no more than five (5) days, for a good cause.

If the resident does not appear, he can, within five (5) days request that the hearing be re-opened and any decision already made by the hearing officer or panel be stayed. Such request shall be granted if the resident makes a showing of good cause for his non-appearance.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 2-26-82; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 82, No. 9).

§ 7639. Hearing Procedure, Evidence and Transcript.

(a) The hearing officer or panel shall conduct the hearing informally. At the hearing, the resident shall first explain why he or she is entitled to the relief sought in the grievance. Thereafter, the contractor shall sustain the burden of justifying its action or failure to act against which the grievance is directed.

(b) Oral or documentary evidence relevant to the facts and issues raised by the grievance may be received without regard to admissibility under judicial rules of evidence, but with appropriate regard to credibility, authenticity, relevance, and materiality.

(c) Either party may arrange for a transcript of the hearing at the party's own expense. Any other interested person may purchase a copy of the transcript if the resident who requested the grievance so permits. Alternatively, upon the request of the resident, the hearing may be tape-recorded and the tape recording will be the official record of the hearing and available as set forth herein.

(d) Except as otherwise provided by this grievance procedure, or as otherwise provided by agreement of the parties in writing, the hearing procedure, the hearing decision, and enforcement of the decision shall be governed by the California statutes relating to arbitration agreements and awards, Code of Civil Procedure, Section 1280 et seq.

§ 7640. Hearing Decision.

(a) The hearing officer or panel may render a decision without proceeding with the hearing if the hearing officer or panel determines that the issue presented by the grievance has been previously decided in another proceeding.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (a) above, the hearing officer or panel shall render a decision based solely on the facts presented at the hearing or by a statement of facts agreed to by the parties.

(c) The hearing decision shall be written, shall state the reasons for the decision and shall be sent to the parties within seven (7) working days after the hearing.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 2026082; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 82, No. 9).

§ 7642. Eviction Actions.

(a) If the grievance involves a contractor notice of termination of tenancy and if the resident has requested a hearing within the time limits specified above, then the contractor shall not file an unlawful detailer action until:

(1) the hearing officer or panel has upheld the contractor's action to terminate the tenancy or the hearing has been waived by the resident's non-appearance;

(2) the hearing decision has been sent to the resident; and

(3) the contractor has sent to the resident a written notice to vacate the premises, following the decision.

(b) The notice to vacate the premises shall specify that if the resident fails to quit the premises within five (5) days, the contractor will file an unlawful detainer action against the resident in court, and the resident may be required to pay court costs.

Article 5. Rent Raises

§ 7650. Rent Schedule.

(a) The Department shall establish a schedule of rents, which shall govern the amount of rent paid by residents for occupancy of units in migrant housing centers.

(b) The schedule of rents shall be established from a statewide base for the 1998 on–season of a rent rate of seven dollars and fifty cents per day for a two–bedroom dwelling.

(c) If the Department determines that it is necessary, the Department shall establish a modified base rent for a two–bedroom dwelling unit, which may be as low as four dollars per day. The necessity to modify the base rent shall be determined based on factors which include, but are not limited to, the condition of the units; the funding level appropriated by the Legislature for the purposes of the Department; or the availability of other funds which subsidize the operation of the center. At the request of the Department, the contractor shall provide information necessary for this determination. Decreases in the base rent established pursuant to this subsection shall be rounded to the nearest twenty–five cents.

(d)(1) In order to assess whether a rent adjustment is necessary for the subsequent fiscal year, the Department shall develop a Projected Operating Fiscal Need. The Projected Operating Fiscal Need shall be the difference between the Projected Operating Costs and the Projected Available Operating Funding for the subsequent fiscal year, each of which is determined as follows:

(A) Total Projected Operating Costs for the subsequent fiscal year shall be determined as follows:

(1) The current fiscal year operating budget, with modifications based on cost trends from the two prior fiscal years' actual operating costs, and further adjusted to account for increases or decreases in the total number of units projected to be available for the subsequent fiscal year;

(2) The total amount of deferred rehabilitation and repairs anticipated to be funded during the subsequent fiscal year; and

(3) The total amount estimated to be necessary for an emergency contingency fund, not to exceed 5 percent of the total amounts of subparagraphs (1) and (2).

(B) Total Projected Available Operating Funding for the subsequent fiscal year shall be determined as follows:

(1) The current fiscal year's State General Fund appropriation for operations;

(2) The projected rent revenues and resources available at the end of the current fiscal year which were not allocated in a contract;

(3) The projected rent revenue to be remitted to the Department during the subsequent fiscal year, based upon the current schedule of rents;

(4) Any carry–over funds from Health and Safety Code Section 50710.1 reserves available at the beginning of the current fiscal year; and

(5) Projected additional private, local, State and federal revenues available for the subsequent fiscal year.

(2) If a Projected Operating Fiscal Need exists for the subsequent fiscal year, the Department shall seek funds from appropriate and available sources including, but not limited to, private, local, State and federal revenue sources. If the Department determines that sufficient funds will not be available from all revenue sources in the amount necessary to fully offset the Projected Operating Fiscal Need, the Department shall assess the need to keep all units open for the full duration of the on–season and thereafter may either adjust the schedule of rents in an amount equal to fully fund the Projected Operating Fiscal Need or in a lesser amount if any projected operating costs can be reduced by reducing any component of operating costs or the availability of units.

(3)(A) The Department, through its Contractors, shall notify affected residents by written notice no less than 60 days prior to the effective day of the proposed schedule of rents. In addition, the Department shall instruct its Contractors to concurrently post the notice in a visible place at the migrant center. The residents and public shall have a 20–day comment period after the notice in which to respond to the new proposed schedule of rents. The notice shall inform the residents of their rights to inspect and copy records on file with the Department's Contractor which are related to the request throughout this 20–day comment period. Upon completion of the 20–day comment period without formal challenge, the Department shall cause a 30–day notice to be served on the affected residents of the effective date of the new schedule of rents; however, the new schedule of rents shall not become effective prior to the beginning of the subsequent fiscal year.

(B) If the residents or residents' representative(s) file a notice with the Department opposing the proposed schedule of rents, the Department shall consider all opposing comments and make a formal determination to either adjust the proposed schedule of rents or accept the proposed schedule of rents. Thereafter, the Department shall cause a 30–day notice to be served on the affected residents of the effective date of the new schedule of rents and the amounts thereof.

(4) In addition to the other provisions of this subdivision (d), and after 30 days' written notice, the Department may impose an additional rent rate adjustment increase or decrease during the fiscal year if the amount of the General Fund appropriation for operating costs in the final State Budget is significantly different than that provided in the determination of the Projected Operating Fiscal Need.

(e) When establishing the 1998 on–season base rent, an additional fifty cents ($.50) per day shall be charged for a three–bedroom unit, and an additional one dollar ($1.00) per day shall be charged for a four–bedroom or larger unit. In any year, any household which occupies more than one two–bedroom unit shall pay one dollar ($1.00) per day for the second two–bedroom unit, in accordance with Section 7612 occupancy standards.

§ 7653. Special Rent Increases.

(a) The Department shall approve a contractor-initiated rent increase of up to $1 per day per unit at a migrant housing center if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The Contractor provides to the resident council for review and written comment a demonstration of a significant and critical need for the rent increase. Items which may create such a need include health and safety repairs, rehabilitation, maintenance of units, and increase in operating costs, other than personnel or administration. The resident council shall provide comments within 30 days of receipt of demonstration.

(2) After the resident-council provides written comments and at least 30 days prior to a hearing on the proposed rent increase, the contractor provides the residents and the resident council with a written notice, approved by the Department, which sets forth the proposed amount and specific purposes of the increase, and the time and date of the hearing at which the residents may comment on the amount and purposes of the increase. The Department shall approve or disapprove the proposed notice in writing within 30 days of a request for a review from the contractor. The hearing shall be held at the center for which the rent increase is proposed, and the written comments of the resident council shall be made available for review by the residents.

(3) Following the hearing, the contractor provides the Department with the following items:

(A) A written summary of all written and oral comments by residents and by resident council and a resolution from the resident council regarding the rent increase and its purpose;

(B) A detailed justification for the cost and nature of actions which address the items comprising the need for the rent increase;

(C) Any other relevant information the contractor may wish to provide.

(4) The Department provides written approval or disapproval of all or part of the rent increase within 30 days of the receipt of the items required in subsection (a)(3). The Department's approval shall be based on a determination that the need and the costs of activities, which address the items comprising the need, are reasonable and valid.

(5) Upon receipt of Department approval of the increase, the contractor provides at least 30 days written notice to each resident and the resident council of the increase. This provision does not apply if the contractor implements the increase in rent at the beginning of the next season following receipt of Department approval; however, the contractor shall provide written notice of the following to each resident at the time of the execution of the lease:

(1) the amount of rent increase from the previous season; and

(2) the standard used to calculate the increase.

(b) The Department shall approve a resident council initiated rent increase of up to $1.00 per day per unit at a migrant housing center if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The resident council provides notice to the migrant center residents of the discussion of a special rent increase 15 days prior to the resident council meeting at which the special rent increase will be discussed. The resident council meeting shall be a public hearing, at which residents in attendance shall have the opportunity to vote on the proposed special rent increase.

(2) Following the resident council meeting, the resident council shall provide to the contractor for review and written comment a demonstration of a significant and critical need for the rent increase. Items which may create such a need include health and safety repairs, rehabilitation, maintenance of units, and increase in operating costs, other than personnel or administration. The contractor shall provide the resident council with comments and recommendations within 15 days of receipt of the demonstration.

(3) Within 15 days of the resident council approval of comments and recommendations from the contractor, the contractor provides the Department with the following items:

(A) A written summary of all written and oral comments by the residents and by the resident council, a record of the vote by center residents in attendance at the public hearing, and a resolution from the resident council regarding the rent increase and its purpose;

(B) A detailed justification for the cost and nature of actions which address the items comprising the need for the rent increase;

(C) Any other relevant information the contractor may wish to provide.

(4) The Department provides written approval or disapproval of all or part of the rent increase within 30 days of the receipt of the items required in subsection (b)(3). The Department's approval shall be based on a determination that the need and the costs of activities, which address the items comprising the need, are reasonable and valid. The Department shall consider whether the requirements of this subsection have been met and whether the need and the cost of activities addressing the need are reasonable and valid.

(5) Upon receipt of Department approval of the increase, the contractor provides at least 30 days written notice to each resident and the resident council of the increase. This provision does not apply if the contractor implements the increase in rent at the beginning of next on-season following receipt of Department approval; however, the contractor shall provide written notice of the following to each resident at the time of the execution of the lease:

(1) the amount of rent increase from the previous season; and

(2) the standard used to calculate the increase.

(c) Any funds collected pursuant to this section shall be obligated by the Department for use at the center from which they originated, and shall not supplant any other funds that would have been allocated to the center for operations or rehabilitation costs. The contractor shall have primary responsibility for accounting for funds collected pursuant to this section; shall remit the funds collected to the Department; and shall report the name of the center from where the special rents were collected, the date the special rents were collected (less any rent refunds) and the net amount remitted to the Department. Rent collected under this section shall be remitted by the contractor to the Department by the tenth (10th) of each month. Upon receipt of the Department's approval, the contractor shall hold special rents in a special OMS Resident fund account and shall disburse the special rent funds only for the use for which the special rent was authorized. The contractor shall provide a detailed reporting of the funds received and expended as required by the Department.

5. Certificate of Compliance as to 2–5–90 and 3–5–90 orders including amendment of subsections (a) and (c) transmitted to OAL 5–22–90 and filed 5–29–90 (Register 90, No. 29).

§ 7671. Definitions.

In addition to the definitions found in chapter 2 (commencing with section 50050), of part 1 of division 31 of the Health and Safety Code and subchapter 2 (commencing with section 6910) of chapter 6.5 of this Title, the following definitions shall apply to this subchapter. In the event of a conflict between these definitions and those, these definitions prevail for the purposes of this subchapter:

(a) "Assisted unit" means a dwelling unit, or a residential hotel unit, or a bedroom in a group home or congregate home, designated for occupancy or occupied by eligible households.

(b) "Congregate home" means a single–family house occupied by two or more households, each of which is capable of independent living but which chooses to live in one dwelling unit and to share the household responsibilities, including the maintenance of the structure and other responsibilities.

(c) "Conversion" means the alteration of nonresidential space within an existing structure to dwelling units or residential hotel units in a rental housing development.

(d) "Debt service coverage ratio" means the ratio of (1) operating income less operating expenses to (2) debt service payments, excluding prepayments.

(e) "Direct or supportive tenant services" means meals, transportation, recreational and social activities, independent living training, vocational training, counseling, and similar services provided or organized by the sponsor or its agent.

(f) "Director" means the Director of the Department of Housing and Community Development.

(g) "Distributions" means the amount of cash or other benefits received from the operation of the rental housing development and available to be distributed pursuant to section 7684 to the sponsor or any party having a beneficial interest in the sponsor entity, after payment of all due and outstanding obligations incurred in connection with the rental housing development. Distributions do not include payments for debt service, principal repayment, operations, maintenance, payments to required reserve accounts, property management or other services as set forth in the Regulatory Agreement for the rental housing development.

(h) "Eligible households" means very low–income households or other lower income households.

(i) "Fiscal integrity" means that the total of operating income plus funds released pursuant to the Regulatory Agreement from the operating reserve account is sufficient to (1) pay all current operating expenses, (2) pay all current debt service, (3) fully fund for at least twelve consecutive months all reserve accounts (other than the operating reserve account) established pursuant to the Regulatory Agreement, (4) maintain a debt service coverage ratio as specified in the Regulatory Agreement, and (5) pay other extraordinary costs permitted by the Regulatory Agreement. The ability to pay any or all of the annual permitted distribution shall not be considered in determining fiscal integrity.

(j) "Fund" means the same as defined in section 8878.16(c) of the Government Code.

(k) "Group home" means a residential structure or structures where two or more handicapped persons or households reside in a group living arrangement and receive direct and supportive services provided under the supervision or oversight of the local public official responsible for services to the designated tenant population, including a residential facility as defined by section 1502 of the Health and Safety Code. Intermediate care or skilled nursing facilities are not considered group homes and are not eligible for funding. For purposes of this definition "handicapped" means a family in which the head of the household is suffering from an orthopedic disability impairing personal mobility or a physical disability affecting his or her ability to obtain employment or a single person with such an orthopedic or physical disability, where the family or person requires special care or facilities in the home; or person requires special care or facilities in the home; or a family in which the head of household suffers from a developmental disability specified in subdivision (a) of section 4512 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or a mental disorder which would render him or her eligible to participate in programs of rehabilitation or social services conducted by or on behalf of a public agency, or a single person with such a developmental disability or mental disorder.

(l) "Household income" means the same as "gross income" as defined in section 6914 of this Title.

(m) "Initial operating year" means the first year of operation, or portion thereof, of the rehabilitated rental housing development beginning at the time of initial occupancy of an assisted unit and ending on the last day of the fiscal year of that development.

(n) "Limited equity housing cooperative" means an entity defined by section 50076.5 of the Health and Safety Code. All requirements in this subchapter shall be applicable to units and residents of limited equity housing cooperatives unless the context indicates otherwise.

(o) "Local agency" means the same as defined in section 8878.16(d) of the Government Code.

(p) "Lower income household" means persons or families as defined in section 50079.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(q) "Nonprofit corporation" or "nonprofit sponsor" means the same as "nonprofit corporation" as defined in section 50091 of the Health and Safety Code.

(r) "Operating expenses" means the amount approved by the department that is necessary to pay for the essential recurring expenses of the project, such as utilities, maintenance, management, taxes, and licenses, and mandatory direct or supportive tenant services but not including debt service, required reserve account deposits, or costs for voluntary direct or supportive tenant services.

(s) "Operating income" means all income generated in connection with the operation of the rental housing development including rental income for assisted and non–assisted units, rental income from nonresidential space, laundry and equipment rental fees, rental subsidy payments, and interest on any accounts related to the rental housing development. "Operating income" does not include security and equipment deposits, payments for direct or supportive tenant services that tenants are not required to pay for as a condition of occupancy, or tax benefits received by the sponsor.

(t) "Potentially hazardous building" means the same as defined in section 8875(a) of the Government Code.

(u) "Program" means the California Housing Rehabilitation Program.

(v) "Project" means a rental housing development, the rehabilitation, or rehabilitation and acquisition, and operation thereof, using program funds, and the financing structure and all agreements and documentation approved in connection therewith.

(w) "Reconstruction" means replacing an existing residential structure with a rental housing development of similar type, with not less than an equal number of units and bedrooms and level of amenities.

(x) "Rehabilitation" means repairs and improvements to a substandard rental housing development necessary to correct defects causing it to be a substandard building pursuant to section 17920.3 of the Health and Safety Code, and to meet rehabilitation standards as defined in section 50097 of the Health and Safety Code. Rehabilitation also includes reconstruction or conversion.

(y) "Rent" means all mandatory charges, other than deposits, paid by the tenant for the use and occupancy of an assisted unit and any mandatory charge for direct or supportive tenant services in a rental housing development, whether the units are rented or operated as a limited equity housing cooperative. In a group home, when mandatory charges include direct or supportive tenant services, "rent" means that amount designated for room charges by the Department of Social Services or other agency responsible for services to the designated tenant population.

(z) "Rent-up costs" means costs incurred in connection with marketing and preparing an assisted unit for occupancy while the unit is on the housing market but not rented to its first tenant.

(aa) "Rental housing development" means the same as defined in section 50668.5(h) of the Health and Safety Code and includes housing for the elderly or handicapped as authorized in section 50669 of the Health and Safety Code.

(bb) "Rural area" means the same as defined in section 50101 of the Health and Safety Code.

(cc) "Seismic rehabilitation improvements" means the same as defined in section 50668.5(b)(5) of the Health and Safety Code.

(dd) "Substandard rental housing development" means a structure or structures used or intended to be used as a rental housing development which is a substandard building pursuant to section 17920.3 of the Health and Safety Code.

(ee) "Very low-income household" means persons or families as defined in section 50105 of the Health and Safety Code.

2. New section refiled 10-6-89 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 10-10-89 (Register 89, No. 42). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 2-7-90.
3. New section refiled 2-5-90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 2-7-90 (Register 90, No. 12). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 6-7-90.
4. Amendment filed 3-5-90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g); operative 3-5-90 (Register 90, No. 12). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 7-3-90.
5. Certificate of Compliance as to 2-5-90 and 3-5-90 orders including amendment of subsections (b), (f), (k), (l), (s), (w), (x), (y), (aa), (cc) and (dd) transmitted to OAL 5-22-90 and filed 5-29-90 (Register 90, No. 29).

Article 2. Program Requirements

§ 7672. Eligible Project.

(a) To be eligible for funding, a proposed project must involve one or more of the following structures:

(1) a substandard rental housing development that will have one or more assisted units;

(2) a rental housing development eligible for seismic rehabilitation improvements pursuant to section 7675;

(3) an existing structure that will undergo a conversion and will have one or more assisted units; or

(4) an existing substandard residential structure that will undergo reconstruction and will have one or more assisted units.

(b) To be eligible for funding, a proposed project must involve either rehabilitation or seismic rehabilitation improvements.

(c) To be eligible for funding, a proposed group home project must have the written support of the local official responsible for services to the designated tenant population in the jurisdiction in which the proposed project is located, such as the Mental Health Director or Regional Center Director, and must be designated by that local official as being an intrinsic part of that agency's established service delivery system.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 6-12-89 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code Section 50668.5(g); operative 6-12-89 (Register 89, No. 24). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or the regulation will be repealed on 10-10-89. For history of former subchapter 8 (sections 7700-7714.5, not consecutive), see Register 85, No. 33.
2. New section refiled 10-6-89 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 10-10-89 (Register 89, No. 42). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 2-7-90.
3. New section refiled 2-5-90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 2-7-90 (Register 90, No. 12). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 6-7-90.
4. New subsection (c) filed 3-5-90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g); operative 3-5-90 (Register 90, No. 12). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 7-3-90.
5. Certificate of Compliance as to 2-5-90 and 3-5-90 orders including amendment of subsection (c) transmitted to OAL 5-22-90 and filed 5-29-90 (Register 90, No. 29).

§ 7673. Eligible Sponsor.

(a) A sponsor shall be any individual, joint venture, partnership, limited partnership, trust, corporation, limited equity housing cooperative, local public entity, duly constituted governing body of an Indian reservation or rancheria, or other legal entity, or any combination thereof meets the requirements of subdivision (c).

(b) A sponsor may be organized on a for-profit, including limited profit, or nonprofit basis.

(c) In order to be eligible for funding, an applicant must be a sponsor who:

(1) demonstrates ability or experience relevant to owning, rehabilitating, and operating rental housing through any of the following:

(A) prior ownership, rehabilitation and operation of rental housing;

(B) staff with demonstrated ability or experience owning, rehabilitating and operating rental housing; or

(C) contracting with a consultant or consultants with demonstrated ability or experience assisting with the owning, rehabilitation and operation of rental housing; and

(2) has site control of the proposed project property by one of the following:

(A) fee title;

(B) a leasehold interest on the project property with provisions that enable the lessee to make improvements on and encumber the property provided that the terms and conditions of any proposed lease shall permit compliance with all program requirements;

(C) an option to purchase or lease;

(D) a disposition and development agreement with a public agency;

(E) a land sales contract, or other enforceable agreement for the acquisition of the property.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 6–12–89 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g); operative 6–12–89 (Register 89, No. 24). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or the regulation will be repealed on 10–10–89. For history of former subchapter 8 (sections 7700–7714.5, not consecutive), see Register 85, No. 33.
2. New section refiled 10–6–89 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 10–10–89 (Register 89, No. 42). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 2–7–90.
3. New section refiled 2–5–90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 2–7–90 (Register 90, No. 6). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 6–7–90.
4. Amendment of subsections (a) and (c) filed 3–5–90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g); operative 3–5–90 (Register 90, No. 12). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 7–3–90.
5. Certificate of Compliance as to 2–5–90 and 3–5–90 orders including amendment of subsections (a) and (c) transmitted to OAL 5–22–90 and filed 5–29–90 (Register 90, No. 29).

§ 7674. Eligible Uses of Funds.

(a) Funds may be used only for eligible costs that are incurred on the project as set forth in this section. In addition, the costs must be necessary and must be consistent with the lowest reasonable cost given consistent with the project's scope and area.

(b) Eligible categories of costs include the following:

(1) acquisition of project property, including existing improvements, and costs related to such acquisition;

(2) refinancing of that amount of debt existing at the time of application which is necessary to achieve rents for low– and very–low income tenants in accordance with program requirements and costs related thereto;

(3) reconstruction, when the estimated cost including demolition, construction and related activities is less than the estimated cost of rehabilitation of the rental housing development;

(4) conversion when the resulting units are of modest design and with modest amenities and when the estimated total rehabilitation cost is less than the new construction cost of comparable units in the area;

(5) costs of rehabilitation necessary to correct code violations and those costs directly related to the correction of code violations;

(6) general costs required to correct unsafe, unhealthy and unsanitary conditions, and which are directly related to the project, including the following:

(A) general property improvements when the sponsor can demonstrate that such improvements are integral to the project;

(B) work related to protecting the physical security;

(C) work related to reducing long-term maintenance costs;

(D) other on–site and off–site improvements.

(7) seismic rehabilitation improvements, and work directly related thereto pursuant to section 7675;

(8) architectural, appraisal, engineering, legal and other consulting costs and fees, which are directly related to the planning and execution of the project and which are incurred through third–party contracts;

(9) administrative expenses pursuant to section 7680;

(10) rent–up costs;

(11) carrying costs during construction, including insurance, financing, and taxes;

(12) building permits and state and local fees;

(13) work lawfully required by a governmental entity which is reasonably required as a condition of project approval to correct unsafe, unhealthy or unsanitary conditions;

(14) relocation benefits and assistance to lower income residential tenants displaced as a result of acquisition and/or rehabilitation. All other temporary and permanent relocation benefits specified in section 7685 are not eligible uses of program funds;

(15) escrow, title insurance, recording and other related costs.

(c) If only a portion of the rental housing development consists of assisted units, funds from the fund may be used for the costs of all items specified in subdivision (b) associated exclusively with the assisted units. They may also be used for a share of the cost of such items that cannot specifically be allocated to either assisted units or non–assisted units or nonresidential space. This share shall not exceed an amount in direct proportion to the ratio between the gross floor area of the assisted units and the total gross floor area of the structure. No program funds may be used for costs associated exclusively with non–assisted units or nonresidential space except pursuant to section 7675.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 6–12–89 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g); operative 6–12–89 (Register 89, No. 24). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or the regulation will be repealed on 10–10–89. For history of former subchapter 8 (sections 7700–7714.5, not consecutive), see Register 85, No. 33.
2. New section refiled 10–6–89 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 10–10–89 (Register 89, No. 42). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 2–7–90.
3. New section refiled 2–5–90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 2–7–90 (Register 90, No. 6). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 6–7–90.
4. Amendment of subsections (a), (b)(2) and (c) filed 3–5–90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g); operative 3–5–90 (Register 90, No. 12). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 7–3–90.
5. Certificate of Compliance as to 2–5–90 and 3–5–90 orders including amendment transmitted to OAL 5–22–90 and filed 5–29–90 (Register 90, No. 29).

§ 7675. Seismic Rehabilitation Improvements.

(a) To be eligible to receive program funds for seismic rehabilitation improvements, a project must:

(1) be located within the jurisdiction of a local agency that has completed an inventory of unreinforced masonry buildings and has adopted a seismic mitigation program or ordinance pursuant to section 8875.2 of the Government Code or section 19163 of the Health and Safety Code;

(2) involve a structure which is identified as a potentially hazardous building by the local agency in which it is located; and

(3) involve a structure that contains, or will contain, at least six dwelling or residential hotel units, where at least 70 percent of all dwelling or residential hotel units will be assisted units and at least 50 percent of the total gross floor area will be used for residential purposes.

(b) Only program funds allocated pursuant to Government Code section 8878.20 may be used for seismic rehabilitation improvements and work directly related thereto.

(c) If only a portion of the rental housing development consists of assisted units, no program funds shall be used with respect to the nonresidential space or non–assisted units unless both of the following apply:

(1) The funds are used for seismic rehabilitation improvements and work directly related thereto; and

(2) The funded activity is integral to the seismic rehabilitation improvements and work related thereto being performed on the assisted units.

(d) Where program funds are used to pay any costs associated with seismic rehabilitation improvements, and work directly related thereto, of nonresidential space, cash distributions for the entire structure shall be limited in accordance with section 7684.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 6–12–89 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g); operative 6–12–89 (Register 89, No. 24). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or the regulation will be repealed on 10–10–89. For history of former subchapter 8 (sections 7700–7714.5, not consecutive), see Register 85, No. 33.

2. New section refiled 10–6–89 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 10–10–89 (Register 89, No. 42). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 2–7–90.

3. New section refiled 2–5–90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 2–7–90 (Register 90, No. 6). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 6–7–90.

4. Amendment of subsections (a)(1), (c) and (d) filed 3–5–90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g); operative 3–5–90 (Register 90, No. 12). A certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 7–3–90.

5. Certificate of Compliance as to 2–5–90 and 3–5–90 orders including amendment of subsections (c) and (d) transmitted to OAL 5–22–90 and filed 5–29–90 (Register 90, No. 29).

§ 7676. Term of Loan.

(a) For projects involving rehabilitation and either acquisition or refinancing, the initial loan term shall be 30 years. For projects involving only rehabilitation, the initial loan term shall be 20 years.

(b) Upon request by the sponsor, the department shall approve an initial loan term longer than those set forth in subdivision (a) provided that such longer term does not exceed the useful life of the rental housing development as determined by the department utilizing general industry standards.

(c) Upon request by the sponsor, the department may approve one or more ten–year extensions of the loan term, if the department determines prior to granting each extension that both of the following are met:

(1) The sponsor is in compliance with the Regulatory Agreement and agrees to continue to comply during the extended term; and

(2) The extension is necessary to continue operations consistent with program requirements.

(d) The department may condition each extension on such terms as it deems necessary to ensure compliance with the requirements of this program.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 6–12–89 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g); operative 6–12–89 (Register 89, No. 24). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or the regulation will be repealed on 10–10–89. For history of former subchapter 8 (sections 7700–7714.5, not consecutive), see Register 85, No. 33.

2. New section refiled 10–6–89 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 10–10–89 (Register 89, No. 42). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 2–7–90.

3. New section refiled 2–5–90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 2–7–90 (Register 90, No. 6). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 6–7–90.

4. Amendment of subsections (c) and (d) filed 3–5–90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g); operative 3–5–90 (Register 90, No. 12). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 7–3–90.

5. Certificate of Compliance as to 2–5–90 and 3–5–90 orders including amendment of subsection (c) transmitted to OAL 5–22–90 and filed 5–29–90 (Register 90, No. 29).

§ 7677. Maximum Loan Amounts.

(a) The maximum loan amounts shall correspond to the loan limits provided in subdivision (a)(1) of section 7460 of this Title. The amounts for a small apartment unit and for a large apartment unit shall be the same as the limits provided for a small unit and for a large unit. The amounts for a single–family house shall be the same as the limits for a single–family dwelling. (The amounts for a residential hotel unit shall be the same as those limits shown for a residential hotel unit.)

(b) The loan amount is limited to the amount required when considered with other available financing, in order to achieve all of the following:

(1) to enable the rehabilitation and either acquisition or refinancing, or rehabilitation only, of the rental housing development;

(2) to ensure that rents for assisted units are in accordance with program requirements; and

(3) to operate in compliance with all other program requirements.

(c) The total maximum loan amount shall not exceed the number of assisted units multiplied by the maximum loan amount for the unit type as set forth in subdivision (a)(1) of section 7460 and subdivision (a) of this section.

(d) The department may approve a higher loan amount per assisted unit if the sponsor is unable to otherwise finance project costs and the department determines that either of the following circumstances exists:

(1) The higher loan amount for any assisted unit or units is consistent with the lowest reasonable cost of similar projects in the same area meeting minimum rehabilitation or seismic code standards, other eligible and necessary costs, and local building and land use requirements; or

(2) The higher loan amount for any assisted unit or units is necessary to correct severe health and safety defects or to meet handicapped accessibility standards.

For history of former subchapter 8 (sections 7700–7714.5, not consecutive), see Register 85, No. 33.

2. New section refiled 10–6–89 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 10–10–89 (Register 89, No. 42). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 2–7–90.

3. New section refiled 2–5–90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 2–7–90 (Register 90, No. 6). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 6–7–90.

4. Amendment of subsections (a) and (b)(1) filed 3–5–90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g); operative 3–5–90 (Register 90, No. 12). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 7–3–90.

5. Certificate of Compliance as to 2–5–90 and 3–5–90 orders including amendment of subsections (a) and (b) transmitted to OAL 5–22–90 and filed 5–29–90 (Register 90, No. 29).

§ 7678. Interest Rate and Loan Repayments.

(a) Loans shall bear simple interest of three percent per annum on the unpaid principal balance. Interest shall accrue from the date that funds are disbursed by the department to an escrow holder on behalf of the sponsor.

(b) Accrued interest shall be payable annually to the department commencing no later than the sixtieth (60th) day after the last day of the initial operating year and continuing no later than that date annually thereafter until the loan is paid in full.

(c) Upon request by the sponsor, the department may permit periodic payments of principal, provided that the resulting additional debt service will not jeopardize the fiscal integrity of the project or the sponsor's ability to maintain rents in accordance with program requirements. The department may approve a repayment plan at loan closing or any time thereafter, subject to the following:

(1) The repayment plan shall be based on actual or projected net cash flow which shall be calculated by subtracting from total operating income the sum of the amounts necessary for project fiscal integrity plus the amount for the allowable distribution to sponsor pursuant to section 7684.

(2) The repayment plan may include provision for an incentive payment to the sponsor not to exceed the proposed repayment to be applied to the principal. Such payment to the sponsor shall be in addition to the sponsor's permitted distribution pursuant to section 7684.

(3) The additional debt service and any payments to sponsor under this subdivision shall not be included in determining compliance with the project's debt service coverage ratio requirements of Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(d).

(d) Upon request by the sponsor, the department may approve, either at loan closing or any time thereafter, the deferral of accrued interest for such periods and subject to such conditions as may enable the sponsor to maintain affordable rents and maintain the fiscal integrity of the project.

(e) The total amount of the outstanding principal and interest, including deferred interest, shall be due and payable in full to the department at the end of the loan term including any extension granted by the department, or upon the department's termination of the loan.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 6–12–89 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g); operative 6–12–89 (Register 89, No. 24). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or the regulation will be repealed on 10–10–89. For history of former subchapter 8 (sections 7700–7714.5, not consecutive), see Register 85, No. 33.
2. New section refiled 10–6–89 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 10–10–89 (Register 89, No. 42). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 2–7–90.
3. New section refiled 2–5–90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 2–7–90 (Register 90, No. 6). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 6–7–90.
4. Amendment of subsections (a)–(c) filed 3–5–90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g); operative 3–5–90 (Register 90, No. 12). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 7–3–90.
5. Certificate of Compliance as to 2–5–90 and 3–5–90 orders including amendment of subsections (a), (b), and (c) transmitted to OAL 5–22–90 and filed 5–29–90 (Register 90, No. 29).

§ 7679. Loan–to–Value Limits.

(a) The ratio of total indebtedness secured by the project property, including the department's loan, to the total after–rehabilitation value of the project property shall not exceed 90 percent, except when the sponsor is a nonprofit sponsor, in which case the ratio shall not exceed 100 percent. In the event there is a transfer of the project between a for–profit sponsor and a nonprofit sponsor, the loan–to–value ratio applicable to the acquiring party shall apply to the project upon transfer.

(b) The after–rehabilitation value shall be based on an appraisal, undertaken at the sponsor's expense, that

(1) is prepared by an individual who:

(A) has the knowledge and experience necessary to appraise income property competently;

(B) is aware of, understand, and correctly employs those recognized methods and techniques that are necessary to produce a credible appraisal;

(C) in reporting the results of the appraisal, communicates each analysis, opinion, and conclusion in a manner that is not misleading as to the true value and condition of the property;

(D) if developing a business appraisal, is aware of, understands, and correctly employs those recognized methods and techniques that are necessary to produce a credible appraisal;

(E) in reporting the results of a business appraisal, communicates each analysis, opinion, and conclusion in a manner that is not misleading as to the true value and condition of the property.

(2) utilizes all of the following methods to determine value:

(A) sales of comparable developments;

(B) capitalization of income;

(C) replacement cost; and

(3) includes the pre–rehabilitation value, if requested by the department.

(c) The department shall not accept any appraisal that does not conform to the provisions of subdivision (b).

(d) The department shall accept the valuation from the replacement cost method as the after–rehabilitation value of the project property when the department determines that such method accurately reflects sufficient value in the project to meet the loan–to–value limits pursuant to this section.

HISTORY

1. New section filed 6–12–89 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g); operative 6–12–89 (Register 89, No. 24). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or the regulation will be repealed on 10–10–89. For history of former subchapter 8 (sections 7700–7714.5, not consecutive), see Register 85, No. 33.
2. New section refiled 10–6–89 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 10–10–89 (Register 89, No. 42). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 2–7–90.
3. New section refiled 2–5–90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 2–7–90 (Register 90, No. 6). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 6–7–90.
4. Amendment of subsections (b) filed 3–5–90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g); operative 3–5–90 (Register 90, No. 12). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 7–3–90.
5. Certificate of Compliance as to 2–5–90 and 3–5–90 orders including amendment of subsection (b) transmitted to OAL 5–22–90 and filed 5–29–90 (Register 90, No. 29).

§ 7680. Administrative Expenses.

(a) Administrative expenses are those expenses incurred by the sponsor related to the planning and execution of the project. Such expenses include, but are not limited to the following:

(1) salaries, wages, and related costs of the sponsor's staff engaged in the planning and execution of the project, including general legal services, accounting and auditing relating to the sponsor's operations, and financial packaging;

(2) travel costs and other general overhead costs which are attributable to the project;

(3) expenses for sponsor's administrative services performed and paid for under third–party contracts.

(b) Administrative expenses do not include those legal, architectural, engineering, or financial fees which are directly related to the planning and execution of the project and which are incurred by the sponsor through third–party contracts eligible for funding pursuant to section 7674(b)(8).

(c) Sponsors seeking program funds for administrative expenses shall include in their application a statement of administrative expenses incurred to date, and a budget for anticipated administrative expenses. The statement and budget shall include sufficient detail and explanation to permit the department to determine eligibility and reasonableness of the expenses. The department may include in the loan amount those administrative expenses shown in the statement and anticipated budget provided it determines that those expenses are reasonable and necessary considering the nature and scope of the project.

(d) The department shall not fund administrative expenses in excess of 10 percent of the approved loan amount unless the sponsor can demonstrate to the department's satisfaction that costs in excess of this limitation are the result of expenses such as those incurred for architectural, engineering, and legal services, which would otherwise qualify for funding as consultant services pursuant to section 7674 (b)(8).

§ 7681. Occupancy Requirements.

(a) A unit in a rental housing development may be designated as an assisted unit if at the time of initial application:

(1) the unit is occupied by an eligible household;

(2) the unit is vacant and will remain available to an eligible household; or

(3) a noneligible household residing in the unit has agreed not to return to the unit as evidenced by a signed waiver of the tenant's right pursuant to section 7265.3(d) of the Government Code to return to the unit after rehabilitation. Any such waiver must be in writing and meet the notice requirements of section 7685(f).

(b) The sponsor shall designate as assisted units, at a minimum, the same number of units as were reasonably known to be occupied by eligible households residing in the rental housing development at the time of initial application.

(c) All rooms rented in a congregate home, and all rooms designated for use by the client group in a group home shall be designated for occupancy by eligible households.

(d) The size, type and amenity level of assisted units after rehabilitation shall not substantially differ from the size, type, and amenity level of units as were known to be occupied by eligible households residing in the rental housing development at the time of initial application to the program. Units which are reconfigured or enlarged to alleviate overcrowding shall not be considered a violation of this provision.

(e) A proposed project receiving rating points pursuant to section 7689 for serving very low–income households shall reserve at least this number of units for occupancy by very low–income households for the full loan term.

(f) The number, size, type, and amenity level of assisted units, and assisted units designated for very low–income occupancy, shall not be fewer than the number nor substantially different from the size, type and amenity level designated in the Regulatory Agreement for the full loan term.

4. Amendment of subsection (d) filed 3–5–90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g); operative 3–5–90 (Register 90, No. 12). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 7–3–90.
5. Certificate of Compliance as to 2–5–90 and 3–5–90 orders including amendment of subsection (b) transmitted to OAL 5–22–90 and filed 5–29–90 (Register 90, No. 29).

§ 7682. Tenancy Standards.

(a) Sponsors shall select only eligible households as tenants of assisted units. The sponsor shall develop a tenant selection plan for assisted units which shall be subject to the approval of the department. The plan shall include the following:

(1) an affirmative marketing plan which shall include policies and steps to ensure equal access to all housing units in the rental housing development for all persons in any category protected by federal, state or local laws governing discrimination, and regardless of any other arbitrary factor.

(2) reasonable criteria for selection or rejection which shall not discriminate in violation of any federal, state or local laws governing discrimination, or any other arbitrary factor.

(3) prohibition of local residency requirements.

(4) tenant selection procedures that include the following requirements:

(A) selection of tenants based on order of application, lottery or other reasonable method approved by the department;

(B) notification of tenant applicants of eligibility and, based on turnover history, when a unit may be available;

(C) notification of tenant applicants of ineligibility to occupy an assisted unit and the reason for the ineligibility; and

(D) maintenance of a waiting list of eligible households applying to occupy assisted units and if applicable, which distinguishes between lower and very low–income tenants.

(5) tenant occupancy standards that shall be used by the sponsor upon both initial occupancy and recertification to determine a tenant's unit size, as follows:

Unit Size	Minimum No. of Persons in Household
0–BR	1
1–BR	1
2–BR	2
3–BR	4
4–BR	6
5–BR	8

(A) Flexibility for assignment by a sponsor to a different sized unit is permitted if the sponsor reasonably determines that special circumstances warrant such an assignment and the reasons are documented in the tenant's file.

(B) If at the time of recertification, the tenant's household size has changed and no longer meets the minimum occupancy standards pursuant to this subdivision, tenant household shall be required to move to the next available appropriately sized unit pursuant to this subdivision.

(b) The sponsor shall submit for Department approval the form of the rental agreement for assisted units prior to its use. The form shall include the following:

(1) provisions requiring good cause for termination of tenancy. One or more of the following constitutes "good cause:"

(A) failure by the tenant to maintain eligibility under the program;

(B) material noncompliance by the tenant with the lease, including one or more substantial violations of the lease or habitual minor violations of the lease which

1. adversely affect the health and safety of any person or the right of any tenant to the quiet enjoyment of the leased premises and related project facilities;

2. substantially interfere with the management, maintenance, or operation of the rental housing development;

3. result from the failure or refusal to pay, in a timely fashion, rent or other charges when due. Failure or refusal to pay in a timely fashion is a substantial violation of the lease when there is nonpayment of rent or other financial obligations under the lease after a three–day notice to pay rent or quit, but such failure or refusal to pay in a timely fashion is a minor violation if payment is made during the three–day notice period.

(C) material failure by the tenant to carry out obligations under state or local law;

(D) subletting by the tenant of all or any portion of the assisted unit;

(E) actions or conduct of the tenant constituting significant problems which can be reasonably resolved only by eviction of the tenant and for which the sponsor previously notified the tenant that the conduct in question would be considered cause for eviction. These may include the refusal after written notice, to accept reasonable rules or any reasonable changes in the lease or the refusal to recertify income or household size.

(2) a provision requiring that the facts constituting the grounds for any eviction be set forth in the notice provided to the tenant pursuant to state law;

(3) establishment of grievance procedures for hearing complaints of tenants and appeal of management action;

(4) a requirement that the tenant annually recertify household income and size.

(c) If, upon notification of tenant or at the time of recertification, the tenant's household income extends the upper limit for lower income households, the tenant's lease shall terminate six months after the date of recertification and the tenant shall be required to vacate the assisted unit.

(1) If the tenant provides to the sponsor additional evidence which establishes income eligibility prior to the expiration of the six months, the tenant shall not be required to vacate the assisted unit.

(2) Upon determination by the sponsor that the rental housing development is located in a high cost rental area with low rental vacancy rates as determined by the department, the sponsor may approve one additional six-month extension of the lease.

(3) If the assisted unit is subject to state or federal rules governing low-income housing tax credits, those eligibility provisions shall govern continued eligibility for occupancy.

(4) In a limited equity housing cooperative where the household income of a tenant occupying an assisted unit exceeds the upper limit for lower income households, the tenant shall not be required to vacate the assisted unit.

(A) After recertification and determination of ineligibility, the sponsor shall immediately notify the tenant that the rent will increase to a market rate payment six months after said notification. Market rate payment shall be the rent paid for a comparable unassisted unit, or the rent charged for comparable units in the area. This market rate payment shall be subject to department approval.

(B) The next available membership share for occupancy in a comparable unit shall be sold to an eligible household.

(d) If the income of a household residing in a unit designated for occupancy by very low-income households changes from very low-income to other lower income at the time of recertification, the following shall apply:

(1) The household shall not be required to vacate the unit;

(2) The sponsor shall charge rent that does not exceed the highest current rent allowed for any comparable assisted unit designated for occupancy by lower income households pursuant to section 7683, or where there are no such units, the maximum rent which would be allowed pursuant to section 7683;

(3) The sponsor shall designate the unit as an assisted unit for lower income households until the lower income household vacates the unit; and

(4) The sponsor shall designate the next available comparable assisted unit as an assisted unit for very low-income households units the unit mix required by the Regulatory Agreement is achieved.

(5) In a limited equity housing cooperative, where the tenants in an assisted unit designated as a very low-income unit becomes an other lower-income household, the sponsor shall comply with the provisions of subdivisions (d)(1) through (d)(4).

For history of former subchapter 8 (sections 7700-7714.5, not consecutive), see Register 85, No. 33.
2. New section filed 10-6-89 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 10-10-89 (Register 89, No. 42). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed by operation of law on 2-7-90.
3. New section refiled 2-5-90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 2-7-90 (Register 90, No. 6). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed by operation of law on 6-7-90.
4. Amendment of subsections (a)(1)(D) and (E) filed 3-5-90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g); operative 3-5-90 (Register 90, No. 12). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 7-3-90.
5. Certificate of Compliance as to 2-5-90 and 3-5-90 orders including amendment of subsection (b) transmitted to OAL 5-22-90 and filed 5-29-90 (Register 90, No. 29).

§ 7683. Rent Standards.

(a) The department shall establish initial rent for assisted units in each project in accordance with the tables in section 6932 and the following:

(1) Rents for units reserved for occupancy by lower income households shall not exceed 30 percent of 60 percent of the monthly area median income for the household size specified in subsection (a)(2) below at the time of initial occupancy.

(2) The household size to be used in calculating maximum rent shall vary based on unit size as follows:

Unit Size	Applicable Household Size to Determine Income Limit
residential hotel unit or bedroom in a group home or congregate home	75 percent of 1 person, which may be multiplied by 2 for group homes if there are 2 occupants per bedroom
0 bedroom	1 person
1 bedroom	2 person
2 bedrooms	3 person
3 bedrooms	4 persons
4 bedrooms	6 persons
5 bedrooms	8 persons

(3) The maximum rent to be charged to tenants shall be determined by deducting from the maximum amounts calculated pursuant to (a)(1) and (a)(2) a utility allowance (for the appropriate unit size) determined or approved by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, section 1437f, Title 42 U.S.C., for the locality in which the rental housing development is located. Where a tenant does not directly pay for utilities, the utility allowance deduction shall be zero.

(4) As used in this section "rent" does not include any payment to a sponsor under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, section 1437f, Title 42 U.S.C., or any comparable federal or state rental assistance program.

(5) For an assisted unit occupied by an eligible household at the time of initial application to the program, the after-rehabilitation rent may not exceed the greater of (i) the rent charged at the time of initial program application, or (ii) 25% of the subject tenant household's monthly gross income. In no event is the rent to exceed that which could be charged pursuant to subdivision (a)(1), (2), and (3) above.

(b) After the initial operating year, rents in assisted units may be adjusted no more often than annually. The amount of adjustment for assisted units shall be in accordance with the following:

(1) Rents may be increased at a rate not to exceed the most recently published annual average percentage change in the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index, Residential Rent for All Urban Consumers for the West (CPI), multiplied by the ratio of the previous year's budgeted operating expenses plus required reserves to the previous year's operating income attributed to residential units;

(2) In addition to the rent increase allowed pursuant to subdivision (b)(1), rents may be increased by that amount necessary to increase the operating income to cover changes in debt service on an adjustable rate mortgage approved by the department as part of the project;

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions (b)(1) and (b)(2), rents shall be decreased if there are changes in debt service approved by the department after loan closing when such changes improve the financial condition of the project. The rent shall be decreased by an aggregate amount equal to the amount of the monthly payment reduction.

(4) Except as provided in section 7685(e)(1), the first adjustment after the initial operating year shall be prorated based on the allowable rent increase multiplied by the fraction of a full year which constitutes the initial operating year.

(c) The sponsor may request for a greater rent increase if the sponsor can demonstrate, to the department's satisfaction, that the increase is necessary to pay for unusual or unforeseeable increases in costs related to the assisted units and to preserve fiscal integrity. The sponsor may not receive a greater rent increase on the grounds that fiscal integrity is threatened by a shortfall in income, unanticipated expenses or other financial problems attributable to nonresidential space or nonassisted units.

(d) Any allowable rent increase or portion thereof not implemented by the sponsor in any given year may not be accumulated for implementation in subsequent years.

(e) Where the assisted units are rent restricted as a condition of the low-income housing tax credit or other state and federal rent subsidy programs, the initial rent for assisted units and subsequent rent increases shall be the lower of those permitted under subdivisions (a), (b), or (c), or those permitted under the applicable tax credit or other programs.

(f) The sponsor shall submit requests for rent adjustments pursuant to subdivision (c) above as part of the annual operating budget pursuant to section 7696.

§ 7684. Limits on Distributions.

(a) A sponsor shall be limited to an annual distribution on the sponsor's actual investment in the project in an amount not to exceed eight percent per annum. A sponsor may not accumulate distributions from year to year.

(1) For a project involving only rehabilitation and no acquisition or refinancing, actual investment is determined as follows: the market value of the rental housing development prior to rehabilitation, as determined in an appraisal, less outstanding debt prior to rehabilitation, plus any cash contributions to the project made by the sponsor.

(2) For a project involving rehabilitation and either acquisition or refinancing, actual investment is the amount of any cash contributions to the project made by the sponsor. Cash contributions do not include government assistant or private donations, other than the sponsor's, to the project.

(b) In its initial operating budget, the sponsor shall demonstrate to the department the amount of the sponsor's actual investment in the residential portion of the project on which the allowable distribution will be calculated. The actual investment amount may be increased in subsequent budgets upon a showing of additional actual investment other than prepayments of principal advanced by the sponsor.

(c) Distributions shall be permitted only after the sponsor submits a complete annual report and operating budget and the department determines that the report and budget demonstrate compliance with all program requirements for the applicable year.

(d) Distributions attributed to the nonresidential space shall not be subject to limits pursuant to this section, except where program funds have been used for nonresidential space pursuant to section 7675(c). Where program funds have not been used pursuant to section 7675(c), then for purposes of calculating allowable distributions, operating income and expenses shall not include income or expenses from nonresidential space.

(e) No distributions shall be made in the following circumstances:

(1) when written notice of default has been issued by any entity with an equitable or beneficial interest in the rental housing development;

(2) when the department determines that the sponsor has failed to comply with the department's written notice of any reasonable requirement for proper maintenance or operation of the rental housing development;

(3) if all currently required debt service and operating expenses have not been paid;

(4) if the replacement reserve account or any other reserve accounts are not fully funded pursuant to section 7696 and the Regulatory Agreement.

(f) When operating income is greater than approved operating expenses, debt service, scheduled reserve deposits, approved prepayments, approved annual distributions, and any other disbursements approved by the department, then the sponsor shall pay such excess income into the Residual Receipts Account established pursuant to section 7697. Where program funds have not been used for costs attributable to nonresidential space pursuant to section 7675(c) and for purposes of calculating the amount of excess funds pursuant to this subdivision, operating income and expenses shall not include income or expenses from nonresidential space.

For history of former subchapter 8 (sections 7700-7714.5, not consecutive), see Register 85, No. 33.
2. New section refiled 10-6-89 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 10-10-89 (Register 89, No. 42). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 2-7-90.
3. New section refiled 2-5-90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g) and Government Code section 11346.1(h); operative 2-7-90 (Register 90, No. 6). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 6-7-90.
4. Amendment filed 3-5-90 as an emergency pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 50668.5(g); operative 3-5-90 (Register 90, No. 12). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 7-3-90.
5. Certificate of Compliance as to 2-5-90 and 3-5-90 orders including amendment of subsections (a), (b), (d) and (f) transmitted to OAL 5-22-90 and filed 5-29-90 (Register 90, No. 29).

§ 7685. Relocation Requirements.

(a) It shall be the sponsor's responsibility to ensure compliance with the relocation provisions set forth in this section. Loan funds may be used for relocation costs attributable to the lower income tenants as a result of the rehabilitation activities, including the payment of benefits required by this section. The department may authorize increases in the sponsor's approved loan amount for the purpose of paying eligible relocation costs attributable to lower income households, which could not be reasonably foreseen by the sponsor at the time of application. Eligibility and relocation benefits shall be determined as set forth in this section, although additional requirements may be imposed by applicable federal, state, or local laws.

(b) All tenants in occupancy in a property who are permanently displaced as a direct result of an acquisition funded in whole or in part with program funds shall be entitled to relocation benefits as provided in chapter 16 (commencing with section 7260) of division 7, Title 1 of the Government Code.

(c) In the case of an acquisition funded in whole or in part with program funds, all existing residential tenants as well as residential tenants who were in occupancy on the date that the sponsor entered into the binding agreement for the purchase of the property shall be provided with a notice as specified herein no later than the date of application to the department for program funds. The notice shall contain all the following information:

(1) a statement that the sponsor has entered into an agreement to purchase the property;

(2) a statement that the sponsor is applying for public funds for the purpose of acquiring and rehabilitating the property;

(3) a statement that if the sponsor's application is funded and the rehabilitation work requires temporary relocation, all residential tenants will be entitled to return to their units; will be entitled to temporary relocation benefits; and if lower and moderate income, will have any rent increases limited to a total rent of no more than 25 percent of their incomes for a period of one year from the completion of the rehabilitation work;

(4) a statement that all residential tenants who are permanently displaced as a direct result of this acquisition may be entitled to financial benefits, which could include moving expenses and rent differential as required by law;

(5) a statement that if the application is funded, the sponsor will be required as a condition of funding to conduct a tenant survey including verification of tenants' incomes. A tenant's failure to provide complete and accurate information may result in the loss of some of the financial benefits described above;

(6) a statement indicating who to contact for further information or to make a claim.

(d) Any residential tenant who was in occupancy at the time of application to the department for funds and who is displaced to accommodate rehabilitation work shall be provided with temporary housing benefits for a period of up to 90 days, and shall be given the option of returning, after rehabilitation, to the unit from which he or she was displaced.

(e) Any residential tenant whose household income is lower or moderate as defined in section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code shall be entitled to the following benefits and shall be subject to the following additional provisions:

(1) After-rehabilitation rents shall not be raised to a level which exceeds 25 percent of that household's income for 12 months subsequent to the completion of rehabilitation. A tenant whose income is lower or moderate, but refuses to provide the income information necessary to establish rents pursuant to this paragraph shall not be eligible for relocation benefits due to an increase in rent in excess of that permitted by this paragraph. Income surveys to ensure compliance with the requirements of this paragraph and applicable relocation laws shall be completed prior to disbursement of program funds.

(2) A residential tenant or household whose income is lower or moderate shall be entitled to all relocation benefits provided pursuant to chapter 16 (commencing with section 7260) of division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code if such tenant or household is permanently displaced as a direct result of the rehabilitation work.

(3) A residential tenant or household whose income is lower or moderate and whose temporary displacement exceeds 90 days shall be deemed permanently displaced and may elect to receive benefits on a monthly basis while retaining the right to reoccupy the previously occupied unit. When a tenant elects to receive his or her permanent relocation benefits pursuant to this paragraph on a lump sum basis, the tenant shall have waived his or her right to return to the unit upon completion of the rehabilitation.

(f) All residential tenants shall be given a notice which specifies their rights pursuant to this section no later than the time of application to the department for program funds. Any tenant's waiver of a right set forth in this section must be in writing and must specify in detail the relocation rights being waived.

(g) Any nonresidential tenant at the time of application by the sponsor to the department for program funds shall be entitled to relocation assistance and benefits to the extent required by applicable law from funds other than program funds.

(h) The sponsor shall prepare a relocation plan in conformance with the provisions of section 6038(b) of this Title based on the scope of the project and the extent of anticipated displacement. The relocation plan shall be subject to the review and approval of the department prior to the disbursement of program funds.

5. Certificate of Compliance as to 2-5-90 and 3-5-90 orders including amendment of subsections (b), (d) and (e) transmitted to OAL 5-22-90 and filed 5-29-90 (Register 90, No. 29).

§ 7686. Construction Requirements.

(a) The department shall review and underwrite project plans and specifications to ensure the following objectives:

(1) The rental housing development shall have a minimum useful life of 20 years for projects proposing only rehabilitation and 30 years for projects proposing rehabilitation and either acquisition or refinancing; and

(2) Maintenance, repair, and replacement costs shall be minimized during the useful life of the rental housing development.

(b) The sponsor shall ensure that the rehabilitation work for the project all be performed in a competent, professional manner at the lowest reasonable cost consistent with the project's scope and locality and not in excess of the total funds available. The sponsor may demonstrate the reasonableness of the proposed cost by soliciting bids based on a bid package distributed to potential licensed contractors located in the general area of the rental housing development or by the use of other methods which adequately demonstrate to the department's satisfaction that the costs are reasonable. Such bid package or other method shall include at a minimum:

(1) complete plans and specifications for the work; and

(2) a full description of the program requirements for rehabilitation, including the required provisions of the construction contract.

(c) The sponsor shall only enter into written contracts with contractors possessing valid California contractor's licenses. The contract shall be subject to the prior approval of the department to determine compliance with program requirements.

(d) The construction contract shall be a completely integrated agreement containing all the understandings, covenants, conditions and representations between the parties and, at a minimum, contain provisions which:

(1) require that the contractor complete the work in accordance with the approved plans and specifications and applicable local, state and federal laws, regulations and building codes and standards;

(2) require the contractor to proceed with and complete the work in accordance with the approved schedule for work;

(3) specify a total contract price consistent with the approved project budget;

(4) provide for a method of payment to the contract or consistent with program requirements which may include progress payments and retentions;

(5) require that the contractor provide a payment bond securing payment to persons providing goods or services to the project and a performance bond securing faithful completion of the work. Each bond shall be in an amount equal to 50 percent of the total contract price and include the department as a dual obligee. The department may waive the payment and performance bond requirements, or reduce their scope, upon the sponsor's either:

(A) providing alternative security for payment and performance under the construction contract which is substantially equivalent to the bond requirements, or

(B) demonstrating that the bonds, or the full amount thereof, are not necessary to protect the interests of the department and ensure completion of the rehabilitation work;

(6) permit the sponsor and the department and their designated agents and employees the right to inspect the project site and all books, records and documents maintained by the contractor in connection with rehabilitation work;

(7)(A) require the contractor to maintain insurance coverage in the following amounts:

1. Comprehensive General Liability Insurance in a minimum amount of $1,000,000 including: premises, operations, products/completed operations hazard, contractual insurance, independent contractor's protection, and personal injury, or their equivalent;

2. Broad Form Property Damage in a minimum amount of coverage equal to the total of all existing loans secured against the property;

3. Comprehensive Automotive Liability, including bodily injury of $1,000,000 per occurrence and per person and $1,000,000 or the total of existing loans secured against the property, whichever is greater, in Property Damage coverage;

4. Worker's Compensation and Employer's Liability Insurance to the extent required by State law.

(B) require the contractor to provide prior to the commencement of construction proof of coverage as evidenced by a Certificate of Insurance or a binder followed by a Certificate within thirty days.

(C) require all policies to include the sponsor and the department and its officers, agents, and employees, named as additional insureds.

(D) require the policies to include a cancellation clause notifying the department 30 days prior to cancellation of the policies. The department may approve alternate amounts of coverage based on the size of the project and scope of work to be performed.

(8) obligate the contractor to warrant the rehabilitation work for a period of not less than one year;

(9) require that the contractor pay all amounts when due for labor, work performed under subcontract, or materials, supplies and equipment provided to the project;

(10) provide for the assignment of the construction contract to the department upon sponsor's breach of the Rehabilitation Loan Agreement;

(11) include such special conditions applicable to the construction contract as may have been imposed in connection with the department's approval of the project for funding;

(12) require that the general contractor require all subcontractors to maintain similar insurance coverage as mentioned above, with the exception that the subcontractor' insurance need not name the sponsor or the department as additional insureds, and the minimum amount of coverage shall be $500,000.

(e)(1) The sponsor shall insure the property before, during, and after construction at the following minimum levels:

(A) Hazard (property) insurance to include:

1. all risk, or fire and lightning, extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief, or equivalent;

2. coverage of the entire structure to include all risk contents coverage;

3. replacement cost coverage or total value;

4. a maximum deductible per occurrence of $2,500, or $1,000 if the completed project value is less than $300,000;

5. a lenders loss payable endorsement insuring the department.

(B) Other property insurance to include:

1. Flood insurance with coverage insuring to 80% of replacement cost if the property is located in a 100 year flood plain;

2. Steam boiler and related machinery coverage insuring to 80% of replacement cost when applicable.

(C) Comprehensive General Liability insurance coverage, to include $1,000,000 per occurrence or $2,000,000 per occurrence for buildings with elevators.

(D) Other insurance coverage to include Loss of Rents coverage insuring 75% of annual gross rent receipts, and Worker's compensation as required by State law if employees are involved.

(2) The sponsor shall provide to the department prior to disbursement of funds evidence of such insurance coverage in the form of a Certificate of Insurance or binder followed by a certificate within 30 days.

(3) All policies must include the department, its officers, agents, and employees, named as additional insureds.

(4) The policies must include a cancellation clause notifying the department 30 days prior to cancellation of the insurance policy.

(5) The department may approve alternate amounts of coverage based on the size of the project and scope of work to be performed.

5. Certificate of Compliance as to 2–5–90 and 3–5–90 orders including amendment of subsection (b), (c), (d), and (e) transmitted to OAL 5–22–90 and filed 5–29–90 (Register 90, No. 29).

Article 3. Application for Funding Procedures

§ 7687. Application Process.

(a) The department shall issue a Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA) which specifies the amount of funds available, application requirements, the allocation of rating points, and the general terms and conditions of funding commitments. Applications in response to each NOFA will be accepted on a continuous basis.

(b) Within 30 days of the receipt of an application, the department shall provide the applicant with written notice whether the application is complete pursuant to section 7688(c). If the application is not complete, the notice shall specify the information or documentation necessary to complete the application.

(c) Applications shall be ranked at least quarterly.

(d) The department shall process a complete application within 60 days.

(1) Within 30 days of the determination by the department that an application is complete, the department shall provide the applicant with written notice whether the application has qualified for ranking pursuant to section 7689(c). If the application does not qualify for ranking, the notice shall provide an explanation of the rating and of the reasons for disqualification.

(2) Within 30 days of providing notice that an application qualifies pursuant to section 7689(c), the department shall provide the applicant with written notice whether an application qualifies for funding pursuant to section 7689(d). If an application does not qualify for funding, the notice shall include an explanation of the ranking and the reasons for the disqualification.

(e) Projects selected for funding shall be approved at loan amounts, terms, and conditions specified by the department.

(f) The department shall allocate not less than 20 percent of the monies from the fund to projects located in rural areas. If necessary, the department may do the following:

(1) issue a special NOFA for rural projects;

(2) award bonus points to rural projects;

(3) reserve a portion of funds specified in the NOFA for rural projects.

(g) The department's minimum, median, and maximum times for processing an application, from the receipt of the initial application to the final funding decision are as follows:

minimum: 60 days

median: 120 days

maximum: 180 days

b. List below all services to be provided project residents beyond those customarily provided in furnished apartments. Provide name, contact person, and phone number for organizations providing these services.

c. List below expected sources of funds that will be used to support the services identified above, and indicate for each (1) the expected funding amount during the first two operating years and (2) the name and phone number of a contact person.

d. If available, attach letters of intent or support from each funding source listed in (c) above. Label as "7 : SERVICES LETTER."

18. If CHRP funds are being requested for sponsor administrative costs, attach an itemized statement of expenses incurred to date and a budget for anticipated future expenses. Include a detailed narrative and explanation. Label "8 : ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES." If the requested administrative costs exceed 10% of the loan, include the justification required by Section 7680(d) of the regulations.

19. Attach a copy of a letter from the applicant to the head of local legislative body (city council, county board, etc.) notifying it of the application and describing the location, size, and type of proposed project, and proposed tenant population. Pursuant to section 50861(c) of the Health and Safety Code, the letter must also request that the local government submit to the Department a report on the actions it is taking to implement its housing element, including policies or programs especially targeted towards providing housing for lower-income households. (Applicants who are local governments must submit the report as part of this Attachment.) Indicate on the copy the date that the letter was mailed. Label "9 : LOCAL LETTER."

SECTION II: SITE INFORMATION

A. Current owner of record

B. Date of purchase (if owned by applicant)

C. Provide a current (no more than six months old) Preliminary Title Report (PTR) and label "10 : PTR." If the applicant is the current owner, the PTR should show them as such.

D. Include a site map clearly showing the location of the project, public transportation routes that serve it, and nearby schools, recreation facilities, shopping areas, medical facilities, other facilities, and employment in relation to the needs of the tenants. Label as "11 : MAP." In this attachment describe any adverse environmental conditions on or near the site (e.g. asbestos, 100 year flood zone, toxic wastes), any proposed mitigations, and the costs attributable to such mitigations (including handling and disposal of toxic/hazardous materials) found in Attachment 6, or include a statement that there are not adverse environmental conditions.

E. Check if any of the following is required:

1. ____ Rezoning from ____ zone to ____ zone
2. ____ General plan change
3. ____ Conditional use permit
4. ____ Environmental review
5. ____ Redevelopment Agency Approval
6. ____ HUD and/or FmHA Approval
7. Other:

F. IF APPLICABLE:

1. Date option, purchase agreement, lease, disposition and development agreement, land sales contract, or other enforceable agreement was: Entered into _____ Terminates _____

2. Attach a copy of the above agreement. Label "12: ACQUISITION AGREEMENT."

3. Complete enclosed Comparable Sales form or an appraisal of the project that was prepared within the last 12 months. Attach and label "13: COMPARABLE SALES/APPRAISAL."

SECTION III: DEVELOPMENT COSTS

For buildings with non-assisted units and/or non-residential use, prorate costs that cannot be directly attributed to one use or another based on the gross floor area occupied by each.

On a separate sheet labeled "14: DEVELOPMENT COSTS," describe the basis for each line item of cost.

SECTION IV: SOURCES OF FUNDS

If refinancing of existing debt is proposed, provide the requested information for all existing financing and label 15: EXISTING DEBT. Include copies of all notes, deeds of trust, and regulatory agreements secured against the property. In an attachment labeled "16: PERMANENT FINANCING," provide requested information for all permanent loans (including CHRP) and all grants which will be recorded against the property after rehabilitation. If interim financing will be necessary, please provide the requested information for all interim loans and label "17: INTERIM FINANCING." Include any commitment letters or letters of intent that have been received.

Sources Unsuccessfully Attempted

List any funds (loans, grants, or other) that you attempted to obtain but were unsuccessful, and the reason for denial:

NOTE: If your project will have both of the following: (1) nonresidential uses; and (2) loans beside CHRP which require periodic payments, you must allocate funds between residential and nonresidential uses. This is necessary to ensure that residential debt service payments are appropriately subtracted from residential income cash to establish the amount available for return on cash investment. (See V.D. below.) For guidance in making this calculation, please contact CHRP staff.

SECTION V: OPERATING BUDGET

A. OPERATING EXPENSES

Provide estimates for the first year following the completion of rehabilitation. On a separate sheet, labeled "18: OPERATING EXPENSES," describe the basis for the estimate for each line item.

In program-based projects described in I.B.17. above, show expenses for all direct and supportive tenant services in the residential column. Income to pay for services should be shown separate from rent as miscellaneous income.

SECTION VI: PROPERTY MANAGEMENT

The applicant plans to (check one):

1. Manage the project.
2. Contract with a currently unidentified management firm or other organization to operate and manage the project.
3. Contract with an identified firm.

If (1) or (3), complete and attach the enclosed Management Qualifications form, labeled "21: MANAGEMENT QUALIFICATIONS." If (2), attach a description of when and how a firm will be selected. Label "22: MANAGEMENT SELECTION."

SECTION VII: LOCAL NEED AND PROGRAMS

A. NEED

Attach appropriate parts of local housing element and other documentation, labeled "23: NEED," regarding all of the following indicators of the need for rental housing in the area of the project. Where available, provide neighborhood-level data instead of or in addition to data for larger areas.

1. Market-rate rents for typical (e.g., 1 or 2 bedroom) units.
2. Length of subsidized housing waiting lists, and length of wait for households on these lists.
3. Percent of total rental units that are substandard.
4. Loss or threatened loss of subsidized rental units due to demolition, foreclosure, or subsidy termination.

If the project will serve a special tenant group, such as households with a particular disability, include in the above attachment documentation of the need for housing serving this special tenant group in the area of the project.

B. LOCAL PROGRAMS

Check the applicable statements and attach documentation, such as applicable parts of the housing element or a letter from a local public agency, supporting the checked statement. Label "24: LOCAL PROGRAMS."

1. The jurisdiction's housing element identifies the tenant population of this project as a special needs group.
2. The project has received a commitment of financial or nonfinancial assistance from a local public agency.
3. The project has received a commitment for financial or nonfinancial assistance in support of lower income housing from a program that is not operated by a local public agency.
4. The project is eligible for financial or nonfinancial assistance under a local agency program in support of lower income housing, but has not received a commitment.
5. The project is located in a city or county that has programs in support of lower income housing, but is ineligible for these programs.
6. None of the above apply.

NOTE: The Department will determine compliance of the jurisdiction's housing element with State law pursuant to Section 7689(d)(4) of the regulations.

CERTIFICATION

(2) The project is eligible pursuant to section 7672;

(3) All proposed uses of program funds are eligible pursuant to section 7674;

(4) The application is complete pursuant to section 7688;

(5) The requested loan amount per unit is consistent with the maximum loan amounts authorized pursuant to section 7677;

(6) The estimated loan-to-value ratio is consistent with the requirements of section 7679(a).

(b) Subject to the availability of funds, projects that are considered for funding will be rated according to subdivision (c) and ranked pursuant to subdivision (d).

(c) When the application meets the requirements of subdivision (a), the application shall be rated according to the following criteria. The application must receive a minimum of 60 percent of the total possible points in order to be ranked pursuant to subdivision (d); and zero points in either criterion (1) or (2) will disqualify the application. If either criterion (4) or (5) is not applicable to the proposed project, the total number of points possible will be reduced by the total number of points possible in that criterion; and 60 percent will be calculated on the reduced maximum possible points:

(1) The application demonstrates that the proposed project will maintain fiscal integrity and affordable rents throughout the term of the loan. (30 points)

(2) The applicant demonstrates ability or experience in owning, rehabilitating, and operating rental housing, as evidenced by the length and quality of the sponsor's experience and qualifications; the experience and qualifications of individual members of its board, its staff, or consultants. (25 points)

(3) The proposed project site is free from severe adverse environmental conditions and is accessible to public transportation, shopping, medical services, recreation, schools, and employment in relation to the needs of the project tenants. (15 points)

(4) If applicable, the application contains a relocation plan that minimizes unnecessary cost and extent of relocation. (10 points)

(5) In proposed projects targeting households in need of any direct or supportive tenant services, the proposed project provides those services suitable to the needs of the tenants. (10 points)

(6) A majority of project costs will be for the correction of health and safety defects. (10 points)

Maximum possible points: 100

(d) Where the application meets the requirements of subdivision (c), the proposed project will be ranked to determine its compliance with the following priority requirements. The application must receive a minimum of 60 percent of the total possible priority points in order to qualify for funding. If criterion (2) is not applicable to the proposed project, the total number of points possible will be reduced by the number of points in that criterion; and the 60 percent will be calculated on the reduced maximum possible points. The maximum score for each of the following six criteria is 15:

(1) Percentage of total residential units in the proposed project reserved as assisted for occupancy by very low-income households.

(2) Percentage of total residential units in the proposed project which are assisted units with three or more bedrooms (not applicable to residential hotels, motels, group homes, congregate homes, and rental housing developments occupied by the handicapped).

(3) Need in the area of the proposed project as approved by the department for the type of housing provided by the proposed project, as indicated in the local housing element and other supporting documentation by the following:

(A) Low vacancy rate for rental housing as provided by the department through the use of a methodology which ensures uniform rate calculations for all applications.

(B) Low vacancy rate in developments comparable to proposed project.

(C) Typical local market-rate rents as a high percentage of area median income.

(D) Typical comparable market-rate rents as a high percentage of area median income.

(E) Length of subsidized housing waiting lists for comparable projects and length of wait for households on these lists.

(F) High percentage of substandard rental units in the area of the proposed project.

(G) Degree to which local subsidized housing stock serving lower income households has been threatened or lost because of demolition, foreclosure, or subsidy termination.

(4) The extent to which the proposed project complements the implementation of an existing housing program in the local agency in which the proposed project is located, as demonstrated by one of the following. Points shall be allocated based upon the following criteria which are listed in descending order of priority:

(A) The local agency has a housing element in substantive compliance with the requirements of law. For the purposes of this subsection, "substantive compliance" is demonstrated by a letter from the department which sets forth findings that the housing element adopted within the timeframes required by section 65588 of the Government Code includes that substance essential to every requirement of article 10.6, commencing with section 65580, of chapter 3 of division 1, of Title 7 of the Government Code. The element identifies the special housing needs which would be served by the applicant's proposed project and the local agency is providing financial or nonfinancial assistance to the applicant's project.

(B) The local agency has a housing element in procedural compliance with the law or has an adopted plan or policy for addressing the local housing needs. For the purposes of this subsection, "procedural compliance" means that the local agency has complied with all procedures required by law for the department's review of a draft housing element, local adoption of the element, and submission of the adopted element to the department. The local agency has a program which is providing financial or nonfinancial assistance to the applicant's proposed project.

(C) The local agency has a housing element in procedural compliance with the law or has an adopted plan or policy for addressing the local housing needs. There are programs available in the jurisdiction of the local agency in support of lower income housing programs and the programs are providing financial or nonfinancial assistance to the proposed project.

(D) The local agency has a housing element in procedural compliance with the law or has an adopted plan or policy for addressing the local housing needs. The local agency has a program which could provide financial or nonfinancial assistance to the proposed project, but which will not provide such assistance.

(E) The local agency has no housing element in compliance but has programs in support of lower income housing and is providing financial or nonfinancial assistance to the applicant's proposed project.

(F) The local agency has no housing element in compliance but has programs in support of lower income housing which could provide financial assistance to the applicant's proposed project.

(G) The local agency has programs in support of lower income housing but there is no assistance available for the applicant's proposed project.

(5) To the extent feasible, the proposed project uses available and cost–effective private, local and other funding sources in lieu of program funds.

(6) The proposed project maximizes long–term benefit for lower income households, as indicated by the following:

(A) Period of time beyond minimum term required by section 7676 that assisted units in the proposed project will be subject to rent and occupancy restrictions similar to program restrictions.

(B) The percentage that rents for assisted units in the proposed project are below the program maximum rents for these units.

Maximum possible points: 90

(e) Projects which receive 60 percent of the available points shall be recommended for funding to the director of the department. The director shall reject a recommendation for funding if it is determined that the rehabilitation work is insignificant relative to total project costs or that the project is inconsistent with the purposes of the program.

Article 4. Program Operations

§ 7690. Legal Documents.

(a) The department shall enter into a Standard Agreement with the sponsor which shall encumber monies from the fund in an amount sufficient to fund the approved loan amount. The Standard Agreement shall contain the following:

(1) A description of the approved project and the permitted uses of program funds;

(2) provisions governing the amount and terms of the loan;

(3) provisions regarding the regulatory restrictions to be applied to the project through the Regulatory Agreement;

(4) provisions governing the rehabilitation work and, as applicable, the acquisition or refinancing, and the disbursement of loan proceeds;

(5) special conditions imposed as part of department approval of the project;

(6) requirements for the execution and, where appropriate, the recordation of the agreements and documents required under the program;

(7) terms and conditions required by federal or state law;

(8) requirements regarding the establishment of escrow accounts for the deposit of documents and the disbursement of loan proceeds;

(9) remedies available to the department in the event of a violation, breach, or default of the Standard Agreement to ensure compliance with program requirements for the full term of the Regulatory Agreement, including repayment of all costs of enforcement; and

(10) other provisions necessary to ensure compliance with the requirements of this program.

(b) The department shall enter into a Rehabilitation Loan Agreement with the sponsor which shall be executed prior to the disbursement of funds to the sponsor, govern the performance of the project, and include the following:

(1) The approved schedule of the project, including transfer of ownership, if any, commencement and completion of rehabilitation work, and occupancy by eligible households;

(2) provisions ensuring that the construction contract is consistent with section 7686 and other program requirements and that all financing agreements are consistent with program requirements;

(3) the approved budget for rehabilitation work and acquisition and refinancing, if applicable;

(4) provisions relating to fund disbursement;

(5) provisions relating to acquisition or refinancing agreements, preparation of rehabilitation specifications, bidding, awards to contractors, and disbursement of funds to contractors, or others;

(6) requirements for reporting to the department;

(7) terms and conditions for the inspection and monitoring of the project in order to verify compliance with the Standard Agreement and this agreement;

(8) provisions regarding tenant relocation;

(9) bonding and insurance requirements consistent with the requirements of this subchapter;

(10) conditions constituting breach of the Rehabilitation Loan Agreement and remedies available to the parties thereto, including repayment of costs of enforcement.

(11) other provisions necessary to ensure compliance with the requirements of this program.

(c) The department shall enter into a Regulatory Agreement with the sponsor for not less than the original term of the loan which shall be recorded against the project property prior to the disbursement of funds. The Regulatory Agreement shall include the following:

(1) designation of assisted units;

(2) standards for tenant selection pursuant to section 7682(a);

(3) provisions regulating the terms of the rental agreement pursuant to section 7682(b);

(4) provisions related to an annual budget approved by the department pursuant to section 7696;

(5) provisions related to a management plan pursuant to section 7694;

(6) provisions related to a rent schedule, including initial rent levels for assisted and non-assisted units pursuant to section 7683(a);

(7) conditions and procedures for permitting rent increases pursuant to section 7683(b);

(8) provisions for limitations on profit pursuant to section 7684;

(9) provision requiring annual reports, inspections and audits pursuant to section 7695;

(10) provisions regarding the withdrawal of funds from a reserve account and additional payments by the department;

(11) assurances that sponsor will maintain the rental housing development in a safe and sanitary condition in compliance with state and local housing codes and the management plan pursuant to section 7694;

(12) conditions constituting breach of the Regulatory Agreement and remedies available to the parties thereto;

(13) provisions governing use and operation of unassisted units and common areas to the extent necessary to ensure compliance with program requirements;

(14) provisions authorizing enforcement of program requirements by tenants;

(15) special conditions of loan approval imposed by the department;

(16) provisions specifying that the Regulatory Agreement shall be binding on all assigns and successors in interest of the sponsor and that all sales, transfers, and encumbrances shall be subject to section 7692; and

(17) other provisions necessary to assure compliance with the requirements of the program.

(d) All loans shall be evidenced by a promissory note payable to the department in the principal amount of the loan and stating the terms of the loan consistent with the requirements of the program. The note shall be secured by a deed of trust on the project property naming the department as beneficiary or by other security acceptable to the department; this deed of trust or other security shall secure the department's financial interest in the project and the performance of sponsor's program obligations.

§ 7692. Sales, Transfers, and Encumbrances.

(a) A sponsor shall not sell, assign, transfer, or convey the rental housing development, or any interest therein or portion thereof, without the express prior written approval of the department. A sale, transfer or conveyance shall be approved only if all of the following requirements are met:

(1) the existing sponsor is in compliance with the Regulatory Agreement or the sale, transfer or conveyance will result in the cure of any existing violations;

(2) the successor–in–interest to the sponsor agrees to assume all obligations of the existing sponsor pursuant to the Regulatory Agreement and this program;

(3) the successor–in–interest is an eligible sponsor and demonstrates to the department's satisfaction that it can successfully own and operate the rental housing development and comply with all program requirements; and

(4) no terms of the sale, transfer, or conveyance jeopardize either the department's security or the successor's ability to comply with all program requirements.

(b) The Department may grant its approval of such sale, assignment, transfer, or conveyance subject to such terms and conditions as may be necessary to preserve or establish the fiscal integrity of the project. Such conditions may include:

(1) the deposit of sales proceeds, or a portion thereof, to maintain required reserves, or to offset negative cash flow;

(2) the recapture of syndication proceeds or other funds in accordance with special conditions included in the Standard Agreement or any other agreement executed by the sponsor;

(3) such conditions as may be necessary to ensure compliance with the program requirements.

(c) The sponsor shall not encumber, pledge, or hypothecate the rental housing development, or any interest therein or portion thereof, or allow any lien, charge, or assessment against the rental housing development without the prior written approval of the department. The department may permit refinancing of existing liens or additional financing secured by the rental housing development to the extent necessary to maintain or improve the fiscal integrity of the project or to maintain affordable rents.

5. Certificate of Compliance as to 2–5–90 and 3–5–90 orders transmitted to OAL 5–22–90 and filed 5–29–90 (Register 90, No. 29).

§ 7693. Defaults and Loan Cancellations.

(a) In the event of a breach or violation by the sponsor of any of the provisions of the Regulatory Agreement, the Standard Agreement, the Rehabilitation Loan Agreement, the promissory note, or the deed of trust, or any other agreement pertaining to the project, the department may give written notice to the sponsor to cure the breach or violation within a period of not less than 15 days. If the breach or violation is not cured to the satisfaction of the department within the specified time period, the department, at its option, may declare a default under the relevant document and may seek legal remedies for the default including the following:

(1) The department may accelerate all amounts, including outstanding principal and interest, due under the loan and demand immediate repayment thereof. Upon a failure to repay such accelerated amount in full, the department may proceed with a foreclosure in accordance with the provisions of the deed of trust and state law regarding foreclosures.

(2) The department may seek, in a court of competent jurisdiction, an order for specific performance of the defaulted obligation or the appointment of a receiver to complete the project or operate the rental housing development in accordance with program requirements.

(3) The department may seek such other remedies as may be available under the relevant agreement or any law.

(b) In the event that the breach or violation involves charging tenants rent or other charges in excess of those permitted under the Regulatory Agreement, the department may demand the return of such excess rents or other charges to the affected households. In any action to enforce the provisions of the Regulatory Agreement, the department may seek as additional remedy, the repayment of such overcharges.

(c) Loan commitments may be cancelled by the department under any of the following conditions:

(1) the objectives and requirements of the program cannot be met;

(2) implementation cannot proceed in a timely fashion in accordance with the approved plans and schedules;

(3) special conditions have not been fulfilled within required time periods;

(4) the rehabilitation work has not commenced within one year of the date of loan approval;

(5) there has been a material change in the principals or management of the sponsor or project, which was not approved by the department.

The department, in writing and upon demonstration by the sponsor of good cause, may extend the date for compliance with any of the conditions in this subdivision.

(d) Upon receipt of a notice of intent to cancel the loan from the department, the sponsor shall have the right to appeal to the Director.

(e) The department may use amounts available in the fund pursuant to section 7697(b) for the purpose of curing, or avoiding, a sponsor's defaults on the terms of any loan or other obligation which jeopardize completion of rehabilitation, the fiscal integrity of a project or the department's security in the project. Such defaults include defaults or impending defaults in payments on mortgages, failures to pay taxes, or failures to maintain insurance or required operating reserves. The payment or advance of funds by the department pursuant to this subdivision shall be solely within the discretion of the department and no sponsor shall be entitled to or have any right to payment of these funds. All funds so advanced shall be part of the deferred payment loan to the sponsor and, upon demand, due and payable to the department. Where it becomes necessary to use the fund for the purpose of assisting a project to avoid threatened defaults or foreclosures, the department shall take those actions necessary, including but not limited to, foreclosure or forced sale of the project property, to prevent similar occurrences and insure compliance with the terms of the applicable agreements.

5. Certificate of Compliance as to 2–5–90 and 3–5–90 orders including amendment of subsection (e) transmitted to OAL 5–22–90 and filed 5–29–90 (Register 90, No. 29).

§ 7694. Management and Maintenance.

(a) The sponsor shall be responsible for all management functions of the rental housing development including selection of the tenants, annual recertification of household income and size, evictions, and collection of rent.

(b) The sponsor is responsible for all repair and maintenance functions of the rental housing development, including ordinary maintenance and replacement of capital items. The sponsor shall maintain residential units, nonresidential space and common areas in accordance with local health, building, and housing codes and the management plan.

(c) The sponsor, with the prior approval of the department, may contract with a management agent for the performance of the services or duties required in subdivision (a) and (b). However, such an arrangement does not relieve the sponsor of responsibility for proper performance of these duties. Such contract shall contain a provision allowing the sponsor to terminate the contract upon thirty days' notice. The sponsor shall terminate said contract as directed by the department upon determination that management does not comply with program requirements.

(d) The sponsor shall develop a management plan subject to department approval prior to loan closing. The plan shall be consistent with this subchapter and shall include the following:

(1) the role and responsibility of the sponsor and its delegation of authority, if any, to the managing agent;

(2) personnel policy and staffing arrangements;

(3) plans and procedures for publicizing and achieving early and continued occupancy;

(4) procedures for determining tenant eligibility and for certifying and annually recertifying household income and size;

(5) plans for carrying out an effective maintenance and repair program;

(6) rent collection policies and procedures;

(7) program for maintaining adequate accounting records and handling necessary forms and vouchers;

(8) plans for tenant–management relations;

(9) management agreement, if any;

(10) description of direct or supportive tenant services, if any; and

(11) provisions for periodic update of management plan.

Subchapter 9. CalHome Program Requirements

Article 1. General

§ 7715. Purpose and Scope.

(a) These regulations implement and interpret Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 50650) of Part 2 of Division 31, Health and Safety Code, which establishes the CalHome Program.

(b) These regulations establish terms, conditions and procedures for the award and disbursement of funds allocated to the CalHome Program.

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 50406(n), 50650.2 and 50650.7, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50650.3, 50650.4, 50650.5 and 50650.7, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. New subchapter 9 (articles 1–10, sections 7715–7756), article 1 (sections 7715–7716) and section filed 9–29–2003; operative 9–29–2003 pursuant to Government Code section 11343.4 (Register 2003, No. 40). For prior history of Subchapter 9, articles 1–4, sections 7715–7742, see Register 96, No. 12.

§ 7716. Definitions.

In addition to the definitions found in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 50050) of Part 1 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, the following definitions shall apply to this subchapter. References to code sections refer to the sections of these regulations unless otherwise noted.

(a) "Affordable" as it describes a specific financial obligation, means that obligation can be paid by the person or household, along with all of other financial responsibilities, without endangering the financial stability of the household.

(b) "After–rehabilitation value" means the appraised value of the property including completed rehabilitation work.

(c) "Applicant" is the locality or nonprofit corporation, which submits an application to the Department to operate a local program, develop a homeownership project, or provide self–help technical assistance to a homeownership project.

(d) "Assisted units" means units purchased or rehabilitated with a loan funded pursuant to this subchapter. Assisted units shall also include units occupied by a seeker successfully matched to a homeowner provider under a shared housing local program or a household provided with self–help technical assistance in a project funded pursuant to this subchapter.

(e) "Back–end ratio" means the ratio between monthly household income and monthly housing costs plus all payments on long–term installment debt.

(f) "Borrower" means a homebuyer(s) or existing homeowner(s) who has or will receive a CalHome Program loan made from a local program funded pursuant to this subchapter, signs the promissory note, and is or will be the homeowner of the property being financed.

(g) "Community revitalization" A program or project will be considered to contribute towards community revitalization if all units to be assisted with CalHome Program funds are, or will be, located within a federally defined Qualified Census Tract or a designated redevelopment area under the jurisdiction of a local redevelopment agency.

(h) "Construction skills training program" means an existing program that trains youth 16 to 24 years old in construction skills.

(i) "Department" means the Department of Housing and Community Development.

(j) "Developer" means a locality or nonprofit corporation that owns the project land, obtains the project financing and develops the homeownership project.

(k) "Developer borrower" means a developer who receives a CalHome loan pursuant to this subchapter for the development of a project involving multiple homeownership units.

(l) "Eligible household" means a low– or very low–income household that is: a first–time homebuyer; an existing owner–occupant of property in need of rehabilitation; a homeowner participant in a shared housing local program; or a first–time homebuyer participant in a self–help construction project. The eligible household shall occupy, or intend to occupy, the property as their principal residence and shall not lease or rent the property (except in the case of a homeowner provider assisted through a CalHome shared housing program in renting a room in their home to a seeker).

(m) "First–time homebuyer" means a borrower(s) who has not owned a home during the three–year period before the purchase of a home with CalHome assistance, except that the following individual or individuals may not be excluded from consideration as a first–time homebuyer under this definition:

(1) a displaced homemaker who, while a homemaker, owned a home with his or her spouse or resided in a home owned by the spouse. A displaced homemaker is an adult who has not, within the preceding two years, worked on a full–time basis as a member of the labor force for a consecutive twelve–month period and who has been unemployed or underemployed, experienced difficulty in obtaining or upgrading employment and worked primarily without remuneration to care for his or her home and family;

(2) a single parent who, while married, owned a home with his or her spouse or resided in a home owned by the spouse. A single parent is an individual who is unmarried or legally separated from a spouse and has one or more minor children for whom the individual has custody or joint custody or is pregnant; or

(3) an individual or individuals who owns or owned, as a principal residence during the three–year period before the purchase of a home with CalHome assistance, a dwelling unit whose structure is:

(A) not permanently affixed to a permanent foundation in accordance with local or state regulations; or

(B) not in compliance with state, local, or model building codes and cannot be brought into compliance with such codes for less than the cost of constructing a permanent structure.

(n) "Front–end ratio" means the ratio between monthly household income and monthly housing cost, including first mortgage principal, interest, taxes and insurance.

(o) "Grant" means an award of funds made from the Department to eligible localities or nonprofit corporations to operate local programs or to provide self–help technical assistance to a project pursuant to this subchapter. In the case of a development loan, the portion of that loan which is used to provide mortgage assistance to qualified first–time homebuyers is converted to a grant.

(p) "Gross income" means all income as defined in California Code of Regulations (CCR) Title 25, Section 6914.

(q) "Homebuyer education" means a specific course of instruction, designed pursuant to Section 7722, to educate first–time homebuyers regarding various aspects of purchasing and maintaining a home.

(r) "Homeowner provider" means a low-income person(s) currently residing in a home they own and occupy as a principal place of residence, who desires to find a tenant to share their residence.

(s) "Homeownership" means:

(1) for mortgage assistance: fee simple title on real property or a leasehold interest on real property that enables the lessee to make improvements on and encumber the property and has a term sufficient to secure the CalHome loan, ownership of a manufactured housing unit located on a rented space in a mobilehome park; or

(2) for owner-occupied rehabilitation: fee simple title; or a leasehold interest that enables the lessee to make improvements on and encumber the property and has a term sufficient to secure the CalHome loan; or ownership of a manufactured housing unit located on a rented space in a mobilehome park.

(3) a share interest in a limited equity housing cooperative; or

(4) an interest in a mutual housing project that meets the definition in Section 7716(gg).

(t) "Homeownership development project" means new construction on a site, including subdivisions, or scattered sites, that is under common ownership, development financing and construction.

(u) "Household" means one or more persons occupying the same housing unit.

(v) "Loan-to-value-ratio" means the ratio between the amount of all indebtedness liened, or to be liened, against a property and the appraised value of the property securing the liens.

(w) "Local public agency", or "locality" means a city, county, or city and county, or a local public entity within the state of California that has been delegated substantially all of the locality's housing functions (hereinafter collectively referred to as a "locality"). For the purpose of this definition, "housing functions" means engaging in or assisting in the development or operation of housing for persons of low or moderate income. Such delegation shall have been made prior to the issuance of the Notice of Funding Availability under which the local public entity is applying.

(x) "Local program" means a first-time homebuyer mortgage assistance loan program or an owner-occupant rehabilitation loan program to provide CalHome Program loans for the acquisition and/or rehabilitation of property; or a shared housing program operated by a locality or nonprofit corporation pursuant to the provisions of this subchapter.

(y) "Lower-or low-income household" means the same as defined in Section 50079.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(z) "Manufactured housing" means a mobilehome as defined by Section 18007 of the Health and Safety Code. A manufactured home can be either in a rental mobile home park, on leased land, or on property owned by the occupant. It can either be on a permanent foundation or a foundation system. In these regulations, with respect to manufactured housing not installed on a permanent foundation, terms that typically apply to conventionally constructed housing or to loans secured by real property shall be given the appropriate analogous meaning used in the manufactured housing industry. For example, rather than holding fee title to the property, a manufactured home owner is listed as the registered owner on the certificate of title issued by the Department.

(aa) "Maximum Sales Price/Value Limit" is the maximum allowable sales price or the maximum after-rehab value of a home assisted with a CalHome Program loan. This shall be set at 100% of the current median sales price of a single family home in the county in which the CalHome Program or project is located.

(bb) "Monthly housing cost" means the average of the estimated costs for the next twelve months for a homebuyer or owner-occupant and shall include all of the following associated with that housing unit:

(1) principal and interest on a mortgage loan including any rehabilitation loans, and any mortgage insurance fees associated therewith;

(2) property taxes and assessments;

(3) fire and casualty insurance, including flood insurance when applicable, covering replacement value of property improvements;

(4) homeowner association fees or dues, if applicable;

(5) lease payments, if the housing unit is situated on leased land; and

(6) space rent, if a manufactured housing unit is situated in a mobilehome park.

(cc) "Mortgage" means a deed of trust which is used to secure a lien on real property or, in the case of manufactured housing, a security instrument sufficient to legally perfect a security interest in the home.

(dd) "Mortgage assistance" means permanent financing used toward homebuyer costs, up to a maximum limit as specified in the Department's NOFA. Another term for mortgage assistance is "downpayment assistance".

(ee) "Mortgage financing" means a long-term, permanent loan, provided by a mortgage lender, which is secured by a deed of trust, or, in the case of manufactured housing, a security instrument sufficient to perfect a security interest in the home.

(ff) "Mortgage lender" means a bank or trust company, mortgage banker, mortgage broker, federal or state chartered savings and loan association, State or Federal governmental agency or credit union whose principal business is to originate, process, close and service loans for the purchase or development (if appropriate) of property. "Mortgage lender" also includes nationwide institutions whose primary purpose is to develop housing and provide first mortgage financing to low-income purchasers of the developed housing.

(gg) "Mutual housing" means a multi-unit homeownership development that allows each resident a vested financial interest that has a determinable market value, is divisible and gives the owner an exclusive right to occupy a designated unit for an indefinite period.

(hh) "NOFA" is the acronym for Notice of Funding Availability. The NOFA is the document used by the department to announce that funds are available and applications may be submitted.

(ii) "Nonprofit corporation" means a corporation as defined in Section 50091 of the Health and Safety Code.

(jj) "Recipient" means a locality or nonprofit corporation that receives an award of funds from the CalHome Program.

(kk) "Refinance" means to pay off all or a portion of existing debt secured by the property from the proceeds of a CalHome Program loan or other financing also secured by the property.

(ll) "Rehabilitation" means, in addition to the definition in Health and Safety Code, Section 50096 and Section 50097, repairs and improvements to a manufactured home necessary to correct any condition causing the home to be substandard pursuant to CCR, Title 25, Section 1704. Rehabilitation includes reconstruction. Rehabilitation also includes room additions to prevent overcrowding. Rehabilitation also means repairs and improvements which are necessary to meet any locally-adopted standards used in local rehabilitation programs. Rehabilitation does not include replacement of personal property.

(mm) "Reuse account" means an account established pursuant Section 7724.

(nn) "Rural area" means the same as defined in Health and Safety Code, Section 50101.

(oo) "Seeker" means a person who desires to be placed as a tenant in a home that is owner-occupied.

(pp) "Self-help construction" means owner-building as defined in Health and Safety Code, Section 50692 and may include mutual self-help housing as defined in Health and Safety Code, Section 50692(b).

(qq) "Self-help technical assistance" means conducting and administering a project of technical or supervisory assistance, which will aid eligible households in carrying out owner-builder housing efforts.

(rr) "Shared housing" means a local program designed to preserve homeownership by matching a homeowner provider with a seeker.

(ss) "Shared housing match" means a seeker who has been successfully placed as a tenant into the residence of a homeowner provider.

(tt) "Shared housing technical assistance" means the provision of services required to match a homeowner provider with a seeker.

(uu) "Site control" means control of a parcel of real property as described in Section 7744.

(vv) "Standard Agreement" means the contract entered into between the Department and a Recipient pursuant to Section 7752(a).

(ww) "Volunteer labor" means skilled or unskilled construction labor provided without remuneration.

§ 7726. Homeowner/Homebuyer Loan Terms.

(a) CalHome Program loans shall be secured by the property or leasehold interest, as applicable.

(b) The lien securing repayment of the CalHome Program loan shall be subject only to liens, encumbrances and other matters of record reviewed and approved by the Recipient responsible for underwriting the CalHome Program loan.

(c) Homeowner/Homebuyer CalHome Program loans shall have the following terms and conditions:

(1) principal and interest payments shall be deferred for the term of the CalHome Program loan;

(2) loans shall be repayable upon sale or transfer of the property, when the property ceases to be owner-occupied, or upon the CalHome Program loan maturity date; However, if it is determined by the recipient that repayment of the CalHome Program loan at the maturity date causes a hardship to the borrower, the recipient has two other options. They are:

(A) Amending the note and deed of trust to defer repayment of the amount due at loan maturity, that is the original principal and the accrued interest, for up to an additional 30 years (at 0% additional interest), this may be offered one time, or;

(B) Converting the debt at loan maturity, that is the original principal balance and any accrued interest, to an amortized loan, repayable in 15 years at 0% additional interest.

(3) loans are not assumable;

(4) the following transfers of interest shall not require the repayment of the CalHome Program loan:

(A) transfer to a surviving joint tenant by devise, descent, or operation of law on the death of a joint tenant;

(B) a transfer, in which the transferee is a person who occupies or will occupy the property, which is:

(i) a transfer where the spouse becomes an owner of the property;

(ii) a transfer resulting from a decree of dissolution of marriage, legal separation agreement, or from an incidental property settlement agreement by which the spouse becomes an owner of the property; or

(iii) a transfer into an inter vivos trust in which the borrower is and remains the beneficiary and occupant of the property;

(5) the term for first-time homebuyer mortgage assistance CalHome Program loans shall be thirty (30) years with the following exception: when United States Department of Agriculture, Rural Housing Service (USDA-RHS) 502 mortgage loans are in first lien position, the term shall be the term of the 502 mortgage (30 to 38 years);

(6) the term for owner-occupied rehabilitation CalHome Program loans shall be a maximum of thirty (30) years as determined by the Recipient; and

(7) a borrower may pay the CalHome Program loan amount, in part or in whole, at any time without penalty.

(d) All CalHome assistance to individual households shall be made in the form of a loan. Recipients may make CalHome Program loans bearing simple interest up to three percent per annum, and may allow forgiveness of all or a portion of the accrued interest as part of its local program design. Loan principal shall not be forgiven, except as allowed by statute. In lieu of making loans bearing a fixed rate of interest, recipients may instead charge contingent deferred interest in the form of shared net appreciation as set forth in subsection (e).

(e) Shared net appreciation is allowed, only as follows:

(1) gross appreciation is calculated by subtracting the original sales price from the current sales price or the current appraised value if the loan accelerating event is other than sale of the property;

(2) net appreciation is calculated by subtracting the seller's applicable closing costs, seller's cash contribution in the original purchase transaction, the value of seller's sweat equity, if applicable, and the documented value of capital improvements from the gross appreciation amount;

(3) the recipient may only claim repayment of the principal, interest and a portion of the net appreciation. That maximum portion of the net appreciation which may be claimed by the recipient is equal to the percentage of the value of the residence financed by the CalHome Program loan. That is, if the loan equals twenty percent (20%) of the initial value of the residence, a maximum of twenty percent (20%) of the appreciation may be charged by recipient.

(f) In any loan transaction where the CalHome Program loan is the only subsidy, the borrower cannot be restricted from selling the home at its fair market value at any time.

§ 7746. Development Loan Terms.

(a) All CalHome Program development loans shall be secured by the project real property and improvements, subject only to liens, encumbrances and other matters of record which have been reviewed and approved by the Department on a case-by-case basis.

(b) The development loan term shall end no later than the date specified in the Standard Agreement.

(c) Principal and interest payments shall be deferred for the term of the development loan.

(d) Development loans shall be repayable at permanent closings of the individual homebuyer CalHome Program loans or at the development loan maturity date, whichever occurs first. The portion of development loan repayments that are used to provide mortgage assistance to qualified first-time homebuyers will be converted to a grant to the Recipient. The balance of the development loan will be repaid to the Department.

(e) Development loans shall bear interest at the rate of six percent simple interest per annum. The Department may forgive accrued interest on a pro rata basis to the extent that the number of lower-income households originally proposed to be served, have been served upon completion of the project.

Article 9. Application Procedures

§ 7749. Application Process.

(a) The Department shall periodically issue a NOFA that specifies, among other things, the amount of funds available, the minimum/maximum application amount, the minimum/maximum activity amount, minimum/maximum amount per assisted unit, the maximum reimbursement amount per shared housing match, the maximum sales price/value limit which will represent 100% of the current local median sales price of a single family home, minimum number of units per homeownership development project, application requirements, the activities eligible for funding, the number of activities that may be applied for in one application, the allocation of rating points, the deadline for submittal of applications, the schedule for rating and ranking applications and awarding funds, and the general terms and conditions of funding commitments.

(b) In order to implement goals and purposes of the CalHome Program, the Department may adopt measures to direct funding awards to designated local program types or project types including, but not limited to local programs or projects that: are utilizing self-help labor; are utilizing volunteer labor; involve a construction skills training program; contribute toward community revitalization; or are located in rural areas or other areas to achieve a reasonable geographic distribution of funding, to the extent feasible. Such measures may include, but are not limited to:

(1) issuing a separate NOFA for designated local program or project types;

(2) awarding bonus points to designated local program or project types within a particular NOFA;

(3) reserving a portion of funds in the NOFA for designated local program or project types; and/or

(4) notwithstanding anything in these regulations to the contrary, a separate NOFA issued pursuant to this subsection may establish an over-the-counter application process meaning the Department continuously accepts and rates applications until the funding available under the NOFA is exhausted. At a minimum, a separate NOFA shall include a description of the application process and funding conditions, shall require compliance with paragraph (a) of this Section, and shall establish minimum funding threshold criteria based on the rating criteria set forth in subdivision 7741.

§ 7751. Selection Criteria.

(a) Applications shall not be considered for funding unless the application is received by the deadline as stated in the NOFA and demonstrates that all of the following conditions exist:

(1) The application contains substantially all of the information required by Section 7750 and contains sufficient information to allow the Department to apply the rating factors set forth in subsection (b) of this Section.

(2) the applicant is eligible;

(3) the applicant proposes an eligible activity;

(4) the applicant proposes an eligible use of the funds;

(5) the applicant does not have any unresolved audit findings for prior Department or federally-funded housing or community development projects or programs;

(6) the applicant has no pending lawsuits that would impact implementation of the program or project for which funding is being requested;

(7) if the application is for a development project, construction on the project has not yet begun; and

(8) the proposed program or project is consistent with any special terms and conditions of the NOFA (e.g., maximum amounts for downpayment assistance, sales price, development loan).

(b) Each application considered for funding shall be rated using the following criteria and maximum possible rating points. The maximum points an application may receive shall not exceed 1,000 points. Applications must receive a minimum of 550 points to be considered for funding.

(1) Capability to operate the local proposed program, administer and conduct the self-help technical assistance project, or develop the type of homeownership project proposed in the application as follows (up to 400 points):

(A) prior experience with administration/implementation of the type of program proposed in the application; or

(B) prior experience in developing the type of homeownership development project or self-help technical assistance homeownership project as proposed in the application; and

(C) prior experience with loan servicing or a plan to provide loan servicing/management capabilities.

(2) Community need in a geographic area of the proposed local program or project will be based on one or more of the following factors: poverty level and overpayment for housing by low-income households, age of housing stock in the jurisdiction, numbers and percentages of substandard housing units, overcrowding of housing by tenure (including rental and ownership housing) in the jurisdiction, and percentages of households that are below poverty level and who are overcrowded and living in substandard housing by tenure, as reflected in U.S. Census data; and the ratio between the median home sales price and the median household income in the jurisdiction. The specific community need factors that will apply to each activity will be identified in the NOFA. (up to 150 points)

(3) Feasibility of the proposed activity as demonstrated by either of the following (up to 250 points):

(A) for applications proposing local program activities, the extent to which the proposed local program is responding to a community need. Feasibility will be determined by statistical indicators based on single-source data readily available to the Department for all potential jurisdictions that may apply for CalHome funding.

(i) For mortgage assistance programs, feasibility will be based on U.S. Census Bureau data regarding the percentage of low-income homeownership in a jurisdiction, the ratio of the CalHome appraised value limits relative to the CalHome median income for a four-person household. From data supplied by the California Association of Realtors, the number of homes sold in the previous 12 months in a jurisdiction at or below the median sales price for the jurisdiction. The higher the percentage of low-income homeowners, the higher the points awarded. The higher the ratio of housing cost to income, the higher the points awarded. The higher the number of homes sold at or below median sales price the higher the points awarded.

(ii) For owner-occupied rehabilitation, feasibility will be based on U.S. Census Bureau data regarding the percentage of low-income households that are currently homeowners, the number of overcrowded households, and the age of the housing stock. The higher the percentage of low-income homeowners, the higher the points awarded. The higher the percentage of pre-1980 homes, the higher the points awarded. The higher the number of overcrowded households, the higher the points awarded.

(iii) For shared housing, feasibility will be determined by the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development's (HUD) fair market rent (FMR) for a one-bedroom unit as a percentage of CalHome median income (AMI) for a one-person household and U.S. Census Bureau data on the jurisdiction vacancy rate. The higher the ratio of FMR to AMI, and the lower the vacancy rate, the higher the points awarded.

(B) for applications proposing a homeownership development project or a self-help technical assistance homeownership project:

(i) the readiness of the project development to proceed as evidenced by the status of local government approvals; project financing commitments; resolution to impediments to development; and

(ii) evidence of ability to serve low- and very low-income households pursuant to the mortgage assistance underwriting requirements stated in Section 7731, as evidenced by the development budget and proposed unit sales prices.

(iii) feasibility will be based on U.S. Census Bureau data regarding percentage of low-income homeownership in a jurisdiction and the ratio of the CalHome appraised value limits relative to the CalHome median income for a four-person household. The higher the percentage of low-income homeowners, the higher the points awarded. The higher the ratio of housing cost to income, the higher the points awarded.

(4) Contributes to community revitalization as defined in Section 7716(g) or meets a legislatively mandated priority for funds allocated to the CalHome Program. (up to 100 points)

(5) Volunteer Labor, Self-Help Labor or Youth Construction Skills Training Program (up to 100 points)

Applications applying for homeownership development projects, self-help technical assistance homeownership projects, or a mortgage assistance local program for new construction housing or acquisition with rehabilitation when the recipient is acquiring and rehabilitating properties for sale to first-time homebuyers, will receive up to 100 points to the extent that they are utilizing:

(A) volunteer or self-help construction labor, where a minimum of five hundred (500) hours of on-site construction labor per assisted unit is provided; or

(B) labor provided by youth participating in a construction skills training program, where a minimum of five hundred (500) hours of on-site construction labor per assisted unit is provided. The five hundred (500) hours of construction training labor must be provided by the 16 to 24 year old program participants.

(c) Performance Penalty (50 points) A deduction to the total score will be applied for failure to meet CalHome Program Performance Goals pursuant to Section 7755.

§ 7752. Legal Documents.

(a) Upon the award of funds the Department shall enter into a Standard Agreement with the Recipient constituting a conditional commitment of funds. This contract shall require the parties to comply with the requirements and provisions of these regulations. The Standard Agreement shall encumber State monies in an amount sufficient to fund the approved local program or project, subject to limits established in the NOFA and consistent with the application. The Standard Agreement shall contain, but not be limited to, the following as appropriate for the activity. In the case of a self-help technical assistance award, the Department shall enter into a Technical Assistance Standard Agreement (TASA) pursuant to CCR Title 25, Division 1, Chapter 7, Subchapter 6.5, Article 3, Section 7554. Where that section and the following deviate, the aforementioned Section 7554 takes precedence.

(1) a description of the approved local program or project and the permitted uses of CalHome program funds;

(2) provisions governing the amount, terms and conditions of the Department's development loan or grant to the Recipient;

(3) for homeownership development projects, provisions governing the construction work and, as applicable, the acquisition of the project site, and the disbursement of loan proceeds;

(4) for self-help technical assistance projects, a budget and a timetable for completion of the project;

(5) requirements for the execution and, where appropriate, the recordation of the agreements and documents required under the CalHome Program;

(6) for a local program or project, the Recipient's responsibilities for operation of the local program or completion of the project, including, but not limited to, number of units to be assisted, marketing, CalHome Program loan processing and funding, construction monitoring and disbursement, report submissions, file documentation;

(7) for a homeownership development project, the Recipient's responsibilities for the development of the project, including, but not limited to,

number of units to be assisted, marketing, processing of individual homebuyer CalHome Program loans, expiration date, report submissions, file documentation;

(8) manner, timing and conditions for disbursement of CalHome Program or project funds to Recipients;

(9) provisions relating to the placement on or in the vicinity of the homeownership development project site, a sign indicating that the Department has provided financing for the project. The Department may also arrange for publicity of the Department CalHome Program homeownership development loan in its sole discretion;

(10) remedies available to the Department in the event of a violation, breach or default of the standard agreement;

(11) requirements that the Recipient permit the Department or its designated agents and employees the right to inspect the project or local program and all books, records and documents maintained by the Recipient in connection with the local program or self-help technical assistance project grant or development loan or local program individual CalHome Program loans;

(12) special conditions imposed on a case-by-case basis as part of Department approval of the local program or project;

(13) terms and conditions required by federal or state law; and

(14) other provisions necessary to ensure compliance with the requirements of the CalHome Program.

(b) Prior to the disbursement of funds, the Department shall enter into a twenty (20) year monitoring agreement with the Recipient requiring the parties to comply with the requirements and provisions of Section 7724 regarding a reuse account established pursuant to the CalHome legislation. The monitoring agreement shall contain, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) requirements regarding the establishment of a reuse account for the deposit of CalHome loan repayments, including interest and principal, and the requirements for disbursement of funds from the reuse account;

(2) the plan for servicing of the CalHome loans as prepared by the Recipient and reviewed and approved by the Department;

(3) the plan for the reuse of CalHome funds;

(4) requirements for submittal of an annual report;

(5) remedies available to the Department in the event of a violation, breach or default of the monitoring agreement;

(6) requirements that the Recipient permit the Department or its designated agents and employees the right to inspect the local program or project and all books, records and documents maintained by the Recipient in connection with the reuse account and long term loan servicing; and

(7) other provisions necessary to ensure compliance with the requirements of the CalHome Program.

(c) All homeowner/homebuyer CalHome Program loans originated by a Recipient shall be evidenced by the following documents and provisions:

(1) a promissory note evidencing the CalHome Program loan, payable to the Recipient in the principal amount of the CalHome Program loan and stating the terms and rate of interest of the CalHome Program loan consistent with the requirements of the CalHome Program. The Recipient is prohibited from assigning their beneficial interest under the note. The note shall be secured by a deed of trust, or other appropriate security instrument acceptable to the Department, on the homeowner/homebuyer property naming the Recipient as beneficiary. This deed of trust or other appropriate security instrument shall be recorded and shall secure the Recipient's financial interest in the project.

(2) in the case of homeowner rehabilitation CalHome Program loans, a loan agreement between the homeowner and the Recipient governing the rehabilitation and the CalHome Program loan terms. The terms of any other financing provided by the Recipient should also be included.

(d) Development loan legal documents shall include, but not be limited to:

(1) a promissory note evidencing the loan, payable to the Department in the principal amount of the loan and stating the terms of the loan consistent with the requirements of the CalHome Program. The note shall be secured by a deed of trust on the project property naming the Department as beneficiary. This deed of trust shall be recorded junior only to such liens, encumbrances and other matters of record approved by the Department and shall secure the Department's financial interest in the project and the performance of the developer borrower's program obligations;

(2) a development agreement between the Department and the developer borrower for not less than the term of the development loan.

(e) Self-help technical assistance grant legal documents shall include, but not be limited to, an agreement between the Recipient and self-help participants which clearly sets forth what is expected of each party and which clearly shows what work is expected of the participating household.

(a) During the term of the Standard Agreement and no later than thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Recipient shall submit to the Department a performance report which shall address the following topics;

(1) Description of current status of program activity, including number of units assisted.

(2) Description of activities to be undertaken in the next reporting period.

(3) Description of problems or delays encountered in program implementation, and course of action taken to address them.

(4) Description of actions to achieve program expenditure deadlines.

(5) Summary of program fiscal status, including:

(A) Award amount.

(B) Funds drawn, and.

(C) Remaining balance.

(b) During the term of the Standard Agreement and Monitoring Agreement, no later than thirty (30) days after June 30th of each year, the Recipient shall submit to the Department an annual performance report which shall address the following topics;

(1) Number of units assisted with CalHome Program loans by program activity type.

(2) Amount of CalHome Program funds spent on CalHome eligible activities by category.

(3) Summary of fiscal status for the reporting period, including

(A) Award amount.

(B) Funds drawn as of June 30th, and.

(C) Remaining balance.

(c) At any time during the term of the Standard Agreement or the Monitoring Agreement, the Department may perform or cause to be performed an independent financial audit of any and all phases of the Recipient's local program, self-help technical assistance project or homeownership development project. At the Department's request, the Recipient shall provide, at its own expense, a financial audit prepared by a certified public accountant.

§ 7755. Performance Goals.

(a) For all local program activities:

(1) One hundred (100) percent of funds must be expended within thirty-six (36) months of the date of the award of funds by the Department. If this goal is not met:

(A) the remaining unused funds shall be disencumbered by the Department; and

(B) if less than ninety-five (95) percent of the funds are expended at the end of the 36th month, the Recipient's next application for funding under the CalHome Program shall receive a penalty deduction in the total points awarded pursuant to the current NOFA.

(b) For homeownership development projects:

(1) the Recipient shall draw down CalHome funds or begin onsite construction within twenty-two (22) months of the award of funds by the Department. If this goal is not met the Department may disencumber all funds and cancel the Department commitment to the project; and

(2) unit construction must be completed and CalHome Program mortgage assistance loans closed within thirty-six (36) months of the award of funds by the Department. If the projected number of assisted units has not been achieved by the end of the 36th month, the Recipient's next application for funding under the CalHome Program shall receive a penalty deduction in the total points awarded pursuant to the current NOFA.

(c) For self-help technical assistance grants:

(1) the Recipient shall begin onsite construction within twelve (12) months of the award of funds by the Department. If this goal is not met the Department may disencumber all funds and cancel the Department commitment to the project; and

(2) unit construction must be completed within thirty-six (36) months of the award of funds by the Department. If this goal is not met then:

(A) the remaining unused funds may be disencumbered by the Department; and

(B) if the projected number of assisted units has not been completed by the end of the 36th month, the Recipient's next application for funding under the CalHome Program shall receive a penalty deduction in the total points awarded pursuant to Section 7751.

§ 7756. Defaults and Loan Cancellations.

(a) Funding commitments may be canceled by the Department under any of the following conditions:

(1) the objectives and requirements of the CalHome Program cannot be met;

(2) implementation of the local program or project cannot proceed in a timely fashion in accordance with the timeframes established in the Standard Agreement; or

(3) funding conditions have not been fulfilled within required time periods.

(b) In the event of a breach or violation by the Recipient of any of the provisions of the Standard Agreement, the Development Agreement, the homeownership project development loan promissory note, or the homeownership project development loan deed of trust, or any other agreement pertaining to the homeownership development project, the Department may give written notice to the sponsor to cure the breach or violation within a period of not less than fifteen (15) days. If the breach or violation is not cured to the satisfaction of the Department within the specified time period, the Department, at its option, may declare a default under the relevant document and may seek legal remedies for the default including the following:

(1) the Department may accelerate all amounts, including outstanding principal and interest, due under the loan and demand immediate repayment thereof. Upon a failure to repay such accelerated amount in full, the Department may proceed with a foreclosure in accordance with the provisions of the deed of trust and state law regarding foreclosures;

(2) the Department may seek, in a court of competent jurisdiction, an order for specific performance of the defaulted obligation or the appointment of a receiver to complete the project in accordance with CalHome Program requirements; and

(3) the Department may seek such other remedies as may be available under the relevant agreement or any law.

(c) Upon receipt of a notice of intent to cancel the commitment from the Department, the Recipient shall have the right to appeal to the Director.

Subchapter 10. Rental Housing Construction Program

Article 1. General

§ 7800. Scope and Application.

(a) These regulations implement and interpret the Rental Housing Construction Program, Sections 50735 through 50770, inclusive, of the Health and Safety Code. They establish procedures for the disbursement of development and subsidy funds and establish policies and procedures for use of these disbursements to provide affordable housing under the Program. They also delegate authority for the initial recommendation of approval, rejection, amendment, and termination of loans or grants, with the exception of emergency loans and loans and grants to the Agency, from the Director of the Department of Housing and Community Development to the Committee referred to in this subchapter.

(b) The program is divided into three main components, designated as

(1) the sponsor development component,

(2) the rights of occupancy component, and

(3) the housing authority component, each of which is financed by the development payments account. In addition, these are complemented by the annuity fund, the management reserve account, and the feasibility account.

(c) Developments financed by the Agency shall be subject to the requirements of Articles 1, 2, and 6. All other developments shall be subject to the requirements of Articles 1 through 5, inclusive.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50737, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50737, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. New Subchapter 10 (Articles 1-6 (Sections 7800-7892, not consecutive)) filed 7-11-80; effective thirtieth day thereafter (Register 80, No. 28).
2. Amendment of subsection (a) filed 11-13-80 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 46). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 3-13-81.
3. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3-13-81 and filed 4-14-81 (Register 81, No. 16).

§ 7801. Severability.

If any provision of this subchapter or the Program, or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstances, is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the part which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this subchapter are severable.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50737, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50737, Health and Safety Code.

§ 7802. Definitions.

The following are definitions governing the Program. They are supplemented by definitions in Subchapter 2 (commencing with Section 6910) of Chapter 6 of Title 25, California Administrative Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 11-13-80 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 46). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 3-13-81.
2. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3-13-81 and filed 4-14-81 (Register 81, No. 16).
3. Amendment filed 10-25-82; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 44).

§ 7804. Priorities.

Priorities for allocation of Program funds for applicants shall be in accordance with the Department's guidelines for a rating system, and for the Agency, in accordance with the explanation by the Agency consistent with the requirements of this subchapter, which will give priority to housing developments which:

(a) are of the lowest cost possible, given Program requirements and local market conditions,

(b) incorporate innovative or energy-efficient design and construction techniques and higher densities, where such techniques and densities result in lower costs without reducing the quality of the housing.

(c) complement the implementation of a local housing program intended to increase the housing supply for persons and families of low or moderate income.

(d) have been subsidized beyond minimum requirements by

(1) funds, services or land contributed or received by the sponsor, or in the case of the housing authority development component by the local housing authority, or

(2) an allocation of Community Development Block grant funds for eligible expenditures including but not limited to rent subsidies, site acquisition, development costs and construction costs,

(e) use available funds in the most efficient manner to produce the maximum number of housing units, and

(f) are located within existing public transit corridors as defined in Section 50093.5 of the Health and Safety Code, to the extent feasible and consistent with the other priorities contained in this section. This priority shall not apply to rental housing developments located in rural areas.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50737, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50737, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (d)(2), (e) and new subsection (f) filed 11-13-80 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 46). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 3-13-81.
2. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3-13-81 and filed 4-14-81 (Register 81, No. 16).

§ 7806. Calculation of Affordable Rents.

(a) For the purposes of the Program, rent for the assisted units shall include all regular charges paid to a sponsor or local housing authority by an eligible household for the use and occupancy of an assisted unit in a rental housing development.

(b) Rent payable for assisted units occupied by very low income households shall be deemed affordable for the purposes of the Program if, including an allowance for utility costs, it does not exceed the greater of:

(1) A "base rent" of twenty-five percent (25%) of the amount payable to specific household sizes pursuant to Section 11453 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as adjusted annually pursuant to Section 11453 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and the size of the unit, as set forth below

1-BR Unit-2 person household
2-BR Unit-2 person household
3-BR Unit-4 person household
4-BR Unit-6 person household
5-BR Unit-8 person household

or, if higher,

(2) twenty-five percent (25%) of the income of such household.

(c) Rent payable for assisted units occupied by other lower income households shall be deemed affordable for the purposes of the Program if, including an allowance for utility costs, it does not exceed the greater of:

(1) a "base rent" of twenty-five percent (25%) of fifty percent (50%) of the area median income adjusted for family size of the geographical area in which the rental housing development is located, or, if higher,

(2) twenty-five percent (25%) of the income of such household.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "utilities" include garbage collection, sewer, water, gas, electricity and other heating, cooling or refrigeration fuels which are billed separately from the rent but do not include the cost of telephone service.

(e) The allowance for utility costs shall be calculated as follows: An estimate of utility usage and costs will be prepared for each assisted unit. Such estimate will be based on a reasonable use of utilities by a typical household and will take into account the size and energy efficiency of each unit, and the cost of such utilities then current with respect to the development, considering any subsidies to which the typical eligible household may be entitled. This estimate shall be the allowance for determination of affordable rent pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c) for the first year of occupancy of the assisted unit. This estimate shall be reviewed annually, taking into account changes in utility costs, and the allowance for utility costs after approval by the Agency or responsible agency shall be adjusted accordingly and implemented pursuant to Sections 7864 and 7888.

(f) Notwithstanding any provision of this section, an eligible household shall not be entitled to receive any payment or "negative rent" if its allowance for utilities exceeds the amount specified in subdivisions (b)(1) or (b)(2) or (c)(1) or (c)(2).

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section, where assisted units are receiving subsidies under Section 8 of Title II of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 as amended, then the rents payable by tenants of such assisted units pursuant to the rules and regulations governing the Section 8 Program shall be deemed affordable for the purpose of this Program.

(h) Where the responsible agency or the Agency is authorized to fix and alter a schedule of rents necessary to provide residents of non-assisted units with affordable rents, to the extent consistent with the maintenance of the financial integrity of the rental housing development, the affordable rents, if any, will be determined by the responsible agency or the Agency on a case-by-case basis consistent with the calculation of rental income necessary to ensure the financial feasibility of the particular rental housing development.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsections (b), (c) and new subsection (g) filed 11-13-80 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 46). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 3-13-81.
2. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3-13-81 and filed 4-14-81 (Register 81, No. 16).
3. Amendment filed 10-25-82; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 44).

§ 7808. Component Accounts.

(a) The Fund is to be allocated to four component accounts, the Development Payments Account, the Annuity Fund Account, the Feasibility Account, and the Management Reserve Account. The Management Reserve Account shall consist of 4(four) percent of the amount in the Fund as of January 1, 1980. The Department shall allocate the remainder of the Fund to the remaining Accounts in such a way so as to ensure that the maximum number of assisted units is developed and maintained at affordable rents and not less than 20 percent of the Fund is allocated for annuity fund payments.

(b) The Department may direct the transfer of funds from one account to another consistent with legal requirements.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50737, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50738, 50740, and 50748, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (a) filed 11-13-80 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 46). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 3-13-81.
2. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3-13-81 and filed 4-14-81 (Register 81, No. 16).

Article 2. Program Requirements

§ 7810. Eligibility of Sponsors.

(a) At the time of application for assistance for a proposed rental housing development, the applicant shall certify to the Department that the sponsor of the proposed rental housing development has or will have the capability to construct, or own and manage, such development in accordance with the criteria set out in subdivision (b).

(b) In determining the capability of a sponsor under this section, the Department and Agency or applicant shall take into account at least the following criteria:

(1) administrative capability,

(2) the sponsor's previous experience in design, construction and management of multi-family rental housing or the experience in such design, construction and management of staff or consultants employed or to be employed by the sponsor, taking into account the size and complexity of the proposed development,

(3) financial capability, and

(4) the possession of sufficient assets or credit to provide adequately for the predevelopment costs of the proposed rental housing development, and contingent expenses.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50732, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50745, Health and Safety Code.

§ 7812. Eligible Projects.

(a) To be eligible for assistance under sponsor development component, the applicant must be the Agency or a local finance entity and a project must be a rental housing development with a sponsor and financed with below-market interest rate financing. In the rental housing development, no less than thirty percent (30%) of the units will be assisted units and no less than twenty percent (20%) of the units shall be available on a priority basis to or occupied by very low- income households, including all households with income equal to or less than fifty percent (50%) of the area median income adjusted for family size.

(b) To be eligible for assistance under the rights of occupancy component, a project must be a rental housing development with a sponsor in which a local housing authority will obtain rights of occupancy to at least thirty percent (30%) of the units, and no less than twenty percent (20%) of the units shall be available on a priority basis to or occupied by very low-income households, including all households with income equal to or less than fifty percent (50%) of the area median income adjusted for family size.

(c) To be eligible for assistance under the housing authority development component, a project must be a rental housing development:

(1) to be developed, constructed, owned and operated by a local housing authority;

(2) in which all of the units will be available to or occupied by eligible households at affordable rents; and

(3) in which two-thirds of the units will be available on a priority basis to or occupied by very low income households, and one-third available on a priority basis to or occupied by other low-income households.

(d) No development shall be eligible for assistance under this subchapter unless construction commenced on or after July 1, 1980. "Construction" for the purposes of this subdivision shall mean on-site improvements including the construction of the rental units and related structures, and excluding demolition, land fill, grading and site improvements intended for public dedication including sewers, utilities, and streets.

(e) No development shall be eligible for assistance under this subchapter unless:

(1) the locality in which the project will be located has an adopted housing element pursuant to Section 65302(c) of the Government Code which the Department has found to be in conformance with Section 65302(c) of the Government Code, or the locality, prior to approval of the project application, has an extension from the Office of Planning and Research pursuant to Government Code, Section 65302.6, to prepare a housing element; or

(2) the Department makes the following findings:

(A) that the proposed housing development has a satisfactory level of compliance with the priorities as set forth in Section 7804; and

(B) that there exists in the region a severe housing shortage for low and moderate income households, and notwithstanding the locality's failure to comply with State housing element requirements, there exists such an overriding need for the particular proposed housing development that state funding is justified.

Where the proposed housing development is a subdivision under the State Subdivision Map Act, the requirements of that Act and Government Code Section 66473.5, shall be met.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 11-13-80 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 46). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 3-13-81.
2. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3-13-81 and filed 4-14-81 (Register 81, No. 16).

§ 7814. Relocation Assistance.

In the event a tenant or owner is displaced because a local government or housing authority acquires property for a development assisted by the Program, the Relocation Guidelines, Title 25, California Administrative Code, Section 6000 et seq., apply to any displacement that results from such acquisition. With respect to any other residential tenants (not owner-occupants) who will be permanently or temporarily relocated due to a development assisted by the Program other than the right of occupancy component, but who are not assisted under the Guidelines, the following requirements will apply.

(a) Such tenants are eligible for relocation assistance and benefits described in this section if they are displaced after approval for financing by a local finance entity or the Agency unless the tenancy is terminated thereafter for good cause as set forth in Section 7860 or they take occupancy after the approval for financing with notice from the sponsor of the approval and potential displacement.

(b) Within a reasonable period of time prior to displacement, each tenant to be permanently relocated will be provided a reasonable choice of suitable replacement housing. "Suitable replacement housing" is:

(1) Decent, safe, and sanitary, and affordable as set forth in Section 7806, and

(2) In a location that is not generally less desirable than the location of the displaced tenant's existing dwelling with respect to public utilities, commercial and public facilities, social and economic characteristics, and the tenant's place of employment (or to sources of employment if the tenant is unemployed but employable).

Each tenant will be reimbursed by the owner for reasonable moving and related expenses as set forth in Section 6090 or may receive, at the discretion of the tenant, a fixed payment as set forth in Section 6098.

(c) A tenant may be required to relocate for a temporary period only if this is necessary to carry out the project and he/she is permitted to occupy a dwelling in the completed development or another assisted development in the area. The temporary relocation may not exceed 12 months in duration in a decent, safe, and sanitary dwelling and the tenant will be reimbursed for actual, reasonable, out- of-pocket expenses including moving costs to and from the temporary housing and any increase in the monthly housing cost (rent and reasonable utilities). If the new dwelling unit is not ready for occupancy within the 12-month period, the tenant will be notified of the earliest anticipated date of occupancy and will have the right to agree to wait until the extended date or to request treatment as being permanently displaced.

(d) All potential displacees will be provided advance written and oral information in a manner which ensures that they understand relocation opportunities and assistance. In addition, appropriate advisory services will be provided to minimize relocation hardships.

(e) No lawful occupant will be required to move from his/her residence without at least 90 days advance written notice of the earliest date by which he/she may be required to move and a 30-day notice prior to the actual date upon which a move is required.

(1) If a tenant is provided but refuses at least three (3) opportunities to move to suitable replacement housing, the sponsor will not be obligated to make further efforts to provide replacement housing.

(2) If affordable, replacement housing subject to subdivision (b) cannot be found, the sponsor's obligation under this section may be satisfied by providing the tenant with a lump sum payment equal to 48 times the amount, if any, necessary to reduce the monthly housing cost (rent and reasonable utilities) of an otherwise suitable replacement unit to an affordable level.

(f) A tenant who believes that this section has been violated may appeal first to the Agency or appropriate responsible agency, if appropriate, and if this appeal does not resolve the issue within a reasonable period of time, may appeal to the Department.

(g) Sponsors are responsible for assuring that payments and services required by this section are provided.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50737, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50737, Health and Safety Code.

§ 7816. Program Requirements.

(a) Except as set forth in Sections 7824 or 7874, no development payment under the sponsor development or housing authority development component shall exceed the lesser of:

(1) one hundred percent (100%) of the development cost of a rental housing development, and

(2) the amount required when considered with below market rate financing to enable the construction of the rental housing development or ensure the economic feasibility of affordable rents for the assisted units.

(b) In addition to other requirements of this subchapter, or all units assisted by the Program:

(1) at least two-thirds shall be made available on a priority basis to or occupied by very low income households, including all households with incomes equal to or less than fifty percent (50%) of the area median income adjusted for family size, and

(2) not less than twenty percent (20%) and not more than thirty percent (30%) shall be available on a priority basis to or occupied by the elderly or handicapped, and

(3) not less than ten percent (10%) shall be accessible to the physically handicapped and such units will be available by or occupied by the handicapped, and

(4) not less than twenty percent (20%) shall be located in a rural area.

(c) Funds sufficient for the construction of forty-eight (48) assisted units specially designed for the mentally and developmentally handicapped, and having access to special supportive services provided by an agency other than the Department, will be reserved for rental housing developments incorporating such units. This reservation of funds will terminate one year after the first Committee meeting. In addition to the reservation of funds for handicapped units under this subdivision, the Department sets as a non-binding goal the reservation of sufficient funds for a further forty-eight (48) such handicapped units until one year after the first Committee meeting. All handicapped units assisted under this subdivision shall be counted as units available to the elderly or handicapped for the purposes of subdivision (b)(2). No units assisted under this subdivision shall be counted as accessible to the physically handicapped for the purposes of subdivision (b)(3), whether or not so accessible.

(d) The Department establishes as a goal affirmative solicitation of and provision of technical assistance to nonprofit and cooperative sponsors.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (b) and (c) filed 11-13-80 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 46). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 3-13-81.
2. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3-13-81 (Register 81, No. 16).

§ 7818. Assistance Payment Enforcement.

(a) If the development assistance payments are made by way of a loan, a deed of trust in favor of the Department, or in the case of payments made through the Agency, in favor of the Agency, securing said loan and the conditions of the regulatory agreement shall be executed which shall create a first or second lien on the housing development with respect to which said loan is made and shall be executed and recorded in accordance with existing applicable laws.

(b) If the development assistance payments are made by way of a grant, the regulatory agreement shall provide that failure to operate the development in accordance with the requirements of the Program shall be deemed to be a violation of the regulatory agreement and shall subject the sponsor to the procedure set forth therein.

(c) The provisions of Sections 7870, and 7892, as applicable, shall apply to the deed of trust or regulatory agreement.

(d) Contemporaneously with the execution and recordation of the deed of trust or regulatory agreement, the Agency or local finance entity shall cause to be recorded, or referenced to a recorded document, in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the assisted units are located, the document(s) evidencing the loan or a grant and conditions therein. It shall be indexed by the recorder in the Grantor Index to the name of the grantee and in the Grantee Index to the name of the State of California, and shall include a legal description of the assisted property that is the subject of the document(s).

(e) The obligations of the sponsor under the regulatory agreement shall provide the responsible agency with regulatory authority that is separate and distinct from, and is not dependent or conditioned upon, any financial interest or claim that such agency might otherwise have with respect to the sponsor on account of the development assistance payments.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 11-13-80 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 46). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 3-13-81.
2. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3-13-81 and filed 4-14-81 (Register 81, No. 15).
3. Amendment of subsection (a) filed 10-25-82; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 44).

Article 3. Development Standards

§ 7820. Eligibility of Loan Finance Entities.

(a) Before the Department makes a conditional commitment to a local finance entity, it shall certify after receipt and review of an application that such entity has the capability of:

(1) ensuring the feasibility of the rental housing development,

(2) monitoring the design and construction of the rental housing development, and

(3) monitoring the management of the rental housing development for a period of thirty (30) years or the term of the below market interest financing, if any, whichever is greater.

(b) In determining the capability of a local finance entity, the Department shall take into account the following criteria:

(1) the entity's ability to provide below market interest financing, as evidenced by the market rating and other relevant factors of bonds issued or to be issued by such entity, or the entity's ability to provide other equivalent assistance, and

(2) administrative capability, as evidenced by the experience of such entity or staff or consultants employed or to be employed by such entity, in implementing grant or loan programs for housing rehabilitation or construction and management of government-assisted housing.

(c) A local finance entity may be eligible for assistance under the Program notwithstanding that it cannot meet the criteria for certification under this section, if:

(1) it is located in a rural area,

(2) the Department or an entity approved by the Department contracts or proposes to contract with it to ensure that the terms of the regulatory agreement between it and the sponsor are carried out, and

(3) the legislative body of the local finance entity consents to such a contract.

(d) A housing authority's eligibility shall be certified in the same manner as a local finance entity.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50737, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Sections 50745, 50750, Health and Safety Code.

§ 7822. Contracts and Agreements.

(a) All assistance provided by the Department shall be governed by contracts binding all applicants and sponsors in accordance with this section, except that assistance through the Agency shall be governed by an Interagency Agreement pursuant to Article 6, and the Agency's sponsors by Section 7882.

(b) Assistance to local finance entities under the sponsor development component shall be governed by a state contract between the Department and the local finance entity and by a development agreement and a regulatory agreement between the local finance entity and the sponsor.

(c) Assistance to local housing authorities under the rights of occupancy component shall be governed by a state contract between the Department and the local housing authority and by a regulatory agreement between the local and housing authority and the sponsor.

(d) Assistance to local housing authorities under the housing authority component shall be governed by a state contract, a development agreement and a regulatory agreement between the Department and the local housing authority. The terms of the contract and the agreements may be incorporated in a single document if the Department so requires.

(e) Provisions and requirements relating to assistance under the annuity trust fund shall be incorporated into the state contract and regulatory agreement governing assistance under the appropriate main component.

(f) Provisions and requirements relating to assistance under the management reserve account and the feasibility account may be incorporated by way of amendment into the state contract and regulatory agreement governing assistance under the appropriate main component.

(g) The Department may require such additional contracts and agreements between the Department, applicants and sponsors as it deems necessary to meet the purposes of the Program.

(h) All state contracts other than the Interagency Operational Agreement and all regulatory agreements shall be recorded or referenced in a recorded document in the office of the county recorder in the county in which the rental housing development to which they relate is located. When so recorded, they shall constitute a lien on the rental housing development in accordance with Section 7818 for the performance of conditions, including the payment of any money, specified therein. Recorded state contracts shall be indexed in the grantor index to the name of the sponsor and in the grantee index to the State of California. Recorded regulatory agreements shall be indexed in the grantor index to the name of the sponsor and in the grantee index to the name of the applicant.

(i) All state contracts and regulatory or development agreements shall contain such provisions as the Department considers necessary to meet the purposes of the Program, including but not limited to:

(1) a description of how the assistance under the Program will be used to ensure that each assisted unit will remain available on a priority basis to or occupied by eligible households for a period of not less than thirty (30) years or the term of the below market interest financing, if any, whichever is greater.

(2) specification of the amount, manner, terms and timing of payments, including annuity fund payments, by the Department and the applicant under state contracts and regulatory agreements, respectively, so as to ensure the economic feasibility of the rental housing development and to protect the interests of the State.

(3) requirements for reporting in accordance with Section 7850.

(4) a provision that the covenants and conditions of such contracts and agreements shall be binding upon the successors in interest to the parties thereto,

(5) a provision requiring that the local finance entity and sponsor agree to abide by the directives of the Department with respect to excess annuity fund payments and/or excess rent receipts when incoming from assisted units and/or annuity fund payments are greater than approved operating costs and when, in the Department's judgment, the assisted units can operate with less rent receipts and/or annuity fund payments, and

(6) a provision stating that the Department and the local finance entity, by mutual agreement, may reduce the number of assisted units in a rental housing development only if the annuity fund cannot provide adequate assistance to maintain the development's fiscal integrity. Any such reduction shall be reviewed no less often than annually as to its continued necessity.

(j) State contracts, in addition to provisions required in subdivision (i), shall contain provisions which:

(1) require the Department's approval of regulatory agreements and development agreements, or any amendments thereto, before such agreements or amendments are entered into by the parties thereto,

(2) assign to the Department the responsible agency's right to enforce the regulatory and development agreements in the event of the responsible agency's failure to enforce such agreements, and

(3) govern the use of annuity trust fund payments in accordance with Section 7834.

(k) Regulatory agreements, in addition to provisions required in subdivision (i), shall contain provisions which:

(1) restrict availability and occupancy of assisted units to eligible households, in accordance with this subchapter, for a period of no less than thirty (30) years or the term of the below market interest financing, if any, whichever is greater,

(2) specify the number of non-assisted and assisted units in the rental housing development and the projected rents for those units.

(3) with respect to the assisted units, specify tenant selection and occupancy standards in accordance with this subchapter,

(4) with respect to all units in the rental housing development, specify the terms of occupancy agreements in accordance with this subchapter,

(5) with respect to all units in the rental housing development, specify procedures for increases in rent in accordance with Section 7864,

(6) limit the sponsor's return on investment in accordance with Section 7866,

(7) make the agreement, or any amendment thereto, of no force or effect unless it has been approved by the Department before being entered into by the parties thereto.

(8) with respect to all units in the rental housing development, require for all documents made available or used by occupants, that copies be available in the language(s) commonly spoken by residents of the area, and

(9) with respect to the non-assisted units authorize the responsible agency to fix and alter a schedule of rents such as may be necessary to provide residents of the rental housing development with affordable rents to be consistent with the financial integrity of the rental housing development.

(10) with respect to all units in the rental housing development, require an annual budget in accordance with Section 7850.

(11) with respect to the assisted units in the rental housing development, require the return of all excess rents to the Department, and

(12) govern the establishment, procedures for use, and terms for recapture of the occupancy reserve and surplus payment reserve, if any, provided in subsection 7834(d).

(f) All development agreements shall contain provisions which:

(1) require, pursuant to state or federal law, payment of prevailing wage rates in the construction of a rental housing development,

(2) require, pursuant to state or federal law, the use of affirmative action by hiring by all contractors and subcontractors involved in the construction of a rental housing development,

(3) require, pursuant to state or federal law, such contractors and subcontractors to provide employment and training opportunities for building trades apprentices, and

(4) specify the building and property codes and standards applicable to the rental housing development.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 11-13-80 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 46). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 3-13-81.
2. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3-13-81 and filed 4-14-81 (Register 80, No. 16).
3. Amendment of subsections (k) and (l) filed 10-25-82; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 44).

§ 7824. Development Standards and Costs.

(a) All rental housing developments shall conform to all applicable state and local building codes, zoning ordinances, and general plan requirements. If a locality approves an exception to such ordinances and requirements in order to facilitate construction of a rental housing development, such a development shall be considered to be in compliance with the requirements of this section.

(b) To the maximum extent feasible, the units of a specific size and nature available to assisted and unassisted households in a development shall be alike in size, design and characteristics and such units shall not be segregated.

(c) Amenities in the development generally must be limited to those which are generally provided in conventional housing of modest design in the area. All amenities will be subject to strict scrutiny by the Department. The use of energy efficient construction techniques or materials, or more durable, high quality materials to control or reduce maintenance, repair, or replacement costs, will not be considered an excess amenity.

(d) The standards of this section shall be utilized by the Department in applying priorities pursuant to Section 7804.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50737, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50737, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsections (b) and (c) filed 11-13-80 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 46). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 3-13-81.
2. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3-13-81 and filed 4-14-81 (Register 81, No. 16).

§ 7826. Site Selection Criteria.

Proposed project sites must be certified by the applicant as meeting the following criteria:

(a) The site and neighborhood must be suitable for the type of housing proposed.

(b) The site must be free from severe environmental or social conditions, or such conditions must be mitigated when the housing is completed.

(c) The housing must be accessible to employment and to appropriate social, recreational, educational, commercial and health services that are typically found in the market-rate residential neighborhoods consisting largely of unassisted housing.

(d) The project must not be built on a site that has occupied residential structures which would be razed or from which residents would be permanently displaced, or has had such structures within the six months prior to application to the applicant.

(e) The project may not be built in an area identified as having special flood hazards unless the project is covered by flood insurance.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (d) filed 11-13-80 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 46). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 3-13-81.
2. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3-13-81 and filed 4-14-81 (Register No. 16).

Article 4. Application Procedure and Review

§ 7830. Prerequisites of Applications.

(a) Prior to submission of an application to the Department, the sponsor, or the local housing authority in the case of an application under the housing authority development component, shall have site control of the site of the proposed rental housing development.

(b) Where the proposed rental housing development is likely to contain more than fifty (50) assisted units, the applicant shall give the Department advance notice of its proposed application. Such notice shall be given as far in advance of the submission of the application as possible, but generally no less than thirty (30) days before such submission. Such notice shall not constitute a pre-application, but is required to enable the Department to meet its regional and other allocation quotas.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50737, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50737, Health and Safety Code.

§ 7832. Applications for Development Payment.

(a) Pre-applications by local finance entities and local housing authorities are to be made on the Department's application forms and in accordance with the Request For Proposals and guidelines to be issued by the Department and shall be submitted in compliance with Department instructions.

(b) Assistance from the development payments account shall be used for the purpose of reducing approved development costs of assisted units so that rents in those units remain affordable to eligible households.

(c) The application shall provide all information required by the pre-application form, including but not limited to:

(1) evidence of eligibility of the applicant, including information required for certification under Section 7820.

(2) evidence of eligibility of the project for which the application is made,

(3) evidence of the applicant's and sponsor's compliance with the prerequisites for application in accordance with Section 7830,

(4) evidence of eligibility of the sponsor (including certification of capacity under Section 7810 of these regulations), or evidence of the capability of the local housing authority,

(5) a description of the proposed rental housing development, including the number and sizes of assisted and unassisted units, the number of structures, location, access to amenities, and suitability of site,

(6) a site map indicating the location of the assisted and nonassisted units,

(7) preliminary drawings of the assisted and non-assisted units,

(8) information as to the proposed construction of the rental housing development, including the general contractor's name and experience, if known, method of construction, incorporation of solar and energy efficient design features and systems, and other special features,

(9) information as to the financial aspects of the rental housing development, including the anticipated amount and form of assistance applied for, a general breakdown of development costs, anticipated sources and terms of financing, projected operating expenses, and a statement indicating how assistance under the Program will be used to provide affordable rents to eligible households in assisted units and how the economic integrity of the rental housing development will be maintained,

(10) information as to the planning aspects of the rental housing development, including anticipated or actual compliance with the local general plan and housing element, zoning, and access to utilities,

(11) a market analysis indicating the feasibility of the proposed project in view of existing market factors, including housing demand at comparable rents, area housing needs and income levels, and regional and local vacancy rates,

(12) information qualifying the applicant for consideration under any of the priority factors included in Section 7804,

(13) information as to the projected occupancy of the assisted units (elderly, family, and/or handicapped),

(14) information as to existing structures on the proposed development site, and

(15) any other information which the Department may reasonably require to determine the eligibility or appropriateness of the proposed rental housing development for assistance under the Program.

(d) The applicant shall provide all information required by the final application form, including but not limited to:

(1) a construction timetable and incorporation of prevailing wage, equal opportunity and apprenticeship requirements,

(2) a set of architectural drawings including location, type and design of energy system and provisions for passive solar design,

(3) information as to the sources and terms of financing,

(4) information as to access to utilities, services and employment, and

(5) any other information which the Department may reasonably require to determine the eligibility or appropriateness of the rental housing development for assistance under the Program.

(e) The applicant shall provide additional information before loan and grant closing, including:

(1) a relocation plan, if necessary, including a program for implementation pursuant to Section 7814,

(2) evidence of compliance or ability to comply with the California Environment Quality Act, and regulations promulgated thereunder, and if applicable, the California Coastal Act and other relevant state law, and

(3) any other information which the Department may reasonably require to determine eligibility or appropriateness of the rental housing development for assistance under the Program.

NOTE: Authority cited: Section 50737, Health and Safety Code. Reference: Section 50737, Health and Safety Code.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 11–13–80 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 46). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 3–13–81.
2. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3–13–81 and filed 4–14–81 (Register 81, No. 16).

§ 7834. Applications for Annuity Funds.

(a) Application for annuity fund payments shall be made on the Department's application form and provide all required information.

(b) When the Department determines that assistance from the development payments account is insufficient to provide affordable rents to eligible households in assisted units, assistance may be authorized from the annuity fund.

(c) Annuity fund loan and grant closing shall be concurrent with development payment(s) loan and grant closing.

(d) Assistance from the annuity fund shall be used for the purpose of reducing rent levels in assisted units so that rents in those units remain affordable to eligible households. Such assistance shall be used to subsidize approved operating costs of the assisted units. "Operating costs" means reasonable and justifiable costs for the following items:

(1) management, including a management fee (which includes all indirect and direct costs of collecting rents and any salary or other payment to an on–site manager), advertising, legal, accounting, and telephone;

(2) operations, including heating and lighting for common areas, water, elevator maintenance, common area maintenance and supplies, garbage and trash removal, payroll and payroll taxes, insurance, janitorial supplies, ground and drives maintenance, exterminating, and office supplies;

(3) maintenance, including decorating and repairs;

(4) vacancy reserve;

(5) replacement reserve;

(6) real estate taxes;

(7) in the case of cooperatives, an occupancy reserve which shall be for the purpose of providing downpayment loans to occupants of assisted units within the cooperative; and

(8) in the case of cooperatives, a surplus payment reserve which shall be for the purpose of reducing carrying charges to a household which initially occupied an assisted unit within the cooperative and whose income exceeds the income limits established by this Program.

(e) Applications for payments from the annuity fund, in addition to other information required by the Department, shall include:

(1) the anticipated amount of assistance, required, based on cost projections provided by the Department, and

(2) a description of how the annuity payments will be used for eligible costs to reduce rents to ensure the affordability of assisted units consistent with the fiscal integrity of the rental housing development.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 11–13–80 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 46). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 3–13–81.
2. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3–13–81 and filed 4–14–81 (Register 81 No. 16).
3. Amendment of subsection (d) filed 10–25–81; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 44).

§ 7836. Applications for Management Reserve Funds.

(a) Applications for management reserve funds shall be made on the Department's application form and provide all required information.

(b) Assistance from the management reserve account is available only to defray unavoidable cost increases in maintenance, taxes, utility or management costs, or charges for common areas and services, in order to maintain affordable rents in assisted units. Management reserve funds may be used only to the extent that;

(1) the annuity fund payment projected for the development is insufficient to provide rents that are affordable in the assisted units,

(2) there are insufficient annuity funds or excess rent revenues, and

(3) the sponsor can substantiate that the need for such funds is the result of unexpectedly low rent payments, extraordinary operational expenses, uninsured damages, or other extraordinary or unforeseen expenses approved by the Department.

(c) Applications for assistance from the management reserve account, in addition to other information required by the Department shall include:

(1) the anticipated amount of assistance required and the basis for the calculation of that amount,

(2) substantiation of the information required by subdivision (b), including the jeopardy to the fiscal integrity of the development,

(3) information as to how the cost increases will result in unaffordable rents in the assisted units, and

(4) what measures the applicant and sponsor have taken to reduce costs and to maintain the fiscal integrity and affordable rents in the future.

§ 7838. Applications for Feasibility Account Funds.

(a) Applications for payments from the feasibility account shall be made on the Department's application form and shall provide all required information.

(b) Assistance from the feasibility account shall be available to defray development costs or short-term operational costs of non-assisted units if the Department determines that:

(1) additional payments are necessary to ensure the economic feasibility of the development,

(2) without additional payments the development could not or would not be undertaken, and

(3) sufficient funds are available to make such payments and not more than 10% of the Fund would be used for such payments.

(c) Applications for assistance from the feasibility account, in addition to other information required by the Department, shall include:

(1) the anticipated amount of assistance required and the basis for the calculation of that amount, and

(2) substantiation of the information required by subdivision (b).

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (b) filed 11-13-80 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 36). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 3-13-81.
2. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3-13-81 and filed 4-14-81 (Register 81, No. 16).

§ 7840. Staff Review of Applications.

(a) Pre-applications will be reviewed to determine if they are complete, accurate, and generally in compliance with this subchapter. The Committee may establish application dates, prior to and subsequent to which no applications will be accepted for processing.

(b) Program staff shall review all pre-applications to determine their eligibility and the appropriateness of providing assistance from the Fund.

(c) In conducting its review, program staff shall, at a minimum:

(1) certify as to the capability of the local finance entity and the sponsor, if any, in accordance with Sections 7820 and 7812,

(2) determine the priority of the pre-application under Section 7804,

(3) establish compliance with Section 7812(e) and Department's Statewide Housing Plan,

(4) consider the allocation of assisted units throughout the state in accordance with identified housing needs and Section 7816(b), and

(5) review other relevant information to ensure that the application complies with the requirements and intent of the Program.

(d) On the basis of its review of the pre-application, Program staff will submit recommended pre-applications to the Committee for its consideration.

(e) When a pre-application is recommended to the Committee for review, the applicant shall be notified of the recommendation and the date and time of the Committee hearing considering the pre-application. When a pre-application is not recommended to the Committee for review, the applicant shall be notified of the negative recommendation of the pre-application, the reasons therefore, the right to appeal the action to the committee, and method and timing of such an appeal.

(f) After conditional commitment, the staff shall review the final application to determine compliance with all conditions. Material noncompliance with any condition, lack of progress in fulfilling conditions, and other material facts shall be reported to the Committee.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsections (d), (e) and (f) filed 11-13-80 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 46). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 3-13-81.
2. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3-13-81 and filed 4-14-81 (Register 81, No. 16).

§ 7842. Committee Review of Applications and Other Matters.

(a) The Committee shall be responsible for the review and recommendation of all pre-applications for assistance, the allocations for assistance, the allocation of Program funds between the component accounts established by this subchapter, and such other functions and duties as may be required by the Director.

(b) The Committee shall operate and consist of members as set forth in Subchapter 1 (commencing with Section 6900) of Chapter 6.5 of Part 1 of Title 25, California Administrative Code.

(c) In reviewing any matter under this subchapter, the Committee shall consider the recommendations of Program staff; the application; and written or oral testimony, if any, from the applicant, the sponsor, or any other interested person.

(d) In its review, the Committee shall take into account:

(1) compliance with this subchapter,

(2) rating with respect to priorities,

(3) whether the provision of assistance to the sponsor will result in the most effective and efficient use of available funds,

(4) the geographic distribution of assisted units throughout the state in accordance with identified housing needs,

(5) the allocation of assistance pursuant to Section 7816(b),

(6) whether approval of the costs of permanent financing as developmental costs will reduce expenses to the Program over the life of the State Contract, and

(7) such other considerations as are consistent with the terms and objectives of the program.

(e) The Committee shall inform the Director in writing of its recommendation, stating:

(1) that it recommends for conditional commitment, postponed consideration of, or recommended rejection of the pre-application, or taken such other action with respect to other matters as is deemed appropriate,

(2) the conditions, if any, attached to its recommendation for conditional commitment or other directive of the reasons for its recommendation for rejection of postponement of consideration.

(f) The Committee, in any recommendation of approval of any pre-application, shall specify any terms, conditions, or special requirements which are not present in the pre-application, as well as form, term, and timing of assistance payments.

(g) The Committee, in reviewing the progress of developments, amendments of any agreements, or other actions permitted by the Program shall consider all relevant and available information prior to making a recommendation to amend, terminate or otherwise effect an application or development.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 11-13-80 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 46). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 3-13-81.
2. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3-13-81 and filed 4-14-81 (Register 81, No. 16).

§ 7844. Action by the Director and Applicant Request for Reconsideration.

(a) The Director shall, within (15) days of the Committee recommendation, inform the applicant in writing of his/her decision stating:

(1) that the pre-application has been approved for conditional commitment and condition, if any, attached to the commitment.

(2) that the pre-application has been postponed by the Committee and the date that it will be reconsidered or an explanation of the actions necessary for it to be reconsidered.

(3) that the pre-application has been rejected and the specific reasons for the rejection.

(b) If the applicant is dissatisfied with any action of the Director regarding the disposition of the pre-application, it may within thirty (30) days of the date of the Director's decision, request, in writing, a reconsideration of the decision, stating the items to be reconsidered and fully supporting the grounds for the reconsideration.

(c) With respect to any request for reconsideration pursuant to subdivision (b), the Director shall:

(1) within twenty (20) days of the date of documented receipt of the request hold an open hearing at which the applicant, sponsor, program staff and any interested person may make oral or written submissions as to the action the Department should take, and

(2) within thirty (30) days of the date of documented receipt of the request notify in writing the applicant of the Director's determination of the request.

(d) The Director's determination of the appeal shall be final.

2. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3-13-81 and filed 4-14-81 (Register 80, No. 16).

§ 7846. Disbursements.

(a) At the time of Department approval of pre-application, the Department shall reserve a sum of no more than 120% of the amount of assistance approved for a specific development for a period not to exceed one year. The Department shall disburse funds to the local finance entity or housing authority after closing of the loan and execution of the state contract or any amendment thereto, provided that all terms and conditions of the approved application are met, pursuant to the terms of the State contract.

(b) Upon receipt of funds from the Department, the responsible agency shall establish an appropriate project account and, pending further disbursements by the responsible agency, shall invest the funds and remit interest thereon to the Department at the time specified by the state contract. Funds from the account shall not be disbursed for the development except as permitted by this subchapter and the state contract, development contract, or regulatory agreement.

(c) With the written approval of the responsible agency the Department may disburse payments directly to the sponsor or its designee. However, the responsible agency shall ensure that all conditions precedent to such payment are to be met.

Article 5. Operations

§ 7850. Reporting.

(a) The regulatory agreement between the sponsor and the responsible agency shall contain a requirement that the sponsor report to the responsible agency in a form approved by the Department at least annually.

(b) The state contract between the responsible agency and the Department shall contain a requirement that the responsible agency monitor the rental housing development and report annually to the Department in a form approved by the Department. Each report shall deal separately with each rental housing development for which the responsible agency is responsible and shall be submitted to the Department no later than ninety (90) days after the beginning of each fiscal year established for the rental housing development. The report shall contain such information as the Department may require, including but not limited to:

(1) the fiscal condition of the rental housing development, including an audited financial statement indicating surplus or deficits in operating accounts and the amount of any fiscal reserves,

(2) the substantial physical defects in the rental housing development, including a description of any major repair or maintenance work undertaken in the reporting year,

(3) the occupancy of the rental housing development indicating,

(A) the number and sizes of assisted units available to or occupied by eligible households,

(B) the distribution of incomes of eligible households,

(C) the ethnic groups to which eligible households belong, and

(D) the numbers of eligible very low income and other lower income households on waiting list for assisted units,

(4) general management performance, including tenant relations and other relevant information.

(c) The state contract between the responsible agency and the Department shall contain a requirement that no later than ninety (90) days before the beginning of each fiscal year established for the rental housing development the responsible agency shall submit to the Department a proposed budget for each rental housing development for which such agency is responsible. Such budget shall be in a form approved by the Department and shall include information as to projected rents, operating expenses and utility costs for the next fiscal year and carrying charges, including excess rents from the previous fiscal year, and shall be accompanied by a request for use of annuity funds or an application for management reserve or feasibility funds, if such funds are required to maintain the fiscal integrity of the rental housing development.

(d) The responsible agency shall immediately report to the Department any actual or impending default by the Sponsor under the Regulatory Agreement or deed of trust.

(e) Each rental housing development shall operate on a fiscal year determined by the Department and specified in the regulatory agreement.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 11-13-80 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 46). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 3-13-81.
2. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3-13-81 and filed 4-14-81 (Register 81, No. 16).
3. Amendment of subsection (c) filed 10-25-82; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 44).

§ 7852. Contract and Agreement Amendments.

(a) The Department may approve an amendment to the state contract to reflect any change in development funds only:

(1) to correct substantial errors by the Department, the Agency, the local finance entity or the local housing authority in the original processing which would otherwise result in serious inequities,

(2) to reflect differing costs which result from new requirements imposed by local government, the Department, the Agency, local finance entities, the local housing authority, or federal agencies which are beyond the control of the owner, which have been approved by the Department, and which could not have been anticipated at the time the state contract was executed, or

(3) to reflect differing costs which result from a change in contractor which is necessary because the original contractor became bankrupt, was terminated by the sponsor due to inadequate performance or abandoned the job.

(b) Amendments pursuant to subdivision (a) will be limited to the amount necessary to cover the specific cost increase associated with the applicable item cited in the request and limited to a pro rata share based on the portion of the difference attributable to the assisted units. The Department shall not authorize a change in funding until such time as the local finance entity or housing authority has approved a proportional adjustment in development costs for the non-assisted units.

(c) Amendments of the state contract and regulatory agreement to increase or decrease the amount of annuity fund payments and/or increase or decrease the number of assisted units shall be fully supported by circumstances requiring the adjustment, including the extent to which the cost changes were within the control of the sponsor. Such amendments shall be considered by the Department concurrently.

(d) Other amendments of the state contract and regulatory agreement to change any terms of the approved application shall be fully supported by circumstances requiring the amendment.

(e) Requests for any amendments permitted by this section shall be submitted to the Department at least three weeks prior to a scheduled meeting of the Committee.

§ 7854. Tenant Occupancy Standards.

(a) The regulatory agreement between the sponsor and the responsible agency shall require standards for occupancy of assisted units. Included in such standards shall be the requirement that one bedroom units shall be assigned ordinarily to single person households only when there are no efficiency units available.

(b) The general standards for determination of a tenant's unit size are as follows:

Unit Size	Minimum No. of Persons in Household	Maximum No. of Persons in Household
0–BR	1	1
1–BR	1	2
2–BR	2	4
3–BR	4	6
4–BR	6	8
5–BR	8	10

(c) Flexibility for assignment to a different sized unit is permitted if special circumstances warrant such an assignment and its reason are documented in the tenant's file.

§ 7856. Tenant Selection Procedures.

The regulatory agreement between the responsible agency and the sponsor shall require the development of tenant selection procedures which shall require at least the following plans and procedures with respect to the selection and admission of households applying to occupy assisted units and which, after approval by the responsible agency, shall form part of the regulatory agreement and be binding on the sponsor while the assistance remains in effect.

(a) An affirmative marketing plan shall be established which must include the following:

(1) Local residency requirements are prohibited. Local residency preferences are discouraged except as required by subdivision (b).

(2) Policies to achieve greater access to housing opportunities created by the Program for all persons regardless of race, sex, marital status, color, religion, national origin, handicap, other arbitrary factors.

(3) In general, all the requirements of the affirmative fair housing marketing plan required by Title 24, Code of Federal Regulations Section 883.315 and the Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Regulations in Title 24, Code of Federal Regulations Sections 200.600 et seq., whether or not federal assistance is received.

(b) A tenant preference plan shall detail the manner in which the housing sponsor will give preference in the renting of units:

(1) To tenants displaced from housing by this or other government–assisted housing developments or by other governmental actions or natural disasters.

(2) To families with dependent children for multi–bedroom units.

(c) In the case of cooperatives, the tenant selection plan and procedures shall specify the selection criteria for membership, grounds for determination of unsuitability and procedures for appeal. Selection and suitability criteria shall not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, national origin, language, sex, source of income, handicap, family makeup, or any other arbitrary factor.

(d) The sponsor shall advertise and solicit applications from potential tenants in accordance with the approved marketing and selection plans. Applications shall be in a form approved by the Department and shall be available for examination by the responsible agency.

(e) On receipt of the application, the sponsor shall determine the eligibility and, in the case of cooperatives, the suitability of the household under this subchapter; verify the information supplied by the household in the application; and certify the income of the household for the purpose of determining the rent affordable to such household pursuant to Section 7806.

(f) If the sponsor determines that the potential tenant is eligible and, in the case of cooperatives, suitable, the sponsor shall promptly so notify the potential tenant of eligibility and, based on turnover history, when a unit may be available.

(g) If the sponsor determines that the potential tenant is not eligible or, in the case of cooperatives, unsuitable to occupy an assisted unit, the sponsor shall promptly notify the potential tenant in writing stating the reasons for such determination and the procedure for appeal pursuant to Section 7862.

(h) The sponsor shall compile an initial list of eligible households applying to occupy assisted units. Such a list will indicate whether such households are very low income households or other lower income households and after separating households into preferences pursuant to subdivision (b), shall place households in such groups in an order of priority determined by lot or another method approved by the Department. After initial tenancies, the priority shall be established in order of application, except that tenants entitled to preference shall receive preference over non–preference households.

(i) The sponsor may refuse to place an eligible household on the list required by subdivision (h) or remove such household from such list if the sponsor determines that such household has unreasonably provided false information in its application, or has, in the two years preceding the application, been evicted by a court of law on more than one occasion on grounds which were consistent with Section 7860(b), or in the case of cooperatives, on the grounds of unsuitability. The sponsor may not use status criteria including but not limited to source of income or marital status in determining eligibility. A potential tenant refused a rental unit or a place on a waiting list shall be notified in writing stating the reasons for such determination and the procedure for appeal of this decision pursuant to Section 7862.

(j) As assisted units become available, the sponsor shall offer them for occupancy by eligible households in accordance with the application date and with the requirement for occupancy by different income levels pursuant to the provisions of the regulatory agreement.

(k) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the Department may permit to be incorporated in a regulatory agreement such other tenant selection and occupancy standards as it considers necessary to ensure the fiscal integrity of the project, to ensure an adequate economic mix of income groups, or to require other reasonable standards where the nature or location of the rental housing development requires such standards.

HISTORY

1. Amendment filed 10–25–82; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 44).
2. Editorial correction of subsection (i) filed 11–2–82 (Register 82, No. 44).

§ 7858. Lease and Occupancy Procedures.

(a) Each household selected to occupy a unit in the rental housing development shall enter into a lease with the sponsor of the rental housing development. Such a lease shall be a standard form approved by the Department, including but not limited to the following terms:

(1) a tenancy from year to year, with a provision allowing the tenant to terminate the tenancy on thirty (30) days written notice to the sponsor or, in the case of cooperatives, terms to be approved by the Department,

(2) termination provisions in compliance with Section 7860.

(3) provisions relating to the annual recertification of the income of the tenant in an assisted unit in accordance with this section,

(4) provisions relating to security, cleaning and other deposits in accordance with law, and in the case of cooperatives, the downpayment,

(5) provisions requiring notice of approved rent increases pursuant to Section 7864.

(b) In the case of cooperative ownership, the sponsor shall have provisions for downpayments in accordance with the following:

(1) Downpayments as applicable to very low income households shall not exceed 2.5 percent of the prorated development cost for the unit, plus the equity appreciation at a rate approved by the Department.

(2) Downpayments as applicable to other lower income households shall not exceed 3.5 percent of the prorated development cost for the unit, plus the equity appreciation at a rate approved by the Department.

(3) The required cash contribution to be paid by an eligible household toward the downpayment at or before occupancy shall not exceed ten percent (10%) of the household's income over the preceding twelve (12) months.

(4) The cooperative may issue the tenant a loan equal to the difference between the downpayment and the cash contribution. The terms for such loan shall be approved by the Department, but in no case shall the total payments made during the year exceed the greater of ten percent (10%) of the original loan amount or one month's carrying charge determined at the most recent income recertification.

(c) The sponsor may establish reasonable rules of conduct and occupancy which shall be in writing, and given to each tenant.

(d) With respect to tenants of assisted units, the tenant's income shall be recertified once each year in accordance with the following procedure:

(1) The sponsor shall notify the tenant in writing thirty (30) days in advance of the impending recertification, requiring the tenant to submit to the sponsor a declaration of income within 30 days in a form approved by the Department; and

(2) The sponsor shall verify the accuracy of the declaration, certify the tenant's income accordingly and notify the tenant in writing of the certification and any resultant changes in the tenant's rent and right to occupy an assisted unit pursuant to subsections (e), (f), (g) and (h), and the tenant's right to appeal such determinations pursuant to Section 7862.

(e) Where the tenant in an assisted unit was a very low income household and on recertification the tenant's income exceeds:

(1) fifty percent (50%) of the area median income adjusted for family size but not the upper limit for lower income households, the tenant's rent shall be set no higher than twenty-five percent (25%) of the tenant's income including an allowance for utility costs in accordance with section 7806,

(2) the upper limit for lower income households, the tenant

(A) shall from the date of recertification pay rent equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of the tenant's income including an allowance for utilities, and

(B) shall have a right of first refusal where provided for in the regulatory agreement for any appropriate-sized, non- assisted unit in the rental housing development which becomes vacant within six (6) months of the date of recertification or their own unit if an appropriate-sized, non-assisted unit becomes occupied by an eligible household within six months. Where more than one tenant has such a right of first refusal the priority of each tenant's right of refusal shall be determined by lot, and

(C) shall be required to vacate the assisted unit no later than six (6) months from the date of recertification if the tenant's continued residency would cause a reduction in the number of assisted units occupied by eligible households in the development.

(f) Where the tenant in an assisted unit was a lower income household but not a very low income household and on recertification the tenant's income:

(1) falls below fifty-one percent (51%) of the area median income adjusted for family size the tenant shall pay rent pursuant to Section 7806(c)(1). When a vacancy occurs in an assisted unit in the rental housing development occupied until such vacancy by a household, with an income equal to or less than fifty percent (50%) of the area median income adjusted for family size, the tenant's rent shall be reduced to the amount set forth in Section 7806(b).

(2) exceeds the upper limit for lower income households, the provisions of subdivision (d)(2) shall apply.

(g) In case of cooperatives where the tenant in an assisted unit was a very low income household and on recertification the tenant's income exceeds:

(1) fifty percent (50%) of the area median income adjusted for family size but not the upper limit for lower income households, the provisions of 7858(e)(1) shall apply.

(2) the upper limit for lower income households but not in excess of ninety percent (90%) of the area median income adjusted for family size, the tenant shall from the date of recertification pay carrying charges equal to thirty-five percent (35%) of the tenant's income including an allowance for utilities.

(3) ninety percent (90%) of the area median income, adjusted for family size, the tenant:

(A) shall from the date of recertification pay a carrying charge equal to thirty-five percent (35%) of the tenant's income including an allowance for utilities but not to exceed the carrying charges of a nonassisted unit.

(B) shall have a right of first refusal where provided for in the regulatory agreement for any appropriate-sized, nonassisted unit in the cooperative which becomes vacant within twelve months of the date of recertification or their own unit.

(C) shall after twelve months pay carrying charges equal to the carrying charges for a equivalent nonassisted unit.

(h) In the case of cooperatives where the tenant in an assisted unit was a lower income household and on recertification the tenant's income:

(1) falls below fifty-one percent (51%) of the area median income adjusted for family size, the provisions of Section 7858(f)(1) shall apply.

(2) exceeds the upper limit for lower income households but is less than ninety percent (90%) of the area median adjusted for family size, the provisions of Section 7858(g)(2) shall apply.

(3) exceeds ninety percent (90%) of area median adjusted for family size, the provisions of Section 7858(g)(3) shall apply.

(i) In the case of cooperatives where the income of an existing member occupying an assisted unit exceeds ninety percent of the median income, the next comparable available unit shall be deemed an assisted unit.

(j) Except as specifically set forth in this subchapter, leases and landlord-tenant relationships shall be subject to California law.

1. Amendment filed 11-13-80 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 46). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 3-13-81.
2. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3-13-81 and filed 4-14-81 (Register 81, No. 16).
3. Amendment filed 10-25-82; effective upon filing pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.2(d) (Register 82, No. 44).
4. Editorial correction of subsection (d)(2) filed 11-2-82 (Register 82, No. 44).

§ 7860. Termination and Eviction.

(a) A tenancy in a unit in a rental housing development may be terminated without the termination being deemed an eviction under the following circumstances:

(1) death of the sole tenant of a unit,

(2) by the tenant at the expiration of a term of occupancy,

(3) by abandonment of the premises by the tenant, or

(4) with respect to a tenant of an assisted unit by a failure to maintain financial eligibility pursuant to Section 7858, providing the sponsor gives the tenant 60 days written notice of such termination.

Any termination of a tenancy other than those listed in this subdivision shall constitute an "eviction" and shall be effected only pursuant to the remaining provisions of the section.

(b) The sponsor shall not evict any tenant in violation of California law and only upon the following grounds: material noncompliance with the lease, material failure to carry out obligations under state law, or any other good cause which may include the refusal of a family to accept an approved modified lease. "Material noncompliance with the lease" includes one or more substantial violations of the lease or habitual minor violations of the lease which:

(1) disrupt the livability of a building,

(2) adversely affect the health or safety of any person or the right of any tenant to the quiet enjoyment of the leased premises and related facilities,

(3) interfere with the management of the building, or

(4) have an adverse financial effect on the building. Rent shall be due on the first day of the rental period but will not be late until the sixth day of that period. Non-payment of rent or any other financial obligation under the lease after a three-day notice to pay rent or quit will constitute material noncompliance with the lease, but payment during such a period will constitute a minor violation.

(c) Notice of termination or eviction shall be provided to the tenant pursuant to law, except that such notice shall contain in addition to other required information, a statement of the facts constituting cause for eviction and the right of a tenant to a hearing pursuant to Section 7862 if a request for hearing is provided within the time permitted by the eviction or termination notice. If a hearing is requested within 10 days after service of a three day notice to pay rent or quit, that notice shall be operative until three days after a final decision is rendered in the hearing. No hearing shall be required if an eviction is noticed pursuant to Section 1161(4) of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(d) The procedure for eviction shall be pursuant to law, except that hearings pursuant to Section 7862 may be interposed upon timely request by the tenant.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsections (a) and (b) filed 11-30-80 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 46). Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 3-13-81.
2. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3-13-81 and filed 4-14-81 (Register 81, No. 16).

§ 7862. Appeal and Grievance Procedures.

(a) Each sponsor shall submit, together with its affirmative marketing program, proposed appeal and grievance procedures for resolving complaints by the sponsor concerning the sponsor's tenants and by its present or prospective tenants concerning the sponsor or the sponsor's other tenants. The proposed procedures shall be reviewed by and be subject to the approval of the Department, which shall require such modifications as may be necessary and appropriate. The procedures shall include feasible informal and formal mechanisms for dispute resolution as are appropriate given the nature of the housing sponsor, the size and nature of the development, and the characteristics of the tenants (including English language fluency). Where appropriate, the procedure shall provide that unresolved grievances or additional appeals shall be directed to the responsible agency for review and recommendation. The Department shall be the final authority for purpose of interpretation of the requirements of the Program, upon a written request for interpretation.

(b) A written copy of the approved grievance and appeal procedures shall be given to each tenant at the time of admission and thereafter as changes are approved, and to each prospective tenant upon rejection.

(c) Any grievance, including a contractual dispute, of a sponsor with another sponsor or its responsible agency shall be addressed first with the executive officer of that agency. If the matter is not resolved to the satisfaction of the sponsor, it may be addressed in writing to the Director of the Department.

(d) At a minimum, the tenant appeal and grievance procedure must include the following:

(1) Oral or written request for informal hearing written a reasonable time after the basis for appeal or grievance arose;

(2) A prompt informal hearing and written decision to the tenant including the right to a formal hearing;

(3) Oral or written request for a formal hearing within a reasonable time after such request and before an impartial person jointly selected by the sponsor and tenant. If they cannot agree on such a person, each may appoint a representative who, together, shall appoint a third person who shall comprise the hearing panel.

(4) The hearing be held in a manner to ensure fairness and the provision of basic safeguards of due process after at least three days written notice to the parties. The decision shall be based solely on a preponderance of evidence presented at the hearing.

(5) If the tenant or sponsor fails to appear at the hearing, the hearing officer or panel may, in its discretion, either postpone the matter for no more than five days or make a determination that the absent party waived the right to the hearing.

(6) Within two weeks of the request for the hearing, the hearing officer or panel shall prepare a written decision to be sent to the sponsor, tenant, responsible agency and Department.

(e) If the hearing relates to an eviction or termination, in addition to the requirements of subdivision (d), the procedure must include a requirement that the housing sponsor must first make a showing of "good cause" for eviction and must thereafter sustain the burden of proof as to that issue.

(f) Neither utilization of nor participation in any of the dispute resolution procedures in this section shall constitute a waiver of, or affect in any manner whatsoever, any rights of the tenant, prospective tenant, or sponsor may have to a trial de novo or judicial review in any judicial proceedings which may thereafter be brought in the matter.

§ 7864. Rent Increase Procedures.

(a) Base rents shall be adjusted within 60 days following adjustment of cost of living increases pursuant to Section 11453 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and publication of new area median incomes by the Department, and utility cost adjustments shall be made pursuant to Section 7806. A 30-day notice of utility allowance or base rent change shall be given to the tenant prior to the effective date of such an increase or decrease.

(b) Following completion of recertification of tenant income, a 30-day notice to the tenant of rent increase or decrease must be given prior to the effective date of such an adjustment.

(c) Prior to any change in the rent, the sponsor shall notify each tenant, in writing, of informal meetings with the sponsor to discuss the rent rate changes.

§ 7866. Return on Investment.

(a) A sponsor which is not a nonprofit corporation or a governmental agency shall be entitled to distribute earnings in an annual amount not to exceed six percent (6%) of the sponsor's actual investment in a rental housing development.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the Committee may authorize such sponsor to distribute earnings of an amount greater than six percent (6%) but not to exceed ten percent (10%) on a family rental housing development if it determines:

(1) that without the allowance of such greater rate of return the Department would not be able to comply with the requirements of Section 50736 of the Code, and

(2) that such greater rate of return is reasonable taking into account all the circumstances of the rental housing development.

(c) At a time to be determined by the Department, the responsible agency shall certify to the Department as to the amount of the sponsor's investment on which the allowable return will be calculated. Such amount shall include the sponsor's actual investment in the rental housing development, other than any unaccrued liabilities of the sponsor.

(d) The funds for return on investment may be distributed to owners only at the end of each fiscal year as determined in the regulatory agreement and after all project expenses have been paid, or funds set aside for their payment; all reserve requirements have been met; and excess annuity payments and rents have been recaptured. Any shortfall in return on investment may be made up from surplus project funds in future years.

(e) The provisions of this section do not apply to sponsor's return on investment under the rights of occupancy component.

HISTORY

1. Amendment of subsection (a) and new subsection (e) filed 11-13-80 as an emergency; effective upon filing (Register 80, No. 46). A Certificate of Compliance must be transmitted to OAL within 120 days or emergency language will be repealed on 3-13-81.

2. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3-13-81 and filed 4-14-81 (Register 81, No. 16).

§ 7868. Maintenance and Management.

(a) With respect to all units in the rental housing development, the sponsor is responsible for all management functions (including selection of tenants, recertification of family incomes, evictions and other terminations of tenants, and collection of rent) and all repair and maintenance of capital items.

(b) The standard of care under this section shall require that the units and common areas be maintained as required by local health and building or housing codes, that this subchapter be fully complied with, that the security of the State's interest not be endangered, and that the objectives of the Program be met.

(c) With the approval of the responsible agency and the Department, the sponsor may contract with a private or public entity for the performance of the services or duties required in subdivision (a). However, such an arrangement does not relieve the sponsor of responsibility for proper performance of these duties.

(d) The sponsor shall develop a management plan to be approved by the responsible agency and the Department. The plan shall include the following:

(1) The role and responsibility of the sponsor and its delegations of authority to the managing agent.

(2) Personnel policy and staffing arrangements.

(3) Plans and procedures for publicizing and achieving early occupancy.

(4) Procedures for determining tenant eligibility and for certifying and recertifying incomes.

(5) Plans for carrying out an effective maintenance and repair program.

(6) Rent collection policies and procedures.

(7) Program for maintaining adequate accounting records and handling necessary forms and vouchers.

(8) Plans for tenant-management relations.

(9) Social service programs, if any.

(10) Management agreement.

2. Certificate of Compliance transmitted to OAL 3-13-81 (Register 81, No. 16).

§ 7870. Transfer, Foreclosure, Breach, or Termination of Assistance.

(a) If the sponsor intends to sell or convey the rental housing development, express, prior written approval of both the local finance entity and the Department is required and may be given provided that the following terms shall be incorporated:

(1) The successor in interest to the grantor agrees to assume the obligation of the grantor relating to the Program.

(2) The successor in interest is an eligible sponsor and demonstrates that it can successfully own and operate the rental housing development.

(b) If the payment of development assistance is accomplished by way of loan, a deed of trust securing said loan shall provide, among other things, that the responsible agency, upon default in payment or conditions of the loan by the sponsor under the terms of the deed of trust and in the responsible agency's discretion, either may declare all sums secured thereby immediately due and payable by executing and recording or causing to be executed and recorded a notice of default and election of sale or by commencing an appropriate foreclosure action. In addition, upon the occurrence of a default, the responsible agency may, in person, by agent or by receiver appointed by a court enter upon and take possession of the rental housing development, collect all rents, and perform any acts necessary to maintain or operate it, in such a manner as to not cause the default of a superior creditor or the cessation of any other subsidies.

(c) If the payment of development assistance is accomplished by way of grant, the responsible agency, at its discretion, may demand repayment of the grant less an amount equivalent to the value of prior use of the premises or seek enforcement by proceeding at law and/or in equity, at the option of the responsible agency, against any person or persons or entity violating or attempting to violate any covenant or condition of the regulatory agreement.

(d) Prior to taking any action under subdivisions (b) or (c), the responsible agency shall:

(1) provide the sponsor with 30 days notice of the breach or default, and seek and encourage correction or compliance,

(2) provide the Department 14 days written notice of the breach and then the intention to foreclose, default, or litigate, and

(3) obtain Department approval for the action intended, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(e) In the event of foreclosure or forced sale, the purchaser shall take title subject to these conditions and limitations.

Article 6. CHFA Developments

§ 7871. Committee Advice and Actions.

(a) Excepting subdivision (b) and Section 7878(d), projects processed under the authority of this article shall not be subject to the provisions of Subchapter 1 of Chapter 6.5, commencing with Section 6900. However, the Committee shall be constituted as set forth in Section 6902(c) and may provide advice to the Director with respect to the compliance of the application with program objectives and requirements. The Committee's advice may include a recommendation to approve, approve with conditions, or reject the application.

(b) In addition to the power of review and recommendation set forth in Section 7878(d), the Committee may recommend denial of any action or decision by the Director within 45 days of that decision or at the next Committee meeting at which time the matter can be properly included in the agenda, whichever comes first. Such actions or decisions which are properly within the scope of review shall include, but not be limited to:

(1) the preparation or dissemination of the allocation plan,

(2) the establishment of the return on investment of any sponsor,

(3) the terms of commitment or disbursement of funds to the Agency,

(4) the approval of and amendments to the Interagency Agreement or other agreements with the Agency affecting the operation of the Program.
